Title: Congratulations extended to Andrea J. Schwartz on retirement from Macy's, Inc.

Committee(s) Assignment:

RESOLUTION HONORING THE RETIREMENT OF ANDRÉA J. SCHWARTZ

WHEREAS, Andréa Schwartz retired from her position as Senior Director of External Communications for Macy's, Inc. on March 31, 2022, following a lifetime of service to her community; and

WHEREAS, The Chicago City Council has been informed of this milestone by the Honorable Brian Hopkins, Alderman of the 2nd Ward; and

WHEREAS, Andréa began working for Marshall Fields Department Store in 1997 in Public Relations and Government Affairs, and when Macy's acquired Marshall Fields in 2005, Andréa oversaw the change of nameplates and signage and had the tough job of winning over Chicagoans who took pride in the Marshall Fields name; and

WHEREAS, Andréa worked for several years as Vice President of Media Relations and Cause Marketing for Macy's and lobbied and raised hundreds of thousands of dollars for local foundations, including After School Matters, Chicago Public Library Foundation, Ronald McDonald Children's Charities, Chicago Police Memorial Foundation, Sundays on State, Chicago Loop Alliance, Grant Park Music Festival, Goodman Theatre, Joffrey Ballet, Steppenwolf Theater, and The Art Institute of Chicago; and

WHEREAS, With Macy's support, Andréa founded and oversaw the Chicago Fashion Incubator, a non-profit organization that provides emerging Chicago-based designers in residence with the resources, business acumen, and mentoring to launch their careers in fashion; and

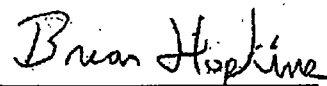

WHEREAS, Andréa fought hard to preserve and promote Marshall Field's traditions under the Macy's umbrella, such as the Great Tree Lighting at the Walnut Room and the State Street Holiday Windows; and

WHEREAS, When Andréa was promoted to Senior Director of External Communications for Macy's Inc. where she oversaw 500 stores across the country, she was able to maintain her team of Public Relations professionals in Chicago resisting relocation to New York; and

WHEREAS, Andréa represented Macy's while serving as a Commissioner of the State Street Commission and on the Executive Board of the Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce as well as the Boards of several local arts foundations and chapters of national non-profit organizations; Andréa has a strong desire to continue to serve her community and the City of Chicago in the years ahead; now, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED That we, the Mayor and members of the City Council of the City of Chicago, gathered here this twenty-second day of June, 2022, do hereby congratulate Andréa Schwartz on her retirement, and wish her well on her future endeavors; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be prepared and presented to Andréa Schwartz.

BRIAN HOPKINS
Alderman, 2nd Ward
