MEMORIAL RESOLUTION FOR MILDRED J. WILEY

WHEREAS, God in His Infinite Wisdom has called Mildred J. Wiley, most beloved citizen, to her eternal reward on March 26, 2019; and

WHEREAS, this august body has been informed of her passing by the Honorable Emma Mitts, Alderman of the 37th ward; and

WHEREAS, born on December 17, 1955 in Chicago, Illinois, Mildred was the adored daughter of the late George Jordan and Faytonia Rhodes. She was a proud graduate of Providence St. Mel High School and Lewis University. Mildred leaves a legacy of faith, dignity and love; and

WHEREAS, Mildred accepted Christ at an early age and a member of Claire UMC under the leadership of Pastor Samuel Carter. She later moved her membership to Resurrection Methodist Church under the leadership of Rev. Robyn Tabb; and

WHEREAS, In 1978, Mildred met and married the love of her life, Houston Wiley, and blessed with two beautiful children. She was a kind, protective, loving mother who created a warm and safe home environment and gathering place for all in need; and

WHEREAS, Mildred had a strong belief in God and the power of prayer. She worked tirelessly at Bethel New Life for twenty-five years and concluded her work history at the Institute Nonviolence Chicago as a Community Organizer; and

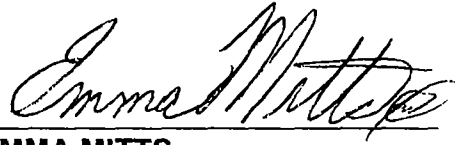

WHEREAS, Mildred served on numerous boards throughout the city of Chicago and was well respected in the Austin and Garfield communities. She committed herself to the improvement of schools in disenfranchised communities and the healthy growth of neighborhoods of color in the city of Chicago. This barely captures the enormous contributions towards building and improving quality of life for all. She took on the challenges with a quiet dignity, ferocious passion and relentless determination; and

WHEREAS, Mildred leaves to cherish her precious memories; her husband, Houston; son, Corey; daughter, Colby; grandson, Joseph Robinson; her mother, Faytonia Fair; sisters, Laverne Emir and Carlella Rogers; brother, Peter (Shaun); sister-in-laws, Geneva Ormond, Annie Whitmore (Roy); brother-in-law, Herman Wiley along with host of nieces, nephews, extended family, church members and treasured friends. Mildred is preceded in death by her beloved sister, Janet; and

WHEREAS, Mildred touched many lives through her kindness, generosity and vivacious spirit. She will be deeply missed, but the memory of her genuine character, vast intelligence and compassion will live on in those who knew and loved her, leaving a legacy of faith, dignity and love; now, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the Mayor and Members of the City Council of the City of Chicago, assembled this tenth day of April, 2019, do hereby extend our deepest sympathy to the family of Mildred J. Wiley; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution will be presented to the family of Mildred J. Wiley, with our most heartfelt condolences.
