Title: Congratulations extended to Anne B. Hopkins on 100th birthday

Committee(s) Assignment:

RESOLUTION CONGRATULATING ANNE B HOPKINS

WHEREAS, The best pierogi's in Chicago are made in the kitchen of Chicago's own Anne B. Hopkins who celebrated her 100th birthday on March 2, 2002; and

WHEREAS, The Honorable Marty Quinn, Alderman of the 13th Ward, has apprised the members of the chamber of this remarkable woman's auspicious milestone; and

WHEREAS, Anne's non-English-speaking parents both emigrated from Poland after WWI to the Brighton Park neighborhood of Chicago where they met. Anne (nee Zajac) had seven brothers and sisters and is the only surviving child. They all lived through The Great Depression; and

WHEREAS, Anne met her husband Ambrose while growing up in Brighton Park. They married shortly before Abe shipped off to England. He had volunteered to fight for the Army Air Corp in 1942. Their first daughter, Carol, was born while Abe was in the service and Anne was basically a single mother until Abe's return in 1945; and

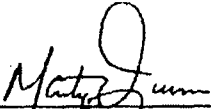

WHEREAS, Like many couples, Anne and Abe both had to work to support their family, Abe driving a school bus for handicapped children and Anne working nights at Campbell Soup. They lived in Brighton Park until 1957 when they purchased a house in the Garfield Ridge neighborhood where Anne still lives today; and

WHEREAS, Anne and Abe had five children: Carol, Bill, Cindy, Mary and Fran, 10 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren. She is a founding member of St. Jane DeChantel Parish (St. Faustina) and a founding member of the Brighton Park Polish Highlanders Club. She took quilting classes at the Chicago Park District then formed a quilting club that lasted for more than 10 years. Anne worked at Campbell Soup for 35 years, retiring the day before Abe unexpectedly passed away in 1984. Anne remains in their Garfield Ridge home, and continued driving until December of 2000; and

WHEREAS, Anne still enjoys quilting and sewing and never misses Wheel of Fortune. So don't try calling her between 6:30 and 7:00! She's concentrating on vowels and consonants; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the Mayor and members of the City of Chicago City Council, gathered together this twenty-third Day of March, 2022, do hereby congratulate Anne B. Hopkins on her 100th birthday and extend our very best wishes for many more birthdays to come.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be prepared and presented to Anne B. Hopkins.

MARTY QUINN
Alderman, 13th Ward
