Corinthians 1:3-4 New International Version (NIV)

Praise to the God of All Comfort

3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, 4 who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God.

WHEREAS, It is with great sadness that the members of this Chamber learned of God, in His Infinite Wisdom, calling home a most beloved citizen, Ms. Doris Louise Ivy, to her eternal reward; and

WHEREAS, The Chicago City Council has been informed of her transition by the Honorable Walter Burnett, Jr., Alderman of the 27th Ward; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Doris L. Ivy was born on April 23, 1933, to the late Jesse Clark White, Sr. and Julia White, in Alton, Illinois, then at an early age, she and her family moved to Chicago, Illinois; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Doris L. Ivy married Arthur Lee Crume, Sr., and of that union, one child was born. Later, marrying the late Arthur Ivy, they were the devoted parents of nine additional children, and in turn, receiving a wealth of grandchildren and great grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Doris L. Ivy served this earthly kingdom lovingly as a daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. She was also a member of the Greater St. John Missionary Baptist Church, singing in their choir; member of the William V. Banks Grand Lodge Order of Eastern Stars, mentoring women on leadership and in bible study; and a volunteer for the 27th Ward Regular Democratic Organization, supporting the senior citizen community along with being a Judge of Election for more than thirty years; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Doris L. Ivy, a gracious kidney transplant survivor, was a staunch supporter of the Organ and Tissue Donor Program of Illinois, she was often promoting the importance of this life saving initiative and making appearances alongside her revered brother and friend, the Honorable Jesse C. White, Jr. – Illinois Secretary of State; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Doris L. Ivy, although petite in stature, always displayed a bigger than life smile that was infectious. She loved traveling, gaming, and was a phenomenal cook that enjoyed preparing new recipes; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Doris L. Ivy will surely be missed, she leaves a host of loving family and friends to cherish fond memories of her life and remarkable legacy of civic duty and giving; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the Mayor, and the members of the Chicago City Council assembled here this Twenty-fifth Day of July, 2018, do hereby express our sincerest condolences to the family, friends, and countless others, whose life was touched by Ms. Doris L. Ivy; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to the family of Doris L. Ivy, as a token of our acknowledgement and respect.
