RELEASE OF RESTRICTIVE USE COVENANT

(The Above Space For Recorder's Use Only)

CITY OF CHICAGO, an Illinois municipal corporation ("CITY"), pursuant to a February 16, 2000 ordinance ("Vacation Ordinance") which Ordinance was recorded on August 8, 2000 with the Office of the Cook County Recorder of Deeds as Document Number 00604708, and is attached hereto as Exhibit A, and provided for an industrial program ("Industrial Program") alley vacation ("Vacation") of all of the east-west 10 foot public alley in the block bounded by W, Randolph Street, W. Washington Boulevard, N. Aberdeen Street and N. Carpenter Street ("Subject Property"), as legally described on Exhibit B attached hereto.

The Vacation Ordinance provided that the Vacation of the Subject Property was conditioned upon a restrictive use covenant running with the land ("Restrictive Use Covenant"), that required the Subject Property "be used only for manufacturing (including production, processing, cleaning, servicing, testing and repair) of materials, goods or products only, and for those structures and additional uses which are reasonably necessary to permit such manufacturing use including the location of necessary facilities, storage, employee and customer parking, and other similar uses and facilities".

The Restrictive Use Covenant was recorded on August 8, 2000 with the Office of the Cook County Recorder of Deeds as Document Number 00604709 and is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

Section 4 of the Vacation Ordinance sets forth that the Restrictive Use Covenant "may be released or abandoned by the City only upon approval of the City Council which may condition its approval upon the payment of such additional compensation which it deems to be equal to the benefits accruing because of the release or abandonment".

The City, upon due investigation and consideration, has determined that the public interest now warrants a release of the Restrictive Use Covenant reserved in Section 4 of the Vacation Ordinance for the payment of such additional compensation which it deems to be equal to the benefits accruing to the Developer because of such release of the Restrictive Use Covenant.

The City hereby releases the Restrictive Use Covenant from the Subject Property, as legally described on Exhibit B, attached.

SECTION V: CERTIFICATIONS

B. FURTHER CERTIFICATIONS

B.2 (a-e) With respect to Section V, paragraph B.2 (a-e), the Authorized Representative certifies based on the Authorized Representative's knowledge, information, and belief, upon due inquiry, that such statements are accurate with respect to the trustee of the Disclosing Party. Based on the Authorized Representative's knowledge, information, and belief, upon due inquiry, JPMorgan Chase & Co. and/or its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Firm") are defendants or putative defendants in numerous legal proceedings, including private civil litigations and regulatory/government investigations. The litigations range from individual actions involving a single plaintiff to class action lawsuits with potentially millions of class members. Investigations involve both formal and informal proceedings, by both governmental agencies and self-regulatory organizations. These legal proceedings are at varying stages of adjudication, arbitration or investigation, and involve each of the Firm's lines of business and geographies and a wide variety of claims (including common law tort and contract claims and statutory antitrust, securities and consumer protection claims), some of which present novel legal theories. Based on current knowledge, the Firm believes it has asserted meritorious defenses to the claims asserted against it in its currently outstanding legal proceedings, intends to defend itself vigorously in all such matters and does not believe that any pending legal proceeding would have a material effect on the Firm's performance of the services contemplated by the RFP. For further discussion, please refer to JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s publicly-filed disclosures, including its most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (available at:

<http://investor.shareholder.com/jpmorganchase/sec.cfm>). Reference is also made to a press release issued on May 20, 2015 concerning settlements related to foreign exchange activities (available at <http://investor.shareholder.com/jpmorganchase/releasedetail.cfm?ReleaseID=914105>).

On May 20, 2015, JPMorgan Chase & Co. entered a plea of guilty to a single violation of federal antitrust law and is currently awaiting sentencing by the court. Additional information regarding the plea and resolutions of other investigations related to the Firm's foreign exchange activities is available via May 20, 2015 press release (available at <http://investor.shareholder.com/jpmorganchase/releasedetail.cfm?ReleaseID=914105>).

B.3 (a&d) The Authorized Representative certifies on behalf of the Disclosing Party the accuracy of the statements contained in Section V, paragraph B.3 (a & d) only as to the Disclosing Party and its trustee. Based on the Authorized Representative's knowledge, information, and belief, upon due inquiry, JPMorgan Chase & Co. and/or its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Firm") are defendants or putative defendants in numerous legal proceedings, including private civil litigations and regulatory/government investigations. The litigations range from individual actions involving a single plaintiff to class action lawsuits with potentially millions of class members. Investigations involve both formal and informal proceedings, by both governmental agencies and self-regulatory organizations. These legal proceedings are at varying stages of adjudication, arbitration or investigation, and involve each of the Firm's lines of business and geographies and a wide variety of claims (including common law tort and contract claims and statutory antitrust, securities and consumer protection claims), some of which present novel legal theories. Based on current knowledge, the Firm believes it has asserted meritorious defenses to the claims asserted against it in its currently outstanding legal proceedings, intends to defend itself vigorously in all such matters and does not believe that any pending legal proceeding would have a material effect on the Firm's performance of the services contemplated by the RFP. Reference is also made to a press release issued on May 20, 2015 concerning settlements related to foreign exchange activities (available at <http://investor.shareholder.com/jpmorganchase/releasedetail.cfm?ReleaseID=914105>). Furthermore, with respect to the Living Wage ordinance, the Disclosing Party has not, during the five years before the execution date of this EDS, been determined to have violated the provisions of Municipal Code Section 2-92-610 (Living Wage Ordinance) as it relates to base wages.

Authorized Representative's knowledge, information, and belief, upon due inquiry, the Disclosing Party has not been convicted or adjudged guilty of agreement or collusion among bidders or prospective bidders, in restraint of freedom of competition by agreement to bid a fixed price or otherwise. Based on the Authorized Representative's knowledge, information, and belief, upon due inquiry, the Disclosing Party has not made an admission of such conduct described in B.3 a. or b. above that is a matter of record, and has not been prosecuted for such conduct, except to the extent set forth in the summaries of material legal proceedings involving JPMorgan Chase & Co. or its subsidiaries within the last five years are referenced in JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s Form 10-K, Form 10-Q, and any Form 8-K filing, all as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and all available through J.P.
