RESOLUTION C^AA , fe^Ct

WHEREAS, the City of Chicago is a home rule unit of government pursuant to the 1970 Illinois Constitution, Article VII, Section 6 (a); and ^

WHEREAS, pursuant to its home rule power, the City of Chicago may exercise any power and perform any function relating to its government and affairs including promoting the quality of life and the welfare of its citizens; and

WHEREAS, the United States Congress is taking steps to repeal the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC) rules relative to consumers' privacy; and

WHEREAS, the repeal of these rules will allow companies to sell your personal information to marketers; and

WHEREAS, the information sold may allow purchasers to know the age, gender and other demographic information; and

WHEREAS, a person's internet browsing history will be made available; and

WHEREAS, internet searches will be able to be "hijacked," that is directed to sites other than those the consumer is attempting to visit in order to direct potential sales; and

WHEREAS, companies will be able to record browsing histories in order to inject ads based on that history; and

WHEREAS, software may be pre-installed on electronic devices and record every URL visited; and

WHEREAS, all UTP traffic will be able to be tracked without the users knowledge; and

WHEREAS, the United States Senate has already passed a bill which will essentially invalidate the internet privacy rules of the FCC which were enacted to protect consumers' privacy; now therefore,
