In addition to the free cash flow, the Group paid defined benefit pension funding of £3m (see Note 5 on pensions); and £38m of non-underlying items which mainly relate to restructuring costs following the review of store and head office operations, as previously reported and charged to the income statement in the prior year

As part of the Group's refinancing in April 2021, the Group issued convertible bonds maturing in 2026. The convertible bonds raised £327m which was used to partially pay down the existing £400m of term loans from both the Marshall Retail Group (MRG) and InMotion acquisitions. The convertible bond is a compound instrument, which includes an equity option. As a consequence, the debt is bifurcated into an equity component, reported in equity, and a debt component. The debt component accretes up to par over the life of the bond, so for each 12 month period we will have c.£8m non-cash debt accretion in finance costs. In addition, the Group increased the RCF from £200m to £250m and extended its tenor to April 2025.

On an IFRS 16 basis, net debt was £755m, which includes an additional £464m of lease liabilities.

Headline net assets after the pension liability and associated deferred tax asset were £266m compared to £297m at 31 August 2020. Under IFRS 16 the Group had net assets of £183m

Pensions

The latest actuarial revaluation of the main defined benefit pension scheme, the WHSmith Pension Trust, was at 31 March 2020 at which point the deficit was £9m (31 March 2017 actuarial revaluation deficit of £11m). The Group has agreed a continuation of the annual funding schedule with the Trustees from March 2020 for the next five years, which includes the deficit recovery contributions and other running costs, of just under £3m per annum. During the year ended 31 August 2021, the Group made a contribution of £3m to the scheme.

The scheme has been closed to new members since 1996 and closed to defined benefit service accrual since 2007. The Liability Driven Investment (LDI) policy adopted by the scheme continues to perform well with 100 per cent of the inflation and interest rate risks hedged.

As at 31 August 2021, the Group has an IFRIC 14 minimum funding requirement in respect of the WHSmith Pension Trust of £2m (2020: £3m) and an associated deferred tax asset of £1m (2020: £1m) based on the latest schedule of contributions agreed with the Trustees. As at 31 August 2021, the scheme had an IAS 19 surplus of £284m (2020 surplus of £268m) which the Group has continued not to recognise. There is an actuarial deficit due to the different assumptions and calculation methodologies used compared to those under IAS 19.

The IAS 19 pension deficit on the relatively small UNS defined benefit pension scheme was £1m [2020: £1m].

Principal risks and uncertainties

Risk management framework

Our risk management framework is designed so that material business risks throughout the Group can be identified, assessed and effectively managed. This framework incorporates the following core elements-

Identify

- Risk mapping to identify emerging issues:
- Risk registers are compiled by each business function,

Assess

-Evaluating the potential impact and determining the likelihood of risk occurrence:

Mitigate - Agreeing actions to manage the identified risks and ensuring appropriate controls are in place.

Monitor - Maintaining continued oversight and tracking the effectiveness of the controls.

All principal business functions compile risk registers and summary risk maps to identify key risks, assess them in terms of their likelihood and potential impact, and determine appropriate control strategies to mitigate the impact of these risks, taking account of risk appetite. The ongoing monitoring of this framework is overseen by the respective Business Risk Committees and the Group Audit Committee.

During the year, the Board reviewed the effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal controls systems. This review included the discussion and review of the risk registers and the internal controls across all business functions, as part of an annual exercise facilitated by the Internal Audit team. During the year, the Board also received presentations from management on specific risk areas such as the impact and actions taken in relation to Covid-19, cyber risk, international expansion, the ongoing risk monitoring processes and appropriate mitigating controls.

Board review of principal risks and uncertainties

The Board has undertaken a robust assessment of the emerging and principal risks and uncertainties facing the Group, including those that would threaten its business model, future performance, solvency or liquidity. Those emerging and principal risks are described on the following pages, along with explanations of how they are managed and mitigated. The Group recognises that the profile of risks constantly changes and additional risks not presently known, or that may be currently deemed immaterial, may also impact the Group's business objectives and performance. Our risk management framework is therefore designed to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve business objectives, and, as such, can only provide reasonable and not absolute assurance against these principal uncertainties impacting on business performance.

Changes in principal risks compared to last year

The following section summarises the principal risks and uncertainties agreed by the Board. These incorporate further information relating to the movement in the level of these risk exposures during the year, to highlight whether, in our view, exposure to each of the principal risks is increasing, decreasing or remains broadly the same. Where the consequences of the Covid-19 pandemic may impact the business, we have incorporated these considerations into our assessment in relation to each of these principal risk headings, in addition to the specific commentary provided overleaf.

Piste/description Mitigation

Economic, political, competitive and market risks

The Group operates in highly competitive markets and in the event of failing to compete effectively with travel, convenience and other similar product category retailers, this may affect revenues obtained through our stores. Failure to keep abreast of market developments, including the use of new technology, could threaten our competitive position.

Factors such as the economic climate, levels of household disposable income, seasonality of sales, changing demographics, customer shopping patterns and raw material costs could impact on profit performance.

The Group may also be impacted by political developments both in the UK and Internationally such as from the UK's exit from the European Union, regulatory and tax changes, increasing scrutiny by competition authorities and other changes in the general condition of retail and travel markets. The Group's performance is dependent on the levels of consumer confidence and upon effectively predicting and quickly responding to changing consumer demands, both in the UK and Internationally. The Group conducts customer research to understand current demands and preferences in order to help translate market trends into saleable merchandise and store formats.

The Group continues to monitor the implications arising from the UK's exit from the European Union and is a member of a number of key industry bodies which provide insight and updates on this process.

Uncertainties relating to ongoing effects of Covid-19 on store trading, footfall travel restrictions and consumer confidence and shopping habits.

Brand and reputation

The WHSmith brand is an important asset and failure to protect it from unfavourable publicity could materially damage its standing and the wider reputation of the business, adversely affecting revenues. As the Group continues to expand its convenience food offer in travel locations, associated risks include compliance with food hygiene and health and safety procedures, product and service quality, environmental and ethical sourcing, and associated legislative and regulatory requirements.

The Group monitors the Company's reputation, brand standards and key service and compliance measures to ensure the maintenance of operating standards and regulatory compliance across all our operations. We undertake regular customer engagement to understand and adapt our product, offer and store environment. We operate a framework for monitoring compliance with all regulatory, hygiene and safety standards, encompassing supplier and store audits and clearly defined sourcing policies and procedures. Our corporate responsibility programme monitors our performance in respect of our key themes of the Marketplace: Workplace, Environment and impact on the Community.

' Key suppliers and supply chain management

The Group has agreements with key suppliers in the UK, Europe and the Far East and other countries in which it operates. The interruption or loss of supply of core category products from these suppliers to our stores may affect our ability to trade. Quality of supply issues may also impact the Group's reputation and impact our ability to trade.

The Group conducts risk assessments of all its key suppliers to identify alternatives and develop contingency plans in the event that any of these key suppliers fail. Suppliers are required to comply with the conditions laid out in our Supplier Code of Conduct that covers areas such as production methods, employee working conditions and quality control.

The Group has contractual and other arrangements with numerous third parties in support of its business activities. None of these arrangements alone are individually considered to be essential to the business of the Group.

Uncertainties relating to sourcing from Far East locations and distribution into our key markets.

WH Smith PLC Annual Report and Accounts 2021

Change in risk level

Store portfolio

The quality and location of the Group's store portfolio are key contributors to the Group's strategy. Retailing from a portfolio of good quality real estate in prime retail areas and key travel hubs at commercially reasonable rates remains critical to the performance of the Group.

All of High Street's stores are held under operating leases, and consequently the Group is exposed, to the extent that any store becomes unviable as a result of rental costs. Most Travel stores are held under concession agreements, on average for five to ten years, although there is no guarantee that concessions will be renewed or that Travel will be able to bid successfully for new contracts.

The Group undertakes research of key markets and demographics to ensure that we continue to occupy prime sites and identify appropriate locations to acquire new space. We maintain regular dialogue and good relationships with all our key landlords. The Group also conducts extensive customer research and analysis to gather feedback on changing consumer requirements, which is shared with landlords as part of this ongoing relationship management programme.

Business interruption

An act of terrorism or war or an outbreak of a pandemic disease, could reduce the number of customers visiting WHSmith outlets, causing a decline in revenue and profit. In the past, our Travel business has been particularly impacted by geopolitical events such as major terrorist attacks, which have led to reductions in customer traffic. Closure of travel routes both planned and unplanned, such as the disruption caused by natural disasters or weather-related events, may also have a material effect on business. The Group operates from three distribution centres and the closure of any one of them may cause disruption to the business.

In common with most retail businesses, the Group also relies on a number of important IT systems, where any system performance problems, cyber risks, or other breaches in data security could affect our ability to trade.

The Group has a framework of operational procedures and business continuity plans that are regularly reviewed, updated and tested. The Group also has a comprehensive insurance programme covering our global assets, providing cover ranging from property damage and product and public liability, to business interruption and terrorism. Back-up facilities and contingency plans are in place and are reviewed and tested regularly to ensure that business interruptions are minimised.

The Group's IT systems receive ongoing investment to ensure that they are able to respond to the needs of the business. Back-up facilities and contingency plans are in place and are tested regularly to ensure that data is protected from corruption or unauthorised use.

Interruptions occurring due to the ongoing effect of Covid-19, causing temporary closure of offices and stores.

Reliance on key personnel

The performance of the Group depends on its ability to continue to attract, motivate and retain key head office and store staff. The retail sector is very competitive and the Group's personnel are frequently targeted by other companies for recruitment.

The Group reviews key roles and succession plans. The Remuneration Committee monitors the levels and structure of remuneration for directors and senior management and seeks to ensure that they are designed to attract, retain and motivate the key personnel to run the Group successfully.

International expansion

The Group continues to expand internationally. In each country in which the Group operates, the Group may be impacted by political or regulatory developments, or changes in the economic climate or the general condition of the travel market.

The Group utilises three business models to manage risk in our overseas locations: directly run, joint venture and franchise.

The Group uses external consultants to advise on compliance with international legislative and regulatory requirements, to monitor developments that may impact our operations in overseas territories and to conduct reputational due diligence on potential new business partners. Our geographical spread of activity mitigates against the material concentration of risk in any one area.

. Cyber risk and data security

The Group is subject to the risk of systems breach or data loss from various sources including external hackers or the infiltration of computer viruses. Theft or loss of Company or customer data or potential damage to any systems from viruses, ransomware or other malware, or non-compliance with data protection legislation, could result in fines and reputational damage to the business that could negatively impact our sales. The Group employs a framework of IT controls to protect against unauthorised access to our systems and data, including monitoring developments in cyber security. This control framework encompasses the maintenance of firewalls and intruder detection, encryption of data, regular penetration testing conducted by our appointed external quality assurance providers and engagement with third party specialists, where appropriate. We have a Steering Group overseeing our approach and response to cyber risk, and monitoring our programme of ongoing compliance with the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard and the GDPR.

Continuing increase in number of externally reported cyber attacks.

; Treasury, financial and credit risk management

The Group's exposure to and management of capital, liquidity, credit, interest rate and foreign currency risk are analysed further in Note 22 on page 137 of the financial statements.

The Group also has credit risk in relation to its trade and other receivables and sale or return contracts with suppliers. The Group's Treasury function seeks to reduce exposures to interest rates, foreign exchange and other financial risks, to ensure sufficient liquidity is available to meet foreseeable needs and to invest cash assets safely and profitably. The Group does not engage in speculative trading in financial instruments and transacts only in relation to underlying business requirements. The value of any deposit that can be placed with any approved counterparty is based on short-term and long-term credit ratings and, in accordance with the Group's treasury policy it is limited to a maximum of £75m for each approved counterparty. The Group's Treasury policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and approved by the Audit Committee and are subject to Group Internal Audit review. The Group announced a refinancing in April, where the Group issued £327m of convertible bonds. The proceeds were used to pay £267m of term debt. Heaving E133m of term debt remaining, £10m was used to pay the costs associated with the refinancing and the residual £50m was retained by the Group to fund the opening of over 100 new Travel stores won and yet to open over the next three years and new growth opportunities. As part of the refinancing, the Group also increased its committed multi-currency revolving credit facility to £250m (previously £200m), provided by an expanded syndicate of lending banks, which is due to mature in April 2025. This facility is currently undrawn.

Environment and sustainability

Our investors, customers and colleagues expect us to conduct our business in a responsible and sustainable way. Climate change is now recognised as a global emergency. Failure to deliver our stated sustainability commitments could damage our reputation, introduce higher costs and impact our ability to meet strategic objectives.

Our sustainability strategy, a Journey to a Better Business, sets out policies, objectives and action plans to address our key issues. It is overseen by Board and Executive level committees. We are taking action across the business to increase our climate resilience, have reduced carbon emissions for our UK estate to zero and have targets in place to decarbonise our international estate and supply chain. We continue to focus on more environmentally sourcing practices, reducing and redesigning packaging where possible and ensuring traceability for forestry products.

Viability statement

In accordance with the UK Corporate Governance Code 2018, the directors are required to issue a viability statement' declaring whether we believe the Company is able to continue to operate and meet its liabilities over a period greater than 12 months, taking into account its current position and principal risks.

The Group's strategy is highlighted on page 4. The key factors are In Travel.

- driving like-for-like sales in existing stores through increasing average transaction value, expanding the range, and number of categories we sell.
- investing in store environments and layouts;
- a forensic store by store focus on space and category management;
- winning new space and retaining existing space;
- developing new formats;
- expanding profitably outside of the UK;
- growing InMotion. the leading global technology retailer in travel locations, and
- investing in digital solutions to enhance the customer experience.

In High Street:

- adopting a forensic store by store focus on space management to optimise the returns from our core categories, particularly stationary;
- driving margin growth through category mix management:
- reducing our cost base to reflect our changing sales profile and productivity initiatives, and
- building online propositions complementary to our stores and categories: funkypigeon.com. cultpens.com <<http://cultpens.com>> and whsmith.co.uk <<http://co.uk>>

The Strategic report incorporates plans at both the Group and operating division level The plans consider the Group's cash flows, committed funding liquidity positions, forecast future funding and key financial metrics.

A three-year period is considered the appropriate timeframe to assess the Group's prospects as it will cover the impact of the current Covid-19 pandemic and it is consistent with the Group's strategic planning and review period.

Following the Group's refinancing, announced on 28 April 2021. the balance sheet has been significantly strengthened. The refinancing arrangements included a £250m multi -currency revolving credit facility (RCF) (increased from £200m) with an extended maturity from December 2023 to April 2025. As at 31 October 2021. the Group had not drawn down on the RCF and has £107m cash on deposit.

As part of the refinancing, the Group also raised E327m from the issue of convertible bonds, of which £50m was retained by the Group to fund the opening of over 100 new Travel stores won and yet to open over the next three years, including thirty new InMotion stores in Travel UK. The remainder of the proceeds, net of costs, was used to partially pay down the term loans from both the MRG and InMotion acquisitions, leaving the Group with a term loan of £133m. The maturity of the term loan has been extended from 2023 to 2025. in line with the RCF.

The directors have assessed the prospects of the Group over the three year period, taking into account its recent historical performance, forecasts, a robust assessment of the emerging and principal risks facing the Group and mitigating factors, all of which consider the impact of Covid-19 given its impact on the Group's trading. In assessing viability, the directors considered the position presented in the budget and three year plan recently approved by the Board (the base case') These plans include management's forecast of the financial impact of the current pandemic over the next three years.

In the context of the current challenging environment, we also used the same severe but plausible assumptions modelled as part of the going concern assessment (refer to page 103) with a return to the base case in the three year viability assessment period. Under both these scenarios the Group would continue to have sufficient liquidity headroom on its existing facilities and would meet its covenant tests

In order to understand the impact of an extreme stress test we modelled the impact of an additional ten per cent sales decline across the strategic growth areas of our business; Travel UK and North America, following the lockdown modelled within the severe but plausible scenario and without further mitigating actions. Under these extreme circumstances, whilst liquidity headroom on the existing facility exists, mitigating action would be required in order to meet the covenant tests. We consider this scenario to be highly unlikely and are confident in the Group's ability to apply mitigating actions some of which would include a reduction in capital expenditure, further restructuring and a reduction in other discretionary spend

As disclosed in the Strategic report on pages 21 to 28, the Board has undertaken a robust assessment of the emerging and principal risks facing the Group, including those that would threaten its business model, future performance, solvency or liquidity. The process of mitigating and managing these risks is described on pages 21 to 28 of the Strategic report. -

Taking account of the above matters, and the Group's current position and principal risks, the directors have a reasonable expectation that the Group will be able to continue in operation and meet its liabilities as they fall due over the three-year period ending 31 August 2024.

Our journey to a better business

Our strategy

Our customers and wider stakeholders expect us to be a responsible, sustainable business. We believe we can make a meaningful contribution to a better society and a cleaner environment. We have been serving customers for nearly 230 years and, to maintain their trust, we need to adapt to shifting patterns in sustainable production and consumption and to changes in the global environment in which we operate.

WHSmith has a long-standing commitment to high standards of environmental, social and corporate governance. Our approach has played an important role in risk management, business development and delivering the expectations of our stakeholders.

Communities

Education and literacy

Supporting local causes

People

Diversity and inclusion

Human rights in our supply chain

Safety and wellbeing

Our sustainability strategy concentrates on those areas that our stakeholders have told us are important and where we believe we can make a meaningful difference. The three areas of planet, people and communities provide the framework for our activities and reporting, underpinned by a strong foundation of responsible business principles and practices. We have defined a series of objectives for each of these areas that will drive our activities at least until 2025.

Planet Climate change

Packaging and waste

Forests

Principles and responsible practice

This year, the Board has taken the decision to set up a subcommittee to monitor our ESG activities and performance. It will oversee the work of our Environmental, Social and Corporate Governance (ESG) Steering Group, chaired by our Group Chief Executive, which meets monthly to monitor progress of our sustainability activities. More detailed information, including governance, performance data and future targets, is available on our website and in our full Sustainability Report at whsmithplc.co.uk/sustainability/ <<http://whsmithplc.co.uk/sustainability/>>.

Planet

Urgent and sustained action is needed to address the threat to the health of our planet. The impacts of climate change are being felt around the world and long-term business success is dependent on a healthy and sustainable environment. Our Environmental Policy, available on our website at whsmithplc.co.uk/sustainability/ <<http://whsmithplc.co.uk/sustainability/>>, sets out our commitments to minimise our business impacts on the planet, including those relating to climate change, waste management and resource use. We regularly review progress against our objectives and targets and aim for continual improvement year on year.

Climate change

Climate change remains one of the most pressing, challenging issues facing our world and we acknowledge we need to play our part. We have a long-standing commitment to reduce carbon emissions from our operations and have been improving energy efficiency and minimising fuel use for over a decade.

We are committed to implementing the recommendations of the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD) and continue to integrate them into our reporting. The following section also fulfils our reporting obligations in relation to 'Streamlined Energy and Carbon Reporting' (SECR).

Strategy and risk management

The Group will be required to report under the TCFD framework for the year ending 31 August 2022. In line with the TCFD's recommendations, as part of our progress towards adoption of the framework we have performed a qualitative scenario analysis of the risks and opportunities that our business may face in 2030, using two climate scenarios: a scenario where the world introduces the changes that are needed to limit global warming to below two degrees, and a scenario where policy and regulatory interventions are limited, and global warming exceeds four degrees. Our quantitative assessment is ongoing, and based on our qualitative assessment do not anticipate the impact of climate change in the short-term to be material.

Under the below two-degree scenario, there would be widespread interventions to limit global warming, including the implementation of a global carbon price at a level which results in universal change, a rapid shift in energy sector mix from fossil fuels to renewables and a reversal of global deforestation. Afforestation and a rapid growth in biofuels may lead to pressure on land for other uses. In the transport sector, electric vehicles would be widely adopted, there would be systemic improvements in operations and logistics and international fiscal and regulatory support would be increased for the use of alternative fuels for road freight and aviation.

WH Smith PLC Annual Report and Accounts 2021/22

Strategic report

Our initial qualitative assessment of the main potential risks to WHSmith under a below two-degree scenario include increased operational costs from higher electricity and fuel prices caused by a higher carbon price. There could be higher trading costs for certain products because of more expensive raw materials caused by land use pressures, together with policy disincentives for carbon-intensive or unsustainable materials such as single-use plastics. Changes in consumer behaviour such as reductions in business travel could lead to lower footfall in some of our stores. A switch to lower-carbon products could lead to reduced sales of some of our current lines.

Under the four-degree scenario, the world fails to address climate change, leading to global temperatures continuing to rise to four degrees or more by the end of the century. There would be no new policy or regulatory interventions and the physical impacts of climate change would be much greater under this scenario. Winters would generally be warmer and wetter in the Northern Hemisphere and there would be more frequent extreme weather events such as heavy rainfall and heatwaves. Water scarcity would be exacerbated in many regions and many coastal cities would be inundated because of rising sea levels.

Under a qualitative assessment of a four-degree scenario, incidences of major flooding or extreme heat could have a significant impact on our warehouses, stores or distribution networks. Changes in precipitation patterns could exacerbate water scarcity, leading to shortages in key raw materials for products such as bottled drinks or paper, causing supply disruption and the potential for higher costs. There could also be higher costs to pay for renewable energy if demand outstrips supply. The pressure from customers and other stakeholders for businesses to do more are also likely to be greater.

Our initial qualitative assessment shows that both scenarios present potential financial and operational risks to WHSmith by 2030, predominantly due to increased costs. However, while these risks would need to be managed, we would not have to materially change our business model. We are taking action to manage climate-related risk by:

- investing in energy efficiency to reduce consumption, and switching to renewable sources of electricity;
- optimising route planning and logistics operations to minimise fuel consumption,
- reviewing our risk management processes to ensure they include the climate-risks identified in our scenario analysis;
- ensuring business continuity plans include any disruption from major weather events, such as flooding and extreme heat.
- factoring the impact of higher carbon prices into decisionmaking for long-term projects; and
- continuing to diversify products and packaging away from carbon-intensive single-use and hard to recycle plastic materials.

Energy management

We have taken a number of measures to improve energy efficiency in our buildings. We continue to upgrade building management systems across our estate to monitor energy consumption and to optimise energy settings for lighting, heating and air conditioning to reduce consumption, whilst maintaining a welcoming and comfortable environment for all. We are replacing our current LED lights which are coming to the end of their life with new equipment, investing in newer more efficient refrigerators and introducing aerofoils (on the front of our refrigeration units to minimise additional energy consumption to deal with cold air losses. This year, we have switched our electricity consumption in the UK to 100 per cent renewable electricity.

Climate change governance

Climate change is an important component of WHSmith's sustainability programme which includes carbon emission reduction targets for our own operations and our wider value chain. Our ESG Steering Group is responsible for climate change related issues and for monitoring performance against objectives and targets. Climate change forms part of a bi-annual update report to the Board on our sustainability activities. In addition, climate-related risks and opportunities are integrated into the management processes and reporting frameworks which feed into the Group Risk report to the Audit Committee as described on page 52. This year, the Board introduced a new ESG sub-committee, and oversight of climate change strategy will be part of its remit.

Management of climate-related risks

Identification, assessment and management of the risks from climate change follow our established risk management process, as described on page 21. Emerging climate change risks are part of the Brand and reputation principal risk on page 24 and the Business interruption principal risk on page 25. These principal risks are monitored by the Audit Committee to ensure effective management and risk mitigation through appropriate policies, processes and performance improvements.

Metrics and targets

WHSmith has a long history of reducing Scope 1 and 2 emissions in line with the trajectory needed to limit global warming to 1.5 degrees. Since 2007, we have reduced location-based Scope 1 and 2 emissions by over 60 per cent.

Last year we set a target to reduce Scope 1 and 2 emissions from our UK buildings to net zero by the end of 2021 and from our international buildings by the end of 2025. Our target included emissions reductions from energy efficiency, investment in energy saving equipment and a switch to renewable electricity. Only once all these measures had been taken, would we use investment in third party carbon removal schemes, such as afforestation, to neutralise any residual emissions. We achieved the target for our UK operations for this year (see overleaf).

Going forwards, we are amending our use of terminology to reflect the latest guidance from international standards organisations such as the Science Based Target Initiative (SBTI). Our approach is in line with a 1.5 degree reduction pathway and we will be seeking SBTi approval for our targets during the next financial year.

WH Smith PLC Annual Report and Accounts 2021

Our Scope 1 and 2 market-based carbon emissions decreased this year to 6,684 tonnes (2020: 29,695 tonnes) of CO₂e as a result of:

- a reduction in energy consumption because of store closures due to Covid-19;
- energy reduction measures such as investment in more efficient lighting and cooling systems,
- a switch to 100 per cent renewable electricity contracts for all sites where we purchase the power, and
- investment in renewable electricity certificates to negate any emissions from sites where landlords control the power supply. All certificates were provided under the Renewable Guarantees of Origin scheme, which is a UK and European regulated initiative to provide transparency to consumers about the proportion of electricity that suppliers source from renewable generation. The certificates were retired on our behalf to avoid double-counting.

Emissions from our UK operations were 2,688 tonnes (2020: 24,382 tonnes) of CO₂e. These residual emissions arise from the combustion of natural gas and to date, we have been unable to remove them completely as alternative technologies appropriate for our buildings do not yet exist. In order to neutralise these residual emissions and reduce net emissions from our UK buildings to zero, we purchased carbon reduction certificates from a Verified Carbon Standard afforestation scheme which is acting as a carbon sink for an equivalent amount of emissions to the residual emissions from our gas supply.

The largest proportion of our overall carbon footprint lies within our Scope 3 emissions and principally from the production of goods and services which we procure from our suppliers. We undertook analysis to estimate these emissions in 2019, when sales were at pre-pandemic levels and emissions were therefore higher than they have been this year. These Scope 3 emissions are more than 15 times greater than our Scope 1 and 2 emissions across our worldwide Group and a major part of our overall carbon footprint. We have set a target that by 2025, we will engage with suppliers covering 50 per cent of our carbon footprint from purchased goods and services to encourage them to have plans in place to decarbonise in line with a 1.5 degree pathway and ultimately reach net zero by 2040.

In addition to emissions from purchased goods and services, we also measure and track Scope 3 emissions from other material sources, including from the combustion of fuel for the transport of products from distribution centres to stores and from business travel.

Further information on climate change metrics and our approach is available in our Sustainability Report 2021 available on our

We engaged Corporate Citizenship to provide independent limited assurance of the greenhouse gas emissions data in the table above in accordance with assurance standards ISAE 3000 and 3410 Corporate Citizeships (full assurance standard is available in our Sustainability Report 2021). Emissions have been calculated using the methodology defined in the GHG Protocol Corporate Standard. We use the market-based method for calculating Scope 2 emissions for our total emissions to account for our purchasing of low-carbon energy. In previous years, we have reported Scope 2 location-based emissions and they are provided here for disclosure only. 2020 Scope 2 emissions have been restated to remove US stores which are run as franchises or joint ventures in line with the rest of our reporting. Our reporting boundary includes our operations in the UK and our directly-run international businesses where we have operational control, consistent with those included in our consolidated financial statements. Selected Scope 3 emissions are for UK only and have been calculated in accordance with the Corporate Value Chain (Scope 3) Accounting and Reporting Standard. Further data and full details of the scope and methodology for reporting carbon emissions are available in our Sustainability Report 2021.

Waste management

Waste is not only damaging to the environment but adds additional cost to our business, so we are focused on reducing excess materials and maximising recycling wherever we can. In our High Street stores, we operate a recycling system which enables us to recycle most forms of waste, including cardboard, paper, plastics and metals. Waste is also segregated in our distribution centres and offices. Overall, 93 per cent of our waste was diverted from landfill during this financial year (2020- 88 per cent).

The number of food lines that we sell is growing, and we are working hard to eliminate food waste. One of the main sources of food waste is from unsold sandwiches which have reached their use-by date. We have implemented a number of initiatives, including stock control systems to improve forecasting of chilled food sales, so that we only stock food that we expect to sell, reducing waste volumes. We operate a discounting strategy in all our stores, engaging store colleagues to reduce the price of any sandwiches that are approaching but have not yet exceeded their use-by date.

Packaging materials are designed to protect items to maintain quality and enhance product shelf life. However, excessive packaging can negatively impact the environment, because energy and raw materials such as forestry products or oil are used in the manufacturing process. Inappropriate disposal of packaging can also impact the air, land and marine environments when it is no longer needed.

We regularly review the type and quantities of packaging we use, including primary packaging of our own-brand products and the secondary packaging used to protect goods during transit and distribution. We seek to identify opportunities to minimise packaging where possible and use more environmentally-sustainable solutions such as cardboard for products, and re-usable skips for internal transfer of stock.

This year, we have redesigned the packaging for our seasonal ranges, including Christmas and Back to School, removing unnecessary packaging where possible, and switching from mixed plastics to paper, card or easier-to-recycle plastic where packaging is needed. In our own-brand products, we have also moved away from the use of loose plastic glitter that could make its way into the water or land environments. We are continuing discussions with our suppliers to look for further opportunities to reduce the quantity of materials we use.

All plain, bottled water ranges are now contained in 100 percent recycled plastic and we have introduced a much wider range of refillable water bottles into our stores. A number of our London Heathrow Airport Terminal stores now host water refilling stations, where customers can refill their re-usable water bottles free of charge.

Sustainable forestry

Paper-based products are a core part of WHSmith's business and we are committed to minimising the environmental impacts from paper sourcing for our own-brand products. We will only use recycled material or virgin (i.e. non-recycled) material from known, legal, well-managed and credibly-certified forests.

As part of our work towards this objective, and in line with the requirements of national and international timber regulations, we carry out an in-depth and rigorous assessment of supplier timber-sourcing systems. We have set recycled or certified timber materials as a minimum standard, which gives additional assurance that materials originate from low risk sources. A copy of our Sustainable Forests Policy is available on our website at whsmithplc.co.uk/sustainability <<http://whsmithplc.co.uk/sustainability>>.

Our sourcing teams work with our suppliers to help them understand our requirements and how the data they provide is needed to demonstrate that any paper, card or wood used in a WHSmith product is sourced from a certified or recycled source. We can now demonstrate through certification that 99.3 per cent of our stationery products contain materials originating from certified and recycled material, and we are aiming for 100 percent by next year.

People

Our employees and those who work for us in our supply chain and for our business partners are vital to our success. They make our business and are critical to our customers' experiences and perceptions of WHSmith. We want to attract, motivate and retain the best people to deliver great customer service and help our business to grow.

The Group employs approximately 11,000 people, primarily in the UK, and is proud of its long history of being regarded as a responsible and respected employer. We have a full suite of employee policies and further information is produced below and in our Code of Business Conduct available on our website at whsmithplc.co.uk/sustainability <<http://whsmithplc.co.uk/sustainability>>

WHSmith recognises that talented people are core to the success of our business, whatever their age, race, religion, gender, sexual orientation or physical ability. We are committed to promoting a culture of equality and diversity through our policies, procedures and working practices. We want to ensure that all our employees receive equal and fair treatment, and this applies to recruitment and selection, terms and conditions of employment, promotion, training, development opportunities and employment benefits. We believe in creating a culture throughout the Company that is free from discrimination and harassment and will not permit or tolerate discrimination in any form.

We have developed a new diversity and inclusion action plan to deliver our goal of creating an environment where everybody is welcome, can thrive, and is valued for their contribution. It is focused on data and systems, communication and engagement, and partnership and collaboration. We have improved the quality of data and information that we hold in relation to employee diversity and developed our internal communication processes with greater use of relatable, personal stories to cultivate a shared understanding of different perspectives.

We have signed several industry charters, committing to making progress on improving diversity and inclusion in our business. This year we became one of eight founding members of a collaboration community called Diversity in Retail, which is dedicated to increasing diversity and inclusion at all levels within organisations in the retail sector. We are also signatories to the British Retail Consortium's Diversity and Inclusion Charter.

We have a range of activities designed to promote more women into senior positions, including a balanced succession planning process. Mentoring plays a critical role in the development of our talent pipeline at all levels, providing targeted one-to-one support from a more senior role model. We continue to work with Everywoman' who provide a host of personal development tools aimed at women, including monthly webinars, workbooks and relevant career development articles. The partnership also provides our employees with links to an external network of professional women in other organisations so that contact, connections and relationships can be made easily.

We are continuing to build our understanding of diversity and inclusion and to look at ways to increase ethnic diversity at senior levels in our organisation. We have signed the Race at Work Charter and have established a Diversity Forum, chaired by our Group Chief Executive, where employees are encouraged to provide feedback, commentary and suggestions for improving diversity and inclusion in WHSmith.

We benchmark our diversity profile versus our peers and the national average to ensure that our employee profile and that of our management team reflect our commitment to diversity. Our latest gender pay gap report can be found on our website.

In terms of equal opportunities, the Company gives full and fair consideration to applications for employment when these are received from disabled people. Should an employee become disabled when working for the Company, we will endeavour to adapt the work environment and provide retraining if appropriate so that they may continue their employment. Training, career development and promotion opportunities are equally applied for all our employees, regardless of disability.

Learning and development

Our learning and development programmes are designed to support our employees as they develop their careers. We provide a range of learning opportunities and initiatives that are designed to help our employees develop their skills and experience. These include online courses, workshops, mentoring and coaching. We review and develop these activities to ensure that they continue to meet the requirements of our business and the learning and development needs for our employees.

Individuals have regular career conversations with their managers during the year, with more formal performance reviews taking place annually. In addition to monitoring performance, we also use a model of employee potential to help us to identify, develop and retain our talent within the business.

To ensure the safety of employees and customers during the Covid-19 outbreak, we rolled out online training for all store colleagues to ensure they were fully aware of the operational changes and health and safety precautions introduced in response to the pandemic. All employees in store-based roles were required to complete and pass the training course prior to returning to work.

Employee share ownership

The Company operates an HM Revenue & Customs Approved Save-As-You-Earn share option scheme ('Sharesave Scheme') which provides employees with the opportunity to acquire shares in the Company. Approximately 660 employees participate in the scheme.

Safety and wellbeing

We are committed to maintaining high standards of health and safety. The management team monitors key safety performance indicators; and an Annual report detailing trends, performance and recommendations is presented to the Board. The business has a Health and Safety Committee that comprises employee representatives and professional health and safety advisers. We provide an ongoing programme for staff in stores, consisting of safety training tailored to specific roles within store that focus on key issues such as fire safety, manual handling and slips, trips and falls. A copy of our Health and Safety at Work Policy is available on our website at whsmithplc.co.uk/sustainability and is the basis for our health and safety management system which sets out our procedures and processes.

We believe that supporting the mental wellbeing of our employees is just as important as looking after their physical health and safety. Our strategy to promote mental wellbeing has three main objectives: to improve awareness and reduce stigma, to raise the level of mental health support across the business; and develop a culture which promotes good mental health.

We work in partnership with accredited organisations, such as Time to Change, and mental health charities including MQ, the mental health research charity; Place2Be, the leading national children's mental health charity, and CALM, a movement against male suicide.

We worked closely with Mental Health First Aid (MHFA) England to create a tailored approach to training and over 1,100 line managers have received a half-day MHFA awareness course. We have an equal number of mental and physical health first aiders.

This year, we also launched a new scheme in association with Salary Finance, through which employees can access free financial education and loans at lower interest rates than those offered by traditional lenders. Employees pay down their existing debts by replacing them with a single, low-interest employee loan which enables them to build a positive credit history.

Human rights

We are committed to ensuring full respect for the human rights of anyone working for us in any capacity and we are committed to ensuring there is fair and safe work for all employees throughout our supply chain. We have developed a due diligence process to make sure we are identifying and assessing any potential and actual risks, and that we are providing appropriate risk control, mitigation and remedy where needed. Our approach to human rights is laid out in our Human Rights Policy (available at whsmithplc.co.uk/sustainability) which provides further information on our due diligence processes and the minimum requirements that everyone working for and on behalf of WHSmith must meet.

We have identified six priority areas for protecting human rights in our supply chain: health and safety; freedom of association and collective bargaining, access to grievance mechanisms; working hours and overtime, preventing modern slavery and gender equality. We work with suppliers and other third parties to develop and progress targets and action plans for improvements across these areas.

We take a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery. Our Modern Slavery Statement (available at whsmithplc.co.uk/sustainability) sets out the steps we have taken to prevent modern slavery in our own operations and supply chain.

Sourcing responsibly

One of our key social risks is the need for us to source products sustainably, ensuring that workers in our supply chain are treated well, and that their human rights are respected. WHSmith is a member of the Ethical Trading Initiative, an alliance of companies, trade unions and NGOs that promotes respect for workers' rights around the globe. Our Responsible Sourcing Standards are based on the ETI Base Code and underpin our strategy and sustainable sourcing activities. We will only place orders with suppliers who are committed to working towards compliance with these standards, and we endeavour to bring about continual improvement through a programme of factory audits and ongoing engagement.

Our in-house audit and engagement team conducts audits of our own-brand suppliers at least every two years, assessing compliance with our Code of Conduct and grading suppliers Gold, Silver, Bronze and Unacceptable. We use a mix of announced and unannounced audits and a factory must be graded Bronze or above if we are to work with them. The Board reviews our responsible sourcing strategy annually, looking at our audit and engagement programmes, emerging trends and risks, targets and performance.

To supplement the information we gain from supplier audits, our team also spends a significant part of its time engaging with suppliers on an ongoing basis to build stronger and more transparent relationships. The team's engagement focuses on resolving specific issues identified during audits and on delivering wider projects to help suppliers deliver on key areas such as worker representation or health and safety. We have an independent hotline for workers to report issues they are concerned about, which we then investigate and follow up with suppliers to ensure they are addressed.

Communities

WHSmith is at the heart of communities across the UK and we are committed to making a positive impact wherever we operate. As a major retailer of books and stationery we are particularly passionate about literacy and life-long learning. We are a long-term advocate for the development of reading and writing skills and we have provided help over many years to children and young people who need additional support.

We have a long-term partnership with the National Literacy Trust, and this year we continued our support for their Young Readers' Programme, providing books and other materials for schools in socio-economically disadvantaged areas of the country. In addition, the WHSmith Group Charitable Trust provided financial support for the programme, supported by donations from WHSmith customers and employees.

This year we joined forces with the National Literacy Trust, Macmillan Children's Books and Marcus Rashford, MBE, to donate books and provide financial support to help those children most in need to develop their reading and writing skills. For every copy of Marcus's book, 'You Are a Champion: How to Be the Best You Can Be', that we sold, we agreed to gift a copy for distribution to those most unlikely to own a book of their own. We also provided an opportunity for customers to donate to help the work of the National Literacy Trust through our till points and website. The campaign has raised over 30,000 books and £40,000 in the space of a few months. We also gifted a further 1,500 books to school libraries as part of the campaign.

WHSmith continues to take a leading role in the delivery of the World Book Day initiative, which is the biggest annual celebration of books and reading in the UK. World Book Day took place this year under the continuing impact of Covid-19. Normally our stores run special events such as competitions, fancy dress and author signing sessions, but many of these had to be curtailed this year. We were still able to redeem 244,000 book vouchers enabling children to choose one of the special World Book Day books or offset the cost against any of our children's ranges of books. We also partnered with the WHSmith Trust to donate WHSmith vouchers to schools across the UK for them to choose books to increase their school library resources. Over 250 schools were helped in this way with £25,000 of vouchers being donated.

This year, through our charity partnerships, colleague and customer fundraising and in-kind donations we have donated nearly £1 million to charities and other good causes. The full extent of our community investment activity, measured in alignment with the B4SI (formerly the London Benchmarking Group) reporting model, is outlined in our Sustainability Report 2021.

Principles and responsible practice

We aim to always act with integrity, making the right decisions and demonstrating the appropriate behaviours to earn the respect of our customers and all those with whom we do business. Our Code of Business Conduct available on our website sets out how our business operates, and what is expected of every person who works for and on behalf of WHSmith. Our Code includes our policies relating to individual conduct, including anti-bribery and anti-corruption measures, conflicts of interest and data protection, as well as those relating to how we work together, including diversity and inclusion, anti-harassment and bullying and health and safety. It also sets out our business standards in relation to fair trading practices, such as pricing and marketing, quality and product safety, trade controls, competition and supply chain practices.

Anti-bribery and anti-corruption

WHSmith prides itself on its values and commitment to acting with integrity throughout the organisation and we will not tolerate bribery, corruption or extortion in any form, either within our own operations or in those businesses working on our behalf. Our Code of Business Conduct sets out in detail how those working for us should behave and what they should do if they are confronted with bribery or corruption. We require all employees and anyone working for us in any capacity to comply with the UK Bribery Act, in addition to any local anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws. Our Code states that employees or others working on our behalf must never offer or accept any kind of bribe, and that our subcontractors, consultants, agents and others we work with must have similar anti-bribery and corruption measures in place.

All employees are required to confirm that they have read and accept our Code of Business Conduct on an annual basis and are encouraged to report any suspected breaches using our confidential Speak Up helpline.

Full details of how we engage with charities and other good causes are set out in our Code of Business Conduct (available at atwhsmithplc.co.uk/sustainability)

Section 172(1) statement

This statement describes how the directors have had regard to the matters set out in Section 172 of the Companies Act 2006 (the Act) in exercising their duty to promote the success of the Company for the benefit of its members as a whole.

Section 172 of the Act requires a director of a company to act in the way he or she considers, in good faith, would most likely promote the success of the company for the benefit of its members as a whole. In doing this, Section 172 requires a director to have regard amongst other matters to the:

- a) likely consequences of any decisions in the long-term;
- b) interests of the company's employees,
- c) need to foster the company's business relationships with suppliers, customers and others;
- d) impact of the company's operations on the community and environment;
- e) desirability of the company maintaining a reputation for high standards on business conduct; and
- f) need to act fairly as between members of the company.

Information on how the Board operates can be found in the Corporate governance report on pages 41 to 48

Examples of how the directors have had regard to the matters set out in Section 172 when discharging their duties are set out in the following pages

Key stakeholder groups can be impacted in different ways by decisions which are taken by the Board. The directors consider that the groups listed below are the Company's key stakeholders. They are identified as those most likely to be affected by the principal decisions of the Board

- Employees: the people at WHSmith are its greatest resource and the strength of the business depends on committed colleagues who feel engaged, motivated and appreciated.
Our employees expect to feel valued, be rewarded fairly, treated with respect and dignity and have opportunities for personal growth and career development
- Customers, customers are why we exist - maintaining their loyalty and enthusiasm for our brands is critical to our success. Our customers expect that the Company offers a wide range of products at an accessible price, is responsive to their needs and trades fairly and responsibly
- Investors: our investors include individual and institutional shareholders and providers of debt and financial capital, such as banks and bondholders. Access to liquidity is vital to the long-term performance of the business and the Board works to ensure that the Company's investors and banks have a strong understanding of our strategy and performance. Investors want a return on their investment, delivered in a responsible and sustainable way
- Suppliers and landlords mutually trusted partnerships with suppliers and landlords are vital in enabling the Company to offer a wide range of quality products at affordable prices from optimal store locations. Our delivery partners look to the Company for a productive business relationship, allowing them to further their own businesses.
- Communities and the environment: community acceptance and respect for the environment provide us with a licence to operate. The Company is committed to operating responsibly, helping local communities and good causes where it can add the most value and minimising its impact on the environment.
- Pensioners, the Company is committed to ensuring that it meets its obligations to current and past employees who rely upon it to fund their pensions. The Company engages with these stakeholder groups regularly to ensure that the Board is aware of their views and interests. These stakeholder views and concerns are integral to ensuring a considered and balanced approach to the Board's decisionmaking processes

The Board accesses information from stakeholders through a number of methods including direct engagement by Board members, for example, through store visits and meetings with stakeholder groups such as employees, investors and suppliers, and indirectly through the review of reports and updates from senior executives who meet regularly with stakeholder groups

Employees

The Board engages with employees through a number of different methods.

- the Group Chief Executive and other senior executives hold regular face-to-face updates with employees on matters including the Group's strategy and business performance;
- senior executives attend business meetings throughout the year, including business executive meetings, trading meetings and risk committee meetings,
- employee engagement surveys are held regularly to gather staff views on working for WHSmith. In the Company's head offices, (the businesses run quarterly employee forums where team representatives are encouraged to raise any issues or concerns. A number of the senior executives also have direct mailboxes for employees to raise any issues, questions or concerns and these are reported to the Board by those senior executives;
- Simon Emeny is the designated non-executive director for workforce engagement and leads on ensuring effective engagement with the workforce. Simon Emeny has, during the year, joined senior executives on calls with their teams; for example, he joined Heidi Reynolds, Retail Director, High Street, on her regular Ask Heidi! call with her team and has also attended the High Street and Travel employee forums;
- during the financial year, the Group Chief Executive and other senior executives held weekly briefings via webinars for all employees. At the briefings, employees were given the opportunity to ask questions on any issues relating to the operation of the Company, including on remuneration, working conditions and performance;

- employees are given regular written updates and reminders on operational issues This year, this included regular communications on the Company's wide-ranging support programmes, such as our Employee Assistance Programme to support with counselling services, the WHSmith Benevolent Fund to support employees and their families with financial hardship and ways to access trained Mental Health First Aiders if needed; and
- the Group HR Director provides regular updates to the Board on employee-related matters, including staff retention rates, learning and development, gender pay gap, diversity and inclusion, staff surveys and workforce remuneration.

The Audit Committee has oversight of the Company's whistleblowing policy on behalf of the Board. The Company's whistleblowing helpline allows employees to raise concerns regarding misconduct and breach of the Company's policies. The Audit Committee receives reports on any matters of concern raised by employees, reviews the whistleblowing arrangements which are then discussed by the Board

The key topics and feedback that the Board obtained from our engagement with our employees this year included:

Restructuring: as a result of the ongoing impact of Covid-19 and the impact on footfall on the high street, the Board reviewed the operating structure of the High Street stores and agreed the implementation of a change programme to introduce greater in-store employee flexibility. The High Street business consulted with employees and unions/employee representative groups on the new operating structure. Following the implementation of the changes the High Street business has increased the number of sales assistants enabling the business to trade more effectively across the week.

Return to the office- after a prolonged period of home-working for many employees, some raised questions and concerns about the return to office working, and a desire for flexible working arrangements. The Board received an update from the HR Director on the Company's new approach to agile working for head office employees in advance of the Company asking employees to return to the office The Board believes that it is important to retain a balance for employees to work flexibly but at the same time maintaining the high performing culture which is important to the long term success of the Company In advance of a return to the office, employees were provided with information and guidance on these matters in order to help provide clarity in an uncertain and worrying time.

Providing a safe working environment: the safety and wellbeing of our staff continues to be a priority for the Board. The Board is very proud of our store colleagues who have done an outstanding job in serving customers. The Board oversaw the ongoing application of safety measures for all employees in line with government guidelines and advice, which include social distancing measures, PPE for colleague use, hygiene stations, protective screens at till points, enhanced cleaning and encouraged use of self-checkout or contactless payment. The Company's distribution centres continued to be operational with effective social distancing measures in place and head office staff continued to work from home, where possible The Board was updated on the Company's programmes to promote employee wellbeing, for example, through our mental health first aider programme and annual Wellbeing at Work week.

Diversity and inclusion our Diversity and Inclusion (D&I) Committee continued to receive feedback from employees on the Company's approach to equality and inclusion The Board recognises the importance of a diverse workforce and an inclusive culture The Board was updated on the Company D&I activities which took place this year and is supportive of plans for further activity in the forthcoming months.

Customers

The Company regularly listens to its customers and responds to their feedback. The Company's store teams and dedicated customer service team are in constant dialogue with customers, and ensure that customer feedback is communicated to the relevant parts of the business and taken into account as the business develops and implements its policies, operational activities and product ranges

The Board receives regular updates on customer feedback and service standards across the stores and has put systems in place to ensure that it complies with all relevant product safety legislation. During the year, the Board took all necessary steps to help ensure the safety of customers whilst visiting the stores by ensuring that the Company complied with all relevant social distancing measures The Board took the decision to keep the stores open to support the communities they serve.

Other key feedback that the Board obtained from engagement with customers related to the nature of store environments, the availability of products, value for money, online offerings, customer service and ethical trading As a result of this feedback, we have extended our categories and ranges to reflect the specific needs of our customers. The Company aims to offer customers a choice of products at competitive prices across all store formats The Board also approved new targets to reduce the environmental impact from packaging by removing it, switching to more eco-friendly options and minimising waste The Board also recognises that we will need to work with our suppliers in order to achieve our targets. You can read more about our environmental and responsible sourcing activities in the Non-financial information statement on pages 29 to 36.

Investors

The Board recognises the importance of communicating with its shareholders to ensure that its strategy and performance are understood. The Group Chief Executive and CFO/COO update the Board following meetings with major shareholders, and when requested to do so, the Chairman and non-executive directors also attend those meetings.

During the year, the Company provided updates on developments in trading in the form of stock market announcements to ensure that all shareholders were informed about the impact of Covid-19 on the business

The Company engages with investors in one-to-one meetings to discuss specific elements of the business. We communicate with shareholders through our results presentation, AGM, investor roadshows, and our investor relations department. As a result of Covid-19 restrictions we were not able to hold a physical AGM in January 2021. Notwithstanding the restrictions, the Board considered it important that all shareholders were provided with the opportunity to raise questions. To enable this, shareholders were invited to submit questions ahead of the meeting and the Directors' responses were made available on the Company's website. The next AGM will be held at the offices of Herbert Smith Freehills LLP, Exchange House, Primrose Street, London EC2A 2EG at 11.30 am on Wednesday 19 January 2022. The Notice of AGM 2022 is now available to view and download from our website at whsmithplc.co.uk <<http://whsmithplc.co.uk>>.

The Board receives reports and updates on shareholder relations at each meeting to ensure that the Board and its Committees are kept informed of investors' and advisers views on strategy and corporate governance

During the year, the Chairman spoke to some of Company's largest shareholders to discuss the Board's succession plan and composition of the Board. The Remuneration Committee also consulted with the Company's largest shareholders and shareholder representatives on its proposed new remuneration policy in anticipation of presenting the new policy to shareholders at the 2022 AGM. For more information, please see the Remuneration report on page 58.

A key issue for the Board during the year was the approach that it took to improve the Company's liquidity position as a result of the impact of Covid-19 on its trading and financial position, and when taking decisions, carefully considered the interests of its employees, customers, shareholders and suppliers. In April 2021, the Board consulted with shareholders, investors and banks in order to secure new financing arrangements to strengthen its balance sheet, working capital and liquidity position. The new financing arrangements include a new £250m revolving credit facility (previously £200m) with an extended maturity until April 2025 and provided by an expanded syndicate of lending banks.

In addition, the issue of a £327m convertible bond provided £50m of new capacity for the Company to fund the opening of over 100 new Travel stores won and yet to open over the next three years and new growth opportunities. The remainder of the proceeds was used to partially pay down the £400m term loans from both the Marshall Retail Group and InMotion acquisitions. The maturity of the new £133m term loan is also April 2025. You can read more about the Company's finances on pages 98 to 162.

The Board also considered the Group's capital allocation policy. The Board reviewed the trading performance and liquidity position of the Company in order to progress the Company's long-term strategy and manage any ongoing Covid-19 disruption. The Board looked at the increased need for capital expenditure in respect of new store wins and the likely recovery of travel in the UK, North America and the other markets in which we operate during the year. The Board recognises the importance of providing our shareholders with consistent and reliable dividend returns but, with so much uncertainty around the course of the pandemic and its economic effects, the Board believed it was sensible and appropriate to suspend the payment of dividends to shareholders for the duration of the financial year ended 31 August 2021 to protect the Company's balance sheet. The Board will continue to keep its capital allocation policy under review.

More information on how the Board engages with its shareholders can be found in the Corporate governance report on pages 47 and 48

Suppliers/landlords

The Board is provided with information about key suppliers as and when relevant to Board discussions, including when approval of material contracts/leases is required. The Company aims to be a trusted partner for suppliers and landlords, with established policies covering the way in which we transact with them. The Company engages with its suppliers and landlords in a number of ways including

- direct engagement via individual supplier and landlord meetings;
- supplier conferences for major groups of suppliers such as trade suppliers for individual businesses or geographies, or suppliers of Goods Not for Resale, and
- supplier feedback surveys

The Company has a well-established ethical trade programme aimed at improving labour standards for workers in our supply chain and to ensure that our products are sourced responsibly. The Board receives an annual update from the Company's Head of Sustainability on how the Company is meeting its obligations and to ensure the Board is kept informed of developing best practice.

The Board has ensured that the Company has maintained a dialogue with suppliers and landlords to mitigate disruption and understand their concerns as a result of Covid-19. The Company continued to pay most of its suppliers and landlords during the year in accordance with agreed contractual terms or negotiated rent deals. The Board will also ensure that the Company will continue to work closely with our suppliers to manage any changes in the supply chain as a result of Brexit.

This year, the Board approved a target to reduce our Scope 3 emissions by engaging with suppliers representing approximately 50 per cent of our emissions to ensure they have plans in place to decarbonise in line with a science-based target to maintain global warming to 1.5°C. The Company also continues to work with suppliers to reduce waste from packaging and from single-use plastics. This year, we worked with suppliers of packaging for our online business to ensure materials were plastic free and fully recyclable.

The Board also continued to explore new business opportunities during the year. We worked with our UK Airport landlords to win 30 technology stores across all UK airports. These stores will trade under the InMotion brand, the Company's market-leading US technology business in travel locations which was acquired in November 2018. Combining our learnings and expertise from North America, these stores will provide Airport passengers with a superior customer service experience and a combination of premium products from brands such as Apple, Bose and Samsung, as well as an extensive range of tech accessories. The Board believes that in a fully recovered travel environment these stores will deliver significant shareholder returns.

Community and environment

The Board places great importance on ensuring that the Company helps community groups and good causes that are closely aligned with the business, and that it operates in a way which minimises the impact on the environment. Engagement with community groups and others includes:

- regular meetings with key charity partners, including the National Literacy Trust, mental health charity partners and other charity community organisations located close to our stores.
- engagement through meetings, correspondence and survey responses with non-governmental organisations, trade bodies and others with an interest in community and environmental activities, including the Ethical Trade Initiative, WWF and CDP, and
- questions, views and concerns through the corporate.responsibility@whsmith.co.uk <mailto:corporate.responsibility@whsmith.co.uk> inbox which is available for anyone to make contact with the Company on any issues relating to community or the environment.

The Board received regular updates on the Company's key community and environment activities from the Head of Sustainability. This year, the Board reviewed progress against the objectives defined in the Company's sustainability strategy approved by the Board last year, which relate to the most important environmental and social issues for the business. These include a science-based target for carbon emissions in line with reductions required to limit global warming to 1.5°C, and reaching net zero for Scope 1 and 2 emissions by 2025. The Board also took the decision to create a new Committee which will help us manage our sustainability strategy, our Journey to a Better Business across the three themes of Planet, People and Communities. You can read more about the work of the ESG Committee on page 29. Further details are provided in our 2021 Sustainability Report available at whsmithplc.co.uk/ <http://whsmithplc.co.uk/>investors/results-reports-and-presentations/corporate-responsibility-reports

The Board also decided to continue with the long-term focus on children's literacy and to work in partnership with others to tackle inequalities in the ability of children to read and write. It endorsed the launch of a partnership between the Company, the National Literacy Trust and Macmillan Children's Books, supported by Marcus Rashford MBE, to ensure every child in the United Kingdom has access to a book of their own.

Further details are provided in the Strategic report on pages 34 to 35.

Defined benefit pension fund

During the year, the Board engaged with the Trustees of the WHSmith Pension Trust, who have a fiduciary duty to the members and beneficiaries of the Company's defined benefit pension scheme, to ensure that the scheme is sufficiently funded. The CFO/C00 and the Finance Director - Group regularly meet with the Chair of the Trustees and attend the Trustee meetings to report on annual and interim results. The Board agreed with the Trustees, the latest triennial valuation, and funding plan to ensure that the Company's defined benefit pension scheme remains well-positioned to meet its liabilities.

This Strategic report was approved by the Board on 11 November 2021.

Board changes

The Board has continued to give extensive thought to the rotation of long-serving directors given the ongoing impact of Covid-19 on the Company. Corporate governance

The Company has commenced a search for my replacement and, at the request of the Board, I have agreed to stay on until my successor is appointed in 2022. The Board believes that this staggered approach to replacing long-standing directors is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders as it will allow the Board to refresh itself whilst at the same time retaining valuable expertise and knowledge as the Company looks to recover from the impact of Covid-19.

I would like to thank Annemarie for her valuable contribution and strong commitment to the Company.

Covid-19 response

Unfortunately, as with the wider economy and society more generally, the Company and its stakeholders have continued to be impacted by Covid-19. The Board has, throughout this crisis, taken decisive action in order to mitigate the impact of Covid-19 on the Company and its stakeholders. You can read more about the action the Board took as a result of Covid-19 on page 45 and the impact that Covid-19 has had on the Company in the Strategic report on pages 2 to 40

Corporate governance statement

This report, which forms part of the Directors' report, together with the Strategic report and Directors remuneration report provides details of how the Company has applied the principles of the Code.

Throughout the year ended 31 August 2021 and up to the date of this report, the Board considers that it has complied with the provisions of the Code except as follows.

1. Chairman's tenure (Provision 19): Henry Staunton's tenure as Chairman of the Company. Henry Staunton was appointed to the Board in September 2010 and became Chairman in September 2013. The Board believes that it is important to the ongoing success of the Company that Henry Staunton remains as Chairman as the Company looks to recover from the impact of Covid-19 Henry Staunton continues to provide invaluable help and support to Carl Cowling, Group Chief Executive He is continuing to help lead the recovery of the Company following the impact of Covid-19. The Board believes that Henry Staunton continues to act and perform effectively as Chairman. For these reasons, while mindful of Provision 19 of the Code that requires that the Chairman should not remain in post beyond nine years from the date of their first appointment to the Board, the Board believes that it is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders that Henry remains as Chairman of the Board for an extended period. The Board has commenced a search for Henry Staunton's replacement and, at the request of the Board, Henry Staunton has agreed to stay on until his successor is appointed in 2022 The Board believes that this staggered approach to replacing long-standing directors is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders as it will allow the Board to refresh itself whilst at the same time retaining valuable expertise and knowledge as the Company looks to recover from the impact of Covid-19
2. Pension Alignment (Provision 38): The pension contributions for Carl Cowling and Robert Moorhead reflect the historical retirement benefits available to employees that joined the Company at similar times. The Board recognises that the contribution rates under these arrangements are higher than the majority of the current workforce and, as such, the pension contribution for any new executive director is now aligned with the majority of the workforce which is approximately three per cent. The pension contributions for Carl Cowling and Robert Moorhead will be reduced to align with the wider workforce rate from 1 January 2023 3. Workforce engagement on executive remuneration (Provision 41): The Remuneration Committee has a clear and transparent approach to remuneration which is set out on ' pages 58 to 84 in the Directors' remuneration report. Whilst the Company undertakes extensive engagement with employees on a wide range of issues, including remuneration, working conditions and performance of the Company, the Remuneration Committee did not directly consult with the wider workforce on executive remuneration. Details of how executive director pay is considered in the context of the wider workforce is set out on page 67 of the Directors' remuneration report.

This year's results have again been severely impacted by Covid-19 and, as a result of which, the Company made a Headline loss before tax and non-underlying items' of £55m in the financial year ended 31 August 2021. You can read more about the actions the Company has undertaken on pages 8 to 19. The Company will also not pay any dividends in respect of the financial year ended 31 August 2021.

The Board took the following steps during the year in response to Covid-19:

Board actions: The Board was provided with regular updates from senior executives on all aspects of the impact of Covid-19, including the safety and wellbeing of our employees and customers, government advice, lockdowns, financing, supplier and landlord impacts, consumer behaviour and scenario planning.

The Board also received regular information on the Company's liquidity position, trading and financial data. In April 2021 the Company consulted with shareholders and banks in order to secure new financing arrangements to strengthen its balance sheet, working capital and liquidity position. The new financing arrangements include a new £250m revolving credit facility (previously £200m) with an extended maturity until April 2025 which is provided by an expanded syndicate of lending banks. In addition, the issue of a £327m convertible bond provided £50m of new capacity for the Company to fund the opening of approximately 100 new Travel stores and yet to open over the next three years and new growth opportunities. The remainder of the proceeds was used to partially pay down the £400m term loans from both the Marshall Retail Group and InMotion acquisitions. The maturity of the new £133m term loan is also April 2025. You can read more about the Company's finances on pages 16 to 19.

Community support: During the further lockdowns during the year, the Board took the decision to keep most of the Company's High Street and hospital stores open so that we could continue as an essential retailer to serve the communities in which we operate. The Board also took all necessary steps to help ensure the safety of customers whilst visiting our stores by ensuring that we complied with all relevant social distancing measures.

Protecting our employees: The safety and wellbeing of our staff has been a priority throughout the year. We are very proud of our store colleagues who have done an outstanding job in serving our customers. Safety measures were put in place across all our stores in line with government guidelines and advice, and included social distancing measures, PPE for colleague use, hygiene stations, protective screens at till points, enhanced cleaning and encouraged use of self-checkout or contactless payment. Our distribution centres remained operational with effective social distancing measures in place and head office staff worked from home, where possible. Carl Cowling and other senior management continued to hold regular online briefings for all employees. At the briefings, employees were given the opportunity to ask questions on any issues relating to the operation of the Company.

Additionally we have provided regular reminders to staff on our wide-ranging support plan, which includes access to trained Mental Health First Aiders and our Employee Assistance Programme which offers all employees access to free, 24/7 confidential telephone, online and face-to-face advice for problems they may be experiencing at home or work. Employees also have access to the Company's Benevolent Fund charity, which can provide financial assistance in cases of significant hardship and provide recuperative holidays and care breaks.

Board evaluation

The performance of the Board, its Committees and its individual directors is a fundamental component of the Company's success. The Board regularly reviews its own performance and carried out a formal evaluation in June 2021. The Board, in accordance with the Code, appointed an external evaluator, EquityCulture Limited, to carry out the Board evaluation this year. EquityCulture provides board evaluation services and has no other connection with the Company or any individual directors. EquityCulture have reviewed and agree with this disclosure on the Board evaluation undertaken by them. The main areas considered during the evaluation were strategy, operations and risk; succession planning; and Board and Committee meetings. The Board evaluation process was as follows: i) EquityCulture and the Chair agreed a set of questions specifically drafted for the Company's Board Evaluation. The questions were designed to focus the evaluation by Board members in a number of key areas and to cover the performance of the Board and its Committees; ii) EquityCulture used the agreed questions as the basis for interviews with each of the directors and then produced a report which compiled the results of the evaluation exercise; iii) The Chairman reviewed the results of the evaluation exercise and shared them with Board members in September 2021; and iv) in November 2021, the Board reviewed the results and agreed actions for 2022.

The results of the assessment confirmed the strength of the management of the Company, a shared focus and deep understanding of the business, a sound governance framework and practices compliant with the Code. Additionally, the culture of the Board remains very good, being open and frank, whilst also supportive and collaborative. As a result of the review, the Board agreed an action plan that will be implemented in the financial year ending 31 August 2022 and will include continued focus on executive and non-executive succession planning and the overall composition of the Board, keeping the strategy under review and focusing on the priorities of each business to deliver shareholder value; increasing focus on people issues and retention of key senior executives; and steps to improve the Board's procedures and effectiveness, including the effectiveness of the annual strategy session. The Board reviewed the agreed actions following the internally facilitated evaluation carried out in 2020 and agreed that good progress had been made in respect of these actions, including in respect of the Company's Board succession plan (most notably, the appointment of two new non-executive directors and the ongoing search for a successor to the Chairman) and improvements in the Board's procedures; for example, how the Board is updated on the key strategic initiatives which were identified at the Board strategy session. In addition to the Board and Committee evaluation process, the Group Chief Executive reviews the performance of the Chief Financial Officer/Chief Operating Officer (CFO/COO) and other senior executives. The Chairman reviews the performance of the Group Chief Executive.

The Chairman also undertook a rigorous review with each of the non-executive directors to assess their effectiveness and commitment to the role. During the year, the Chairman had regular meetings with the non-executive directors, without the executive directors present, to discuss Board issues and how to maintain the best possible team. The Board is satisfied that each of the non-executive directors dedicates sufficient time to the business of the Company and contributes to its governance and operations. The Senior Independent Director met the other non-executive directors to undertake a rigorous assessment of Henry Staunton's performance given that he has served as Chairman for eight years and has been on the Board for eleven years. The non-executive directors confirmed that there are no relationships or circumstances which are likely to affect, or could appear to affect, his judgement or independence. The non-executive directors, taking into account the views of the executive directors, concluded that Henry Staunton continues to act and perform effectively as Chairman and demonstrates his commitment to the role.

Succession planning and culture

Under the Company's Articles of Association, directors are required to retire and submit themselves for re-election every three years and new directors appointed by the Board offer themselves for election at the next AGM following their appointment. However, in accordance with the Code, the Board has agreed that all directors wishing to be appointed will stand for election or re-election at the forthcoming AGM. At the last AGM on 20 January 2021, all the directors at that time (aside from Suzanne Baxter) stood for election or re-election and were duly elected with a range of 91.01 per cent to 99.12 per cent of votes cast by shareholders.

The Company's Articles of Association give a power to the Board to appoint directors and, where notice is given and signed by all the other directors, to remove a director from office.

During the year ahead, the Board will continue to focus on succession planning to ensure the readiness of internal candidates for all key roles across the business. The Board is committed to good governance, culture and leadership, recognising that these are key considerations for a strong, sustainable business and that the tone comes from the top. Our business model on page 4 outlines the importance of having the right people and skills; and operating responsibly. The Company's values, behaviours and culture will continue to form an important part of the Board's discussions. The Nominations Committee will continue to support the Board by ensuring that culture is built into recruitment and succession considerations.

The Board monitors the culture of the business in a number of ways, including through interaction with executives, members of the senior management team, and other employees in Board meetings and on visits to stores and other Company locations, through regular Board agenda items and supporting papers, covering risk management, internal audit reports and follow-up actions, customer engagement, health and safety, employee engagement and retention, whistleblowing and regulatory breaches; reviewing the results of staff surveys, looking at a range of employee indicators, including engagement, retention, absence, learning and development, gender pay, diversity, workforce composition and demographics, and engaging with other stakeholders, as described in the Corporate governance report. During the year, the Board was satisfied that the policy, practices and behaviour of the Board and employees were aligned with the Company's purpose, values and strategy.

The Board recognises the importance of being visible and accessible to customers and employees. During the year the non-executive directors accompanied management on site visits to the High Street and Travel stores. The Board believes that site visits provide directors with valuable insights into the business, helping to deepen their knowledge and understanding of the Company. When joining the Board, a new non-executive director typically meets individually with each Board member and senior management to give them insight into all aspects of the business, including our strategy, culture, values, sustainability, governance, and the opportunities and challenges facing the business. The Company Secretary briefs them on policies, Board and Committee procedures, and core governance practice. They visit a number of business locations and meet key advisers. They also receive induction materials including recent Board and Committee papers and minutes, strategy papers, investor presentations. Matters Reserved for the Board and the Board Committees' Terms of Reference.

During the year, Nicky Dulieu and Kal Atwal participated in an induction programme, details of which are set out below:

- access to Board papers and minutes; briefing paper on the duties of directors; Terms of Reference for Committees, Group policies and procedures including the Code of Dealing,
- meetings with senior management, including the managing directors of the Group's businesses. Group HR Director. Group Risk Director. Investor Relations and Legal Director/ Company Secretary;
- meetings with advisers; and
- store visits.

