Corinthians 1:3-4 New International Version (NIV)

Praise to the God of All Comfort

3. Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, 4. who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God.

WHEREAS, It is with great sadness that the members of this Chamber learned of God, in His Infinite Wisdom having brought to close the life of Antuajn Hatter, calling him home to his eternal reward on November 27, 2018; and

WHEREAS, The Chicago City Council has been informed of his death by the Honorable Walter Burnett, Jr., Alderman of the 27th Ward; and

WHEREAS, Antuajn was born a twin son to parents Angelo Hatter, Sr. and Latrice Burnett, in Chicago, Illinois, on April 18, 1999. He was also the nephew of the Honorable Alderman Walter Burnett, Jr.; and

WHEREAS, Antuajn was a graduate of William H. Brown Elementary School and CICS-Chicago Quest High School. He enjoyed the study of computer information technology, gaming and other "geeky" stuff, playing basketball, traveling, and over the years, participated in various youth enrichment programs across the City; and

WHEREAS, Antuajn, being a member of a family known for their civic service and giving back to the community, loved volunteering. In his short nineteen years, he will be remembered for always being willing to lend a helping hand, a hug, a warm smile, a friendly conversation or a funny joke; and

WHEREAS, Antuajn now leaves to cherish fond memories of his life: mother, Latrice; twin brother, Angelo; sisters, Carrodine, Jennifer, and Ashley; brothers, Devon, Floyd, and Carlos; and a host of other loving relatives and friends. His absence from this earth will leave a sorrowful void in the lives of all who knew him; now, therefore,
