CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF GLORIA D. TWINE

WHEREAS, in His infinite wisdom, almighty God has granted eternal peace to His faithful servant Gloria D. Twine, an outstanding citizen and pillar of her community; and

WHEREAS she started her life journey in Birmingham, Alabama on October 12, 1934, as Gloria Thomas, the youngest of four siblings born to the union of Reverend Huey Thomas, Sr and Anna Louverda Taft. Her three older brothers and sisters, Audria M. Thomas Simpson Huntington, Huey T. Thomas, Jr., and Andrew L. Thomas, M.D. as well as her parents, all preceded her in passing; and

WHEREAS Gloria attended Arthur Harold Parker Vocational School, in Birmingham and matriculated to Alabama A&M University in Huntsville before uniting in Holy Matrimony to the late David R. Twine. The couple lived in the Chicago area for many decades where Gloria worked for and retired as a faithful and dedicated public school employee of the Chicago Public Schools after many years of serving the community. She is still known today by many as "Mama Twine" as she was like a mother to the many students whose lives she touched; and

WHEREAS Gloria Twine was a steadfast member of Carter Temple CME Church on Chicago's South Side where she served in various capacities for many years until her recent transition. In all ways a bastion of her community, she regularly volunteered with block parties, graduations, and other community events. She was also active with many South Side aldermen and ward organizations; and

WHEREAS, The Honorable Roderick Sawyer, Alderman of the 6th Ward, has informed this august body of the passing of this exceptional octogenarian; now therefore

BE IT RESOLVED that we, the mayor and members of the City of Chicago City Council, gathered this 18th Day of January, 2023 AD, do hereby express our sincere sorrow upon the passing of Gloria Twine and extend our deepest condolences to her many family members and friends.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be prepared and presented to the family of Gloria Twine.