The Board considered and approved that Kal Atwal could be appointed as a non-executive director of Whitbread PLC, with effect from 1 March 2021. The Board concluded that there was no conflict in Kal Atwal being appointed to the board of Whitbread PLC and that the demands associated with a non-executive director role would not affect her commitment to the Company.

Diversity policy

The Board values diversity in all its forms, both within its own membership and at all levels of the Group. The Board is highly supportive of the initiatives the Company has in place to promote diversity throughout the business. The Board believes that diversity in its widest sense is a key component to the success of the Company and receives reports on the Company's diversity profile to ensure that our workforce reflects our commitment to diversity. The Board aims to ensure its membership, and that of the wider Group, reflects diversity in its broadest sense so that it has a combination of demographics, skills, experience, race, age, gender, education and professional background thereby providing a wide range of perspectives, insights and challenge needed to support good decision-making. The Board's diversity policy aims to ensure that the Board nominations/appointments process is based on fairness, respect and inclusion, and that the search for candidates will be conducted with due regard to the benefits of diversity. It is the Company's aim to achieve a minimum of a third of women at Board and senior levels. The Board also supports the recommendations of the Parker Review on ethnic diversity and has met the '1 by 24' target. The Board recognises that there is more to do to increase the ethnic representation across the Company. For additional information on diversity and inclusion, see pages 54 and 55. In order to improve the diversity of the Company's senior management team, the Company introduced a new recruitment policy requiring that there is a shortlist of a minimum of six candidates for each vacancy of which 50 per cent must be female and at least one must be from a black or minority ethnic background. The Remuneration Committee included the Company's compliance with this policy as a personal objective for the Group Chief Executive for the annual bonus plan in the financial year ended 31 August 2021. The Company also has a Diversity and Inclusion Committee consisting of employees from across the Group together with the Group Chief Executive and the Group HR Director. The Committee met three times during the financial year ended 31 August 2021 and made recommendations on how the Company can improve its diversity.

Further information on diversity can be found in the Nominations Committee section on pages 54 and 55 and is set out in the Employees section of the Strategic report on pages 32 to 34

Risk management

The Board has overall responsibility for (he Group's system of risk management and internal control (including financial controls, controls in respect of the financial reporting process and operational and compliance controls) and has conducted a detailed review of its effectiveness during the year to ensure that management has implemented its policies on risk and control. This review included receiving reports from management, discussion, challenge, and assessment of the principal risks.

No significant failings or weaknesses were identified from this review. In addition, the Board also received presentations from management on higher risk areas, for example, the ongoing impact of Covid-19, supply chain, risks arising from Brexit and increasing the Company's food offer. The Board has established an organisational structure with clearly defined lines of responsibility which identify matters requiring approval by the Board. Steps continue to be taken to embed internal control and risk management further into the operations of the business and to deal with areas that require improvement which come to the attention of management and the Board. Such a system is, however, designed to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve business objectives, and can only provide reasonable and not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss.

The Board confirms that there is an ongoing process for identifying, evaluating and managing emerging and principal risks faced by the Group, including those risks relating to social, environmental and ethical matters The Board undertakes a robust assessment of the emerging and principal risks. The Board confirms that the processes have been in place for the year under review and up to the date of this report and that they accord with the Financial Reporting Council (FRC) Guidance on Risk Management. Internal Control and Related Financial and Business Reporting (the Risk Management and Internal Control Guidance). The processes are regularly reviewed by the Board The principal risks and uncertainties facing the Group together with the procedures and processes for identifying, managing and the steps taken to mitigate principal and emerging risks can be found in the Strategic report on pages 21 to 28.

Further information on internal controls and risk management can be found in the Audit Committee report on pages 49 to 53

FRC Audit Quality Review

The Company received a letter on 27 July 2021 from the Financial Reporting Council (FRC) noting that it had carried out a review of PwC's audit of the Company's financial statements for the year ended 31 August 2020. We were pleased with the outcome of the FRC's Audit Quality Review (AQR) which reported no key findings and a number of good practice matters and the Committee concluded that it had no concerns about the quality of the 2020 audit.

Significant financial reporting issues and areas of judgement

In preparing the financial statements, there are a number of areas requiring the exercise by management of particular judgement. The Committee's role is to assess whether the judgements made by management are reasonable and appropriate. In order to assist in this evaluation, the CFO/COO presents an accounting paper to the Committee twice a year, setting out the key financial reporting judgements, and other papers as required. The main areas of judgement that have been considered by the Committee in the preparation of the financial statements are as follows-

The Committee reviewed and challenged management's assessment of forecast cash flows for the period to 28 February 2023 including sensitivity to trading and expenditure plans, and for the potential impact of uncertainties including Covid-19 and a macroeconomic downturn. The Committee also considered the Group's financing facilities and future funding plans. Based on this, the Committee confirmed that the application of the going concern basis for the preparation of the financial statements continued to be appropriate, with no material uncertainties.

The Committee received a report from PwC on the work undertaken to assess going concern and specifically discussed the content of the disclosures made in the going concern statement in the Annual report and the basis of preparation within Note 1 of the financial statements on page 103.

The going concern statement is set out in the Directors' report on page 87. For further information see Note 1 of the financial statements on page 103.

Impairment review of store assets

The Committee received and considered a paper from management covering the judgements made in respect of the impairment testing of the Group's property, plant and equipment and right-of-use store assets. The paper recognised that there was an increased risk of asset impairment at 31 August 2021 given that sales and cost pressures and the resultant forecast reduction of future profitability in some stores caused by Covid-19 or otherwise may adversely impact the recoverable value of assets used within the store portfolio. The Committee noted that management had considered the trading results of each store for the year and noted that where a store is loss-making and is not expected to return to profitability in the near future, an impairment charge is recognised over the assets that cannot be recycled and their value recovered through the generation of future trading profits within the store portfolio. Given that management has continued to report on the performance of the business on a pre-IFRS 16 basis within its Alternative Performance Measures alongside the statutory measures derived under IFRS 16, the paper and discussions considered impairment assessment of store assets on both bases.

The Committee challenged management on the assumptions used within the impairment models and received and discussed a paper from PwC on their work in this area, which specifically considered and reported on their challenge and assessment of the key assumptions used and that the resultant charges were allocated appropriately. The Committee was satisfied that the approach adopted by management was sufficiently robust to identify when an impairment charge of store assets needs to be recognised and how it should be assessed and reported.

Goodwill and determination of operating segments

The Committee considered a paper from management on goodwill. This set out the determination of the cash-generating units (CGUs) to which goodwill has been allocated across the Group, the carrying value of goodwill, the results of the value-in-use calculations and the outcomes from impairment testing. The Committee discussed the Company's approach to allocating goodwill between the revised operating segments of Travel UK, North America and Rest of the World. The disclosures in respect of goodwill were also reviewed.

The Committee discussed PwC's paper to the Committee which set out their work undertaken in respect of goodwill and considered the approach to the accounting, CGU determination, impairment testing and disclosure used by the Company.

Convertible bond

The Committee considered a paper from management on the accounting treatment of the convertible bond. It discussed the judgements taken in respect of the accounting treatment of the conversion option on initial recognition of the bond and the valuation methodology applied. The Committee was satisfied that the judgements taken, and the resulting accounting treatment applied, are appropriate. The Committee also considered the disclosure included by management in the Annual report and accounts.

Inventory valuation

The Committee received a paper from management on accounting for and valuation of inventory, noting in particular the impact of Covid-19 on trading. It discussed the judgements made by management, with specific consideration given to inventory provisioning (both on an underlying and non-underlying basis), including provision for out-of-date, slow moving or obsolete stock and the classification and disclosure of related charges in the income statement and financial statements. The Committee also received a paper from PwC regarding the audit work they performed over the valuation of inventory and the presentation of inventory provision charges in the income statement split between underlying and non-underlying. The Committee is satisfied that the process and judgement adopted by management for the valuation of inventory is sufficiently robust to establish the value of inventory held and is satisfied as to the appropriateness of the Company's provisioning policy and presentation of inventory provisions.

WH Smith PLC Annual Report and Accounts 2021

One-off transactions

The Committee considered the presentation of the financial statements and, in particular, the use of alternative performance measures and the presentation of non-underlying items in accordance with the Group accounting policy. This policy states that adjustments are only made to reported profit before tax in determining an alternative performance measure where charges are not considered part of the normal operating costs of the business, are non-recurring or are considered exceptional because of their size, nature or incidence. The Committee received detailed reports from management outlining the judgements applied in relation to the non-underlying costs incurred during the year. These costs were attributable to the costs arising as a result of the ongoing impact of Covid-19 on the Group including restructuring costs, asset impairment charges, the cost of writing down slow moving or obsolete inventory and costs of refinancing. This was an area of major focus for the Committee which was cognisant of the need to ensure that costs were appropriately classified and that the disclosure of the non-underlying items was sufficient for users of the financial statements to understand the nature and reason for the costs. The Committee challenged management on the nature of costs classified as non-underlying, particularly discussing the factors underpinning the Covid-19 related costs and seeking specific input from PwC. PwC outlined the details and nature of the audit work carried out by them in this area, along with their consideration of the disclosures presented by management and the appropriateness of the cost classifications adopted.

Pensions

The Committee assessed the accounting treatment adopted by management and the application of IAS 19 in relation to the WHSmith defined benefit pension scheme. The Committee considered the current evidence and judgements in respect of pension accounting, reviewed the judgements made pension scheme. The Committee considered the current guidance and requirements in respect of pensions accounting, reviewed the judgements made in respect of the assumptions used in the valuation of the Company's obligations under the scheme and the recognition of future liabilities in respect of committed scheme contributions on the balance sheet. A detailed report on pensions accounting and related disclosures was provided by the auditor which set out the work performed including their challenge and assessment of key scheme valuation assumptions compared to their independently observed ranges.

Viability statement

The Committee reviewed the process and assessment of the Company's prospects made by management in support of its longer-term viability statement, including:

- the review period and alignment with the Company's internal plans and forecasts and with its work to support the going concern basis of presentation for the financial statements;
- the assessment of the capacity of the Company to remain viable after consideration of future cash flows, borrowings and mitigating factors; and
- the modelling of the potential financial impact of certain of the Company's principal risks materialising using severe but plausible scenarios, including the impact of Covid-19, on the Company's financial performance.

The Committee considered the viability statement and related analyses alongside its work on going concern, as set out in this report on page 50. It also discussed the clarity and appropriateness of the disclosures made within the viability statement and discussed these with PwC.

The viability statement is set out in the Strategic report on page 28.

Fair, balanced and understandable assessment

At the request of the Board, the Committee has considered whether, in its opinion, the 2021 Annual report and accounts, taken as a whole, is fair, balanced and understandable, and that it provides the information necessary for shareholders to assess the Company's position and performance, business model and strategy. The Committee was assisted in its review by a number of processes, including the following-

- the Annual report and accounts is drafted by senior management with overall co-ordination by a member of the Group Finance team to ensure consistency across the relevant sections,
- an internal verification process is undertaken to ensure factual accuracy;
- an independent review is undertaken by the Director of Audit and Risk to assess whether the Annual report and accounts is fair, balanced and understandable using a set of pre-defined indicators [such as consistency with internally reported information and investor communications];
- comprehensive reviews of drafts of the Annual report and accounts are undertaken by the executive directors and other senior management;
- an advanced draft is reviewed by the Board and the Company's Legal Director and, in relation to certain sections, by external legal advisers; and
- the final draft of the Annual report and accounts was reviewed by the Committee prior to consideration by the Board.

WH Smith PLC Annual Report and Accounts 2021

Corporate governance

In the current year, the Committee specifically considered the disclosures made in respect of the impact on the business of the Covid-19 pandemic and the presentation and explanation of the statutory and alternative performance measures. This included consideration of the use of measures derived consistently with IFRS 16 (Leases) and APMs derived on a pre-IFRS 16 basis (HAS 17). These pre-IFRS 16 APMs have been adopted to help to demonstrate the underlying, year on year performance of the business following the introduction of IFRS 16 during the prior year and its material impact on the Group's results.

Following its review, the Committee advised the Board that the Annual report and accounts, taken as a whole, was considered to be fair, balanced and understandable and that it provided the information necessary for shareholders to assess the Company's position and performance, business model and strategy.

Risk management and internal controls

The Committee monitors and regularly reviews the effectiveness of the Group's risk management processes and internal financial and non-financial controls. The key features of the risk management process that were in place during the year are as follows:

- each business conducts risk assessments based on identified business objectives, which are reviewed and agreed annually by the executive management of each business. Risks are considered in respect of strategy, reputation, operations, financial and compliance and are evaluated in respect of their potential impact and likelihood. These risk assessments are updated and reviewed quarterly and are reported to the Committee;
- a Group risk assessment is also undertaken by the Internal Audit team, which considers all areas of potential risk across all systems, functions and key business processes. This risk assessment, together with the business risk assessments, forms the basis for determining the Internal Audit Plan. Audit reports in relation to areas reviewed are discussed and agreed with the Committee;

- the Internal Audit team meets annually with all senior executives, to undertake a formal review and certification process in assessing the effectiveness of the internal controls across the Group. The results of this review are reported to the Committee;
- the Committee confirmed to the Board that it has reviewed the effectiveness of the systems of internal control, including financial, operational, and compliance controls and risk management for the period of this report, in accordance with the Code and the Risk Management and Internal Control Guidance;
- the Board is responsible for approving the annual budget and the three-year plan, for approving major acquisitions and disposals and for determining the financial structure of the Company, including treasury and dividend policy. Monthly results, variances from plan and forecasts are reported to the Board,
- the Committee assists the Board in the discharge of its duties regarding the Group's financial statements, accounting policies and the maintenance of internal business, operational and financial controls. The Committee invites input and attendance from members of the senior management team of the Group at its meetings to discuss the design and operation of key business and internal controls and the assessment of risks that affect the Group. The Committee provides a link between the Board and PwC through regular meetings;
- the Company has established internal control and risk management systems in relation to the process for preparing consolidated financial statements. The key features of these systems are that management regularly monitors and considers developments in accounting regulations and best practice in financial reporting and, where appropriate, reflects developments in the consolidated financial statements. PwC also keeps the Committee apprised of these developments; the Committee and the Board review the draft consolidated financial statements. The Committee receives reports from management and PwC on significant judgements, changes in accounting policies, changes in accounting estimates and other pertinent matters relating to the consolidated financial statements, and provides robust and independent challenge to management where appropriate; and the full year financial statements are subject to external audit and the half-year financial statements are reviewed by the external auditor;
- the Internal Audit team advises and assists management in the establishment and maintenance of adequate internal controls and reports to the Committee on the effectiveness of those controls;
- there is a comprehensive system for budgeting and planning and for monitoring and reporting the performance of the Company's business to the Board. Monthly results are reported against budget and prior year, and forecasts for the current financial year are regularly revised in light of actual performance. These results and forecasts cover profits, cash flows, capital expenditure and balance sheets;
- routine reports are prepared to cover treasury activities and risks, for review by senior executives, and annual reports are prepared for the Board and Committee covering tax, treasury policies, insurance and pensions; and
- the Board is committed to maintaining high standards of health and safety in all its business activities. These standards are set out in the Company's Health and Safety Policy, which is regularly reviewed by the Board. A copy of our Health and Safety Policy is available at whsmithplc.co.uk/sustainability <<http://whsmithplc.co.uk/sustainability>>The Risk Management team works with the business to assess health and safety risks and introduce systems to mitigate them. All reportable accidents are investigated and targets are set to reduce the level of incidence.

The Director of Audit and Risk attends the meetings of the Committee to discuss the above matters.

WH Smith PLC Annual Report and Accounts 2021

External auditor

During the year PwC reported to the Committee on their independence from the Company. The Committee and the Board are satisfied that PwC has adequate policies and safeguards in place to ensure that auditor objectivity and independence are maintained. The Committee has recommended to the Board the re-appointment of the external Auditors for the 2022 financial year and the directors will be proposing the re-appointment of PwC at the forthcoming AGM.

PwC were first appointed as external auditors at the 2015 AGM, following a competitive tender process completed in 2014, Jonathan Lambert was appointed as the PwC audit partner and Senior Statutory Auditor at the conclusion of the 31 August 2019 year end

In accordance with applicable law and regulation, the Company is required to conduct a competitive audit tender by December 2024. In line with the Company's policy for the external audit contract to be put out to tender at least every ten years, and in compliance with the rules on mandatory audit rotation, the Committee propose that a competitive tender process is likely to be held in 2023. The Committee considers that a competitive ¹ tender is in the best interests of our shareholders as it will allow the Company to appoint the audit firm that will provide the highest quality, most effective and efficient audit.

The Committee will continue to monitor the appointment, effectiveness and independence of PwC as external auditors, as well as considering whether this proposed timing remains appropriate in light of business developments, applicable law and regulation.

In line with our terms of reference, the Committee undertook a thorough assessment of the quality, effectiveness, value and independence of the 2020 year end audit provided by PwC. The Director of Audit and Risk prepared a questionnaire seeking the views and feedback of the Board, together with those of Group and divisional management, and it formed the basis of further discussion with respondents. Input was sought from Committee members and from members of the management team on areas including the auditor's expertise, professionalism, independence and challenge; their planning and audit approach, the quality and content of reporting and the outputs from the audit; and governance of the audit including assessment of team members' performance and independence. The findings of the survey were considered by the Committee and concluded that PwC continued to perform effectively and remains independent. As a result, PwC's re-appointment as external auditors at the forthcoming AGM is recommended to shareholders. The Committee has a formal policy on the Company's relationship with its external auditors in respect of non-audit work to ensure that auditor objectivity and independence are maintained. The policy is reviewed annually by the Committee and was updated following the introduction of the FRC Revised Ethical Standard 2019. The only significant non-audit work undertaken by PwC in the financial year ended 31 August 2021 related to the interim review Ethical Standard 2019 The only significant non-audit work undertaken by PwC in the financial year ended 31 August 2021 related to the interim review. The auditors may only provide such services if such advice does not conflict with their statutory responsibilities and ethical guidance. The Committee made enquiries of PwC and management and were satisfied that no such conflict existed.

On behalf of the Audit Committee, my approval is required before the Company uses PwC for non-audit services as specifically set out in the policy, or if the fees exceed E25,000 per matter. The Committee is satisfied that the Company was compliant during the year with both the Code and the FRC's Ethical and Auditing Standards in respect of the scope and maximum level of permitted fees incurred for non-audit services provided by PwC. For the financial year ended 31 August 2021 the non-audit fees paid to PwC were £136,100, of which £135,000 related to the interim review, and the audit fees payable to PwC were £1,450,000.

The Company has complied during the financial year under review, and up to the date of this report, with the provisions of the Statutory Audit Services for Large Companies Market Investigation (Mandatory Use of Competitive Tender Processes and Audit Committee Responsibilities) Order 2014

Chair of the Nominations Committee

Nominations Committee Dear Shareholder

As Chair of the Nominations Committee, I am pleased to present my report on the activities of the Nominations Committee for the financial year ended 31 August 2021. The Committee's principal responsibility is to ensure that the Board comprises individuals with the requisite skills, knowledge, independence and experience to ensure that it is effective in discharging its responsibilities and ensure that appropriate procedures are in place for the nomination, selection and succession of directors and senior executives.

The Committee comprises a majority of independent non-executive directors. The other members of the Committee are Kal Atwal, Carl Cowling, Nicky Dulieu, Annemarie Durbin, Simon Emeny and Maurice Thompson. In the event of any matters arising concerning my membership of the Board, I would absent myself from the meeting as required by the Code and the Senior Independent Director would take the Chair.

The Committee met twice during the year. The principal matters discussed at the meetings were succession planning for Board and senior executives, the appointment of two new non-executive directors, career planning and identifying talent across the businesses and reviewing the work that has been undertaken in respect of improving diversity in the Company's senior executive group.

In accordance with the Board's succession plan which aims to broaden the diversity of candidates to join the Board, the Committee appointed an external recruitment consultant, Annabel Richards Limited, to assist in the process of identification of potential candidates to join the Board generally and as a replacement for Annemarie Durbin who will, after nine years, step down from the Board at the forthcoming AGM. For each search, Annabel Richards initiated a search which produced a longlist of candidates, which was then reduced to a shortlist of candidates. These shortlisted candidates were interviewed by members of the Committee and the CFO/COO, and feedback on each candidate was compiled. As a result of these searches, Kal Atwal was appointed as a non-executive director on 1 February 2021 and Marion Sears will join the Board as a non-executive director on 1 February 2022. I confirm that Annabel Richards has no other relationship with the Company or individual directors.

The Committee keeps itself updated on key developments relevant to the Company, including on the subject of diversity and inclusion. Information on diversity, including gender, in respect of the Board and the Company is set out in the Employees section of the Strategic report on pages 32 to 34. The Board believes in creating throughout the Company a culture free from discrimination in any form and is proud of its long history of being regarded as a responsible and respected employer. The Board believes that the benefits of a diverse workforce will help the Company achieve its strategic objectives.

The Committee is fully committed to supporting diversity and inclusion at Boardroom and senior executive level in compliance with the Code and recognises the importance of diversity in effective decision-making. The long-term aim is to increase the diversity of our Board in all forms. The importance of diversity extends beyond the Board to senior management and throughout the Company. The Committee monitors the progress made to increase diversity at Board and senior management levels and compliance with targets and best practice recommendations set for gender diversity by the Hampton-Alexander Review and for ethnic diversity by the Parker Review.

The Hampton-Alexander Review recommended that by 2020 there would be at least 33 per cent female representation at the Board, Executive Committee positions and direct reports of the Executive Committee ('Senior Management Team'). We are pleased to report that as at 31 August 2021, three women and five men served on the Board, which meant that 37.5 per cent of our Board were female. Our Group Executive Team has two out of nine positions held by women (22 per cent). Of their direct reports, 22 out of 46 positions (32 per cent) are held by women. The Committee is mindful of the recommendation of the Parker Review Report to have at least one Director from a non-white ethnic minority by 2024 and is satisfied that our Board currently meets this recommendation.

WH Smith PLC Annual Report and Accounts 2021

During the year under review, the Company had 37 per cent women on the Board, 22 per cent in the Group Executive Team and their direct reports and 32 per cent in the management team. The Board is committed to strengthening the pipeline of women in senior roles across the business and an action plan has been agreed to take further steps to improve workplace diversity. Actions include the provision of mentoring, as well as focused initiatives to better understand the challenges faced by under-represented groups employed within the Company. The Company has a Diversity and Inclusion Committee consisting of employees from across the Group together with the Group Chief Executive and the Group HR Director. The committee has met three times during the financial year ended 31 August 2021 and has made recommendations on recruitment, and engaged with our customers and employees to mark cultural and diversity related events during the year. These recommendations have been acted upon and adopted by the Company.

The Company requires gender balanced shortlists for all internal and external recruitment at a senior executive level to ensure that we attract more women at senior level. Further information on the gender balance of those in senior management and their direct reports is set out in the Strategic report on page 33. The Company continues to work with 'Everywoman' who provide a host of personal development tools aimed at women and also provide our employees with links to an external network of professional women in other organisations.

The Board recognises that diversity is not limited to gender, but includes skills, experience, ethnicity, disability and sexual orientation. The Board is committed to having a diverse and inclusive leadership team and will monitor ethnic diversity across the Group. The Company's recruitment policy requires that for all senior management roles there must be a shortlist which includes at least one candidate from a non-white minority ethnic background. We will continue to appoint on merit, whilst aiming to broaden the diversity of the talent pipeline.

Further information on diversity is set out in the Employees section of the Strategic report on pages 32 to 34.

The Committee will continue to focus on succession planning and talent management for key roles across the business, to ensure the Company develops a pipeline of high-quality internal candidates for senior management roles. Work is being undertaken to ensure succession arrangements are in place for Board members and key management. Simon Emeny, the Senior Independent Director, has, on behalf of the Board, commenced a search for my replacement as Chairman. The Company has appointed an external recruitment consultant, Lygon Group, to assist in the process of identification of potential candidates.

The latest Board evaluation report confirmed that the culture of the Board is excellent, being very open and collaborative. The Board continues to have a broad mix of skills, diversity, experience and talent, which enables the Board and the Committees to work effectively. The report also confirmed that the Board is well led and has responded effectively to the issues arising from Covid-19.

Directors' remuneration report

The Company believes that its approach to total compensation has served the Company well. The proposed changes to the Directors' remuneration policy are fully aligned to the Company's strategic plan. They are also in keeping with the Company's culture that promotes superior value creation in a responsible and sustainable way."

Annemarie Durbin
Chair of the Remuneration Committee

Annual statement from the Remuneration Committee Chair Dear Shareholder

On behalf of the Remuneration Committee (the 'Committee'), I am pleased to present the Directors' remuneration report for the financial year ended 31 August 2021. This report covers three areas:

- the forward-looking Directors' remuneration policy which is subject to a binding shareholder vote at our 2022 AGM as set out on pages 61 to 72;
- the annual Directors' remuneration report (report) setting out details of the implementation of our Directors' remuneration policy in the financial year ended 31 August 2021 as set out on pages 72 to 84. This report is subject to an advisory vote at our 2022 AGM; and
- an explanation of how the proposed Directors' remuneration policy will be implemented in the financial year ending 31 August 2022 as set out on page 75 also forms part of the Report.

The Remuneration Committee believes that the management team has performed to a truly exceptional level this year. In addition to steering the business through an extraordinarily difficult period, their actions have been fundamental in establishing a commanding position from which the Company can build back stronger going forward. More details of the actions taken are set out below. Of particular note has been the winning of all 30 technology stores in UK airports and the circa 100 stores won and yet to open in Travel over the next three years. The Board believe that this management team is pivotal to the future success of the business. When balancing the interests of all stakeholders in our decision-making, retaining and motivating the management team for the future success of the business has been one of our primary objectives.

Directors' remuneration policy

Our Directors' remuneration policy focuses on an approach to pay which, we believe, is in our shareholders' best interests and promotes the long-term success of the Company. Whilst it provides executive remuneration packages which are competitive, there is a very clear bias to variable pay with stretching and rigorous performance measures and conditions designed to deliver superior returns for shareholders over the long term. Our existing remuneration policy was supported by 98.78 per cent of shareholders at the 2019 AGM. The future policy (subject to shareholder approval) incorporates the following changes to further bring the policy in line with governance best practices:

- introduction of forward-looking post-cessation share ownership guidelines;
- inclusion of appropriate ESG metrics into the LTIP from September 2022;
- aligning the bonus opportunity for the two executive directors at 160 per cent of salary i.e. to increase Robert Moorhead's bonus opportunity from 130 per cent to 160 per cent in order to recognise his importance to the recovery and future success of the Group;
- inclusion of ability in exceptional circumstances only to pay a bonus of up to 20 per cent of maximum for strong personal performance when financial thresholds have not been met, noting that this gives less flexibility than many other companies; and

- re-confirmation that executive director pensions will be aligned with the wider workforce from 1 January 2023.

Our Directors' remuneration policy has worked well supporting the Company's long-term strategy to create shareholder value. You can see how the Company has, over the past ten years, generated shareholder value over this period in the TSR graph on page 77.

The Company's remuneration philosophy can be summarised as providing at or below the median of market levels of fixed pay but with the opportunity to earn upper quartile levels of remuneration for exemplary performance aimed at delivering superior returns for shareholders in a responsible and sustainable way over the long term. Further details of the proposed changes to the Company's remuneration policy are set out on pages 61 to 72.

Business Context: "Building Back Stronger as a result of management actions"

Although inevitably Covid-19 has continued to impact the Company during the financial year ended 31 August 2021, management has exerted considerable effort to strengthen and reshape the Company during the year focusing on initiatives within its control. These have supported the Company in the short term and will put the Company in a strong position to emerge stronger as all our markets recover. As global travel restrictions have eased, the Company has seen a return to travelling, led first by domestic travel and then short-haul. Long-haul travel will be the last to recover. Most industry forecasts, including the Airports Council International ("ACI"), do not expect passenger numbers to return to 2019 levels until 2024. In order to "build back stronger", management has:

- worked with Travel landlords and building on the Company's strong relationships to create opportunities for winning new business, extending key contracts and improving the quality and location of the space where the Travel business operates. The expansion of InMotion into the UK through the winning of all technology stores in UK airports is a good example of this in practice. As at the end of October 2021, the Travel business had won approximately 100 stores which have yet to open, including the 30 InMotion stores in UK airports;
- invested capex in strategically important projects which set up the Group well for the future, such as our refitted stores at London Heathrow Terminal 5 and our stores at the new terminal at Manchester Airport;
- focused on growing average transaction values across the Group;
- extended categories and ranges to reflect the specific needs of our customers in each location where we operate. Management have done this through a forensic attention to space, cross category promotions, merchandising, store layouts and store refits;
- grown the Company's internet proposition by extending product ranges, investing in our websites, marketing, fulfilment and distribution and building customer engagement through social media;
- actively taken steps to improve the Company's environmental footprint and was recognised as a leader in ESG through inclusion in the Dow Jones Sustainability World Index;
- maintained a sharp focus on costs, minimising discretionary spend and managing the Company's cash burn, and
- secured the Company's financial position through the agreement of new bank financing arrangements and the issue of the convertible bond. The Company is not, and has not, participated in any government-backed loan arrangements.

Whilst the financial position has clearly been impacted by Covid-19, the Committee considers that these changes (and particularly the expansion of InMotion in UK airports) have enhanced this potentially high growth part of our business giving an optimal platform to benefit shareholders as this market returns.

As a result of management actions undertaken during the financial year the Company reduced the Headline loss before tax and non-underlying items' of £9m made in the second half of the financial year ended 31 August 2020 to a Headline loss before tax and non-underlying items' of approximately £36m in the same period this year. In this context, the Committee decided that both executive directors have performed at an exceptional level.

Nevertheless, we recognise that the Company has continued to be significantly affected by Covid-19 and continued to access government support in the form of rates relief and furlough support during the financial year ended 31 August 2021. The Company aims to be a responsible partner to its other stakeholders. You can read more about the Company's stakeholders in the Company's S.172 statement on pages 37 to 40.

During the year, the Company maintained a regular dialogue with employee representative groups, unions, shareholders, suppliers and landlords to ensure that all stakeholders have a common understanding of the impact of Covid-19 on the Company. We have recognised the performance of employees across the Company with approximately 1,750 colleagues receiving a bonus under the annual bonus plan for the financial year ended 31 August 2021.

For the financial year ended 31 August 2021 the Company delivered a positive Headline EBITDA¹ of £19m. Whilst Headline EBITDA¹ was positive, no dividends have been declared for the financial year ended 31 August 2021. However, the Committee noted that shareholders had seen an increase of approximately 39 per cent in the Company's share price as a result of the Company's overall financial improvement during the financial year ended 31 August 2021.

The Committee took all of the above factors into account when reaching its decisions on executive director remuneration for the financial year ended 31 August 2021 and these decisions are set out below.

Recap on 2019/2020 remuneration decisions and rationale for 2020/21 outcomes

Bonus

Shareholders will recall that the Committee made no bonus award to the executive directors for the financial year ended 31 August 2020. This was despite the Company performing very strongly for the first six months of the financial year and performing strongly against their personal objectives.

For the financial year ended 31 August 2021, the bonus target was set using Headline EBITDA¹ as the primary metric rather than Headline profit before tax¹. This was because the Company was expected to deliver a PBT loss for the financial year albeit at a much reduced level than the previous financial year.

For the bonus plan, the Company slightly exceeded the target Headline EBITDA¹ level and the Committee determined that both executive directors performed to an exemplary level. You can read about the actions that the executive directors took to build back stronger on pages 58 and 59. The performed to an exemplary level. You can read about the actions that the executive directors took to build back stronger on pages 66 and 67. The executive directors' personal objectives are set out on pages 80 and 81. However, recognising the experience of shareholders and other stakeholders during the financial year ended 31 August 2021, the Committee believed that it was appropriate to exercise downward discretion to reduce the formulaic annual bonus out-turn to one-times salary for Carl Cowling (a 22 per cent reduction) and by the same percentage for Robert Moorhead.

The Committee took this decision in order to balance the experience of shareholders and other stakeholders during the financial year and to recognise the proactive steps taken by management which, we believe, will create significant shareholder value in the future. The level of discount is a matter of judgement but was arrived at in the round looking at the out-turn for other senior employees and noting that the executive directors did not receive a bonus for the previous financial year and that the 2018 LTIP has not vested as a result of the ongoing impact of Covid-19 and lapsed on 1 November 2021. Overall, (his reduced bonus was felt appropriate. This resulted in Carl Cowling receiving a bonus of £550,000 and Robert Moorhead receiving a bonus of £357,500. The Committee agreed that 23 per cent of the bonus should be deferred in accordance with the rules of the Company's Deferred Bonus Plan

Corporate governance

The Committee believes that the senior management team, and in particular the executive directors, have provided outstanding, inspiring and resourceful leadership during another year of uncertainty and disruption. Accordingly, the Committee believes that the remuneration of the executive directors is proportionate and appropriate when taking into account the experience of the Company's stakeholders and the government support received by the Company.

For the financial year ending 31 August 2022, the Committee has reverted to the normal pre-Covid-19 practice of setting Headline PBT as the financial metric for the annual bonus plan

Salary

Shareholders will also recall that when Carl Cowling was appointed CEO in November 2019, his base pay was set at a lower level than his predecessor and lower than the market median for FTSE250 CEOs. At the time, we explained to shareholders that, subject to personal performance, the intention was to increase Carl Cowling's base salary in £25,000 increments in April 2020, 2021 and 2022

The Committee had previously assessed Carl Cowling's personal performance for the financial year ended 31 August 2020 and determined that this was exemplary, particularly in the context of Covid-19 and therefore announced an intention to make the scheduled increase with effect from April 2021. At the 2021 AGM a significant minority of shareholders did not support this approach. As a result, the Company announced that it would defer making this award until at least the end of the financial year ended 31 August 2021. The Committee also confirmed that it would engage with shareholders and advisory bodies and that it would consider the feedback received in developing the 2022 Directors' remuneration policy, which is being put to a vote at the 2022 AGM.

Having done that, and in the context of Carl Cowling's continued exemplary performance, when consulting with our largest shareholders on the new Directors' remuneration policy, we advised that the deferred £25,000 increment had been made with effect from 1 September 2021 and that there is an intention (subject to continued personal performance) for the final increment to be awarded with effect from 1 April 2022 in accordance with the original intention shared with shareholders in 2019. This will take Carl Cowling's base salary to £600,000 from 1 April 2022.

The current market median for CEOs in the top half, by market cap, of the FTSE250 is £628,000 so, even after the previously announced increments, Carl Cowling will continue to receive a base salary below market median

The Committee is mindful that the decision to increase the CEO's salary was a judgement and some shareholders may have preferred a further deferral. Carl Cowling became CEO on 1 November 2019 so, consistent with best practice, his transition to the agreed higher salary (which remains below the market median) consistent with our general philosophy, will have taken two and a half years. It was felt that further delaying the increase was not appropriate given the current demand for experienced retail executives from PE-backed companies and demonstrates our commitment to the remuneration package agreed on his appointment. It should also be noted that the Company has not defaulted to regular annual increases to its executive directors and that Robert Moorhead has not received any pay increase since May 2019. Honouring our commitment to an executive who is now fully experienced in role and has performed at an exceptional level is considered both right and fair.

LTIP

The 2018 LTIP vesting percentage is determined by the growth in the Company's Headline EPS and TSR over the three-year performance period which ended on 31 August 2021. The Company did not meet the performance targets for the 2018 LTIP and the awards lapsed. The Committee determined that the formulaic out-turn under the LTIP was appropriate and should be applied without discretionary adjustment.

In terms of long-term incentives, in last year's Annual report we advised shareholders that, for the financial year ended 31 August 2021, the LTIP award would have only one metric, TSR, rather than the usual two metrics (EPS and TSR). The Committee is proposing that, as done pre-Covid-19, the LTIP performance targets for the financial year ending 31 August 2022 will be based on Headline EPS (which as consulted on with shareholders during 2020 will be assessed on a pre-tax basis from this grant onwards) and on relative TSR.

The Committee agreed that the LTIP performance targets for the financial year commencing 1 September 2022 will include ESG targets which will be based on the Company's Corporate Responsibility Strategy, namely Planet, People and Communities. Further details of this will be developed and disclosed in the 2022 Directors' remuneration report.

Finally, as you may be aware, this is my last letter to you as Chair of the Committee. Having served nine years on the board, I will be stepping down as Chair of the Committee at the AGM and handing over to Marion Sears, who will take up the position when she joins the Board on 1 February 2022. Marion Sears has a wealth of experience of remuneration issues. I will be available at the Annual General Meeting to answer any questions about the

This Remuneration Report has been prepared in accordance with the Large and Medium-Sized Companies and Groups (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008, as amended in 2013, 2018 and 2019 (the Regulations'). LR 9.8 of the UKLA Listing Rules and the UK Corporate Governance Code 2018 (the Code).

The following information has been audited by PwC:

- Section 4 4- Summary of non-executive directors' remuneration 2021;
- Section 4 5 - Summary of executive directors' remuneration 2021;
- Section 4 6 - Payments made to former directors;
- Section 4.7 - Payments for loss of office;
- Section 4.12- Annual bonus targets;
- Section 4.13 - Share plans; and
- Section 4.17 - Directors' interests in shares.

2. Background to Directors' remuneration policy

The Company's Directors' remuneration policy can be summarised as providing at or below the median of market levels of fixed pay but with the opportunity to earn upper quartile levels of remuneration if the executive directors deliver superior returns for shareholders.

Executive remuneration packages are structured so that they:

- are aligned to the Company's strategy to deliver shareholder returns and promote its long-term success;
- are aligned with the interests of shareholders;
- are competitive and provide a very clear bias to variable pay with stretching and rigorous performance measures and conditions;
- do not promote unacceptable behaviours or encourage unacceptable risk taking.
- include robust malus/clawback provisions and holding periods which permit the recoupment of variable pay if the pay-out was based on misstated financial results, an error or incorrect information, if the Committee concludes that circumstances arose during the bonus year or vesting period which would have warranted summary dismissal of the individual concerned or if there is an insolvency having regard to the Committee's assessment of the involvement of the individual to such event; and
- take into account Company-wide pay and employment conditions.

The key changes to the Company's Directors' remuneration policy are

- The introduction of post-cessation share ownership guidelines requiring executive directors to retain the policy level (300 per cent of salary for the CEO and 250 per cent for other executive directors) for two years post-cessation. This will apply to both new awards from the adoption of the policy and all unvested awards.
- Annual bonus plan: this currently operates as a matrix of financial targets and personal performance, where failure to achieve the threshold financial level results in no bonus payment. While this is felt appropriate in most cases, Covid-19 has clearly demonstrated that it can unfairly penalise executive directors where they meet their personal objectives but the financial threshold is not achieved and, therefore, no bonus is paid. Consistent with other companies operating similar plans, we propose introducing the ability to pay a bonus of up to 20 per cent of maximum if the Committee considers in exceptional circumstances that the personal or other non-financial performance warrant payment of a bonus against pre-set targets noting that this actually constrains discretion compared with some companies' response to Covid-19. It is envisaged that this would only be invoked in exceptional circumstances. The Committee also believes that it is appropriate to align the bonus opportunity for the two executive directors at 160 per cent of salary (i.e. to increase Robert Moorhead's bonus opportunity from 130 per cent to 160 per cent) in order to recognise his importance to the recovery and future success of the Group. The Committee believes that increasing Robert Moorhead's variable pay rather than his fixed pay is in line with the Company's remuneration policy which has served the Company and shareholders well in the past.
- Introduction of ESG metrics to the LTIP: no changes to the LTIP plan are proposed. The Committee has agreed that the Long-Term Incentive Plan for 2022 will include ESG targets which are relevant to the Company. The targets will be selected from ESG targets associated with the Company's sustainability strategy, a Journey to a Better Business (for more information on the Company's sustainability strategy see pages 29 to 35). The sustainability strategy has been developed following detailed consideration of the views of different stakeholders, to ensure that the areas of focus are material and directly linked to the Company's business strategy. Material and measurable ESG targets will be selected by the Committee for inclusion in the LTIP for the grant in 2022. Typically, the performance measures have been linked to EPS and relative TSR. It is proposed that, from the grant in 2022, the performance measures will be 40 per cent pre-tax EPS, 40 per cent relative TSR and 20 per cent ESG.
- Pensions: the Company has already committed to align executive director pension contributions to the all-employee level, approximately three per cent, from 1 January 2023.

3. The Directors' remuneration policy

The Committee presents the Directors' remuneration policy, which will be put to a binding vote at the forthcoming Annual General Meeting and, subject to shareholder approval, will take immediate effect.

As part of its review of the remuneration policy, the Committee has considered the factors set out in Provision 40 of the Code. In our view, the proposed Policy addresses those factors as set out below.

The Committee has the discretion to amend the Directors' remuneration policy with regard to minor or administrative matters where it would, in the opinion of the Committee, be inappropriate to seek or await shareholder approval.

WH Smith PLC Annual Report and Accounts 2021

Future policy table 3.1 Executive directors

Element and purpose

The following table explains the different elements of remuneration we pay to our executive directors:

Policy and opportunity

Operation and performance measures

' Base salary

This is the basic element of pay and reflects the individual's role and position within the Group, with some adjustment to reflect their capability and contribution. Base salary is used to attract and retain executive directors who can deliver our strategic objectives and create shareholder value.

• While base salaries are reviewed each year, the Company's policy is not automatically to award an inflationary increase. When reviewing salaries, the Committee takes into account a range of factors including the Group's performance, market conditions, the prevailing market rates for similar positions in comparable companies, the responsibilities, individual performance and experience of each executive director and the level of salary increases awarded to employees throughout the Group.

¹ Base salaries are benchmarked against both FTSE 250 companies and other leading retailers. While the Committee applies judgement rather than setting salaries by reference to a fixed percentile position, its general approach is to constrain base salaries to a median or lower level.

■ While the Committee's general approach is to keep salaries at or below median, and, in the normal course, would not expect salary increases to be higher than the average for other head office staff, given the need for a formal cap, the Committee had limited the maximum salary in the previous policy which it may award to £680,000 (as increased by RPI from January 2019, approximately £739,000 at the year end). No changes to this cap are proposed.

- Base salary is paid monthly in cash.
- Base salaries are reviewed typically annually with any changes normally taking effect from 1 April.

Benefits

To provide other benefits valued by the recipient which assist them in carrying out their duties effectively. Competitive benefits assist in attracting and retaining executive directors.

- Provide market competitive benefits in kind
 - The Company may periodically amend the benefits available to staff. The executive directors would normally be eligible to receive such amended benefits on similar terms to all senior staff.
 - The value of benefits (other than relocation costs) paid to an executive director in any year will not exceed £80,000. In addition, the Committee reserves the right to pay relocation costs in any year or any ongoing costs incurred as a result of such relocation to an executive director if considered appropriate to secure the better performance by an executive director of their duties. In the normal course, such benefits would be limited to two years following a relocation.
- » Benefits received by executive directors comprise a car allowance, staff discount, private medical insurance and life assurance.

> While the Committee does not consider it to form part of benefits in the normal usage of that term, it has been advised that corporate hospitality (whether paid for by the Company or another) and business travel for directors may technically come within the applicable rules and so the Committee expressly reserves the right to authorise such activities within its agreed policies

Pension

To aid retention and remain competitive within the marketplace. The pension provides an income following retirement.

- Provide an employer-sponsored pension plan or equivalent cash allowance. Pension contributions (or cash in lieu) for new executive directors will be aligned with the average rate available to UK-based colleagues more generally, approximately 3 per cent of salary but subject to periodic review. The pension contribution for Carl Cowling is 12.5 per cent and Robert Moorhead is 25 per cent of base salary until 31 December 2022. It will reduce to align with the wider workforce rate, approximately 3 per cent of salary, from 1 January 2023.
- All executive directors are eligible to participate in the Company's defined contribution pension plan and/or receive a salary supplement in lieu (which is not taken into account as salary for calculation of bonus, LTIP or other benefits).
- Although the mix may change, currently up to five per cent of salary is paid into a registered pension and up to 20 per cent by way of a salary supplement. If the individual elects to receive the five per cent direct (e.g. to avoid breaching HMRC limits), employers' NICs are deducted from that element.

Annual bonus

To motivate employees and incentivise delivery of annual performance targets

- During the policy period the bonus potential is 160 per cent of base salary with target levels at 48 per cent of maximum and threshold bonus levels at 16 per cent of maximum.
- Clawback provisions apply to the annual bonus plan.
- Bonuses are paid in cash and shares. Any bonus payable over target is deferred into shares for a period of up to three years under the Company's Deferred Bonus Plan (DBF). The shares are released one third on each anniversary of assessment.
- The performance measures applied may be financial or non-financial and corporate, divisional or individual and in such proportions as the Committee considers appropriate. As set out on page 79, currently, under the annual bonus plan, participants can earn a bonus based on the achievement of a financial target and a personal rating measured against one or more specific (financial and/or non-financial) objectives.
The maximum level of bonus paid to a participant in the plan is dependent on the achievement of both the maximum target for the financial target and the highest personal performance rating.
- In exceptional circumstances, up to 20 per cent of the maximum bonus opportunity may be payable independent of the financial out-turn.

- in exceptional circumstances, up to 25 percent of the maximum bonus opportunity may be payable independent of the financial out turn.

- The appropriateness of performance measures is reviewed annually to ensure they continue to support the Company's strategy.
- Once set, performance measures and targets will generally remain unaltered unless events occur which, in the Committee's opinion, make it appropriate to make adjustments to ensure they operate as originally intended and to take account of events which were not foreseen when the performance targets were originally set

Long-term incentives

To motivate and incentivise delivery of sustained performance over the long-term, the Group will operate the Long-Term Incentive Plan [LTIP'J. Awards delivered in shares to provide further alignment with shareholders.

- The normal policy is to award executive directors with shares with an initial face value of up to 350 per cent of base salary each year under the LTIP. In practice, awards of 335 per cent for the Group Chief Executive and 310 per cent for any other executive director are made annually.
- > The LTIP will credit participants with the benefit of accrual for dividends paid over the performance and any holding period.
- Malus and clawback provisions (in respect of both unvested and vested paid awards) apply to the LTIP.
- > Awards are subject to a combined vesting and holding period of at least five years preventing the delivery and sale of shares until the end of the holding period.
- The Committee may set such performance conditions as it considers appropriate (whether financial or non-financial and whether corporate, divisional or individual) over a period of at least three financial years.
- Once set, performance measures and targets will generally remain unaltered unless events occur which, in the Committee's opinion, make it appropriate to make adjustments to the performance conditions, provided that any adjusted performance condition is, in its opinion, neither materially more nor less difficult to satisfy than the original condition.
- Executive directors can earn up to 25 per cent of the award for threshold performance.
- The Company will honour the vesting of all outstanding awards granted prior to this remuneration policy coming into force in accordance with the terms of such awards.

All-employee share plans

To encourage share ownership by employees, thereby allowing them to share in the long-term success of the Group and align their interests with those of the shareholders.

- ¹ Executive directors are able to participate in all-employee share plans on the same terms as other Group employees
- Sharesave - individuals may save up to such limit as permitted by the relevant legislation (currently £500 each month) for a fixed period of three years. At the end of the savings period, individuals may use their savings to buy ordinary shares in the Company at a discount of up to 20 per cent of the market price set at the launch of each scheme.
- In line with the governing legislation, no performance conditions are attached to options granted under the Sharesave Scheme. In addition, executive directors may participate in other comparable all-employee incentives on the same basis as other employees

Notes to the policy table

- ¹ Stating maximum amounts for each element of remuneration
Where the table refers to the maximum amount that may be paid in respect of any element of the policy, these will operate simply as caps and are not indicative of any aspiration. In particular, the salary cap is not aspirational and the Committee envisages maintaining its approach to salary increases
- ² Payments from existing awards
Carl Cowling and Robert Moorhead are eligible to receive payment from awards made before the approval and implementation of the previous remuneration policies or payments envisaged under those policies. Details of these awards can be found in the annual Directors remuneration report on page 62. The Company will similarly honour pre-existing commitments made to any other new Board members

3.2 Performance measure selection and approach to target setting Annual bonus plan

The performance targets used under the annual bonus plan are set annually to support the Company's strategic priorities and reinforce financial performance. The performance targets are typically set by the Committee based on a range of factors, principally the Company's budget as approved by the Board either prior to or shortly following the start of the financial year. The Committee agreed that the performance targets for the annual bonus plan for the financial year ended 31 August 2021 should be based on Headline EBITDA' in order to focus the management team on the Group's free cash flow as a result of the ongoing impact of Covid-19. The Committee, in setting the bonus targets for the financial year ended 31 August 2021, was mindful of the impact of Covid-19 on the Company and the markets in which we operate and took into consideration market consensus for the financial year ended 31 August 2021. The Committee agreed that the range used to determine the level of pay-out under the bonus plan in respect of the financial targets should be widened given that the Committee agreed that the proposed target pay-out under the bonus plan was stretching, given the uncertainty created by Covid-19.

Participants can earn a bonus based on the achievement of a financial target, for example, Headline EBITDA" and a personal rating measured against one or more specific financial and/or non-financial objectives, including ESG targets. The maximum level of bonus paid to a participant in the plan is dependent on the achievement of both the maximum target for the financial target and the highest personal performance rating. The Committee sets a threshold pay-out target and a maximum pay-out target with straight-line vesting between the targets,

In exceptional circumstances, up to 20 per cent of the maximum bonus opportunity may be payable independent of the financial out-turn. For on-target achievement of the financial target and a good personal rating, an executive would earn approximately 48 per cent of the maximum bonus available under the plan. Any bonus in excess of the on-target level is deferred into shares under the OBP. One third of the shares are released on each anniversary of the date of grant.

Different bonus measures and targets may apply in subsequent years within the overall constraints of the plan.

Long-term incentives

The Committee regularly reviews the performance targets applicable to the LTIP to ensure that they align with the Company's strategy and reinforce financial performance. The Committee may change the measures and/or targets in respect of subsequent awards. The Committee believes that a combination of financial, market-based conditions and corporate responsibility as the basis for the performance targets for the LTIP is best suited to the needs of the Company and its shareholders in order to reward sustained long-term performance and the creation of shareholder value. However, the performance targets for awards made under the LTIP in the financial year ended 31 August 2021 were solely based on relative TSR given the difficulty in putting in place meaningful EPS targets as a result of the impact of Covid-19 on the Company and the wider global economy.

The Committee is proposing that any awards made in the financial year commencing 1 September 2021 will be 50 per cent based on Headline pre-tax Earnings per Share and 50 per cent based on relative TSR over three financial years ending 31 August 2024 compared with the FTSE All Share Retailers and that any awards made in the financial year commencing 1 September 2022 will be based on the following targets each measured over the three financial years to 31 August 2025:

- 40 per cent based on Headline pre-tax Earnings per Share (calculated on a pre-IFRS 16 basis) EPS has for some years been defined as fully diluted pre-exceptional items and excluding IAS 19 pension charges together with other adjustments as considered appropriate by the Committee (although practice has been to make limited adjustments). The definition of EPS remains unchanged except that, as consulted with shareholders in 2020, it will be assessed on a pre-tax basis;
- 40 per cent based on relative TSR over three financial years compared with the FTSE All Share Retailers index. Threshold vesting will occur for TSR in line with median and maximum vesting will occur for TSR in line with the upper quartile of the comparator group; and
- 20 per cent based on ESG measures which will be developed over the course of the next year based on the Company's Sustainability Strategy, namely Planet, People and Communities. Further details of this will be developed and disclosed in the 2022 Directors' remuneration report.

Malus/Clawback

The bonus plan, DBP and LTIP rules include a provision for clawback [before or within a period of three years following payment or vesting or earlier change of control] of a bonus or award if (a) the Company materially misstated its financial results and as a result the bonus or award was made, paid or vested to a greater extent than it should have been; (b) the extent to which any performance target or other condition was met was based on an error or inaccurate or misleading information or assumptions and as a result any bonus or award was made, paid or vested to a greater extent than it should have been; (c) the Committee concludes that circumstances arose during the bonus year or vesting period which would have warranted summary dismissal of the individual concerned; or [d] there is an insolvency having regard to the Committee's assessment of the involvement of the individual to such event.

Exercise of discretion

In line with market practice, the Committee retains discretion in relation to the operation and administration of the annual bonus plan. DBP and LTIP This discretion includes, but is not limited to':

- the timing of awards and payments;
- the size of awards, within the overall limits disclosed in the policy table.
- the determination of vesting, including the discretion to override formulaic outcomes, where appropriate, ensuring that the outcome reflects the Company's and the executive's performance as well as the experience of shareholders and stakeholders, including employees, more generally;
- the treatment of awards in the case of a change of control (the DBP excepted) or a restructuring of the Company;
- the treatment of leavers within the rules of the plan and the termination policy summary shown on page 70, and
- adjustments needed in certain circumstances (for example, a rights issue, a corporate restructuring or a special interim dividend).

While performance conditions will generally remain unchanged once set, the Committee has the usual discretions to amend the measures and targets in exceptional circumstances (such as a major transaction) where the unamended conditions would cease to operate as intended. Any such changes would be explained in the subsequent annual Directors' remuneration report and, if appropriate, be the subject of consultation with the Company's major shareholders. Consistent with best practice, the annual bonus plan and the LTIP rules also provide that any such amendment must not make the amended condition materially less difficult to satisfy than the original condition was intended to be prior to the occurrence of such event.

3.3 Statement of consideration of employment conditions elsewhere in the Company and differences to executive director policy

Our employees are a key component of the Company's performance and our overall reward strategy aims to support this. When considering remuneration arrangements for executive directors and senior management, the Committee takes into account the pay and conditions of employees across the Group. The Committee receives in-depth data regarding employee remuneration from the HR director on wider workforce pay and conditions and, where appropriate, exercises oversight of remuneration throughout the Group. The employee remuneration data submitted to the Committee was prepared in respect of head office and store employees and was based on data provided by Willis Towers Watson and Alan Jones Retail surveys. Following discussion, the Committee accepted a number of recommendations to adjust the pay of some head office and store based employees.

Although the Committee did not formally consult with the wider workforce on executive remuneration, each business has an employee forum at which all aspects of the business are discussed. Employees are also invited to participate in the annual Engagement Survey where their views on all aspects of working conditions can be collected and shared with the Committee and the Board. The Company is proud of its long history of being regarded as a responsible and respected employer and regularly reviews the overall structure of pay practices across the Group and the wider retail sector to ensure it remains competitive and is able to retain and attract employees.

Our approach to reward for our employees is based on the following principles-

- competitive setting pay with reference to internal relativity and external market practices;
- simple: helping all employees to understand how they are rewarded;
- fair- achieving consistent outcomes through flexible and transparent policies; and
- sustainable aligning reward to business strategy and performance.

All employees are entitled to base salary and benefits, including pension and staff discount. Eligible employees receive private medical cover and are able to participate in the Company's Sharesave plan and thereby become shareholders in the Company. Our Employee Assistance programme offers all employees access to free, 24/7 confidential telephone, online and face-to-face advice for problems they may be experiencing at home or at work. Employees also have access to the Company's Benevolent Fund charity, which can provide financial assistance in cases of significant hardship and provide recuperative holidays and care breaks.

Participation in a pension plan is offered to all employees on a contributory basis and we have approximately 5,520 employees in our pension plans.

4 Managing conflicts of interest

In order to avoid any conflict of interest, remuneration is managed through well-defined processes ensuring no individual is involved in the decision-making process related to their own remuneration. In particular, the remuneration of all executive directors is set and approved by the Committee; none of the executive directors are involved in the determination of their own remuneration arrangements. The Committee also receives support from external advisors and evaluates the support provided by those advisors annually to ensure that advice is independent, appropriate and cost-effective.

5 Statement of consideration of shareholder views

The Committee maintains a continual dialogue with our major shareholders and proxy agencies to understand their views. Any major changes to the policy or its operation would be subject to prior consultation as necessary.

As part of the current policy review process, the Committee consulted with approximately 60 per cent of the shareholder register. The Chair of the Remuneration Committee wrote to the Company's largest investors and shareholder representatives setting out the proposed changes to the existing remuneration policy and made herself available for meetings as requested by investors. The views expressed by investors were supportive of the proposed changes given the introduction of post-cessation share ownership guidelines and ESG performance targets for the LTIP. The views of shareholders were considered by the Committee and formed part of the final policy as set out in Section 2 on page 61.

Statutory charts - valuation assumptions

3.6 Total Remuneration opportunity

The graphs below indicate the level of remuneration that could be received by each executive director in accordance with the Directors' remuneration policy in the first financial year to which the new policy applies (i.e. financial year ending 31 August 2022) at different levels of performance. The potential total rewards are based on the Company's Directors' remuneration policy.

Fixed - The minimum scenario reflects base salary, pension and benefits, being the only elements of the remuneration package not linked to performance. No salary increase has been assumed in respect of the April 2022 salary review for Robert Moorhead, although the charts do include the salary increase for Carl Cowling in April 2022 as set out on page 73.

Annual bonus - The on-target scenario reflects fixed remuneration as above, plus the target (level of performance for the annual bonus plan which is 48 per cent of maximum annual bonus, and for the LTIP awards, threshold vesting levels have been assumed.

LTIP - The maximum scenario reflects fixed remuneration as above, plus the maximum level of performance for the annual bonus plan of 160 per cent of base salary, and for the LTIP awards, maximum vesting levels have been assumed.

Additional LTIP 50 per cent increase in share price - as for the maximum scenario above, plus an increase in the value of the LTIP of 50 per cent across the relevant performance period to reflect possible share price appreciation. Consistent with the reporting regulations, this does not separately include the impact of dividend accrual.

7 Recruitment remuneration policy

The Company's recruitment remuneration policy aims to give the Committee sufficient flexibility to secure the appointment and promotion of high-calibre executive directors to strengthen the management team and secure the skill sets to deliver the Company's strategic objectives.

The starting point for the Committee will be to look at the general policy for executive directors as set out above, and structure a package in accordance with that policy. Although the Regulations provide that, technically, the caps on fixed pay within the general policy will not apply on the recruitment of an executive, the Committee would seek not to exceed those caps in practice. In addition, ignoring any special buy-out arrangements which may prove to be necessary, the annual bonus and long-term incentive compensation arrangements will operate (including the maximum award levels) within the limits as set out in the Future policy table in Section 3.1 for executive directors on pages 63 to 65.

When an internal appointment is made, any pre-existing obligations will be honoured and payment will be permitted under the policy. However, the Committee may adjust any pre-existing obligations to reflect the new appointment where it is considered appropriate to do so.

For external and internal appointments, the Committee may agree that the Company will meet certain relocation expenses and legal fees as it considers to be appropriate.

Where it is necessary to make a recruitment-related pay award to an external candidate to buy out entitlements under a previous employers' plan, the Company will not pay more than the Committee considers necessary and will in all cases seek, in the first instance, to deliver any such awards under the terms of the existing incentive pay structure. It may, however, be necessary in some cases to make such buy-out awards on terms that are more bespoke than the existing annual and equity-based pay structures at the Company in order to secure a candidate.

Any buy-out awards for external appointments, whether under the bonus plan, LTIP or otherwise, will be capped at the commercial value of the amount forfeited and will take account of the nature, time-horizons and performance requirements of those awards. In particular, the Committee will seek to ensure that any awards being forfeited which were subject to outstanding performance requirements (other than where substantially complete) are bought out with replacement performance requirements and any awards with service requirements are, again, bought out with similar terms. However, exceptionally the Committee may relax those obligations where it considers it to be in the interests of shareholders and those factors are, in the view of the Committee, equally reflected in some other way, for example, through a significant discount to the face value of the awards forfeited.

8 Contracts of service and policy on payment for loss of office

Executive directors are on rolling service contracts with no fixed expiry date. The contract dates and notice periods for each executive director are as follows:

Date of contract	Notice period by Company	Notice period by director
CartCowling 26 February 2019	12months	12months
Robert Moorhead	8 October 2008	12 months
		9 months

Carl Cowling's service contract provides for notice of 12 months from either party, permits summary dismissal with no compensation in specified cases, has no special provisions in the event of a change of control and limits the maximum sum due on termination to base salary only for the notice period. Robert Moorhead's service contract provides for notice of 12 months from the Company and nine months from Robert Moorhead and has no special provisions in the event of a change of control and limits the maximum sum due on termination to base salary only for the notice period. Copies of the service contracts may be inspected at the registered office of the Company.

It is envisaged that any new executive director would join with a contract which is no more favourable than that summarised in respect of Carl Cowling. In practice, the facts surrounding a termination may be complex and do not always fit neatly into defined categories for 'good' or 'bad' leavers. Therefore, it is appropriate for the Committee to consider the suitable treatment on a termination having regard to all of the relevant facts and circumstances available at that time. This policy applies both to any negotiations linked to notice periods on a termination and any treatment which the Committee may choose to apply under the discretions available to it under the terms of the annual bonus plan, DBP and LTIP. The potential treatments on termination under these plans (which are governed by the relevant plan rules) are summarised in the table below.

In respect of all-employee plans, including Sharesave, the executive directors are subject to the same leaver provisions as all other participants.

If additional compensation is required to be considered, such as on a settlement agreement, the Committee will consider all relevant commercial factors affecting the specific case. If the Committee deems it necessary the Company may enter into agreements with an executive director, which may include the settlement of liabilities in return for payment(s), including reimbursement of legal fees and outplacement services.

3.9 Chairman and non-executive director fees

The following table explains the different elements of the remuneration that is paid to the Chairman and non-executive directors.

All payments made to the Chairman are determined by the Committee. The Chairman does not participate in any bonus or share plans. The fees paid to non-executive directors are determined by the Chairman and the executive directors [being the Board excluding the non-executive directors themselves] and are paid in cash. The levels are set to take into account the required time commitment and the fee payments for non-executive directors of similar organisations. Non-executive directors do not participate in any bonus or share plans. The current fees payable to the Chairman and the non-executive directors are set out on page 74.

Non-executive directors' letters of appointment

The Chairman, who has a letter of appointment, is appointed for an initial term of three years. The appointment may be terminated at any time by either the Company or the Chairman without notice. The non-executive directors, who have letters of appointment, are also appointed for an initial term of three years. The Chairman and non-executive directors may be invited to serve for up to a further two terms (nine years in total). Any term renewal is subject to Board review and re-election at the Company's AGM. There is no right to re-nomination by the Board, either annually or after any three-year period. These appointments can be terminated at any time by either the Company or the non-executive director without notice. Copies of the letters of appointment may be inspected at the registered office of the Company.

In light of the Covid-19 pandemic, we announced that Henry Staunton, Chairman, would remain as a director of the Company until 2022. Information on the Company's succession planning is set out in the Nominations Committee report on pages 54 and 55.

Under the Company's Articles of Association, all directors are required to retire and submit themselves for re-election every three years. However, in accordance with the Code, the Board has agreed that all directors will stand for re-election at the forthcoming AGM.

Operation and performance measures

- The fees paid to the Chairman and the fees of the other non-executive directors aim to be competitive with other fully listed companies of equivalent size and complexity. Fee levels are periodically reviewed by the Board (for non-executive directors) and the Committee (for the Chairman) In both cases, the Company does not adopt a quantitative approach to pay positioning and exercises judgement as to what it considers to be reasonable in all the circumstances as regards quantum.
 - Additional fees are paid to non-executive directors who chair a Board Committee (excluding the Nominations Committee) and to the Senior Independent Director (SID) and additional fees may be introduced from time to time for other responsibilities.
- ¹ All fees are subject to the aggregate fee cap for directors in the Articles of Association (currently £750,000 per annum).
- Non-executive directors do not participate in incentive arrangements.
 - Fees are paid monthly in cash.
 - Fee levels for the Chairman and the non-executive directors are reviewed periodically (the last review being in March 2018) with the next review due in March 2022
 - The Company reserves the right to change how the elements and weightings within the overall fees are paid and to pay a proportion of the fees in shares within this limit if it is considered appropriate to do so.

- In line with other employees, the Chairman and the non-executive directors receive an employee staff discount.
- It is not the current practice of the Company to provide benefits to the Chairman or the non-executive directors (other than the employee staff discount). However, while the Committee does not consider it to form part of benefits in the normal usage of that term, it has been advised that corporate hospitality (whether paid for by the Company or another) and business travel for directors may technically come within the applicable rules and so the Committee expressly reserves the right to authorise such activities within its agreed policies and within the overall limits.
- Neither the Chairman nor any non-executive directors will participate in any variable pay arrangements.
- Any other benefits would count towards the overall fee cap.

The Committee Chair is Annemarie Durbin. The other members of the Committee are Kal Atwal, Nicky Dulieu, Simon Emeny, Henry Staunton and Maurice Thompson. The Committee met eight times during the year. All Committee members are expected to attend meetings. The table on page 43 in the Corporate governance report shows the number of meetings held during the year ended 31 August 2021 and the attendance record of individual directors.

In order to avoid any conflict of interest, remuneration is managed through well-defined processes ensuring no individual is involved in the decision-making process related to their own remuneration. In particular, the remuneration of all executive directors is set and approved by the Committee; none of the executive directors are involved in the determination of their own remuneration arrangements. The Committee also receives support from external advisors and evaluates the support provided by those advisors annually to ensure that advice is independent, appropriate and cost-effective.

During the year, the Committee continued to receive advice from FIT Remuneration Consultants LLP (FIT), which is a member of the Remuneration Consultants Group (the professional body) and adheres to its code of conduct. FIT was appointed by the Committee and has no other relationship with the Company or with any individual directors. The Committee is satisfied that FIT continues to provide objective and independent advice. FIT's fees in respect of the year under review were £72,092 (excluding VAT) and were charged on the basis of FIT's standard terms of business.

Ian Houghton, Company Secretary, also materially assisted the Committee in carrying out its duties, except in relation to his own remuneration. No director or manager is involved in any decisions as to their own remuneration. The Group Chief Executive also attends Committee meetings but excludes himself in relation to discussion of his own remuneration, as does the Chairman.

The Committee maintains an ongoing dialogue with our major shareholders and proxy agencies to understand their views. Any major changes to the policy or its operation would be subject to prior consultation as necessary.

4.2 Implementation of Directors' remuneration policy in the financial year ended 31 August 2021

Implementation of policy

Annual LTIP awards were set at the policy level being 335 per cent for Carl Cowling and 310 per cent for Robert Moorhead.

The terms of and the performance measures applicable to the LTIP awards made in the financial year ended 31 August 2021 are described on page 81

Vesting of LTIP awards is determined based on the following measure: 100 per cent is based on relative TSR The performance period is three years.

There is a subsequent two-year holding period. The Committee approved this performance measure as it is directly linked to the objectives set out in the Group's strategy; there is a direct link with shareholder value and there is a clear line of sight for participants between performance and reward.

As disclosed in last year's report, consistent with the Code provisions, the Committee retains a broad discretion to reduce vesting levels, including if it considers that there would otherwise be a windfall gain or if management fail to deliver on the Company's ESG expectations.

The Committee took the decision at its meeting in October 2020 not to adjust the financial targets for the outstanding LTIP awards. The Company partially met the performance targets for the 2017 LTIP with 13 per cent of the award vesting notwithstanding the significant impact of Covid-19 on the Company in the second half of the financial year ended 31 August 2020. The award granted in November 2018 has lapsed and it is likely that the award granted in November 2019 will also lapse.

Carl Cowling is required to hold 300 per cent of salary in shares. Robert Moorhead is required to hold 250 per cent of salary in shares. In accordance with the Directors' remuneration policy, Carl Cowling is expected to achieve compliance with the shareholding requirement within six years of him joining the Board on 26 February 2019.

