ORDINANCE

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO:

ARTICLE I. HOME OCCUPATIONS

SECTION 1. Section 4-6-270 of the Municipal Code of Chicago is hereby amended by deleting the language stricken through and by inserting the language underscored, as follows:

4-6-270 Home occupations.

(a) Definitions. As used in this section:

“Accessory use,” “accessory building” or “accessory structure” have the meaning ascribed to those terms in Section 17-9-0201-B.

“Base metal” means any metal in unwrought, semi-processed (e.g. as powder, wire, rods, cable) or waste/scrap form, including, but not limited to, iron, steel, copper, nickel, aluminum, calcium, lead, magnesium, tin, titanium, zinc, and zirconium.

“Dwelling unit” has the meaning ascribed to that term in Section 17-17-0248.

“Hazardous material” has the meaning ascribed to that term in Section 4-6-210.

(Omitted text is unaffected by this ordinance)

“Non-resident external employee(s)” or “external employee(s)” have the meaning ascribed to those terms in subsection (g)(9)(ii) of this section.

“Non-resident internal employee(s)” or “internal employee(s)” have the meaning ascribed to those terms in subsection (g)(9)(i) of this section.

“Residential building” has the meaning ascribed to the term in Section 17-17-02146.

(Omitted text is unaffected by this ordinance)

(c) Application – Additional information required. In addition to the requirements set forth in Section 4-4-050, an application for, and, if requested, renewal of, a regulated business license to engage in a home occupation shall be accompanied by the following information:

(Omitted text is unaffected by this ordinance)

(9) the total square footage of the dwelling unit that will be permanently used or occupied to carry on the home occupation whether any accessory building or accessory structure, such as a garage, will be permanently used to store any material used in connection with the occupation(s) identified pursuant to item (4) of this subsection (c), and, if so, the total square footage of the floor area of such accessory building or accessory structure that will be used for such purpose.

(d) License issuance and renewal – Prohibited when. No regulated business license to engage in a home occupation shall be issued to the following persons:

(Omitted text is unaffected by this ordinance)

(5) any applicant or licensee, as applicable, if the home occupation does not comply with Section 17-9-0202 or ~~the other~~ applicable provisions of the Chicago Zoning Ordinance.

(e) Activities not subject to licensure as a home occupation – Standards. The following activities shall not be licensed as home occupations under this section:

(1) any repair of motorized vehicles, including the painting or repair of automobiles, trucks, trailers, boats, and lawn equipment;

(2) the dispatch, for compensation of any type, of any type of motor vehicle;

(3) animal hospitals;

(4) astrology, card reading, palm reading or fortune-telling in any form;

(5) kennels;

(6) stables;

- (21) construction businesses or landscaping businesses that provide ~~the~~ for storage of goods and materials to be utilized in the operation of the business or use;
- (22) warehousing; ~~and~~
- (23) welding or machine shops; and
- (24) any activity that requires a children's services facility license under Chapter 4-75 of this Code.

Provided, however, that nothing in this subsection (e) shall prohibit the performance of emergency medical services in a residential dwelling.

(f) Legal duties – Standards. Each licensee engaged in a home occupation shall have a duty to:

(1) ~~conduct the home occupation and all related activities, including storage, completely within the dwelling unit. No home occupation shall be operated from an accessory structure or garage.~~ Provided, however, that services offered or performed in conjunction with the home occupation may be provided off-site. Provided further, that an attached or unattached accessory building or accessory structure, such as a garage, may be used for incidental storage of materials, supplies and business records related to the home occupation if all of the following requirements are met: (i) the accessory building or structure is fully enclosed; (ii) no chemicals, hazardous materials, base metals, or unfinished goods or products related to the home occupation are stored in the accessory building or structure; (iii) if business records or paper supplies are stored in the accessory building or structure, such records or supplies are enclosed in boxes, file cabinets or other containers and such storage complies with all applicable provisions of this Code, including applicable ordinances relating to fire prevention; and (iv) the square footage limitations set forth in subsection (g)(7) of this section are not exceeded.

