ORDINANCE

WHEREAS, On January 27, 2021, the City Council of the City of Chicago passed an ordinance (O2020-6207) providing protections to Pilsen neighborhood residents against economically driven displacement (the “Pilsen Ordinance”); and

WHEREAS, Due to an administrative error, an incorrect version of the Pilsen Ordinance was provided to the City Clerk for filing and recording; and

WHEREAS, The incorrectly filed version erroneously omitted new Municipal Code text related to the types of residential structures that can be established and the complete list of applicable zoning districts; and

WHEREAS, The correct version of the Pilsen Ordinance was clearly described in oral testimony and written materials before the Zoning Committee, and was the version that was intended to be voted on by that Committee and by the City Council; and

WHEREAS, It is necessary and appropriate to correct the text of the Pilsen Ordinance so that the Pilsen Ordinance accurately reflects the intent of the City Council and can function protectively as envisioned; now, therefore,