As at 31 August 2021 Carl Cowling held 23,051 shares with a value of E376.192 (approximately 68 per cent of salary) and Robert Moorhead held 197,973 shares with a value of £3,230.919 (approximately 735 per cent of salary).

The annual bonus plan. DBP and LTIP rules included a provision for clawback (before or within a period of three years in the case of the LTIP and DBP following payment or vesting or earlier change of control) of a bonus or award if (a) the Company materially misstated its financial results and as a result the bonus or award was made, paid or vested to a greater extent than it should have been (b) the extent to which any performance target or other condition was met was based on an error or inaccurate or misleading information or assumptions and as a result the bonus or award was made, paid or vested to a greater extent than it should have been (c) the Committee concludes that circumstances arose during the bonus year or vesting period which would have warranted summary dismissal of the individual concerned or (d) there is an event of insolvency having regard to the involvement of the individual executive in the circumstances which (ed to such insolvency.

Non-executive directors

Current fees are £235,000 for the Chairman of the Board and £55,000 for the role of non-executive director with additional fees of.

4.3 Implementation of Directors' remuneration policy in the financial year ending 31 August 2022

The Committee envisages that there will be no changes to the implementation of the Directors' remuneration policy, beyond the proposed changes to the policy set out on page 61. during the financial year ending 31 August 2022. 6.10 Group Chief Executive pay compared to pay of UK employees

The ratios comparing the total remuneration of the Group Chief Executive (as included in the single total figure of remuneration table on page 77) to the remuneration of the 25th, 50th and 75th percentile of our UK employees are set out below. The disclosure will build up over time to cover a rolling ten-year period.

We expect the pay ratio to vary from year to year, driven largely by the variable pay outcome for the Group Chief Executive, which will significantly outweigh any other changes in pay at WHSmith.

Option A

Option A

Option A

WHSmith has chosen to use Option A to calculate its Group Chief Executive pay ratio as it believes that it is the most robust way for it to calculate the three ratios from the options available in the Regulations.

Total remuneration for all UK full-time equivalent employees of the Company on 31 August 2021 has been calculated in line with the single figure methodology and reflects their actual earnings received in the financial year ended 31 August 2021 (excluding business expenses). Set out in the table below is the base salary and total pay and benefits for each of the percentiles.

75th percentile pay ratio

Salary

Total pay and benefits

The Company believes the median pay ratio for the year ended 31 August 2021 is consistent with the pay, reward and progression policies for the Company's UK employees taken as a whole. This group has been selected as the most appropriate comparator for the Group Chief Executive as he is a full-time employee based in the UK and approximately 85 per cent of all WHSmith employees are based in the UK. The increase in the pay ratios in 2021 as compared to 2020 is attributable to the increase in the amount of variable remuneration received by the Group Chief Executive as he did not receive a bonus payment in 2020 as a result of the impact of Covid-19. As explained in the Chair's annual statement on pages 58 to 60 and the summary of executive remuneration on page 76, the Group Chief Executive and approximately 1,750 employees received a bonus under the annual bonus plan for the financial year ended 31 August 2021.

4.12 Annual bonus targets (audited)

The performance targets used under the annual bonus plan are normally set annually to support the Company's strategic priorities and reinforce financial performance. The performance targets are set by the Committee based on a range of factors, principally the Company's budget as approved by the Board either prior to or shortly following the start of the financial year. The Committee agreed that the performance targets for the annual bonus plan for the financial year ended 31 August 2021 should be based on Headline EBITDA¹ in order to focus the management team on the Group's free cash flow as a result of the ongoing impact of Covid-19.

The Committee, in setting the bonus targets for the financial year ended 31 August 2021, was mindful of the impact of Covid-19 on the Company and the markets in which we operate and took into consideration market consensus for the financial year ended 31 August 2021. The Committee agreed that the range used to determine the level of pay-out under the bonus plan in respect of the financial targets should be widened given that the Committee agreed that the proposed target pay-out under the bonus plan was stretching given the uncertainty created by Covid-19.

Under the annual bonus plan, participants can earn a bonus based on the achievement of a financial target and a personal rating measured against one or more specific (financial and/or non-financial) objectives. The maximum level of bonus paid to a participant in the plan is dependent on the achievement of both the maximum financial target and the highest personal performance rating. The Committee sets a threshold pay-out target and a maximum pay-out target with straight-line vesting between the targets.

For the financial year ended 31 August 2021, no bonus was payable unless both the threshold financial target and at least an acceptable personal rating (i.e. Developing¹) were achieved. Subject to approval of the Directors' remuneration policy at the 2022 AGM, in exceptional circumstances, up to 20 per cent of the maximum bonus opportunity may be payable independent of the financial out-turn, subject to the Committee's assessment of whether personal performance or other non-financial performance warrants payment of a bonus against pre-set targets. No bonus will be payable unless the personal rating is at least acceptable (i.e. Developing¹). For on-target achievement of the profit target and a good personal rating (i.e. 'Strong'), an executive would earn approximately 48 per cent of the maximum bonus available under the plan. Any bonus payable will be paid in cash and shares.

Bonuses for the financial year ended 31 August 2021 could be earned according to the following scale (as a percentage of each executive's respective maximum)

Financial performance against Headline Group profit before tax ¹ target	Role model	Outstanding	Strong	Developing	Underachieved
Max E36m	100%	80%	60%	40%	0%
Target: £18m	80%	64%	48%	32%	0%
Threshold: £1m	40%	32%	24%	16%	0%

Interpolation between points in the matrix is permitted.

The Company's Headline EBITDA¹ for the financial year ended 31 August 2021 was £19m. This performance resulted in approximately 1,750 employees also receiving an on-target bonus under the annual bonus plan for the financial year ended 31 August 2021. The Committee believes that the senior management team, and in particular the executive directors, have provided outstanding, inspiring and resourceful leadership during another year of uncertainty and disruption. You can read about the actions that the executive directors took to build back stronger on pages 58 and 59.

The Committee considered the experience of the Company's stakeholders and the government support received by the Company in deciding whether it was in the Company's best long-term interests to pay Carl Cowling and Robert Moorhead a bonus. The Committee determined that the formulaic out-turn under the annual bonus plan should be adjusted and that it should reduce the bonus payment to one-times salary for Carl Cowling (and by the same percentage for Robert Moorhead). This resulted in a 22 per cent reduction. It also confirmed that 23 per cent of the bonus should be deferred in accordance with the rules of the Company's Deferred Bonus Plan. In reaching this decision, the Committee took into consideration the fact that the Company was not paying a dividend for the financial year ended 31 August 2021 but noted that the shareholders had seen an increase of approximately 39 per cent in the Company's share price as a result of the Company's overall financial improvement during the financial year.

The Committee believes that the management team has performed to a truly exceptional level this year. In addition to steering the business through an extraordinarily difficult period, their actions have been fundamental in establishing a commanding position from which the Company can build back stronger going forward. More details of the actions taken are set out below. Of particular note has been the winning of all 30 technology stores in UK airports and the circa 100 stores won and yet to open in Travel over the next three years. The Board believe that this management team is pivotal to the future success of the business. When balancing the interests of all stakeholders in our decision-making, retaining and motivating the management team for the future success of the business has been one of our primary objectives.

The executive directors' personal ratings are based on a range of objectives. Carl Cowling's personal objectives included-

Objective	Achievement
-----------	-------------

The Committee determined that, notwithstanding the successful achievement of all of his key personal objectives, it was appropriate to exercise downward discretion to reduce the formulaic annual bonus out-turn to one-times salary for Carl Cowling (a 22 per cent reduction) and, therefore, Carl Cowling should receive a reduced bonus payment of £550,000 for the financial year ended 31 August 2021 of which £127,600 will be deferred into shares.

WH Smith PLC Annual Report and Accounts 2021
Robert Moorhead's personal objectives included.

The Committee determined that, notwithstanding the successful achievement of all of his key personal objectives, it was appropriate to exercise downward discretion to reduce the formulaic annual bonus out-turn by 22 per cent reduction and, therefore, Robert Moorhead will receive a reduced bonus payment of £357,500 for the financial year ended 31 August 2021 of which £82,940 will be deferred into shares.

For the annual bonus plan for the financial year ending 31 August 2022, the bonus metrics will also be based on a similar matrix of financial and personal performance with the financial performance measure reverting to Headline Group profit before tax'. The financial bonus metrics will apply across the Group's bonus plans, so that the whole organisation is focused on delivering financial performance via the metrics that are applicable to each business. The Committee will publish the targets for that financial year in next year's report and, consistent with market practice, has elected not to pre-disclose them (or give numerical personal objectives) on the basis of commercial sensitivity. Any bonus payable in respect of the financial year ending 31 August 2022 will be paid in cash and shares. Any bonus payable over target will be deferred into shares for a period of up to three years under the DBP. The shares will be released one third on each anniversary of assessment irrespective of whether the recipient is an employee of the Company.

4.13 Share plans (audited)

The Committee regularly reviews the performance targets applicable to the LTIP to ensure that they align with the Company's strategy and reinforce financial performance. The Committee may change the measures and/or targets in respect of subsequent awards. For awards granted in the financial year ended 31 August 2021, the Committee determined that a market-based condition as the basis for the performance targets for the LTIP was best suited to the needs of the Company and its shareholders in order to reward sustained long-term performance and the creation of shareholder value. The Committee agreed that, given the challenge of setting robust performance targets three years in advance in light of Covid-19 uncertainty, the performance targets should only be based on TSR.

Annual LTIP awards in the financial year ended 31 August 2021 were set at the policy level being 335 per cent of salary for Carl Cowling and 310 per cent of salary for Robert Moorhead using the share price calculated over the three days preceding the grant date to determine the number of awards granted. The grant share price of 1459.33p was 37 per cent higher than the average share price of 1064.89p for the last quarter of the financial year ended 31 August 2020. The performance target for awards was based on relative TSR against the FTSE All Share General Retailers Index constituents. Vesting will occur on the following basis.

As disclosed in last year's report, consistent with the requirements of the Code, the Committee retains a broad discretion to reduce vesting levels, including if it considers that there would otherwise be a windfall gain or if management fail to deliver on the Company's ESG expectations.

The performance condition for awards granted under the LTIP in the financial year ending 31 August 2022 will be based, as in prior years, on the following Headline EPS and relative TSR targets each measured over the three financial years to 31 August 2024:

- 50 per cent based on Headline pre-tax Earnings per Share (calculated on a pre-IFRS 16 basis) of 75p to 110p with 25 percent of this component

iii 20 per cent based on the Company's TSR performance against the FTSE All Share General Retailers Index constituents. Vesting will occur on the following basis, below median - Nil; median -20 per cent, upper quartile - 50 per cent, and on a straight-line basis between 25 per cent and 100 per cent; and Inl 60 percent based on growth in the adjusted diluted EPS of the Company. Vesting will occur on the following basis below 5 per cent - Nil; 5 per cent - 25 per cent; 10 per cent or more - 100 per cent; and on a straight-line basis between 25 per cent and 100 per cent. For these purposes, EPS will be determined by reference to fully diluted EPS before exceptional items and will exclude IAS 19 pension charges from the calculation, adjusted as considered appropriate by the Committee to ensure consistency. The Company did not meet the performance conditions and the awards lapsed on 1 November 2021. f) No awards have been granted to directors between 1 September 2021 and 11 November 2021.
 g) The awards granted in the financial years ended 31 August 2020 and 31 August 2021 under the LTIP will only vest to the extent that the performance targets as set out on pages 61 and 83 are satisfied.
 h) The awards granted in the financial year ended 31 August 2020 under the OBP will be released one third on each anniversary of the date of grant. Details of the awards are set out on page 81.
 The awards accrue the benefit of any dividends paid by the Company and are not subject to performance targets. In respect of the award granted on 24 October 2019 held by Carl Cowling, 1,351 shares vested with a total value of £20,677.58 (1530.5388p per ordinary share). In respect of the award granted on 24 October 2019 held by Robert Moorhead, 1,341 shares vested with a total value of £20,524.53 (1530.5388p per ordinary share).

14 WH Smith Employee Benefit Trust

The WH Smith Employee Benefit Trust (the Trust) is used to facilitate the acquisition of ordinary shares in the Company to satisfy awards granted under the Company's share plans. The Trust is a discretionary trust, the sole beneficiaries being employees (including executive directors) and former employees of the Group and their close relations. The Trustee is Computershare Trustees [C.I.] Limited, an independent professional trustee company based in Jersey. The Company intends that the ordinary shares in the Trust will be used to satisfy all outstanding awards and options made under the Company's share plans. The Trustee may exercise all rights attached to the shares held in the Trust in accordance with their fiduciary duties and the relevant plan rules or other governing documents. The Trustee has agreed to waive its rights to all dividends payable on the ordinary shares held in the Trust.

Following share purchases of 122,813 shares in the financial year ended 31 August 2021, the number of WH Smith PLC shares held in the Trust at 31 August 2021 was 304,641. The Group's accounting policy with respect to the Trust is detailed within Note 1 to the financial statements and movements are detailed in the Group statement of changes in equity on page 102.

15 Dilution Limits

Awards under the LTIP are currently satisfied using market purchase shares which may be acquired by the Trust as described in the paragraph above. WHSmith's share plans comply with recommended guidelines on dilution limits, and the Company has always operated within these limits.

16 External appointments

Each executive director may accept up to two non-executive directorships provided they are not both appointments to companies in the FTSE 100 or include a chairmanship of a FTSE 100 company. Non-executive directorships must not conflict with the interests of the Company. Executive directors may retain fees from one of their external directorships. As explained in the announcement of the voting outcome at the Annual General Meeting on 20 January 2021, the Company understands that the primary reason for the significant percentage of votes against the resolution to approve the Directors' remuneration report was the salary increase of £25,000 which Carl Cowling received on 1 July 2020. As a result, the previously announced increase to Carl Cowling's salary in April 2021 was postponed until 1 September 2021.

New Financing Arrangements and Convertible Bond

On 28 April 2021, the Company announced it had agreed new bank financing arrangements and also launched a potential offering of guaranteed senior unsecured Convertible Bonds (the "Bonds"). The new financing arrangements included a £250m revolving credit facility (increased from £200m) maturing in April 2025 from an expanded syndicate of lending banks and a new £133m term loan also maturing in April 2025.

On 29 April 2021 the Company announced the successful pricing and final terms of its offering of £327m of Bonds. The Bonds were issued in principal amounts of £100,000 each and carry a coupon of 1.625 per cent per annum payable semi-annually in arrear in equal instalments on 7 May and 7 November each year, with the first interest payment date being 7 November 2021. The Bonds are convertible into new and/or existing ordinary shares of the Company. The initial conversion price was set at £24.99, representing a premium of 40 per cent above the reference share price of £17.85. Settlement and delivery of the Bonds took place on 7 May 2021. If not previously converted, redeemed or purchased and cancelled, the Bonds will be redeemed at par on 7 May 2026. The Bonds were admitted to trading on the unregulated open market (Freiverkehr) of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange. The issue of the Bonds was equivalent to circa ten per cent of the Company's existing issued ordinary share capital.

The new bank financing arrangements and the issue of the Bonds provide balance sheet capacity and flexibility whilst diversifying the Company's sources of debt funding. The Company also expects to benefit from an ongoing lower cost of funding from the Bonds.

Purchase of own shares

At the 2021 AGM, authority was given for the Company to purchase, in the market, up to 13,086,666 ordinary shares of 22% p each, renewing the authority granted at the 2020 AGM. The Company did not purchase any of its own shares during the financial year. The Company intends to renew the authority to purchase its own shares at the forthcoming AGM as the directors believe that having the flexibility to buy back shares is in the best interests of the Company. The directors do not currently envisage utilising this authority in the financial year ending 31 August 2022.

Issue of new ordinary shares

During the financial year ended 31 August 2021, 43,345 ordinary shares of the Company were issued under the Sharesave Scheme at prices between 1434.40p and 1609.60p. The Articles of Association of the Company provide that the Board may, subject to the prior approval of the members of the Company, be granted authority to exercise all the powers of the Company to allot shares or grant rights to subscribe for or convert any security into shares, including new ordinary shares.

Significant agreements/financing agreements – change of control

A change of control of the Company following a takeover bid may cause a number of agreements to which the Company or its trading subsidiaries is party, such as commercial trading contracts, banking arrangements, property leases, licence and concession agreements to take effect, alter or terminate. In addition, the service agreements of some senior executives and employee share plans would be similarly affected on a change of control, including, in the case of some employees, in relation to compensation for loss of office.

The Company has an unsecured £250m multi-currency revolving credit facility with Barclays Bank PLC, HSBC Bank PLC, J.P Morgan Securities, Santander UK PLC and BNP Paribas for general corporate and working capital purposes. If there is a change of control of the Company, and agreeable terms cannot be negotiated between the parties, any lender may cancel the commitment under the facility and all outstanding utilisations for that lender, together with accrued interest, shall be immediately payable.

The Company issued a £327m convertible bond on 7 May 2021. The Bond holders have the right to early redemption in the event of a change of control of the Company.

Directors' conflicts

The Company's Articles of Association permit the Board to consider and, if it sees fit, to authorise situations where a director has an interest that conflicts, or may possibly conflict, with the interests of the Company ('Situational Conflicts'). The Board has a formal system in place for directors to declare Situational Conflicts to be considered for authorisation by those directors who have no interest in the matter being considered. In deciding whether to authorise a Situational Conflict, the non-conflicted directors must act in the way they consider, in good faith, would be most likely to promote the success of the Company, and they may impose limits or conditions when giving the authorisation, or subsequently, if they think this is appropriate. Any Situational Conflicts considered by the Board, and any authorisations given, are recorded in the Board minutes and in a register of conflicts which is reviewed regularly by the Board.

Directors' indemnities

The Company maintained directors' and officers' liability insurance in the financial year ended 31 August 2021 and up to the date of this report which gives appropriate cover for any legal action brought against its directors. The Company has provided and continues to provide an indemnity for its directors, which is a qualifying third party indemnity provision for the purposes of Section 234 of the Companies Act 2006.

Financial statements

The scope of our audit

As part of designing our audit, we determined materiality and assessed the risks of material misstatement in the financial statements.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in the auditors' professional judgement, were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and include the most significant assessed risks of material misstatement (whether or not due to fraud) identified by the auditors, including those which had the greatest effect on the overall audit strategy; the allocation of resources in the audit; and directing the efforts of the engagement team. These matters, and any comments we make on the results of our procedures thereon, were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters

This is not a complete list of all risks identified by our audit.

Key audit matter

The convertible bond and refinancing is a new key audit matter this year. IFRS 16 Right-of-use asset and lease liability valuation. Acquisition of Marshall Retail Group ('MRG') and Covid-19, which were key audit matters last year, are no longer included. MRG was a specific transaction in the prior year. IFRS 16 was an area of focus in the year of transition and there have been lower levels of new and modified leases in the year which required less judgement. Covid-19 has significantly impacted the Group in the year (including store closures and restricted travel) the specific impact of Covid-19 on key audit matters has been set out within separate key audit matters below. Otherwise, the key audit matters below are consistent with last year.

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Going concern (Group and Company)

Refer to Note 1 (a) Accounting policies basis of preparation, Going concern

In undertaking their assessment of going concern for the Company and Group, the directors modelled future business performance and cash flow forecasts, by means of a 'base case' and a 'severe but plausible' cash flow model. In both models, the directors considered the financing available to the Group to assess liquidity and associated debt covenants

As part of strengthening the balance sheet, and in response to the impact Covid-19, management refinanced the Group's debt in the year, issuing a £327 million bond, (refer to separate key audit matter). The base case model is consistent with the Group's budget and three year plan. The severe but plausible model sensitises the base case and assumes a three-month lockdown from December 2021, with a gradual recovery thereafter. This scenario mirrors actual performance in the lockdown of early 2021 and subsequent recovery

Taking into account both the base case and severe but plausible scenario, and considering both liquidity and covenant headroom, the directors concluded that the Group has sufficient resources available to meet its liabilities as they fall due and is therefore a going concern. Further details of the directors' assessment are included within the Directors' report on page 85.

Due to the ongoing pandemic, and associated changes (o lockdown restrictions, there is significant judgement in developing the future cash flow forecasts, in particular, the assumptions relating to revenue We therefore focused audit effort on the going concern risk.

We agree with the Directors' conclusion to prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis.

The procedures performed in respect of going concern and our findings are set out in the "Conclusions relating to going concern" section below.

We consider the disclosure within the Basis of Preparation to appropriately highlight the process the directors have undertaken and the judgements, estimates and uncertainty involved.

WH Smith PLC Annual Report and Accounts 2021

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Convertible bond and refinancing (Group and Company)

Refer to Note 1 (m) and Note 1 (q) for the financial instrument accounting policy and the directors' disclosure of the critical accounting judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty.

As a direct result of Covid-19, the Group has refinanced its borrowings in the year which has resulted in the derecognition of the old debt facilities and recognition of the new term loan and convertible bond.

Initial recognition of the convertible bond requires complex accounting treatment and judgement regarding the bifurcation of the instrument into a liability component and an equity component. Transaction fees have been allocated between underlying and non-underlying expenses in accordance with the Group's policy.

Given the complexity of the accounting and judgements applied when accounting for these instruments, we have focused on this as part of our audit.

Impairment of store property, plant & equipment and right-of-use assets (Group) and impairment of investments (Company)

Refer to Note 1 (a), Basis of preparation, Non-underlying items and 1 (q) Critical accounting judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty and Notes 12 and 13 (Property, plant & equipment and Right-of-use assets) and Note 3 in the Company Financial statements

The Group has a material operational retail asset base which may be vulnerable to impairment in the event of trading performance being below expectations. For the purposes of impairment testing, each retail store is considered to be a separate cash generating unit (CGU).

In the year, an impairment trigger was identified for the entire portfolio of stores as a result of continued challenging trading conditions as a result of Covid-19. The value-in-use models used to determine the amount of any impairment charge are based on store specific assumptions. Management's assessment resulted in the recognition of an impairment charge of i.Uh million.

We focused on this area because of the inherent judgement and estimation uncertainty involved in determining key assumptions such as the future sales profile and discount rates, particularly given the uncertainty associated with Covid-19, and the magnitude of the assets under consideration. We have audited management's technical assessment and consider the conclusions reached to be appropriate. We are satisfied that the initial recognition of the bond and the bifurcation between a liability and equity component is appropriate and that the conclusions and related accounting are reasonable based on our review of the underlying terms of the bonds.

We have confirmed the existence of the bond with the relevant counterparty.

We considered whether the allocation and disclosure of the non-underlying transaction fees as directly attributable to Covid-19' was appropriate and were satisfied that there was evidence that supports this treatment.

Based on the procedures performed, we noted no material issues arising from our work.

We obtained an understanding of how management had developed its forecast for the future trading of the Group, including obtaining a detailed understanding of the key assumptions made in developing these forecasts. We satisfied ourselves that the forecasts were reasonable and had been prepared with appropriate Board involvement. In forming this conclusion, we benchmarked the projections of trading and recovery against forecasts of credible third parties, as well as the current sales trajectory of the business versus pre-pandemic levels. With the assistance of our valuation experts we tested the value-in-use models, including challenging management forecasts at a store level, as well as other assumptions such as the sales profile, assumptions under-pinning the timing of recovery and discount rate, and found that these assumptions were reasonable. We assessed the mathematical accuracy and integrity of the impairment models and determined that the impairment charge had been appropriately calculated

Given the estimation uncertainty inherent in the impairment calculations, the financial statements include a sensitivity analysis (refer to Note 12). Having re-performed the sensitivity calculations and considered whether any other sensitivities might be more appropriate, we are satisfied that the financial re-performed the sensitivity calculations and considered whether any other sensitivities might be more appropriate, we are satisfied that the financial statements adequately disclose the potential risk of future impairment or requirement for reversal of impairment if the performance of the stores differs from that forecast

We considered whether the disclosure of the non-underlying impairment charge as directly attributable to Covid-19 was appropriate and were satisfied that there was evidence that supports this statement.

We considered the carrying value of the Company investments in light of the impact of Covid-19, and noted no impairment

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Inventory valuation (Group)

Refer to Note 1 (hi Inventories and Note 1 (q) Critical accounting judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty

Inventory consists of a number of product categories including books, news and magazines, impulse, stationery, travel essentials and digital. As at 31 August 2021, inventory was £135 million.

A number of inventory lines are perishable and items such as firm sale books, digital, fashion and journey solutions are at greater risk of obsolescence in a reduced trading environment Categories including books, newspapers and magazines are on a sale or return basis and therefore have historically been considered to be lower risk; however, due to the impact of Covid-19, there has been an increase in the levels of firm sale stock as the returns allowances were reduced due to lower intake, thereby creating additional risk.

The Group's underlying inventory provision is primarily based on ageing profile and obsolescence risk based on historic sales performance. The assumptions in the calculation are consistent with the prior year. For a second year, the Group has calculated a non-underlying provision as a direct result of Covid-19. In the current year, the provision has been calculated due to a slower than anticipated recovery from the pandemic.

Judgement is required to estimate future sales to clear this inventory and with respect to alternative exit routes for inventory which attract different provisioning rates.

We focused on the valuation of the inventory provisions due to the size of the balance and the estimates involved in determining the future sales forecasts and the complexity of the calculation.

For the underlying provision, we developed an independent expectation of the provision required using a combination of ageing analysis and historic inventory turn data. We performed testing over the ageing data to ensure its accuracy.

For the non-underlying provision we focused on the book category, where the provision pertains to items that can no longer be classified as sale or return. We tested how the returns allowance was calculated.

The provisions are consistent with the Group's accounting policy and also reflect changes in the ageing profile and estimated future sales forecasts resulting from Covid-19. We satisfied ourselves that the inventory provisions were materially accurate.

Given the estimations involved we reviewed a sensitivity analysis to satisfy ourselves that a reasonable possible change would not result in a material adjustment to the carrying value of the inventory.

One off transactions and equal prominence of Alternative Performance Measures "APMs" (Group)

Refer to Note 1 (a) Non-underlying items, 1 (q) Critical accounting judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty and Note 4 (Non-underlying items).

The Group has included Non-underlying items' on the face of the Group income statement and discusses these items in the Annual Report. Given the quantum and number of non-underlying items in the year, we focused on the presentation of these items to ensure they were treated consistently with the Group's accounting policy

Management runs the business on a pre-IFRS 16 basis and presents a number of pre-IFRS 16 APMs in the front half of the Annual Report and Accounts

We substantiated a sample of non-underlying items to corroborating evidence. We considered whether the designation of items as 'non-underlying' was consistent with the Group's accounting policy as disclosed in Note 1 (a) and treatment in prior years

We considered the evidence to support the segregation of costs attributable to Covid-19' and did not identify any arbitrary splitting of items between Covid-19 and non Covid-19

COVID-19 and non-COVID-19

Based on our procedures, we are satisfied that the treatment and classification of non-underlying items is consistent with the Group's policy. As part of our work we ensured there was equal prominence between pre-IFRS 16 and IFRS 16 measures.

WH Smith PLC Annual Report and Accounts 2021

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Pension scheme valuation (Group)

Refer to Note 1 (q) Critical accounting judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty and Note 5 (Retirement benefit obligations!).

The Group has two defined benefit pension plans which comprise total gross plan assets of £1.463 million and total pension liabilities of £1.180 million which are significant in the context of the overall balance sheet of the Group. The Group does not recognise the pension surplus due to the fact there is not an unconditional right to a refund of the surplus. The valuation of the schemes' liabilities requires judgement and technical expertise in choosing appropriate assumptions. The Group uses third party actuaries to calculate the schemes' liabilities.

Changes to a number of the key assumptions can have a material impact on the pension balance (refer Note 5).

The most recent triennial valuation was completed in November 2020.

We focused on this area because of the potential financial impact of changes in the assumptions

We obtained the actuarial report for the WH Smith Pension Trust Retail Section for the scheme as at 31 August 2021.

We reviewed the pension liability assumptions, including discount rates, inflation and mortality rates. We compared the discount and inflation rates used to our internally developed benchmark ranges, finding them to be within an acceptable range. Other assumptions were also assessed and considered to be reasonable.

We obtained the latest census data information from both the actuary and payroll and agreed a sample of the data used by the actuary to the supporting payroll information without exception

We obtained independent confirmations from investment managers to confirm the valuation of the scheme assets at the balance sheet date

Based on the procedures performed, we noted no material issues arising from our work.

How we tailored the audit scope

We tailored the scope of our audit to ensure that we performed enough work to be able to give an opinion on the financial statements as a whole, taking into account the structure of the Group and the Company, the accounting processes and controls, and the industry in which they operate.

For the purposes of scoping the Group audit we have assessed the seven components of the business. High Street, Travel UK, InMotion, MRG, Travel International, Central and Company. There are four significant components High Street and Travel UK were audited by the UK Group team, and InMotion and MRG were audited by PwC US as component auditors operating under our instruction. Audit work was performed over the consolidation process, tax, impairment and going concern at a UK Group level. Where the work was performed by the component auditor, we determined the level of involvement we needed to have in their audit work to be able to conclude whether sufficient audit evidence had been obtained as a basis for our opinion on the Group financial statements as a whole. We held detailed discussions with the InMotion and MRG component audit team, including evaluation of and remote review of the work performed, update calls on the progress of their fieldwork and by attending the clearance meetings with management via video call. The components where we performed audit work accounted for approximately 91% of absolute Group loss before tax and approximately 96% of revenue. We performed specified audit procedures over balances within the Central and Company components based on their overall size and values of their specific financial statement line items Travel International was not included in the scope of our Group work. For the Company financial statements, we performed a full scope audit, providing us with 100% coverage

Overall materiality

How we determined it

Rationale for benchmark applied

£5.7 million 12020: £6.1 million).

Approximately 5% of the five year average of loss/profit before tax before non-underlying items.

Based on the benchmarks used in the Annual Report, loss/profit before tax before non-underlying items is the primary measure used by the shareholders in assessing the performance of the Group and is a generally accepted auditing benchmark.

£8.4 million 12020: £11.2 million)

1% of total assets.

As the parent entity, WH Smith PLC is a holding Company for the Group and therefore the materiality benchmark has been determined to be based on total assets which is a generally accepted auditing benchmark.

For each component in the scope of our Group audit, we allocated a materiality that is less than our overall Group materiality. The range of materiality allocated across components was £4.0 million and £5.0 million.

We use performance materiality to reduce to an appropriately low level the probability that the aggregate of uncorrected and undetected misstatements exceeds overall materiality. Specifically, we use performance materiality in determining the scope of our audit and the nature and extent of our testing of account balances, classes of transactions and disclosures, for example in determining sample sizes. Our performance materiality was 75% of overall materiality, amounting to £4.3 million for the Group financial statements and £6.3 million for the Company financial statements.

In determining the performance materiality we considered a number of factors - the history of misstatements, risk assessment and aggregation risk and the effectiveness of controls - and concluded that an amount at the upper end of our normal range was appropriate.

We agreed with the Audit Committee that we would report to them misstatements identified during our audit above £305,000 (Group audit) (2020: £305,000) and £420,000 (Company audit) (2020: £563,000) as well as misstatements below those amounts that, in our view, warranted reporting for qualitative reasons.

Conclusions relating to going concern

Our evaluation of the directors' assessment of the Group's and the Company's ability to continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting included:

- critically assessed the assumptions within the models including, assessing the historical accuracy of management's forecasts and obtained corroborating evidence for the assumptions used such as air travel information on passenger numbers,
- obtained and reviewed the Group's financing agreements, including the convertible bond:
- assessed the reasonableness of estimates made regarding the inclusion of a three-month lockdown in the severe but plausible case:
- agreed the assumptions regarding the timing and extent of recovery from Covid-19 in the severe but plausible case to historical actuals;
- performed independent sensitivity analyses to the severe but plausible case to assess the impact on liquidity and covenant headroom; and
- confirmed that consistent approaches to going concern, viability, impairment and other key areas of estimation assumptions have been used.'

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the Group's and the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

However, because not all future events or conditions can be predicted, this conclusion is not a guarantee as to the Group's and the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

In relation to the directors' reporting on how they have applied the UK Corporate Governance Code, we have nothing material to add or draw attention to in relation to the directors' statement in the financial statements about whether the directors considered it appropriate to adopt the going concern basis of accounting.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the directors with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Reporting on other information

The other information comprises all of the information in the Annual Report other than the financial statements and our auditors' report thereon. The directors are responsible for the other information. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion or, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in this report, any form of assurance thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify an apparent material inconsistency or material misstatement, we are required to perform procedures to conclude whether there is a material misstatement of the financial statements or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report based on these responsibilities.

With respect to the Strategic report and Directors' report, we also considered whether the disclosures required by the UK Companies Act 2006 have been included.

Based on our work undertaken in the course of the audit, the Companies Act 2006 requires us also to report certain opinions and matters as described below.

Strategic report and Directors' report

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit, the information given in the Strategic report and Directors' report, for the year ended 31 August 2021 is consistent with the financial statements and has been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

In light of the knowledge and understanding of the Group and Company and their environment obtained in the course of the audit, we did not identify any material misstatements in the Strategic report and Directors' report

Directors' Remuneration

In our opinion, the part of the Directors' remuneration report to be audited has been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 2006.

Corporate governance statement

The Listing Rules require us to review the directors' statements in relation to going concern, longer-term viability and that part of the corporate governance statement relating to the Company's compliance with the provisions of the UK Corporate Governance Code specified for our review. Our additional responsibilities with respect to the corporate governance statement as other information are described in the Reporting on other information section of this report.

Based on the work undertaken as part of our audit, we have concluded that each of the following elements of the corporate governance statement is materially consistent with the financial statements and our knowledge obtained during the audit, and we have nothing material to add or draw attention to in relation to:

- The directors' confirmation that they have carried out a robust assessment of the emerging and principal risks.
- The disclosures in the Annual Report that describe those principal risks, what procedures are in place to identify emerging risks and an explanation of how these are being managed or mitigated;
- The directors' statement in the financial statements about whether they considered it appropriate to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing them, and their identification of any material uncertainties to the Group's and Company's ability to continue to do so over a period of at least twelve months from the date of approval of the financial statements,
- The directors' explanation as to their assessment of the Group's and Company's prospects, the period this assessment covers and why the period is appropriate; and
- The directors' statement as to whether they have a reasonable expectation that the Company will be able to continue in operation and meet its liabilities as they fall due over the period of its assessment, including any related disclosures drawing attention to any necessary qualifications or assumptions.

Our review of the directors' statement regarding the longer-term viability of the Group was substantially less in scope than an audit and only consisted of making inquiries and considering the directors' process supporting their statement; checking that the statement is in alignment with the relevant provisions of the UK Corporate Governance Code; and considering whether the statement is consistent with the financial statements and our knowledge and understanding of the Group and Company and their environment obtained in the course of the audit.

In addition, based on the work undertaken as part of our audit, we have concluded that each of the following elements of the corporate governance statement is materially consistent with the financial statements and our knowledge obtained during the audit-

- The directors' statement that they consider the Annual Report, taken as a whole, is fair, balanced and understandable, and provides the information necessary for the members to assess the Group's and Company's position, performance, business model and strategy,
- The section of the Annual Report that describes the review of effectiveness of risk management and internal control systems, and
- The section of the Annual Report describing the work of the Audit Committee.

We have nothing to report in respect of our responsibility to report when the directors' statement relating to the Company's compliance with the Code does not properly disclose a departure from a relevant provision of the Code specified under the Listing Rules for review by the auditors.

Responsibilities for the financial statements and the audit
Responsibilities of the directors for the financial statements As explained more fully in the Statement of directors' responsibilities, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with the applicable framework and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view. The directors are also responsible for such internal control as they determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error

In preparing the financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's and the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or the Company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect material misstatements in respect of irregularities, including fraud. The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud, is detailed below.

Based on our understanding of the Group and industry we identified that the principal risks of non-compliance with laws and regulations related to health and safety, GDPR, employment law, general food law, pensions, tax legislation, the UK Listing Rules, and we considered the extent to which non-compliance might have a material effect on the financial statements. We also considered those laws and regulations that have a direct impact on the financial statements such as the Companies Act 2006. We evaluated management's incentives and opportunities for fraudulent manipulation of the financial statements (including the risk of override of controls), and determined that the principal risks were related to manipulation of revenue and or costs, and management bias in accounting estimates. The Group engagement team shared this risk assessment with the component auditors so that they could include appropriate audit procedures in response to such risks in their work. Audit procedures performed by the Group engagement team and/or component auditors included-

- Reviewing legal confirmations from external lawyers.
- Reviewing the financial statement disclosures and agreement to underlying supporting documentation;
- Challenging assumptions made by management in determining their significant judgements and accounting estimates [refer key audit matters];

and

- Identifying and testing unusual journals posted to revenue, journals posted after period close and journals posted by senior management.

There are inherent limitations in the audit procedures described above. We are less likely to become aware of instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations that are not closely related to events and transactions reflected in the financial statements. Also, the risk of not detecting a material misstatement due to fraud is higher than the risk of not detecting one resulting from error, as fraud may involve deliberate concealment by, for example, forgery or intentional misrepresentations, or through collusion

Our audit testing might include testing complete populations of certain transactions and balances, possibly using data auditing techniques. However, it typically involves selecting a limited number of items for testing, rather than testing complete populations. We will often seek to target particular items for testing based on their size or risk characteristics. In other cases, we will use audit sampling to enable us to draw a conclusion about the population from which the sample is selected.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the FRC's website at: www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities <<http://www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities>>. This description forms part of our auditors' report.

We do not, in giving these opinions, accept or assume responsibility for any other purpose or to any other person to whom this report is shown or into whose hands it may come save where expressly agreed by our prior consent in writing

Other required reporting

Companies Act 2006 exception reporting

Under the Companies Act 2006 we are required to report to you if, in our opinion:

- certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- the Company financial statements and the part of the Directors' remuneration report to be audited are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns.

We have no exceptions to report arising from this responsibility. Appointment

Following the recommendation of the Audit Committee, we were appointed by the members on 21 January 2015 to audit the financial statements for the year ended 31 August 2015 and subsequent financial periods. Notes to the financial statements

1. Accounting policies at Basis of preparation

The consolidated Group financial statements have been prepared in accordance with international accounting standards in conformity with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 and in accordance with international financial reporting standards adopted pursuant to Regulation (EC) No 1606/2002 as it applies in the European Union.

Going concern

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis. The directors are required to assess whether the Group can continue to operate for the 12 months from the date of approval of these financial statements, and to prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis

The directors report that they have undertaken a rigorous assessment of current performance and forecasts, including expenditure commitments, capital expenditure and borrowing facilities, and have concluded that the Group is able to adequately manage its financing and principal risks, and that the Group will be able to operate within the level of its facilities and meet the required covenants for the period to February 2023 Based on this assessment, which is outlined below, it is appropriate to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing these financial statements.

The Strategic report describes the Group's financial position, cash flows and borrowing facilities and also highlights the principal risks and uncertainties facing the Group. As a result of the Group's refinancing, announced on 28 April 2021, the balance sheet has been significantly strengthened.

The refinancing arrangements included a E250m multi-currency revolving credit facility (RCF), increased from £200m with an extended maturity from December 2023 to April 2025 and, provided by an expanded syndicate of lending banks. As at 31 October 2021, the Group has not drawn down on the RCF and has £107m cash on deposit

As part of the refinancing, the Group also raised £327m from the issue of convertible bonds, of which £50m was retained by the Group to fund the opening of c.100 new Travel stores won and yet to open over the next three years, including thirty new InMotion stores in UK Travel The remainder of the proceeds, net of costs, were used to partially pay down the term loans from both the Marshall Retail Group (MRG) and InMotion acquisitions, leaving the Group with £133m of term loans. The maturity of the remaining term loan has also been extended from 2023 to 2025 in line with the RCF.

In making the going concern assessment, the directors have modelled a number of scenarios for the period to February 2023. The base case scenario is consistent with the Board approved 2022 Budget and the three year plan. Under this scenario the Group has significant liquidity and comfortably complies with all covenant tests to February 2023.

A severe but plausible scenario has also been modelled which assumes a further three-month lockdown over the period December 2021 to February 2022 across the Group, with High Street store sales down over 40 per cent across December to February versus the equivalent months in the year ending August 2019 Sales under this scenario are assumed to recover gradually from March 2022 at around 35 per cent below the equivalent month in the year ending August 2019 to down 30 per cent at February 2023. In Travel UK we have also assumed a lockdown over the December 2021 to February 2022 period, with sales down 76 per cent versus the equivalent months in the year ending August 2019 We then assume a gradual recovery, reflecting our experience of the post-lockdown recovery period from 2020 and earlier in the year, to a position in February 2023 where Travel UK sales are forecast to be down between zero and 12 per cent versus February 2019 In the US we have assumed a lockdown over the December 2021 to February 2022 period followed by a gradual recovery, reflecting our experience of the post-lockdown period from earlier in the year. The severe but plausible scenario does not assume any further government financial support despite the continuation of lockdowns. However, the severe but plausible scenario includes a number of mitigating actions including savings in store and head office payrolls and rent relief in Travel UK, to mitigate the impact of lockdown with lower sales

In both the base case and severe but plausible scenarios the Group would continue to have sufficient liquidity headroom on its existing facilities, as described above.

The covenants on the above facilities are tested half-yearly. The covenant tests at 31 August 2021, 28 February 2022 and 31 August 2022 are based on minimum liquidity and under the base case and severe but plausible scenarios the Group would meet these covenant tests. The covenant test as at 28 February 2023 is based on fixed charges cover and net borrowings. Under both the base case and the severe but plausible scenarios, the Group would meet these covenant tests In addition, we have received excellent support from our banks who have granted covenant waivers throughout the pandemic The Strategic report also sets out the Group's business activities together with the factors that are likely to affect its future developments, performance and position. Note 22 outlines the Group's objectives, policies and processes for managing its capital, its financial risk management objectives, details of its financial instruments and hedging activities, and its exposures

As a result of the above analysis, the directors believe that the Group has sufficient financial resources to continue in operation and meet its obligations as they fall due for the 12 months from the date of approval of these financial statements.

a) Basis of preparation (continued) New standards

The Group has adopted the following standards and interpretations which became mandatory for the year ended 31 August 2021. .

Amendments to references to Conceptual Framework in IFRS standards

Amendments to IFRS 16 Covid-19 related rent concessions

Amendment to IFRS 9. Interest rate benchmark reform -

IAS 39 and IFRS 7 Phase 1

Amendments to IFRS 3 Definition of a business Amendments to IAS 1 Definition of material and IAS 8

The Group has considered the above new standards and amendments and has concluded that, with the exception of the amendments to IFRS 16, they are either not relevant to the Group or they do not have a significant impact on the Group's, consolidated financial statements.

The revised accounting policy in respect of the amendment to IFRS 16 is described in Note Kg)

At the date of authorisation of these consolidated Group financial statements, the following standards and interpretations, which have not been applied in these financial statements, were in issue but not yet effective.

IFRS 17 Insurance Contracts

Amendments to IFRS 3 Reference to the

Conceptual Framework Amendments to IFRS 9. Interest Rate Benchmark Reform -IAS 39, IFRS.7. IFRS 4 Phase 2 and IFRS 16

Amendments to IAS 1 Presentation of financial statements

The directors anticipate that the adoption of these standards and interpretations in future years will have no material impact on the Group's financial statements.

Alternative Performance Measures 'APMs'

The Group has identified certain measures that it believes will assist the understanding of the performance of the business. These APMs are not defined or specified under the requirements of IFRS.

The Group believes that these APMs, which are not considered to be a substitute for, or superior to, IFRS measures, provide stakeholders with additional useful information on the underlying trends, performance and position of the Group and are consistent with how business performance is measured internally. The APMs are not defined by IFRS and therefore may not be directly comparable with other companies' APMs.

The key APMs that the Group uses include: measures before non-underlying items, Headline profit before tax, Headline earnings per share, trading profit, Headline trading profit, Headline Group profit from trading operations, like-for-like revenue, gross margin, fixed charges cover, EBITDA, Net debt/ funds and Headline net debt/funds and free cash flow. These APMs are set out in the Glossary on page 154 including explanations of how they are calculated and how they are reconciled to a statutory measure where relevant.

Non-underlying items

The Group has chosen to present a measure of profit and earnings per share which excludes certain items, that are considered non-underlying and exceptional due to their size, nature or incidence, and are not considered to be part of the normal operations of the Group. These measures may exclude the financial effect of non-underlying items which are considered exceptional or occur infrequently such as, inter alia, restructuring costs linked to a Board agreed programme, costs relating to business combinations, impairment charges and other property costs, significant items relating to pension schemes, and impairment charges and items meeting the definition of non-underlying specifically related to the Covid-19 pandemic, and the related tax effect of these items. In addition, non-underlying measures exclude the income statement impact of amortisation of intangible assets acquired in business combinations, which are recognised separately from goodwill. This amortisation is not considered to be part of the underlying operating costs of the business and has no associated cash flows.

The Group believes that the separate disclosure of these items provides additional useful information to users of the financial statements to enable a better understanding of the Group's underlying financial performance.

Further details of the non-underlying items are provided in Note 4.

Accounting convention

The financial statements are drawn up on the historical cost basis of accounting, except for certain financial instruments, share-based payments and pensions that have been measured at fairvalue. The financial information is rounded to the nearest million, except where otherwise indicated. The principal accounting policies, which have been applied consistently throughout both years except as noted above, are set out on the following pages

1. Accounting policies (continued)

a) Basis of preparation (continued) Basis of consolidation

The consolidated Group financial statements incorporate the financial statements of WH Smith PLC and all its subsidiaries.

Subsidiary undertakings are all entities over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group.

Goodwill arising on acquisition is recognised as an asset and initially measured at cost, being the excess of the fairvalue of consideration transferred over the Group's interest in the net fair value of the identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities recognised. If, after reassessment, the Group's interest in the net fair value of the acquiree's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities exceeds the fairvalue of consideration transferred, after taking into account recognised goodwill, the excess is immediately recognised in the income statement. The separable net assets, both tangible and intangible, of the newly acquired subsidiary undertakings are incorporated into the financial statements on the basis of the fair value as at the effective date of control, if appropriate. Non-controlling interests are stated at the non-controlling interests' proportion of the fair values of the assets and liabilities recognised.

Results of subsidiary undertakings disposed of during the financial year are included in the financial statements up to the effective date of disposal. Where a business component representing a separate major line of business is disposed of, or classified as held for sale, it is classified as a discontinued operation. The post-tax profit or loss of the discontinued operations is shown as a single amount on the face of the income statement, separate from the other results of the Group.

A joint venture is an entity in which the Group holds an interest on a long-term basis and which is jointly controlled by the Group and one or more other venturers under a contractual agreement. Management has assessed whether it has joint control of the arrangement. Joint control exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require the unanimous consent of the parties that collectively control the arrangement. In assessing this joint control no significant judgements have been necessary.

The Group's share of results of joint ventures is included in the Group consolidated income statement using the equity method of accounting. The results of joint ventures in the current and prior year are not material to disclose. Investments in joint ventures are carried in the Group consolidated balance sheet at cost plus post-acquisition changes in the Group's share of net assets of the entity less any impairment in value.

If the Group's share of losses in the joint venture equals or exceeds its investment in the joint venture, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations to do so, or made payments on behalf of the joint venture.

All intercompany transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between Group companies are eliminated.

b) Revenue

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable and represents amounts receivable for the sale of goods and services to customers (which is the most significant revenue stream), sale of wholesale goods to franchisees, and commission and fee income on concession and franchise arrangements. Revenue excludes discounts, estimated returns, VAT and other sales-related taxes.

Revenue is recognised when performance obligations have been met and control of the goods has transferred to the customer. The majority of the Group's sales are for standalone products made direct to customers at standard prices either in-store, online or through franchisees, where there is a single performance obligation. Revenue generated from different store formats are considered to be a single revenue stream and are subject to the same underlying economic risks.

For in-store transactions, control of the goods is deemed to have transferred to the customer at the point of sale. For online transactions and wholesale sale of goods to franchisees, control is deemed to have transferred to the customer at the point of delivery of the goods.

Revenue on in-store transactions is recognised at the point of sale. Revenue in respect of online and wholesale (including sales directly to franchisees) transactions is recognised on the transfer of control, which is on delivery of the goods to the customers. Revenue in respect of gift cards sold by the Group is recognised on the redemption of the gift card either in-store at the point of sale or on delivery for online redemptions. Franchise and concession fees and commission are recognised on the accruals basis in accordance with the substance of the contracts in place, which is typically on the basis of fixed fees spread evenly over the contract period, and/or variable amounts earned based on revenue.

c) Supplier arrangements

The Group receives income from its suppliers in the form of supplier incentives and discounts (collectively 'Supplier arrangements'). These incomes are recognised as a deduction from cost of sales on an accruals basis as they are earned for each supplier contract. The level of complexity and judgement is low in relation to establishing the accounting entries and estimates, and the timing of recognition.

Supplier incomes that have been invoiced but not received at the period end are recognised in Trade Receivables, or in Trade Payables where we have the right of offset. Incomes that have been earned but not yet invoiced are accrued and are recorded in Accrued income.

The types of supplier arrangements recognised by the Group, and the recognition policies are detailed overleaf.

1. Accounting policies (continued)

c) Supplier arrangements (continued) Retrospective discounts

Income earned based on sales or purchase volume triggers set by the supplier for specific products over specific periods.

Income is calculated and invoiced based upon actual sales or purchases over the period set out in the supplier agreement, and is recognised in the income statement as it is earned. Where the period of an agreement spans accounting periods, income is recognised based on forecasts for expected sales or purchase volumes, informed by current performance, trends, and the terms of the supplier agreement. Income is invoiced throughout the year in accordance with the specific supplier terms. The carrying value of inventories is adjusted to reflect unearned elements of supplier income as the product has not yet been sold. This income is subsequently recognised in cost of sales when the product has been sold.

Promotional and marketing activity

Supplier income from promotional and marketing activity includes income in respect of in-store marketing and point of sale, supplying dedicated promotional space or receiving margin support for products on promotion.

Income for promotional and marketing activity is agreed with suppliers for specific periods and products. Income is recognised over the period of the agreement. Income is invoiced when the performance conditions in the supplier agreement have been achieved.

d) Retirement benefit costs

Payments to the WHSmith Group defined contribution pension schemes are recognised as an expense in the income statement as they fall due.

The cost of providing benefits for the main defined benefit scheme, WHSmith Pension Trust, and the United News Shops Retirement Benefits Scheme are determined by the Projected Unit Credit Method, with actuarial calculations being carried out at the balance sheet date.

Actuarial gains and losses are recognised in full in the period in which they occur. They are recognised outside the income statement in the Group statement of comprehensive income.

The retirement benefit obligation recognised in the balance sheet represents the present value of the defined benefit obligation, as reduced by the fair value of scheme assets. Any asset resulting from the calculation is limited to the present value of available refunds and reductions in future contributions to the plan. Where the Group is considered to have a contractual obligation to fund the pension scheme above the accounting value of the liabilities, an onerous obligation is recognised.

e) Intangible assets Business combinations

The acquisition of subsidiaries is accounted for using the acquisition method. The consideration transferred is measured at the aggregate of the fair values, at the date of exchange, of assets given, liabilities incurred or assumed, and equity instruments issued by the Group in exchange for control, of the acquiree. Costs directly attributable to the business combination are recognised in the income statement in the period they are incurred. The cost of a business combination is allocated at the acquisition date by recognising the acquiree's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities that satisfy the recognition criteria at their fair values at that date.

The acquisition date is the date on which the acquirer effectively obtains control of the acquiree. Intangible assets are recognised if they meet the definition of an intangible asset contained in IAS 38 and their fair value can be measured reliably. The excess of the cost of acquisition over the fair value of the Group's share of identifiable net assets acquired is recognised as goodwill.

Where less than the entire equity interest of a subsidiary is acquired, the non-controlling interest is recognised at the non-controlling interest's share of the net assets of the subsidiary. Changes in the Group's ownership percentage of subsidiaries are accounted for within equity.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of the fair value of purchase consideration over the net fair value of identifiable assets and liabilities acquired.

Goodwill is recognised as an asset at cost and subsequently measured at cost less accumulated impairment. For the purposes of impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to the cash-generating units (CGUs) that have benefited from the acquisition. Each store is considered to be a CGU. Goodwill is allocated to the group of CGUs making up the Group's operating segments, as this is the lowest level at which management monitor goodwill. Where the Group's operating segments have changed, goodwill is allocated to the new operating segments identified on a relative value basis.

The carrying value of goodwill is reviewed for impairment at least annually or where there is an indication that goodwill may be impaired. If the recoverable amount of the group of cash-generating units is less than its carrying amount, then the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of the goodwill allocated to the units and then to the other assets of the units on a pro-rata basis. Any impairment is recognised immediately in the income statement and is not subsequently reversed.

On disposal of a subsidiary, the attributable amount of goodwill is included in the determination of the profit and loss on disposal.

Other intangible assets

The costs of acquiring and developing software that is not integral to the related hardware is capitalised separately as an intangible asset. These intangibles are stated at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment losses. Amortisation is charged so as to write off the costs of assets over their estimated useful lives, using the straight-line method, and is recorded in Distribution costs. The amortisation period for capitalised software costs is over a maximum period of five years.

e) Intangible assets (continued)

Other intangible assets are valued at cost and amortised over their useful life, and the amortisation is recorded in administrative expenses, unless the asset can be demonstrated, to have an indefinite life. Other intangible assets, such as brands, arising on business combinations are amortised over their useful lives. Amortisation of other intangible assets arising on business combinations is included in non-underlying costs. The useful life and residual value of all intangible assets are determined at the time of acquisition and reviewed annually for appropriateness.

All intangible assets are reviewed for impairment in accordance with IAS 36 Impairment of Assets, when there are indications that the carrying value may not be recoverable. Assets with indefinite useful lives are tested for impairment annually.

f) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment assets are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and any recognised impairment in value. The carrying values of tangible fixed assets previously revalued have been retained at their book amount. Depreciation is charged so as to write off the costs of assets, other than land, over their estimated useful lives, using the straight-line method, with the annual rates applicable to the principal categories being:

Freehold properties	- over 20 years
Leasehold improvements	- shorter of the lease period and the estimated remaining economic life
Fixtures and fittings	- up to ten years
Equipment and vehicles	- up to ten years

The residual values of property, plant and equipment are reassessed on an annual basis.

At each balance sheet date, property, plant and equipment is reviewed for impairment if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. When a review for impairment is conducted, the recoverable amount is assessed by reference to the net present value of expected future pre-tax cash flows of the relevant cash-generating unit or fairvalue, less costs to sell, if higher. Any impairment in value is charged to the income statement in the period in which it occurs.

g) Leasing

The Group as a lessee

The Group assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease, at inception of the contract. The Group recognises a right-of-use asset and a corresponding lease liability with respect to all lease arrangements in which it is the lessee, except for short-term leases (defined as leases with a lease term of 12 months or less) and leases of low-value assets. For these leases, the Group recognises the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease unless another systematic basis is more representative of the time pattern in which economic benefits from the leased assets are consumed.

The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date, discounted by using the rate implicit in the lease. If this rate cannot be readily determined, the lessee uses its incremental borrowing rate.

Lease payments included in the measurement of the lease liability comprise:

- fixed lease payments, less any lease incentives receivable;
- variable lease payments that depend on an index or rate, initially measured using the index or rate at the commencement date;
- the amount expected to be payable by the lessee under residual value guarantees;
- the exercise price of purchase options, if the lessee is reasonably certain to exercise the options, and
- payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the exercise of an option to terminate the lease.

The lease liability is presented as a separate line in the consolidated balance sheet.

The lease liability is subsequently measured by increasing the carrying amount to reflect interest on the lease liability (using the effective interest method) and by reducing the carrying amount to reflect the lease payments made.

The Group remeasures the lease liability (and makes a corresponding adjustment to the related right-of-use asset) whenever:

- The lease payments change due to changes in an index, rent review or rate, in which cases the lease liability is remeasured by discounting the revised lease payments using an unchanged discount rate.
- A lease contract is modified, and the lease modification is not accounted for as a separate lease, in which case the lease liability is remeasured based on the lease term of the modified lease by discounting the revised lease payments using a revised discount rate at the effective date of the modification.

The right-of-use assets comprise the initial measurement of the corresponding lease liability, lease payments made at or before the commencement date, less any lease incentives received and any initial direct costs. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Whenever the Group incurs an obligation for costs to dismantle and remove a leased asset, restore the site on which it is located or restore the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease, a provision is recognised and measured under IAS 37. To the extent that the costs relate to a right-of-use asset, the costs are included in the related right-of-use asset.

1. Accounting policies (continued) g) Leasing (continued)

Right-of-use assets are depreciated over the lease term

The depreciation starts at the commencement date of the lease

The right-of-use assets are presented as a separate line in the consolidated balance sheet.

The Group applies IAS 36 to determine whether a right-of-use asset is impaired and accounts for any identified impairment loss as described in the accounting policies in Note 1f) Property, plant and equipment

The lease contracts that include variable rents based on sales, which is the case with many of our retail concession contracts, are not included in the measurement of the lease liability and the right-of-use asset. The related rents payable are recognised as an expense in the period in which the event or condition that triggers those payables occurs and are included in profit or loss (see Note 3).

The Group has applied the Amendment to IFRS 16 issued in June 2020 and further extension granted in March 2021. This practical expedient allows the impact on the lease liability of temporary rent reductions/waivers affecting rent payments due on or before June 2022, to be recognised in the income statement in the period they are received, rather than as lease modifications, which would require the remeasurement of the lease liability using a revised discount rate with a corresponding adjustment to the right-of-use asset

For leases acquired as part of a business combination, the lease liability is measured at the present value of the remaining lease payments. The right-of-use asset is measured at the same amount as the lease liability adjusted to reflect favourable or unfavourable terms of the lease when compared to market terms

The Group as a lessor

The Group enters into lease agreements as an intermediate lessor with respect to some of its property leases. It accounts for the head lease and the sublease as two separate contracts. The sublease is classified as finance lease or operating lease by reference to the right-of-use asset arising from the head lease. Whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee, the contract is classified as a finance lease. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

Rents receivable from operating leases are recognised on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease

h) Inventories

Inventories comprise goods held for resale and are stated at the lower of cost or net realisable value. Consignment stocks are not included within stocks held by the Group. Inventories are valued using a weighted average cost method.

Cost is calculated to include, where applicable, duties, handling, transport and directly attributable costs (including a deduction for applicable supplier income) in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Net realisable value is based on estimated normal selling prices less further costs expected to be incurred in selling and distribution. Cost of inventories includes the transfer from equity of any gains or losses on qualifying cash flow hedges relating to purchases.

Provisions are made for obsolescence, markdown below cost and shrinkage.

i) Government grants and government assistance

Government grants are not recognised until there is reasonable assurance that the grants will be received and that the Group will comply with any conditions attached to them

Government grants are recognised in the income statement over the same period as the costs for which the grants are intended to compensate. Government grants that are receivable as compensation for expenses or losses already incurred or for the purpose of giving immediate financial support to the Group with no future related costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they become receivable. Government grant income is disclosed in Note 3.

In addition, the Group has benefited from government assistance in the form of business rates relief of £40m in the year (2020: £20m).

j) Provisions

Provisions are recognised in the balance sheet when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. Provisions are measured at the directors' best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date. Where the effect is material, the provision is determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate which reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and, where appropriate, the risks specific to the liability.

kl) Foreign currencies

The consolidated financial statements are presented in pounds sterling (GBP), which is WH Smith PLC's functional and presentation currency. Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's subsidiaries are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the functional currency).

On consolidation, the assets and liabilities of the Group's overseas operations are translated into sterling at exchange rates prevailing on the balance sheet date. Income and expense items are translated into sterling at the average exchange rates for the period. Exchange differences arising, if any, are classified as equity and transferred to the Group's translation reserve.

Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are recorded at the rates of exchange prevailing on the dates of the transactions.

1. Accounting policies (continued) k) Foreign currencies(continued)

At each balance sheet date, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing on the balance sheet date. Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items, and on the retranslation of monetary items, are included in the income statement for the period.

In order to hedge its exposure to certain foreign exchange risks, the Group enters into forward contracts (see below for details of the Group's accounting policies in respect of such derivative financial instruments)

l) Taxation

The tax expense/credit included in the income statement comprises current and deferred tax.

Current tax is the expected tax payable or receivable based on the taxable profit or loss for the period, using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date.

Deferred tax is recognised on differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit, and is accounted for using the balance sheet liability method. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences and deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from goodwill or from the initial recognition (other than in business combination) of other assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the tax profit nor the accounting profit.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered. Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the liability is settled or the asset is realised.

Current and deferred tax is charged or credited in the income statement, except when it relates to items charged or credited directly to equity, in which case the current or deferred tax is also recognised directly in equity

m) Financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are recognised in the Group's balance sheet when the Group becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

i) Initial recognition and subsequent measurement

(a) Financial assets

Trade and other receivables

Trade receivables are measured at fair value at initial recognition, do not carry any interest and are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method

Appropriate allowances for estimated irrecoverable amounts are recognised in the income statement.

Allowances for doubtful debts are recognised based on management's expectation of losses, without regard to whether an impairment trigger has occurred or not (an expected credit loss' model under IFRS 9).

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents in the balance sheet comprise cash at bank and in hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less.

(b) Financial liabilities and equity

Financial liabilities and equity instruments are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into. An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Group after deducting all of its liabilities.

Borrowings

Borrowings comprise interest-bearing bank loans and overdrafts and compound financial instruments (convertible bonds).

Bank loans are initially measured at fair value (being proceeds received, net of direct issue costs), and are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method. Transaction fees such as arrangement fees associated with the securing of financing are capitalised and amortised through the income statement over the term of the relevant facility. Finance charges, including premiums payable on settlement or redemptions and direct issue costs are accounted for on an accruals basis and taken to the income statement using the effective interest rate method and are added to the carrying value of the instrument to the extent that they are not settled in the period in which they arise.

Compound financial instruments issued by the Group comprise convertible bonds. The convertible bonds are bifurcated into a liability component and an equity component on initial recognition. The carrying value of the liability at initial recognition is measured using a market interest rate for an equivalent non-convertible bond at the issue date. The remainder of the proceeds is allocated to the conversion option and recognised in equity (Other reserves), and not subsequently remeasured. Any directly attributable transaction costs are allocated to each component in proportion to their initial carrying amounts.

Subsequent to initial recognition, the liability component of a compound financial instrument is measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Any transaction costs apportioned to the liability is included in the carrying amount and recognised over the contractual life of the liability using the effective interest rate method.

Trade and other payables

Trade and other payables are initially measured at fair value and are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method.

1. Accounting policies (continued) m) Financial instruments (continued)

ij) Initial recognition and subsequent measurement (continued) (b) Financial liabilities and equity (continued) Equity instruments

ii) Derecognition of financial assets and financial liabilities Financial assets

The Group derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire, or it transfers the rights to receive the contractual cash flows in a transaction in which substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset are transferred or in which the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership and it does not retain control of the financial asset.

Financial liabilities

The Group derecognises a financial liability when its contractual obligations are discharged or cancelled, or expire. The Group also derecognises a financial liability when its terms are modified and the cash flows of the modified liability are substantially different, in which case a new financial liability based on the modified terms is recognised at fair value.

On derecognition of a financial liability, the difference between the carrying amount extinguished and the consideration paid (including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed) is recognised in profit or loss.

iii) Offsetting

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net position presented in the balance sheet when, and only when, the Group has a legally enforceable right to set off the amounts and it intends either to settle them on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously

iv) Impairment

The Group recognises loss allowances for expected credit losses (ECLs) on financial assets measured at amortised cost. These are always measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECL. The maximum period considered when estimating ECLs is the maximum contractual period over which the Group is exposed to credit risk.

When determining whether the credit risk of a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition and when estimating ECL, the Group considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort

This includes both qualitative and quantitative information and analysis, based on the Group's historical experience and informed credit assessment and forward-looking information.

Loss allowances for financial assets measured at amortised cost are deducted from the gross carrying amount of the assets. The gross carrying amount of a financial asset is written off (either partially or in full) to the extent that there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when the Group determines that the debtor does not have the assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subject to the write-off. However, financial assets that are written off could still be subject to enforcement activities in order to comply with the Group's procedures for recovery of amounts due.

v) Derivative financial instruments and hedge accounting

The Group uses certain derivative financial instruments to reduce its exposure to foreign exchange movements in accordance with its risk management policies. The Group primarily uses forward foreign currency contracts to manage its exposure to changes in foreign exchange rates. The Group does not hold or use derivative financial instruments for speculative purposes. Further details of the Group's risk management policies are provided in Note 22.

These instruments are initially recognised at fair value on the trade date and are subsequently measured at their fair value at the end of the reporting period. The method of recognising the resulting gain or loss is dependent on whether the derivative is designated as a hedging instrument and the nature of the items being hedged

Changes in the fair value of derivative financial instruments that are designated and effective as hedges of future cash flows are recognised directly in equity and any ineffective portion is recognised immediately in the income statement.

If the cash flow hedge of a highly probable forecasted transaction results in the recognition of an asset or liability, then, at the time the asset or liability is recognised, the associated gains or losses on the derivative that had previously been recognised in equity are included in the initial measurement of the asset or liability. For hedges that do not result in the recognition of an asset or a liability, amounts deferred in equity are recognised in the income statement in the same period as the hedged item.

For an effective hedge of an exposure to changes in the fair value of a recognised asset or liability, changes in fair value of the hedging instrument are recognised in profit or loss at the same time that the recognised asset or liability that is being hedged is adjusted for movements in the hedged risk and that adjustment is also recognised in profit or loss in the same period.

Changes in the fair value of derivative financial instruments that do not qualify for hedge accounting are recognised in the income statement as they arise.

Hedge accounting is discontinued when the hedging instrument expires or is sold, terminated, or exercised, or no longer qualifies for hedge accounting. At that time, any cumulative gain or loss on the hedging instrument recognised in equity is retained in equity until the forecasted transaction occurs. If a hedged transaction is no longer expected to occur, the net cumulative gain or loss recognised in equity is transferred to profit or loss for the period.

Derivatives embedded in other financial instruments or other host contracts are treated as separate derivatives when their risks and characteristics are not closely related to those of host contracts and the host contracts are not carried at fair value with unrealised gains or losses reported in the income statement.

1. Accounting policies (continued)

n) Share schemes

WHSmith Employee Benefit Trust

The shares held by the WHSmith Employee Benefit Trust are valued at the historical cost of the shares acquired. They are deducted in arriving at shareholders' funds and are presented as an Other reserve.

Share-based payments

Employees of the Group receive part of their remuneration in the form of share-based payment transactions, whereby employees render services in exchange for shares or rights over shares (equity settled transactions).

Equity settled share-based payments are measured at fair value at the date of grant. The fair value is calculated using an appropriate option pricing model. The fair value is expensed to the income statement on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, based on the Group's estimate of the number of shares that will eventually vest.

For cash-settled share-based payments, a liability is recognised at the current fair value determined at each balance sheet date, taking into account performance conditions and the extent to which employees have rendered service to date, with any changes in fair value recognised in the profit or loss for the year.

o) Dividends

Final dividends are recorded in the financial statements in the period in which they are approved by the Company's shareholders. Interim dividends are recorded in the period in which they are approved and paid.

p) Share capital, Share premium and Other reserves

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Share premium arises on the excess between the fair value of the shares issued and the par value of the shares issued. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, against share premium. The par value of shares repurchased and cancelled under the Group's share buyback programme is reclassified from Share capital to the Capital redemption reserve.

For a description of Other reserves, see Note 26.

q) Critical accounting judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from these estimates and any subsequent changes are accounted for with an effect on income at the time such updated information becomes available.

