

served as host pastor for the 40th Quadrennial Session of the A.M.E. Zion Church General Conference in 1976. (He introduced a new concept in hosting connectional meetings, all sessions and delegates met and slept under one roof).

Bishop Walker experienced the full gamut of life in the Chicago community, through his participation in civic, religious, political and educational activities. He served over ten years as President of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Ministerium of the Chicago District and Treasurer of the Michigan Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church. Bishop Walker has been a recognized community leader. He previously served as Chaplain in the Chicago Police Department. He worked arduously as a leader in the Eighteenth Ward and with the Harold Washington for Mayor Committee. He is a member of the NAACP.

He was elected the 81st. bishop of the A.M.E. Zion Church and was consecrated on August 5, 1988 in Charlotte, North Carolina. He has served the following Episcopal Districts; Eleventh 1988-1992 Conferences; Arkansas, North Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Oregon/Washington, California, Southwest Rocky Mountain. Alaska; Fourth Episcopal District 1992-1996 that became North Eastern Episcopal District in 1996 and served until 2004 New England, Western New York, New York, Bahamas Islands; and in 2004-2012 The Piedmont Episcopal District; Blue Ridge, West Central North Carolina, Western North Carolina, and all divisions of Jamaica. He was elevated Senior Bishop in 2004 and served until his retirement in 2012.

Bishop Walker spent significant time and energy in the further development of the Harriet Tubman Home in Auburn, New York, and the Dorothy Walls Conference and Retreat Center in Black Mountain, North Carolina. He led both the North Eastern and Piedmont Episcopal Districts in purchasing Episcopal Residences. Served as Chairman of the Publishing House Board, Restructuring Commission, and Livingstone College Board of Trustees. Chaired the Bicentennial Commission and the Bicentennial Hymnal Committee. He is commissioned to write the History of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church to be completed in 2020. He represented the A.M.E. Zion Church with Ecumenical organizations such as the National Council of Churches, Congress of National Black Churches, World Methodist Council, and World Council of Churches.

In August 2012, Bishop Walker retired after 28 successful years in the pastoral ministry and 24 productive years in the Episcopal ministry of the A.M.E. Zion Church, the church of his birth and choice. He and his lovely bride, Mrs. Geraldine J. Walker, who shared these blissful years with him, and without whom this journey would not have been possible, are the proud parents of four wonderful children; eleven grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.
