OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CITY OF CHICAGO

RAHM EMANUEL
MAYOR

July 30, 2014

TO THE HONORABLE, THE CITY COUNCIL
OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO

Ladies and Gentlemen:

At the request of the Commissioner of Business Affairs and Consumer Protection, I transmit herewith, together with Aldermen Burns, Harris, Beale, Balcer, Cardenas, Burke, Thompson, Lane, Cochran, Brookins, Chandler, Solis, Maldonado, Burnett, Graham, Reboyras, Austin, Colon, Sposato, Mitts, Cullerton, Pat O'Connor, Pawar, and Moore, an ordinance adding a new Chapter 1-24 and associated Code amendments regarding wages.

Your favorable consideration of this ordinance will be appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Mayor

ORDINANCE

WHEREAS, The City of Chicago is a home-rule unit of government under Article VII, Section 6(a) of the 1970 Constitution of the State of Illinois and, as such, may exercise any power and perform any function pertaining to its government and affairs; and

WHEREAS, Promoting the welfare of those who work within the City's borders is an endeavor that plainly meets this criterion; and

WHEREAS, After years of inaction by the United States Congress, it is time for cities and states to lift families out of poverty and stimulate the economy by raising the minimum wage; and

WHEREAS, A coalition of advocates and elected Illinois officials are leading an effort in Springfield to raise the state minimum wage, but, due to Chicago's higher cost of living, the proposed state increase is not enough; and

WHEREAS, Enacting a minimum wage for workers in Chicago that exceeds the state minimum wage is entirely consistent with the Illinois General Assembly's finding that it "is against public policy for an employer to pay to his employees an amount less than that fixed by" the Illinois Minimum Wage Law, 820 ILCS 105/2; and

WHEREAS, On May 20, 2014, Mayor Rahm Emanuel appointed a diverse group of community, labor, and business leaders, representing a cross-section of the numerous perspectives on this issue, and tasked them with developing a balanced proposal to raise the minimum wage for Chicago's workers; and

WHEREAS, The Minimum Wage Working Group held a series of meetings to hear evidence from and discuss the issue with a wide array of experts and stakeholders, convened five community meetings attended by hundreds of City residents, and received more than 200 public comments via the City's website; and

WHEREAS, On July 8, 2014, the Minimum Wage Working Group released its report, finding, among other things, that rising inflation has outpaced the growth in the minimum wage, leaving the true value of Illinois's current minimum wage of $8.25 per hour 32% below the 1968 level of $10.71 per hour (in 2013 dollars); and

WHEREAS, As the value of wages decline, the Great Recession has brought more families to the brink of economic collapse – according to the U.S. Census, 22.1% of Chicagoans live below the poverty level, compared to 13.7% of the Illinois population and 14.9% of the national population; and

WHEREAS, In Chicago, rent as a percentage of income has risen to 31%, from a historical average of 21%, and, according to U.S. Commerce Department data, Chicagoland is the only metropolitan region in Illinois that ranks above the national average in cost-of-living expenses; and

WHEREAS, Nearly 31% of the Chicago workforce makes $13.00 per hour or less – the median age of these workers is 33, two-thirds are over the age of 25, and a disproportionate share are women and/or minorities; and

WHEREAS, The increasing unaffordability of life in Chicago for so many of its residents illustrates the profound degree of wage inequality that President Barack Obama has described as "the defining issue of our time;" and

WHEREAS, The weight of research on previous minimum wage increases shows that raising the minimum wage has little or no adverse impact on employment and prices – to the contrary, according to the Economic Policy Institute, raising the minimum wage will help the economy at large, because workers’ increased spending power will increase our nation’s gross domestic product by about $33 billion and create approximately 140,000 jobs; and

WHEREAS, The Minimum Wage Working Group found that a 45% increase in the local minimum wage to $13.00 per hour, phased in over four years, will increase earnings for 31% of Chicago workers and boost the local economy by $800 million; and

WHEREAS, The Minimum Wage Working Group further found that phasing in the wage increase over time will allow businesses to adjust, and result in reasonable annual increases in expenses, ranging from approximately 1% to 2% each year; now, therefore,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO:

Such increase shall remain in effect until any subsequent adjustment is made. On or before May 1, 2017, and on or before every May 1 thereafter, the commissioner shall make available to Employers a bulletin announcing the adjusted minimum hourly Wage for the upcoming year.

(b) Each Employer that pays a Covered Employee the Wage described in subsection 1-24-030(a) shall transmit to the commissioner, in a manner provided by regulation, substantial evidence establishing: (1) the amount that the Covered Employee received as Gratuities during the relevant pay period; and (2) that no part of that amount was returned to the Employer. If an Employer is required by the Minimum Wage Law to provide substantially similar data to the Illinois Department of Labor, the commissioner may allow the Employer to comply with this subsection 1-24-030(b) by filing a copy of the state documentation.

(b) By any person to subsection 4(a)(3), subsection 4(d), subsection 4(e), Section 5, or Section 6 of the Minimum Wage Law.

(c) For any governmental entity other than the City, a category that, for purposes of this chapter, includes, but is not limited to, any Sister Agency, any unit of local government, the Illinois state government, and the government of the United States, as well as any other federal, state, or local governmental agency or department;

(d) For any Subsidized Temporary Youth Employment Program; or

(e) For any Subsidized Transitional Employment Program.

1-24-060 Application to Collective Bargaining Agreements.

Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to interfere with, impede, or in any way diminish the right of employees to bargain collectively with their employers through representatives of their own choosing in order to establish wages or other conditions of work in excess of the applicable minimum standards of the provisions of this Act. The requirements of this chapter may be waived in a bona fide collective bargaining agreement, but only if the waiver is set forth explicitly in such agreement in clear and unambiguous terms.

1-24-070 Notice and Posting.

Every Employer shall post in a conspicuous place at any facility where any Covered Employee works that is located within the geographic boundaries of the City a notice advising the Covered Employee of the current minimum Wages under this chapter, and of his rights under this chapter. The commissioner shall prepare and make available a form notice that satisfies the requirements of this Section 1-24-070.

1-24-080 Retaliation Prohibited.

It shall be unlawful for any Employer to discriminate in any manner or take any adverse action against any Covered Employee in retaliation for exercising any right under this chapter, including disclosing, reporting, or testifying about any violation of this chapter or regulations promulgated thereunder.

Any Employer who violates this chapter or any regulation promulgated thereunder shall be subject to a fine of not less than $500.00 nor more than $1,000.00 for each offense. Each day that a violation continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense to which a separate fine shall apply.

1-24-110 Private Cause of Action.

If any Covered Employee is paid by his Employer less than the Wage to which he is entitled under this chapter, the Covered Employee may recover in a civil action two times the amount of any such underpayments, together with costs and such reasonable attorney's fees as the court allows. An agreement by the Covered Employee to work for less than the Wage required under this chapter is no defense to such action.

4-4-320 License denial, revocation, or suspension for certain offenses.