The most critical accounting judgements and sources of estimation uncertainty in determining the financial condition and results of the Group are those requiring the greatest degree of subjective or complex judgement. These relate to the classification of items as non-underlying, assessment of lease substitution rights, determination of the lease term, determination of the incremental borrowing rate, valuation of retirement benefit obligations, determination of operating segments and allocation of goodwill, valuation of other non-current assets and inventory valuation.

Critical accounting judgements . Non-underlying items

The Group has chosen to present a measure of profit and earnings per share which excludes certain items that are considered non-underlying and exceptional due to their size, nature or incidence, and are not considered to be part of the normal operations of the Group. These measures may exclude the financial effect of non-underlying items which are considered exceptional and occur infrequently such as, inter alia, restructuring costs linked to a Board agreed programme, amortisation of acquired intangible assets, costs relating to business combinations, impairment charges and other property costs, significant items relating to pension schemes, and impairment charges and items meeting the definition of non-underlying specifically related to the Covid-19 pandemic, and the related tax effect of these items. The Group believes that they provide additional useful information to users of the financial statements to enable a better understanding of the Group's underlying financial performance.

The classification of items as non-underlying requires significant management judgement. The definition of non-underlying items has been applied consistently year on year. Further details of non-underlying items are provided in Note 4.

IFRS 16 Lease accounting Substantive substitution rights

Judgement is required in determining whether a contract meets the definition of a lease under IFRS 16. Management has determined that certain retail concession contracts give the landlord substantive substitution rights because the contract gives the landlord rights to relocate the retail space occupied by the Group. In such cases, management has concluded that there is not an identified asset and therefore such contracts are outside the scope of IFRS 16. For these contracts, the Group recognises the payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the contract unless another systematic basis is more representative of the time pattern in which economic benefits from the underlying contract are consumed.

Determination of lease term

In determining the lease term for contracts that have options to extend or terminate early, management has applied judgement in determining the likelihood of whether such options will be exercised. This is based on the length of time remaining before the option is exercisable, performance of the individual store and the trading forecasts.

1. Accounting policies (continued)

q) Critical accounting judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty (continued)

Initial recognition of convertible bond

On initial recognition of the convertible bond, judgement is required in respect of the accounting treatment of embedded derivatives. The fixed principal amount of each bond is convertible into a fixed number of shares and as a result management has determined that the conversion feature meets the fixed-for-fixed criterion for equity classification. The bonds include anti-dilution provisions to ensure that the holder's potential interest in the equity of the Company is not diluted in specified circumstances. If these provisions are triggered, the number of shares that will be delivered to the holder is adjusted. Management considers that the provisions are anti-dilutive and exist to ensure that the holder's potential interest in the equity of the Company is not diluted under each of these circumstances. These provisions are not deemed to breach the fixed-for-fixed criterion, therefore the conversion feature is accounted for as equity.

Determination of operating segments

During the year the Group has reviewed its assessment of its operating segments, as a result of internal reorganisation and changes to the composition of information used by the Board to monitor the performance of the Group. This review has resulted in a change to the reportable segments identified, and prior year comparatives have been restated. There is no change to the total revenue or Group profit from trading operations.

Further information in respect of the Group's operating segments is included in Note 2.

Sources of estimation uncertainty Retirement benefit obligation

The Group recognises and discloses its retirement benefit obligation in accordance with the measurement and presentational requirement of IAS 19 'Retirement Benefit Obligations'. The calculations include a number of judgements and estimations in respect of the discount rate, inflation assumptions, the rate of increase in salaries, and life expectancy, among others. Changes in these assumptions can have a significant effect on the value of the retirement benefit obligation. Further information and sensitivity analysis in respect of the Group's retirement benefit obligation is included in Note 5.

Valuation of goodwill

As a result of the change to the Group's identified operating segments described above, the goodwill previously allocated to the Travel operating segment has been allocated to the new operating segments using a relative value approach. This method of allocation requires the determination of value-in-use of each of the new segments. The key assumptions in the value-in-use calculations include growth rates of revenue and expenses, and discount rates.

A sensitivity analysis of the goodwill impairment calculation has shown that no reasonably possible change in assumptions would lead to an impairment of goodwill in the next financial year. Further to this sensitivity analysis, an assessment of the goodwill allocation was performed which showed that an impairment assessment under the previous allocation of goodwill to the Travel operating segment, or under any other reasonable split of the goodwill balance, would not have resulted in an impairment of goodwill.

Intangible assets, property, plant and equipment and right-of-use asset impairment reviews

Property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets are reviewed for impairment if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. When a review for impairment is conducted, the recoverable amount of an asset or a cash-generating unit is determined based on value-in-use calculations prepared on the basis of management's assumptions and estimates.

The key assumptions in the value-in-use calculations include growth rates of revenue and the pre-tax discount rate. Due to the ongoing Covid-19 global pandemic, there is an increased level of uncertainty in all of the above assumptions such that a reasonably possible change in these assumptions could lead to a material change in the carrying value of assets.

Further information in respect of the Group's property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets is included in Notes 12 and 13 respectively.

Inventory valuation

Inventory is carried at the lower of cost and net realisable value which requires the estimation of sell through rates, and the eventual sales price of goods to customers in the future. Any difference between the expected and the actual sales price achieved will be accounted for in the period in which the sale is made. A description of the Group's accounting policy in respect of inventories is included in Note 1 [h]. A sensitivity analysis has been carried out on the calculation of inventory provisions, including consideration of the uncertainties arising from Covid-19. The key assumption driving the stock provision calculation is forecast revenue. A 10 per cent change in the revenue assumptions applied in the provision calculation, representing a reasonably possible outcome, would reduce the net realisable value of inventories by £2m.

2. Segmental analysis of results

IFRS 8 requires segment information to be presented on the same basis as that used by the Chief Operating Decision Maker for assessing performance and allocating resources. The Group's operating segments are based on the reports reviewed by the Board of Directors who are collectively considered to be the chief operating decision maker

During the year the Group has reviewed its assessment of its operating segments, as a result of internal reorganisation and changes to the composition of information used by the Board to monitor the performance of the Group. This review has resulted in a change to the reportable segments identified, and prior year comparatives have been restated. There is no change to the total revenue or Group profit from trading operations.

For management and financial reporting purposes, the Group is organised into two operating divisions which comprise four reportable segments - Travel UK, North America, Rest of the World within the Travel division, and High Street. The North America operating segment includes both MRG and InMotion from the dates of acquisition. For further information in relation to the acquisition of MRG in the prior year, see Note 27.

The information presented to the Board is prepared in accordance with the Group's IFRS accounting policies, with the exception of IFRS 16, and is shown below as Headline information in Section b). A reconciliation to statutory measures is provided below in accordance with IFRS 8, and in the Glossary on page 154 in Note A21.

Non-underlying items recognised in the year are as follows: Costs relating to business combinations

During the year, the Group incurred further integration costs of £2m in relation to the acquisition of Marshall Retail Group ('MRG'), which completed on 20 December 2019. In the prior year transaction and integration costs of £20m were incurred in relation to the acquisition of MRG.

Amortisation of acquired intangible assets

Amortisation of acquired intangible assets primarily relates to the MRG and InMotion brands (see Note 11). Costs directly attributable to Covid-19

As described in the Strategic report the Covid-19 pandemic continues to have a substantial impact on the Group's operations. As a result, the Group continues to incur significant costs which have been separately recognised in non-underlying items, in accordance with the Group's accounting policy. The charges have arisen as a direct consequence of Covid-19, and reflect the impact of lost revenues as a result of ongoing store closures and travel restrictions, and downward revisions to budgeted revenues based on expectations of the rate of return to pre-pandemic levels of footfall and passenger numbers

Impairment of property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets

The impact on the Group's operations of Covid-19 is expected to continue during the next year and beyond. As a result, the Group has carried out a review for potential impairment across the entire store portfolio. The impairment review compared the value-in-use of individual store cash-generating units, based on management's assumptions regarding likely future trading performance (taking into account the effect of Covid-19) to the carrying values at 31 August 2021. Following this review, a charge of £42m (2020: £135m) was recorded within non-underlying items for impairment of retail store assets, of which £14m (2020: £39m) relates to property, plant and equipment. £nil (2020: £1m) relates to intangible assets and £28m (2020: £95m) relates to right-of-use assets. Refer to Note 12 for details of impairment of store cash-generating units. The impairment recognised on a pre-IFRS 16 basis is provided in the Glossary on page 154.

Write-down of inventories

The Group assesses the recoverability of the carrying value of inventories at every reporting period and, where the expected recoverable amount is lower than the carrying value, a provision is recorded. During the year non-underlying provisions of £5m have been recorded against inventory, in addition to underlying provisions held of £13m, which relate to dated and perishable stock and stock subject to obsolescence where the sell through rate has significantly reduced due to store closures and lower footfall. The Group has recognised these charges as non-underlying as they meet the Group's definition of non-underlying

Restructuring costs

The charge of £9m (2020: £21 m) is principally attributable to redundancies and restructuring costs following a review of store operations across our High Street business, as a result of the impact of Covid-19 on footfall on the UK high street. These costs are presented as a non-underlying item as they are part of a Board-agreed restructuring programme, and are considered material and one-off in nature. In addition, in the prior year the Group incurred costs of £4m relating to exiting the Paris bookshop and the Brazil joint venture.

4. Non-underlying items (continued)

Costs associated with refinancing

Costs associated with refinancing include £1m of non-cash charges relating to unamortised fees connected with extinguished liabilities. £3m of fees incurred in relation to amendment and extension of the Group's previous financing arrangements incurred in March 2021 prior to the issuance of the convertible bond, and £2m of professional fees relating to refinancing and debt structuring activity required as a result of Covid-19. Other fees incurred relating to refinancing activity have been recognised in underlying finance costs or recognised as a deduction from the value of liabilities recognised, and will be amortised over the period of the arrangement through underlying finance costs.

Other prior year non-underlying items Pension past service

Past service cost of £Um was recognised in the year ended 31 August 2020. This relates to equalisation of pension benefits between men and women over the period from 1 April 1992 to 29 July 1993 (Barber equalisation). The WHSmith Pension Trust has historically been administered assuming gender equalisation was achieved on 1 April 1992, and thus a Barber equalisation window of 17 May 1990 to 1 April 1992 applied. A new Trust Deed and Rules reflecting the equalisation of normal retirement ages at 65 was executed on 29 July 1993. It has since been determined that Barber equalisation was not effective until 29 July 1993. Accordingly, this past service cost is the expected cost of providing these benefits based on a normal retirement age of 60 rather than 65 for the period between 1 April 1992 and 29 July 1993. See Note 5.

A tax credit of £12m (2020 £25m) has been recognised in relation to the above items.

5. Retirement benefit obligations

WH Smith PLC has operated a number of defined benefit and defined contribution pension plans. The main pension arrangements for employees are operated through a defined benefit scheme, WHSmith Pension Trust, and a defined contribution scheme, WHSmith Retirement Savings Plan. The most significant scheme is WHSmith Pension Trust, which is described in Note 5 a) i).

Pension Trust

The WHSmith Pension Trust Final Salary Section is a funded final salary defined benefit scheme, it was closed to defined benefit service accrual on 2 April 2007 and has been closed to new members since 1996. Benefits are based on service and salary at the date of closure or leaving service, with increases currently based on CPI inflation in deferment and RPI inflation in payment

The WHSmith Pension Trust is independent of the Group and is administered by a Trustee. The Trustee is responsible for the administration and management of the scheme on behalf of the members in accordance with the Trust Deed and relevant legislation. Responsibilities include the investment of funds, the triennial valuation and determining the deficit funding schedule. Under the Articles of Association of WH Smith Pension Trustees Limited (the corporate trustee) there are four directors nominated by the sponsor, two independent directors and four member-nominated directors. Under the member-nominated director arrangements, the term of office of a member-nominated director is four years.

The WHSmith Pension Trust has assets valued at £1,456m. as at 31 August 2021 12020 £1,412ml managed by third party investment managers. In September 2005, the Pension Trust Trustee adopted a Liability Driven Investment (LDI) policy where the assets in the investment fund were invested such that they are expected to alter in value in line with changes in the pension liability caused by changes in interest rates and inflation. The LDI structure that is in place has a number of inflation and interest rate hedges, with collateral posted daily to or from the scheme to the relevant counterparty. The risk of failure of counterparties could expose the scheme to loss. The scheme's liabilities are also subject to changes in longevity.

The principal risks associated with the Group's defined benefit pension arrangements are as follows:

Longevity risk

Liabilities are sensitive to life expectancy, with increases in life expectancy leading to an increase in the valuation of liabilities. 5. Retirement benefit obligations (continued) a) Defined benefit pension schemes (continued) i) The WHSmith Pension Trust (continued)

Interest rate and inflation risk

Liabilities are sensitive to movements in interest rates and inflation, with lower interest rates or higher inflation leading to an increase in the valuation of liabilities. As a result of the LDI policy outlined above, these risks are largely hedged.

An Investment Committee of the Trustees to the scheme meets regularly to review the performance of the investment managers and the scheme as a whole. The Group is represented on this Committee. Although investment decisions are the responsibility of the Trustee, the Group is an active participant of the investment sub-committee to ensure that pension plan risks are managed efficiently.

The risk of failure of counterparties and of the investment manager is monitored regularly by the Committee. The Trustees have the right to determine the level of contributions and the Group has agreed with the Trustees a deficit funding schedule.

A full actuarial valuation of the Scheme is carried out every three years with interim reviews in the intervening years. The latest full actuarial valuation of the Pension Trust was carried out as at 31 March 2020 by independent actuaries using the projected unit credit method and has been completed. At 31 March 2020 the deficit was £9m. The Group has agreed a continuation of the annual funding schedule with the Trustees from March 2020 for the following 5 years, which includes the deficit recovery contributions and other running costs of just under £3m. During the year ending 31 August 2021, the Group made a contribution of £3m to the WHSmith Pension Trust 12020. £3m) in accordance with the agreed pension deficit funding schedule, being £1m of deficit funding payable to the Trustee and £2m in relation to investment management costs. The Group expects the cash payments for the year ended 31 August 2022 to be £3m. The weighted average duration of the defined benefit obligation is 18 years.

In accordance with the requirements of IFRIC 14 we have recognised the schedule of contributions as a liability of £2m (2020: £3m). The defined benefit pension schemes are closed to further accrual. The Group does not have an unconditional right to derive economic benefit from any surplus, as the Trustees retain the right to enhance benefits under the Trust deed, and therefore the present value of the economic benefits of the IAS 19 surplus in the pension scheme of £284m (2020 £268m) available on a reduction of future contributions is Enil (2020: Enil). As a result, the Group has not recognised this IAS 19 surplus on the balance sheet There is an ongoing actuarial deficit primarily due to the different assumptions and calculation methodologies used compared to those on interpretation of IAS 19.

The actual return on scheme assets was a gain of £82m (2020. loss of £12m). During the year, asset returns outperformed the discount rate, leading to an asset remeasurement gain of £58m. Actuarial losses on scheme liabilities have arisen due to experience gains of £5m. as a result of the triennial valuation at 31 March 2020. which applied membership and other demographic movements over the last 3 years; the lower discount rate and RPI assumptions, offset by higher CPI inflation assumptions resulting in a loss of £56m; and changes in demographic assumptions that led to a £1 m reduction in plan liabilities.

The decrease in scheme liabilities combined with a increase in the scheme assets, resulted in a increase of £16m in the unrecognised IAS 10

The decrease in scheme liabilities combined with a increase in the scheme assets, resulted in a increase of £10m in the unrecognised IAS 19 surplus, to £284m.

Sensitivity to changes in assumptions

The valuation of the retirement benefit obligation is considered a significant source of estimation uncertainty, see Note 1(q), and therefore changes in assumptions can have a significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements. Sensitivity information has been derived using scenario analysis from the actuarial assumptions as at 31 August 2021, while keeping all other assumptions consistent; in practice, changes in some of the assumptions may be correlated.

ii) United News Shops Retirement Benefits Scheme

United News Shops Retirement Benefits Scheme ('UNSRBS') is closed to new entrants. The scheme provides pension benefits for pensioners and deferred members based on salary at the date of closure, with increases based on inflation. A full actuarial valuation of the scheme is carried out every three years with interim reviews in the intervening years. The latest full actuarial valuation of the scheme was carried out at 5 April 2018 by independent actuaries. Following this valuation, the deficit was less than £1 m

The valuation of the UNSRBS used for the IAS 19 disclosures is based on consistent assumptions to those used for valuing the WHSmith Pension Trust. Scheme assets are stated at their market value at the relevant reporting date. The deficit funding contributions are immaterial in the context of these financial statements.

The present value of obligations and fair value of assets are stated below.

In the Spring Budget 2021, the UK Government announced that from 1 April 2023 the corporation tax rate will increase to 25 per cent. This new law was substantively enacted on 24 May 2021, and the main impact of this change is an increase to the deferred tax assets and an increase in the current year tax income statement credit of £8m Diluted loss per share takes into account various share awards and share options including SAYE schemes, which are expected to vest, and for which a sum below fair value will be paid. As the Group has incurred a loss in the years ending 31 August 2021 and 31 August 2020, the impact of its potential dilutive ordinary shares have been excluded as they would be anti-dilutive.

At 31 August 2021 the convertible bond has no dilutive effect as the inclusion of these potentially dilutive shares would improve loss per share.

The calculation of loss per share on a pre-IFRS 16 basis is provided in the Glossary on page 154

Adjustments to goodwill include an adjustment of £1m to the consideration paid in relation to the acquisition of Marshall Retail Group (MRG). Additions to goodwill in the prior year relate to the acquisition of MRG. See Note 27 for further information. Goodwill of USD $77m (£56m) relating to the acquisition of InMotion in 2018 is expected to be deductible for tax purposes in the future.

As a result of changes to the Group's reportable segments (as discussed in Note 2), goodwill previously attributable to the Travel operating segment has been reallocated to the new operating segments using a relative value approach

The carrying value of goodwill is allocated to the segmental businesses as follows:

11. Intangible assets (continued)

Included within Tenancy rights are certain assets that are considered to have an indefinite life of £4m (2020: £4m), representing certain rights under tenancy agreements, which include the right to renew leases, therefore no amortisation has been charged. Management has determined that the useful economic life of these assets is indefinite because the Company can continue to occupy and trade from certain premises for an indefinite period. These assets are reviewed annually for indicators of impairment.

Impairment of goodwill and intangible assets

The Group tests goodwill for impairment annually or where there is an indication that goodwill might be impaired. For impairment testing purposes, the Group has determined that each store is a separate CGU, and goodwill is allocated to groups of CGUs in a manner that is consistent with our operating segments, as this reflects the lowest level at which goodwill is monitored. All goodwill has arisen on acquisitions of groups of retail stores. These acquisitions are then integrated into the Group's operating segments as appropriate. Acquired brands are considered together with goodwill for impairment testing purposes, and are therefore considered annually for impairment.

Goodwill and acquired brands have been tested for impairment by comparing the carrying amount of each group of CGUs, including goodwill and acquired brands, with the recoverable amount determined from value-in-use calculations. The value-in-use of each group of CGUs has been calculated using cash flows derived from the Group's latest Board-approved budget and three year plan, initially extrapolated to five years and taking into account the projected impact of Covid-19. The forecasts reflect knowledge of the current market, together with the Group's expectations on the future achievable growth and committed store openings. Cash flows beyond the initial forecast period are extrapolated using estimated long-term growth rates. Forecasts have taken into account the immediately quantifiable impacts of climate change, with no material impact on cash flows. Forecasts beyond the initial forecast period do not include a quantitative assessment of the impact of climate change on cash flows.

For certain groups of CGUs, additional adjustments to cash flows have been made during the extrapolation process for an extended period of up to 15 years before calculating a terminal value. This extended period of time is required to establish a normalised cash flow base on which a terminal value calculation can be appropriately calculated. The main reasons for cash flow adjustments include the need to forecast lease renewals under IFRS 16, and the unwinding of certain cash flow benefits arising from acquisitions in North America.

The key assumptions on which forecast three-year cash flows of the CGUs are based include revenue growth, product mix and operating costs, long-term growth rates and the pre-tax discount rate:

- The values assigned to each of the revenue, product mix and operating cost assumptions were determined based on the extrapolation of historical trends within the Group and external information on expected future trends in the travel and high street retail sectors.
- The pre-tax discount rates are derived from the Group's weighted average cost of capital, which has been calculated using the capital asset pricing model, the inputs of which include a risk-free rate, equity risk premium, Group size premium and a risk adjustment (beta). The pre-tax discount rate used in the calculation was 10.4 per cent.
- The long-term growth rate assumptions are between 0 per cent and 2 per cent.

The value-in-use estimates indicated that the recoverable amount of goodwill exceeded the carrying value for each group of CGUs. As a result, no impairment has been recognised in respect of the carrying value of goodwill in the year (2020: Nil).

As disclosed in Note 1, Accounting policies, the forecast cash flows used within the impairment model are based on assumptions which are sources of estimation uncertainty and it is possible that significant changes to these assumptions could lead to an impairment of goodwill and acquired brands. Given the significant uncertainty surrounding the impact of Covid-19 on the Group's operations and on the global economy, management have considered a range of sensitivities on each of the key assumptions, with other variables held constant. The sensitivities include applying increases in the discount rate by 1 per cent and reductions in the long-term growth rates to 0 per cent Under these severe scenarios, the estimated recoverable amount of goodwill and acquired brands still exceeded the carrying value

The sensitivity analysis showed that no reasonably possible change in assumptions would lead to an impairment.

Impairment of property, plant and equipment

For impairment testing purposes, the Group has determined that each store is a separate CGU. Each CGU is tested for impairment at the balance sheet date if any indicators of impairment have been identified. The significant disruption to trading as a result of the Covid-19 pandemic has been identified as an indicator of impairment, and therefore all CGUs have been tested for impairment as at the balance sheet date

12. Property, plant and equipment (continued)

Property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets have been tested for impairment by comparing the carrying amount of each CGU with its recoverable amount determined from value-in-use calculations. It was determined that value-in-use was higher than fair value less costs to sell as a result of the significant impact on fair values as a result of Covid-19. The value-in-use of each CGU has been calculated using discounted cash flows derived from the Group's latest Board-approved budget and three-year plan, taking into account the projected impact of Covid-19, and reflects historic performance and knowledge of the current market, together with the Group's views on the future achievable growth. Cash flows beyond this three-year period are extrapolated using growth rates and inflation rates appropriate to each store's location. Cash flows have been included for the remaining lease life for the specific store. These growth rates do not exceed the long-term growth rate for the Group's retail businesses in the relevant territory. Where stores have a relatively short remaining lease life, an extension to the lease has been assumed where management consider it likely that an extension will be granted

The key assumptions on which the forecast three-year cash flows of the CGUs are based include revenue and the pre-tax discount rate. Other assumptions in the model relate to gross margin, cost inflation and longer-term growth rates. The forecasts used in the impairment review are based on management's best estimate of revenue reductions versus a 'pre-Covid' base, and the recovery in revenue over the forecast period. In developing these forecasts, management have used available information, including historical knowledge of the store level cash flows, and knowledge gained during the pandemic up to the year end date.

The forecasts for the year for our High Street business assume that store like-for-like sales will be lower by around 20 per cent during the year ended 31 August 2022. In Travel UK, revenue is assumed to be initially down around 50 per cent recovering to around 5 per cent down by the end of that year. This is an average across all formats, with Hospitals recovering more quickly than Air. Our International locations outside of North America assume that like-for-like sales will be lower by around 75 per cent initially, and recovering to down around 25 per cent by the end of August 2022

In North America, revenue is assumed to be down around 25 per cent in the early part of the next financial year improving to around 2019 levels by the end of the August 2022 financial year. This is an average across all formats, with Resorts recovering more quickly than Air.

The second and third years of the three year plan include further gradual recoveries across all locations.

The pre-tax discount rates are derived from the Group's weighted average cost of capital, which has been calculated using the capital asset pricing model, the inputs of which include the risk-free rate, equity risk premium, Group size premium and a risk adjustment (beta). The pre-tax discount rate used in the calculation was 10.4 per cent

Where the value-in-use was less than the carrying value of the CGU, an impairment of property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets was

where the value in use was less than the carrying value of the CGU, an impairment of property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets was recorded. These stores were impaired to their recoverable amount of £56m, which is their carrying value at year end. The Group has recognised an impairment charge of £16m to property, plant and equipment and £28m to right-of-use assets as a result of impairment testing. Impairments of £42m have been presented as non-underlying items in the current year (see Note 4), and impairments of £2m have been included in underlying results.

As disclosed in Note 1. Accounting policies, the forecast cash flows used within the impairment model are based on assumptions which are sources of estimation uncertainty and changes to these assumptions could lead to further impairments to assets. Given the significant uncertainty regarding the impact of Covid-19 on the Group's operations and on the global economy, management have considered sensitivities to the impairment charge as a result of changes to the estimate of future revenues achieved by the stores.

The Group has applied certain sensitivities in isolation to demonstrate the impact on the impairment of changes in key assumptions. The most significant assumption is the revenue assumption. The impact of a potential slower recovery from the pandemic has been modelled by incorporating a further 10 per cent reduction in revenue in High Street stores and a delay in recovery of one year in Travel UK and North America, with no change to subsequent forecast revenue growth rate assumptions. This would result in a £21m increase in the impairment charge of retail store assets in the year ended 31 August 2021. An increase or decrease of 1 percent in the discount rate would result in an increase or decrease in the impairment charge of around £2m.

Other changes in assumptions have been modelled and have shown that any reasonably possible changes would not lead to a significant impact on the impairment charge. Other modelled assumption changes include margin reductions and long-term growth rate reductions across all formats.

The impairment assessment has also been performed on a pre-IFRS 16 basis. See Glossary on page 154.

The Group has limited exposure to expected credit losses due to the business model. An allowance has been made for lifetime expected credit losses from receivables at 31 August 2021 of £3m [31 August 2020: £3m]. The ageing analysis of these receivables is given in the table below. This expected credit loss allowance reflects the application of the Group's provisioning policy in respect of bad and doubtful debts and is based upon the difference between the receivable value and the estimated net collectible amount. The Group establishes its provision for bad and doubtful debts by reference to past default experience.

No trade and other receivables that would have been past due or impaired were renegotiated during the year. No interest is charged on the receivables balance. The other classes within trade and other receivables do not include impaired assets. The Group does not hold collateral over these balances. The directors consider that the carrying amount of trade and other receivables approximates their fair value.

Trade payables is stated net of £4m [2020: £2m] amounts receivable from suppliers in relation to supplier income, that has been invoiced, for which the Group has the right to set off against amounts payable at the balance sheet date.

The classification of trade and other payables has been reviewed and it was noted that certain balances more closely related to deferred income have previously been classified in other categories. The analysis provided above more closely reflects the nature of the underlying balances. The comparatives have been restated for consistency by reducing Trade payables by £5m, reducing Other

The Group leases land and buildings for its retail stores, distribution centres, storage locations and office property. These leases have an average remaining lease term of 4 years. Some leases include an option to break before the end of the contract term or an option to renew the lease for an additional term after the end of the term. Management assess the lease term at inception based on the facts and circumstances applicable to each property.

Other leases are mainly forklift trucks for the retail stores and distribution centres, office equipment and vehicles. These leases have an average remaining lease term of 3 years.

The Group reviews the retail lease portfolio on an ongoing basis, taking into account retail performance and future trading expectations. The Group may exercise extension options, negotiate lease extensions or modifications. In other instances, the Group may exercise break options, negotiate lease reductions or decide not to negotiate a lease extension at the end of the lease term. Certain property leases contain rent review terms that require rent to be adjusted on a periodic basis which may be subject to market rent or increases in inflation measurements.

Many of the Group's property leases, particularly in Travel locations, also incur payments based on a percentage of revenue (variable lease payments) achieved at the location. In line with IFRS 16, variable lease payments which are not based on an index or rate are not included in the lease liability. See Note 3 for the expense charged to the Income statement relating to variable lease payments not included in the measurement of the lease liability.

In response to the Covid-19 pandemic, an amendment was issued to IFRS 16 in June 2020 and further extended in March 2021. This amendment (practical expedient) allows the impact on the lease liability of temporary rent reductions/waivers affecting rent payments due on or before June 2022, to be recognised in the Income statement in the period they are received, rather than as lease modifications, which would require the remeasurement of the lease liability using a revised discount rate with a corresponding adjustment to the right-of-use asset. The Group has applied this practical expedient to all Covid-19 rent reductions/waivers that meet the requirements of the amendment. This has resulted in a credit to the Income statement of £23m for the year ended 31 August 2021.

The Group's accounting policy for leases is set out in Note 1. Details of Income statement charges and income for leases are set out in Note 3. The right-of-use asset categories on which depreciation is incurred are presented in Note 13. Interest expense incurred on lease liabilities is presented in Note 7. The maturity of undiscounted future lease liabilities are set out in Note 22.

The total cash outflow for leases in the financial year was £123m. This includes cash outflow for short-term leases of £14m and variable lease payments (not included in the measurement of lease liability) of £18m. The total future income from sub-leasing the right-of-use assets is £1m.

Property provisions relate to reinstatement liabilities for stores where the long-term viability has been impacted by Covid-19. These expected costs of store closures are reviewed frequently and are based on information available as at the reporting date as well as management's historical experience of similar transactions. Utilisations of the property provisions are expected to be incurred in line with the profile of the leases to which they relate.

In the prior year onerous lease provisions of £2m were derecognised on adoption of IFRS 16.

Substantially all of the deferred income tax assets are expected to be recovered after more than one year.

The UK corporation tax rate is 19 per cent effective from 1 April 2017. In the Spring Budget 2021, the UK Government announced that from 1 April 2023 the corporation tax rate will increase to 25 per cent. This new law was substantively enacted on 24 May 2021, and the main impact of this change is an increase in the deferred tax assets and an increase in the current year tax income statement credit of £8m.

At 31 August 2021, deferred tax assets have been recognised in respect of tax losses and US unutilised interest expense. The deferred tax assets of £198m relates to carried forward tax losses which have been recognised to the extent that they will be recoverable using the estimated future taxable income based on the approved budgets for the Group. The Group has not recognised deferred tax assets on losses amounting to £107m (2020 £121m) due to uncertainty over the timing and extent of their utilisation. The losses can be carried forward indefinitely and have no expiry date.

All deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset where there is considered to be a legally enforceable right to do so. The following is an analysis of the deferred tax balances (after offset) for financial reporting purposes.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash held by the Group and short-term bank deposits with an original maturity of three months or less. The carrying amount of these assets approximates to their fair value.

Lease liabilities

Non-cash movements in lease liabilities mainly relate to new leases, modifications and remeasurements in the year. Term loans and revolving credit facilities

On 28 April the Group announced new financing arrangements. These included the issuance of £327m of convertible bonds, the repayment of the existing £400m term loans and replacement with a new £133m term loan, and an increased revolving credit facility of £250m.

At 31 August 2021 the Group has in place a five-year committed multi-currency revolving credit facility of £250m with Santander UK PLC. BNP Paribas, HSBC UK Bank PLC. JP Morgan Securities PLC and Barclays Bank PLC. The revolving credit facility is due to mature on 28 April 2025. The utilisation is interest bearing at a margin over SONIA. As at 31 August 2021, the Group has drawn down Enil on this facility (2020: Enil drawn down on previous facility).

As part of the new financing arrangements the additional multi-currency revolving credit facility of £120m, which was undrawn and due to expire in November 2021, was cancelled

The Group has a four-year committed £133m term loan with Banco Santander S.A. London Branch, Barclays Bank PLC. BNP Paribas and HSBC UK Bank PLC. that was drawn down at the time of the refinancing in April 2021. This loan is interest bearing at a margin over SONIA and is due to mature on 28 April 2025

Transaction costs of Elm relating to the term loan are amortised to the Income statement through the effective interest rate method. Transaction costs of Elm relating to the RCF have been capitalised and are amortised to the Income statement on a straight-line basis.

19. Analysis of net debt (continued) Convertible

On 28 April 2021, the Group announced the launch of an offering of £327m of guaranteed senior unsecured convertible bonds due in 2026. Settlement and delivery of convertible bonds took place on 7 May 2021. The total bond offering of £327m covers a five-year term beginning on 7 May 2021 with a 1.625 per cent per annum coupon payable semi-annually in arrears in equal instalments. The bonds are convertible into new and/or existing ordinary shares of WH Smith PLC. The initial conversion price was set at £26.99 representing a premium of 40 per cent above the reference share price on 28 April 2021 (£17.85). If not previously converted, redeemed or purchased and cancelled, the Bonds will be redeemed at par on 7 May 2026.

The convertible bond is a compound financial instrument, consisting of a financial liability component and an equity component, representing the value of the conversion rights. The initial fairvalue of the liability portion of the convertible bond is determined using a market interest rate for an equivalent non-convertible bond at the issue date. The liability is subsequently recognised on an amortised cost basis using the effective interest rate method until extinguished on conversion or maturity of the bonds. The remainder of the proceeds is allocated to the conversion option and recognised in equity (Other reserves), and not subsequently remeasured. As a result, £286m was initially recognised as a liability in the balance sheet on issue and the remainder of the proceeds of £41m, which represents the option component, was recognised in equity.

Transaction costs of £6m were allocated between the two components and the element relating to the debt component of £5m is being amortised through the effective interest rate method. The issue costs apportioned to the equity component of £1 m have been deducted from equity.

Further information regarding the Group's borrowings and revolving credit facilities is provided in Note 22.

Other potential liabilities that could crystallise are in respect of previous assignments of leases where the liability could revert to the Group if the lessee defaulted. Pursuant to the terms of the Demerger Agreement with Smiths News PLC, any such contingent liability which becomes an actual liability will be apportioned between the Group and Smiths News PLC in the ratio 65:35 (provided that the actual liability of Smiths News PLC in any 12-month period does not exceed £5m). The Group's 65 per cent share of these leases has an estimated future rental commitment at 31 August 2021 of £1m (2020: £1m). The movement in the future rental commitment is due to the crystallisation of lease liabilities, lease expiries and the effluxion of time.

Contracts placed for future capital expenditure approved by the directors but not provided for in these financial statements amount to £26m (2020: £18m)

³ Included within amortised cost are trade payables, other payables, accruals, borrowings, lease obligations and other non-current liabilities.

Comparison of carrying values and fair values

There were no material differences between the carrying value of non-derivative financial assets and financial liabilities and their fair values as at the balance sheet date.

Risk management

The Group's treasury function seeks to reduce exposures to interest rate, foreign exchange and other financial risks, and to ensure liquidity is available to meet the foreseeable needs of the Group and to invest cash assets safely and profitably. The Group does not engage in speculative trading in financial instruments and transacts only in relation to underlying business requirements. The Group's treasury policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and approved by the Group's Audit Committee and are subject to regular Group Internal Audit review.

Capital risk

The Group's objectives with respect to managing capital (defined as net debt/funds plus equity) are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, in order to optimise returns to shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders, through an appropriate balance of debt and equity funding. Refer to Note 19 for the value of the Group's net debt/funds and refer to the Group statement of changes in equity for the value of the Group's equity.

In managing the Group's capital levels, the Board regularly monitors the level of debt in the business, the working capital requirements, forecast financing and investing cash flows. Based on this analysis, the Board determines the appropriate return to investors while ensuring sufficient capital is retained in the business to meet its strategic objectives. The Board has a progressive dividend policy and expects that, over time, dividends would be broadly covered twice by earnings calculated on a normalised tax basis.

The Group has in place a E250m committed multi-currency revolving credit facility, and a syndicated £133m term loan. The covenants, tested half-yearly, are based on minimum liquidity for the periods ending 31 August 2021, 28 February 2022 and 31 August 2022, and from 28 February 2023 are based on fixed charges cover and net borrowings (defined as total borrowings excluding lease liabilities that would have been treated as an operating lease prior to the adoption of IFRS 16. less cash and cash equivalents).

On 28 April 2021, the Group announced the launch of an offering of £327m of guaranteed senior unsecured convertible bonds due in 2026 Settlement and delivery of the convertible bonds took place on 7 May 2021. The total bond offering of £327m covers a five-year term beginning on 7 May 2021 with a 1.625 per cent per annum coupon payable semi-annually in arrears in equal instalments. If not previously converted, redeemed or purchased and cancelled, the Bonds will be redeemed at par on 7 May 2026

Liquidity risk

The Group manages its exposure to liquidity risk by reviewing the cash resources required to meet its business objectives through both short- and long-term cash flow forecasts The Group has a committed multi-currency revolving credit facility with a number of financial institutions which is available to be drawn for general corporate purposes including working capital. The facility is due to mature on 28 April 2025

The Group has a policy of pooling cash flows in order to optimise the return on surplus cash and also to utilise cash within the Group to reduce the costs of external short-term funding.

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that a counterparty may default on their obligation to the Group in relation to lending, hedging, settlement and other financial activities. The Group's principal financial assets are trade and other receivables, and bank balances and cash which are considered to have low credit risk on initial recognition.

The Group has credit risk attributable to its trade and other receivables, including a number of sale or return contracts with suppliers. The amounts included in the balance sheet are net of allowances for expected credit losses. The Group has adopted the simplified approach to calculating expected credit losses allowed by IFRS 9. Historical credit loss rates are applied consistently to groups of financial assets with similar risk characteristics. These are then adjusted for known changes in, or any forward-looking impacts on, creditworthiness.

Trade receivables are written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery. Indicators that credit risk might have increased significantly include the failure of the debtor to engage in a payment plan and failure to make contractual payments within 180 days past due, which is in line with historical experience of increased credit risk. Indicators that an asset is credit-impaired would include observable data in relation to the financial health of the debtor or if the debtor breaches contract.

The Group has low retail credit risk due to the transactions being principally high volume, low-value and of short maturity. The Group has no significant concentration of credit risk, with the exposure spread over a large number of counterparties and customers.

The credit risk on liquid funds and derivative financial instruments is considered to be low, as the Board approved Group treasury policy limits the value that can be placed with each approved counterparty to minimise the risk of loss. These limits are based on a short-term credit rating of P-1.

The carrying amount of financial assets recorded in the financial statements represents the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk. The Group does not hold collateral over any of these financial assets.

Interest rate risk

The Group is exposed to cash flow interest rate risk on floating rate bank loans and overdrafts.

At 31 August 2021, the Group had drawn down Enil (2020 Enil) from its £250m committed revolving credit facility. If the Group draws down on this facility, it does not view any draw down as long-term in nature and therefore does not enter into interest rate derivatives to mitigate this risk.

The Group has a four-year committed £133m term loan with Banco Santander S.A., London Branch, Barclays Bank PLC, BNP Paribas and HSBC UK Bank PLC, that was drawn down at the time of the refinancing (April 2021). This loan is interest-bearing at a margin over SONIA. The Group monitors the risk associated with the loan. At present, the Group has not entered into interest rate derivatives in respect of the loan.

22. Financial instruments (continued)

Foreign currency risk

Foreign exchange rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of the changes in foreign exchange rates. The Group's foreign currency exposures are principally to the US dollar, Euro and Australian dollar. The Group's treasury function uses financial instruments to mitigate foreign exchange risk, in line with treasury policies approved by the Board. Financial instruments include foreign exchange contracts, deposits and bank loans.

The Group uses forward foreign exchange contracts to hedge significant future transactions and cash flows denominated in currencies other than pounds sterling. The hedging instruments have been used to hedge purchases in US dollars and to minimise foreign exchange risk in movements of (the USD/GBP exchange rates. These are designated as cash flow hedges. At 31 August 2021, the Group had no material unhedged currency exposures.

The Group's US dollar, Euro and Australian dollar exposure is principally operational and arises mainly through the operation of retail stores in North America, France, Ireland, Spain, Germany, Italy and Australia. The Group does not use derivatives to hedge balance sheet and profit and loss translation exposure.

The fair value of cash flow hedges recognised on the balance sheet within derivative assets/liabilities is shown below:

Fairvalue of derivative assets	-

At 31 August 2021, the total notional amount of outstanding forward foreign exchange contracts to which the Group has committed is US$25m (2020 US$15m). These instruments will be used to hedge cash flows occurring up to one year from the balance sheet date.

Gains of Enil (2020 £1 m) have been transferred to the income statement and gains of Enil (2020: £ 1 m) have been transferred to inventories in respect of contracts that matured during the year ended 31 August 2021. In the year to 31 August 2021, the fair value gain on the Group's currency derivatives that are designated and effective as cash flow hedges amounted to Enil (2020: Enil).

All the derivatives held by the Group at fair value are considered to have fair values determined by Level 2 inputs as defined by the fair value hierarchy. There are no non-recurring fair value measurements nor have there been any transfers of assets or liabilities between levels of the fair value hierarchy.

There are no non-recurring fair value measurements nor have there been any transfers of assets or liabilities between levels of the fair value hierarchy.

Sensitivity analysis as at 31 August 2021

Financial instruments affected by market risks include borrowings, deposits and derivative financial instruments. The following analysis, required by IFRS 7 'Financial Instruments': Disclosures, is intended to illustrate the sensitivity to changes in market variables, being UK interest rates, and USD/GBP, EUR/GBP and AUD/GBP exchange rates

The following assumptions were made in calculating the sensitivity analysis.

- Exchange rate fluctuations on currency derivatives that form part of an effective cash flow hedge relationship affect the hedging reserve in equity and the fair value of the hedging derivatives.
- Year end exchange rates applied in the analysis are USD/GBP 1.3769/1 (2020. 1.3347/1), EUR/GBP 1.1652/1 (2020. 1.1193/1) and AUD/GBP 1.8821/1 (2020. 1.8115/1).
- Group debt and hedging activities remain constant, reflecting the positions at 31 August 2021 and 31 August 2020 respectively.
As a consequence, the analysis relates to the position at those dates and is not necessarily representative of the years then ended.

The above assumptions are made when illustrating the effect on the Group's income statement and equity given reasonable movements in foreign exchange and interest rates before the effect of tax. The Group considers a reasonable interest rate movement in GBP SONIA/base rate to be one per cent, based on interest rate history. Similarly, sensitivity to movements in USD/GBP, EUR/GBP and AUD/GBP exchange rates of ten per cent are shown, reflecting changes of reasonable proportion in the context of movement in those currency pairs over time.

27. Acquisitions Prior year acquisitions

On 20 December 2019, the Group acquired the entire issued share capital of Marshall Retail Group ('MRG'), for a total cash payment of USD $402m (£317m) comprising $243m enterprise value, $U6m repayment of loans, $12m working capital, and $1m cash and restricted cash. During the year ended 31 August 2021, the Group received £1m as an adjustment to the consideration paid.

MRG is an independent travel retailer operating in high footfall airport and tourist locations in the United States. The acquisition builds further on the acquisition of InMotion in November 2018 and significantly strengthens the Group's offering in the United States, the world's largest travel retail market.

Included within the fairvalue of the net identifiable assets on acquisition is an intangible asset of £29m [US$37m] representing the MRG brand. The Board believes that the excess of consideration paid over the net assets on acquisition of £257m is best considered as goodwill on acquisition representing future operating synergies. This amount is not tax deductible.

The provisional goodwill calculation included significant estimates that may be refined for a period of 12 months from the acquisition date. During the year ended 31 August 2021, final fairvalue adjustments were recognised of £1m to property, plant and equipment and £1m to goodwill.

Transaction and integration costs totalling £20m were incurred in the year to 31 August 2020 in respect of the acquisition. A further £2m integration costs have been incurred in the year ended 31 August 2021.

Notes to the Company financial statements

1. Accounting policies

a) Basis of preparation

The Company's financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, as detailed in the Directors' report on page 85

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 2006 as applicable to companies using FRS 101 The Company meets the definition of a qualifying entity under FRS 100 (Application of Financial Reporting Requirements issued by the Financial Reporting Council. Accordingly, the financial statements have been prepared in accordance with FRS 101 Reduced Disclosure Framework' as issued by the Financial Reporting Council.

As permitted by FRS 101, the Company has taken advantage of the disclosure exemption available under the standard in relation to share-based payments, financial instruments, capital management, presentation of comparative information in respect of certain assets, presentation of a cash flow statement, standards not yet effective, impairment of assets and related party transactions. Where required, equivalent disclosures are given in the consolidated financial statements of the Group.

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention.

The principal accounting policies adopted are the same as those set out in Note 1 to the consolidated financial statements except as noted below No new accounting standards, or amendments to accounting standards, or IFRIC interpretations that are effective for the year ended 31 August 2021. have had a material impact on the Company.

On initial recognition of the convertible bond, judgement is required in respect of the accounting treatment of embedded derivatives. The fixed principal amount of each bond is convertible into a fixed number of shares and as a result management has determined that the conversion feature meets the fixed-for-fixed criterion for equity classification. The bonds include anti-dilution provisions to ensure that the holder's potential interest in the equity of the fixed-for-fixed criterion for equity classification. The bonds include anti-dilution provisions to ensure that the holder's potential interest in the equity of the Company is not diluted in specified circumstances. If these provisions are triggered, the number of shares that will be delivered to the holder is adjusted. Management considers that the provisions are anti-dilutive in order to ensure that the holder's potential interest in the equity of the Company is not diluted under each of these circumstances. These provisions are not deemed to breach the fixed-for-fixed criterion, therefore the conversion feature is accounted for as equity.

In the application of the Company's accounting policies, the Directors do not consider that there are any further critical accounting judgements or sources of estimation uncertainty that could lead to a material change in the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities

b) Investments in subsidiary undertakings

Investments in subsidiaries are valued at historical cost less provision for impairment in value. Investments in subsidiaries are tested annually for impairment. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the carrying value exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's net realisable value and value-in-use.

c) Taxation

Current tax, including UK corporation tax and foreign tax, is provided at amounts expected to be paid (or recovered) using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date.

d) Receivables

Receivables represent amounts due from other Group companies. Receivables are initially measured at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method, less provision for impairment. A provision for the expected credit loss on receivables is established at inception. This is modified when there is a change in the credit risk and hence evidence that the Company will not be able to collect all amounts due according to the original terms of receivables.

2. (Loss)/profit for the year

The Company has not presented its own profit and loss account as permitted by Section 408 of the Companies Act 2006.

The loss for the year attributable to shareholders, which is stated on an historical cost basis, was £14m (2020: loss of £7m) comprising of finance costs of £14m (2020: £7m), non-underlying items of £6m (2020: £nil) offset by a tax credit of £6m. There were no other recognised gains or losses.

The Company did not have any employees during the year ended 31 August 2021 (2020 nil). All directors were remunerated by other Group companies.

3. Investments

A full list of the Company's subsidiary undertakings is included in Note 28 of the Notes to the consolidated financial statements. The registered office of WH Smith Retail Holdings Limited is Greenbridge Road, Swindon, Wiltshire SN3 3RX.

The investment in subsidiaries balance has been tested for impairment at the balance sheet date. The recoverable amount of the investment is assumed to approximate the Group's market capitalisation on the London Stock Exchange, adjusted for any assets or liabilities on the Company's balance sheet. There was substantial headroom between the recoverable amount of the investment and its carrying value. Consequently, no impairment has been recognised in respect of the investment.

On 28 April the Group announced new financing arrangements. These included the issuance of £327m of convertible bonds, the repayment of the existing £400m term loans and replacement with a new £133m term loan, and an increased revolving credit facility of £250m.

Term loans and revolving credit facilities

At 31 August 2021, alongside other Group companies, the Company is a guarantor on a five-year committed multi-currency revolving credit facility of £250m with Santander UK PLC, BNP Paribas, HSBC UK Bank PLC, JP Morgan Securities PLC and Barclays Bank PLC. The revolving credit facility is due to mature on 28 April 2025. The utilisation is interest bearing at a margin over SONIA.

At 31 August 2021, the Company has a four-year committed £133m term loan with Banco Santander S A, London Branch, Barclays Bank PLC, BNP Paribas and HSBC UK Bank PLC, that was drawn down at the time of the refinancing in April 2021. This loan is interest bearing at a margin over SONIA and is due to mature on 28 April 2025.

Transaction costs of £1m relating to the term loan are being amortised through the effective interest rate method. Convertible bonds

On 28 April 2021, the Company announced the launch of an offering of £327m of guaranteed senior unsecured convertible bonds due in 2026. Settlement and delivery of convertible bonds took place on 7 May 2021. The total bond offering of £327m covers a five-year term beginning on 7 May 2021 with a 1.625 per cent per annum coupon payable semi-annually in arrears in equal instalments. The bonds are convertible into new and/or existing ordinary shares of WH Smith PLC. The initial conversion price was set at £24.99 representing a premium of 40 percent above the reference share price on 28 April 2021 (£17.85). If not previously converted, redeemed or purchased and cancelled, the Bonds will be redeemed at par on 7 May 2026.

The convertible bond is a compound financial instrument, consisting of a financial liability component and an equity component, representing the value of the conversion rights. The initial fair value of the liability portion of the convertible bond is determined using a market interest rate for an equivalent non-convertible bond at the issue date. The liability is subsequently recognised on an amortised cost basis using the effective interest rate method until extinguished on conversion or maturity of the bonds. The remainder of the proceeds is allocated to the conversion option and recognised in equity (Other reserves), and not subsequently remeasured. As a result, £286m was initially recognised as a liability in the balance sheet on issue and the remainder of the proceeds of £41m, which represents the option component, was recognised in equity.

Transaction costs of £6m were allocated between the two components and the element relating to the debt component of £5m is being amortised through the effective interest rate method. The issue costs apportioned to the equity component of £1m have been deducted from equity.

Alternative performance measures

In reporting financial information, the Group presents alternative performance measures, APMs', which are not defined or specified under the requirements of IFRS.

The Group believes that these APMs, which are not considered to be a substitute for or superior to IFRS measures, provide stakeholders with additional useful information on the underlying trends, performance and position of the Group and are consistent with how business performance is measured internally. The alternative performance measures are not defined by IFRS and therefore may not be directly comparable with other companies' alternative performance measures.

Non-underlying items

The Group has chosen to present a measure of profit and earnings per share which excludes certain items that are considered non-underlying and exceptional due to their size, nature or incidence, and are not considered to be part of the normal operations of the Group. These measures may exclude the financial effect of non-underlying items which are considered exceptional and occur infrequently such as, inter alia, restructuring costs linked to a Board agreed programme, amortisation of acquired intangibles assets, costs relating to business combinations, impairment charges and other property costs, significant items relating to pension schemes, and impairment charges and items meeting the definition of non-underlying specifically related to the Covid-19 pandemic, and the related tax effect of these items. The Group believes that they provide additional useful information to users of the financial statements to enable a better understanding of the Group's underlying financial performance.

The Group adopted IFRS 16 in the prior year. IFRS 16 superseded the lease guidance under IAS 17 and the related interpretations. IFRS 16 sets out the principles for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of leases and requires lessees to account for all leases under a single on-balance sheet model as the distinction between operating and finance leases is removed. The only exceptions are short-term and low-value leases. At the commencement date of a lease, a lessee will recognise a lease liability for the future lease payments and an asset (right-of-use asset) representing the right to use the underlying asset during the lease term. Lessees are required to separately recognise the interest expense on the lease liability and the depreciation expense on the right-of-use asset.

For the purposes of narrative commentary on the Group's performance and financial position in the Strategic report, the effects of IFRS 16 have been excluded, in order to provide meaningful year on year comparisons.

The impact of the implementation of IFRS 16 on the Income statement and Segmental information is provided in Notes A1 and A2 below. There is no impact on cash flows, although the classification of cash flows has changed, with an increase in net cash inflows from operating activities being offset by a decrease in net cash inflows from financing activities, as set out in Note A9 below. The balance sheet as at 31 August 2021, both including and excluding the impact of IFRS 16 is shown in Note A10 below.

financing activities, as set out in Note A9 below. The balance sheet as at 31 August 2021 both including and excluding the impact of IFRS 16 is shown in Note A10 below.

Leases policies applicable prior to 1 September 2019

Leases are classified as finance leases whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

Assets held under finance leases are recognised as assets of the Group at their fair value determined at the inception of the lease or, if lower, at the present value of the minimum lease payments. The corresponding liability to the lessor is included in the balance sheet as a finance lease obligation. These assets are depreciated over their expected useful lives on the same basis as owned assets or, where shorter, over the term of the relevant lease. Lease payments are apportioned between finance charges and a reduction of the lease obligations so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Finance charges are recognised directly in the income statement.

Rentals payable and receivable under operating leases are charged to the income statement on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease. Benefits received and receivable as an incentive to enter into an operating lease are also spread on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The Group has a number of lease arrangements in which the rent payable is contingent on revenue. Contingent rentals payable, based on store revenues, are accrued in line with revenues generated.

Non-underlying items on a pre-IFRS 16 basis are calculated on a consistent basis with IFRS 16, with the exception of the below items. A tax credit of £12m has been recognised in relation to the above items (£9m pre-IFRS 16). Impairment of property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets

The impairment charge recognised on a pre-IFRS 16 basis differs from that recognised under IFRS 16. This is mainly due to a lower asset base pre-IFRS 16, coupled with lower expected store cash flows, with rental expenses being included in the forecast cash flows (treated as financing costs under IFRS 16), and a higher discount rate. The calculation of the Group's weighted average cost of capital differs under IFRS 16 versus pre-IFRS 16. The pre-tax discount rate used in the IFRS 16 calculation was 10.4 percent and the pre-tax discount rate used in the pre-IFRS 16 calculation was 13.9 percent.

Right-of-use assets are not recognised on a pre-IFRS 16 basis. Other property

Other property costs on a pre-IFRS 16 basis include provisions for onerous lease contracts, on an IFRS 16 basis, onerous lease contracts are recognised as an impairment of the right-of-use asset. As a result of the impact of Covid-19, the Group has carried out a review of leases where the obligations of those leases exceed the potential economic benefits expected to be received under them. We anticipate that a number of stores will not fully recover to pre-Covid-19 sales levels and have accelerated our internal forecasts for the rate of sales decline in those locations. As a result, we have recognised onerous provisions of £5m for stores where we now anticipate we will make a cash loss over the remaining term of their leases.

The Group's pre-IFRS 16 property provisions represent the present value of unavoidable future net lease obligations and related costs of leasehold property (net of estimated sublease income and adjusted for certain risk factors) where the space is vacant, loss-making or currently not planned to be used for ongoing operations. The unwinding of the discount is treated as an imputed interest charge. These provisions represent the best estimate of the liability at the time of the balance sheet date, the actual liability being dependent on future events such as economic environment and marketplace demand. Expectations will be revised each period until the actual liability arises, with any difference accounted for in the period in and marketplace demand. Expectations will be revised each period until the actual liability arises, with any difference accounted for in the period in which the revision is made

In the prior year, the Group adopted IFRS 16. IFRS 16 requires lessees to account for all leases under a single on-balance sheet model as the distinction between operating and finance leases is removed. In order to provide comparable information the Group has chosen to present Headline measures of operating profit/(loss) and profit/(loss) before tax, as explained in Note 2 segmental analysis.

The table above presents the pre-IFRS 16 net operating lease charges, applying the principles of IAS 17, and Group accounting policies as applicable prior to 1 September 2019, as described in the Glossary on page 154.

The Group leases various properties under non-cancellable operating lease agreements. The leases have varying terms, escalation clauses and renewal rights. The Group has a number of lease arrangements in which the rent payable is contingent on revenue. Contingent rentals payable, based on store revenues, are accrued in line with revenues generated.

The average remaining lease length across the Group is four years.

Rentals payable and receivable under operating leases are charged to the income statement on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease. Benefits received and receivable as an incentive to enter into an operating lease are also spread on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Temporary rent reductions due to Covid-19, affecting rent payments due on or before June 2022, have been recognised in the Income statement in the period they are received.

Following the demerger of the Company on 31 August 2006, in order to calculate any chargeable gains or losses arising on the disposal of shares after 31 August 2006, the original tax base cost of your ordinary shares of 2¹/₂p (adjusted if you held your shares on 26 September 2004 and 22 May 1998 to take into account the capital reorganisations of 27 September 2004 and 26 May 1998 respectively (see below)) will have to be apportioned between the shareholdings of ordinary shares of 20p in the Company and ordinary shares of 5p in Smiths News PLC.

2021 Concessions Program Handbook

INTRODUCTION:

The City of Chicago ("City") and the Chicago Department of Aviation ("CDA") welcome you to the family of concessionaires operating at the City's airports. Your concession represents an excellent business and professional opportunity to serve the traveling public as well as operate a profitable enterprise. In order to ensure quality and uniformity among all concessions, we have designed a Concessions Program that is outlined in this handbook. It is important that you review and adhere to these standards as they will serve as tools for the successful operation of your concession.

THE CONCESSIONS PROGRAM:

The CDA's Airport Concessions Program serves as the primary resource to meet the needs of the traveling public with regard to the provision of quality, reasonably-priced goods and services at Chicago's airports. To this end, CDA is further responsible for the outreach, selection, coordination and monitoring of concessionaires. In order to fulfill these responsibilities, CDA has several functional units that as part of concessionaires. In order to fulfill these responsibilities, CDA has several functional units that, as part of their overall duties, operate as liaisons to prospective and existing concessionaires. The primary units and their concession-related functions are as follows:

CDA UNIT

Commissioner's Office

FUNCTIONS Policy generation and resolution.

Managing Deputy Commissioner

Overall coordination of revenue, finance, bonding, insurance, property management and concessions functions/issues including merchandising plans, outreach, proposal generation and evaluation, contract negotiation, and overall coordination and processing.

2021 Concessions Program Handbook

THE MONITORING PROGRAM:

The Monitoring Program is designed to provide a process to ensure that concessions operating in the Airports comply with the ordinances and policies of the City, provisions of their respective Lease Agreements and specific airport guidelines as established by the CDA. The primary areas that will be reviewed include financial commitments, maintenance of concession space(s), licensing (where required), and overall adherence to the provisions of the Lease Agreement.

The intent of the Monitoring Program is to benefit the traveling public and other airport visitors, concessionaires and the City.

THE PRE-MONITORING PROCESS:

After a prospective concession is selected by CDA there are five stages that precede the commencement of the Monitoring Program.

STAGE 1 - CITY COUNCIL APPROVAL

Upon completing lease negotiations with the concessionaire, CDA forwards the lease agreement ("Agreement"), signed by the Tenant, to the City's Law Department. After the Law Department's review of the form and legality of the proposed concession agreement, the proposed tenant is introduced to the full City Council. City Council sends the Agreement to the Aviation Committee for review. The Aviation Committee approves, rejects or requests further information. Once approved by the Aviation Committee, the recommendation is forwarded to the full City Council for final approval. In most cases, recommendations submitted to the full Council by Committee are ratified, usually at the next meeting. This approval is documented in the "Journal of Proceedings." The documented approval and contract are then forwarded to the Mayor and other pertinent City departments for execution.

STAGE 2 - LEASE AGREEMENT

The Lease Agreement outlines a concessionaire's contractual relationship with the City. It delineates the responsibilities, expectations and the requirements of both parties, financial and non-financial. During negotiation of the terms of the agreement, you will have cause to interact with individuals from the CDA and the CMR Office. The Managing Deputy Commissioner of Concessions will oversee the processing of the Lease Agreement as well as the Monitoring Program.

STAGE 3 - DESIGN APPROVAL

All concessionaires must submit a conceptual, schematic drawing which shows the general design of the unit. The Planning and Architecture departments will review the concept, and if the approval is given, a letter will be sent giving conceptual approval and requesting 100% architectural drawings including a complete materials board, plans and specifications so the plans meet the CDA requirements and aesthetic appeal. Upon providing approval of the 100% plans, Architecture will send a letter to the concessionaire giving authority to apply to the City Buildings Department for building permits. In no case may construction begin prior to the receipt of this approval. The Planning Unit will also monitor construction in progress.

STAGE 4 - PRE-CONSTRUCTION APPROVAL

Prior to construction, each concession will meet with the CMR for the purpose of providing the concessionaire with general airport construction guidelines. Examples of these guidelines are locations and times for pick-ups, deliveries, refuse disposal, elevator usage, and badging.

Following the operations meeting, the CMR will schedule a pre-construction meeting with CDA. Prior to the meeting, the General Contractor for the project will submit all documents, permits and approvals to CDA for review. Construction may begin following approval at the pre-construction meeting.

STAGE 5 - CONSTRUCTION

After the contract is finalized, each concessionaire has a specified period to commence and complete construction based on approved design and construction specifications. During this period each concessionaire has the responsibility to expeditiously begin and obtain all necessary approvals, licenses, insurances, etc. Each concessionaire should maintain communication with the CMR during the process to ensure that all construction and licensing requirements are addressed in a timely fashion. It is important that the concession be open to the public within the time parameters specified in the Agreement.

KEY ELEMENTS OF THE MONITORING PROGRAM:

The Concessions Monitoring Program consists of three primary elements: operations reviews, audits and pricing reports. Operations reviews will be conducted on an ongoing basis by the CMR. The operations review form in Appendix 2 will provide a frame work for this component of the Monitoring Program.

Financial and compliance audits will be conducted on an annual and periodic basis, respectively. Financial audits will review all financial, bonding and insurance related requirements.

As specified in the Agreement, each concession shall submit an annual pricing report.

The Monitoring Process will include ongoing site inspection of each concession site by the CMR. Typical inspections will consist of reviews of facilities, general maintenance, employee practices, product/price conformity and space utilization. Inspection staff will use the CMR Operation Review Form (Appendix 2) to record their findings and observations. Reviews will be sent to the concession manager for review and follow-up on all review items. Non-compliance could result in liquidated damages being levied and/or commencement of default proceedings, dependent upon the nature of the violation.

FINANCIAL AUDITS

In accordance with the provisions of the standard Concession Lease Agreement, CDA reserves the right to require a certified public and/or City audit of all books, ledgers, journals, accounts and records of its concessions.

COMPLIANCE AUDITS

On a regular basis, the CDA will review compliance with insurance coverage, financial commitments and financial reporting requirements. Non-compliance could result in liquidated damages being levied and/or commencement of default proceedings, dependent upon the nature of the violation. Additionally, compliance with ACDBE Special Conditions will be audited.

SECRET SHOPPING

The CDA, from time to time, may hire an outside contractor to perform "secret shopping" and evaluate employee performance of each concession location. Such reviews shall be used to monitor customer service and cash handling procedures among other things.

SUMMARY:

The Monitoring Program will provide a basis of uniformity to all concessions. Adherence to the Concession Lease Agreement as well as the elements of this Handbook will contribute to the successful operation of your business.

The following Appendices will further delineate additional information/requirements stated above.

"Marketing Fee" means the Tenant's contribution for promotions at the Airport, as set forth in Section 4.10.B.

"Percentage Fee" means the product of the Percentage Fee Rate and Gross Revenues.

"Percentage Fee Rate(s)" has the meaning set forth in Exhibit 2.

As set forth in Article 4, Tenant was selected by the City specifically to sell the Products identified in Exhibit 5 and is not permitted to sell any items or types of items not identified in Exhibit 5 or conduct any other business from the Leased Space unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Commissioner.

"Relocation Space" means space to which Tenant must relocate a Retail Space or Storage Space at the request of the Commissioner pursuant to Section 5.1.

"Subcontracts" means all oral or written agreements with Subcontractors.

"Sustainable Airport Manual" or "SAM" means the manual developed by the CDA regarding environmentally sustainable practices in the construction and operation of the Airports. The manual is available on the CDA website and may be updated from time to time by the CDA. ARTICLE 4 LICENSE, LEASE AND TENANT'S OPERATIONS

4.1 Concession License and Lease. As of the Effective Date, the City grants Tenant a License to operate a Concession at the Airport and, upon delivery of the Leased Space or portion thereof, a Lease to operate the Concession from the Leased Space so delivered. Tenant accepts the License and Lease from the City and assumes the duties of Tenant provided in this Agreement and in the Airport Concession Program Handbook. TENANT ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ALL AMOUNTS PAYABLE TO THE CITY UNDER THIS AGREEMENT CONSTITUTE RENT AND THAT THIS AGREEMENT CREATES A TAXABLE LEASEHOLD UNDER THE ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX CODE, 35 ILCS 200/1 et seq. Tenant understands and agrees that both its License to operate a Concession and its right to occupy the Leased Space will terminate upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement. If Tenant complies with the terms of this Agreement, Tenant will have the right of ingress to and egress from the Leased Space, for Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, Subcontractors, vendors, suppliers, and invitees, subject, however, to all statutes, ordinances, rules and regulations from time to time enacted or established by the City, the FAA, the TSA or any other governmental agency or authority having jurisdiction. Tenant must not conduct its Concession operations in a manner that, in the judgment of the

Commissioner:

- A. interferes or might interfere with the reasonable use by others of Common Areas or the leased or licensed space of other tenants or licensees at the Airport;
- B. hinders or might hinder TSA, Airport security, police, fire-fighting or other emergency personnel in the discharge of their duties;
- C. would, or would be likely to, constitute a hazardous condition at the Airport;
- D. would, or would be likely to, increase the premiums for insurance policies maintained by the City, unless the operations are not otherwise prohibited under this Agreement and Tenant pays the increase in insurance premiums occasioned by the operations; or
- E. would involve any illegal purposes.

2 No Subleases. Assignments or Other Uses. Tenant understands and agrees that the Lease and the License granted under this Agreement are interdependent and that the locations of the Retail Spaces were determined by the City so that the Concession operated by Tenant is an element of an overall concession program and, as such, complements and does not conflict with other concessions in the vicinity of the Retail Space(s). Accordingly, Tenant acknowledges that the principal purpose of this Agreement is to provide Tenant a License to operate its Concession, without right of sublease or assignment, from the Leased Space and that any attempted sublease, assignment or other use of the Leased Space without the written consent of the City in accordance with the terms of this Agreement is absolutely prohibited and is an Event of Default.

3 Products and Value Pricing.

A. Exhibit 5 to this Agreement constitutes the listing, by general category or specific item, of all Products that Tenant is allowed to sell from each Retail Space and the prices to be charged to the public. Those items of Products that Exhibit 5 indicates are mandatory, if any, must be offered for sale to the public by the Tenant as a part of the Airport's overall concession program. If Exhibit 5 is stated in general terms, upon request, Tenant must within 5 days provide the Commissioner with a complete list of all Products and prices. The City's execution of this Agreement constitutes its approval of the sale of the products, services, and pricing as reflected on Exhibit 5 on the Effective Date. Any changes to Exhibit 5 are subject to the Commissioner's prior written approval. Upon such approval, Exhibit 5 may be amended without need for formal amendment of this Agreement pursuant to Section 11.3.

B. Tenant must stock a sufficient amount of each item comprising its Products within the Retail Space so as to maximize Gross Revenues, subject to and consistent with Tenant's and the City's desire to accommodate the convenience and needs of the Airport's patrons. The Products must be new, fresh and of top quality. Tenant must store Products inventory in excess of the amount needed to stock displays out of sight of customers before restocking a display.

C. Value Pricing. The City has established a Value Pricing policy for all Tenants at the Airport. The policy generally requires Tenants to charge a price for a product or service at the Airport as the same price charged for the same product or service at similar stores in the City (each hereinafter referred to as a "Benchmark Store"). Benchmark Stores will be proposed by the Tenant subject to approval by the City. The following locations and areas shall be excluded when establishing Benchmark Stores: hotel restaurants or kiosks, bus and train transportation centers, entertainment centers, arenas, theaters, convention centers or similar venues. Benchmark Store exclusions may change throughout the Term as determined necessary by the City. If the Tenant or its subtenants currently operate the exact other locations in the City of Chicago, then these locations may be designated Benchmark Stores. Otherwise, Benchmark Stores will be selected based on stores that are comparable to the proposed concept. Notwithstanding the aforementioned exclusions, in the case of a news and gift store where Tenant or its subtenant currently operate a same-brand location in the City of Chicago, in a transportation center, and that location has its own customer walk-up street access, the City may consider allowing Tenant to propose that location as a Benchmark Store. In such a case, the Value Pricing policy prohibits mark-up of pricing higher than that of the applicable Benchmark Store because that store already is in a transportation center.

