U.S. Bank National Association itself is a mortgage lender. U.S. Bank National Association is also one of the largest corporate trustees in the United States and in such capacity is trustee of numerous mortgage-backed securitization trusts that each hold multiple real property mortgages. From time to time, mortgage borrowers in Chicago default on payment of real estate taxes or otherwise fail to comply with City of Chicago's requirements with respect to certain mortgaged properties. This can result in legal action against the borrower by the City of Chicago, which legal action may name U.S. Bank National Association as the mortgage holder (either in its individual capacity or in its capacity as a trustee). As of December 22, 2014, U.S. Bank National Association was aware of outstanding claims against it (individually or in its capacity as trustee) totaling $154,040.89 wherein the City of Chicago or one of its departments or divisions (including the Department of Buildings and the Department of Streets and Sanitation) is the creditor. The vast majority of this amount is related to properties that U.S. Bank National Association holds in trust and for which it does not do the servicing. U.S. Bank National Association, both in its individual capacity and in its capacity as a trustee meets periodically with various City officials to address these claims.

If the letters "NA," the word "None," or no response appears on the lines above, it will be conclusively presumed that the Disclosing Party certified to the above statements.

8. To the best of the Disclosing Party's knowledge after reasonable inquiry, the following is a complete list of all current employees of the Disclosing Party who were, at any time during the 12-month period preceding the execution date of this EDS, an employee, or elected or appointed official, of the City of Chicago (if none, indicate with "N/A" or "none").

9. To the best of the Disclosing Party's knowledge after reasonable inquiry, the following is a complete list of all gifts that the Disclosing Party has given or caused to be given, at any time during the 12-month period preceding the execution date of this EDS, to an employee, or elected or appointed official, of the City of Chicago. For purposes of this statement, a "gift" does not include: (i) anything made generally available to City employees or to the general public, or (ii) food or drink provided in the course of official City business and having a retail value of less than $20 per recipient (if none, indicate with "N/A" or "none"). As to any gift listed below, please also list the name of the City recipient.

We further pledge that none of our affiliates is, and none of them will become, a predatory lender as defined in Chapter 2-32 of the Municipal Code. We understand that becoming a predatory lender or becoming an affiliate of a predatory lender may result in the loss of the privilege of doing business with the City."

If the Disclosing Party is unable to make this pledge because it or any of its affiliates (as defined in Section 2-32-455(b) of the Municipal Code) is a predatory lender within the meaning of Chapter 2-32 of the Municipal Code, explain here (attach additional pages if necessary):

Statement Regarding Slavery Era Business

U.S. Bank National Association was formed from the following major banks: (1) Star Bank, National Association (Cincinnati, Ohio) changed its name to Firststar Bank, National Association (Cincinnati, Ohio) effective February 1999; (2) Mercantile Bank National Association (St. Louis, Missouri) merged into Firststar Bank, National Association (Cincinnati, Ohio) effective April 2000; (3) United States National Bank of Oregon (Portland, Oregon) merged with First Bank, National Association under the title U.S. Bank National Association effective August 1997; (4) U.S. Bank National Association merged into Firststar Bank, National Association, and the succeeding bank, changed its name to U.S. Bank National Association effective August 2001. These banks acquired through mergers and acquisitions numerous smaller banks. There are five hundred and forty-two U.S. Bank National Association predecessors. Thirty-five predecessors were founded before the abolition of slavery in December 1865. Thirteen of the pre-1866 predecessors were established in southern slave-holding states and territories, including Kansas, Kentucky, Missouri, and Tennessee.

In reviewing historical records held in various external repositories in accordance with the research requirements as set forth in the City of Chicago Office of the Corporation Counsel opinion letter dated April 29, 2004 (attached hereto), U.S. Bank National Association has identified external records of its predecessors which necessitate disclosure. The conveyance records, while showing no record of direct ownership of enslaved individuals did contain records of founders and/or directors of predecessor banks owning enslaved individuals, as well as a record where an enslaved individual was the collateral for a loan. Specifically, the first president of predecessor Marion National Bank of Lebanon, Kentucky (founded in 1856), Benedict Spalding, owned two enslaved individuals in 1850. In 1860 someone with a similar name "Benedict Spalding" is also listed as having owned fourteen enslaved individuals. In addition, certain members of the Marion National Bank of Lebanon's board of directors (called "commissioners") owned approximately forty-seven enslaved individuals in total (the records include abbreviated names, which we conclude may be references to commissioners). The first president of predecessor First National Bank of Clarksville, Tennessee (founded in 1865), S.F. Beaumont, owned one enslaved individual in 1860. The first president of predecessor St. Louis Building and Savings Association, Missouri (formed in 1857), Marshall Brotherton, owned ten enslaved individuals in 1850 and four enslaved individuals in 1860. Merchants Bank (founded in 1857) and Bank of St. Louis (founded in 1857), both predecessors, along with a group of other St. Louis firms, issued a mortgage to Charles McLaran that was secured by his property, which included an unspecified number of enslaved individuals. However, the 1860 Federal Census Slave Schedule for St. Louis provided that Charles McLaran owned thirteen enslaved individuals.

