Darius D' Arco Teague was born November 4th, 1991 in Chicago Illinois. As the oldest born child to mother Eyvette Newell-Dobbs and father Michael Teague, Darius is one of 11 children in his family. Darius attended John M. Smith Elementary School and Al Raby College Prep, where he participated on his school's football team. Following his high school graduation, Darius attended Harold Washington College, to pursue a degree in Film Scripting.

After graduating from Harold Washington, Darius served his country by joining the U.S Army in 2014, where he served as an Automated Logistical Specialist CRS. During his time in service, he was awarded the National Defense Service Medal, the Global War on Terrorism Medal, Korea Defense Service Medal, the Army Service Ribbon, and Overseas Service.

Following his service across the world, he returned home with an honorable discharge and started working as a freight distributor and customer service representative, until his untimely death on October 30th, 2021.

Throughout his life, Darius was very intelligent, smart and respectful of others. He exemplified an extraordinary young man and was a great inspiration for his younger siblings and family members.

Nominator – Eyvette Newell-Dobbs (mother)

Honorary Street Sign – Darius D’Arco Teague

Location: S Morgan St from W 14th St to W 14th PL