Other Pricing Policy. The Commissioner may adopt other reasonable pricing policies, with which Tenant and subtenants shall comply, to restrict overcharging and price gouging by subtenants due to their dominant market position and any exclusive rights granted, but in no event shall the Commissioner require prices lower than the established Value Pricing.

Tenant must submit to the CMR, within 30 days after the end of each Lease Year, or as requested from time to time by the Commissioner or CMR, a pricing report demonstrating compliance by Tenant with the Value Pricing requirements. Any the Commissioner or CMR, a pricing report demonstrating compliance by Tenant with the Value Price requirements. Any prices that the Commissioner or CMR determines to be inconsistent with the Value Price requirements must be adjusted accordingly. At any time, and from time to time, the Commissioner or CMR may review the prices of the Products then being offered for sale by Tenant and require adjustments in prices of the Products or particular items in order to comply with the Value Price requirement. Following the CMR's written notice to Tenant, Tenant shall promptly adjust the price of the Products or particular items, as applicable. Failure to comply within five days will constitute an Event of Default.

Tenant's failure to comply would cause the City damages, including loss of goodwill, that are difficult or impossible to prove or quantify. Therefore, in addition to other remedies for an Event of Default, for as long as non-compliance continues after the five-day cure period, the Commissioner will assess Tenant, as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, in amounts as outlined in Exhibit 13.

D. At any time, the Commissioner or the CMR may review the quality of the Products then being offered for sale by Tenant and require reasonable improvements in quality of the Products or particular items or may require elimination of particular items that the Commissioner determines to raise safety or security issues. Following the Commissioner's written notice to Tenant, Tenant shall within 5 days rectify or modify the quality of the Products or particular items or eliminate the particular items, as applicable. Failure to comply within five days will constitute an Event of Default. Tenant's failure to comply would cause the City damages, including loss of goodwill, that are difficult or impossible to prove or quantify. Therefore, in addition to other remedies for an Event of Default, for as long as non-compliance continues after the five-day cure period, the Commissioner will assess Tenant, as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, an amount as outlined in Exhibit 13.

4.4 General Requirements for Operation of Concessions. Tenant has the authority to manage and administer the Concession in the Leased Space, subject to the rights of the City under the law, in equity, and under this Agreement to direct Tenant in order to ensure that the Airport operates in the most effective and efficient way possible and to supervise the Tenant's performance. Tenant covenants to take all commercially reasonable measures to maintain, develop, facilitate and increase the business of the Concession so as to maximize Gross Revenues. Failure to operate the concession as included in the Development Plan, attached as Exhibit 3, constitutes an Event of Default. Tenant further covenants that neither it nor any Affiliate of Tenant will divert or cause or allow to be diverted any business from the Leased Space to other locations not at the Airport that are operated by Tenant or any Affiliate of Tenant. A material condition of this Agreement is that Tenant must operate the Concession operations in accordance with the Airport Concession Program Handbook, the Sustainable Airport Manual, and the following general requirements:

A. Unless otherwise approved by the Commissioner in writing, Tenant must conduct business in its Retail Space only in the Tenant's trade names The Hampton Social, Bar Siena and FarmAir Market, that which is identified in its response to the RFP or other trade name approved by the Commissioner.

B. Due to the nature of the concession, Tenant is not authorized to install and operate any coin, card, token or otherwise activated vending machines as part of the Tenant's Development Plan unless otherwise approved by the Commissioner.

C. Tenant must conduct its Concession operations in a first-class, businesslike, efficient, courteous, and accommodating manner consistent with the "Physical Inspection Standards" that appear in Appendix I of the Airport Concession Program Handbook. The Commissioner or the CMR has the right to make reasonable objections to the appearance and condition of the Leased Space if they do not comply with the Physical Inspection Standards. Tenant must discontinue or remedy any non-compliant practice, appearance or condition within five days following receipt of a written notice by the Commissioner or CMR (or immediately upon receipt of such a notice if the Commissioner or CMR deems non-compliance hazardous or illegal). Tenant's failure to timely cure the non-compliance as required by the Commissioner or CMR would cause the City damages including, among other things, loss of goodwill, which would be difficult or impossible to prove or quantify. Accordingly, if Tenant fails to timely cure non-compliance, then, in addition to all other remedies the City may have at law, in equity or under this Agreement, and beginning on the first day after expiry of the five-day cure period, Tenant must pay the City, as liquidated damages in connection with the loss of good will among visitors to the Terminals, and not as a penalty, as outlined in Exhibit 13 per Retail Space for each non-compliant practice, appearance or condition specified in the notice that remains uncured after the cure period.

D. Tenant must neither commit nor allow any nuisance, noise or waste in the Leased Space or annoy, disturb or be offensive to others in the Terminals. Tenant must employ all reasonable means to prevent or eliminate unusual, nauseating or objectionable smoke, gases, vapors or odors from emanating from the Leased Space. Tenant must employ all reasonable means to eliminate vibrations and to maintain the lowest possible sound level in the operation of the Concession.

E. Tenant must offer payment systems that are widely accepted in the industry for the sale of all Products. Tenant must offer a receipt, which may be virtual, with each purchase. Failure to comply with this Section will constitute an Event of Default. Tenant's failure to comply would cause the City damages, including loss of goodwill, that are difficult or impossible to prove or quantify. Therefore, in addition to other remedies for an Event of Default, if Tenant is found to prohibit the acceptance of the above payment option, the City may assess, as liquidated damages and not as a penalty for non-compliance as further defined in Exhibit 13.

F. Tenant's Concession must be and remain compliant with Payment Card Industry Security Standards ("PCI Standards") at all times as the PCI Standards are in effect at such time. Any breach of compliance with PCI Standards in effect and related to the Concession, at such time, must be reported to the City within 24 hours of the Tenant's knowledge of such event.

Tenant's failure to be in compliance with the PCI Standards with respect to its Concession on numerous occurrences (more than one) shall be an Event of Default under this Agreement.

G. Tenant must not place or install any racks, stands, or trade fixtures directly on or over the boundaries of its Leased Space. Tenant must not use any space outside the Leased Space for sale, storage or any other undertaking, other than in connection with deliveries made in a prompt, timely and efficient manner.

H. In its capacity as Tenant under this Agreement, and not as an agent of the City, Tenant must manage the Concession operations and the Leased Space in accordance with this Agreement, in furtherance of which Tenant must, among other things:

- (i) use reasonable efforts to remedy problems and issues raised by Airport patrons with respect to the operation of the Leased Space;

ii) answer in writing all written customer complaints within 72 hours after receipt, furnishing a copy of the complaint and the answer to the Commissioner within that period; and,

iii) furnish the Commissioner within 72 hours after their receipt copies of all written notices received by Tenant from any governmental authority or any Subcontractor with respect to any part of the Leased Space or any Subcontract.

If Tenant fails to timely respond to customer correspondence or governmental notices and furnish the requisite copies to the Commissioner, Tenant acknowledges that the City may suffer loss of goodwill and other harm the value of which is difficult to determine, and thus, in addition to any remedies for the Event of Default, the Commissioner will assess liquidated damages against Tenant, and not as a penalty: as outlined in Exhibit 13. Tenant's failure to perform either (A) or (B) for a period of 30 days or more will be grounds for the City declaring an Event of Default pursuant to Article IX, in which event Tenant will have no longer than 10 days to cure the Event of Default.

I. Tenant, or Tenant's subtenant approved pursuant to Section 4.2, shall at all times operate the Concession. To the extent Tenant utilizes a third party to operate the Concession, Tenant shall, at all times during the Term: (i) be licensed or permitted by such third party to operate the concession, (ii) provide the City with copies of any agreements or other evidence the City may reasonably request demonstrating such arrangement ("Third Party Use Agreements"), (iii) comply in all material respects with the terms and conditions of Third Party Use Agreements, unless Tenant's compliance with such terms and conditions would cause Tenant to breach its obligations hereunder, (iv) not be in default under any Third Party Use Agreement, (v) notify the City in writing immediately upon notification by any party to a Third Party Use Agreement of Tenant's breach under such or termination of any Third Party Use Agreements. Failure to comply with this Section 4.4(1) shall be an Event of Default under this Agreement.

4.5 Hours of Operation.

A. Tenant must begin conducting its Concession operations in each Retail Space on the Date of Beneficial Occupancy applicable to that Retail Space and continue them uninterrupted after that date during all required hours of operation. The Retail Space shall be open, at a minimum, from 5:30 a.m. until 10:30 p.m. daily, to serve the public seven (7) days per week and three hundred sixty-five (365) days per year. Concession may close periodically for restocking, cleaning and routine maintenance. Closure times must be during daily periods of lowest passenger traffic volumes at the Airport. In no event shall the hours of operation be curtailed to an extent that the service contemplated under this Lease shall be diminished. Except as otherwise stated herein, the hours of service shall be determined in light of changing public demands and Airport's flight schedules. The Retail Space must be open, as stated above, unless otherwise approved by the Commissioner or CMR in writing. The Tenant is required to allow access to the Retail Space, 24 hours per day, 365 days per year.

B. Except as otherwise permitted under this Agreement, if Tenant fails to operate its Concession from any portion of the Retail Space during all times that Tenant is required to do so under this Agreement and the failure continues for more than three days after the City gives Tenant notice, it is an Event of Default. In addition, Tenant acknowledges that failure to provide Concession services to the public would cause the City substantial damages, a portion of which may be ascertainable but another portion of which, related to loss of goodwill due to the public's inability to obtain the Products, the provision of which is one of the key purposes of this Agreement, might be difficult or impossible to prove or quantify. Accordingly, in addition to other remedies available to the City for an Event of Default, Tenant must pay the City as liquidated damages (and not as a penalty) in connection with such loss of goodwill the amounts as outlined in Exhibit 13 per Retail Space, beginning as of the time that the City first notifies Tenant that it is not operating the Concession in accordance with the time requirements of this Agreement. The obligation to make payments of liquidated damages will continue until the earliest of: (i) the time that the affected portion of the Retail Space re-opens for business; (ii) the date that this Agreement expires or is terminated with respect to the affected portion of the Retail Space; and (iii) the date that the Commissioner receives possession of the affected portion of the Retail Space.

4.6 Personnel.

i) Tenant must maintain a full time, fully trained staff during the Term of this Agreement having sufficient size, expertise and experience to operate the Concession. Tenant must maintain an adequate sales force so as to maximize Gross Revenues and use the utmost skill and diligence in the conduct of its Concession operations. A staff member for each concession location must be physically available during all hours of operation.

ii) All employees of Tenant must at all times be clean, courteous, neat in appearance and helpful to the public, whether or not on duty. While on duty, Tenant's employees must wear Airport identification badges (and any other form (s) of identification that may be required by the Commissioner or CMR from time to time) and are required to wear uniforms in good taste, the color and style of which Tenant selects. Tenant may make the arrangements with its own employees as it considers appropriate regarding the purchase and maintenance of standard uniforms. The City is entitled at any time to direct Tenant to require any of its employees not properly attired to immediately conform to the requirements of this Section or leave the Leased Space. Tenant must not permit its employees to use any portion of the Terminal Common Spaces, including the public washrooms located there, for the changing of clothes or the storage of their personal effects, nor may Tenant permit its employees to loiter in the Common Areas of the Terminals, including but not limited to the Food Court Common Area.

iii) Tenant and its personnel must at all times participate and cooperate fully in all quality assurance programs that may be instituted by the Commissioner or CMR from time to time. Tenant must cause its personnel to attend all customer service training meetings and participate in such other programs as may be required by the Commissioner or CMR. An appropriate officer or management representative of Tenant must meet with the Commissioner or CMR as requested by the Commissioner or CMR to discuss matters relating to this Agreement, including merchandising and marketing plans. In addition, at the request of the Commissioner or CMR, an appropriate officer or management representative of Tenant must attend other meetings with the City, airlines, other users of the Terminals or any other parties designated by the Commissioner or CMR.

iv) The Commissioner reserves the right to object to any of the personnel responsible for the day-to-day operation of the Concession. Upon receipt of such objection, Tenant must use its best efforts to resolve the cause for Commissioner's objection or replace the objectionable personnel with personnel satisfactory to the Commissioner.

v) In the event that Tenant was not the existing tenant in the Leased Space prior to the Effective Date, Tenant and its subtenants, if any, will work cooperatively in attempting to retain existing concession employees working in the Leased Space. This will be accomplished by giving the existing concession employees working in the Lease Space prior to the Effective Date preferential interviews for jobs in the Leased Space during the term of this Agreement.

vi) Tenant acknowledges that failure to comply with the provisions of this Section 4.6(A) may cause the City to suffer loss of goodwill and other harm the value of which is difficult to determine, and thus, in addition to any remedies for the Event of Default, the Commissioner will assess, as liquidated damages against Tenant, and not as a penalty, the amounts outlined in Exhibit 13.

B. General Manager. Tenant must designate a General Manager experienced in management and supervision who has sufficient authority and responsibility to administer and manage the Concession. The General Manager (or authorized representative) must be immediately available to the Department whenever any of the Retail Spaces are open. The base of operations of the General Manager must be at the Airport, and the General Manager must spend substantially all of his or her working hours at the Airport, unless the Commissioner approves in writing another arrangement. The General Manager is subject to removal at the direction of the Commissioner if the Commissioner reasonably determines, in the Commissioner's sole discretion that the General Manager is not performing up to standards consistent with the fulfillment of Tenant's obligations after providing Tenant notice.

C. Salaries. Salaries of all employees of Tenant and its Subcontractors performing services or Work under this Agreement must be paid unconditionally and not less often than once a month without deduction or rebate on any account, except only for those payroll deductions that are mandated by law or permitted by the applicable regulations issued by the United States Secretary of Labor under the "Anti-Kickback Act" of June 13, 1934 (48 Stat. 948; 62 Stat. 740; 63 Stat. 108; 18 U.S.C. § 874, and 40 U.S.C. § 276c). Tenant must comply with all applicable "Anti-Kickback" regulations and must insert appropriate provisions in all Subcontracts covering Work under this Agreement to ensure compliance of all Subcontractors with those regulations and with the other requirements of this subsection and is responsible for the submission of affidavits required under them, except as the United States Secretary of Labor may specifically provide for variations of, or exemptions from, the requirements of them.

4.7 Operation and Maintenance.

A. The City, at its sole cost and expense, will keep in good repair the Common Areas, including the roof structures, foundations and central mechanical, plumbing and electrical systems in the Airport providing heating, ventilation, cooling, water, sewage and electrical service to the terminals, concourses, and other structures at the Airport related to the Concession. The City will provide, without separate charge to Tenant, heating, ventilating and cooling of the Common Areas. The Commissioner reserves the right to interrupt temporarily the heating, air cooling, ventilation, plumbing or electrical services furnished to the Common Areas, the Terminals or the Airport as a whole to make emergency repairs or for other reasonable purposes, and the Commissioner will restore the services as soon as reasonably possible. The City has no responsibility or liability for failure to supply heat, air cooling, ventilation, plumbing, electrical or any other service to the Leased Space, the Common Areas, the Terminal or the Airport, when prevented from doing so by laws, orders or regulations of any federal, state or local governmental requirement (including any requirement of any agency or department of the City) or as a result of the making of repairs or replacements, fire or other casualty, strikes, failure of the utility provider to provide service or due to any other matter not within the City's reasonable control. Tenant must provide all cleaning and janitorial services to the Leased Space. Tenant must clean, maintain and repair (including replacements, where necessary) the Leased Space and Improvements in first-class condition and repair during the entire Term.

i) Tenant is responsible for pest control within the Leased Space by contracting with a professional pest control service to provide service on a regular basis or as needed, or at the Commissioner's election, the City or CMR may provide or contract for the pest control and charge Tenant a reasonable charge for the service. If the Commissioner so requires, Tenant must coordinate all pest control service with the City's or CMR's pest control contractor. Tenant must furnish the Commissioner and CMR a copy of its pest control contract and service records upon request.

ii) Tenant must, at its own expense, keep the exhaust system, including all risers, piping and fans used in connection with the exhaust systems, whether located in or outside of the Leased Space, and all other pipes or ducts used by Tenant, including black iron duct, in good repair and so as to meet the highest standards of cleanliness, health, and safety, in a manner consistent with the operation of a first-class Concession and in accordance with all applicable laws, codes and regulations of any governmental authority having jurisdiction. Tenant must not permit any grease to be discharged into the City's plumbing lines. If fixtures or equipment are installed in or attached to roof vents or other openings in the structure or to ducts that connect with the openings, Tenant must keep the ducts, vents and openings free from the accumulation of grease, dirt and other exhaust matter and must furnish and service any filters or other equipment necessary to prevent such accumulation. Tenant must keep the exhaust fan in good condition and repair so as to provide at least the air flow velocities required by applicable codes and regulations. Without limiting the foregoing, Tenant must clean black iron duct twice yearly, or more often as may be required by any local governmental codes, regulations or officials, insurance requirements or applicable industry standards, whichever is more restrictive.

Tenant must maintain all fire detection and fire suppression systems and mechanisms in accordance with all applicable laws, codes and the requirements of all applicable policies of insurance and insurance inspectors and of the City. Tenant must not cause or permit any damage to insulation and fire protection materials surrounding the black iron duct. In addition to Tenant's obligation to maintain utility lines in the Leased Space as set forth in Section 4.8 below, Tenant must install and maintain in good working order and in accordance with the rules and regulations of all insurers and applicable laws, codes, and regulations of any governmental authority, all fire extinguishing systems in the Leased Space.

Upon request, Tenant must provide CMR with monthly repair and maintenance reports detailing all repair and maintenance undertaken with respect to its Leased Space. In the event that such repair and maintenance reports indicate that Tenant is not complying with its repair and maintenance obligations, it shall be an Event of Default. In addition to any other remedies available to the City, if Tenant fails to undertake required repair or maintenance within 5 days after receiving notice from the Commissioner (or such shorter time as may be required due to health or safety reasons) the City may undertake the required repair or maintenance through a City contractor or its own forces and charge Tenant the reasonable cost thereof as Additional Rent.

(iii) To the extent any City ordinance imposes a stricter standard than the requirements of this section, the stricter standard must govern. With respect to a Leased Space that has been designated to be relocated, if any, Tenant's obligations with respect to repair and maintenance will continue until such time as Tenant has completed the Improvements in the Relocation Space to which the affected Leased Space is being relocated.

iv) Any damage to property of the Airport or property of other tenants arising out of Tenant's failure to perform its maintenance obligations is expressly deemed a "Loss" subject to Tenant's indemnification obligations under Section 8.2.

v) Tenant acknowledges that failure to comply with the provisions of this Section 4.7(A) may cause the City to suffer loss of goodwill and other harm the value of which is difficult to determine, and thus, in addition to any remedies for the Event of Default, the Commissioner will assess, as liquidated damages against Tenant, and not as a penalty, the amounts outlined in Exhibit 13. '

B. Food Court Common Areas.

To the extent that any of Tenant's Retail Space is located adjacent to a Food Court Common Area, the following provisions apply to such Retail Space:

i) Tenant has the non-exclusive right to use the Food Court Common Area, in common with other tenants and their customers, on the terms and conditions established by the City and as may be revised during the Term at the City's sole discretion. That use does not include the right to wait on customers in the Food Court Common Area. The City reserves the right to establish and enforce the policies for the Food Court Common Area and tenants whose customers use the Food Court Common Area that the City determines are in the best interest of the overall operation of the Food Court Common Area, so that the City may properly and efficiently operate and manage it as a whole. Tenant must comply with these policies.

ii) Tenant must at all times in operating its business in the Retail Space abide by all rules and regulations applicable to tenants whose customers use the Food Court Common Area including those relating to: (a) the health and sanitary conditions of the Retail Space, the Food Court Common Area and the employees of Tenant; (b) standards and quality of Products, services, and merchandising as determined by the City; (c) customer relations; and (d) other matters as the City determines applicable with respect to the operation of the Food Court Common Area and the business conducted by Tenant and all other tenants whose customers use the Food Court Common Area.

iii) The City will be responsible for the operation, repair and maintenance of the Food Court Common Area. Food Court CAM Costs include all costs incurred by the City in the repair and maintenance of the Food Court Common Area, including corridors and seating areas, and include, but are not limited to costs of: painting; cleaning; trash and grease removal; operation, maintenance and repair and replacement of all lighting, electrical, plumbing, HVAC and other mechanical and utility systems; cleaning and retrieval of trays; water, power, gas and sewerage charges; wages and salaries (including employee benefits, unemployment, Social Security and Medicare, and any other payroll taxes) for employees performing operation, maintenance and repair of the Food Court Common Area; materials, equipment, supplies and services purchased for operation, maintenance and repair of Food Court Common Area; required permits and licenses; reasonable straight-line depreciation of movable equipment (including tables and chairs) used in the operation, maintenance or repair of the Food Court Common Area; rental of any equipment used in the operation, maintenance or repair of the Food Court Common Area; and all other direct costs and expenses properly chargeable to the operation, maintenance or repair of the Food Court Common Area. Neither the City nor any company, firm or individual operating, maintaining, managing or supervising the Food Court Common Area, nor any of their respective agents or employees, are or will be liable to Tenant or to any of Tenant's employees, agents, customers or invitees or anyone claiming through or under Tenant, for any damage, injuries, losses expenses, claims or causes of action because of any interruption or discontinuance at any time for any reason in furnishing services relating to operation, maintenance and repair of the Food Court Common Area, nor will any such interruption or discontinuance be deemed a disturbance of Tenant's use or possession of the Leased Space or any part of it; nor will any such interruption or discontinuance relieve Tenant from full performance of Tenant's obligations under this Agreement. Tenant is responsible for providing seating and chairs for Food Court Common Area directly adjacent to Tenant's Leased Space.

Utilities

A. Tenant must pay for all utilities furnished to the Leased Space, to the extent separately metered. All utilities must be separately metered for usage within a Leased Space except to the extent that the Commissioner agrees otherwise in writing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that water/sewage is not separately metered, the City may charge Tenant for water/sewage based on a reasonable estimate of usage given the nature of the Concession.

B. In addition to payment for utility service, Tenant must maintain utility lines to the Leased Space as follows:

(i) where the utility lines, including gas, electrical, telephone, hot and cold water, fire sprinkler, gas, and sewer serve both the Leased Space and other areas of the Terminals, Tenant is only obligated to maintain those branch lines and facilities that exclusively serve the

Leased Space; and

ii) where such utility lines are entirely for the exclusive service of the Leased Space, Tenant is obligated to maintain the utility lines from the Leased Space up to the main entry point of the utility to the Terminal(s). Alternatively, the City may, at the Commissioner's sole discretion, maintain such utility lines and charge Tenant the reasonable cost of the maintenance.

iii) Tenant must maintain all electrical cables, conduits, wiring, fire alarm systems, electrical panels and associated equipment located within and serving the Leased Space.

4.9 Refuse Handling.

A. Tenant, at its own cost and expense, must provide for the handling of all refuse, including trash, garbage, recycling and other waste created by its Concession operations and for their disposal at a centrally located collection area within the Airport designated by the Commissioner from time to time. Within its Leased Space, Tenant must provide a complete and proper arrangement for the adequate sanitary handling and disposal of trash, garbage, recycling and other refuse resulting from its Concession operations. Tenant must provide and use suitable covered metal receptacles for all trash, garbage, recycling and other refuse in accessible locations within the boundaries of each Leased Space. Piling of boxes, cartons, barrels or other similar items in an unsightly or unsafe manner on or about the Leased Space or the Common Areas is forbidden. The Commissioner reserves the right, from time to time, to establish time periods or schedules during which Tenant must remove refuse from the Leased Space.

B. Tenant must comply with all present and future laws, orders and regulations and any rules and regulations promulgated by the Commissioner regarding the separation, sorting and recycling of garbage, refuse and trash, including but not limited to those policies, rules and regulations incorporated in the Airport Concessions Program Handbook and the Sustainable Airport Manual. Tenant must separate and appropriately dispose of recyclable and non-recyclable waste, including organic materials. Recyclable waste includes newspaper, unsoiled paper products, cardboard, plastic, aluminum and glass. Tenant is encouraged to use service goods made from recycled and recyclable materials. All recyclable waste will be disposed at the direction of the CDA. The CDA may also require sorting and disposal of compostable/organic wastes, including food scraps and soiled paper products. Tenants must therefore also provide for the separation of pre-consumer compostable\organic waste for composting. Tenants are expected to fully comply with CDA's waste recovery program by sorting, to the maximum extent possible, recyclable and compostable waste from that which will be sent to landfill.

C. Tenant acknowledges that any failure to comply with the provisions of this Section 4.9 may cause the City to suffer loss of goodwill and other harm the value of which is difficult to determine, and thus, in addition to any remedies for the Event of Default, the Commissioner will assess as liquidated damages against Tenant, and not as a penalty, the amounts outlined in Exhibit 13.

4.10 Promotion.

A. Signs and Advertising. Tenant may, at its own expense and subject to obtaining any necessary permits, install and operate necessary and appropriate identification signs in and on the Retail Space for its promotional use (identifying the Concession operations at the Retail Space in question or the Products sold there). All such signage (especially all signage visible from the Common Areas) must be in compliance with signage and other applicable criteria adopted by the Commissioner or other City agencies from time to time and subject to the prior written approval of the Commissioner as to the number, size, height, location and design (as applicable). Tenant must not install, affix, or display any signage outside the Retail Space except as permitted by the Department. Without the prior written consent of the Commissioner, Tenant and its Subcontractors must not distribute any advertising, promotional or informational pamphlets, circulars, brochures or similar materials at the Airport except within the Retail Space and except as are related to Tenant's Concession. Tenant acknowledges that any failure to comply with this Section 4.10(A) may cause the City to suffer loss of goodwill and other harm the value of which is difficult to determine, and thus, in addition to any remedies for the Event of Default, the Commissioner will assess, as liquidated damages against Tenant, and not as a penalty, the amounts outlined in Exhibit 13.

B. Marketing and Advertising Fund. The Department operates a marketing fund ("Fund") for the purpose of financing a program for advertising and promoting Concessions at the Airport. The Program may include advertising, media placements, special events, promotional events, brochures, videos and catalogs, mystery shops, market research and surveys, customer service training etc., as appropriate. The Program will be funded by contributions from the Tenant and other tenants at the Airport. Tenant will contribute an amount of one-half of one percent (0.5%) of Gross Revenues per Lease Year to the Fund. All contributions to the Fund may only be expended for the promotion of concessions and marketing-related staff activities at the Airport and for no other purposes. Tenant shall make its contributions to the Fund monthly in arrears concurrently with its Rent payment under this Agreement.

The City may, but is not required to, contribute to the Fund. Tenant has no ownership or beneficial interest whatsoever in the Fund or any unspent moneys therein.

11 Distribution and Storage; Deliveries.

A. It is necessary, due to the number of Concession tenants in the Airport, that the Commissioner protect the Common Areas and the Terminal curb front for the flow of airline passengers. Therefore, Concession deliveries must be made only within the times and at the locations authorized by the Commissioner or the Commissioner's designated representative and otherwise in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. All deliveries that require access to the aircraft operations area ("AOA") must be made by vehicles and drivers qualified and permitted to drive over AOA roadways.

B. O'Hare. There is currently no central distribution and storage facility at O'Hare; however, the City intends to implement such a facility during the Term of this Agreement. Thereafter, at the option of the Commissioner, after first giving reasonable notice to Tenant, the Commissioner may require Tenant to arrange for all deliveries to the central distribution and storage facility, except where delivery to a third party is prohibited by law, such as delivery of liquor, or as otherwise approved by the Commissioner in writing. At the Commissioner's sole discretion, the central distribution and storage facility, if implemented, may be operated by a third-party contractor selected or approved by the Commissioner. If the central distribution and storage facility is implemented, Tenant must pay the City, or the third-party operator, Tenant's proportional share of the cost for deliveries to and distribution from the facility ("Distribution Fee") as determined by the Commissioner. Such Distribution Fee will be intended to cover the costs of delivery as well as development, utility, operation and maintenance costs and other costs associated with the opening and/or operation of the central distribution and storage facility and is considered to be Additional Rent.

C. Tenant acknowledges that the City will not be responsible for and will have no liability related to the operation of (or the failure to operate) the central distribution and storage facility at either Airport, including lost profits, consequential damages or any other losses or damages whatsoever.

12 Certain Rights Reserved By the City.

A. Except as expressly provided otherwise in this Agreement: the City has the rights set forth below, each of which the City may exercise with notice to Tenant and without liability to Tenant for damage or injury to property, person or business on account of exercising them; the City's exercise of any such rights is not deemed to constitute a breach of this Agreement or a disturbance of Tenant's use or possession of or Lease to the Leased Space; the City's exercise does not give rise to any claim, including for set-off or abatement of Rent; the City's exercise also does not relieve Tenant of any obligation to pay all Rent when due. The rights include the rights to:

i) Install, affix and maintain any and all signs on the exterior and on the interior of the Terminals;

ii) Decorate or to make repairs, inspections, alterations, additions, or improvements, whether structural or otherwise, in and about the Terminals, or any part of them, and for such purposes to enter upon the Leased Space, and during the continuance of any of the work, to temporarily close doors, entryways, public space and corridors in the Terminals, and to interrupt or temporarily suspend services or use of facilities, all without affecting any of Tenant's obligations under this Agreement, so long as the Leased Space is reasonably accessible and usable;

iii) Upon request, require Tenant to furnish the Department with copies of door keys for the entry doors of the Leased Space, where applicable, and to retain them at all times, and to use in appropriate instances, keys, including master keys and passkeys, to all doors within and into the Leased Space, but the keys will at all times be kept under adequate and appropriate security by the Department. Tenant must not change any locks, nor affix locks on doors without the prior written consent of the Commissioner. Notwithstanding the provisions for the Department's access to the Leased Space, Tenant releases the City from all responsibility arising out of theft, robbery, pilferage and personal assault unless the same results from the City's gross negligence or willful misconduct. Upon the expiration of the Term of this Agreement or Tenant's right to possession of the Leased Space, Tenant must return all keys to the Concession Management Representative and must disclose the combination of any safes, cabinets or vaults left in the Leased Space;

iv) Approve the weight, size and location of safes, vaults and other heavy equipment and articles in and about the Leased Space and the Terminals so as not to exceed the legal load per square foot designated by the structural engineers for the Airport, and to require all such items and furniture and similar items to be moved into or out of the Terminals and the Leased Space only at the times and in the manner as the Commissioner directs in writing. Tenant must not install or operate machinery, or any mechanical devices of a nature not directly related to Tenant's ordinary use of the Leased Space without the prior written consent of the Commissioner. Movements of Tenant property into or out of the Terminals or the Leased Space and within the Terminals are entirely at the risk and responsibility of Tenant, and the Commissioner reserves the right to require permits before allowing any property to be moved into or out of the Terminals or the Leased Space;

(v) Establish controls for the purpose of regulating all property and packages, both personal and otherwise, to be moved into or out of the Terminals and the Leased Space;

(vi) Regulate delivery and service of supplies and the usage of the apron area, loading docks, receiving areas and freight elevators and designate the times within which, and the locations at which, deliveries may be made to or by Tenant;

(vii) Show the Leased Space to prospective Tenants and subtenants at reasonable times and, if vacated or abandoned, prepare the Leased Space for re-occupancy;

viii) Erect, use and maintain pipes, ducts, wiring and conduits, and appurtenances to them, in and through the Leased Space at reasonable locations;

ix) Enter the Leased Space for the purpose of periodic inspection for fire protection, maintenance and compliance with the terms of this Agreement, including but not limited to the Airport Concession Handbook, and exercise any rights granted to City or retained by City in this Agreement; except in the case of emergency, however, the right must be exercised upon reasonable prior notice to Tenant and with an opportunity for Tenant to have an employee or agent present;

x) Grant to any person the right to conduct any business or render any service in or to the Terminals or the Airport.

xi) Promulgate from time-to-time rules and regulations regarding the operations at the Airport; and

xii) Maintain newspaper vending machines at any location in the Airport.

D. If Tenant is required to perform any regular Work, City reserves the right to perform the Work and charge

b. If Tenant is required to perform any sprinkler work, City reserves the right to perform the work and charge the Tenant for the cost of the sprinkler Work and specify charges as Additional Rent under the Agreement or to approve Tenant's proposed sprinkler contractor, at the Commissioner's sole option. If any sprinkler work requires a temporary shut-down and/or drainage of the sprinkler system or portion thereof in the Terminal, Tenant must pay an up-front fee of $500 per occurrence in the form of a certified check or money order.

ARTICLE 5 LEASED SPACE AND IMPROVEMENTS

5.1 Leased Space. As provided in Section 4.1, the City grants Tenant the right to use the Leased Space identified in Exhibit 1, or portions thereof, from the date of delivery of each portion of the Leased Space through the remainder of the Term of this Agreement for the operation of the Concession, except as otherwise provided for herein. Exhibit 1 may be amended by agreement of the Tenant and the Commissioner from time to time to reflect changes in Leased Space, including but not limited to any Additional Space or Relocation Space. As of the Effective Date, all square footage identified in Exhibit 1 is approximate, and is subject to final correction in accordance with field measurements to be taken after completion of the Improvements. All such measurements relating to the Leased Space will be made to and from the "lease lines" as identified on Exhibit I. Tenant must confine all of its Concession operations to its Leased Space. Any conduct of Concession operations outside of Tenant's Leased Space is an Event of Default.

A.- Retail Space. The Leased Space includes the Retail Space identified in Exhibit 1. Retail Space is to be used for the sale of Products at retail to the public.

B. Storage Space. The Leased Space includes the Storage Space, if any, identified in Exhibit 1. Storage Space is to be used to store inventory and supplies for use in the Retail Space. It may be used for other purposes relating to the Concession with the consent of the Commissioner, but not as a point of retail sale of Products. If the Commissioner determines that Tenant is using Storage Space for purposes unrelated to the Concession, the Commissioner may unilaterally delete the Storage Space from the Leased Space. If the Commissioner determines that the size of the Storage Space exceeds the needs of the Tenant, the Commissioner may unilaterally reduce the size of the Storage Space.

C. Additional Space.

(i) During the Term, the Commissioner may from time to time, at the Commissioner's sole discretion, make Additional Space available in the Terminals for Tenant's Concession operations. In such event, the Commissioner will send written notice to Tenant to advise Tenant of the following:

- a. size and location of the Additional Space being offered, if any;
- b. whether the Additional Space is being offered as Retail Space or Storage Space; and
- c. the City's Shell and Core obligations and Tenant's Improvement obligations for the Additional Space.

Within 30 days after receiving the notice from the Commissioner, Tenant must notify the Commissioner if it accepts or rejects the Additional Space and, if the Additional Space is Retail Space, the proposed Improvements and the amount by which Tenant proposes to increase its Minimum Annual Guarantee to reflect the anticipated increase in Gross Revenues from the Additional Space. Upon notification from Tenant to the Commissioner that Tenant accepts the Additional Space and, if the Additional Space is Retail Space, acceptance by the Commissioner of the proposed Improvements and increase in the Minimum Annual Guarantee, the square footage will be added to the Retail Space or Storage Space, as applicable, under this Agreement and Exhibits I and 2 modified accordingly. Upon notification from Tenant to the Commissioner that it rejects the Additional Space or if Tenant fails to notify the Commissioner within 30 days that it accepts the Additional Space, the offer will terminate, and the Commissioner may offer the Additional Space to others.

ii) Nothing in (i) above requires the Commissioner to offer any Additional Space to Tenant or limits or restricts the Commissioner's or the City's right to enter into any Concession agreement with any third party for such space. Additional Space, if any, offered to Tenant is solely for the benefit of the Airport to enhance Airport revenues, and whether or not to offer such Additional Space to Tenant is at the Commissioner's sole and absolute discretion. TENANT HAS NO RIGHT TO BE OFFERED ANY ADDITIONAL SPACE.

iii) The maximum aggregate amount of Retail Space that may be offered to Tenant as Additional Space is 2,000 sq. ft.

D. Relocation Space. The Commissioner may at any time during the Term require Tenant to relocate all or portion of the Leased Space to another location within the Airport and terminate the Lease with respect to the Leased Space being vacated when, in the sole discretion of the Commissioner, the relocation is necessary for other Airport purposes or is in the best interest of the City. In such an event:

i) The Commissioner will notify Tenant in writing within a reasonable period of time prior to the relocation of all or part of the Leased Space. Such notice will be not less than 90 days in advance of the relocation but, in any event, notice is not required more than 180 days in advance.

ii) If a Retail Space is being relocated and the Relocation Space has, in Tenant's reasonable business judgment, diminished size, visibility, and/or exposure to passenger traffic in comparison to the Retail Space being vacated, Tenant may so notify the Commissioner in writing no later than 15 days after Tenant receives the Commissioner's notice. Such notice must detail with reasonable specificity why Tenant believes that the Relocation Space is not comparable to the Retail Space being vacated and the projected adverse impact on Tenant's sales. Tenant and Commissioner may thereafter negotiate an adjustment in the Percentage Fee and/or the Minimum Annual Guarantee for the Relocation Space to reflect the differences in size, visibility, and/or passenger traffic. If the Tenant and Commissioner fail to agree on such an adjustment or if Tenant otherwise rejects the Relocation Space, then the Lease for the Retail Space being vacated will terminate on the date for the relocation set forth in the Commissioner's notice, and the Minimum Annual Guarantee as of such date will be adjusted in proportion to the percentage of Tenant's Gross Revenues from prior Lease Year that were generated at the Retail Space being vacated. Further, if the Lease of the Retail Space being vacated is terminated, Tenant is entitled to a credit, equal to the unamortized portion of Tenant's actual Improvement Costs for the Retail Space being vacated (but excluding any Improvement Costs for Tenant personal property or any portion of the Improvements that can be moved and used by Tenant elsewhere), against Rent due and owing to the City from Tenant until the full amount of the credit has been applied against Rent.

iii) Except when Tenant rejects Relocation Space pursuant to (ii) above, the City is responsible for costs incurred in the relocation or replication of the Improvements in the Leased Space being vacated, including the cost of moving Tenant's equipment and inventory and the cost of constructing replacement Improvements comparable to the condition of the Improvements in the Leased Space being vacated as of the date of relocation, to the extent comparable Improvements do not already exist in the Relocation Space. In the case of a relocation, Tenant must promptly vacate the portion of the Leased Space required to be vacated and as to which this Agreement is being terminated and return the portion of the Leased Space in as good or better condition as existed as of the date that the City gave Tenant possession of the Leased Space being vacated, unless the Commissioner otherwise agrees in writing. The City will endeavor not to require Tenant to move from the Leased Space being vacated to the Relocation Space before Work on Improvements in the Relocation Space is completed, but the Leased Space being vacated may be needed for other Airport purposes prior to the completion of Improvements in the Relocation Space. Because the City is replacing Improvements in kind, Tenant is not entitled to any credit for unamortized Improvement Costs for the Leased Space being vacated, and the unamortized Improvement Costs for the Leased Space being vacated will deemed to be the unamortized Improvement Costs for the Relocation Space and continue to be amortized on the same schedule as the original Leased Space.

2 Title to Property in the Leased Space. Tenant shall retain title and ownership to all Products and other Tenant personal property and proprietary trade fixtures in the Leased Space, except in the event of deemed abandonment, as provided in Section 6.3. The City owns all other property in the Leased Space, including the Shell and Core and, upon completion, Tenant Improvements.

3 Shell and Core. The City is responsible for providing Shell and Core, if any are specified in Exhibit 4, for the Leased Space. The City makes no warranty, either express or implied, as to the design or condition of the Leased Space, including the Shell and Core, or the suitability of the Leased Space, including the Shell and Core, for the Tenant's purposes or needs. The City is not responsible for any patent or latent defect, and Tenant must not, under any circumstances, withhold any amounts payable to the City under this Agreement on account of any defect in the Leased Space, including the Shell and Core; if feasible, however, the City will assign to Tenant any warranties obtained from the City's contractor for the Shell and Core and/or the right to enforce City's rights under its contract for the Shell and Core. After the City delivers the Shell and Core to Tenant, Tenant must immediately notify the Commissioner of any defects in the Shell and Core.

4 Tenant's Improvement Obligations.

A. Retail Space and Storage Space. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Commissioner, Tenant must complete, or cause to be completed, the Improvements as described in the Development Plan. Improvements shall be at Tenant's sole cost and expense and must be completed on or before the Date of Beneficial Occupancy set forth for each portion of the Leased Space in accordance with the schedule set forth in the Development Plan, subject to Section 11.20, "Force Majeure". Failure to achieve DBO for the Improvements in accordance with the schedule in the Development Plan will result in liquidated damages pursuant to Section 5.5(J).

B. Additional Space. Tenant must complete or cause to be completed, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, the Improvements for each Additional Space approved by the Commissioner by the proposed Date of Beneficial Occupancy applicable to each such Additional Space, at a total investment in Improvement Costs for each permanent Additional Space of at least 95% of the budget approved by the Commissioner.

C. Temporary Relocation Space and Additional Space. The Commissioner may require Tenant to operate the Concession, prior to the Date of Beneficial Occupancy applicable to any Relocation Space and Additional Space, from a temporary Relocation Space, at City's sole cost and expense. If approved by the Commissioner, Tenant may use temporary or used fixtures, trade fixtures and equipment and is not required to install Improvements except to the extent necessary to make the temporary Relocation Space or Additional Space useable.

D. Improvement Costs. Only Improvement Costs of the types set forth in the budget in the Development Plan are deemed to be validly incurred Improvement Costs for purposes of this Agreement. Tenant must provide the Commissioner with a statement certified by Tenant, setting forth the aggregate amount of the Improvement Costs expended by Tenant for each Leased Space, with such detail as may be reasonably requested by the Commissioner. The certified statement must be submitted at the same time as the "as-built" drawings for the Leased Space. Tenant must make available to the Commissioner, at the Commissioner's request, receipted invoices for labor and materials covering all Improvement Costs. The Commissioner has the right to audit the Improvement Costs. If there is a discrepancy of 5% or more, the cost of the audit must be paid promptly by Tenant upon request. If the Tenant's actual Improvement Costs for any portion of the Leased Space are less than 95% of the amount set forth in the Development Plan for said portion of the Leased Space, Tenant must, within 30 days after the date of completion of the Work or the Date of Beneficial Occupancy, whichever is earlier, pay the City the difference between 95% of the amount set forth in the Development Plan and the actual Improvement Cost for said portion of the Leased Space. The actual Improvement Costs, as approved by the Commissioner, will be memorialized in the confirmation of DBO for the Leased Space in question and attached to Exhibit I.

5.5 Work Requirements.

A. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE IN THE PERFORMANCE OF WORK UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.

B. Compliance with Standards. Tenant must comply in its design, construction, use, occupancy and operation of the Leased Space, at its own cost, with:

i) all regulations and directives now or later promulgated by the United States Federal Aviation Administration ("FAA") or Transportation Security Administration ("TSA") pertaining to airport security, as such regulations and directives may be amended or modified from time to time during the Term of this Agreement;

ii) all federal, State of Illinois, and City laws, rules, regulations and ordinances, including all building, zoning and health codes and all Environmental Laws; and

(iii) the Design and Construction Standard Operating Procedures- Concessions Projects ("C-SOP") C-SOP, the Airport Concession Program Handbook, and the Sustainable Airport Manual.

Tenant must complete or cause to be completed all Improvements in accordance with all rules, regulations and standards, including the C-SOP, and the approved Construction Documents (as defined below) for any Improvements. If there is a conflict between work requirements stated in this Agreement and those set forth in the C-SOP, the Commissioner has the sole discretion to determine which prevails. No construction must take place until the Commissioner has approved the Construction Documents.

Tenant must provide for any supplemental heating, cooling and exhaust facilities that Tenant may require to properly heat, cool, ventilate and exhaust air in the Leased Space. All such supplemental facilities must be designed and installed in accordance with the C-SOP and applicable building codes and must be approved by the Commissioner prior to installation. If at any time the Tenant's supplemental heating, cooling and exhaust facilities fail to comply with the design and operational standards set forth in the C-SOP, Tenant must, on notice from the City, cause repairs to be made so that Tenant is in compliance with this requirement.

In addition to the requirements set forth in the C-SOP, Tenant acknowledges the City's goal to incorporate environmentally sustainable design in building, infrastructure, and tenant improvements at the Airport. Accordingly, Tenant agrees to use best efforts to incorporate sustainable design practices in the development and build out of the Leased Space, to engage a LEED® (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) accredited professional on its architectural team, to create an operational plan that incorporates sustainable practices in all aspects of the daily operation of the Leased Space, and to comply to the extent that it is commercially reasonable to the requirements of the Sustainable Airport Manual.

C. Development Plan. Tenant's Development Plan, as approved by the Commissioner, is attached hereto as Exhibit 3. It describes and depicts the Tenant's thematic concept for the Retail Space (including storefront design images, as appropriate), floor plan(s) of the Retail Space, its plan and schedule for implementing the Improvements and commencing Concession operations in the Leased Space, temporary facilities that may be necessary to meet the requirements of this Agreement, and its other submission requirements as set forth in the C-SOP. The Development Plan must include the anticipated Date of Beneficial Occupancy of each Retail Space, the budgeted Improvement Costs for each Retail Space, and the dates by which City must complete the Shell and Core and the Delivery Date necessary in order to achieve the anticipated DBO for each Retail Space.

D. 30, 60, 90 and 100 Percent Design Phase. Tenant must submit to the Commissioner its proposed 30, 60, 90, 100 Percent design drawings and specifications prepared as required under the C-SOP. The C-SOP outlines the timing and expectations for submissions at each percentage of the design phase. The C-SOP also provides the timing of the review by the Commissioner. Tenant must adhere to the time required to respond to the Commissioner's comments as outlined in the C-SOP. If Tenant fails to provide acceptable designs, after 5 attempts, an Event of Default can be declared by the Commissioner.

E Start of Construction. For each portion of the Leased Space, within 10 days after the latest of occur of: 1) the date the City delivers to Tenant possession of said portion of the Leased Space, 2) the date Tenant has obtained applicable building permits for said portion of the Leased Space, and 3) the date of commencement of construction set forth in the Development Plan, Tenant must begin construction of the Improvements under and consistent with the approved Construction Documents, in a diligent, first-class and workmanlike manner. Commissioner may require Tenant and its Subcontractors to meet with the Department's construction manager and Concessions Management Representative prior to starting construction. Among other requirements, the Improvements:

- i) Must conform with all architectural, fire, safety, zoning and electrical codes and all federal, State, City and other local laws, regulations and ordinances pertaining to them, including the ADA, and all Airport standards, procedures and regulations.
- ii) Must be free and clear of any mechanics' or materialmen's liens or similar liens or encumbrances.
- iii) Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, must be completed entirely at Tenant's cost and expense and in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement including, but not limited to, the requirements and procedures set forth in the C-SOP.

(iv) Upon the request of the Commissioner, Tenant must purchase and install a security camera and connect the camera feed into a junction box at a location to be determined by the Commissioner. Tenant will permit the Commissioner to connect the security camera to the Airport security system.

Approval of the Construction Documents by the Commissioner does not constitute the Commissioner's or the City's representation or warranty as to their conformity with any architectural, fire, safety, zoning, electrical or building code, and responsibility therefore at all times remains with Tenant. Tenant must not permit its design and construction Subcontractors to make any modifications to base building systems without prior written consent of the Commissioner.

F. Change Order Review. Tenant must cause all Work to be performed in a first class, good and workmanlike manner and in accordance with the Construction Documents. Tenant may request in writing that change orders relating to the Work be responded to by the City, and the City will so respond within 10 days, unless a response within 10 days is unreasonable in the circumstances, in which case the response period will be as reasonably determined by the City but in no event longer than 20 days. At all times during the Work, Tenant must have on file with the Commissioner and on the construction site for inspection by the Commissioner, a copy of the approved Construction Documents. Tenant must immediately begin to reconstruct or replace and diligently pursue to completion, at its sole cost and expense, before or after completion of the Work, any Work that is not performed in accordance with the Construction Documents as approved by the Commissioner.

G. Inspection of Improvements in Progress. The Department has the right to enter upon the Leased Space for the purposes of inspecting and recording the Improvements in progress, ensuring that Tenant's construction complies with the Construction Documents, and rejecting any such construction that does not so conform.

H. Notice of Substantial Completion and Inspection. At least 10 days prior to anticipated substantial completion of the construction of a Leased Space, Tenant must deliver to the Commissioner a "notice of substantial completion" in order for the Commissioner to schedule a representative to inspect the Improvements. On the date specified in the notice of substantial completion, the Department will perform a final inspection of the Improvements for compliance with the Construction Documents for the Improvements, and will, not later than 10 days after inspection, provide a punch list to Tenant describing in sufficient detail any discrepancies between the Improvements and the Construction Documents. Tenant must cause all discrepancies (other than those approved by the Commissioner as variances) to be reconstructed, replaced or repaired in substantial accordance with the Construction Documents. Within 10 days after the date of substantial completion and prior to commencing Concession operations in Leased Space, Tenant must provide, as evidence of the substantial completion of the Work, copies of any and all Certificates of Occupancy and other approvals, if any, necessary for Tenant to occupy the portion of the Leased Space for its intended use. Tenant shall not commence Concession operations in the Leased Space until such documents have been received by the Commissioner and until authorized to do so by the Commissioner.

L Timeliness - Punch Lists; Opening for Business. Tenant acknowledges that if it fails to comply with Construction Document requirements (including all tasks necessary to satisfy them, such as, but not limited to, applying at the earliest possible time for and diligently pursuing all necessary building permits), the delay may cause the City to suffer substantial damages, including loss of goodwill, that might be difficult to ascertain or prove. For that reason, but subject to extensions that may be approved by the Commissioner, or day-to-day extensions for delays caused by a force majeure event pursuant to Section 11.20, if Tenant has not caused the Improvements to be substantially completed in accordance with the Construction Documents and Retail Space to be open to the public for business not later than the scheduled Date of Beneficial Occupancy in the Development Plan:

i) Tenant must pay the City liquidated damages at the rate of $250 per day for each day from and after the Date of Beneficial Occupancy, until the date on which the Retail Space actually opens to the public for business; and

ii) Tenant must cooperate with the Commissioner in providing the interim Concession operations from kiosks or other temporary locations, as the Commissioner may reasonably require, to serve the patrons of the Terminals until the applicable Improvements have been completed and the Retail Space is open to the public for business; and

iii) if, for any reason, Tenant fails to substantially complete the Improvements in accordance with the approved Construction Documents relating to them and open the Retail Space to the public for business within 30 days after the Date of Beneficial Occupancy, the failure is an Event of Default, and the City has the right to exercise any and all remedies under this Agreement, at law or in equity; and further,

iv) if Tenant is permitted to open for business in accordance with the schedule in the Construction Documents but any punch list items are not completed within 30 days following the date on which Tenant opens to the public for business, the Commissioner will assess liquidated damages against Tenant at the rate of $250 per day per punch list item not timely completed; and

v) if Tenant is permitted to open for business but any punch list items are not completed within 60 days following the date on which Tenant opens to the public for business, the City reserves the right, at the Commissioner's sole discretion, to either:

- a. complete the punch list Work at the City's cost and bill the Tenant for this Work, in which case the charges are considered Additional Rent; or
- b. close the affected Retail Space until all outstanding punch list items are completed.

J. Post-construction Documentation. Tenant must submit a complete set of "as-built" drawings and documentation as outlined in the C-SOP to the Commissioner within 30 days after the date the Commissioner authorizes Tenant to begin Concession operations in the Leased Space. The as-built drawings and documentation are and become the property of the City, except to the extent of any intellectual property reflecting Tenant's trademarks, trade names or trade dress contained in them.

K. Mechanics' Liens. Tenant must not permit any mechanics' lien for labor or materials furnished or alleged to have been furnished to it to attach to any portion of the Leased Space, the Airport, Tenant's leasehold interest, or this Agreement in any way relating to any work performed by or at the direction of Tenant. Upon making payments to Subcontractors, Tenant must obtain from each Subcontractor a waiver of mechanics' liens against any portion of the Leased Space, the Airport, Tenant's leasehold interest, or this Agreement arising out of any Work done by the Subcontractor and each and every of the Subcontractor's materialmen and workmen. If, nonetheless, any such mechanics' lien is filed upon any portion of the Leased Space, the Airport, Tenant's leasehold interest, or this Agreement, Tenant must indemnify, protect, defend and save harmless the City against any loss, liability or expense whatsoever by reason of the mechanic's lien and must promptly and diligently proceed with or defend, at its own expense, the action or proceedings as may be necessary to remove the lien. Tenant must deliver notice to the Commissioner of any such lien or claim within 15 days after Tenant has knowledge of it. Tenant may permit the mechanics to remain undischarged and unsatisfied during the period of the contest and appeal; provided that, upon request by the Commissioner, Tenant must post a bond with the City equal to 150% of the amount of the lien. If the lien is stayed and the stay later expires or if by nonpayment of any lien any portion of the Leased Space, the Airport, Tenant's leasehold interest, or this Agreement will be, or is claimed to be, subject to loss or forfeiture, then Tenant must immediately pay and cause to be satisfied and discharged the lien. If Tenant fails to do so, the Commissioner may, in his or her sole discretion, draw on the bond and make such payment. If the Commissioner has not requested a bond, then the Commissioner may, in the Commissioner's sole discretion, make such payment out of legally available Airport funds and, in such event, the amount paid shall immediately be payable by Tenant as Additional Rent. Failure to post a bond when requested by the Commissioner or pay such Additional Rent shall be an Event of Default.

L Mid-Term Refurbishment. Tenant must budget and expend such funds as necessary to undertake a mid-Term refurbishment of each Retail Space during or about the middle of the Term in order to ensure that each Retail Space presents a first-class appearance to the public. The minimum expenditure does not include financing costs, interest, and inventory or intracompany charges of the Tenant. The scope and extent of the renovation, remodeling, and upgrade and/or redecorating for such mid-Term refurbishment shall be jointly determined by the Commissioner and Tenant.

5.6 Damage or Destruction of Improvements.

A. Insubstantial Damage. If Improvements to any Leased Space are damaged, in whole or in part, by fire or casualty, and there is no Major Damage (as defined below) to the portion of the Terminals served by the damaged Improvements, then the City will repair any damage to the Shell and Core at the City's expense, and Tenant must repair the damage to the Improvements as soon as reasonably possible (after completion of the Shell and Core) at Tenant's expense.

B. Major Damage.

(i) "Major Damage" means any damage or destruction that, based on reasonable estimates made by the Department within 60 days after the occurrence of the damage or destruction, in order to be repaired to the condition existing before the damage or destruction:

- a. would cost, with respect to the Improvements, in excess of 50% of the replacement cost value of all Improvements; and
- b. would cost, with respect to the Shell and Core, in excess of 50% of the replacement cost of the Shell and Core, or would require, in the sole judgment of the Commissioner, more than nine months to complete.

ii) If any part of the Terminals suffers Major Damage, whether or not including any portion of the Leased Space located in them, in whole or in part by fire or other casualty, the Commissioner has the right, for a period of six months starting on the date of the occurrence, to elect not to repair the Major Damage as otherwise required under this section, by giving written notice of the election to Tenant. If the Commissioner notifies Tenant of the Commissioner's election not to repair the Major Damage, this Agreement will terminate as to the affected Leased Space effective as of the date of the Major Damage, all Rent due under this Agreement will be prorated to the date of termination, and Tenant must surrender the affected portion of the Leased Space to the City.

iii) If any portion of the Leased Space suffers Major Damage, and if after the occurrence of the damage the Agreement is not terminated, the Commissioner and the Airport architect will estimate the cost of restoration and the length of time that will be required to repair the damage and will notify Tenant of the estimate. If the damage can be repaired and the Improvements restored before the Term expires, then Tenant must repair the damage and restore the Improvements. If repair and restoration cannot be substantially completed before the Term expires, then this Agreement terminates as to the portion of the Leased Space as of the date of the Major Damage.

iv) If this Agreement is not terminated in accordance with paragraphs (B) (ii) or (iii) and a casualty has damaged or destroyed any portion of the Shell and Core involving the Leased Space, the City will restore the Shell and Core to the condition existing on the Delivery Date, according to the original as-built plans and specifications. Upon completion of the City's Shell and Core restoration work, if any, Tenant must proceed to rebuild the Improvements as nearly as possible to the character of Improvements existing immediately before the occurrence.

v) Before beginning to replace, repair, rebuild or restore Improvements, Tenant must deliver to the Commissioner a report of an independent consultant acceptable to the Commissioner setting forth:

- a. an estimate of the total cost of the Work;
- b. the estimated date upon which the Work will be substantially completed; and
- c. a statement to the effect that insurance proceeds are projected to be sufficient to pay the costs of the Work.

(vi) The Commissioner will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide suitable temporary Relocation Space during the period of restoration subject to the reasonable approval of Tenant. Tenant must relocate the Concession operations to the temporary Relocation Space, and the costs associated with any such relocation, including moving expenses and the cost of reconstructing the Improvements in the temporary Relocation Space, must be borne by Tenant.

C. Tenant's Option. If the Leased Space or a portion of it is subject to Major Damage during the final three years of the Term, Tenant has the right, for a period of 60 days beginning on the date of the occurrence, to elect not to restore the affected Improvements as otherwise required under this Agreement by giving the Commissioner written notice of the election, in which event this Agreement will, as to the portion of the Leased Space, terminate upon the notice. If Tenant desires to rebuild the affected Leased Space, it may do so only upon the written approval of the Commissioner.

D. Insufficient Insurance. In no event will the City be obligated to repair, alter, replace, restore, or rebuild any Improvements, or any portion of them, nor to pay any of the costs or expenses for them. If Tenant's available insurance proceeds are not sufficient to cover the cost of the restoration as required under this Section, then Tenant is liable to complete the repairs at its own cost and expense, except as provided in (C) above.

5.7 City Resident Construction Worker Employment Requirement.

A. Use of Residents. In connection with and during the construction of any Work < in excess of $100,000 in Improvement Costs, Tenant and its Subcontractors must comply with the provisions of § 2-92-330 of the Municipal Code of the City of Chicago ("Municipal Code"), as amended from time to time concerning the minimum percentage of total construction worker hours performed by actual residents of the City. At least 50% of the total construction worker hours worked by persons on the site of the Work must be performed by actual residents of the City, and 7.5% of the total work hours (which may be included on the 50%) must be performed by project area residents: residents of neighborhoods surrounding the Airport. Tenant may request a reduction or waiver of this minimum percentage level of Chicagoans in accordance with standards and procedures developed by the Chief Procurement Officer of the City. In addition to complying with this percentage. Tenant and its Subcontractors are required to make good faith efforts to utilize qualified residents of the City in both unskilled and skilled labor positions. "Actual residents of the City" means persons domiciled within the City. The domicile is an individual's one and only true, fixed and permanent home and principal establishment. Tenant and each Subcontractor (for purposes of this subsection, "Employer") must provide for the maintenance of adequate employee residency records to ensure that actual Chicago residents are employed. Each Employer will maintain copies of personal documents supportive of every Chicago employee's actual record of residence.

B. Certified Payroll Reports. Weekly certified payroll reports (U.S. Department of Labor Form WH-347 or equivalent) must be submitted by hard copy or electronically to the Commissioner and must identify clearly the actual residence of every employee on each submitted certified payroll. The first time that an employee's name appears on a payroll, the date that the Employer hired the employee should be written in after the employee's name.

C. Inspection of Records. Each Employer must provide full access to its employment records to the Chief Procurement Officer, the Commissioner, and the Superintendent of the Chicago Police Department, the Inspector General or any duly authorized representative of any of them. Each Employer must maintain all relevant personnel data and records for a period of at least 3 years after final acceptance of the Work. At the direction of the Commissioner, affidavits and other supporting documentation may be required of each Employer to verify or clarify an employee's actual address when doubt or lack of clarity has arisen.

D. Level of Effort. Efforts on the part of each Employer to provide utilization of actual Chicago residents that are not sufficient for the granting of a waiver request as provided for in the standards and procedures developed by the Chief Procurement Officer will not suffice to replace the actual, verified achievement of the requirements of this section concerning the worker hours performed by actual Chicago residents.

E. Shortfalls; Liquidated Damages. When the Work is completed, in the event that the City has determined that Tenant has failed to ensure the fulfillment of the requirement of this section concerning the worker hours performed by actual Chicago residents or failed to report in the manner as indicated above, the City will thereby be damaged in the failure to provide the benefit of demonstrable employment to Chicagoans to the degree stipulated in this section. Therefore, in such a case of non-compliance, it is agreed that 1/20 of 1% of the aggregate hard construction costs of the Improvement Costs (the product of .0005 x such aggregate hard construction costs) (as evidenced by approved contract value for the actual contracts) must be surrendered by Tenant to the City as liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in payment for each percentage of shortfall toward the stipulated residency requirement. Failure to report the residency of employees entirely and correctly will result in the surrender of the entire liquidated damages as if no Chicago residents were employed in either of the categories. The willful falsification of statements and the certification of payroll data may subject Tenant and/or the Subcontractors to prosecution. The City may draw against the security any amounts that appear to be due to the City under this provision pending the City's determination as to the full amount of liquidated damages due on completion of the Work.

F. Nothing set forth in this section acts as a limitation upon the "Notice of Requirements for Affirmative Action to Ensure Equal Employment Opportunity, Executive Order 11246" and "Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity, Executive Order 11246," or other affirmative action required for equal opportunity under the provisions of this Agreement or related documents, as applicable.

G. Inclusion in Subcontracts. Tenant must cause or require the provisions of this section to be included in all construction Subcontracts related to the Work.

8 Licensing of General Contractor. This Agreement is subject to Chapter 4-36 of the Municipal Code which requires all persons acting as a general contractor (as defined in Chapter 4-36) to be licensed as a general which requires all persons acting as a general contractor (as defined in Chapter 4-36) to be licensed as a general contractor by the City. Tenant's failure to ensure that any general contractor working on Improvements complies with Chapter 4-36 will be an Event of Default.

9 Prevailing Wages. In connection with the construction, repair, and maintenance of Improvements, Tenant must comply with the applicable provisions of 820 ILCS 130/0.01 et seq. regarding the payment of prevailing wages, and the most recent Illinois Department of Labor schedule of prevailing wages, and any successors to them. Tenant must insert appropriate provisions in all Subcontracts covering construction work under this Agreement to ensure compliance of all construction Subcontractors with the foregoing wage statutes and regulations.

10 Subcontractor Certifications. Tenant must require all Subcontractors performing Work in connection with this Agreement to be bound by the following provision and Tenant must cooperate fully with the City in exercising the rights and remedies described below or otherwise available at law or in equity:

"Subcontractor certifies and represents that Subcontractor and any entity or individual that owns or controls, or is controlled or owned by, or is under common control or ownership with Subcontractor is not currently indebted to the City and will not at any time during the Term be indebted to the City, for or on account of any delinquent taxes, liens, judgments, fees or other debts for which no written agreement or payment plan satisfactory to the City has been established. In addition to any other rights or remedies available to the City at law or in equity, Subcontractor acknowledges that any breach or failure to conform to this certification may, at the option and direction of the City, result in the withholding of payments otherwise due to Subcontractor for services rendered in connection with the Agreement and, if the breach or failure is not resolved to the City's satisfaction within a reasonable time frame specified by the City in writing, may result in the offset of any such indebtedness against the payments otherwise due to Subcontractor and/or the termination of Subcontractor for default (in which case Subcontractor will be liable for all excess costs and other damages resulting from the termination.)"

11 MBE/WBE Compliance. Tenant shall make good faith efforts to meet the following goals with respect to participation of Minority Business Enterprises/Woman-Owned Business Enterprises ("MBE/WBE") in the design (including professional services) and construction of Tenant's Improvements, respectively: (i) Design: 26% MBE and 6% WBE; and (ii) Construction: 26% MBE and 6% WBE. However, in consideration of the anticipated costs of the design and construction of the Concession, the City will accept a participation plan that meets a combined single Design and Construction goal of 26% MBE and 6% WBE participation, which participation may be achieved with any combination of construction and design contracts. The Special Conditions and related forms used by the City in its own procurements are attached hereto as Exhibit 9 and should be used by Tenant's Contractors. Tenant must submit to the CMR completed Schedules Cs and D's from its design and construction Contractors demonstrating their percentage MBE and WBE participation commitments, and their good faith efforts to achieve the foregoing goals if the commitments are less than those goals. Thereafter, Tenant must submit periodic reports to the CMR, in a form and frequency determined by the Commissioner, documenting its Contractors' compliance with their commitments.

ARTICLE 6 TERM OF AGREEMENT

1 Term. The term of this Agreement is the Term as defined in Article 3, unless this Agreement is terminated earlier in accordance with its terms.

2 Holding Over.

A. With consent. Any holding over after expiration of the Term with the written consent of the Commissioner constitutes a month-to-month lease on the same terms and conditions as this Agreement, including payment of the Rent attributable to the portion or portions of the Leased Space that Tenant continues to occupy. Thereafter, Tenant must surrender and vacate the Leased Space no later than the 30th day following notice from the Commissioner that the month-to-month holdover is terminated; Tenant's failure to do so shall be deemed a holding over without consent under (B).

B. Without consent. If Tenant continues to occupy all or a portion of the Leased Space without the written consent of the Commissioner after expiration or termination of this Agreement in its entirety, or as to any such portion of the Leased Space where the Lease under this Agreement has expired or terminated, the holding over constitutes a month-to-month lease on the same terms and conditions as this Agreement, except that Tenant must pay Rent for the entire holdover period for the Leased Space where the Lease has expired or been terminated at double the annual rate of the Rent payable for that Leased Space during the immediately preceding Lease Year. No occupancy of Leased Space by Tenant after the expiration or other termination of the Lease under this Agreement with respect to such Leased Space extends the Term of this Agreement or the Lease, except as a holdover tenancy. Also, in the event of such holdover tenancy, Tenant shall indemnify the City against all damages arising out of the Tenant's retention of occupancy, including but not limited to any costs incurred by the City to evict Tenant, and all insurance policies and letters of credit required to be obtained and maintained by Tenant as set forth in this Agreement shall continue in effect.

3 Return of the Leased Space and Removal of Improvements.

A. At the termination or expiration for any reason of this Agreement or the Lease as to any portion of the Leased Space, Tenant must promptly, peaceably, quietly and in good order quit, deliver up and return the Leased Space (or that portion as to which the Lease has terminated, in the case of a partial termination) in good condition and repair, ordinary wear and tear and damage by fire or other casualty excepted.

B. Tenant must remove all Tenant personal property and proprietary trade fixtures from the Leased Space or the portions of the Leased Space before the date of termination or expiration. Any personal property or trade fixtures remaining in the Leased Space 48 hours after the date of termination or expiration shall be deemed abandoned, and the City may dispose of such personal property or trade fixtures in the Commissioner's sole discretion, and Tenant shall have no claim to the proceeds, if any, from such disposition.

C. Further, at the Commissioner's request (which request will be given in writing at least 30 days before the termination or expiration of the Term), Tenant must remove all Improvements installed by or for Tenant, or Tenant's agents, employees or Subcontractors, except for Improvements that the Commissioner may elect to require Tenant to leave in place (excluding proprietary property which Tenant shall retain and remove). As provided in Section 5.2, all Improvements are City property and, if not requested to be removed by the Commissioner, may be used by the City or a replacement tenant; provided, however, that all of Tenant's trade dress, service marks, trademarks and trade names shall be removed, obliterated or painted out in a commercially reasonable manner at Tenant's cost. If directed by the Commissioner to remove Improvements, Tenant must also cap off any plumbing or drains and remove, obliterate or paint out any and all of its signs, advertising and displays as the Commissioner or his designated representative may direct, and repair any holes or other damage left or caused by Tenant.

