RESOLUTION

Whereas, The Center for Urban Research and Learning at Loyola University Chicago is celebrating its 20th Anniversary with a reception on November 12, 2015; and

Whereas, Through its research and partnerships, the Center for Urban Research and Learning creates innovative solutions that promote equity and opportunity in communities throughout the Chicago metropolitan region; and

Whereas, The Center provides links to regional, national, and international networks in pursuit of new ideas and approaches that address grassroots needs; and

Whereas, It pursues this goal by building and supporting collaborative research and educational efforts; and

Whereas, These partnerships connect Loyola faculty and students with community and nonprofit organizations, civic groups, and government agencies; and

Whereas, Such collaborations effectively link knowledge in the community with knowledge in the university, and therefore help to build sustainable communities that enhance the quality of life for all citizens; and

Whereas, Nearly 500 students and 100 faculty members have worked on more than 150 collaborative projects in partnership with 300 organizations throughout the City of Chicago and beyond its borders. Now, therefore,

Be it resolved, That we, the Mayor and members of the City Council of the City of Chicago, gathered here this day of November 18, 2015, do hereby express our gratitude to Loyola University Chicago for establishing The Center for Urban Research and Learning and promoting equity and opportunity; and

Be it further resolved, that a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to Loyola University Chicago.
