DialogueDirect, Inc. Code of Practice

DialogueDirect Code of Practice for the Personal Solicitation of Committed Gifts ("Face to Face Street" and "Door to Door Fundraising")

1. We always tell potential donors clearly that we are paid fundraisers.
2. We always carry and display ID so that any potential donor can verify who we are, whom we are working for, and on whose behalf we are fundraising.
3. We always represent our Not for Profit Organization at the time, in the place, and in the manner that has been previously agreed upon, both with the NPO and with the relevant site owner or local authority, and as directed by our Team Guide or other responsible agency personnel.
4. We always explain to a donor how the NPO will communicate with them after subscribing; if they are likely to receive a follow-up phone call, we inform them of this.
5. We always ensure that forms with personal details provided by donors are handled at all stages in a secure manner.
6. We always end a conversation in a polite and respectful manner as soon as we are asked to.
7. We always ensure, wherever possible, that if a member of the public has a complaint, a full and accurate record of the complaint and the complainant's contact details are taken so that action can be taken promptly and appropriately. We will also offer the complainant contact details for a person in authority who can respond to their concerns.
8. We never say or do anything that could offend or harass people, and we do not use manipulative techniques or pressure-tactics.
9. We never confuse or mislead the public and we never say, do, or display anything related to the NPO for which we have not been given express permission by the NPO.
10. We never behave while on duty in any way that might bring the NPO or DialogueDirect into disrepute.

Additional Information

on the back are from Souvenir Journal.

These profound words Jihad so confidently told his mother the day before he passed from This life. This foundation is named in his honor and with his kind of spirit. He will never be able to contribute directly to science, but his foundation will. It has been established to help persons who have a desire and the potential to be scientists or artists. However, due to unfortunate circumstances, their dream may never become a reality. One of the major focuses of the foundation will be with those who "fall by the wayside," human beings who have been "written off by society."

JIHAD BASHIR was a caring, loving, and sharing child who not only wanted to be a scientist, but enjoyed writing, drawing, and singing. This youngster opened his heart to help the young as well as the old. Passing from this life at the tender age of 14, not a day would go by that he wasn't assisting someone. When Jihad was 10 years old, he began traveling for four years, with his mother, to and from Mississippi. They were not going for a vacation nor for relaxation, their journeying was to care for his ailing grandmother. Untiring and affectionately each morning he woke up and asked, "Mama, what do you want me to do?"

It is with this kind of spirit THE JIHAD BASHIR SUPPORT FOUNDATION is established. It will seek out families whose aspiration is to do great things, yet, they have been unable to do so. Whatever kind of aid the foundation can give, it will. It may be financial, it may be tutoring, or a child might need encouragement from someone who cares. Some may need help the foundation can't provide, however, it will refer them to other resources. It will work in the realm of a real family.

The foundation will concentrate on quality, not quantity. It will work within the scope of its capacity to offer the most preeminent service it can. The goal is to help applicants reach their fullest potential. It is not set up for show, but for loving, caring, and sharing with needy persons.