D. Tenant must repair any damage to the Leased Space caused by Tenant's removal of Tenant personal property, trade fixtures and Improvements. All the removal and repair required of Tenant under this section are at Tenant's sole cost and expense.

E. If Tenant fails to perform any of its foregoing obligations, then the Commissioner may cause the obligations to be performed by Department personnel or City contractors, and Tenant must pay the cost of the performance, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate from and after the date the costs were incurred until receipt of full payment therefor.

4 Termination Due to Change in Airport Operations. This Agreement, or the Lease of any affected Leased Space, is subject to termination by either party on 60 days' written notice in the event of any action by the FAA, the TSA or any other governmental entity or the issuance of an order by any court of competent jurisdiction which prevents or restrains the use of the Airport, the Terminals or a portion thereof that renders performance by either party in the Leased Space impossible, and which governmental action or court order remains in force and is not stayed by way of appeal or otherwise, for a period of at least 90 days, so long as the action or order is not the result of any Event of Default of Tenant.

5 Eminent Domain.

A. If the entirety of the Terminals or a substantial part of them, including the entire Leased Space, is taken by eminent domain by an authority other than the City, the Term of this Agreement will end upon the earlier of the date when possession is required by the condemning authority or the effective date of the taking.

B. If any eminent domain proceeding is instituted by an authority other than the City in which it is sought to take any part of the Airport or the Terminals, the taking of which would, in the good faith judgment of the Commissioner or Tenant, render it impractical or undesirable to conduct Concession operations on the remaining portion of the Leased Space for the intended purposes, the Commissioner and Tenant will each have the right to terminate this Agreement upon not less than 90 days' written notice to the other.

C. In the event of termination of this Agreement under either (A) or (B), all Rent accrued for the Leased Space in question prior to the termination date is payable to the City. However, the City shall have no obligation to pay Tenant any unamortized Improvement Costs for such Leased Space, and Tenant shall look solely to the condemning authority for any award of damages. ¹

6.6 Early Termination. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Lease, the Commissioner may terminate this Agreement with respect to any or all of the Leased Space without cause for any reason, in the Commissioner's sole discretion, upon at least ninety (90) days prior written notice to Tenant. Upon the effective date set forth in such notice, Tenant shall surrender and vacate that portion of Leased Space as to which this Agreement is being terminated as if the Agreement had expired on that date with respect to such Leased Space. In the event of such early termination, the City shall pay to Tenant a "Leased Space Termination Payment", which shall be defined herein to include the following: (i) a sum equal to the unamortized balance of Tenant's Improvement Costs with respect to the Leased Space being terminated, depreciated using the monthly straight-line method over the term of the lease commencing on the Date of Beneficial Occupancy of the Leased Space being terminated; and (ii) a sum equal to Gross Revenues earned by Tenant from the Leased Space being terminated during the four (4)-month period immediately preceding the termination date, less the Rent payable to the City for that period. Upon Tenant's receipt of the Leased Space Termination Payment and vacation of the Leased Space, the City and Tenant shall thereafter be released from any and all obligations under this Agreement with respect to the Leased Space except for such obligations which are expressly stated to survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 7 RENT AND FEES

7.1 Rent Payable.

A. In consideration of Tenant's Lease of the Leased Space and the License to operate its Concession in the Leased Space and the associated rights and privileges granted in this Agreement, Tenant must pay the following, without notice or demand, as rent and fees

40

(collectively, "Rent") as follows:

i) Base Rent: Beginning as of the Delivery Date of any portion of the Leased Space, the Base Rent for such Leased Space as set forth on Exhibit 2. The initial Base Rent applicable to each Leased Space will increase in each succeeding License Year by 3% following the initial License Year compounded annually. The annual Base Rent is payable in monthly installments and will be prorated for any partial Lease Year.

ii) License Fee. Beginning as of the first Date of Beneficial Occupancy of a Retail Space, an amount equal to the greater of a. or b.:

- a. Percentage Fee. The "Percentage Fee" is an amount equal to the product of the Percentage Fee Rates and Gross Revenues.
- b. Minimum Annual Guarantee. There is no "Minimum Annual Guarantee (MAG)" or "MAG" for the first and second Lease Years of the Term. The Minimum Annual Guarantee will be established beginning in the third Lease Year at an amount equal to 85% of the Percentage Fee payable in the second Lease Year. In the subsequent Lease Years of the Term, the MAG will equal 85% of the Percentage Fee calculated for the prior Lease Year but will never be less than the MAG established in the third Lease Year.

In the event the Leased Space is comprised of two or more distinct Retail Spaces that are opening for Concession operations on different dates, then Exhibit 2 must apportion the MAG payable for the entire Agreement among the various Retail Spaces. The MAG for each Retail Space shall become payable upon its DBO, prorated for any partial year. Upon the DBO of the final Retail Space, the entire MAG shall be payable, prorated for any partial year.

iii) Pre-Construction License Fee. In the event Tenant conducts, with the Commissioner's approval, concession operations in any portion of the Retail Space prior to the construction of the Improvements, then the "Pre-Construction License Fee" is an amount equal to 20% of Gross Revenues during each calendar month (or portion thereof) from the Delivery Date through the DBO of the Retail Space.

iv) Additional Rent. The Marketing Fee and Distribution Fee, if any, and any other charges payable to the City under this Agreement that are identified as Additional Rent. Failure by Tenant to pay Rent, or any portion thereof, when due is an Event of Default.

B. Impositions. Tenant must timely pay, as and when due, any and all taxes, assessments, fees, and charges levied, assessed or imposed by a governmental unit upon this Agreement, the Leased Space, Tenant's leasehold, Tenant's Concession business or upon Tenant's personal property, including but not limited to all permit fees and charges of a similar nature for Tenant's conduct of any business or undertaking in the Leased Space (collectively, "Impositions"). Tenant must provide the Concession Management Representative with copies of any business licenses or permits required for the Tenant to operate the Concession. Tenant must provide Commissioner a copy of all notices relating to leasehold taxes on the Leased Space within 30 days after receipt and must provide the Commissioner with a receipt indicating payment of leasehold taxes on the Leased Space when due. Nothing in this Agreement precludes Tenant from contesting the amount of an Imposition, including those taxes or charges enacted or promulgated by the City, but unless otherwise allowed by the entity imposing the tax or charge, Tenant must pay the tax or charge pending the judicial or administrative decision on the Tenant's contest. Failure of Tenant to pay any Imposition when due, except to the extent that Tenant is allowed to withhold payment while contesting the amount of the Imposition, will constitute an Event of Default. As provided in Section 4.1, Tenant acknowledges that the leasehold created under this Agreement is taxable, and while Tenant may contest the amount of the leasehold tax, Tenant shall not contest its applicability.

C. Rent under this Agreement is not considered to be a tax and is independent of any Imposition levied by the City on the Tenant's business. Further, the payment of the Rent under this Agreement is independent of each and every other covenant and agreement contained in this Agreement, and Tenant must pay all Rent without any set off, abatement, counterclaim or deduction whatsoever except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement. If Tenant is directed to move its Concession operations to a Relocation Space, and the City determines that the affected Retail Space is to be closed before completion of the Improvements in the Relocation Space, then adjustments will be made to the Minimum Annual Guarantee until Tenant begins Concession operations in the Relocation Space. Such adjustments will be in the same proportion as the Gross Revenues attributable to the Retail Space to be closed bears to the Gross Revenues for the entire Retail Space to which the Minimum Annual Guarantee applies. If actual Gross Revenue amounts are not available, the adjustment will be made based on the MAG per location estimates in Exhibit 2.

7.2 Time of Payments.

A. On or before the first day of each calendar month, prorated for any partial calendar month, beginning on the Delivery Date of the first Leased Space and continuing throughout the Term, Tenant must pay to the City the monthly installment of Base Rent owed pursuant to Section 7.1(A)(i).

B. On or before the first day of each calendar month, prorated for any partial calendar month, beginning on the DBO of the first Leased Space and continuing throughout the Term, Tenant must pay to the City:

(i) that portion of the Minimum Annual Guarantee as may be due pursuant to Section 7.1(A)(ii)(b);

C. On or before the 15th day of each month, beginning the month following the month in which the DBO of the first Leased Space occurs, Tenant must pay the City:

i) the amount, if any, by which the actual Percentage Fee for the preceding month pursuant to Section 7.1(A)(ii)(a) exceeds the Minimum Annual Guarantee payment that was made on the first day of the month;

ii) the Marketing Fee, Distribution Fee and additional rent, if any, based on the Gross Revenues of the preceding month or pre-determined amount; and

iii) any other charges payable to the City.

D. If the annual statement of Gross Revenues indicates that the Percentage Fee attributable to the preceding Lease Year exceeds the amount of all payments made by Tenant to the City for the Lease Year in question, then Tenant must pay the amount of the underpaid Percentage Fee to the City upon the submission of the annual statement of Gross Revenues. If the annual statement of Gross Revenues indicates that the Percentage Fee attributable to the preceding Lease Year is less than the amount of all License Fee payments made by Tenant to the City for the period in question, but the Percentage Fee still exceeds the MAG for that Lease Year, then Tenant will receive a credit against the next License Fee payment due under this Agreement for the amount by which the License Fee actually paid by Tenant exceeded the Percentage Fee attributable to the period.

3 Material Underpayment or Late Payment. Without waiving any other remedies available to the City, if:

i) Tenant underpaid Rent due in any calendar year by more than 5%, or

ii) Tenant failed to make any Rent payments within 5 days of the date due, then Tenant must pay, in addition to the amount due the City as Rent, interest on the amount of underpayment or late payment at the Default Rate. Interest on the amount underpaid accrues from the date on which the original payment was due until paid in full and shall be considered Additional Rent. The provision for the payment of interest does not constitute an authorization by the City of underpayment or late payment.

4 Reports.

A. Monthly. Tenant must furnish to the Commissioner on or before the 15th day of each calendar month falling wholly or in part within the Term of this Agreement a complete statement, certified by Tenant, of the amount of Gross Revenues derived from each Retail Space by Tenant during the preceding month.

B. Daily and/or Weekly. Tenant will furnish to the Commissioner daily and/or weekly sales reports, if requested, breaking down all sales and Gross Revenues by day, daypart (breakfast, lunch, dinner and late/overnight), selling category and by each separate Retail Space. If so requested, Tenant will provide Commissioner with statistical information regarding the number and type of transactions occurring at each Retail Space, in the form specified by the Commissioner. In addition to providing the City the foregoing daily and/or weekly reports, if requested, Tenant shall make all such reports available in an electronic.

searchable format acceptable to the City. The City may require Tenant to provide such electronic, searchable reports more or less frequently than other reports requested pursuant to this subsection.

C. Annually or more often.

- (i) Tenant also must furnish to Commissioner no later than March 1 of each Lease Year falling wholly or in part within the Term of this Agreement, and within 120 days after the expiration or termination of this Agreement, a complete statement of revenues certified by an independent certified public accountant engaged by Tenant, showing in all reasonable detail the amount of Gross Revenues made by Tenant in, on or from the Leased Space during the preceding Lease Year and copies of all returns and other information filed with respect to Illinois sales and use taxes as well as such other reasonable financial and statistical reports as the Commissioner may, from time to time, require by written notice to Tenant.
- (ii) The annual statement must include a breakdown of Gross Revenues on a month-by-month basis and an opinion of an independent certified public accountant that must include the following language, or language of similar purport:

"We, a firm of independent certified public accountants, have examined the accompanying statement reported to the City of Chicago by [] for the year ended relating to its operations at the Terminals pursuant to an Agreement dated , . Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and, accordingly, includes such tests of the accounting records and such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying statement showing gross revenues of $ presents accurately the amount of Gross Revenues, as defined in the Agreement, for the year ended ."

D. All such reports and statements must be prepared on a form approved by the Commissioner and must, among other things, provide a breakdown of the Gross Revenues by category of Products and an analysis of all Percentage Fees due and payable to the City with respect to the period in question. If Tenant fails to timely furnish to the Commissioner any monthly or annual statement required under this Agreement or if the independent certified public accountant's opinion is qualified or conditioned in any manner, the Commissioner has the right (but is not obligated) without notice, to conduct an audit of Tenant's books and records and to prepare the statements at Tenant's expense. Tenant must also provide the Commissioner with such other financial or statistical reports and information concerning the Leased Space or any part thereof, in the form as may be reasonably required from time to time by the Commissioner.

7.5 Books, Records and Audits.

A. Except as provided below, Tenant must prepare and maintain at its office full, complete and proper books, records and accounts in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures relating to and setting forth the Gross Revenues, including but not limited to Gross Revenues generated by sales of Products for cash, debit, check, gift certificate, credit, or any other form of compensation, and must require and cause its operations personnel to prepare and keep books, source documents, records and accounts sufficient to substantiate those kept by Tenant. The books and source documents to be kept by Tenant must include true copies of all federal, state and local tax returns filed with respect to Tenant's Concession operation and reports, records of inventories and receipts of Products, daily receipts from all sales and other pertinent original sales records and records of any other transactions conducted in or from the Leased Space by Tenant and any other persons conducting business in or from the Leased Space. Pertinent original sales records must include the following documents or their auditable electronic equivalents:

- i) cash register tapes; including tapes from temporary registers,
- ii) serially pre-numbered sales slips,
- iii) the original records of all mail and telephone orders at and to the Leased Space,
- iv) original records indicating that Products returned by customers was purchased at the Leased Space by the customers,
- v) memorandum receipts or other records of Products taken out on approval,
- vi) detailed original records of any exclusions or deductions from Gross Revenues,
- vii) sales tax records, and
- viii) such other sales records, if any, that would normally be examined by an independent accountant under accepted auditing standards in performing an audit of Tenant's Gross Revenues.

B. Tenant must record at the time of each sale or other transaction, all receipts, whether in physical form or electronic, from the sale or other transaction. The books, records and accounts, including any sales tax reports that Tenant may be required to furnish to any government or governmental agency, must at all reasonable times be open to the inspection; (including the making of copies or extracts) of the Commissioner, the Commissioner's auditor or other authorized representative or agent at the Leased Space or Tenant's other offices in Chicago for a period of at least three (3) years after the expiration of each calendar year falling wholly or in part within the Term.

C. The acceptance by the Commissioner of payments of any Percentage Fee is without prejudice to the Commissioner's right to conduct an examination of the Tenant's books and records relating to Gross Revenues and of inventories of Products at the Retail Space, in order to verify the amount of Gross Revenues made in and from the Retail Space.

D. After providing Tenant at least 3 days prior oral or written notice, the Commissioner may inspect the books and records of Tenant. Further, at its option, the Commissioner may at any reasonable time, upon no less than 10 days prior written notice to Tenant cause a complete audit to be made of Tenant's entire records relating to the Retail Space for the period covered by any statement issued by Tenant as above set forth. If the audit discloses that Tenant's statement of Gross Revenues is understated to the extent of:

- i) 3% or more, Tenant must promptly pay the City the cost of the audit in addition to the deficiency (and any interest on the deficiency at the Default Rate), which deficiency is payable in any event, and if
- ii) 5% or more, an Event of Default is considered to have occurred, and in addition to all other remedies available under this Agreement, at law, or in equity, the Commissioner has the right to terminate this Agreement immediately upon giving notice to Tenant, without any opportunity for Tenant to cure.

In addition to the foregoing, and in addition to all other remedies available to the City, if Tenant or the City's auditor schedules a date for an audit of Tenant's records and Tenant fails to be available or otherwise fails to comply with the reasonable requirements for the audit, Tenant must pay all reasonable costs and expenses associated with the scheduled audit.

7.6 Revenue Control. Upon the request of the Commissioner Tenant must make available monthly sales data for each Retail Space ("Point of Sale Data"), reflecting the amount of each sales transaction, items sold per transaction, time and date of the transaction, and specifying the sales category applicable to each item sold. At such time, if any, as computerized Point of Sale Data systems ("POS Systems") have been developed to a point where the Commissioner deems it necessary or desirable to install such a POS System, then Tenant must upon request and at its own expense, install such a POS System in the Retail Space or, if it already uses such a system, must use reasonable efforts to promptly cause the system to conform to the City's POS System, provided, in no event shall Tenant be required to disclose customer data in contravention of applicable laws. Tenant shall be given a reasonable amount of time, not to exceed one year, to accomplish the foregoing.

7.7 Lien. In addition to any liens as may arise under Illinois law, the City has a contractual lien under this Agreement on all property, including Tenant personal property located on the Leased Space, but excluding any Products that is subject to floor plan financing, as security for non-payment of any Rent due.

ARTICLE 8 INSURANCE, INDEMNITY AND SECURITY

8.1 Insurance. Tenant must, at its sole expense, procure and maintain at all times during the Term of this Agreement, and during any time period following expiration or termination of this Agreement during which Tenant is holding over or Tenant is required to return to the Leased Space for any reason whatsoever, the types of insurance specified in Exhibit 7 covering all operations under this Agreement, with insurance companies authorized to do business in the State of Illinois.

8.2 Indemnification.

A. Except where this indemnity clause would be found to be inoperative or unenforceable under the Construction Contract Indemnification for Negligence Act, 740 ILCS 35/0.01 et seq. ("Anti-Indemnity Act"), Tenant must defend, indemnify, keep and hold harmless the City, its officers, representatives, elected and appointed officials, agents and employees, from and against any and all Losses.

B. "Losses" means, individually and collectively, liabilities of every kind, including losses, damages, and reasonable costs, payments and expenses (such as, but not limited to, court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements), claims, demands, actions, suits, proceedings, judgments or settlements, any or all of which in any way arise out of or relate to the acts or omissions of Tenant, its employees, agents, subtenants, and Subcontractors.

C. At the City Corporation Counsel's option, Tenant must defend all suits brought upon all such Losses and must pay all costs and expenses incidental to them, but the City has the right, at its option, to participate, at its own cost, in the defense of any suit, without relieving Tenant of any of its obligations under this Agreement. Tenant must not make any settlement without the prior written consent to it by the City Corporation Counsel if the settlement requires any action on the part of the City or in any way involving the Airport.

D. To the extent permissible by law, Tenant waives any limits to the amount of its obligations to indemnify, defend or contribute to any sums due under any Losses, including any limits applicable to a claim by any employee of Tenant that may be subject to the Workers' Compensation Act, 820 ILCS 305/1 et seq or any other related law or judicial decision (such as, Kotecki v. Cyclops Welding Corporation, 146 Ill. 2d 155 (1991)). The waiver, however, does not require Tenant to indemnify the City for the City's own negligence to the extent doing so would violate the Anti-Indemnity Act. The City, however, does not waive any limitations it may have on its liability under the Worker's Compensation Act or under the Illinois Pension Code.

E The indemnities contained in this section survive expiration or termination of " this Agreement, for matters occurring or arising during the Term of this Agreement or as the result of or during the holding over of Tenant beyond the Term. Tenant acknowledges that the requirements set forth in this section to indemnify, keep and save harmless and defend the City are apart from and not limited by the Tenant's duties under this Agreement, including the insurance and Security requirements.

8.3 Security

A. Form of Security.

(i) Tenant must deliver to the City no later than the earlier to occur of: a) 30 business days after the Effective Date or b) the Delivery Date for the first Leased Space, an irrevocable, unconditional sight draft Letter of Credit in favor of the City. The face amount of the Letter of Credit and any replacements or renewals of it must be maintained by Tenant, through and including the date that is 180 days after the expiration of the Term or termination of this Agreement, as follows: the face amount of the Letter of Credit must equal a) until the third full Lease Year of the Term, $25,000, and b) during and after the third full Lease Year of the Term, 25% of third full Lease Year MAG in the form of an irrevocable letter of credit issued in favor of the City or a cash deposit. If a letter of credit is provided as the form security, it will be required to be adjusted throughout the Term, as the MAG increases or decreases. The Letter of Credit must be in the form set forth in Exhibit 6 or as otherwise approved by the Corporation Counsel.

ii) In lieu of the Letter of Credit, Tenant may provide cash or a cashier's check in the same amount for immediate deposit in the City's accounts. The Letter of Credit, cash or cashier's check, as applicable, is referred to in this Agreement as the "Security." The original Letter of Credit, and all replacements of it, must be issued with an expiry date of at least one year after their respective dates of issuance. The Security secures the faithful performance by Tenant of all of Tenant's obligations under this Agreement. The Commissioner is entitled to draw on any such Letter of Credit unless proof of renewal of the Letter of Credit or a replacement Letter of Credit in form and substance satisfactory to the Comptroller has been furnished to the Commissioner at least 30 days before its expiration date. The City will hold the proceeds as a cash Security to secure the full and faithful performance of Tenant's obligations under this Agreement. The Commissioner is not obligated to pay or credit Tenant with interest on any Security.

iii) The Commissioner also is entitled to draw on the Letter of Credit in whole or in part upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, which such Event of Default remains uncured after any applicable cure period, in which event the Commissioner is entitled to apply or retain all or any part of the proceeds of it or any cash or other Security deposited by Tenant and held by the City for the payment of any obligation of Tenant arising before or after the Event of Default; provided, the Commissioner is not entitled to draw on the Letter of Credit if such Event of Default permits cure and has been cured.

iv) The Letter of Credit must provide that the Commissioner may draw upon the Letter of Credit in whole or in part upon the delivery by the Commissioner to the issuer of the Letter of Credit of a demand for payment, purportedly signed by the Commissioner, together with a written statement that the Commissioner is entitled to draw upon the Letter of Credit under the terms of this Agreement. If amounts are drawn upon the Letter of Credit or amounts of a cash Security are applied by the Commissioner in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, Tenant must reinstate the Letter of Credit or cash Security to its full amount required in this Agreement within 5 days following notification by the Commissioner of the City's draw upon the Letter of Credit or use of the cash Security. The rights reserved to the Commissioner or the City under the Letter of Credit or any cash Security are in addition to any rights they may have under this Agreement or under law.

B. Qualified Issuers. The Letter of Credit called for in this Agreement must be issued by companies or financial institutions having a rating of "A" or better as determined by Standard and Poors or by Moody's Investors Service, Inc., or a net worth of at least $500,000,000, and must have an office in Chicago where the Commissioner may draw on the Letter of Credit. The Commissioner also reserves the right to order Tenant to immediately close some or all of the Leased Space until the Letter of Credit is in place and effective.

C. Right to Require Replacement of Letter of Credit. If the financial condition of any Letter of Credit issuer issuing the Letter of Credit materially and adversely changes, the Commissioner may, at any time, require that the Letter of Credit be replaced with a Letter of Credit from another institution and in accordance with the requirements set forth in this section.

D. No Excuse from Performance. None of the provisions contained in this Agreement nor in the Letter of Credit required under this Agreement excuse Tenant from faithfully performing in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement or limit the liability of Tenant under this Agreement for any and all damages in excess of the amounts of the Letter of Credit.

E. Non-Waiver. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the failure of the Commissioner to draw upon the Letter of Credit required under this Agreement or to require Tenant to replace the Letter of Credit at any time or times when the Commissioner has the right to do so under this Agreement does not waive or modify the Commissioner's rights to draw upon the Letter of Credit and to require Tenant to maintain or, as the case may be, replace the Letter of Credit, all as provided in this Section.

ARTICLE 9 DEFAULT, REMEDIES AND TERMINATION

9.1 Events of Default. The following (A) through (N) constitute Events of Default by Tenant under this Agreement. The Commissioner will notify Tenant in writing of any event that the Commissioner believes to be an Event of Default. Tenant will be given an opportunity to cure the Event of Default within a reasonable period of time, as determined by the Commissioner, but not to exceed 30 days after written notice of the Event of Default; provided that (i) determined by the Commissioner, but not to exceed 30 days after which notice shall constitute an Event of Default, provided, that (i) if a provision of this Agreement provides for a different cure period for a particular Event of Default, that different cure period will apply; (ii) if a provision of this Agreement does not expressly allow a right to cure a particular Event of Default, there will be no right to cure; and (iii) if neither (i) or (ii) apply and if the promise, covenant, term, condition or other nonmonetary obligation or duty cannot be cured within the time period granted by the Commissioner, but Tenant promptly begins and diligently and continuously proceeds to cure the failure within the time period granted and after that continues to diligently and continuously proceed to cure the failure, and the failure is reasonably susceptible of cure within 45 days from delivery of the notice, Tenant will have the additional time, not in any event to exceed 45 days, to cure the failure.

A. Any material misrepresentation made by Tenant to the City in the inducement to City to enter this Agreement or in the performance of this Agreement. There is no right to cure this Event of Default.

B. Tenant's failure to make any payment in full when due under this Agreement and failure to cure the default within five days after the City gives written notice of the nonpayment to Tenant. In addition, Tenant's failure to make any such payment within five days after the written notice more than three times in any Lease Year constitutes an Event of Default without the necessity of the City giving notice of the fourth failure to Tenant or allowing Tenant any opportunity to cure it.

C. Tenant's failure to promptly and fully keep, fulfill, comply with, observe, or perform any promise, covenant, term, condition or other non-monetary obligation or duty of Tenant contained in this Agreement.

D. Tenant's failure to promptly and fully perform any obligation or duty, or to comply with any restriction of Tenant contained in this Agreement concerning Transfer or Change in Ownership, whether directly or indirectly, of Tenant's rights or interests in this Agreement or of the ownership of Tenant.

E. Tenant's failure to provide or maintain the insurance coverage required under this Agreement (including any material non-compliance with the requirements) and the failure to cure the Event of Default within two days following oral or written notice from the Commissioner; or, if the noncompliance is non-material, the failure to cure the Event of Default within 20 days after the Commissioner gives written notice. The Commissioner, in the Commissioner's sole discretion, will determine if noncompliance is material.

F. Tenant's failure to conduct Concession operations in any Retail Space at all times Tenant is required to do so under this Agreement.

G. Tenant's failure to comply with the Value Pricing policy.

H. Tenant's failure to begin or to complete its Improvements on a timely basis or to timely open for business in the Leased Space or any portion of it as required herein.

I. An Event of Default by Tenant or any Affiliate under any other agreement it may presently have or may enter into with the City during the Term of this Agreement and failure to cure the default within any applicable cure period.

J. Tenant or Guarantor, if any, does any of the following and the action affects Tenant's ability to carry out the terms of this Agreement:

- i) becomes insolvent, as the term is defined under Section 101 of the Bankruptcy Code as amended from time to time; or
- ii) fails to pay its debts generally as they mature; or

- iii) seeks the benefit of any present or future federal, state or foreign insolvency statute; or
- iv) makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or

v) files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy or a petition or answer seeking an arrangement of its indebtedness under the Bankruptcy Code or under any other law or statute of the United States or of any State or any foreign jurisdiction; or

vi) consents to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, liquidator or other similar official, of all or substantially all of its property.

K. An order for relief is entered by or against Tenant or Guarantor (if any) under any chapter of the Bankruptcy Code or similar law in any foreign jurisdiction and is not stayed or vacated within 60 days following its issuance.

L. Tenant is dissolved.

M. A violation of law that results in a guilty plea, a plea of nolo contendere, guilty finding, or conviction of a criminal offense, by Tenant, or any of its directors, officers, partners or key management employees directly or indirectly relating to this Agreement, and that may threaten, in the sole judgment of Commissioner, Tenant's performance of this Agreement in accordance with its terms.

N. Any failure to perform, act, event or omission that is specifically identified as an Event of Default elsewhere in this Agreement.

9.2 Remedies.

If an Event of Default occurs and is not cured by Tenant in the time allowed, in addition to any other remedies provided for in this Agreement, including the remedy of Self-help as provided in Section 9.3, the City through the Commissioner or other appropriate City official may exercise any or all of the following remedies:

A. Terminate this Agreement with respect to all or a portion of the Leased Space and exclude Tenant from that part of the Leased Space affected by the termination. If the Commissioner elects to terminate this Agreement, the Commissioner may, at the Commissioner's sole option, serve notice upon Tenant that this Agreement ceases and expires and becomes absolutely void with respect to the Leased Space or that part identified in the notice on the date specified in the notice, to be no less than five days after the date of the notice, without any right on the part of Tenant after that to save the forfeiture by payment of any sum due or by the performance of any term, provision, covenant, agreement or condition broken. At the expiration of the time limit in the notice, this Agreement and the Term of this Agreement, as well as the right, title and interest of Tenant under this Agreement, wholly ceases and expires and becomes void with respect to the Leased Space identified in the notice in the same manner.

respect to the Leased Space identified in such notice in the same manner and with the same force and effect (except as to Tenant's liability) as if the date fixed in the notice were the date in this Agreement stated for expiration of the Term with respect to the Leased Space identified in such notice.

B. Recover all Rent, including Additional Rent and any other amounts due that have accrued and are then due and payable and also all damages available at law or under this Agreement. If the Agreement is terminated, whether in its entirety or with respect to a part of the Leased Space, the damages will include damages for the balance of the scheduled Term, based upon any and all amounts that Tenant would have been obligated to pay for the balance of the Term with respect to the Leased Space, or if this Agreement is terminated with respect to a portion of the Leased Space, that portion of the Leased Space affected by the termination, calculated as provided in this Agreement or, if not fixed, as reasonably estimated and prorated among the various portions of the Leased Space. In determining the amount of damages for the period after termination, the Commissioner may make the determination based upon the sum of any future payments that would have been due to the City, for the full Lease Year immediately before the Event of Default. All amounts that would have been due and payable after termination for the balance of the Term with respect to all or a portion of the Leased Space must be discounted to present value at the Default Rate existing as of the date of termination. The Commissioner may declare all amounts to be immediately due and payable.

C. At any time after the occurrence of any uncured Event of Default, whether or not the Lease under this Agreement has been terminated, reenter and repossess the Leased Space and/or any part of it with or without process of law, so long as no undue force is used, and the City has the option, but not the obligation, to re-lease all or any part of the Leased Space. The City, however, is not required to accept any Tenant proposed by Tenant or to observe any instruction given the City about such a re-lease. The failure of the City to re-lease the Leased Space or any part or parts of it does not relieve or affect Tenant's liability under this Agreement nor is the City liable for failure to re-lease. Reentry or taking possession of the Leased Space does not constitute an election on the City's part to terminate this Agreement unless a written notice of the election by the Commissioner is given to Tenant. Even if the City re-leases without termination, the Commissioner may at any time thereafter elect to terminate this Agreement for any previous uncured Event of Default. For the purpose of re-leasing, the Commissioner may decorate or make repairs, changes, alterations or additions in or to the Leased Space to the extent deemed by the Commissioner to be desirable or convenient, and the cost of the decoration, repairs, changes, alterations or additions will be charged to and payable by Tenant as Additional Rent under this Agreement. Any sums collected by the City from any new Tenant obtained on account of Tenant will be credited against the balance of the Rent due under this Agreement. Tenant must pay the City monthly, on the days when payments of Rent would have been payable under this Agreement, the amount due under this Agreement less the amount obtained by the City from the new Tenant, if any.

D. Enter upon the Leased Space, distraint upon and remove from it all inventory, equipment, machinery, trade fixtures and personal property of any kind or nature, whether owned by Tenant or by others, and to proceed without judicial decree, writ of execution or assistance or involvement of constables or the City's and Tenant's officers, to conduct a private sale, by auction or sealed bid without restriction. Tenant waives the benefit of all laws, whether now in force or later enacted, exempting any of Tenant's property on the Leased Space or elsewhere from distraint, levy or sale in any legal proceedings taken by the City to enforce any rights under this Agreement.

E. Seek and obtain specific performance, a temporary restraining order or an injunction, or any other appropriate equitable remedy.

F. Seek and obtain money damages; including special, exemplary, incidental and consequential damages.

G. Deem Tenant and Affiliates non-responsible in future contracts or concessions to be awarded by the City.

H. Declare Tenant and Affiliates in default under any other existing contracts or agreements they might have with the City and to exercise any remedies available under those other contracts or agreements.

I. Accept the assignment of any and all Subcontracts between Tenant and the design and construction Subcontractors.

J. Require Tenant to terminate a Subcontractor that is causing breaches of this Agreement.

9.3 Commissioner's Right to Perform Tenant's Obligations.

A. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default that Tenant has failed to cure in the time provided, the Commissioner may, but is not obligated to, make any payment or perform any act required to be performed by Tenant under this Agreement in any manner deemed expedient by the Commissioner for the purpose of correcting the condition that gave rise to the Event of Default ("Self-help"). The Commissioner's inaction never constitutes a waiver of any right accruing to the City under this Agreement nor do the provisions of this section or any exercise by the Commissioner of Self-help under this Agreement cure any Event of Default. Any exercise of Self-help does not limit the right of any other City department or agency to enforce applicable City ordinances or regulations.

B. The Commissioner, in making any payment that Tenant has failed to pay:

i) relating to taxes, may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate, without inquiry into the validity of any tax, assessment, sale, forfeiture, tax lien or title or claim;

ii) for the discharge, compromise or settlement of any lien, may do so without inquiry as to the validity or amount of any claim for lien that may be asserted; and

(iii) in connection with the completion of construction, furnishing or equipping of the Leased Space or the licensing, operation or management of the Leased Space or the payment of any of its operating costs, may do so in such amounts and to such persons as the Commissioner may deem appropriate.

Nothing contained in this Agreement requires the Commissioner to advance monies for any purpose.

C. If Tenant fails to perform its obligations under this Agreement to maintain and operate the Leased Space in accordance with specified standards within 3 days following written notice from the Commissioner, or in the event of a serious health or safety concern or in an emergency (in which case no notice is required) the Commissioner may, but is serious health or safety concern or in an emergency (in which case no notice is required) the Commissioner may, but is not obligated to, direct the Department to perform or cause the performance of any such obligation in any manner deemed expedient by the Commissioner for the purpose of correcting the condition in question.

D. All sums paid by the City under the provisions of this Section and all necessary and incidental costs, expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with the performance of any such act by the Commissioner, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate, from the date of the City's payment until the date paid by Tenant, are deemed Additional Rent under this Agreement and are payable to the City within 10 days after demand therefor, or at the option of the Commissioner, may be added to any Rent then due or later becoming due under this Agreement, and Tenant covenants to pay any such sum or sums with interest at the Default Rate.

9.4 Effect of Default and Remedies

A. Tenant, for itself and on behalf of any and all persons claiming through or under it (including creditors of all kinds), waives and surrenders all right and privilege that they or any of them might have under or by reason of any present or future law, to redeem the Leased Space or to have a continuance of this Agreement for the Term, as it may have been extended, after having been dispossessed or ejected by process of law or under the terms of this Agreement or after the termination of this Agreement as provided in this Agreement.

B. The City's waiver of any one right or remedy provided in this Agreement does not constitute a waiver of any other right or remedy then or later available to the City under this Agreement or otherwise. A failure by the City or the Commissioner to take any action with respect to any Event of Default or violation of any of the terms, covenants or conditions of this Agreement by Tenant will not in any respect limit, prejudice, diminish or constitute a waiver of any rights of the City to act with respect to any prior, contemporaneous or later violation or Event of Default or with respect to any continuation or repetition of the original violation or Event of Default. The acceptance by the City of payment for any period or periods after an Event of Default or violation of any of the terms, conditions and covenants of this Agreement does not constitute a waiver or diminution of, nor create any limitation upon any right of the City under this Agreement to terminate this Agreement for subsequent violation or Event of Default, or for continuation or repetition of the original violation or Event of Default. Tenant has no claim of any kind against the City by reason of the City's exercise of any of its rights as set forth in this Agreement or by reason of any act incidental or related to the exercise of rights.

C. All rights and remedies of the City under this Agreement are separate and cumulative, and none excludes any other right or remedy of the City set forth in this Agreement or allowed by law or in equity. No termination of this Agreement or the taking or recovery of the Leased Space deprives the City of any of its remedies against Tenant for Rent, including Additional Rent or other amounts due or for damages for the Tenant's breach of this Agreement. Every right and remedy of the City under this Agreement survives the expiration of the Term or the termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 10 SPECIAL CONDITIONS

10.1 Warranties and Representations. In connection with the execution of this Agreement, Tenant warrants and represents statements (A) through (L) below are true as of the Effective Date. B. 10.3 Licenses and Permits. Tenant must in a timely manner consistent with its obligations under this Agreement, secure and maintain, or cause to be secured and maintained at its expense, the permits, licenses, authorizations and approvals as are necessary under federal, state or local law for Tenant, its subtenants (if any), and Subcontractors: to operate the Concession; to construct, operate, use and maintain the Leased Space; and otherwise to comply with the terms of this Agreement and the privileges granted under this Agreement. Tenant must promptly provide copies of any required licenses and permits to the Commissioner and to the Concession Management Representative.

4 Confidentiality. Except as may be required by law during or after the performance of this Agreement, Tenant will not disseminate any non-public information regarding this Agreement or the Concession operations without the prior written consent of the Commissioner, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. If Tenant is presented with a request for documents by any administrative agency or with a subpoena duces tecum regarding any documents that may be in its possession by reason of this Agreement, Tenant must immediately give notice to the City's Corporation Counsel. The City may contest the process by any means available to it before the records or documents are submitted to a court or other third party. Tenant, however, is not obligated to withhold the delivery beyond that time as may be ordered by the court or administrative agency, and unless the subpoena or request is quashed or the time to produce is otherwise extended. Tenant must require each prospective Subcontractor to abide by such restrictions in connection with their respective Subcontracts.

5 Subcontracts and Assignments.

A. The City expressly reserves the right to assign or otherwise transfer all or any part of its interest under this Agreement, at any time and to any third party. Upon assignment to any successor or assignee of the City's right, title and interest in and to the Airport, the City is forever relieved, from and after the date of the assignment, of any and all obligations arising under or out of this Agreement, to the extent the obligations are assumed by the successor or assignee.

B. Limits on Tenant's transfers and changes in ownership:

i) Tenant may not sell, assign, sublease, sublicense, convey, pledge, encumber or otherwise transfer (individually and collectively, "Transfer") all or any part of its rights or interests in or to this Agreement, the License, the Leased Space, the Term, or otherwise permit any third party to use the Leased Space, without prior consent of the City, which consent may be given or denied in the City's sole and absolute discretion. Consent by the City does not relieve Tenant from obtaining further consent from the City for any subsequent Transfer. Transfers involving all of Tenant's interest in this Agreement require approval of the City Council. Transfers of less than all of Tenant's interest in this Agreement require approval of the Commissioner. Consent by the City to any Transfer does not relieve Tenant from the requirement of obtaining consent from the City for any subsequent Transfer. Transfers that have the effect of granting a third party a security interest in this Agreement or the Leased Space as collateral for Tenant financing are strictly prohibited and, if entered into by Tenant, are an Event of Default.

ii) Except as otherwise provided below, any transaction involving a change of any ownership interest in Tenant, whether to an Affiliate, subsidiary or otherwise, or the transfer of an interest in any holder of a direct or indirect ownership interest in Tenant, or any merger or consolidation of Tenant (individually and collectively, "Change in Ownership"), is subject to the consent of:

- a. City Council, in its sole discretion, if the Change in Ownership involves a 100% Change in Ownership of Tenant, or
- b. the Commissioner, in the Commissioner's reasonable discretion, if the Change in Ownership involves less than a 100% Change in Ownership of Tenant.

iii) If Tenant (or, if Tenant is a joint venture or other entity comprised of other entities, any of the entities comprising Tenant) is a corporation whose shares are traded at arms-length on a public exchange, any Change in Ownership involving 5% or more of the shares of Tenant's (or if Tenant is a joint venture or other entity comprised of other entities, of any of the entities comprising Tenant) stock is subject to the City's consent as set forth above. In that event, Tenant must provide the City with such prior notice of a Change in Ownership as is not prohibited by law or by a confidentiality agreement executed in connection with the proposed Change in Ownership. If such prior notice is not permitted, then Tenant must notify the City as soon as possible after the Change in Ownership to obtain the City's consent to the Change in Ownership, which consent the City may grant or deny in its sole discretion. If Tenant (or if Tenant is a joint venture or other entity comprised of other entities, of any of the entities comprising Tenant) is a publicly traded corporation, a Change in Ownership of less than 5% does not require consent as set forth in (ii) above unless a series of such transactions results in a cumulative Change in Ownership of 5% or more.

iv) Consent by the City to any Change in Ownership does not relieve Tenant (or if Tenant is a joint venture, any of the entities comprising Tenant) from the requirement of obtaining consent from the City for any subsequent Change in Ownership.

v) Any Transfer or Change in Ownership made without the City's prior consent is an Event of Default subject to all remedies, including termination of this Agreement at the City's option, and does not relieve Tenant of any of its obligations under this Agreement for the balance of the Term. This section applies to prohibit a Transfer, such as an assignment by a receiver or trustee in any federal or state bankruptcy, insolvency or other proceedings or by operation of law. Under no circumstances will any failure by the Commissioner to act on or submit any request by Tenant or to take any other action as provided in this Agreement be deemed or construed to constitute consent to the Tenant's request by the Commissioner or by the City Council. If the City is found to have breached its obligations under this Section, then Tenant's sole remedy is to terminate this Agreement without liability to either the City or Tenant.

vi) Notwithstanding any permitted Transfer by Tenant of any rights under this Agreement, Tenant remains fully liable for all payments due to the City under this Agreement and for the performance of all other obligations under this Agreement. In the event of a permitted Transfer of the License or all or any portion of the Leased Space or Transfer of all or any portion of the Term, where the fees payable to Tenant exceed the Rent or pro rata portion of the Rent under this Agreement, as the case may be, for the License, Leased Space or Term, Tenant must pay the City monthly, as Additional Rent, at the same time as the monthly installments of other Rent under this Agreement that are payable in monthly installments, the excess of the fees payable to Tenant pursuant to the Transfer over the Rent payable to the City under this Agreement.

- vii) Any or all of the requests by Tenant for consents under this Section must be made in writing and provided to the Commissioner (a) at least 60 days prior to the proposed Transfer or Change in Ownership if the Commissioner's consent is required; and (b) at least 120 days prior to a proposed Transfer or Change in Ownership if the City Council's consent is required, unless the City determines that more time is required. All requests for consent must include copies of the proposed documents of Transfer or Change in Ownership, evidence of the financial condition, reputation and business experience of the proposed transferee, completed Economic Disclosure Statements and Affidavits for all involved parties in the form then required by the City, and such other documents as the City may reasonably require to evaluate the proposed Transfer or Change in Ownership. All documents of Transfer or Change in Ownership must completely disclose any and all monetary considerations payable to Tenant in connection with the Transfer or Change in Ownership. Consent to a Transfer or Change in Ownership proposed under this Agreement is in the sole discretion of the City and, as a condition of the consent, the City may require a written acknowledgment from Tenant that, notwithstanding the proposed Transfer or Change in Ownership, Tenant remains fully and completely liable for all obligations of Tenant under this Agreement; however, Tenant shall remain so liable regardless of whether or not the City requests a written acknowledgment.

viii) If any Transfer or Change in Ownership under this Agreement occurs, whether or not prohibited by this section, the Commissioner may collect the Rent payable under this Agreement from any transferee of Tenant and in that event will apply the net amount collected to the amounts payable by Tenant under this Agreement without, by doing so, releasing Tenant from this Agreement or any of its obligations under this Agreement. If any Transfer or Change in Ownership occurs without the consent of the City and the City collects compensation from any transferee of Tenant and applies the net amount collected in the manner described in the preceding sentence, the actions by the City are not deemed to be waiver of the covenant contained in this section and do not constitute acceptance of the transferee by the City.

ix) All reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the City in connection with any prohibited or permitted Transfer or Change in Ownership must be borne by Tenant and are payable to the City as Additional Rent.

C. The provisions of this Agreement, to the extent applicable, are deemed a part of any sublease or contract between Tenant and a subtenant or Subcontractor.

D. Assignment of Subleases, Sublicenses and Subcontracts.

(i) Tenant shall assign to the City all of Tenant's right, title and interest in and to each and every permitted sublease and sublicense and each and every Subcontract with a design and construction Subcontractor, now or later executed by Tenant in connection with the License or the Leased Space or any part of it. In connection with the assignment, Tenant must deliver all originally executed subleases, sublicenses and Subcontracts to the Commissioner. Any such assignment will become operative and effective only, when and if the City accepts the assignment by giving written notice to Tenant and:

- a. either this Agreement and the Term of this Agreement or Tenant's right to possession under this Agreement are terminated pursuant to Article 9; or
- b. in the event of the issuance and execution of a dispossession warrant or of any other re-entry or repossession by the City under the provisions of this Agreement; or
- c. if an Event of Default exists.

- (ii) At the time, if any, that the assignment becomes effective as provided above, the subtenants or Subcontractors will be deemed to have waived all claims, suits, and causes of action against the City arising out of or relating to the period before the effective date of the assignment. Further, in no instance will the City be responsible for any claims by a subtenant or Subcontractor arising from or related to any fraud, misrepresentation, negligence or willful or intentionally tortious conduct by Tenant, its officials, employees, or agents.

10.6 Compliance with Laws. Tenant must at all times observe and comply with all applicable laws, statutes, ordinances, rules, regulations, court orders and executive or administrative orders and directives of the federal, state and local government, now existing or later in effect (whether or not the law also requires compliance by other parties), including the Americans with Disabilities Act and Environmental Laws, that may in any manner affect the performance of this Agreement (collectively, "Laws"), and must not use the Leased Space, or allow the Leased Space to be used, in violation of any Laws or in any manner that would impose liability on the City or Tenant under any Laws. Tenant must notify the City within seven days of receiving notice from a competent governmental authority that Tenant or any of its Subcontractors may have violated any Laws. Provisions required by any Law to be inserted in this Agreement are deemed inserted in this Agreement whether or not they appear in this Agreement or, upon application by either party, this Agreement will be amended to make the insertion; however, in no event will the failure to insert the provisions before or after this Agreement is signed prevent its enforcement. Without limiting the foregoing, Tenant covenants that it will comply with all Laws, including but not limited to the following:

A. In connection with Section 2-92-320 of the Municipal Code, Tenant has executed an Economic Disclosure Statement and Affidavit which is attached to this Agreement as Exhibit 11 and which contains a certification as required under the Illinois Criminal Code, 720 ILCS 5/33E, and under the Illinois Municipal Code, 65 ILCS 5/8-10-1 et seq. Ineligibility under Section 2-92-320 of the Municipal Code continues for 3 years following any conviction or admission of a violation of Section 2-92-320. For purposes of Section 2-92-320, when an official, agent or employee of a business entity has committed any offense under the section on behalf of such an entity and under the direction or authorization of a responsible official of the entity, the business entity is chargeable with the conduct. If, after Tenant enters into a contractual relationship with a Subcontractor, it is determined that the contractual relationship is in violation of this subsection, Tenant must immediately cease to use the Subcontractor. All Subcontracts must provide that Tenant is entitled to recover all payments made by it to the Subcontractor if, before or subsequent to the beginning of the contractual relationship, the use of the Subcontractor would be violative of this subsection.

B. It is the duty of Tenant and all officers, directors, agents, partners, and employees of Tenant to cooperate with the Inspector General and the Legislative Inspector General of the City in any investigation or hearing undertaken under Chapter 2-56 or Chapter 2-55 of the Municipal Code, respectively. Tenant understands and will abide by all provisions of Chapters 2-55 and 2-56 of the Municipal Code. Tenant must inform all Subcontractors of this provision and require under each Subcontract compliance herewith by each Subcontractor as to each such Subcontractor and all of its officers, directors, agents, partners and employees.

C. Tenant must not use or allow the Leased Space to be used for the release, storage, use, treatment, disposal or other handling of any hazardous substance, as defined in any Environmental Laws, except in full compliance with all Environmental Laws. Tenant must not use or allow the Leased Space to be used for the storage of any such hazardous substances except small amounts of cleaning fluids, business equipment materials (such as copy machine toner) and other small amounts of such hazardous substances customarily handled or used in connection with the Concession operations, all of which must be stored and used in compliance with all applicable Environmental Laws. Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, Tenant must surrender the Leased Space to the City free from the presence and contamination of any hazardous substances.

D. In accordance with Section 11-4-1600(e) of the Municipal Code of Chicago, Tenant warrants and represents that it, and to the best of its knowledge, its Subcontractors have not violated and are not in violation of the following sections of the Municipal Code (collectively, the "Waste Sections"):

- 7-28-390 Dumping on public way-Violation-Penalty;
- 7-28-440 Dumping on real estate without permit
- 1-4-1410 Disposal in waters prohibited;
- 1-4-1420 Ballast tank, bilge tank or other discharge;
- 1-4-1450 Gas manufacturing residue;
- 1-4-1500 Treatment and disposal of solid or liquid waste;
- 1-4-1530 Compliance with rules and regulations required;
- 1-4-1550 Operational requirements;
- 1-4-1560 Screening requirements; and

any other sections listed in Section 11-4-1600(e), as it may be amended from time to time.

During the period while this Agreement is executory, Tenant's or any Subcontractor's violation of the Waste Sections, whether or not relating to the performance of this Agreement, constitutes a breach of and an Event of Default under this Agreement, for which the opportunity to cure, if curable, will be granted only at the sole designation of the Commissioner. Such breach and Event of Default entitles the City to all remedies under the Agreement, at law or in equity. This section does not limit the Tenant's and its Subcontractors' duty to comply with all Environmental Laws, in effect now or later, and whether or not they appear in this Agreement. Non-compliance with these terms and conditions may be used by the City as grounds for the termination of this Agreement and may further affect the Tenant's eligibility for future City agreements.

E. Section 2-92-586 of the Municipal Code: The City encourages Tenant to use contractors and subcontractors that are firms owned or operated by individuals with disabilities, as defined by section 2-92-586 of the Municipal Code of the City of Chicago, where not otherwise prohibited by federal or state law.

F. Prohibition on Certain Contributions (Mayoral Executive Order No. 2011-4):

1. Licensee agrees that Tenant, any person or entity who directly or indirectly has an ownership or beneficial interest in Tenant of more than 7.5 percent ("Owners"), spouses and domestic partners of such Owners, Tenant's Subcontractors, any person or entity who directly or indirectly has an ownership or beneficial interest in any Subcontractor of more than 7.5 percent ("Sub-owners") and spouses and domestic partners of such Sub-owners (Tenant and all the other preceding classes of persons and entities are together, the "Identified Parties"), shall not make a contribution of any amount to the Mayor of the City of Chicago (the "Mayor") or to the Mayor's political fund-raising committee (i) after execution of this bid, proposal or Agreement by Tenant, (ii) while this Agreement or any Other Contract is executory, (iii) during the term of this Agreement or any Other Contract between Tenant and the City, or (iv) during any period while an extension of this Agreement or any Other Contract is being sought or negotiated.

2. Tenant represents and warrants that since the date of public advertisement of the specification, request for qualifications, request for proposals or request for information (or any combination of those requests) or, if not competitively procured, from the date the City approached the Tenant or the date the Tenant approached the City, as applicable, regarding the formulation of this Agreement, no Identified Parties have made a contribution of any amount to the Mayor or to his political fund-raising committee.

3. Tenant agrees that it shall not: (a) coerce, compel or intimidate its employees to make a contribution of any amount to the Mayor or to the Mayor's political fund-raising committee; (b) reimburse its employees for a contribution of any amount made to the Mayor or to the Mayor's political fund-raising committee; or (c) bundle or solicit others to bundle contributions to the Mayor or to the Mayor's political fund-raising committee.

4. Tenant agrees that the Identified Parties must not engage in any conduct whatsoever designed to intentionally violate this provision or Mayoral Executive Order No. 05-I or to entice, direct or solicit others to intentionally violate this provision or Mayoral Executive Order No. 2011-4.

5. Tenant agrees that a violation of, non-compliance with, misrepresentation with respect to, or breach of any covenant or warranty under this provision or violation of Mayoral Executive Order No. 2011-4 constitutes a breach and default under this Agreement, and under any Other Contract for which no opportunity to cure will be granted. Such breach and default entitles the City to all remedies (including without limitation termination for default) under this Agreement, under Other Contract, at law and in equity. This provision amends any Other Contract and supersedes any inconsistent provision contained therein.

6. If Tenant violates this provision or Mayoral Executive Order No. 2011-4 prior to award of the Agreement resulting from this specification, the Chief Procurement Officer may reject Tenant's bid.

7. For purposes of this provision:

"Bundle" means to collect contributions from more than one source which are then delivered by one person to the Mayor or to the Mayor's political fund-raising committee.

"Other Contract" means any other agreement with the City of Chicago to which Tenant is a party that is (i) formed under the authority of chapter 2-92 of the Municipal Code of Chicago; (ii) entered into for the purchase or lease of real or personal property; or (iii) for materials, supplies, equipment or services which are approved or authorized by the city council.

"Contribution" means a "political contribution" as defined in Chapter 2-156 of the Municipal Code of Chicago, as amended.

Individuals are "Domestic Partners" if they satisfy the following criteria:

- a) they are each other's sole domestic partner, responsible for each other's common welfare;
- b) neither party is married;
- c) the partners are not related by blood closer than would bar marriage in the State of Illinois;
- d) each partner is at least 18 years of age, and the partners are the same sex, and the partners reside at the same residence; and
- e) two of the following four conditions exist for the partners:
 - (i) The partners have been residing together for at least 12 months.

- ii) The partners have common or joint ownership of a residence.
- iii) The partners have at least two of the following arrangements:
 - a. joint ownership of a motor vehicle;
 - b. a joint credit account;
 - c. a joint checking account;
 - d. a lease for a residence identifying both domestic partners as tenants.
- iv) Each partner identifies the other partner as a primary beneficiary in a will.

"Political fund-raising committee" means a "political fund-raising committee" as defined in Chapter 2-156 of the Municipal Code of Chicago, as amended.

G. Tenant covenants that no payment, gratuity or offer of employment must be made in connection with this Agreement by or on behalf of any Subcontractors or higher tier Subcontractors or anyone associated with them as an inducement for the award of a Subcontract or order; and Tenant further acknowledges that any agreement entered into, negotiated or performed in violation of any of the provisions of Chapter 2-156 of the Municipal Code is voidable as to the City.

H. Pursuant to section 2-156-030(b) of the Municipal Code, it is illegal for any elected official of the city, or any person acting at the direction of such official, to contact, either orally or in writing, any other city official or employee with respect to any matter involving any person with whom the elected official has a business relationship, or to participate in any discussion in any city council committee hearing or in any city council meeting or to vote on any matter involving the person with whom an elected official has a business relationship. Violation of §2-156-030(b) by any elected official with respect to this Agreement is grounds for termination of this Agreement. Section 2-156-080 defines a "business relationship" as any contractual or other private business dealing of an official, or his or her spouse, or of any entity in which an official or his or her spouse has a financial interest, with a person or entity which entitles an official to compensation or payment in the amount of $2,500 or more in a calendar year; provided, however, a financial interest will not include: (1) any ownership through purchase at fair market value or inheritance of less than one percent of the share of a corporation, or any corporate subsidiary, parent or affiliate thereof, regardless of the value of or dividends on such shares, if such shares are registered on a securities exchange pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; (2) the authorized compensation paid to an official or employee for his office or employment; (3) any economic benefit provided equally to all residents of the city; (4) a time or demand deposit in a financial institution; or (5) an endowment or insurance policy or annuity contract purchased from an insurance company. A "contractual or other private business dealing" will not include any employment relationship of an official's spouse with an entity when such spouse has no discretion concerning or input relating to the relationship between that entity and the city.

I. Visual Rights Act.

i) The Tenant will cause any artist who creates artwork for the Leased Space to waive any and all rights in the artwork that may be granted or conferred on any work of visual art (the "Artwork") under Section 106A and Section 113 of the United States Copyright Act, (17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) (the "Copyright Act"). The waiver must include, but is not limited to, the right to prevent the removal, storage, relocation, reinstallation, or transfer of the Artwork. The Tenant acknowledges and will cause the artist to acknowledge that such removal, storage, relocation, reinstallation or transfer of the Artwork may result in the destruction, distortion, mutilation or other modification of the Artwork. Further, the Tenant acknowledges and consents and will cause the artist to acknowledge and consent that the Artwork may be incorporated or made part of a building or other structure in such a way that removing, storing, relocating, reinstalling or transferring the Artwork will cause the destruction, distortion, mutilation or other modification of the Artwork.

ii) The Tenant represents and warrants that it will obtain a waiver of Section 106A and Section 113 of the Copyright Act as necessary from any employees and subcontractors, or any other artists. Tenant must provide City with copies of any such waivers required by Section 106A and Section 113 of the Copyright Act prior to installation of any Artwork in the Leased Space.

10.7 Airport Security.

A. This Agreement is expressly subject to the airport security requirements of Title 49 of the United States Code, Chapter 449, as amended ("Airport Security Laws"), the provisions of which govern airport security and are incorporated by reference, including the rules and regulations promulgated under it. Tenant is subject to, and further must conduct with respect to its Subcontractors and the respective employees of each, such employment investigations, including criminal history record checks, as the Commissioner, the TSA or the FAA may deem necessary. Further, in the event of any threat to civil aviation, as defined in the Airport Security Laws, Tenant must promptly report any information in accordance with those regulations promulgated by the United States Department of Transportation, the TSA and by the in accordance with those regulations promulgated by the United States Department of Transportation, the TSA and by the City. Tenant must, notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, at no additional cost to the City, perform under this Agreement in compliance with those guidelines developed by the City, the TSA and the FAA with the objective of maximum security enhancement. The drawings, plans, and specifications provided by Tenant under this Agreement must comply with those guidelines for airport security developed by the City, the TSA and the FAA and in effect at the time of their submission.

B. Further, Tenant must comply with, and require compliance by its Subcontractors, suppliers of materials and furnishers of services, employees, and business invitees, with all present and future laws, rules, regulations, or ordinances promulgated by the City, the TSA or the FAA, or other governmental agencies to protect the security and integrity of the Airport, and to protect against access by unauthorized persons. Subject to the approval of the TSA, the FAA and the Commissioner, Tenant must adopt procedures to control and limit access to the Airport and the Leased Space by Tenant and its Subcontractors, suppliers of materials and furnishers of services, employees, and business invitees in accordance with all present and future City, TSA and FAA laws, rules, regulations, and ordinances. At all times during the Term, Tenant must have in place and in operation a security program for the Leased Space that complies with all applicable laws and regulations.

C. Gates and doors located on the Leased Space, if any, that permit entry into restricted areas at the Airport must be kept locked by Tenant at all times when not in use or under Tenant's constant security surveillance. Gate or door malfunctions must be reported to the Commissioner or the Commissioner's designee without delay and must be kept under constant surveillance by Tenant until the malfunction is remedied.

D. In connection with the implementation of its security program, Tenant may receive, gain access to or otherwise obtain certain knowledge and information related to the City's overall Airport security program. Tenant acknowledges that all such knowledge and information is of a highly confidential nature. Tenant covenants that no person will be permitted to gain access to such knowledge and information, unless the person has been approved by the Commissioner in advance in writing. Tenant further must indemnify, hold harmless and defend the City and other users of the Airport from and against any and all claims, reasonable costs, reasonable expenses, damages and liabilities, including all reasonable attorney's fees and costs, resulting directly or indirectly from the breach of Tenant's covenants and agreements as set forth in this section.

E. Tenant understands that fines and/or penalties may be assessed by the TSA or FAA for Tenant's noncompliance with the provisions of 49 CFR Parts 1540 and 1542 entitled "Airport Security" or by other agencies for noncompliance with regulations applicable to Tenant's operations. In the event the City shall be subject to any fine or penalty by reason of any violation at the Airport of any such rule, regulation or standard, the Commissioner may conduct an investigation and make a determination as to the identity of the party responsible for the violation. If it is determined by the Commissioner that Tenant, or any party for which Tenant is liable under this Agreement, is responsible for all or part of the fine or penalty, the Tenant shall pay said amount of the fine or penalty as Additional Rent.

F. Except for authorized members of the Chicago Police Department and State and Federal Law Enforcement officers, no one is permitted to carry a firearm or any other weapon on or into any building, real property, or parking area under the control of O'Hare or Midway International Airports. Under 430 ILCS 66 (the "Illinois Concealed Carry Act"), a license to carry a concealed firearm does NOT entitle the licensee to carry a firearm on or into any building, real property, or parking area under the control of an airport and doing so is a violation of the Concealed Carry Act and other laws, rules, and regulations. Violation of the Illinois Concealed Carry Act and carrying a firearm or other weapons on or into any building, real property, or parking area under the control of O'Hare or Midway Airports may weapons on or into any building, real property, or parking area under the control of O'Hare or Midway Airports may result in severe penalties, including but not limited to imprisonment and permanent revocation of the violator's access to restricted areas of O'Hare and Midway International Airports. 10.8 Non-Discrimination.

A. Tenant for itself, its personal representatives, successors in interest, and assigns, as a part of the consideration of this Agreement, covenants that:(i) no person on the grounds of race, color, or national origin will be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination in the use of the Leased Space; (ii) in the construction of any Improvements on, over, or under the Leased Space and the furnishing of services in them, no person on the grounds of race, color, or national origin will be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination; (iii) Tenant will use the Leased Space in compliance with all other requirements imposed by or under 49 C.F.R. Part 21, Nondiscrimination in Federally Assisted Programs of the Department of Transportation, and as those regulations may be amended; and (iv) Tenant shall operate the Concession on a fair, equal, and not illegally discriminatory basis to all users of it, and shall charge fair, reasonable, and nondiscriminatory prices for Products (but Tenant is allowed to make reasonable and nondiscriminatory discounts, rebates, or other similar types of price reductions to volume purchasers.) In addition, Tenant assures that it will comply with all other pertinent statutes, Executive Orders and the rules as are promulgated to assure that no person will, on the grounds of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, or handicap be excluded from participating in any activity conducted with or benefitting from federal assistance.

B. It is an unlawful practice for Tenant to, and Tenant must at no time: (i) fail or refuse to hire, or discharge, any individual or discriminate against the individual with respect to his or her compensation, or the terms, conditions, or privileges of his or her employment, because of the individual's race, creed, color, religion, sex, age, handicap or national origin; or (ii) limit, segregate, or classify its employees or applicants for employment in any way that would deprive any individual of employment opportunities or otherwise adversely affect his or her status as an employee, because of the individual's race, creed, color, religion, sex, age, handicap or national origin; or (iii) in the exercise of the privileges granted in this Agreement, discriminate or permit discrimination in any manner, including the use of the Leased Space, against any person or group of persons because of race, creed, color, religion, national origin, age, handicap, sex or ancestry. Tenant must post in conspicuous places to which its employees or applicants for employment have access, notices setting forth the provisions of this nondiscrimination clause.

C. Tenant must comply with the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq.(1981), as amended, and to the extent required by the law, must undertake, implement and operate an affirmative action program in compliance with the rules and regulations of the Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the Office of Federal Contract Compliance, including 14 CFR Part 152, Subpart E. Attention is called to: Exec. Order No. 11,246, 30 Fed. Reg. 12,319 (1965), reprinted in 42 U.S.C. § 2000e note, as amended by Exec. Order No. 11,375, 32 Fed. Reg. 14,303 (1967) and by Exec. Order No. 12,086, 43 Fed. Reg.

46,501 (1978); Age Discrimination Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 6101-06 (1981); Rehabilitation Act of 1973, 29 U.S.C. §§ 793-94 (1981); Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12101 and 41 CFR Part 60 et seq (1990) and 49 CFR Part 21, as amended (the "ADA"); and all other applicable federal statutes, regulations and other laws.

D. Tenant must comply with the Illinois Human Rights Act, 775 ILCS 5/1-101 et seq. as amended and any rules and regulations promulgated in accordance with it, including the Equal Employment Opportunity Clause, 5 III. Admin. Code §750 Appendix A. Furthermore, Tenant must comply with the Public Works Employment Discrimination Act, 775 ILCS 10/0.01 et seq., as amended, and all other applicable state statutes, regulations and other laws.

E. Tenant must comply with the Chicago Human Rights Ordinance, sec. 2-160-010 et seq. of the Municipal Code, as amended, and all other applicable City ordinances and rules. Further, Tenant must furnish or must cause each of its Subcontractors) to furnish such reports and information as requested by the Chicago Commission on Human Relations.

F. The Tenant agrees to comply with pertinent statutes, Executive Orders and such rules as are promulgated to ensure that no person shall, on the grounds of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability be excluded from participating in any activity conducted with or benefiting from Federal assistance. If the Tenant transfers its obligation to another, the transferee is obligated in the same manner as the Tenant.

This may include but is not limited to collecting demographic data and conducting surveys of LEP customers, providing multilingual signage and menus, and hiring multilingual staff.

9 Airport Concession Disadvantaged Business Enterprises (ACDBEs). This Agreement is • subject to the requirements of the U.S. Department of Transportation's regulations 49 C.F.R. Parts 26 and 23, as amended from time to time. Tenant must comply with the Special Conditions Regarding ACDBE participation attached hereto as Exhibit 8 and incorporated here by reference. Failure to comply with such Special Conditions shall be an Event of Default.

10 No Exclusive Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement must be construed to grant or authorize the granting of an exclusive right, including an exclusive right to provide aeronautical services to the public as prohibited by section 308(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended, and the City reserves the right to grant to others the privilege and right of conducting any one or all activities of an aeronautical nature. It is clearly understood by Tenant that no right or privilege has been granted that would operate to prevent any person, firm, or corporation operating aircraft on the Airport from performing any services on its own aircraft with its own regular employees (including maintenance and repair) that it may choose to perform.

11 Airport Landing Area. The City reserves the right to further develop or improve the landing area of the Airport as it sees fit, regardless of the desires or view of Tenant, and without interference or hindrance. The City reserves the right, but is not obligated to Tenant, to maintain and keep in repair the landing area of the Airport and all publicly owned facilities of the Airport, together with the right to direct and control all activities of Tenant in this regard.

12 No Obstructions. Tenant must comply with applicable notification and review requirements covered in Part 77 of the Federal Aviation Regulations if any future structure or building is planned for the Leased Space, or in the event of any planned modification or alteration of any present or future building or structure situated on the Leased Space. Tenant, by accepting the Lease, expressly agrees for itself, its successors and assigns that it will not erect nor permit the erection of any structure or object nor permit the growth of any tree on the Leased Space above the applicable mean sea level elevation set forth in Part 77 of the Federal Aviation Regulations. If these covenants are breached, the City serves the right to enter upon the Leased Space and to remove the offending structure or object and/or cut down the offending tree, all of which will be at the expense of Tenant.

13 Avigation Easement. There is reserved to the City, its successors and assigns for the use and benefit of the public, a right of flight for the passage of aircraft in the airspace above the Leased Space. This public right of flight includes the right to cause in the airspace any noise inherent in the operation of any aircraft used for navigation or flight through the airspace or landing at, taking off from, or operation on the Airport. Tenant by accepting this Lease agrees for itself, its successors, and assigns that it will not make use of the Leased Space in any manner that might interfere with the landing and taking off of aircraft from Airport or otherwise constitute a hazard. If this covenant is breached, the City reserves the right to enter upon the Leased Space and cause the abatement of the interference at the expense of Tenant.

14 National Emergency. This Agreement and all the provisions of this Agreement are subject to whatever right the United States government now has or in the future may have or acquire affecting the control, operation, regulation, and taking over of the Airport, or the exclusive or non-exclusive use of the Airport by the United States during the time of war or national emergency.

15 2014 Hiring Prohibitions.

