SUBSTITUTE
ORDINANCE.
Re-styled As ORDER

SECTION 1. The Budget Director, the Corporation Counsel, and other City officers whose responsibilities include the preparation or review of delegate agency grant agreements shall ensure that the provisions of Section 2 of this Order are adhered to with regard to all such agreements that include the City of Chicago as a party.

SECTION 2. All delegate agency grant agreements shall include language requiring substantially as follows: (a) if the delegate agency provides any services to children under the delegate agency grant agreement (the "Services") the delegate agency shall, at its own cost and expense, comply with all applicable Federal, State and local laws, ordinances, policies, procedures, regulations, rules, requirements and executive orders relating to background checks, fingerprinting and screening procedures as in effect from time to time (the "Legal Requirements"); (b) in connection with the Services, the delegate agency will not permit any adult, whether a member of its staff or otherwise, to be involved with the Services or to have direct contact with children if any applicable Legal Requirements would prohibit such adult from having such involvement or contact; and (c) the delegate agency will retain and make available to the City, state and federal agencies governing funds provided under the delegate agency grant agreement, evidence of compliance with the Legal Requirements.

SECTION 3. This Order shall be in force and effect upon passage and publication.