The above is only a summary. U.S. Bank National Association has previously provided the City of Chicago with supporting attachments.

U.S. Bancorp, the parent company of U.S. Bank National Association, was founded after the slavery era and has no separate assets or activities that pre-date the 20th century. As such, it has no disclosure separate from that of the bank.

Re: Question regarding Economic Disclosure Statement and Affidavit, Part VI ("Certification Regarding Slavery Era Business") and Resolution pending before the Joint Committee on Finance and Human Relations

Dear Alderman Burke:

In a letter dated April 26, 2004, you indicated that a special committee of the City Council, consisting of the combined Committee on Finance and the Committee on Human Relations, currently has under consideration a resolution that raises certain issues regarding interpretation of Section 2-92-585 of the Chicago Municipal Code, the Business, Corporate and Slavery Era Insurance Ordinance. That ordinance requires every city contractor to "complete an affidavit verifying that the contractor has searched any and all records of the company or any predecessor company regarding records of investments or profits from slavery or slaveholder insurance policies during the slavery era. The names of any slaves or slaveholders described in those records must be disclosed in the affidavit." (Emphasis supplied)

The affidavit requirement of Section 2-92-585 has been incorporated into the standard Economic Disclosure Statement ("EDS") completed by city contractors as Part VI, entitled "Slavery Certification." The EDS requires an entity contracting with the city to verify that it has "searched any and all records of the Undersigned and any and all predecessor entities for records of investments or profits from slavery, the slave industry, or shareholder insurance policies." (Emphasis supplied) The EDS form then requires the contracting entity to disclose the results of that search.

You have asked specifically whether it is "reasonable to interpret the language 'records of the undersigned and any and all predecessor entities' to mean [the contracting entity's] records and the records of its predecessor entities." For the reasons that follow, it is the opinion of this office that the answer is in the affirmative. A search required for proper compliance with and disclosure under Section 2-92-585 must include all known records of the contracting entity and each of its predecessor entities, to which records the contracting entity has or can obtain access.

Hon. Edward M. Burke

Neither the ordinance nor any Illinois decision defines a “predecessor” entity of a city contractor. Under the general rules of statutory construction, the word should be given its ordinary meaning. Black’s Law Dictionary defines “predecessor” as “one who goes or has gone before; the correlative of ‘successor’Applied to a body politic or corporate, in the same sense as ‘ancestor’ is applied to a natural person.” This simple analogy indicates that every known antecedent entity of a city contractor – acquired entities, components of earlier mergers, entities acquired by and subsumed into a prior entity that became a predecessor of a contracting entity – should be treated as a predecessor. This is especially appropriate when one considers the preamble to the ordinance adding Section 2-92-385 to the Chicago Municipal Code. The fifth paragraph of the preamble (found at page 94891 of the Journal of Proceedings of the City Council of October 2, 2002) refers to records located in the archives of current insurance firms, documenting slave insurance policies “issued by a predecessor insurance firm; the sixth paragraph (id.) refers to “insurers and businesses whose successors remain in existence today.” Thus the City Council recognized that, as the American economy has expanded and become more complex, modern business may include different business disciplines (insurers and other businesses).

The appropriate extent of the mandated records search can also be discerned from the preamble. The final paragraph of the preamble (p. 91892) contains a finding of the City Council that entities “doing business with the City of Chicago shall take any and all steps in good faith to disclose any records within their possession or knowledge relating to investments or profits from the slave industry including insurance policies...” (Emphasis supplied). In order to implement this statement of the Council’s intent, a contracting entity may not ignore records that are archived outside the entity’s possession (e.g. in a museum, university library, historical society or trade association). To ignore deliberately the existence of such known records could not possibly constitute a “good faith” effort to take “any and all steps” to document the contractor’s history. The breadth of the City Council’s desired disclosure also led this department, in the revision of the EDS necessary to implement Section 2-92-585, to change the ordinance’s disjunctive in the reference to “any and all records of the [contracting] company or its predecessors” to a conjunctive in the EDS (“any and all records of the [contracting entity] and any and all predecessor entities”).
