Committee on Pedestrian and Traffic Safety

ORDINANCE

WHEREAS, The City of Chicago in certain circumstances makes designated Residential Disabled Parking spaces on the public way available to residents; and,

WHEREAS, Those spaces may from time to time be displaced by necessary work on or under the public right of way, including but not limited to utility work, repaving, etc.; and,

WHEREAS, Residents with mobility challenges displaced from their regular designated parking spaces face serious difficulties that impact their access to basic necessities; and,

WHEREAS, It falls within the authority of the Commissioner of Transportation to oversee and enforce permitting for work on or under the public right of way; now therefore,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO:

SECTION 1. Section 10-20-150 of the Municipal Code of the City of Chicago is hereby amended by inserting the underscored language and deleting the language struck through, as follows:

(Omitted text is unaffected by this ordinance)

(i) In addition to the other limitations on the issuance of permits described in this chapter, the Commissioner of Transportation shall not issue any permit for the opening or occupation of, or the construction or repair of, any part of the public way established under section 9-64-050 this code as a Residential Disabled Parking space, until he or she shall have been fully appraised of the applicant's plan to reserve, mark, and make available alternate parking for each Residential Disabled Parking space affected by the work. The Commissioner of Transportation may require additional drawings, sketches, diagrams, or other documentation demonstrating the alternate parking arrangement and the payment of any associated fees as needed to enforce this section.

SECTION 2. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect upon passage and publication.