(g) Prohibited acts – Standards. It shall be unlawful for any licensee engaged in a home occupation to:

(1) conduct a home occupation in violation of Section 17-9-0202 or the other applicable provisions of the Chicago Zoning Ordinance;

(2) allow the home occupation to become the principal use of the dwelling unit. The home occupation shall be accessory, incidental and secondary to the principal residential use of the dwelling unit;

(3) add to the dwelling unit a separate entrance from ~~the~~ outside of the building for the sole use of the home occupation;

(4) display signage or create any other external evidence of the operation of the home occupation: (i) on the exterior of the dwelling unit or residential building in which the dwelling unit is located, or (ii) if the dwelling unit is located in a residential building containing 2 or more dwelling units, on any interior wall or other interior location within such residential building other than the interior of the dwelling unit itself, or (iii) in any location within the dwelling unit or residential building that is clearly visible from the public way;

(5) make any internal or external structural alterations or construction to the dwelling unit, whether permanent or accessory, of the type that ~~would~~ will change the residential character of the dwelling unit or the residential building in which the dwelling unit is located;

(6) install any equipment of the type that ~~would~~ will change the residential character of the dwelling unit or the residential building in which the dwelling unit is located;

(7) allow the total square footage of any home occupation, including any accessory building or accessory structure used for storage or other home occupation business-related activities, to permanently occupy more than ten percent of the floor area of any single-family residence or more than 15 percent of the floor area of any dwelling unit in a building containing multiple dwellings. Provided, however, that in no instance shall one or more home occupations in any single dwelling unit, including any accessory building or accessory structure used for storage or other home occupation business-related activities, permanently occupy, in any combination, more than 300 square feet of such dwelling unit or accessory building or structure;

(8) produce or emit any noise, vibration, smoke, dust or other particulate matter, odorous matter, heat, humidity, glare or any other effect that unreasonably interferes with any person's enjoyment of his or her residence;

(9) (i) hire or retain, or otherwise permit or allow, more than one non-resident employee to work within the dwelling unit in connection with the home occupation. All other employees of the licensee who work within the dwelling unit shall reside in the dwelling unit in which the home occupation is located.

(ii) Nothing in this subsection (g)(9) shall be construed to prohibit a licensee under this section from hiring or retaining non-resident employees to work exclusively outside the dwelling unit in connection with the home occupation.

(iii) In the event of an alleged violation of subparagraph (i) of this subsection (g)(9), the following requirements shall apply: (A) A rebuttable presumption shall exist that an employee has been authorized by the licensee to work within the dwelling unit in connection with the home occupation if such employee is present in the dwelling unit for more than three consecutive hours in any given day. (B) The burden of proof shall be on the licensee to prove, by a preponderance of evidence, that the non-resident employee is an external employee;

(910) regardless of whether a dwelling unit is used for one or more home occupations: (i) allow more than two patrons or clients or non-resident external employees of the home occupation to be present, in any combination, in the dwelling unit at any one time; or (ii) allow more than ten patrons or clients or external employees of the home occupation to be present, in any combination, in the dwelling unit during at any 24-hour period; or (iii) allow any person, other than the person(s) who reside in the dwelling unit and not more than one non-resident internal employee, to perform any work in the dwelling unit in connection with the home occupation(s) being carried on in such dwelling unit. Provided, however, that the restrictions set forth in this subsection (g)(10) on the number of patrons, clients and ~~persons performing work~~ non-resident external employees allowed in a dwelling unit shall apply to all home occupations within such dwelling unit and shall not be cumulative. Provided further, that in the event of an alleged violation of this subsection (g)(10), the rebuttable presumption and burden of proof set forth in items (A) and (B), respectively, of subsection (g)(9)(iii) of this section shall apply;

~~(4011)~~ permit any tractor trailer delivery; ~~or~~

~~(4112)~~ permit the direct sale of any product on display shelves or racks; ~~or~~

The license issued pursuant to this chapter shall be administratively categorized as either secondhand dealer or secondhand dealer – non-valuable (collectively, “secondhand dealer”).

ARTICLE IV.
BLASTING AND EXPLOSIVES

SECTION 1. Section 15-4-310 of the Municipal Code of Chicago is hereby amended by deleting the language stricken through and by inserting the language underscored, as follows:

15-4-310      License application and certificate of fitness.

(a)      License application

A written application for a license under this chapter shall be made to the commissioner of business affairs and consumer protection in conformity with the general requirements of this Code relating to applications for licenses. In addition, the applicant shall set forth the location at which it is desired or intended to keep such explosives, or any other substance mentioned in the preceding section, the maximum amount of such explosives, or any of them intended to be kept on hand at any one time at such place, and shall state whether such explosives are to be kept in bulk or in barrels, canisters, or other containers, and the number of loaded shells, loaded cartridges, blank cartridges, percussion caps, primers or detonators, or the number of pounds of flashlight powder, intended to be kept on hand at any one time in such place. Any applicant engaging in blasting operations or in any other activity using explosives shall further state in his application the nature of the work to be performed, the site of the proposed work, the location of the magazine in which it is intended to keep such explosives, and the quantity and kind of explosives to be kept therein.

