SALUTE TO 2011 GOLDEN APPLE AWARD WINNER MARK DEVON HANS

WHEREAS, Marc Devon Hans, a General Science teacher at Hansen Elementary School in the 37th Ward who has consistently been able to positively impact the lives of students, families and staff on a more comprehensive and broad-based scale, is one of the 2011 recipients of the prestigious Golden Apple Award; and

WHEREAS, Every year since 1986, the Golden Apple Foundation selects 10 outstanding teachers who exemplify the highest standards and practices of the teaching profession to receive their prestigious Golden Apple Award. Now in its 25th year, the Golden Apple is seen as a great achievement by educators, city and state officials and the entire community. The Golden Apple Foundation award-winning teachers' qualities include, but are not limited to, demonstrating distinguished classroom practice as well as a high level of professionalism and educational cooperation; and

WHEREAS, Throughout the last decade of committed educational excellence, Marc Devon Hans has provided considerable opportunities for students to develop their various capacities. His accomplishments are important and awe-inspiring. In his decade of teaching, most of which has been spent as a sixth grade science teacher at Hansen, he founded the after-school "Science First" Club and also coached the team that recently won the 'Most Spirited' award at Chicago Public Schools (CPS) Science Olympiad Tournament. The recipient of numerous awards and honors, he is also a gifted grant writer and recently won a $10,000 grant. Additionally, he has served on the CPS Advisory Board to the CPS Chief Executive Officer; and

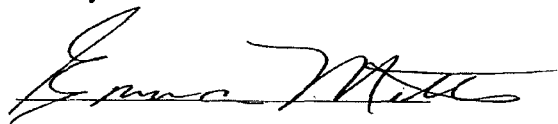

WHEREAS, Hansen Elementary adheres to the concept of "Excellence in Education" where holding their teachers to a high standard is of the utmost importance. Mr. Hans' qualities were recognized early in his career when he began his educational journey in 2001 with the mission of introducing elementary school students to science thereby enriching their education. Marc Devon Hans has not only met this expectation but has exceeded the standard set forth; and

WHEREAS, Parents of Hansen pupils joyfully praise Mr. Hans for his unwavering dedication in facilitating the learning for the diverse abilities of Hansen Elementary School students. Great credit is due him for his groundbreaking work in restoring and illuminating the pride of accomplishment that is now centered on this city's West Side; and

WHEREAS, The Honorable Emma Mitts, Alderman of the 37th Ward, has apprised this august body of the exemplary achievements of this outstanding educator; now therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the Mayor and members of the City of Chicago City Council, gathered together this 18th day of May, 2011 AD, do hereby salute Marc Devon Hans for receiving the Golden Apple Award for Excellence In Teaching as well as for his 10 years of outstanding and dedicated service to the students of Hansen Elementary School, the Austin Community and the City of Chicago.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this resolution be prepared and presented to Mr. Marc Devon Hans and Hansen Elementary.
