ORDINANCE

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO:

SECTION 1. Section 4-60-140 of the Municipal Code of the City of Chicago is hereby amended by deleting the language stricken through and by inserting the language underscored, as follows:

4-60-140 Prohibited activities.

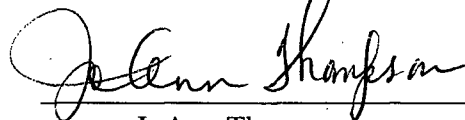

(Omitted text is unaffected by this ordinance)

(h) It shall be unlawful for any licensee or any officer, associate, member, representative, agent or employee of a licensee to divide a manufacturer's package containing more than one ~~can or bottle~~ container of beer, malt liquor or ale, if the capacity of an individual ~~can or bottle~~ container is 16 ounces or less, in order to sell an individual ~~can or bottle~~ container, except for consumption on the licensed premises.

(i) It shall be unlawful for any licensee or any officer, associate, member, representative, agent or employee of a licensee to sell, give, offer or expose for sale, or deliver an individual ~~can or bottle~~ container of beer, malt liquor or ale with a capacity of 16 ounces or less, except for consumption on the licensed premises.

(j) It shall be unlawful for any licensee or any officer, associate, member, representative, agent or employee of a licensee to sell, give, offer or expose for sale, or deliver any novelty-type alcoholic liquor container that, by virtue of the material from which it is composed or by its shape or design, or that by its ordinary and customary use is likely to mislead the consumer as to the alcoholic character of the product, except for consumption on the licensed premises. A "novelty-type" container is an alcoholic liquor container which uses the same shape or design as another non- alcoholic food product, but does not include cans or bottles or other containers as allowed by this section. The local liquor control commissioner shall have the authority to publish regulations for implementation of this subsection, including identifying specific products and categories of products falling within the prohibition.

SECTION 2. This ordinance shall be effective 30 days after passage and publication.

JoAnn Thompson
Alderman, 16th Ward