A) The City is subject to the June 16, 2014 "City of Chicago Hiring Plan" (the "2014 City Hiring Plan") entered in Shakman v. Democratic Organization of Cook County, Case No 69 C 2145 (United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois). Among other things, the 2014 City Hiring Plan prohibits the City from hiring persons as governmental employees in non-exempt positions on the basis of political reasons or factors.

B) Tenant is aware that City policy prohibits City employees from directing any individual to apply for a position with Tenant, either as an employee or as a subcontractor, and from directing Tenant to hire an individual as an employee or as a subcontractor. Accordingly, Tenant must follow its own hiring and contracting procedures, without being influenced by City employees. Any and all personnel of Tenant in connection with this Lease are employees or subcontractors of Tenant, not employees of the City of Chicago. This Contract is not intended to and does not constitute, create, give rise to, or otherwise recognize an employer-employee relationship of any kind between the City and any personnel of Tenant.

C) Tenant will not condition, base, or knowingly prejudice or affect any term or aspect of the employment of any personnel associated with this Lease, or offer employment to any individual to provide services associated with this Lease, based upon or because of any political reason or factor, including, without limitation, any individual's political affiliation, membership in a political organization or party, political support or activity, political financial contributions, promises of such political support, activity or financial contributions, or such individual's political sponsorship or recommendation. For purposes of this Lease, a political organization or party is an identifiable group or entity that has as its primary purpose the support of or opposition to candidates for elected public office. Individual political activities are the activities of individual persons in support of or in opposition to political organizations or parties or candidates for elected public office.

(D) In the event of any communication to Tenant by a City employee or City official in violation of Section 15.5 (b) above, or advocating a violation of Section 15.5(c) above, Tenant will, as soon as is reasonably practicable, report such communication to the Hiring Oversight Section of the City's Office of the Inspector General, and also to the Commissioner of the Department.

ARTICLE 11 GENERAL CONDITIONS

This Agreement contains all the terms, covenants, conditions and agreements between the City and Tenant relating in any manner to the use and occupancy of the Leased Space and otherwise to the subject matter of this Agreement. No prior or other agreement or understandings pertaining to these matters are valid or of any force and effect. This Agreement supersedes all prior or contemporaneous negotiations, undertakings, and agreements between the parties. No representations, inducements, understandings or anything of any nature whatsoever made, stated or represented by the City or anyone acting for or on the City's behalf, either orally or in writing, have induced Tenant to enter into this Agreement, and Tenant acknowledges, represents and warrants that Tenant has entered into this Agreement under and by virtue of Tenant's own independent investigation.

1 1.3 Amendments. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement may be amended only by a written agreement signed by the City and Tenant. No review or approval by the Commissioner, including approval of Construction Documents, constitutes a modification of this Agreement (except to the extent that the review or approval expressly provides that it constitutes such a modification or it is apparent on its face that the review or approval, if made in writing, modifies terms or provisions of this Agreement that are within the express powers of the Commissioner under this Agreement to modify), nor excuse Tenant from compliance with the requirements of this Agreement or of any applicable laws, ordinances or regulations. Amendments must be signed by the Mayor, provided that the Commissioner alone may sign amendments to the Exhibits. 1 1.4 Severability. Whenever possible, each provision of this Agreement must be interpreted in such a manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law. However, notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, if any provision of this Agreement is under any circumstance prohibited by or invalid under applicable law, the provision is severable and deemed to be ineffective, only to the extent of the prohibition or invalidity, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Agreement or the validity of the provision in other circumstances.

5 Covenants in Subcontracts. All obligations imposed on Tenant under this Agreement pertaining to the maintenance and operation of the Leased Space and compliance with the ACDBE requirements in this Agreement are deemed to include a covenant by Tenant to insert appropriate provisions in all Subcontracts covering work, under this Agreement and to enforce compliance of all Subcontractors with the requirements of those provisions.

Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer on any other person, sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, trust or other entity, other than the parties and their successors and assigns, any right, remedy, obligation, or liability under, or by reason of, this Agreement unless otherwise expressly agreed to by the parties in writing. No benefits, payments or considerations received by Tenant for the performance of services associated and pertinent to this Agreement must accrue, directly or indirectly, to any employees, elected or appointed officers or representatives, or to any other person or persons identified as agents of, or who are by definition an employee of, the City. Neither this Agreement nor any rights or privileges under this Agreement are an asset of Tenant or any third party claiming by or through Tenant or otherwise, in any bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization proceeding.

9 Subordination.

A. This Agreement is subordinate to the provisions and requirements of any existing or future agreements between the City and the United States government or other governmental authority, pertaining to the development, operation or maintenance of the Airport, including agreements the execution of which have been or will be required as a condition precedent to the granting of federal or other governmental funds for the development of the Airport. If the United States government requires modifications, revisions, supplements or deletions of any of the terms of this Agreement, then Tenant consents to the changes to this Agreement.

B. Terminals.

C. To the extent of a conflict or inconsistency between this Agreement and any agreement described in paragraphs A. and B. above, those provisions in this Agreement so conflicting must be performed as required by those agreements referred to in paragraphs A. and B.

10 Conflict. In the event of any conflict between the terms and provisions of this Agreement and the terms and provisions of any sublease or Subcontract between Tenant and third parties, the terms and provisions of this Agreement govern and control.

11 Offset by Tenant. Whenever in this Agreement the City is obligated to pay Tenant an amount, then the City Comptroller may elect to require Tenant to offset the amount due against Rent or other payments owed by Tenant to the City, in lieu of requiring the City to pay such amount. Tenant shall have no right to offset any amount due to City under this Agreement against amounts due to Tenant by City unless so directed in writing by the City Comptroller.

12 Waiver; Remedies. No delay or forbearance on the part of any party in exercising any right, power or privilege must operate as a waiver of it, nor does any waiver of any right, power or privilege operate as a waiver of any other right, power or privilege, nor does any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege preclude any other or further exercise of it or of any other right, power or privilege. No waiver is effective unless made in writing and executed by the party to be bound by it. The rights and remedies provided for in this Agreement are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that the parties otherwise may have at law, in equity or both, except that the City will not be liable to Tenant for any consequential damages whatsoever related to this Agreement.

13 Authority of Commissioner. Unless otherwise expressly stated in this Agreement, any consents and approvals to be given by the City under this Agreement may be made and given by the Commissioner or by such other person as may be duly authorized by the City Council, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

16 Limitation of City's Liability. Tenant, its subtenants and Subcontractors must make no claims against the City for damages, charges, additional costs or fees or any lost profits or costs incurred by reason of delays or hindrances by the City in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement. "The food and ambiance was amazing!... Cute and fun place to take pictures. I highly recommend! Oh! The drinks were also really good!"

Bayli A., Nashville, TN on Yelp - 8/5/2021

"This place never disappoints!! Yes, the aesthetic is amazing, but their food is even more incredible!! Their brussels sprouts + key lime pie are on fire!!... We had the best time and can't wait to come back!!"

Dominique M., Boston, MA on Yelp - 8/7/2021

"The food, the drinks, the service and the ambiance are everything! Highly recommend if in Chicago! I got the lemon zest chicken and my friend got the linguine with clams and we both enjoyed them. Amazing flavors, the best I've ever tasted. We got the glittery drink and loved it so much we had about 4. This was the best meal I have had since being in Chicago."

Sonya L., Encinitas, CA on Yelp - 6/5/2021

"Loved this restaurant! My favorite dish, the grilled octopus, was a mix of ingredients that I would never have thought would marry well together - lentils, grapefruit, dill, octopus...but it was magical. I could have eaten several more of these dishes if it was socially acceptable to be a glutton. I highly recommend The Hampton Social. Great food and great drinks."

Bar Signo's success is largely due to the powerhouse executive chef team

Bar Siena's success is largely due to the powerhouse executive chef team, Fabio Viviani, Executive Chef and Top Chef fan favorite, and Ken Biffar, Executive Chef & Partner of the Siena Brands. Biffar sets the bar on culinary excellence with his cuisine expertise and created a new wave of Italian cicchetti (cheese-ert-ee) menu items. He also continues to push the menu's authenticity with Viviani behind him. Just like Siena Tavern, Siena Bar was rooted in Italy and from scratch, which means everything is made "from scratch."

If the stunning look of Bar Siena does not draw ORD travelers inside, the aroma of freshly baked gourmet

Popular plates are served daily such as Broiled Salmon, Eggplant Parmesan, Scallops, New York Strip, and the social media favorite, Branzino Fish & Chips, served with sticky potatoes, charred lemon, and Calabrian chili & Meyer lemon aioli. Sandwiches, served with crispy parmesan fries, are a fave at lunch and travelers will dig the Bar Siena BLT, Lobster Roll, and Bombo Burger. A selection of chicken sandwiches is also available. EXHIBIT 8
ACDBE SPECIAL CONDITIONS AND RELATED FORMS

City of Chicago Department of Aviation

Special Conditions Regarding Airport Concessions Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (ACDBE) Commitment

I. POLICY AND PROGRAM

It is the policy of the City of Chicago ("City") not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex or national origin in the award or performance of airport concession agreements. Because the City is a recipient of Airport Improvement Program funds from the Federal Aviation Administration ("FAA"), the concessions at the City's airports are subject to 49 CFR Part 23, Participation of Disadvantaged Business Enterprise in Airport Concessions ("Part 23"). The City will not, directly or indirectly, through contractual or other arrangements, use criteria or methods of administration that have the effect of defeating or impeding the accomplishment of the objectives of Part 23. Compliance with Part 23 requirements will not diminish or supplant the Concessionaire's obligations to comply with nondiscrimination laws as required elsewhere in the Agreement. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of these Special Conditions and the requirements of Part 23, the requirements of Part 23 shall prevail. Part 23 is available on-line at <<https://www.ecfr.gov/current/title-49/subtitle-A/part-23?toc=1>>.

It is further the policy of the City in accordance with the requirements of Part 23 that Airport Concession Disadvantaged

It is further the policy of the City, in accordance with the requirements of Part 23, that Airport Concession Disadvantaged Business Enterprises ("ACDBEs") have the maximum opportunity to participate fully in the City's airport concession program. As used throughout these Special Conditions, the term "ACDBE" means an entity that has been certified as such under the Illinois Unified Certification Program ("UCP"). If a firm is not certified by the Illinois UCP as an ACDBE in accordance with the standards in Part 23, the firm's participation is not counted for Part 23 purposes. ACDBEs certified by other jurisdictions are not considered certified ACDBEs for purposes of this Agreement and will not be counted as such unless they have also been certified by the Illinois UCP.

In accordance with Part 23, Subparts B and D, the City submitted an ACDBE Program and ACDBE Goal for approval by the FAA. The FAA-approved ACDBE Program and ACDBE Goal are available upon request. In the event of any amendments or revisions to Part 23 (or any related or superseding regulations), these Special Conditions shall be subject to such revised regulations and any City-promulgated program, regulations, or goals established thereunder. Upon request by the City, this Agreement shall be amended to replace these Special Conditions with revised Special Conditions that reflect the then-current federal regulations, if necessary.

The following assurances are required to be included in the Agreement by 49 CFR §23.9(c). Concessionaire is deemed to be the "concessionaire or contractor" referenced.

1. This agreement is subject to the requirements of the U.S. Department of Transportation's regulations, 49 CFR Part 23. The concessionaire or contractor agrees that it will not discriminate against any business owner because of the owner's race, color, national origin or sex in connection with the award or performance of any concession agreement, management contract, or subcontract, purchase order or other agreement covered by 49 CFR Part 23.
2. The concessionaire or contractor agrees to include the above statements in any subsequent concession agreement or contract covered by 49 CFR Part 23, that it enters and cause those businesses to similarly include the statements in further agreements.

II. PROGRAM GOALS

The City has established, and the Federal Aviation Administration has approved, aspirational goals for ACDBE participation in its airport concessions program as required by Part 23, Subpart II. Generally, ACDBE participation in airport concessions is measured as a percentage of annual gross receipts earned by the concessions. Details on counting ACDBE participation are found in 49 CFR §§ 23.53 (rental car concessions) and 23.55 (non-rental car concessions) and described further below.

The below aspirational goals are for the City's concessions program as a whole. With respect to this Agreement, the City may or may not have established a contract-specific ACDBE aspirational goal at the time that the City issued the Request for Proposals for the concession ("RFP"). If the RFP included a contract-specific goal, Tenant's proposal either included participation by ACDBE(s) that met or exceeded the contract-specific goal or Concessionaire demonstrated "good faith efforts" to meet that contract-specific goal but was unable to do so. Guidance on "good faith efforts" can be found in Appendix A to 49 CFR Part 26. Appendix A as it appears on the date of the Agreement is incorporated in round in Appendix A to 49 C.F.R. Part 26. Appendix A as it appears on the date of the Agreement is incorporated in Section VI.A. of these Special Conditions, but Concessionaire is responsible for compliance with federal regulations as they may be amended from time to time.

1. All Concessions Except Rental Cars.

O'Hare International Airport: The City has determined that the appropriate aspirational goal for ACDBE participation in non-rental car concessions is 32%. Historical data regarding ACDBE participation at the City's airports indicates that this aspirational goal should consist of a race-neutral goal of 7% and a race-conscious goal of 23%.

Midway International Airport: The City has determined that the appropriate aspirational goal for ACDBE participation in non-rental car concessions is 37%. Historical data regarding ACDBE participation at the City's airports indicates that this aspirational goal should consist of a race-neutral goal of 5.5% and a race-conscious goal of 31.5%.

B. Rental Car Concessions. Due to the lack of ACDBE rental car companies, the national or regional nature of rental car industry procurement practices and a general lack of reliable historical data, the City has determined that the aspirational goal for ACDBE participation in rental car concessions at both airports is 2.4%. Nevertheless, rental car concessionaires are encouraged to use all reasonable efforts to maximize procurement of goods and services from ACDBEs that may be certified in the Illinois UCP or the UCPs of other states.

In 2012, the Rent-A-Car Concessions Voluntary M/W/DBE Program ("RAC Program") was approved by City Council of Chicago, Illinois, as part of an amendment to the rental car concession license agreements at Chicago O'Hare and Midway International Airports. (Coiin. J. 12-12-2012, p. 43891.) As part of the program, the on-airport rental car companies ("RACs") will use good faith efforts to expand contracting opportunities for businesses owned by minorities, women and/or disadvantaged persons in connection with "non-fleet expenditures" attributable to the On-Airport RACs operations at the Airports. The RACs agree that for fiscal year 2017 and thereafter, the goal of their outreach efforts will be to achieve, at a minimum, 30% of non-fleet expenditures with businesses owned by M/W/DBEs that are either certified or not certified but are owned by minority, women and/or disadvantaged persons.

III. CONCESSIONAIRE'S ACDBE COMMITMENT

A. INITIAL ACDBE COMMITMENT

The extent and nature of the ACDBE participation commitment by Concessionaire is documented in Schedules B, C and/or D attached to these Special Conditions ("ACDBE Commitment"). As used in these Special Conditions and in Schedules B, C and D, "Concessionaire" means the entity with whom the City has entered into a concession agreement, whether that entity is referred to in that agreement as "Tenant," "Licensee" or other term.

The total ACDBE Commitment, stated as a percentage of the concessions gross revenues, must equal or exceed the percentage ACDBE participation required in the Agreement. If the Agreement indicates that there is no ACDBE participation requirement, it will be conclusive evidence that either (a) the RFP contained no contract-specific goal and Concessionaire did not propose any ACDBE participation or (b) the Concessionaire demonstrated, to the satisfaction of the City, that it intended good faith efforts to obtain ACDBE participation to meet a contract-specific goal.

the City, that it exerted good faith efforts to obtain ACDBE participation to meet a contract- specific goal but was unable to obtain such participation. In either such event, there will be no Schedule B, C or D attached to these Special Conditions.

If there is ACDBE participation in the form of a joint venture member, the attached Schedule B sets forth the essential terms of that joint venture participation, including a representation as to the value of the ACDBE's activities in operating the concession as a percentage of gross revenues, and a copy of the joint venture agreement is attached to Schedule B. If there is ACDBE participation in the form of ACDBE(s) acting as sublicensee(s), subtenant(s) or subcontractor(s), it is documented in Schedules C and D. Schedule(s) C is the commitment by the ACDBE(s) to participate by providing the goods or services indicated, and Schedule D is the commitment by the non-ACDBE to such participation by the ACDBE(s).

B. CHANGES IN ACDBE PARTICIPATION

Pursuant to 49 CFR 23.25 and 49 CFR 26.53, Concessionaire must not make arbitrary changes to its ACDBE Commitment. Further, after entering into a joint venture agreement, sublicense or subcontract (collectively, "ACDBE agreement") with each approved ACDBE, Concessionaire must not terminate the ACDBE agreement, reduce the scope of the ACDBE's participation in the concession, nor decrease the compensation to the ACDBE, as applicable, without in each instance receiving the prior written consent of the City. The City will not consent unless Concessionaire shows good cause. Concessionaire must promptly notify the Commissioner of any proposed change in an ACDBE agreement and submit a copy of the proposed amendment to the ACDBE agreement. Prior to requesting consent from the City to terminate or substitute an ACDBE, Concessionaire must give notice to the ACDBE, with a copy to the City, providing the ACDBE an opportunity to respond.

In any event, the collective participation of the previously approved ACDBE(s) must either continue to contribute to the concession at least the value of the ACDBE Commitment, as stated in terms of a percentage of gross revenues, or substitute or additional ACDBE(s) must be retained by Concessionaire pursuant to (D) below to maintain the ACDBE Commitment, except as provided in (C) below. Failure to comply with the ACDBE Commitment is an event of default under the Agreement. If the proposed change in ACDBE participation is approved by the City, Concessionaire and ACDBE(s) must complete revised Schedules B, C or D, as applicable.

These notice and consent requirements apply both pre- and post- award of the Agreement. Note that changes to a joint venture Concessionaire prior to award may result in rejection of the proposal if the City determines, in the sole discretion of the Commissioner, that those changes affect Concessionaire's qualifications.

C. IN VOLUNTARY CHANGES IN ACDBE PARTICIPATION

In the event that it appears that Concessionaire will not comply with its ACDBE Commitment because: (i) an ACDBE has defaulted in its performance under the ACDBE agreement through no fault of Concessionaire, (ii) an ACDBE is decertified by the Illinois UCP through no fault of Concessionaire and the ACDBE's participation can no longer be counted, (iii) the ACDBE's certified area of specialty has been changed through no fault of Concessionaire and the ACDBE's participation can no longer be counted, or (iv) an ACDBE is otherwise unable or unwilling to perform its obligations through no fault of Concessionaire, then Concessionaire must promptly notify the ACDBE with a copy to the City, of its intent to terminate or substitute the ACDBEs participation and provide the ACDBE with a minimum of five days to respond, unless the City grants permission for a shorter response period as a matter of public necessity (i.e. safety). Concessionaire requests to the City for permission to terminate or substitute an ACDBE must specify one or more of the foregoing reasons as the cause for potential noncompliance with the ACDBE Commitment. If the City concurs with the specified reason, Concessionaire shall use good faith efforts as described in Section VI below to replace the ACDBE's participation with participation by another ACDBE. As provided in Section VI, Concessionaire must demonstrate those good faith efforts to the satisfaction of the Commissioner. Failure to comply with the foregoing shall be an event of default under the Agreement.

Concessionaire's position in these cases must be fully explained and supported with adequate documentation. Stated reasons which will NOT be acceptable include: A replacement firm has been recruited to perform the same function under terms more advantageous to the Concessionaire; issues about performance by the committed ACDBE were disputed (unless every reasonable effort has already been taken to have the issues resolved or mediated satisfactorily); and an ACDBE has requested reasonable price escalation which may be justified due to unforeseen circumstances.

D. ACDBE SUBSTITUTION AND ADDITIONAL ACDBEs

If Concessionaire identifies a substitute, replacement or additional ACDBE for the City's approval, Concessionaire's request for approval shall include the name, address, and principal official of the proposed ACDBE; the nature and essential terms of the ACDBE agreement under which the ACDBE will participate; and a letter of intent signed by Concessionaire and the ACDBE to enter into such an ACDBE agreement upon approval by the City. Concessionaire must provide such other affidavits and documents as the City may request to evaluate the request. The City will evaluate and respond to the submitted documentation within fifteen working days after the submittal of a complete request. The response may be in the form of approving the request, requiring more information, or requiring an interview.

Actual use of a substitute, replacement or additional ACDBE should not be made by Concessionaire before City approval is given. An ACDBE agreement between Concessionaire and the ACDBE must be executed within the time specified by the City, and a fully executed copy of the ACDBE agreement must be submitted immediately to the City.

E. AGREEMENT EXTENSIONS, ASSIGNMENTS AND SUBLEASES

If the Agreement contains a term extension or if the Concessionaire proposes an assignment or sublease of the Agreement, as a condition precedent to the City's consent to such extension, assignment or sublease, the City and Concessionaire will revisit and possibly adjust the Concessionaire's ACDBE Commitment to reflect any possible change in ACDBE availability and to ensure compliance with Part 23 as it may have been amended in the interim.

Concessionaire will be required to provide amended Schedules D, B, or C, along with amended ACDBE agreements, to reflect any required changes to the ACDBE Commitment or provide documentation of good faith efforts to achieve increased ACDBE participation.

IV. COUNTING ACDBE PARTICIPATION

A. CONCESSIONS OTHER THAN RENTAL CAR

In order for participation in the concession to be counted and reported to the FAA, ACDBEs must perform a commercially useful function, as defined in 49 CFR § 23.55(a). The work performed or gross receipts earned by a firm after its ACDBE eligibility has been removed are not counted, except as provided in 49 CFR § 23.55(j). Costs incurred in connection with the renovation, repair, or construction of a concession facility (sometimes referred to as the "buildout") are not counted (but may be subject to goals for M/WBE or other types of participation under a local program as specified by the City). Otherwise, ACDBE participation in non-rental car concessions is counted in accordance with 49 CFR § 23.55 as follows:

1. Concessionaire is an ACDBE. When Concessionaire is an ACDBE or a joint venture consisting only of ACDBEs, the gross receipts earned by Concessionaire are counted. Gross receipts attributable to a non-ACDBE sublicensee of Concessionaire are not counted.
2. Separate locations. When an ACDBE performs as a sublicensee to Concessionaire with its own concession location or when Concessionaire is a joint venture which includes a non-ACDBE and in which an ACDBE operates its own separate location, the gross receipts earned by the ACDBE at its separate location are counted. The ACDBE location must be independently operated by the ACDBE as evidenced by the ACDBE's responsibility for all aspects of the management and operation of the location. Gross receipts attributable to a non-ACDBE sublicensee of the ACDBE are not counted.
3. Joint venture, no separate locations. When Concessionaire is a joint venture with an ACDBE participant and the ACDBE jointly participates with a non-ACDBE in the operation of all locations, only the portion of the Concessionaire's gross receipts attributable to the distinct, clearly defined portion of the work of the concession that the ACDBE performs with its own forces is counted. When the City has reason to doubt the extent of an ACDBE joint venturer's commercially useful contribution towards the concessionaire's gross receipts, the City may require Concessionaire to submit evidence to substantiate the value of the ACDBE's contribution. If the Concessionaire fails to submit satisfactory evidence, it is an event of default under the Agreement.

4. Subcontractor participation. When an ACDBE provides, as a subcontractor to Concessionaire, goods or services for operation of the concession, the amounts paid to the ACDBE are counted as provided below. However, if the ACDBE enters into a subcontract with a non-ACDBE to provide the goods or services, the amounts paid to the non-ACDBE are not counted.
 - a. The entire amount of fees or commissions charged by an ACDBE firm for , a bona fide service, provided that the City determines this amount to be reasonable and not excessive as compared with fees customarily paid for similar services. Such services may include, but are not limited to, professional, technical, consultant, legal, security systems, advertising, building cleaning and maintenance, computer programming, or managerial.
 - b. The entire amount of the cost of goods obtained from an ACDBE manufacturer, as provided in 49 CFR § 23.55(f)-

49 CFR § 23.55(g)

- c. The entire amount of the cost of goods purchased or leased from a ACDBE regular dealer, as provided in 49 CFR § 23.55(g).
- d. For goods purchased from an ACDBE which is neither a manufacturer nor a regular dealer, the amount of reasonable fees, commissions, or delivery charges earned by the ACDBE, as provided in 49 CFR § 23.55(h).

B. RENTAL CAR CONCESSIONS

If Concessionaire is a rental car company, ACDBE participation counts in accordance with the provisions of 49 CFR §23.53. Goods and services will be counted in accordance with the following:

1. The entire amount of the cost charged by an ACDBE for repairing vehicles, provided that it is reasonable and not excessive as compared with fees customarily allowed for similar services; and further provided that any portion of a fee paid by a manufacturer to an ACDBE car dealership for reimbursement of work performed under the manufacturer's warranty is excluded;
2. The entire amount of the fee or commission charged by an ACDBE to manage a car rental concession under an agreement with the Concessionaire, provided that it is reasonable and not excessive as compared with fees customarily allowed for similar services.
3. For other goods and services, ACDBE participation counts as provided in 49 CFR §26.55 and §23.55. In the event of any conflict between these two sections, §23.55 controls.

4. If a rental car company has a national or regional contract with an ACDBE, it may count a pro-rated share of the amount of that contract toward the goals of each airport covered by the contract as provided in §23.55 (f).

Rental car companies may also count ACDBE direct participation through direct ownership arrangements, but such arrangements are not required.

V. CERTIFICATION, RECORDS, REPORTS AND MONITORING

A. CERTIFICATION

Copies of letters of certification from a member of the Illinois UCP for each ACDBE that is part of Concessionaire's ACDBE Commitment are attached to their respective Schedule C or Schedule B. All letters of certification issued by the City of Chicago include a statement of the ACDBE firm's area of specialization.

Each ACDBE must promptly notify Concessionaire if there is any change in the ACDBE's certification status. Concessionaire, in turn, must notify Commissioner of any change in an ACDBE's certification status and provide a copy of any correspondence from the certifying agency regarding the status of an ACDBE's certification.

The ACDBE's scope of work, as detailed by Schedule B, C or D, must conform to its stated area of specialization. If, during the course of this Agreement, Concessionaire proposes to amend Schedules B, C or D so that an ACDBE performs additional work or supplies additional goods, materials or services not covered by its area of certification, the ACDBE must request an extension of its certification for such work, goods, materials or services in order to count toward the ACDBE's participation in the concession. The request to expand the scope of the ACDBE's certification, together with all documentation required by the City to process that request, must be received by the City at least 60 days in advance of the proposed date to perform such additional work or supply such additional goods, materials or services.

B. RECORDKEEPING

The Concessionaire must maintain records of all relevant data with respect to the utilization of ACDBEs, retaining these records for a period of at least three years after termination or expiration of the Agreement. Concessionaire grants full access to these records to the City of Chicago, Federal or State authorities, the U.S. Department of Justice, or their duly authorized representatives.

C. REPORTING

Concessionaire must file ACDBE utilization reports (monthly if non-rental car and quarterly if rental car), together with its concession license fee payment, delineating for the month or quarter, as applicable, and cumulatively for the year-to-date: (i) contribution by ACDBE joint venture member(s) or sublicensee(s) to Concessionaire's gross receipts and (ii) payments to ACDBE subcontractor(s). Each ACDBE utilization report must be signed by an authorized officer or representative of the Concessionaire and be notarized.

172

D. MONITORING

The City will, from time to time during the term of the Agreement, conduct investigations and interviews to monitor and verify that ACDBE participation in the concession meets or exceeds the ACDBE Commitment. Concessionaire must give, upon request, earnest and prompt cooperation to the City in submitting to inspections and interviews, in allowing entry to places of business, in providing further documentation, and in requiring the cooperation of its ACDBEs.

If the City determines that an ACDBE's actual role or responsibilities do not comply with the representations made by Concessionaire and the ACDBE in Schedules B, C or D, or that Concessionaire and/or ACDBE have misrepresented to the City either the payments to the ACDBE or the value of the ACDBE's participation in a joint venture, it shall be an event of default under the Agreement.

VI. GOOD FAITH EFFORTS

A. EXAMPLES

Examples of "good faith efforts" are described below and in 49 CFR § 23.25, 49 CFR §26.53, and Appendix A to 49 CFR Part 26. As provided in § 23.25, §26.53 and Appendix A to 49 Part 26, the following are examples of documented actions that the City may take into consideration in determining whether Concessionaire made good faith

1. Soliciting through all reasonable and available means (e.g., advertising and/or written notices) the interest of all certified ACDBEs who have the capability to perform work or services or to supply goods relevant to the concession. Concessionaire must solicit this interest within sufficient time to allow the ACDBEs to respond to the solicitation. Concessionaire must determine with certainty if the ACDBEs are interested by taking appropriate steps to follow up initial solicitations.
2. Soliciting the work, services or goods in portions that increase the likelihood that an ACDBE can perform the work or services or provide the goods. This includes, when appropriate, breaking out contract items into economically feasible units to facilitate ACDBE participation, even when the concessionaire might otherwise prefer to perform these work items with its own forces.
3. Providing interested ACDBEs with adequate information about the operations, management and requirements of the concession in a timely manner to assist them in responding to a solicitation.
4. Negotiating in good faith with interested ACDBEs. Evidence of such negotiation includes the names, addresses and telephone numbers of ACDBEs that were considered; a description of the information provided regarding the opportunities selected for possible ACDBE participation; and evidence as to why agreement could not be reached for ACDBEs to perform the work.

NOTE: A concessionaire using good business judgment would consider a number of factors in negotiating with potential business partners or subcontractors, including ACDBEs, and would take a firm's price and capabilities as well as contract goal into consideration. However, the fact that there may be some additional costs involved in finding and using ACDBEs is not in itself sufficient reason for a failure to meet the ACDBE Commitment, as long as such costs are reasonable. Concessionaires are not, however, required to accept higher quotes from ACDBEs if the price difference in comparison to non-ACDBEs is excessive or unreasonable.

5. Not rejecting ACDBEs as being unqualified without sound reasons based on a thorough investigation of their capabilities. The ACDBE's standing within its industry, membership in specific groups, organization or associations and political or social affiliation (for example union vs. non-union employee status) are not legitimate causes for rejection.
6. Making efforts to assist interested ACDBEs in obtaining bonding, lines of credit or insurance as required by the City or Concessionaire.
7. Making efforts to assist interested ACDBEs in obtaining necessary equipment, supplies, materials, or related assistance or services.
8. Effectively using the services of available minority/women community organizations and contractors' groups; local, state and federal minority/women business assistance offices; and other organizations as allowed on a case-by-case basis to provide assistance in the recruitment and placement of ACDBEs.

B. DOCUMENTATION

Whenever Concessionaire is required to demonstrate good faith efforts by Part 23 or these Special Conditions whenever Concessionaire is required to demonstrate good faith efforts by Part 25 of these Special Conditions, Concessionaire must provide supporting documentation to the satisfaction of the Commissioner. This means documentation to show that Concessionaire took all necessary and reasonable steps which by their scope, intensity and appropriateness to the objective, could reasonably be expected to obtain compliance, even if not fully successful. The following types of documentation, as applicable to the situation, will be considered by the City in determining whether Concessionaire has made good faith efforts:

1. A listing of all ACDBE firms that were" contacted that includes:
 - a. names, address and telephone numbers of ACDBE firms contacted;

174

- b. date and time of contact;
- c. method of contact (written, telephone, transmittal of facsimile documents, etc.);
- d. name of the person contacted.

Copies of letters or any other evidence of mailing that substantiates outreach to ACDBE vendors that include:

- a. concession identification and location;
- b. descriptions/classification/commodity of work, services or goods for which quotations were sought; and
- c. date, time and location for submittal of bids or proposals.

Detailed statement which summarizes direct negotiations with appropriate ACDBE firms and indicates why negotiations were unsuccessful. Affirmation that good faith efforts have been demonstrated by choosing opportunities likely to be performed by ACDBEs by not imposing any limiting conditions which were not mandatory for all potential bidders/proposers; or denying the benefits ordinarily conferred for the type of opportunity that was solicited.

Copies of proposed portions of the work, services or goods to be performed or provided by ACDBEs in order to increase the likelihood of ACDBE participation. Evidence that Concessionaire negotiated in good faith with interested ACDBEs. Evidence that Concessionaire did not reject ACDBEs as being unqualified without sound reasons based on a thorough investigation of their capabilities. Evidence that Concessionaire made efforts to assist interested ACDBEs in obtaining bonding, lines of credit or insurance, as required by the City or the concessionaire.

Evidence that Concessionaire made efforts to assist interested ACDBEs in obtaining necessary equipment, supplies, materials or related assistance or services.

Evidence that Concessionaire has provided timely notice of the opportunity to at least 50 percent of the applicable ACDBEs listed in the Illinois UCP Directory. The City may contact the ACDBEs identified by Concessionaire for verification of such notification.

Evidence that ACDBE participation is excessively costly. In order to establish that a ACDBE's quote is excessively costly, Concessionaire must provide the following information:

- a. A detailed statement of the opportunity identified for ACDBE participation for which Concessionaire asserts the ACDBE quote(s) were excessively costly.
- b. A listing of all potential business partners or subcontractors contacted for a quotation on that opportunity.

- c. Prices quoted by all such potential business partners or subcontractors for that opportunity.
- d. Other documentation that demonstrates to the satisfaction of the City that the ACDBE quotes are excessively costly.

ADMINISTRATIVE RECONSIDERATION

For the purposes of this Agreement, the City has delegated the responsibility for making the determination regarding a Concessionaire's good faith efforts to the Department of Aviation. The determination shall be based upon the Department's review of the documentation that the Concessionaire has timely submitted. Within five days of being informed by the Department that Concessionaire has not documented sufficient good faith efforts, Concessionaire may request administrative reconsideration. The request must be made in writing to the following official:

City of Chicago Department of Aviation 10510 West Zemke Road
Chicago, Illinois 60666 Attention: Commissioner

NOTE: The Commissioner may not have played any role in the original determination that the Concessionaire did not make or timely document sufficient good faith efforts. The Commissioner may appoint a reconsideration officer, who did not play any role in the original determination, to act in his or her stead.

With copies to: City of Chicago
Department of Procurement Services City Hall, Room 806 121 N.
LaSalle Street Chicago, Illinois 60602 Attention: Chief Procurement Officer

Attention: Deputy Commissioner for Concessions City of Chicago

Department of Law
Aviation, Environmental, Regulatory and Contracts Division 2 North LaSalle Street. Suite

176

2. As part of this reconsideration, the Concessionaire will have the opportunity to provide written documentation or argument concerning the issue of whether it made adequate good faith efforts. The Concessionaire will have the opportunity to meet in person with the reconsideration officer to discuss whether it did so. The Department will send the Concessionaire a written decision on reconsideration, explaining the basis for finding that the Concessionaire did or did not make adequate good faith efforts.

VII. NON-COMPLIANCE AND DAMAGES

A. NON-COMPLIANCE GENERALLY

A. NON-COMPLIANCE GENERALLY

Concessionaire's failure to comply with these Special Conditions constitutes a material breach of the Agreement and entitles the City to declare an event of default. If Concessionaire fails to cure the default within the time allowed under the default provisions of the Agreement, the City may exercise those remedies provided for in the Agreement, at law or in equity, including termination of the Agreement. In addition to any remedies specified in the Agreement, at the City's option the term of this Agreement will become month-to-month until the City locates a new Concessionaire. At the City's option, any improvements added by Concessionaire must remain for the new tenant at no cost to the City or the new tenant.

B. NON-COMPLIANCE WITH ACDBE AGREEMENT

If Concessionaire has not complied with the requirements of an ACDBE agreement, the affected ACDBE may seek to recover from Concessionaire damages suffered by the ACDBEs as a result of such non-compliance. Such disputes may impact the quality of concessions at the City's airports and/or the ability of other airport tenants to solicit ACDBE participation. Therefore, Concessionaire consents to have any disputes between Concessionaire and affected ACDBEs resolved by binding arbitration before an independent arbitrator other than the City, with reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, being recoverable by the prevailing party in accordance with any applicable regulations. This provision is intended for the benefit of all ACDBEs affected by Concessionaire's failure to comply with ACDBE agreements and grants ACDBEs specific third-party beneficiary rights. In cases deemed appropriate by the City, a dispute may lead to the withholding of sums that the City may owe Concessionaire until the City receives a copy of the final arbitration decision, but in no event will Concessionaire be excused from making any payments due to the City during the pendency of a dispute. Noncompliance or non-cooperation with the City may affect continued eligibility to enter into future contracting arrangements with the City.

MBEVWBE SPECIAL CONDITIONS AND RELATED FORMS

SPECIAL CONDITIONS REGARDING MINORITY OWNED BUSINESS ENTERPRISE COMMITMENT AND WOMEN OWNED BUSINESS ENTERPRISE COMMITMENT IN CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTS

I. Policy and Terms

As set forth in 2-92-650 et seq. of the Municipal Code of Chicago (MCC) it is the policy of the City of Chicago that businesses certified as Minority Owned Business Enterprises (MBEs) and Women Owned Business Enterprises (WBEs) in accordance with Section 2-92-420 et seq. of the MCC and Regulations Governing Certification of Minority and Women-owned Businesses, and all other Regulations promulgated under the aforementioned sections of the Municipal Code, shall have full and fair opportunities to participate fully in the

...shall have full and fair opportunities to participate fully in the performance of this contract. Therefore, bidders shall not discriminate against any person or business on the basis of race, color, national origin, or sex, and shall take affirmative actions to ensure that MBEs and WBEs shall have full and fair opportunities to compete for and perform subcontracts for supplies or services.

Failure to carry out the commitments and policies set forth herein shall constitute a material breach of the contract and may result in the termination of the contract or such remedy as the City of Chicago deems appropriate.

Under the City's MBE/WBE Construction Program as set forth in MCC 2-92-650 et seq, the program-wide aspirational goals are 26% Minority Owned Business Enterprise participation and 6% Women Owned Business Enterprise participation. The City has set goals of 26% and 6% on all contracts in line with its overall aspirational goals, unless otherwise specified herein, and is requiring that bidders make a good faith effort in meeting or exceeding these goals.

Contract Specific Goals and Bids

A bid may be rejected as non-responsive if it fails to submit one or more of the following with its bid demonstrating its good faith efforts to meet the Contract Specific Goals by reaching out to MBEs and WBEs to perform work on the contract:

- I. An MBE/WBE compliance plan demonstrating how the bidder plans to meet the Contract Specific Goals (Schedule D); and/or
- II. Documentation of Good Faith Efforts (Schedule H).

If a bidder's compliance plan falls short of the Contract Specific Goals, the bidder must include either a Schedule H demonstrating that it has made Good Faith Efforts to find MBE and WBE firms to participate or a request for a reduction or waiver of the goals.

Accordingly, the bidder or contractor commits to make good faith efforts to expend at least the following percentages of the total contract price (inclusive of any and all modifications and amendments), if awarded the contract:

MBE Contract Specific Goal: 26% WBE Contract Specific Goal: 6%

This Contract Specific Goal provision shall supersede any conflicting language or provisions that may be contained in this document.

For purposes of evaluating the bidder's responsiveness, the MBE and WBE Contract Specific Goals shall be percentages of the bidder's total base bid. However, the MBE and WBE Contract Specific Goals shall apply to the total value of this contract, including all amendments and modifications.

Contract Specific Goals and Contract Modifications

I. The MBE and WBE Contract Specific Goals established at the time of contract bid shall also apply to any modifications to the Contract after award. That is, any additional work and/or money added to the Contract must also adhere to these Special Conditions requiring Contractor to (sub) contract with MBEs and WBEs to meet the Contract Specific Goals.

1. Contractor must assist the Construction Manager or user Department in preparing its "proposed contract modification" by evaluating the subject matter of the modification and determining whether there are opportunities for MBE or WBE participation and at what rates.
2. Contractor must produce a statement listing the MBEs/WBEs that will be utilized on any contract modification. The statement must include the percentage of utilization of the firms. If no MBE/WBE participation is available, an explanation of good faith efforts to obtain participation must be included.

II. The Chief Procurement Officer shall review each proposed contract modification and amendment that by itself or aggregated with previous modification/amendment requests, increases the contract value by ten percent (10%) of the initial award, or $50,000, whichever is less, for opportunities to increase the participation of MBEs or WBEs already involved in the Contract.

II. Definitions

"Area of Specialty"* means the description of a MBE's or WBE's activity that has been determined by the Chief Procurement Officer to be most reflective of the firm's claimed specialty or expertise. Each MBE and WBE letter of certification contains a description of the firm's Area of Specialty. Credit toward the Contract Specific Goals shall be limited to the participation of firms performing within their Area of Specialty. The Department of Procurement Services does not make any representation concerning the ability of any MBE or WBE to perform work within its Area of Specialty. It is the responsibility of the bidder or contractor to determine the capability and capacity of MBEs and WBEs to perform the work proposed.

"B.E.P.D." means an entity certified as a Business enterprise owned or operated by people with disabilities as defined in MCC 2-92-586..

"Broker" means a person or entity that fills orders by purchasing or receiving supplies from a third party supplier rather than out of its own existing inventory and provides no commercially useful function other than acting as a conduit between his or her supplier and his or her customer.

"Commercially Useful Function" means responsibility for the execution of a distinct element of the work of the contract, which is carried out by actually performing, managing, and supervising the work involved, evidencing the responsibilities and risks of a business owner such as negotiating the terms of (sub)contracts, taking on a financial risk commensurate with the contract or its subcontract, responsibility for acquiring the appropriate lines of credit and/or loans, or fulfilling responsibilities as a joint venture partner as described in the joint venture agreement.

"Construction Contract" means a contract, purchase order or agreement (other than lease of real property) for the construction, repair, or improvement of any building, bridge, roadway, sidewalk, alley, railroad or other structure or infrastructure, awarded by any officer or agency of the City, other than the City Council, and whose cost is to be paid from City funds matter of the Construction Contract will count as Direct Participation toward the Contract Specific Goals.

"Directory" means the Directory of Minority Business MBEs and WBEs maintained and published by the Chief Procurement Officer. The Directory identifies firms that have been certified as MBEs and WBEs, and includes the date of their last certifications and the areas of specialty in which they have been certified. Bidders and contractors are responsible for verifying the current certification status of all proposed MBEs and WBEs.

"Executive Director" means the executive director of the Office of Compliance or his or her designee.

"Good Faith Efforts" means actions undertaken by a bidder or contractor to achieve a Contract Specific Goal that, by their scope, intensity, and appropriateness to the objective, can reasonably be expected to fulfill the program's requirements.

"Minority Business Enterprise" or "MBE" means a firm certified as a minority-owned business enterprise in accordance with City Ordinances and Regulations.

"Supplier" or "Distributor" refers to a company that owns, operates, or maintains a store, warehouse or other establishment in which materials, supplies, articles or equipment are bought, kept in stock and regularly sold or leased to the public in the usual course of business. A regular distributor or supplier is a firm that owns, operates, or maintains a store, warehouse, or other establishment in which the materials or supplies required for performance of the Contract are bought, kept in stock, and regularly sold to the public in the usual course of business. To be a regular distributor the firm must engage in, as its principal business and in its own name, the purchase and sale of the products in question. A regular distributor in such bulk items as steel, cement, gravel, stone, and petroleum products need not keep such products in stock if it owns or operates distribution equipment.

"Women Business Enterprise" or "WBE" means a firm certified as a women owned business enterprise in accordance with City Ordinances and Regulations.

JOINT VENTURES

The formation of joint ventures to provide MBEs and WBEs with capacity and experience at the prime contracting level, and thereby meet Contract Specific Goals (in whole or in part) is encouraged. A joint venture may consist of any combination of MBEs, WBEs, and non-certified firms as long as one member is an MBE or WBE.

- I. The joint venture may be eligible for credit towards the Contract Specific Goals only if:
1. The MBE or WBE joint venture partner's share in the capital contribution, control, management, risks and profits of the joint venture is equal to its ownership interest;
 2. The MBE or WBE joint venture partner, is responsible for a distinct, clearly defined portion of the requirements of the contract for which it is at risk;
 3. Each joint venture partner executes the bid to the City; and
 4. The joint venture partners have entered into a written agreement specifying the terms and conditions of the relationship between the partners and their relationship and responsibilities to the contract, and all such terms and conditions are in accordance with the conditions set forth in Items 1, 2, and 3 above in this Paragraph A.
- II. The Chief Procurement Officer shall evaluate the proposed joint venture agreement, the Schedule B submitted on behalf of the proposed joint venture, and all related documents to determine whether these requirements have been satisfied. The Chief Procurement Officer shall also consider the record of the joint venture partners on other City of Chicago contracts. The decision of the Chief Procurement Officer regarding the eligibility of the joint venture for credit towards meeting the Contract Specific Goals, and the portion of those goals met by the joint venture, shall be final.

The joint venture may receive MBE or WBE credit for work performed by the MBE or WBE joint venture partner(s) equal to the value of work performed by the MBE or WBE with its own forces for a distinct, clearly defined portion of the work.

Additionally, if employees of the joint venture entity itself (as opposed to employees of the MBE or WBE partner) perform the work then the value of the work may be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals at a rate equal to the MBE or WBE firm's percentage of participation in the joint venture as described in Schedule B.

The Chief Procurement Officer may also count the dollar value of work subcontracted to other MBEs and WBEs. Work performed by the forces of a non-certified joint venture partner shall not be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals.

Contract Specific Goals.

III. Schedule B: MBE/WBE Affidavit of Joint Venture

Where the bidders Compliance Plan includes the participation of any MBE or WBE as a joint venture partner, the bidder must submit with its bid a Schedule B and the proposed joint venture agreement. These documents must both clearly evidence that the MBE or WBE joint venture partner(s) will be responsible for a clearly defined portion of the work to be performed, and that the MBE's or WBE's responsibilities and risks are proportionate to its ownership percentage. The proposed joint venture agreement must include specific details related to:

IV. The parties' contributions of capital, personnel, and equipment and share of the costs of insurance and bonding; and/or work to be performed by employees of the newly formed joint venture entity;

1. Work items to be performed under the supervision of the MBE or WBE joint venture partner; and
2. The MBE's or WBE's commitment of management, supervisory, and operative personnel to the performance of the contract.

NOTE: Vague, general descriptions of the responsibilities of the MBE or WBE joint venture partner do not provide any basis for awarding credit. For example, descriptions such as "participate in the budgeting process," "assist with hiring," or "work with managers to improve customer service" do not identify distinct, clearly defined portions of the work. Roles assigned should require activities that are performed on a regular, recurring basis rather than as needed. The roles must also be pertinent to the nature of the business for which credit is being sought. For instance, if the scope of work required by the City entails the delivery of goods or services to various sites in the City, stating that the MBE or WBE joint venture partner will be responsible for the performance of all routine maintenance and all repairs required to the vehicles used to deliver such goods or services is pertinent to the nature of the business for which credit is being sought.

IV. Counting MBE and WBE Participation Towards the Contract Specific Goals Work items to be performed by the MBE's or WBE's own forces

Refer to this section when preparing the MBE/WBE compliance plan and completing Schedule D-1 for guidance on what value of the participation by MBEs and WBEs will be counted toward the stated Contract Specific Goals. The "Percent Amount of Participation" depends on whether and with whom a MBE or WBE subcontracts out any portion of its work and other factors.

Firms that are certified as both MBE and WBE may only be listed on a bidder's compliance plan as either a MBE or a WBE to demonstrate compliance with the Contract Specific Goals. For example, a firm certified as both a MBE and a WBE may only be listed on the bidder's compliance plan under one of the categories, but not both. Additionally, a firm that is certified as both a MBE and a WBE could not self-perform 100% of a contract, it would have to show good faith efforts to meet the Contract Specific Goals by including in its compliance plan work to be performed by another MBE or WBE firm, depending on which certification that dual- certified firm chooses to count itself as.

- A. Only expenditures to firms that perform a Commercially Useful Function as defined above may count toward the Contract Specific Goals.
- B. The CPO will determine whether a firm is performing a commercially useful function by evaluating the amount of work subcontracted, whether the amount the firm is to be paid under the contract is commensurate with the work it is actually performing and the credit claimed for its performance of the work, industry practices, and other relevant factors.

A. A MBE or WBE does not perform a commercially useful function if its participation is only required to receive payments in order to obtain the appearance of MBE or WBE participation. The CPO may examine similar commercial transactions, particularly those in which MBEs or WBEs do not participate, to determine whether non MBE and non WBE firms perform the same function in the marketplace to make a determination.

- Only the value of the dollars paid to the MBE or WBE firm for work that it performs in its Area of Specialty in which it is certified counts toward the Contract Specific Goals.

Only payments made to MBE and WBE firms that meet BOTH the Commercially Useful Function and Area of Specialty requirements above will be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals.

- If the MBE or WBE performs the work itself:
 - 100% of the value of work actually performed by the MBE's or WBE's own forces shall be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals, including the cost of supplies purchased or equipment leased by the MBE or WBE from third parties or second tier subcontractors in order to perform its (sub)contract with its own forces. 0% of the value of work at the project site that a MBE or WBE subcontracts to a non-certified firm counts toward the Contract Specific Goals

If the MBE or WBE is a manufacturer:

- 100% of expenditures to a MBE or WBE manufacturer for items needed for the Contract shall be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals. A manufacturer is a firm that operates or maintains a factory or establishment that produces on the premises the materials or supplies obtained by the bidder or contractor.

If the MBE or WBE is a distributor or supplier:

- 60% of expenditures for materials and supplies purchased from a MBE or WBE that is certified as a regular dealer or supplier shall be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals.

If the MBE or WBE is a broker:

- 0% of expenditures paid to brokers will be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals.
- As defined above, Brokers provide no commercially useful function.

If the MBE or WBE is a member of the joint venture contractor/bidder:

- A joint venture may count the portion of the total dollar value of the contract equal to the distinct, clearly defined portion of the work of the contract that the MBE or WBE performs with its own forces toward the Contract

Specific Goals.

- OR if employees of this distinct joint venture entity perform the work then the value of the work may be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals at a rate equal to the MBE or WBE firm's percentage of participation in the joint venture as described in Schedule B.
- Note: a joint venture may also count the dollar value of work subcontracted to other MBEs and WBEs, however, work subcontracted out to non-certified firms may not be counted.

C. If the MBE or WBE subcontracts out any of its work:

1. 100% of the value of the work subcontracted to other MBEs or WBEs performing work in its Area of Specialty may be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals.
2. 0% of the value of work that a MBE or WBE subcontracts to a non-certified firm counts toward the Contract Specific Goals (except for the cost of supplies purchased or equipment leased by the MBE or WBE from third parties or second tier subcontractors in order to perform its (sub)contract with its own forces as allowed by Cl. above).
3. The fees or commissions charged for providing a bona fide service, such as professional, technical, consulting or managerial services or for providing bonds or insurance or the procurement of essential personnel, facilities, equipment, materials or supplies required for performance of the Contract, may be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals, provided that the fee or commission is determined by the Chief Procurement Officer to be reasonable and not excessive as compared with fees customarily allowed for similar

4. The fees charged for delivery of materials and supplies required on a job site (but not the cost of the materials and supplies themselves) when the hauler, trucker, or delivery service is not also the manufacturer of or a regular dealer in the materials and supplies, provided that the fee is determined by the Chief Procurement Officer to be reasonable and not excessive as compared with fees customarily allowed for similar services.
5. The fees or commissions charged for providing any bonds or insurance, but not the cost of the premium itself, specifically required for the performance of the Contract, provided that the fee or commission is determined by the Chief Procurement Officer to be reasonable and not excessive as compared with fees customarily allowed for similar services.

V. Procedure to Determine Bid Compliance

The following Schedules and requirements govern the bidder's or contractor's MBE/WBE proposal:

- Schedule B: MBE/WBE Affidavit of Joint Venture
 - Where the bidder's Compliance Plan includes the participation of any MBE or WBE as a joint venture partner, the bidder must submit with its bid a Schedule B and the proposed joint venture agreement. See Section III above for detailed requirements.
- Schedule C: MBE/WBE Letter of Intent to Perform as a Subcontractor or Supplier

The bidder must submit the appropriate Schedule C with the bid for each MBE and WBE included on the Schedule D. The City encourages subcontractors to utilize the electronic fillable format Schedule C, which is available at the Department of Procurement Services website, <<http://cityofchicago.org/forms>>. Suppliers must submit the Schedule C for Suppliers, first tier subcontractors must submit a Schedule C for Subcontractors to the Prime Contractor and second or lower tier subcontractors must submit a Schedule C for second tier Subcontractors. Each Schedule C must accurately detail the work to be performed by the MBE or WBE and the agreed upon rates/prices. Each Schedule C must also include a separate sheet as an attachment on which the MBE or WBE fully describes its proposed scope of work, including a description of the commercially useful function being performed by the MBE or WBE in its Area of Specialty. If a facsimile copy of the Schedule C has been submitted with the bid, an executed original Schedule C must be submitted by the bidder for each MBE and WBE included on the Schedule D within five (5) business days after the date of the bid opening.

D. Schedule D: Compliance Plan Regarding MBE and WBE Utilization

The bidder must submit a Schedule D with the bid. The City encourages bidders to utilize the electronic fillable format Schedule D, which is available at the Department of Procurement Services website, <<http://cityofchicago.org/forms>>. An approved Compliance Plan is required before a contract may commence.

The Compliance Plan must commit to the utilization of each listed MBE and WBE. The bidder is responsible for calculating the dollar equivalent of the MBE and WBE Contract Specific Goals as percentages of the total base bid. All Compliance Plan commitments must conform to the Schedule Cs.

A bidder or contractor may not modify its Compliance Plan after bid opening except as directed by the Department of Procurement Services to correct minor errors or omissions. Bidders shall not be permitted to add MBEs or WBEs after bid opening to meet the Contract Specific Goals, however, contractors are encouraged to add additional MBE/WBE vendors to their approved compliance plan during the performance of the contract when additional opportunities for participation are identified. Except in cases where substantial, documented justification is provided, the bidder or contractor shall not reduce the dollar commitment made to any MBE or WBE in order to achieve conformity between the Schedule Cs and Schedule D. All terms and conditions for MBE and WBE participation on the contract must be negotiated and agreed to between the bidder or contractor and the MBE or WBE prior to the submission of the Compliance Plan. If a proposed MBE or WBE ceases to be available after submission of the Compliance Plan, the bidder or contractor must comply with the provisions in Section VII.

E. Letters of Certification

A copy of each proposed MBE's and WBE's Letter of Certification from the City of Chicago must be submitted with the bid.

A Letters of Certification includes a statement of the MBE's or WBE's area(s) of specialty. The MBE's or WBE's scope of work as detailed in the Schedule C must conform to its area(s) of specialty. Where a MBE or WBE is proposed to perform work not covered by its Letter of Certification, the MBE or WBE must request the addition of a new area at least 30 calendar days prior to the bid opening.

F. Schedule F: Report of Subcontractor Solicitations

A Schedule F must be submitted with the bid, documenting all subcontractors and suppliers solicited for participation on the contract by the bidder. Failure to submit the Schedule F may render the bid non-responsive.

G. Schedule H: Documentation of Good Faith Efforts

1. If a bidder determines that it is unable to meet the Contract Specific Goals, it must document its good faith efforts to do so, including the submission of Attachment C, Log of Contacts.

H. If the bidder's Compliance Plan demonstrates that it has not met the Contract Specific Goals in full or in part, the bidder must submit its Schedule H no later than three business days after notification by the Chief Procurement Officer of its status as the apparent lowest bidder. Failure to submit a complete Schedule H will cause the bid to be rejected as non-responsive.

I. Documentation must include but is not necessarily limited to:

1. A detailed statement of efforts to identify and select portions of work identified in the bid solicitation for subcontracting to MBEs and WBEs;

2. A listing of all MBEs and WBEs contacted for the bid solicitation that includes:

Names, addresses, emails and telephone numbers of firms solicited; Date and time of contact;
Person contacted;
Method of contact (letter, telephone call, facsimile, electronic mail, etc.).

3. Evidence of contact, including:

- Project identification and location; Classification/commodity of work items for which quotations were sought;
- Date, item, and location for acceptance of subcontractor bids; Detailed statements summarizing direct negotiations with appropriate MBEs and WBEs for specific portions of the work and indicating why agreements were not reached.
Bids received from all subcontractors.

4. Documentation of bidder or contractor contacts with at least one of the minority and women assistance associations on Attachment A.

- Agreements between a bidder or contractor and a MBE or WBE in which the MBE or WBE promises not to provide subcontracting quotations to other bidders or contractors are prohibited.

- Prior to award, the bidder agrees to promptly cooperate with the Department of Procurement Services in submitting to interviews, allowing entry to places of business, providing further documentation, or soliciting the cooperation of a proposed MBE or WBE. Failure to cooperate may render the bid non-responsive.
- If the City determines that the Compliance Plan contains minor errors or omissions, the bidder or contractor must submit a revised Compliance Plan within five (5) business days after notification by the City that remedies the minor errors or omissions. Failure to correct all minor errors or omissions may result in the determination that a bid is non-responsive.
- No later than three (3) business days after receipt of the executed contract, the contractor must execute a complete subcontract agreement or purchase order with each MBE and WBE listed in the Compliance Plan. No later than eight (8) business days after receipt of the executed contract, the contractor must provide copies of each signed subcontract, purchase order, or other agreement to the Department of Procurement Services.

VI. Demonstration of Good Faith Efforts

I. In evaluating the Schedule H to determine whether the bidder or contractor has made good faith efforts, the performance of other bidders or contractors in meeting the goals may be considered.

II. The Chief Procurement Officer shall consider, at a minimum, the bidder's efforts to:

1. Solicit through reasonable and available means at least 50% (or at least five when there are more than eleven certified firms in the commodity area) of MBEs and WBEs certified in the anticipated scopes of subcontracting of the contract, as documented by the Schedule H. The bidder or contractor must solicit MBEs and WBEs within seven (7) days prior to the date bids are due. The bidder or contractor must take appropriate steps to follow up initial solicitations with interested MBEs or WBEs.
2. Advertise the contract opportunities in media and other venues oriented toward MBEs and WBEs.
3. Provide interested MBEs or WBEs with adequate information about the plans, specifications, and requirements of the contract, including addenda, in a timely manner to assist them in responding to the solicitation.

4. Negotiate in good faith with interested MBEs or WBEs that have submitted bids. That there may be some additional costs involved in soliciting and using MBEs and WBEs is not a sufficient reason for a bidder's failure to meet the Contract Specific Goals, as long as such costs are reasonable.
5. Not reject MBEs or WBEs as being unqualified without sound reasons based on a thorough investigation of their capabilities. The MBE's or WBE's standing within its industry, membership in specific groups, organizations, or associations and political or social affiliations are not legitimate causes for rejecting or not soliciting bids to meet the Contract Specific Goals.

6. Make a portion of the work available to MBE or WBE subcontractors and suppliers and selecting those portions of the work or material consistent with the available MBE or WBE subcontractors and suppliers, so as to facilitate meeting the Contract Specific Goals.
7. Make good faith efforts, despite the ability or desire of a bidder or contractor to perform the work of a contract with its own organization. A bidder or contractor who desires to self-perform the work of a contract must demonstrate good faith efforts unless the Contract Specific Goals have been met.
8. Select portions of the work to be performed by MBEs or WBEs in order to increase the likelihood that the goals will be met. This includes, where appropriate, breaking out contract work items into economically feasible units to facilitate MBE or WBE participation, even when the bidder or contractor might otherwise prefer to perform these work items with its own forces.
- J. Make efforts to assist interested MBEs or WBEs in obtaining bonding, lines of credit, or insurance as required by the City or bidder or contractor.
- K. Make efforts to assist interested MBEs or WBEs in obtaining necessary equipment, supplies, materials, or related assistance or services; and
- L. Effectively use the services of the City; minority or women community organizations; minority or women assistance groups; local, state, and federal minority or women business assistance offices; and other organizations to provide assistance in the recruitment and placement of MBEs or WBEs.
 1. If the bidder disagrees with the City's determination that it did not make good faith efforts, the bidder may file a protest pursuant to the Department of Procurement Services Solicitation and Contracting Process Protest Procedures within 10 business days of a final adverse decision by the Chief Procurement Officer.

VII. Changes to Compliance Plan

- No changes to the Compliance Plan or contractual MBE and WBE commitments or substitution of MBE or WBE subcontractors may be made without the prior written approval of the Chief Procurement Officer. Unauthorized changes or substitutions, including performing the work designated for a subcontractor with the contractor's own forces, shall be a violation of these Special Conditions and a breach of the contract with the City, and may cause termination of the executed Contract for breach, and/or subject the bidder or contractor to contract remedies or other sanctions. The facts supporting the request for changes must not have been known nor reasonably could have been known by the parties prior to entering into the subcontract. Bid shopping is prohibited. The bidder or contractor must negotiate with the subcontractor to resolve the problem. If requested by either party, the Department of Procurement Services shall facilitate such a meeting. Where there has been a mistake or disagreement about the scope of work, the MBE or WBE can be substituted only where an agreement cannot be reached for a reasonable price for the correct scope of work.

- Substitutions of a MBE or WBE subcontractor shall be permitted only on the following basis:
 - Unavailability after receipt of reasonable notice to proceed;
 - Failure of performance;
 - Financial incapacity;
 - Refusal by the subcontractor to honor the bid or proposal price or scope;
 - Mistake of fact or law about the elements of the scope of work of a solicitation where a reasonable price cannot be agreed;
 - Failure of the subcontractor to meet insurance, licensing or bonding requirements;
 - The subcontractor's withdrawal of its bid or proposal; or
 - De-certification of the subcontractor as a MBE or WBE. (Graduation from the MBE/WBE program does not constitute de-certification.)
- If it becomes necessary to substitute a MBE or WBE or otherwise change the Compliance Plan, the procedure will be as follows:
 - M. The bidder or contractor must notify the Chief Procurement Officer in writing of the request to substitute a MBE or WBE or otherwise change the Compliance Plan. The request must state specific reasons for the substitution or change. A letter from the MBE or WBE to be substituted or affected by the change stating that it cannot perform on the contract or that it agrees with the change in its scope of work must be submitted with the request.
 - N. The City will approve or deny a request for substitution or other change within 15 business days of receipt of the request.
 - O'. Where the bidder or contractor has established the basis for the substitution to the satisfaction of the Chief Procurement Officer, it must make good faith efforts to meet the Contract Specific Goal by substituting a MBE or WBE subcontractor. Documentation of a replacement MBE or WBE, or of good faith efforts, must meet the requirements in sections V and VI. If the MBE or WBE Contract Specific Goal cannot be reached and good faith efforts have been made, as determined by the Chief Procurement Officer, the bidder or contractor may substitute with a non-MBE or non-WBE.
 - P. If a bidder or contractor plans to hire a subcontractor for any scope of work that was not previously disclosed in the Compliance Plan, the bidder or contractor must obtain the approval of the Chief Procurement Officer to modify the Compliance Plan and must make good faith efforts to ensure that MBEs or WBEs have a fair opportunity to bid on the new scope of work.
 - Q. A new subcontract must be executed and submitted to the Chief Procurement Officer within five business days of the bidder's or contractor's receipt of City approval for the substitution or other change.
 - D. The City shall not be required to approve extra payment for escalated costs incurred by the contractor when

...the City shall not be required to approve extra payments for additional costs incurred by the contractor when a substitution of subcontractors becomes necessary to comply with MBE/WBE contract requirements.

VIII. Reporting and Record Keeping

- During the term of the contract, the contractor and its non-certified subcontractors must submit partial and final waivers of lien from MBE and WBE subcontractors that show the accurate cumulative dollar amount of subcontractor payments made to date. Upon acceptance of the Final Quantities from the City of Chicago, FINAL certified waivers of lien from the MBE and WBE subcontractors must be attached to the contractor's acceptance letter and forwarded to the Department of Procurement Services, Attention: Chief Procurement Officer.
- The contractor will be responsible for reporting payments to all subcontractors on a monthly basis in the form of an electronic audit. Upon the first payment issued by the City of Chicago to the contractor for services performed, on the first day of each month and every month thereafter, email and/or fax audit notifications will be sent out to the contractor with instructions to report payments that have been made in the prior month to each MBE and WBE. The reporting of payments to all subcontractors must be entered into the Certification and Compliance Monitoring System (C2), or whatever reporting system is currently in place, on or before the fifteenth (15th) day of each month.

Once the prime contractor has reported payments made to each MBE and WBE, including zero dollar amount payments, the MBE and WBE will receive an email and/or fax notification requesting them to log into the system and confirm payments received. All monthly confirmations must be reported on or before the 20th day of each month. Contractor and subcontractor reporting to the C2 system must be completed by the 25th of each month or payments may be withheld.

All subcontract agreements between the contractor and MBE/WBE firms or any first tier non-certified firm and lower tier MBE/WBE firms must contain language requiring the MBE/WBE to respond to email and/or fax notifications from the City of Chicago requiring them to report payments received for the prime or the non-certified firm.

Access to the Certification and Compliance Monitoring System (C2), which is a web based reporting system, can be found at: <<http://chicago.mwdbe.com>>

R. The Chief Procurement Officer or any party designated by the, Chief Procurement Officer shall have access to the contractor's books and records, including without limitation payroll records, tax returns and records and books of account, to determine the contractor's compliance with its commitment to MBE and WBE participation and the status of any MBE or WBE performing any portion of the contract. This provision shall be in addition to, and not a substitute for, any other provision allowing inspection of the contractor's records by any officer or official of the City for any purpose.

S. The contractor shall maintain records of all relevant data with respect to the utilization of MBEs and WBEs.

- The contractor shall maintain records of all relevant data with respect to the utilization of MBEs and WBEs, retaining these records for a period of at least five years after final acceptance of the work. Full access to these records shall be granted to City, federal or state authorities or other authorized persons.

IX. Non-Compliance

- Without limitation, the following shall constitute a material breach of this contract and entitle the City to declare a default, terminate the contract, and exercise those remedies provided for in the contract at law or in equity: (1) failure to demonstrate good faith efforts; and (2) disqualification as a MBE or

193

WBE of the contractor or any joint venture partner, subcontractor or supplier if its status as an MBE or WBE was a factor in the award of the contract and such status was misrepresented by the contractor.

- Payments due to the contractor may be withheld until corrective action is taken.
- Pursuant to 2-92-740, remedies or sanctions may include disqualification from contracting or subcontracting on additional City contracts for up to three years, and the amount of the discrepancy between the amount of the commitment in the Compliance Plan, as such amount may be amended through change orders or otherwise over the term of the contract, and the amount paid to MBEs or WBEs. The consequences provided herein shall be in addition to any other criminal or civil liability to which such entities may be subject.
- The contractor shall have the right to protest the final determination of noncompliance and the imposition of any penalty by the Chief Procurement Officer pursuant to 2-92-740 of the Municipal Code of the City of Chicago, within 15 business days of the final determination.

X. Arbitration

If the City determines that a contractor has not made good faith efforts to fulfill its Compliance Plan, the affected MBE or WBE may recover damages from the contractor.

Disputes between the contractor and the MBE or WBE shall be resolved by binding arbitration before the American Arbitration Association (AAA), with reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and arbitrator's fees, being recoverable by a prevailing MBE or WBE. Participation in such arbitration is a material provision of the Construction Contract to which these Special Conditions are an Exhibit. This provision is intended for the benefit of any MBE or WBE affected by the contractor's failure to fulfill its Compliance Plan and grants such entity specific third party beneficiary rights. These rights are non-waivable and take precedence over any agreement to the contrary, including but not limited to those contained in a subcontract, suborder, or communicated orally between a contractor and a MBE or WBE. Failure by the Contractor to participate in any such arbitration is a material breach of the Construction Contract.

A MBE or WBE seeking arbitration shall serve written notice upon the contractor and file a demand for arbitration with the AAA in Chicago, IL. The dispute shall be arbitrated in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the AAA. All arbitration fees are to be paid pro rata by the parties.

