OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

CITY OF CHICAGO

RAHM EMANUEL MAYOR

November 18, 2015

TO THE HONORABLE, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO

Ladies and Gentlemen:

At the request of the Chief Procurement Officer and the Corporation Counsel, I transmit herewith an ordinance authorizing an extension of the MBE/WBE construction ordinance.

Your favorable consideration of this ordinance will be appreciated.

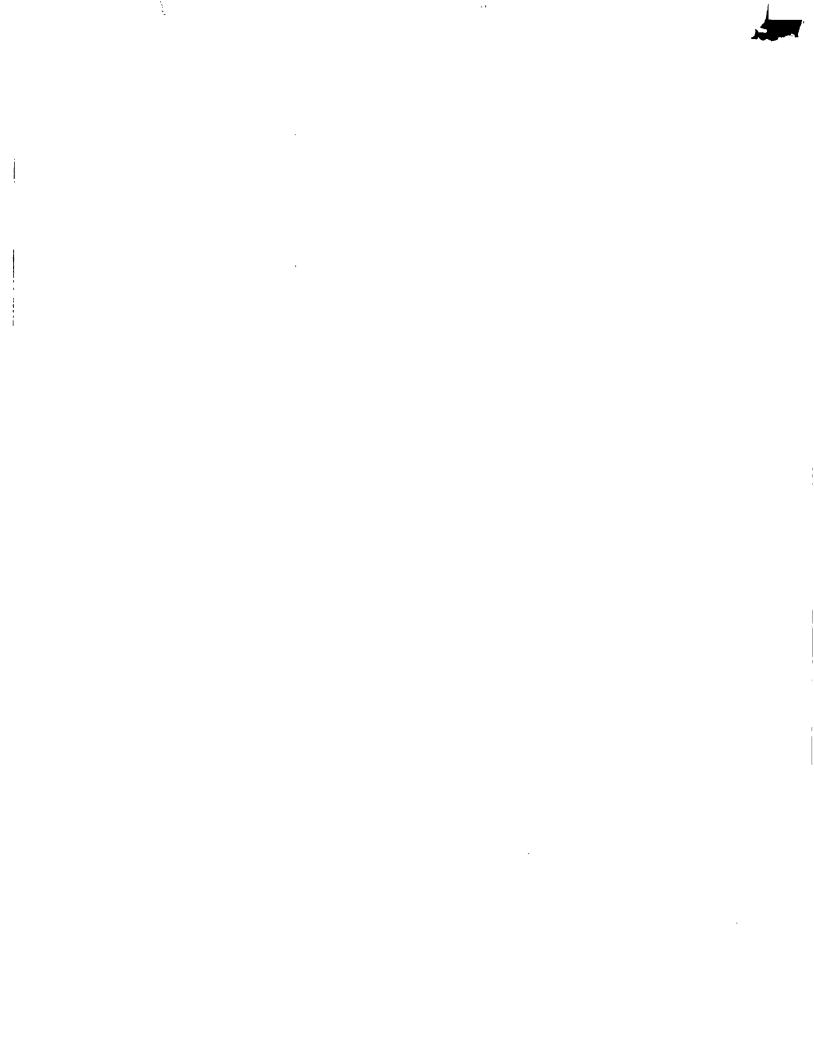

Very truly yours,

Mayor

The same of

ORDINANCE

- WHEREAS, the City of Chicago (the "City") is a home rule unit of local government as defined in Section 6(a), Article VII of the 1970 Constitution of the State of Illinois, and, as such, may exercise any power and perform any function pertaining to its government and affairs; and
- WHEREAS, the City, through its Department of Procurement Services, (the "Department") is responsible for the contracting of goods and services for the City; and
- WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 2-92-650, et seq., (the "Ordinance") of the Municipal Code of Chicago ("Code"), the Department has established a Minority-and Women-owned business enterprise construction procurement program (the "M.B.E./W.B.E. program"); and
- WHEREAS, the Ordinance, provides in pertinent part that the Ordinance "shall expire on December 31, 2015, unless the city finds that its remedial purposes have not been fully achieved and there is a compelling interest in continuing narrowly tailored remedies to redress discrimination against M.B.E.s or W.B.E.s so that the city will not function as a passive participant in a discriminatory marketplace"; and
- WHEREAS, in order to determine whether it is appropriate to allow the Ordinance to expire or instead to continue the narrowly tailored remedies contained therein, a comprehensive review of the relevant data is warranted; and
- WHEREAS, the City has retained the noted econometrician Dr. David G. Blanchflower, Bruce V. Rauner Professor of Economics, Dartmouth College, and former Member of the Monetary Policy Committee of the Bank of England to carry out such a comprehensive review; and
- WHEREAS, the City has also commissioned a Credit Market survey on lender discrimination which was conducted by the National Opinion Research Center (NORC) at the University of Chicago; and
- WHEREAS, the City has also retained Don O'Bannon, Esq., who conducted a study to explore anecdotal evidence of possible discrimination against minorities and women through the use of a focus group and stakeholder meetings; and
- WHEREAS, the City has also retained the law firm of Pugh, Jones, & Johnson to provide counsel to the City and the retained parties with respect to the entire comprehensive review; and
- WHEREAS, Dr. Blanchflower has concluded his review and has provided a detailed report of his conclusions to the City, including the NORC Credit Market survey and the anecdotal study, together with recommendations based on his findings ("the Final Report") that the M.B.E./W.B.E. program should continue; and

WHEREAS, it is advisable and appropriate to incorporate the conclusions and recommendations of the Final Report into law; now, therefore,

Be It Ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. Sections 2-92-660 and 2-92-780 of the Code are hereby amended by inserting the underscored language and deleting the struck-through language as follows:

2-92-660 Findings of discrimination.

(Omitted text is unaffected by this ordinance)

(v) following a comprehensive review of the relevant data conducted in 2009, the city has determined to extend this article to December 2015 and make other changes to this article, and following a subsequent comprehensive review of the relevant data conducted in 2015, the city has determined to further extend this article to December 2020.

2-92-780 Review and sunset.

This article shall be subject to an interim review by the chief procurement officer to be concluded by December of 2012 2018, and shall expire on December 31, 2015 2020, unless the city finds that its remedial purposes have not been fully achieved and there is a compelling interest in continuing narrowly tailored remedies to redress discrimination against M.B.E.s or W.B.E.s so that the city will not function as a passive participant in a discriminatory marketplace.

SECTION 2. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from the date of its passage and approval.