Upon request from the commissioner of business affairs and consumer protection, the fire commissioner shall make, or cause to be made, an investigation for the purpose of ascertaining whether the place at which it is desired or intended to keep, sell, offer for sale, use or give away such explosives or other aforementioned substances is so situated that a license to keep such loaded paper shells, metallic shot, loaded cartridges, blank cartridges, percussion caps, primers, detonators or flashlight powder in the quantity desired would not be so dangerous as to constitute a nuisance or be a menace to the safety of the public or of adjoining property, and also whether the conditions under which such explosives, cartridges, percussion caps, flashlight powder, or any of them, are to be kept or handled shall be such as to provide the maximum of safety.

Licenses issued pursuant to this chapter shall have a term of two years.

(b)      Certificate of fitness

Before any operation shall begin under a license for the transportation of any explosives, or for the use of explosives in any manner, or for blasting, the licensee shall file with the fire commissioner, in writing, the name or names of the person or persons designated by the fire commissioner to handle said explosives or to load holes or discharge explosives, to prepare charges and load the holes, to transport by vehicle or otherwise, or to have the care of magazines.

Any such person, before being permitted to exercise any of such functions, shall file a written application with the fire commissioner for a "certificate of fitness", and before the issuance of any such certificate the fire commissioner shall examine such applicant as to his qualifications to fill such position or positions, under the conditions herein described. No person shall be permitted to have the actual care and handling of such explosives without first having obtained a certificate of fitness as herein provided. Such certificate of fitness shall be subject to inspection by any member of the fire and police departments at all times.

To receive a certificate of fitness the person must:

- (1) Be at least 21 years of age;
- (2) Be able to understand and speak the English language;
- (3) Have letters of recommendation from his last two employers (if any), and, if he has not been in the service of his last employer for at least three years, a letter testifying to his good character and capacity from his last employer;
- (4) Be familiar with the laws and the provisions of this Code governing the transportation, storage and use of explosives, particularly the part relating to the service to be performed by the applicant; and
- (5) Be familiar with the risks incident to the service to be performed by him, and capable of taking all necessary precautions.

Nothing herein contained shall prevent a licensee from applying for and obtaining a certificate of fitness if entitled to the same under the provisions of this section. The actual work done must at all times be conducted by a person holding a certificate of fitness.

SECTION 2. Section 15-4-320 of the Municipal Code of Chicago is hereby amended by deleting the language stricken through and by inserting the language underscored, as follows:

15-4-320 License fee.

The ~~annual license~~ fee for each license and certificate of fitness issued pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be ~~the sum of $250.00; provided, that if the applicant shall desire a license for the sole purpose of keeping, selling, or giving away within the city loaded paper shells, metallic shot, loaded cartridges, or blank cartridges designed or intended to be used in shotguns, pistols, rifles, or other firearms, and shall not desire to have on hand at any time a greater quantity of such shells or cartridges in the aggregate than 25,000, the annual license fee shall be the sum of $70.00.~~ as set forth in Section 4-5-010.

SECTION 3. Section 15-4-340 of the Municipal Code of Chicago is hereby deleted in its entirety.

ARTICLE V.
PUBLIC GARAGES

SECTION 1. Section 4-232-150 of the Municipal Code of Chicago is hereby amended by deleting the language stricken through and by inserting the language underscored, as follows:

4-232-150      License – Required.

No person shall engage in the business of a public garage or accessory garage without first having obtained a public garage license therefor. ~~No person shall engage in the business of an accessory garage without first having obtained an accessory garage license therefor.~~

SECTION 2. Section 4-232-160 of the Municipal Code of Chicago is hereby amended by deleting the language stricken through and by inserting the language underscored, as follows:

4-232-160      License – Application – Investigation.

An application for ~~either of the said licenses~~ license shall be made in conformity with the general requirements of this Code relating to applications for licenses. The applicant shall also specify the construction of said building, the number of stories in such building, and the number of square feet of floor area in each of the stories in such building.

SECTION 3. Section 4-232-170 of the Municipal Code of Chicago is hereby amended by deleting the language stricken through, as follows:

4-232-170      License – Classification – Fee.
