ORDINANCE

WHEREAS, The City of Chicago ("City") is a municipal corporation and a home rule unit of government under Section 6(a), Article VII of the 1970 Constitution of the State of Illinois; and

WHEREAS, Pursuant to an ordinance adopted by the City Council of the City (the "City Council") on December 11, 2013 and published in the Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council for said date at pages 71315 to 71355, the City authorized the execution of an agreement (the "Agreement") with the Chicago Cubs Baseball Club, LLC (the "Cubs") regarding, among other things, the scheduling of certain professional baseball games and Events (as defined in the Agreement) at Wrigley Field and the Cubs' compliance with certain neighborhood protection requirements; and

WHEREAS, The City and the Cubs executed the Agreement with an effective date of February 2, 2014; and

WHEREAS, Beginning in late 2019, a new and highly communicable type of Coronavirus, now commonly known as COVID-19, emerged and began to spread rapidly. Despite efforts to contain COVID-19, it continues to spread throughout Chicago and the State of Illinois; and

WHEREAS, Because the COVID-19 pandemic, gatherings of people were prohibited in 2020, resulting in no concerts in Wrigley Field that year; and

WHEREAS, Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, only a limited number concerts will take place at Wrigley Field in 2021, fewer than the number allowed under Section 4-156-430;

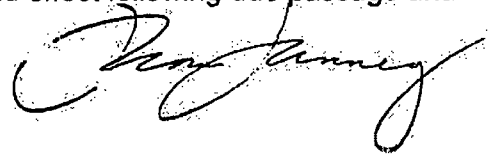

WHEREAS, The Cubs would like the City Council to consider allowing it a one-time departure from the foregoing limitations; namely, that the Cubs be allowed to host a concert at Wrigley Field on Thursday, September 16, 2021, thus allowing a concert on a Thursday night after Labor Day, which is prohibited by Section 4-156-430; and

WHEREAS, The one-event scheduling allowance provided by this ordinance is specifically and explicitly for one time only, and is of no precedential effect whatsoever; now, therefore,
