BYeCIS > Since its establishment in 1975, Whitney M. Young Magnet High School, renowned for its outstanding academic achievements, strong sports and extracurricular activities, consistently has ranked among the top high schools in the Nation and has earned numerous awards and accolades; and

WHEREAS, The Whitney Young girls basketball team, known as the "Lady Dolphins," had a remarkable 2013/2014 season, culminating in winning the 2014 Illinois High School Association Class 4A State Basketball Championship; and

WHEREAS, On March 22, 2014, the Whitney Young Dolphins won the state title by defeating a powerful Rolling Meadows Mustangs team, 60 to 44 at Redbird Arena on the campus of Illinois State University; and

WHEREAS, The Whitney Young Girls basketball team had a remarkable season with a final record of 32 wins and only 3 losses. The team won its final 16 games and captured their third state championship and second championship in three years; and

WHEREAS, Whitney Young reached the State title game by overpowering the defending champion Marian Catholic 60 to 20 in a semifinal game on March 21, 2014; and

WHEREAS, In the championship game against Rolling Meadows, Whitney Young got off to a fast start by taking an 8 to 0 lead and then led 20 to 9 at one point in the game. The Dolphins' interior size and quickness on the perimeter slowed down Rolling Meadows' high-octane offense. Whitney Young's defense was so powerful that Rolling Meadows shot only 2 for 15 in the first quarter and 4 for 30 in the first half; and

WHEREAS, Kiara Lewis of Whitney Young, racking up 20 points and two steals, was named Player of the Game; and

WHEREAS, All of Chicago is proud of Whitney Young High School's Girls Basketball team and of the school's coaches, teachers and administrators, who helped to make the 2013-2014 athletic season a "year to remember" for all of the school's students; now, therefore,
