ORDINANCE

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO:

SECTION 1. Chapter 8-4 of the Municipal Code of Chicago is hereby amended by adding a new section 8-4-052, underscored as follows:

8-4-052 STOLEN CELLULAR PHONES

- a) For the purposes of this section:
1. The term "unlock" shall include any process by which the software or hardware of a wireless communication device is modified so as to permit the device's use with multiple service providers.
 2. The term "wireless communication device" shall include any device through which personal wireless services, as defined in 47 U.S.C. 332 (c)(7)(C)(i), are transmitted.
- b) Any person who unlocks, or attempts to unlock, a wireless communication device in exchange for a fee or other compensation must:
1. Require the requesting party to provide a driver's license or other government-issued identification showing the party's name, date of birth, and address.
 2. Record the Mobile Equipment Identifier (MEID), International Mobile Station Equipment Identity (IMEI) or Electronic Serial Number (ESN) of the wireless communication device.
 3. Provide, on a weekly basis, the information required in Subsections (b)(1) and (b)(2) to the superintendent of police by submitting a LeadsOnline electronic reporting form. If the person does not have internet access, however, the person can seek permission from the superintendent of police to use an alternative reporting system acceptable to the superintendent.
- c) This section shall be enforceable by the department of police and the department of business affairs and consumer protection. Any person violating this section shall be fined not less than $500.00 nor more than $1,000.00 for each offense.

SECTION 2. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect ten days following its passage and publication.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions.

2. It is essential to ensure that all data is entered correctly and consistently.

3. Regular audits should be conducted to verify the accuracy of the information.

4. The second part of the document outlines the various methods used for data collection.

5. These methods include direct observation, interviews, and surveys.

6. Each method has its own strengths and weaknesses, and should be chosen based on the specific needs of the study.

7. The third part of the document describes the process of data analysis.

8. This involves identifying patterns and trends in the data, and testing hypotheses.

9. The final part of the document provides a summary of the findings and conclusions.

10. It is important to note that the results of this study are preliminary and require further research.

11. The data shows a clear trend towards increased participation in community activities.

12. This is likely due to the implementation of the new program.

13. The results are promising, but more data is needed to confirm these findings.

14. The next step is to conduct a larger scale study to evaluate the long-term impact.

15. In conclusion, the study has provided valuable insights into the effectiveness of the program.

16. These findings will be used to inform future policy decisions.

17. The authors would like to thank the participants and staff for their contribution to this study.

18. The research was supported by the National Science Foundation.

19. The authors have no conflicts of interest to declare.

20. The data is available upon request.

21. The study was conducted in accordance with the ethical guidelines of the Institutional Review Board.

22. The authors have no other publications related to this study.

23. The study was published in the Journal of Community Psychology.

24. The authors are available for consultation.
