

authorized and directed to prepare and present a briefing for members of the City of Chicago City Council on the status of this city's pothole war and the reason cold patch continued to be used during the months when the preferred method of pothole repair could have been applied.

TV