Dear Taxpayer:

This is in response to your Apr. 04, 2011, request for information regarding your tax-exempt status.

Our records indicate that you were recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(03) of the Internal Revenue Code in a determination letter issued in December 1971.

Our records also indicate that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because you are described in section(s) 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Please refer to our website www.irs.gov/eo for information regarding filing requirements. Specifically, section 6033(j) of the Code provides that failure to file an annual information return for three consecutive years results in revocation of tax-exempt status as of the filing due date of the third return for organizations required to file. We will publish a list of organizations whose tax-exempt status was revoked under section 6033(j) of the Code on our website beginning in early 2011.

FACT SHEET: EPILEPSY FOUNDATION OF GREATER CHICAGO

The Epilepsy Foundation of Greater Chicago is the only comprehensive social service organization serving people with epilepsy in metropolitan Chicago. Created in 1946 as a grassroots effort in Illinois to develop resources for people with epilepsy, the Foundation serves 43 counties in northeastern and central Illinois, and is dedicated to the prevention, cure, control, and public understanding of epilepsy and seizure disorders. Now in its 64th year, the Epilepsy Foundation of Greater Chicago is the primary community resource for individuals with seizures seeking social services and vocational assistance.

Through the Foundation's innovative and nationally-recognized programs and services, research funding, information and referral program, employment counseling, advocacy efforts, summer camps, educational seminars, and community awareness initiatives, it endeavors to improve the quality of life for persons with epilepsy and seizure disorders, and to dispel their associated myths and misconceptions.

Given that epilepsy is the third most common neurological disorder after stroke and Alzheimer's disease, it is no surprise that more than 125,000 people in the Foundation's service area have epilepsy—more than twice the number of those affected with tuberculosis, cerebral palsy, muscular dystrophy, down syndrome, and multiple sclerosis combined.

The Epilepsy Foundation of Greater Chicago is a not-for-profit charitable organization that relies on private funds from individuals, corporations, and foundations to make up the majority of its annual budget of $1.2 million. Its all-volunteer Board of Directors is made up of Chicago-area civic, social, and business leaders.

Our Mission

The Epilepsy Foundation of Greater Chicago will ensure that people with seizures are able to participate in all life experiences; and will prevent, control, and cure epilepsy through services, education, advocacy, and research.

General Instructions

Purpose of Form
 A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

Media Outreach Ideas

To generate added awareness of Epilepsy Foundation of Greater Chicago and their partnership with Purple Day in your community, it's important to let your print and broadcast media know about your event or activity. Here are just a few ways you can spread the word among your local media:

- Send Epilepsy wristbands with a note about your event and Purple Day to local newscasters; encourage them to wear purple clothing and the EFGC wristband during the week of your event to show their support for Epilepsy awareness.

- Contact a local talk show host or local medical news producer to have a program or segment on what Purple Day is doing locally; offer interviews with a group of people of varying ages that are suffering or have suffered from Epilepsy.
- Pitch your local medical producers and reporters about developing a story on epilepsy and seizures
- Write a letter to your local newspaper editor, encouraging a feature story on epilepsy and seizures.
- Ask your local cable provider or local radio station to run an existing EFGC PSA.
- Work with a local school, college or university to encourage students to wear purple and distribute information.
- Start updating social media and informing all online followers and friends about Purple Day and epilepsy awareness.

Presentation Ideas

Consider giving a presentation to the following groups:

- Social Groups
Start with groups to which you belong, such as a social group, military group, educational group, religious group or fraternal or alumnae group. Also, any clubs and organizations such as the Boy Scouts & Girl Scouts of America.
- Local Businesses
Offer to organize a "brown-bag lunch" for employees where you will speak on the topic of First Aid for seizures and Epilepsy awareness.
- Local Malls and Merchants
Ask local malls and merchants to provide a discount for wearing purple and to provide educational materials for customers.
- Local Hospitals, Clinics, and Health Centers
Work with local hospitals, clinics, and health centers to add a presentation to their roster of community education classes, and to include EFGC materials as part of their community health fairs.
- Community Centers
Work with the person who coordinates the education classes or group meetings at your local clinic, adult education institution, civic club, local park district or YMCA/YWCA to incorporate a presentation into their current activities or as a special event.

Don't forget to share your activity ideas. You can also learn what different communities and partners are doing nationwide to promote Purple Day.

Dear Sir or Madam:

In a ruling dated March 25, 1946, we held that the agencies and instrumentalities and all educational, charitable and religious institutions operated, supervised, or controlled by or in connection with the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories or possessions appearing in The Official Catholic Directory 1946, are entitled to exemption from Federal income tax under the provisions of section 101(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, which corresponds to section 501(c)(3) of the 1986 Code. This ruling has been updated annually to cover the organizations added to or deleted from the Directory.

The Official Catholic Directory for 2009 shows the names and addresses of all agencies and instrumentalities and all educational, charitable, and religious institutions operated by the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories and possessions in existence at the time the Directory was published. It is understood that each of these is a non-profit organization, that no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any individual, that no substantial part of their activities is for promotion of legislation, and that none are private foundations under section 509(a) of the Code.

