RESOLUTION MEMORIALIZING THE LIFE OF MRS. JOSEPHINE HOLLOWAY

Whereas, this august body has been informed of her passing by the Honorable Emma Mitts, Alderman of the 37th Ward; and

Whereas, we must all make our final transitions knowing that our treasures are not here on earth but in Heaven above. God Almighty called Mrs. Josephine Holloway to her eternal reward and she has received her crown of life on Friday, June 29, 2012. II Corinthians 5:1 "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heaven."

Whereas, Mrs. Josephine Holloway was born June 3, 1932 in Chicago, Illinois to the late Hadley and Mary Moriah; and

Whereas, Mrs. Josephine Holloway was a respectable employee of United Airlines from 1965 until her well-earned retirement in 1987; and

Whereas, Not one of us can understand the wisdom of our Heavenly Father when he takes one of our loved ones from us. We know that death is hurtful but certain. Yet we know that God is a present help in the time of sorrow. He will carry us during our most vulnerable times and restore unto us exceeding joy. Psalms 147:3 "He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds."

Whereas, Mrs. Josephine Holloway was a vital and active member of her family who loved God and enjoyed life to its fullest. She will be sorely missed, but the memory of her character, will live on in those who knew and loved her; and

Whereas, Mrs. Josephine Holloway leaves to cherish her memory: her late loving husband, Elma C. Holloway, and her eldest son Tensiley M. Holloway, both of whom preceded her in death; She leaves to cherish her memory son Stanley Holloway and daughters Machelie Holloway and Trina Thomas; Son-in-laws: Ken Thomas and Ray Johnson; Daughters-in-law: Candy Holloway; five grandchildren; three sisters and five brothers; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Be It Resolved, That we, the Mayor and members of the City Council of the City of Chicago, gathered here in assembly this Twenty-fifth day of July, 2011 A.D., do hereby express our sorrow on the passing of Ms. Mrs. Josephine Holloway and hereby extend to her family our sincere condolences.

Be It Further Resolved, That a suitable copy of this resolution be prepared and presented to the family of Mrs. Josephine Holloway.
