Title:	Declaration of Godparent's Day on July 17, 2020, in Chicago in recognition of City's support for healthy, extended families
Committee(s) Assignment:

Godparent's Day Resolution

WHEREAS, The bond between godparents, children and parents is an important social relationship that plays a vital role in the community-village concept of raising our children; and

WHEREAS, The role of a godparent is a longstanding, rich tradition, practiced by diverse communities of faiths, nationalities and countries throughout the world: and

WHEREAS, Godparent relationships extend the support network for children, parents, and families, creating mutual commitments and shared responsibilities to stabilize and strengthen the family backbone of our communities; and

WHEREAS, Godparents promise to foster child health, development, and spiritual growth, encouraging character, values, and decision-making skills amongst our youth that contribute to community focus and good citizenship: and

WHEREAS, By recognizing the commitment of godparents to children, parents, families, and communities, our city encourages and meaningfully supports healthy extended families and child development; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the Mayor, and Members of the City Council of the City of Chicago, assembled this 20th Day of May 2020, do hereby join with families, communities, and faith-based leaders in recognition of godparents; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, We declare July 17, 2020, Godparent's Day in the City of Chicago; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the city will continue to foster greater awareness of the vital role of godparents among Chicagoans, and hereby affirms to promote activities and programs that recognize the role of godparents in the lives of children, parents, families, and communities.