Based on all information submitted, we conclude that the agencies and instrumentalities and educational, charitable, and religious institutions operated, supervised, or controlled by or in connection with the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories or possessions appearing in The Official Catholic Directory for 2009 are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

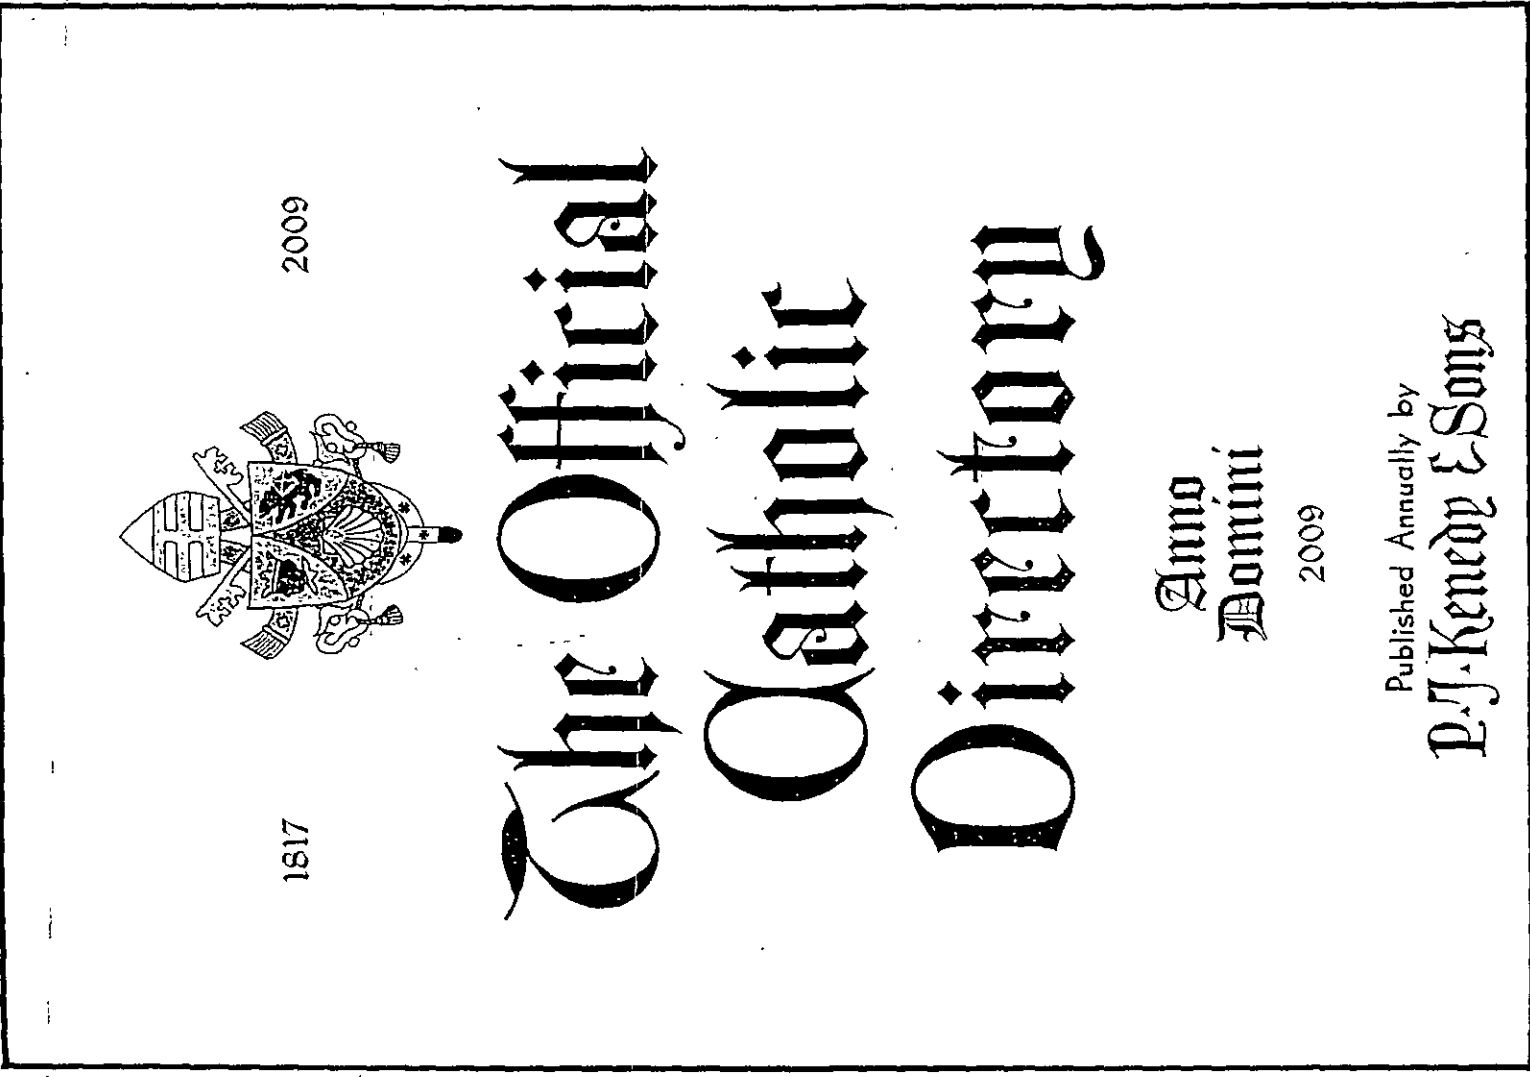

Donors may deduct contributions to the agencies, instrumentalities and institutions referred to above, as provided by section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to them or for their use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Beginning January 1, 1984, unless specifically excepted, you and your subordinates must pay tax under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA) for each employee who is paid $100 or more in a calendar year, as indexed for inflation. You and your subordinates are not liable for the tax under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).