The MBE or WBE must copy the City on the Demand for Arbitration within 10 business days after filing with the AAA. The MBE or WBE must copy the City on the arbitrator* s decision within 10 business days of receipt of the decision. Judgment upon the arbitrator's award may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

XI.Eaual Employment Opportunity

Compliance with MBE and WBE requirements will not diminish or supplant equal employment opportunity and civil rights provisions as required by law related to bidder or contractor and subcontractor obligations.

Introduction

O'Hare and Midway International Airports are owned by the City of Chicago and operated by the Chicago Department of Aviation (CDA). As a department within the City of Chicago, CDA is responsible for the management of the Airports, including the concessions program, and accordingly CDA reserves the right to review and approve the construction or modification of any Concession on Airport property.

For O'Hare International Airport official addresses and site map refer to:

- Exhibit 1: O'Hare International Airport Official Addresses and Site Map(s)

For Midway International Airport official addresses and site map refer to:

- Exhibit 2: Midway International Airport Official Addresses and Site Map

The procedures, submission requirements, and deadlines set forth in this C-SOP document are mandatory and may only be waived in unique circumstances upon written approval by CDA Concessions. CDA reserves the right to modify the requirements at any time.

The Concessionaire shall provide evidence of professional services throughout all stages of work. All project documentation shall be prepared, signed, and stamped by a licensed design professional. Throughout the design process the Concessionaire is to utilize the most sustainable design practices in the industry with reference to the Sustainable Airport Manual (SAM™) to the extent dictated in the Concessionaire's signed Lease and License Agreement. The CDA, through its Design and Construction Division & CDA Concessions, reviews, oversees, and approves design and work for all new construction, renovation, and remodeling projects at the Airports.

Development and Design Process Overview

The concept development and design process has been established to provide a systematic and organized process by which a concessions concept and design are reviewed and approved by CDA Concessions. It should be noted that field verification is mandatory for all projects.

STEP 1.0: Project Initiation

1.1: Concept Proposal and Design Presentation

In order to begin a remodel project, store renovation or concept change, CDA Concessions must approve the proposed project and/or concept. The Concessionaire's concept design should include spatial relationships or models as necessary to describe the image and function of the project for CDA's review. CDA Concessions will be available to assist with the presentation scheduling.

The Concessionaire must provide the following items at the Conceptual Design presentation:

Design and Construction Standard Operating Procedures Concessions Projects (C-SOP) Page 5 or" 23

- 1) Site Plan
- 2) Concept plan
- 3) Proposed terminal, concourse and requested square footage,
- 4) The existing to remain or newly proposed lease line
- 5) Design perspectives / renderings (illustrative images)
- 6) Design plans / elevations
- 7) Proposed materials / finish board (to be mailed to the address below)
- 8) Preliminary overall project schedule
- 9) Preliminary construction budget
- 10) Sample menu

The concepts documents should be submitted via email to:

These items will be reviewed by CDA Concessions for completeness. The Concessionaire will be contacted via email or hard copy letter with review results within ten (10) business days of the Concept presentation with comments and direction regarding items that need revisions or enhancements, and that should be addressed before the Concessionaire moves forward to submit a Project Initiation Letter.

1.2: Project Initiation Letter

When CDA Concessions issues written approval for the conceptual design, the Concessionaire shall submit to CDA's Coordinating Architect of Design and Construction, a Project Initiation Letter (PIL) on Concessionaire's or Concessionaire's Architect's letterhead. Within ten (10) business days of receiving the PIL, CDA will send a "Response to Project Initiation Letter" to the Concessionaire with comments and direction regarding the required number of and completion level of design submittals, along with the assigned CDA Project Number which must be included on all future project correspondence and submittals including permits. CDA's Coordinating Architect of Design and Construction will determine if the scope of work requires a CDA Project Number as well as a full design and construction review. At that time, it is also determined if compliance with the SAM™ is required. Not all projects will be assigned a CDA Project Number or must be SAM™ compliant. Based on the construction scope and duration, some projects may be eligible to proceed through CDA's eForm system (for more information on eForms see Step 5). All Concessionaire questions, concerns, or requests for information or project coordination should be directed to the CDA POC.

For a list of required documentation to include in the PIL refer to: • Exhibit A:
Project Initiation Letter Submittal Check List

Please refer to Step 1.1 for where O'Hare and Midway Pre-Construction Submittals should be sent. Once the PIL has been received and acknowledged, the project owner and/or representative is responsible and required to provide the following project documentation and electronic documentation to the CDA Concessions POC:

Design and Construction Standard Operating Procedures Concessions Projects (C-SOP) Page6of23

- Project written reports pertaining to all Design Reviews, Pre-Construction, Construction and PostConstruction updates e-mailed to the CDA POC as requested. The project owner and/or representative is to ensure all project meetings be attended by a project representative. Please refer to Step 6.6 for further information.

1.3: Sustainable Airport Manual (SAM™)

The Concessionaire is required to submit a Sustainable Airport Manual (SAM™) Checklist. The Designer will complete and submit a checklist for the SAM™ Terminal Occupants - Design & Construction Chapter (SAM™ TO-DC Credits 1.0 to 6.0) and include all relevant supporting documentation. Be advised that the Terminal Occupants -Operations & Maintenance (CT-OM) checklist is not required for construction projects (all projects would need to submit a checklist). Please refer to link below:

End of STEP 1

STEP 2.0: Design Review

All projects require review by CDA Concessions. The Concessionaire's design professional shall perform code review to determine what permits are required. If it is determined that the scope of work does not require permit(s), the design professional shall provide this determination in writing to CDA Concessions. Otherwise, building permits are issued by the Department of Buildings. CDA encourages the Concessionaire to allow ample schedule time to acquire the required building permits. Please note that if a sign construction permit is required, it can only be obtained by a licensed sign contractor. All projects are to conform and comply with all applicable CDA standards.

2.1: Concessionaire and Concessionaire's Consultants' Responsibilities

The Concessionaire is ultimately responsible for all work designed, approved and constructed in the Airport by its vendors and consultants. ^v

2.2: Design Overview

The design review process includes design drawing, review, and approval. The project design timeline will vary based on multiple factors, such as scope of work, existing conditions, drawing completeness at time of submittal, and/or as dictated by CDA.

Please note:

60% Design Submittal
Final CDA Document Submittal

- CDA's design review requires a minimum of fifteen (15) business days.
- Concessionaire's design professional is allotted thirty (30) business days after receipt of CDA comments to submit the next drawing package.

100% Construction Document Submittal

The Concessionaire will receive a "Review and Conditions Letter" qualifications, "Reviewed as Noted" or a "Revise and Resubmit".

Design and Construction Standard Operating Procedures Concessions Projects (C-SOP) Page 7 of 23

2.3: Design Submittals /

The Concessionaire will submit to the CDA's Coordinating Architect of Design and Construction, at the 30%, 60%, 90%, and 100% design completion levels, or other completion level combinations based upon review and completeness of the initial and follow-up submittals. Less complex projects may be approved to deviate from this requirement, which will be addressed in CDA's "Response to Project Initiation Letter".

The Concessionaire is required to prepare and submit architectural and engineering drawings, material samples, specifications, lighting schedule and catalog cuts, display fixture and equipment plans, and other technical data as necessary to create a complete design package. The submittal must be in accordance with General Procedures and as described in the Concession Lease and License Agreement.

- 1) The design drawing documents shall be prepared by design professionals licensed to practice in the State of Illinois.
- 2) Particular attention should be given to the non-combustible classification of the building, related flame spread ratings and smoke development classification of materials. Documentation should demonstrate compliance with these requirements.
- 3) Concessionaire documentation for all submissions shall be provided in imperial measurement at the following suggested minimum scales:
 - a) Key plans; 1/32" = 1'-0", with the location of the space clearly identified by the column line designation.
 - b) Floor plans, reflected ceiling plans, merchandising plans, interior elevations, sections and related details; = 1'-0".
 - c) Passenger traffic flow diagrams (queuing) and adjacency plans at 1/8" = 1'-0".
 - d) Storefronts, signage, logos and lettering, in elevation, section or detail; 1/8" = 1'-0".
 - e) Sample boards identifying all proposed materials, 11" x 17" panel minimum, include legend.
 - f) Sample boards identifying photos for all proposed furniture and lighting fixtures, 11" x 17" panel minimum, include legend.
 - g) Renderings 11" x 17" or larger for presentation, provide 11" x 17" hand-out copies to be distributed to the attendees.
- 4) All drawings shall be submitted in accordance to CDA CAD / BIM Standards. Electronic submittals will also be accepted in AutoCAD format or the current CDA standard format. A complete set of PDFs is also required as part of each Concessionaire design submission. During design development, at the Concessionaire's request, CDA will make available known as-built files.
- 5) Concessionaire and design team to relay existing condition findings to CDA Facilities for review and approval before submitting the 30% design submittal. An in-person meeting may be required. The CDA POC will help facilitate a meeting date and time.

2.4: Concessionaire and CDA Signage

Sign design documents must be submitted for review and approval by CDA separate from the phase submittals. Each project must include an illuminated storefront sign. Where it is applicable a blade sign may also be included. Design documents for the signage must express the image, location, specifications, materials, and dimensions. All signage, with or without electrical components, require a sign permit from the Department of Buildings; which can only be obtained by a licensed sign contractor.

The Concessionaire must inform the CDA Concessions POC if the project requires airport owned signage removal or modification. A walk through with CDA Concessions will be scheduled to ensure adequate time will be allotted for the required airport owned sign work to occur during the construction phase. Any CDA signage needing to be removed or relocated within the project area must be performed by CDA. If CDA signage is located within the project area, the Concessionaire must include specifications in the construction documents, detailing steps to be taken by the contractor to adequately protect all CDA signage to ensure it is not damaged during construction. ¹

2.5: Review Comments

CDA's Coordinating Architect of Design and Construction will distribute a blank "Review Comments Form" form to the appropriate review team. This document will be distributed as an Excel Workbook file and will only be used by the reviewer for their comments. After all comments have been made, each reviewer will send back their comments to the CDA's Coordinating Architect of Design and Construction.

The designer is to provide written line item responses to all comments in the workbook file. This process will repeat for each review phase, as designated in the CDA's "Response to Project Initiation Letter".

Please refer to:

- Exhibit B: Submittal Review Comments Form Concessions 2.6: Response to Comments

The Concessionaire is required to respond to all review comments listed on the Review Comments Form, as well as any issues identified in the "Review and Conditions Letter". The spreadsheet column titled "Concessionaire Response" must be completed and accompany the preceding design submittal. Failure to do so will affect the design review process timeline. Concessionaire must respond to all review comments, in writing and submit within or no less than three (3) business days prior to the request for a Pre-Construction Meeting.

2.7: Requests for Information

Concessionaire questions, concerns or requests for information or project coordination should be directed to the CDA Concessions

POC.

2.8: Requests for As-Built Drawings

The Concessionaire, their architect and/or engineer may submit an as-built drawing request from CDA for use in their design. Use the link below "Document Request Form" and submit it to the CDA for approval. As-built drawings will not be available until the form is signed by CDA. The Concessionaire, their architect and/or engineer will be notified by the CDA if and when the drawings are available. Please refer to:

Exhibit B.I: CDA Standard Electronic Document Request Form 2.9: Requests for CDA Design Standards Variance

The Concessionaire, their architect and/or engineer may submit a request for a variance to the CDA Design Standards. Use the link below to access the "Designer's Request for CDA Design Standards Variance" form. The variance must be reviewed and approved by CDA Design and Construction. Please refer to:

Schematic Design (SD) Submittal

6/15/2020 - Revised

The 30% SD submittal illustrates further development of the Concessionaire's design concept. The 30% SD should respond to the feedback given during the Concept Design Presentation and include, at a minimum, more definitive spatial relationships, updated perspectives, plans, elevations, sections, and overall dimensions and other illustrative materials critical to describing the development of the project.

Work required outside the Concessionaire's lease/license line should be clearly identified on all drawings and communicated directly to the CDA POC. Designs must also specify affected Airport base building structure or utilities, including but not limited to: advertising space, public telephones, vending devices, internet kiosks, charging stations, AED's, fire extinguishers, signage, public address speakers, mechanical, electrical, plumbing, fire protection equipment, etc.

For a detailed list of 30% SD Submittal refer to:

- Exhibit C: 30% Schematic Design (SD) Submittal Check List

2.11: CDA Review and Response to 30% SD Submittal

The CDA will provide a "Review and Conditions Letter" as well as a Review Comments Form (see Steps 2.5 and 2.6), which is used for all submittals throughout the design review process between CDA review parties and the Concessionaire's architect or design professional.

The letter will include the following information:

- 1) Identify the project status as "Reviewed as Noted" or "Revise and Resubmit".
- 2) Provide comments and direction regarding the proposed scope of work and design submittals.
- 3) If applicable, display the assigned CDA Project Number.

- 4) Determine if the project will require (SAM™) compliance.

2.12: 60% Design Development (DD) Submittal

The 60% DD drawings further enhance the previous submittals and should include: architectural, structural, mechanical, electrical, plumbing, fire protection, and equipment demolition plans as well as MEP existing conditions, floor and reflected ceiling plans, elevations, sections, details, specifications, system diagrams, and structural load calculations. Additionally, this submittal should include meter locations: water, gas and electrical. The 60% DD drawings should convey the full scope of work and all impacts to the Airport base building and adjacent spaces. The Concessionaire, their architect and/or engineer may also be required to attend coordination meetings with CDA to present and clarify the submittal documents. For a detailed list of 60% DD Submittal refer to:

- Exhibit C1: 60% Design Development (DD) Submittal Check List
- Exhibit C.2: Electrical Submittal Check List
- Exhibit C.3: Mechanical, Fire Protection & Plumbing Submittal Check List

2.13: Additional Submittals

CDA Concessions or CDA Design and Construction may determine that the proposed design is more complex and will require an intermediate design review, page turn with the CDA, or site walkthrough to confirm all concerns and questions are sufficiently resolved. The CDA will identify in the 60% "Review and Conditions Letter" that an additional submittal is required and will list the reasons for the request before continuing to the next major phase.

The additional submittal(s) must address the issues identified by CDA. The Concessionaire is encouraged to schedule

a coordination meeting with CDA to discuss the issues identified. See Step 2.15 for where to send Design submittals via email and hardcopies. All submittals to include the project number and design submittal phase on the email subject line i.e. THXXX. 19-00 Concession's Project Name 60% Submission

2.14: Compliance Overview

All Concessionaires are required to comply with the City of Chicago construction compliance rules, city residency requirement and certified payroll requirements. See Step 9 for more information.

2.15: 90% Construction Document (CD) Submittal

The 90% CD drawings further enhance the previous submittals and should include: specifications, signage details and locations, and additional mechanical, electrical, fire protection, and plumbing details. With the 90% submittal, comments should include minimal outstanding issues that need to be incorporated into the 100% CDs.

For a detailed list of 90% CD Submittal refer to:

STEP 3.0: Final CDA Document Review and Conditional Approval to Construct 3.1: Final CDA Document

Submittal

When the documents are 100% complete, the Concessionaire will need to submit the final documents to CDA for review. If approved, CDA will issue a "Review and Conditions Letter" with a "Reviewed as Noted" status to the Concessionaire, and if applicable, a separate letter to the City of Chicago, Department of Buildings, indicating the construction documents have been reviewed and approved, allowing for the start of the permit application process.

For a detailed list of 100% CD Submittal refer to:

- Exhibit C.4: 90 and 100% Construction Document (CD) Submittal Check List

3.2: Pre-Permitting Drawing Set Review and Response

The Concessionaire is required to respond to all review comments listed on the Review Comments Form throughout all design phases. The Concessionaire is to submit a Pre-Permitting Drawing Set for CDA review and approval prior to applying for the project required permits. If any or all review comments have not been incorporated into the Pre-Permitting Drawing Set, the set will not receive approval and/or no construction activities are able to take place until all review comments are incorporated.

3.3: Applying for Permit with the Chicago Department of Buildings

Design and Construction Standard Operating Procedures Concessions Projects (C-SOP) Page 11 of 23

Following approval of 100% CDs, the project is bid and construction contracts are awarded. It is necessary for the awarded contractor to apply for the required permits from the City of Chicago's Department of Buildings, and any other applicable state and federal authority. The Concessionaire must coordinate the method, process and schedule for the permit application submittals as well as coordinate conduction of final inspections. It is the Concessionaire's sole responsibility to follow-up on the permit issuance process. Note, the Description of Work on the permit must include the associated terminal (i.e. Terminal 2), the closest gate (i.e. E4), the project name and, if applicable, CDA project number.

A list of required work permits is located on the Department of Buildings website. Please note that when a sign construction permit is required, it can only be obtained by a licensed sign contractor.

All Chicago Department of Buildings permit applications and submittals are fully electronic and available via the City's online system "E-Plan" at the following website: <https://www.chicago.gov/city/en/depts/bldgs>

3.4: Self-Certification

The Self-Certification Permit Program simplifies the building permit process for eligible residential, business and mercantile and small assembly projects where the Architect of Record takes full responsibility for code compliance. The Department of Buildings plan reviews are eliminated by allowing the Professional of Record to certify that the permit drawings comply with the Chicago Building Code. The Professional of Record must have prepared and sealed the permit drawings, completed DOB's Self-Certification Training Class, and hold an active Self-Certification registration. Structural work cannot be self-certified.

For more information please visit: Chicago Dept. of Buildings Self Certification Program

End of STEP 3

STEP 4.0: Pre-Construction 4.1: Pre-Construction

Meeting

The Concessionaire POC shall request a Pre-Construction Meeting through CDA as directed in the final CDA review comments. All Pre-Construction documents must be compiled, and electronic copies sent to the CDA prior to scheduling the Pre-Construction Meeting. The Pre-Construction Meeting can be scheduled no sooner than three (3) business days after the final pre-construction document is received.

CDA or the CDA POC will schedule a Pre-Construction Meeting and notify the Concessionaire of the meeting time and location. At the Pre-Construction Meeting, the Concessionaire and their representatives should be prepared to answer any questions regarding the required documentation and the proposed construction. If applicable, the General Contractor must provide proof that the barricade graphic has been produced and is ready for installation; the barricade and graphic must be installed within (7) seven business days from the start of construction. The Pre-Construction Meeting will NOT take place until MBE/WBE Compliance Plans have been reviewed and accepted by the CDA. Please refer to Step 9 for more information on compliance.

At the conclusion of the pre-construction meeting, CDA will determine if the documentation and Concessionaire's response to any questions are complete and, if so, CDA will issue a letter authorizing construction to start. Note that an eForm must also be submitted and approved before construction can start. Please refer to Step 5 for more information on the eForm.

4.2: Pre-Construction Documentation

It is the Concessionaire's POC's responsibility to compile and submit the required documentation in a timely manner in order to maintain the overall project schedule. The list of required documents can be found in Exhibit D. Allow two (2) to four (4) weeks to acquire badging, vehicle permits, building permits and other necessary pre-construction documentation, identified below. Processes for all required Airport badges and permits must be completed for every employee/worker and vehicle involved in the project before work begins. Construction will NOT begin until all required documentation has been submitted and reviewed by the CDA POC.

Pre-Construction document submittal shall include the following: one (1) full size hard copy set of stamped approved plans by the Department of Buildings, one (1) half size set of stamped approved plans by the Department of Buildings, and one (1) PDF of stamped plans approved by the Department of Buildings.

End of STEP 4

STEP 5.0: Notice to Airport User Form (eForm) 5.1: Notice to Airport Users

Form (eForm)

For all construction projects, the Concessionaire is required to submit a Notice to Airport User Form. The Concessionaire shall register or login to the online Notice to Airport Users Form at <<https://eforms.cityofchicago.org/uformsand>> create a project start up form indicating scope, start and completion dates. Additional User Forms required during the course of construction will be discussed at the Pre-Construction Meeting. All User Forms must be submitted at least three (3) business days in advance of the anticipated start of construction to allow adequate time for review. Select the link below to learn more about how to submit a Notice to Airport Users Form for O'Hare International Airport and Midway International Airport. The eForm must be approved by the CDA before the Concessionaire can begin construction.

ORD Quick Reference Guide MDW Quick Reference Guide

All permits, user forms, emergency contact directory, and construction alerts shall be prominently displayed in a locked glass display cabinet 30" high by 36" wide approved by the CDA. One full size stamped set of drawings and the original permit must be kept on site at all times.

6.2: Building Inspections

Department of Buildings Inspection Bureau will be conducting inspections throughout construction. Contractors must request inspections of ventilation, electrical, plumbing, and new construction on all projects with issued building permits, regardless of scope, for both rough and final inspections. Failure to request these inspections may result in suspension or revocation of the permit, and issuance of citations by the Chicago Department of Buildings for violation of licensing requirements against the General Contractor and subcontractors.

Design and Construction Standard Operating Procedures Concessions Projects (C-SOP) Page 14 of 23

Chicago Department of Buildings inspections shall be scheduled via the on-line inspection scheduling system at www.cityofchicago.org/buildings <<http://www.cityofchicago.org/buildings>>. All requests for rough and final Chicago Department of Buildings inspections should be requested at least fourteen (14) business days in advance.

If needed, contact the Department of Buildings Inspection Bureaus by phone as listed below:

Ventilation Department-(312) 743-3573 Electrical Department - (312)
743-3622 Plumbing Department - (312) 743-3572 New Construction
Department - (312) 743-3531

In addition, contractors must offer the terminal manager and building engineer an opportunity to perform an inspection at demolition, rough, and final phases. The Concessionaire shall contact the CDA Concessions POC to coordinate these inspections.

6.3: Chicago Department of Public Health Inspections and Liquor License

Food establishments and retail establishments serving food require a health inspection to be conducted by the Chicago Department of Public Health (CDPH). Concessionaires applying for a liquor license require a separate inspection coordinated by the Business Affairs and Consumer Protection Department, in addition to the Department of Buildings inspections. For both inspections, allow one (1) to three (3) weeks to schedule and obtain a final inspection and certificate.

Please note, the construction barricade cannot be removed until applicable licenses and inspections are complete.

- PDF of the Health Inspection Approval and supporting documentation must be supplied and sent to CDA Concessions prior to store opening.

For Chicago Department of Public Health (CDPH) visit their website at: <<https://www.cityofchicago.org/city/en/depts/cdph.html>> or call (312) 747-9884.

For Business Affairs and Consumer Protection Department information visit their website at: <<https://www.cityofchicago.org/city/en/depts/bacp/provdrs/bus.html>> or call (312) 744-6249.

6.4: Safety and Security Plan

All contractors and subcontractors and the work they perform are subject to the CDA Construction Safety Manual. Each project requires an onsite full time Safety Manager who is solely responsible to monitor job site safety and security (See Exhibit D.5 for more details).

Please refer to link below:
CDA Construction Safety Manual

CDA Safety will perform site safety walkthroughs during construction to ensure all work is being performed per the CDA Construction Safety Manual. CDA Safety and the CDA POC have the authority to stop work if unsafe conditions or practices are observed.

6.5: Demolition

Design and Construction Standard Operating Procedures Concessions Projects (C-SOP) Page 15 of 23

Prior to demolition, pre-construction photos must be taken, documenting all of the existing conditions. Failure to provide photo documentation of the existing conditions before construction will result in the contractor and Concessionaire assuming responsibility for all damages and perceived damage to existing base building materials. Damaged materials must be repaired or replaced at the contractor's and/or Concessionaire's expense. Once demolition is complete, the CDA terminal manager, the CDA building engineer, and CDA POC shall perform a site inspection prior to the start of construction.

Core drilling, cutting of floors, walls or roofs may be required for tenants needing plumbing and/or additional mechanical HVAC provisions. Under no circumstances shall the Concessionaire or its contractors, at any time be permitted to drill or cut conduit, pipe sleeves, chases or duct equipment openings in the floor, columns, walls or roofs of the structure without prior review and acceptance of the proposed locations and sizes by the CDA's structural consultant. The Concessionaire is required to x-ray or scan the area prior to beginning work utilizing a 3D ground penetrating radar and will provide a copy of x-ray / scan results to CDA. Scan / x-ray to be submitted via eForm three (3) business days prior to performing coring or drilling work.

6.6: Construction Meetings and Reporting

During construction, the General Contractor is required to provide the following project documentation and electronic documentation to the CDA Concessions POC:

- 1) Minutes from a weekly contractor led meeting (in person or via telecom) including the project owner and/or representative and CDA POC, at an agreed location (project site or POC conference room).
- 2) A weekly status summary report describing the progression of the work. The weekly status report must contain at a minimum the following:
 - Project title
 - Project number
 - Forecasted / actual start / completion date(s)
 - What construction occurred since the last weekly report
 - Revised three (3) week "Look Ahead" construction task schedule (CDA Design and Construction / CDA Concessions will determine if applicable to a given project)
 - What issues occurred and / or are projected
 - At least three (3) photos taken daily to document in-progress installation of materials
 - Other items as requested by CDA
- 3) A revised overall schedule when necessary
- 4) All Issued for Construction Drawings (IFC), addenda to the permit drawings, and resolved RFIs as they become available

6.7: Non-Compliance and Unauthorized Construction

Non-compliance or construction that deviates from the approved permit documents without CDA's prior written approval may be just cause for CDA to order work stoppage until corrective measures are taken and compliance is obtained. Any cost or claims due to this work stoppage shall be borne by the Concessionaire and the General Contractor.

End of STEP 6

STEP 7.0: Substantial Completion

Design and Construction Standard Operating Procedures Concessions Projects (C-SOP) Page 16 of 23

7.1: Substantial Completion Notification

The General Contractor shall notify the CDA POC a minimum of seven (7) business days prior to the anticipated substantial completion date to request a site inspection project completion walk through. The construction space must be clean and all tools and surplus materials must be removed from the site or the walk through will be canceled. Mandatory attendance at the walk through includes: Concessionaire and/or Owner's Representative(s), and the General Contractor's Project Manager and Superintendent. The CDA POC will notify the CDA terminal manager, the CDA building engineer, the CDA Project Manager, and any other attendees identified during the Pre-Construction meeting or as deemed necessary. The items listed below are required to support the substantial completion walk through process:

- (1) The Concessionaire's architect should compile their punch list items. The Concessionaire or concessionaire's architect will provide a copy of their punch list to CDA for review prior to the walk through.
- (2) The concessionaire will receive final CDPH and Department of Buildings inspector's approval before the substantial completion walk through.

(3) The substantial completion walk through must occur 5-10 business days prior to concessions opening.

7.2: Final Walk Through and Punch List

At the substantial completion walk through, the General Contractor will conduct a brief meeting to distribute and discuss the punch list items that they have identified and the proposed date of substantial completion. The General Contractor and Concessionaire must show proof of all final Department of Buildings and CDPH inspections, Certificate of Occupancy, Business and Liquor licenses and Certificate of Insurance. If a Certificate of Occupancy is required as determined by the Department of Buildings, it will need to be submitted to the CDA prior to any occupancy of the renovated or newly constructed space. It is the Tenant's responsibility to arrange for inspection by the Department of Buildings for the Certificate of Occupancy. The Concessionaire should identify meter locations to be properly labeled and provide the meter number and the room name of meter location(s).

After all attendees have completed the walk through, the parties will reassemble to discuss their punch list items with the Concessionaire and General Contractor. CDA Concessions will review the Concessionaire's architect's punch list and relay any additional items identified during the substantial completion walk through on a separate punch list. Any punch list items that are noted as critical and thus require immediate correction will be identified during the substantial completion walk through. The concessions location cannot open until these critical punch list items have been corrected.

Within five (5) business days after the substantial completion walk through, the Concessionaire, Concessionaire's architect, and/or the contractors will consolidate all agreed upon punch list items and issue via e-mail, a composite formal punch list. This list will be distributed to all parties invited from the substantial completion walk through. The Concessionaire's architect will also submit their substantial completion letter to the CDA.

Depending on issues presented, CDA will determine which option below is acceptable.

For Retail Concessions:

- (1) Concessionaire may proceed to stock, train, and open their concession, while non-critical punch list repairs continue.
- (2) Concessionaire may stock and train for their concession but cannot open until the identified critical punch list items are corrected.
- (3) Concessionaire may NOT stock, or train for, or open their concession until the identified critical punch list items are corrected.

For Food and Beverage Concessions:

- 1) Concessionaire may proceed to train, furnish, and prep their food and beverage, while noncritical punch list repairs continue.
- 2) Concessionaire may proceed to train, furnish, and prep their food and beverage but cannot open until the identified critical punch list items are corrected.
- 3) The Concessionaire may NOT furnish, prep, or train for their facility until the identified critical punch list items are corrected.

CDA Concessions will review and then issue a response/acceptance letter back to the Concessionaire or Concessionaire's architect after receipt of the substantial completion letter. The concession location cannot open until they have received CDA Concession's notice to open.

The Concessionaire will track the completion of the punch list and periodically send CDA the list of completed and outstanding punch list items (with reason for incomplete items and lead times for materials not immediately available).

Please note, the construction barricade may not be removed without written approval from CDA Concessions.

The General Contractor is to complete the punch list items within thirty (30) business days of the initial walk through or as dictated in the Concessionaire's signed Lease and License Agreement.

If after thirty (30) business days, the punch list items remain incomplete CDA may elect to:

- Impose a fine of $200 per item, per day, until the work is finished.

If after sixty (60) business days, the punch list items remain incomplete CDA may elect to:

- Hire contractors to complete the work at the Concessionaire's expense.

The punch list completion tracking document will be sent to CDA Concessions for review within the thirty (30) business day period after the substantial completion walk through takes place. All punch list items should be resolved to the satisfaction of CDA or include an agreed upon completion schedule.

7.3: Business License and Certificate of Insurance

Prior to opening, the Concessionaire must obtain a Business License from the City of Chicago Business Affairs & Consumer Protection Department (BACP) City Hall, Room 805, 121 N. LaSalle St, 60602.

Concessionaire is also responsible for providing a current Certificate of Insurance per the Concessionaire's signed Lease and License Agreement.

- PDF of the Business License must be sent to CDA Concessions prior to store opening.

For Business License and Certificate of Insurance information visit their website at:
<<https://www.ci.vofchicago.org/city/en/depts/bacp/provdrs/bus.html>> or call (312) 744-6060.

7.4: ComEd Verification of iVTeter(s)

Prior to opening, the Concessionaire must reference the meter #, and provide its tax ID and billing mailing address. For more information call (877) 426-6331. 7.5: Open for Business

Design and Construction Standard Operating Procedures Concessions Projects (C-SOP) Page 8 of 23

After written approval has been obtained from CDA Concessions, the construction barricade may be removed no earlier than the evening prior to the concession's opening.

STEP 9.0: Compliance Overview

Throughout the Design and Construction process, the Concessionaire will be responsible for complying with various City of Chicago participation requirements. The Concessionaire will also be responsible for tracking their participation and providing verifying documents to CDA for review.

9.1: City of Chicago Minority and Women Owned Business Participation Rules

In accordance with the Municipal Code of Chicago 2-92-650, or as dictated in the Lease and License Agreement, the City's Minority Owned Business Enterprise Commitment and Women Owned Business Enterprise Commitment in Construction Contracts has set goals of MBE participation and WBE participation on all contracts.

Please refer to link below for additional information pertaining to this Compliance Rule:

- Exhibit E.1: Special Conditions Regarding Minority Owned Business Enterprise Commitment and Women Owned Business Enterprise Commitment in Professional Services
- Exhibit E.2: Special Conditions Regarding Minority Owned Business Enterprise Commitment and Women Owned Business Enterprise Commitment in Construction Contracts

MBE and WBE participation shall be separately documented for Construction Services and Professional Services. 9.2: Required

MBE and WBE Documentation

Required compliance documentation will be submitted through the web-based Retail Management System ("RMS") which is the City of Chicago, Department of Aviation's, secure concession's portal. All compliance reporting must be submitted electronically using RMS.

The Concessionaire and General Contractors are required to enter the Compliance Plans, Certified Payroll and Sworn Statements into RMS. Once the Concessionaire selects a Professional Service Contractor and General Contractor, the designated Concessionaire POCs will be provided with RMS log in information. The RMS links and User Guide are listed below. The individual Exhibits E.1 - E.12 listed below should be used as reference only; all required documents must be submitted electronically using RMS.

- RMS Portal: <<https://www.airportware.com/rms>> prod/App forms/General/Login.aspx

9.3: MBE and WBE Compliance Plans

Once the Final or 100% Construction Document Submittal is approved by CDA (see Step 3.0), and the Concessionaire has selected a General Contractor, then the Concessionaire is required to submit, via RMS, the Concessions'

Compliance Plans: Affidavit of Concessionaire, Affidavit of Prime Contractor for Construction and Affidavit of Prime

- <<https://www.cityofchicago.org/city/en/depts/dps/supp>> info/process improvements.html
- <<http://www.idot.illinois.gov/doing-business/certifications/disadvantaged-business-enterprise->

MBE and WBE Good Faith Efforts

If the Concessionaires' and Prime Contractors' Compliance Plans fall short of the MBE or WBE Construction Program goals, a Good Faith Efforts form must be included with the submitted Compliance Plans. Good Faith Efforts are achieved by actively soliciting MBE and WBE firms to perform work on the contract in accordance with Exhibit E.2: Special Conditions Regarding Minority Owned Business Enterprise Commitment and Women Owned Business Enterprise Commitment in Construction Contracts. The Good Faith Efforts form must contain contact information for not less than five (5) MBEs and/or WBEs.

- Exhibit E.7: Good Faith Efforts Form

A Compliance Plan may be rejected as non-responsive if the Concessionaire and/or General Contractor fail to submit one or more of the documents (Exhibits E.4 - E.7) with the response.

PLEASE NOTE:

If a Concessionaire's and/or General Contractor's Compliance Plan fails to meet the Construction Program goals for MBE and WBE participation, the project will be delayed and not move toward a Pre-Construction Meeting until either the goal is satisfied or Good Faith Efforts have been demonstrated and approved.

9.4: City Resident Construction Worker Employment Requirement & Certified Payroll Requirements

In accordance with the Municipal Code of Chicago 2-92-330 and Article 5 of the Concession Lease and License Agreement, at least 50% of the total construction worker hours worked by persons on the site of the Work must be performed by actual residents of the City and at least 7.5% by project area residents. The Airport will identify the project area for the purposes of calculating project area residents.

2021 Concessions Program Handbook

INTRODUCTION:

The City of Chicago ("City") and the Chicago Department of Aviation ("CDA") welcome you to the family of concessionaires operating at the City's airports. Your concession represents an excellent business and professional opportunity to serve the traveling public as well as operate a profitable enterprise. In order to ensure quality and uniformity among all concessions, we have designed a Concessions Program that is outlined in this handbook. It is important that you review and adhere to these standards as they will serve as tools for the successful operation of your concession.

THE CONCESSIONS PROGRAM:

The CDA's Airport Concessions Program serves as the primary resource to meet the needs of the traveling public with regard to the provision of quality, reasonably-priced goods and services at Chicago's airports. To this end, CDA is further responsible for the outreach, selection, coordination and monitoring of concessionaires. In order to fulfill these responsibilities, CDA has several functional units that, as part of their overall duties, operate as liaisons to prospective and existing concessionaires. The primary units and their concession-related functions are as follows:

Policy generation and resolution.

Overall coordination of revenue, finance, bonding, insurance, property management and concessions functions/issues including merchandising plans, outreach, proposal generation and evaluation, contract negotiation, and overall coordination and processing.

CDA UNIT FUNCTIONS Commissioner's Office

Managing Deputy Commissioner

Assist in overseeing Concessions, the monitoring program and general airport guidelines.

Entity retained by the CDA to assist in overseeing Concessions, including construction of Improvements at the airport.

Assistant Commissioner

Concession Management Representative ("CMR")

Planning/Coordinating Architects Plan and design review; construction coordination and monitoring.

Finance/Revenue Financial reporting, review and auditing.

Security Coordination of security identification and other related issues.

2021 Concessions Program Handbook

THE MONITORING PROGRAM:

The Monitoring Program is designed to provide a process to ensure that concessions operating in the Airports comply with the ordinances and policies of the City, provisions of their respective Lease Agreements and specific airport guidelines as established by the CDA. The primary areas that will be reviewed include financial commitments, maintenance of concession space(s), licensing (where required), and overall adherence to the provisions of the Lease Agreement.

The intent of the Monitoring Program is to benefit the traveling public and other airport visitors, concessionaires and the City.

THE PRE-MONITORING PROCESS:

After a prospective concession is selected by CDA there are five stages that precede the commencement of the Monitoring Program.

STAGE 1 - CITY COUNCIL APPROVAL

Upon completing lease negotiations with the concessionaire, CDA forwards the lease agreement ("Agreement"), signed by the Tenant, to the City's Law Department. After the Law Department's review of the form and legality of the proposed concession agreement, the proposed tenant is introduced to the full City Council. City Council sends the Agreement to the Aviation Committee for review. The Aviation Committee approves, rejects or requests further information. Once approved by the Aviation Committee, the recommendation is forwarded to the full City Council for final approval. In most cases, recommendations submitted to the full Council by Committee are ratified, usually at the next meeting. This approval is documented in the "Journal of Proceedings." The documented approval and contract are then forwarded to the Mayor and other pertinent City departments for execution.

STAGE 2 - LEASE AGREEMENT

The Lease Agreement outlines a concessionaire's contractual relationship with the City. It delineates the responsibilities, expectations and the requirements of both parties, financial and non-financial. During negotiation of the terms of the agreement, you will have cause to interact with individuals from the CDA and the CMR Office. The Managing Deputy Commissioner of Concessions will oversee the processing of the Lease Agreement as well the Monitoring Program.

STAGE 3 - DESIGN APPROVAL

All concessionaires must submit a conceptual, schematic drawing which shows the general design of the unit. The Planning and Architecture departments will review the concept, and if the approval is given, a letter will be sent giving conceptual approval and requesting 100% architectural drawings including a complete materials board, plans and specifications so the plans meet the CDA requirements and aesthetic appeal. Upon providing approval of the 100% plans, Architecture will send a letter to the concessionaire giving authority to apply to the City Buildings Department for building permits. In no case may construction begin prior to the receipt of this approval. The Planning Unit will also monitor construction in progress.

STAGE 4 - PRE-CONSTRUCTION APPROVAL

Prior to construction, each concession will meet with the CMR for the purpose of providing the concessionaire with general airport construction guidelines. Examples of these guidelines are locations and times for pick-ups, deliveries, refuse disposal, elevator usage, and badging.

Following the operations meeting, the CMR will schedule a pre-construction meeting with CDA. Prior to the meeting, the General Contractor for the project will submit all documents, permits, and approvals to the meeting, the General Contractor for the project will submit all documents, permits and approvals to CDA for review. Construction may begin following approval at the pre-construction meeting.

STAGE 5 - CONSTRUCTION

After the contract is finalized, each concessionaire has a specified period to commence and complete construction based on approved design and construction specifications. During this period each concessionaire has the responsibility to expeditiously begin and obtain all necessary approvals, licenses, insurances, etc. Each concessionaire should maintain communication with the CMR during the process to ensure that all construction and licensing requirements are addressed in a timely fashion. It is important that the concession be open to the public within the time parameters specified in the Agreement.

KEY ELEMENTS OF THE MONITORING PROGRAM:

The Concessions Monitoring Program consists of three primary elements: operations reviews, audits and pricing reports. Operations reviews will be conducted on an ongoing basis by the CMR. The operations review form in Appendix 2 will provide a frame work for this component of the Monitoring Program.

Financial and compliance audits will be conducted on an annual and periodic basis, respectively. Financial audits will review all financial, bonding and insurance related requirements.

As specified in the Agreement, each concession shall submit an annual pricing report.

The Monitoring Process will include ongoing site inspection of each concession site by the CMR. Typical inspections will consist of reviews of facilities, general maintenance, employee practices, product/price conformity and space utilization. Inspection staff will use the CMR Operation Review Form (Appendix 2) to record their findings and observations. Reviews will be sent to the concession manager for review and follow-up on all review items. Non-compliance could result in liquidated damages being levied and/or commencement of default proceedings, dependent upon the nature of the violation.

FINANCIAL AUDITS

In accordance with the provisions of the standard Concession Lease Agreement, CDA reserves the right to require a certified public and/or City audit of all books, ledgers, journals, accounts and records of its concessions.

COMPLIANCE AUDITS

On a regular basis, the CDA will review compliance with insurance coverage, financial commitments and financial reporting requirements. Non-compliance could result in liquidated damages being levied and/or commencement of default proceedings, dependent upon the nature of the violation. Additionally, compliance with ACPDF Special Conditions will be required.

compliance with ACDBE Special Conditions will be audited.

SECRET SHOPPING

The CDA, from time to time, may hire an outside contractor to perform "secret shopping" and evaluate employee performance of each concession location. Such reviews shall be used to monitor customer service and cash handling procedures among other things.

SUMMARY:

The Monitoring Program will provide a basis of uniformity to all concessions. Adherence to the Concession Lease Agreement as well as the elements of this Handbook will contribute to the successful operation of your business.

The following Appendices will further delineate additional information/requirements stated above.

LICENSE AGREEMENT

This License Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of _____, 2022 ("Effective Date"). This Agreement is by and between Grab Chicago JV LLC, doing business as Grab, a Delaware Limited Liability Company with a business address at 3302 Canal Street, Suite 13, Houston, Texas 77003, ("Licensee"), and the City of Chicago, a municipal corporation and home rule unit of local government under the Constitution of the State of Illinois ("City"), acting through its Chicago Department of Aviation ("CDA" or "Department").

BACKGROUND

The City owns and, through CDA, operates Chicago O'Hare International Airport ("O'Hare" or the "Airport").

O'Hare includes an international terminal, three domestic terminals, a multimodal facility, and a transportation center (collectively, the "Terminals"). The City has determined that certain portions of the Terminals will be used for food, beverage and retail concessions designed to serve the needs of Airport patrons and employees and desires to operate its concession program at the Terminals to strive to meet the needs and desires of Airport users by providing first-class food, beverage, retail, and service facilities;

The City issued a Request for Proposals ("RFP") for electronic self-ordering and delivery services for concessions at the Airport and Licensee responded with a proposal to provide a mobile, remote self-ordering and on-demand delivery service for concessions through its proprietary web ordering platform at O'Hare. The City desires to grant Licensee, and Licensee desires to accept, a license to operate such services in the Terminals, all under the terms and conditions of this Agreement;

The City's goal is to enhance customer service by providing passengers and employees the ability to order, purchase, pay and receive (either through self-pick up or delivery) food, beverages and retail items directly at their gates, hold rooms or other locations authorized by the City through the use of an electronic platform;

CDA has selected Licensee to provide such services at the Airport. Licensee has agreed to operate and maintain the Grab Platform at the Airport and to make available to the City Grab Hub to access the Grab Data, all on the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement;

The City and Licensee acknowledge that the continued operation of the Airports as safe, convenient and attractive facilities is vital to the economic health and welfare of the City of Chicago, and that the City's right to supervise performance under this Agreement by Licensee is a valuable right incapable of quantification; and

NOW, THEREFORE, the City and Licensee agree as follows:

F. Each party acknowledges that the ownership, right, title and interest in and to the other party's trademarks rests with the other party, and both parties agree that neither will do anything inconsistent with such ownership. Licensee hereby grants, during the Term, to the City a non-exclusive, non-sublicensable, non-transferable right to use the Grantor's trademarks, service marks, logos, trade names, trade dress and URLs ("Trademarks") solely for the purposes contemplated hereby, including, without limitation, using Trademarks in connection with marketing the Grab Platform and/or Grab Hub, using Trademarks as part of sales and marketing materials in written form or otherwise, and displaying Licensee's logo or other Trademarks on City websites and mobile applications. 4.7 Confidentiality. Except as may be required by law during or after the performance of this Agreement, Licensee will not disseminate any non-public information regarding this Agreement or the Concession operations without the prior written consent of the Commissioner, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. If Licensee is presented with a request for documents by any administrative agency or with a subpoena duces tecum regarding any documents that may be in its possession by reason of this Agreement, Licensee must immediately give notice to the City's Corporation Counsel. The City may contest the process by any means available to it before the records or documents are submitted to a court or other third party. Licensee, however, is not obligated to withhold the delivery beyond that time as may be ordered by the court or administrative agency, unless the subpoena or request is quashed or the time to produce is otherwise extended. Licensee must require each prospective Subcontractor to abide by such restrictions in connection with their respective Subcontracts.

8 Hours of Operation.

A. Licensee must begin conducting its Concession operations in the Airport Terminals on or before the Date of Beneficial Occupancy and continue them uninterrupted after that date during all required hours of operation. The Services shall be available to serve the public seven (7) days per week and three hundred sixty-five (365) days per year. In no event shall the hours of operation be curtailed to an extent that the Services contemplated under this License shall be diminished. Except as otherwise stated herein, the hours of service shall be determined in light of changing public demands, Customer's operating hours and Airport's flight schedules. The Self-Ordering Services will be available, with respect to each Customer, during the hours of operation as set and managed by such Customer. B. Except as otherwise permitted under this Agreement, if Licensee fails to offer the Services during all times that Licensee is required to do so under this Agreement and continues for more than three days after the City gives Licensee notice, it is an Event of Default. In addition, Licensee acknowledges that failure to provide the Services to the public would cause the City substantial damages, a portion of which may be ascertainable but another portion of which, related to loss of goodwill due to the public's inability to obtain the Products, the provision of which is one of the key purposes of this Agreement, might be difficult or impossible to prove or quantify. Accordingly, in addition to other remedies available to the City for an Event of Default, Licensee must pay the City as liquidated damages (and not as a penalty) in connection with such loss of goodwill the amount as outlined in Exhibit 11, beginning as of the time that the City first notifies Licensee that it is not operating the Concession in accordance with the time requirements of this Agreement. The obligation to make payments of liquidated damages will continue until the earliest of: (i) the time that the affected portion of the Services is offered for business again; (ii) the date that this Agreement expires or is terminated with respect to the affected portion of the Services; and (iii) the date that the Commissioner receives possession of the affected portion of the Services.

who has sufficient authority and responsibility to administer and manage the operations under the License. The General Manager (or authorized representative) must be immediately available to the Department whenever any of the Services are offered. The base of operations of the General Manager may be at the Airport, and the General Manager should spend a substantial amount of his or her working hours for the Airport account, unless the Commissioner approves in writing another arrangement. The General Manager is subject to removal at the direction of the Commissioner if the Commissioner reasonably determines, in the Commissioner's sole discretion, that the General Manager is not performing up to standards consistent with the fulfillment of Licensee's obligations.

C. Salaries. Salaries of all employees of Licensee and its Subcontractors performing Services under this Agreement must be paid unconditionally and not less often than once a month without deduction or rebate on any account, except only for those payroll deductions that are mandated by law or permitted by the applicable regulations issued by the United States Secretary of Labor under the "Anti-Kickback Act" of June 13, 1934 (48 Stat. 948; 62 Stat. 740; 63 Stat. 108; 18 U.S.C. § 874, and 40 U.S.C. § 276c). Licensee may, at its own expense and subject to obtaining any necessary permits and approvals from the City, install and operate necessary and appropriate identification, instructional and access signs in the Airport for its promotional use (identifying the operations of the Services in question and/or the products sold via the Grab Platform). All such signage (especially all signage visible from the Common Areas) must be in compliance with signage and other applicable criteria adopted by the Commissioner or other City agencies from time to time and subject to the prior written approval of the Commissioner as to the number, size, height, location and design (as applicable). Licensee must not install, affix, or display any signage except as permitted by the Department without the prior written consent of the Commissioner. Except as expressly provided otherwise in this Agreement: the City has the rights set forth below, each of which the City may exercise with notice to Licensee and without liability to Licensee for damage or injury to property, person or business on account of exercising them; the City's exercise of any such rights is not deemed to constitute a breach of this Agreement or a disturbance of Licensee's use or possession of or License for the Services or to the Storage and/or Office Space; the City's exercise does not give rise to any claim, including for set-off or abatement of Fees; the City's exercise also does not relieve Licensee of any obligation to pay all Fees when due. The rights include the rights to:

- i) Install, affix and maintain any and all signs on the exterior and on the interior of the Terminals;
- ii) Decorate or to make repairs, inspections, alterations, additions, or improvements, whether structural or otherwise, in and about the Terminals, or any part of them, and for such purposes to utilize the Services, and during the continuance of any of the work, to temporarily close doors, entryways, public space and corridors in the Terminals, and to interrupt or temporarily suspend services or use of facilities, all without affecting any of Licensee's obligations under this Agreement;

In no case shall Storage and/or Office Space be used as a point of retail sales. If the Commissioner determines that Licensee is using Storage or Office Space for purposes unrelated to the License, the Commissioner may unilaterally revoke Licensee's permission to access the Storage and/or Office Space. If the Commissioner determines that the size of the Storage and/or Office Space exceeds the needs of the Licensee, the Commissioner may unilaterally reduce the size of the Storage and/or Office Space.

14 MBE/WBE Compliance. Licensee shall make good faith efforts to meet the following goals with respect to participation of Minority Business Enterprises/Woman-Owned Business Enterprises ("MBE/WBE") if undertaking any design (including professional services) and construction work in connection with the License, respectively: (i) Design: 25% MBE and 5% WBE; and (ii) Construction: 26% MBE and 6% WBE. However, the City will also accept a participation plan that meets a combined single Design and Construction goal of 26% MBE and 6% WBE participation, which participation may be achieved with any combination of construction and design contracts. The Special Conditions and related forms used by the City in its own procurements are attached hereto as Exhibit 10 and should be used by Licensee's Contractors. Licensee must submit to the CMR completed Schedules Cs and D's from its design and construction Contractors demonstrating their percentage MBE and WBE participation commitments, and their good faith efforts to achieve the foregoing goals if the commitments are less than those goals. Thereafter, Licensee must submit periodic reports to the CMR, in a form

ARTICLE 5 TERM OF AGREEMENT

1 Term. The term of this Agreement is the Term as defined in Article 3, unless this Agreement is terminated earlier in accordance with its terms.

2 Holding Over. Continued performance of all or a portion of the Services under the License by Licensee, or continued operation of the Grab Platform by Licensee, with the written consent of the Commissioner, after expiration or termination of this Agreement constitutes holding over and will create a month-to-month license on the same terms and conditions as this Agreement, including payment of License Fees, until terminated by the Commissioner upon not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to Licensee of such termination. If Licensee continues to hold over after receipt of such written notice, Licensee must pay License Fees for the entire holdover following the termination date under the notice, at double the rates of the License Fees. No occupancy of the Office and/or Storage Space by Licensee after the expiration or other termination of this Agreement extends the Term of this Agreement. Also, in the event of any unauthorized and willful occupancy after expiration or termination of this Agreement, Licensee must indemnify the City against all damages arising out of the retention of occupancy, and all insurance policies and letters of credit required to be obtained and maintained by Licensee as set forth in this Agreement must continue in effect. Also, in the event of such holdover, Licensee shall indemnify the City against all damages arising out of the Licensee's continued operations, and all insurance policies and letters of credit required to be obtained and maintained by Licensee as set forth in this Agreement shall continue.

3 Return of the Storage and/or Office Space . .

A. Licensee must remove all Licensee personal property and trade fixtures from the Airport, or the portions of the Airport before the date of termination or expiration. Any personal property or trade fixtures remaining from the Services forty-eight (48) hours after the date of termination or expiration shall be deemed, abandoned, and the City may dispose of such personal property or trade fixtures in the Commissioner's sole discretion, and Licensee shall have no claim to the proceeds, if any, from such disposition.

B. Licensee must repair any damage to Airport caused by Licensee's removal of Licensee personal property and trade fixtures. Any removal and repair required of Licensee under this section are at Licensee's sole cost and expense.

C. If Licensee fails to perform any of its foregoing obligations, then the Commissioner may cause the obligations to be performed by Department personnel or City contractors, and Licensee must pay the cost of the performance, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate from and after the date the costs were incurred until receipt of full payment thereof.

4 Termination Due to Change in Airport Operations. This Agreement and the License are subject to termination by either party on 60 days' written notice in the event of any action by the FAA, the TSA or any other governmental entity or the issuance of an order by any court of competent jurisdiction which prevents or restrains the use of the Airport, the Terminals or a portion thereof that renders performance by either party for the Services impossible, and which governmental action or court order remains in force and is not stayed by way of appeal or otherwise, for a period of at least 90 days, so long as the action or order is not the result of any Event of Default of Licensee.

5 Eminent Domain.

A. If the entirety of the Terminals or a substantial part of them, including the entire Delivery Zones, is taken by eminent domain by an authority other than the City, the Term of this Agreement will end upon the earlier of the date when possession is required by the condemning authority or the effective date of the taking.

B. If any eminent domain proceeding is instituted by an authority other than the City in which it is sought to take any part of the Airport or the Terminals, the taking of which would, in the good faith judgment of the Commissioner or Licensee, render it impractical or undesirable to operate under the License on the remaining portion of the Terminals for the intended purposes, the Commissioner and Licensee will each have the right to terminate this Agreement upon not for the intended purposes, the Commissioner and Licensee will each have the right to terminate this Agreement upon not less than 90 days' written notice to the other.

C. In the event of termination of this Agreement under either (A) or (B), all Fees accrued are payable to the City.

6 Early Termination. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Lease, the Commissioner may terminate this Agreement with respect to any or all of the and Services without cause for any reason, in the Commissioner's sole discretion, upon at least ninety (90) days prior written notice to Licensee. Upon the effective date set forth in such notice, Licensee shall cease operations under that portion of the License related to the Services as to which this Agreement is being terminated as if the Agreement had expired on that date with respect to such Services. In the event of such early termination, the City shall pay to Licensee a "Services Termination Payment", which shall be defined herein to be the sum equal to Revenue Share earned by Licensee from such Services being terminated during the four (4)-month period immediately preceding the termination date, less the Fees payable to the City for that period. Upon Licensee's receipt of the Services Termination Payment, the City and Licensee shall thereafter be released from any and all obligations under this Agreement with respect to those Services except for such obligations which are expressly stated to survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 6 FEES AND PAYMENT TERMS

6.1 Fees Pavable.

A. In consideration of Licensee's License and the associated rights and privileges granted in this Agreement, Licensee must pay the Fees incurred pursuant to this Agreement, without notice or demand, which include but are not limited to, the Fees specified below (collectively, "Fees") as follows:

(i) License Fee. Beginning as of the Go-Live Date, the License Fee shall be an amount equal to the greater of a. or b.:

a. Percentage Fee. The "Percentage Fee" is an amount equal to the percentage of Revenue Share as set forth in Exhibit 3.

b. Minimum Annual Guarantee. There is no "Minimum Annual Guarantee" or "MAG" for the first License Year of the Term. The Minimum Annual Guarantee for the second License Year is 85% of the Percentage Fee payable in the first License Year. Beginning with the third License Year, and for each License Year thereafter, the Minimum Annual Guarantee will equal the greater of 85% of the Percentage Fee payable for the preceding License Year, and the Minimum Annual Guarantee for the second License Year. The MAG will be pro-rated in the event any License Year is less than twelve months.

(ii) Additional Fees. Any other charges payable to the City under this Agreement that are identified as "Additional Fees."

B. Nonpayment of Fees; Obligation to Pay Fees. Failure by Licensee to pay the Fees, or any portion thereof, when due is an Event of Default. The payment of the Fees under this Agreement is independent of each and every other covenant and agreement contained in this Agreement, and Contractor must pay all Fees without any set off, abatement, counterclaim or deduction whatsoever except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement.

C. Impositions. Licensee must timely pay, as and when due, any and all taxes, assessments, fees, and charges levied, assessed or imposed by a governmental unit upon this Agreement, the License, the Grab Platform or Grab Hub or upon Licensee's personal property, including but not limited to all permit fees and charges of a similar nature for Licensee's conduct of any business or undertaking in the Terminals (collectively, "Impositions"). Licensee must provide the Concession Management Representative with copies of any business licenses or permits required for the Licensee to perform the Services. Licensee must provide Commissioner a copy of all notices relating to any Impositions incurred within 30 days after receipt and must provide the Commissioner with a receipt indicating payment of such Imposition when due. Nothing in this Agreement precludes Licensee from contesting the amount of an Imposition, including those taxes or charges enacted or promulgated by City, but unless otherwise allowed by the entity imposing the tax or charge, Licensee must pay the tax or charge pending the judicial or administrative decision on the Licensee's contest. Failure of Licensee to pay any Imposition when due, except to the extent that Licensee is allowed to withhold payment while contesting the amount of the Imposition, will constitute an Event of Default. As provided in Section 4.1, Licensee acknowledges that the leasehold created under this Agreement is taxable, and while Licensee may contest the amount of the leasehold tax, Licensee shall not contest its applicability.

6.2 Time of Payments.

A. On or before the first day of each calendar month, prorated for any partial calendar month, beginning on the Go-Live Date and continuing throughout the Term, Licensee must pay to the City that portion of the Minimum Annual Guarantee as may be due;

B. On or before the 15th day of each month following the month in which the Go-Live Date occurs. Licensee must pay the City:

- i) the amount, if any, by which the actual Percentage Fee for the preceding month exceeds the Minimum Annual Guarantee payment that was made on the first day of the month;
- ii) any other forms of Additional Fees, if any, based, as applicable, either fixed or on the Revenue Share of the preceding month or pre-determined amount; and
- iii) any other charges payable to the City.

C. Year End True Up. If the annual statement of Gross Revenues indicates that the Percentage Fee attributable to the preceding License Year exceeds the amount of all payments made by Licensee to the City for the License Year in question, then Licensee must pay the amount of the underpaid Percentage Fee to the City upon the submission of the annual statement of Gross Revenues. If the annual statement of Gross Revenues indicates that the Percentage Fee attributable to the preceding License Year is less than the amount of all License Fee payments made by Licensee to the City for the period in question, but the Percentage Fee still exceeds the MAG for that License Year, then Licensee will receive a credit against the next License Fee payment due under this Agreement for the amount by which the License Fee actually paid by Licensee exceeded the Percentage Fee attributable to the period.

3 Material Underpayment or Late Payment. Without waiving any other remedies available to the City, if:

- i) Licensee underpaid Fees due in any calendar year by more than 5%, or
- ii) Licensee failed to make any Fees payments within 5 days of the date due, then Licensee must pay, in addition to the amount due the City as Fees, interest on the amount of underpayment or late payment at the Default Rate. Interest on the amount underpaid accrues from the date on which the original payment was due until paid in full and shall be considered Additional Fees. The provision for the payment of interest does not constitute an authorization by the City of underpayment or late payment.

4 Reports.

A. Monthly. Licensee must furnish to the Commissioner on or before the 15th day of each calendar month falling wholly or in part within the Term of this Agreement a complete statement, certified by Licensee, of the amount of Gross Revenues derived from Orders related to each Concessionaire by Licensee during the preceding month. Monthly sales reports must include, at a minimum:

- i) Location of sale
- ii) Number of Orders per location
- iii) Gross receipts per location
- iv) Pick-up orders by passengers and employees
- v) On-demand delivery orders by passengers and employees
- vi) Total amounts for pick-ups and delivery by location

(vii) Other anonymized or aggregated information, as requested by the City, which Licensee is able to provide.

B. Daily and/or Weekly. Licensee will furnish to the Commissioner daily and/or weekly sales reports, if requested, breaking down all sales and Gross Revenues by the categories set forth in 18(b) of the Exhibit 1. If so requested, Licensee will provide Commissioner with statistical information regarding the number and type of transactions occurring for the Services, in the form specified by the Commissioner.

C. Annually, or more often as may be reasonably requested by the City:

- i) Licensee also must furnish to Commissioner no later than March 1 of each License Year falling wholly or in part within the Term of this Agreement, and within 120 days after the expiration or termination of this Agreement, a complete statement of revenues certified by an independent certified public accountant engaged by Licensee, showing in all reasonable detail the amount of Gross Revenues made by Licensee from the License during the preceding License Year and copies of all returns and other information filed with respect to Illinois sales and use taxes as well as such other reasonable financial and statistical reports as the Commissioner may, from time to time, require by written notice to Licensee.
- ii) The annual statement must include a breakdown of Gross Revenues on a month-by-month basis and an opinion of an independent certified public accountant that must include the following language, or language of similar purport:

"We, a firm of independent certified public accountants, have examined the accompanying statement reported to the City of Chicago by [] for the year ended relating to its operations at the Terminals pursuant to an Agreement dated , . Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and, accordingly, includes such tests of the accounting records and such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying statement showing gross revenues of $ ■ presents accurately the amount of Gross Revenues, as defined in the Agreement, for the year ended ."

D. All such reports and statements must be prepared on a form approved by the Commissioner and must, among other things, provide a breakdown of the Gross Revenues by category of products and an analysis of all Percentage Fees due and payable to the City with respect to the period in question. If Licensee fails to timely furnish to the Commissioner any monthly or annual statement required under this Agreement or if the independent certified public accountant's opinion is qualified or conditioned in any manner, the Commissioner has the right (but is not obligated) without notice, to conduct an audit of Licensee's books and records and to prepare the statements at Licensee's expense. Licensee must also provide the Commissioner with such other financial or statistical reports and information concerning the Licensed Space or any part thereof, in the form as may be reasonably required from time to time by the Commissioner.

6.5 Books, Records and Audits.

A. Except as provided below, Licensee must prepare and maintain at its office full, complete and proper books, records and accounts in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures relating to and setting forth the Gross Revenues and must require and cause its operations personnel to prepare and keep books, source documents, records and accounts sufficient to substantiate those kept by Licensee. The books and source documents to be kept by Licensee must include true copies of all federal, state and local tax returns filed with respect to Licensee's operation of the License and reports, records of inventories and receipts of Orders, daily receipts from all sales and other pertinent original sales records and records of any other transactions conducted under the License by Licensee and any other persons conducting business under the License. Pertinent original sales records must include the following documents or their auditable electronic equivalents:

- i) cash register tapes, including tapes from temporary registers,
- ii) serially pre numbered sales slips,
- iii) the original records of all mail and telephone orders at and to the Leased Space,
- iv) original records indicating that Products returned by customers was purchased at the Leased Space by the customers,
- v) memorandum receipts or other records of Products taken out on approval,
- vi) detailed original records of any exclusions or deductions from Gross Revenues,
- vii) sales tax records, and
- viii) such other sales records, if any, that would normally be examined by an independent accountant under accepted auditing standards in performing an audit of Tenant's Gross Revenues.

B. Licensee must record at the time of each sale or other transaction all receipts from the sale or other transaction, in a secure, electronic format. The books, records and accounts, including any sales tax reports that Licensee may be required to furnish to any government or governmental agency, must at all reasonable times be open to the inspection (including the making of copies or extracts) of the Commissioner, the Commissioner's auditor or other authorized representative or agent at the Licensee's other offices in Chicago for a period of at least 3 years after the expiration of each calendar year falling wholly or in part within the Term.

C. The acceptance by the Commissioner of payments of any Percentage Fee is without prejudice to the Commissioner's right to conduct an examination of the Licensee's books and records relating to Gross Revenues in order to verify such amounts.

D. After providing Licensee at least three (3) days prior oral or written notice, the Commissioner may inspect the books and records of Licensee. Further, at its option, the Commissioner may at any reasonable time, upon no less than ten (10) days prior written notice to

Licensee cause a complete audit to be made of Licensee's entire records relating to the Services for the period covered by any statement issued by Licensee as above set forth. If the audit discloses that Licensee's statement of Gross Revenues is understated to the extent of:

- i) 3% or more, Licensee must promptly pay the City the cost of the audit in addition to the deficiency (and any interest on the deficiency at the Default Rate), which deficiency is payable in any event; and if
- ii) 5% or more, an Event of Default is considered to have occurred, and in addition to all other remedies available under this Agreement, at law, or in equity (including those set forth in clause (i) above), the Commissioner has the right to terminate this Agreement immediately upon giving notice to Licensee, without any opportunity for Licensee to cure.

In addition to the foregoing, and in addition to all other remedies available to the City, if Licensee or the City's auditor schedules a date for an audit of Licensee's records and Licensee fails to be available or otherwise fails to comply with the reasonable requirements for the audit, Licensee must pay all reasonable costs and expenses associated with the scheduled audit.

ARTICLE 7 INSURANCE, INDEMNITY AND SECURITY

1 Insurance. Licensee must, at its sole expense, procure and maintain at all times during the Term of this Agreement, and during any time period following expiration or termination of this Agreement during which Licensee is holding over or Licensee is required to relinquish the License for any reason whatsoever, the types of insurance specified in Exhibit 8 covering all operations under this Agreement, with insurance companies authorized to do business in the State of Illinois.

2 Indemnification.

A. Except where this indemnity clause would be found to be inoperative or unenforceable under the Construction Contract Indemnification for Negligence Act, 740 ILCS 35/0.01 et seq. ("Anti-Indemnity Act"), Licensee must defend, indemnify, keep and hold harmless the City, its officers, representatives, elected and appointed officials,, agents and employees, from and against any and all Losses.

B. "Losses" means, individually and collectively, liabilities of every kind, including losses, damages, and reasonable costs, payments and expenses (such as, but not limited to, court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements), claims, demands, actions, suits, proceedings, judgments or settlements, any or all of which in any way arise out of or relate to the acts or omissions of Licensee, its employees, agents, subtenants, and Subcontractors.

C. At the City Corporation Counsel's option. Licensee must defend all suits brought upon all such Losses and must pay all costs and expenses incidental to them, but the City has the right, at its option, to participate, at its own cost, in the defense of any suit, without relieving Licensee of any of its obligations under this Agreement. Licensee must not make any settlement without the prior written consent to it by the City Corporation Counsel if the settlement requires any action on the part of the City or in any way involving the Airport.

D. To the extent permissible by law, Licensee waives any limits to the amount of its obligations to indemnify, defend or contribute to any sums due under any Losses, including any limits applicable to a claim by any employee of Licensee that may be subject to the Workers' Compensation Act, 820 ILCS 305/1 et seq or any other related law or judicial decision (such as, Koteckiv. Cyclops Welding Corporation, 146 Ill. 2d 155 (1991)). The waiver, however, does not require Licensee to indemnify the City for the City's own negligence to the extent doing so would violate the Anti-Indemnity Act. The City, however, does not waive any limitations it may have on its liability under the Worker's Compensation Act or under the Illinois Pension Code.

E. The indemnities contained in this section survive expiration or termination of this Agreement, for matters occurring or arising during the Term of this Agreement or as the result of or during the holding over of Licensee beyond the Term. Licensee acknowledges that the requirements set forth in this section to indemnify, keep and save harmless and defend the City are apart from and not limited by the Licensee's duties under this Agreement, including the insurance and Security requirements.

3 Disclaimer by City. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, City expressly disclaims any and all liability for damage of any caused by performance of the Services except to the extent that such damage is caused by the grossly negligent acts or omissions or willful misconduct of the City or its employees. All liability for damage caused by performance of the Services shall be the responsibility of Licensee, except to the extent that such damage is caused by the grossly negligent acts or omissions or willful misconduct of the City or its employees.

4 Security

A. Form of Security.

- i) Licensee must deliver to the City no later than the earlier to occur of: a) thirty (30) days after the Effective Date or (b) the Go-Live Date, an irrevocable, unconditional sight draft Letter of Credit in favor of the City. The face amount of the Letter of Credit and any replacements or renewals of it must be maintained by Licensee, through and including the date that is 180 days after the expiration of the Term or termination of this Agreement in the amount of $25,000. The Letter of Credit must be in the form set forth in Exhibit 7 or as otherwise approved by the Corporation Counsel.
- ii) In lieu of the Letter of Credit, Licensee may provide cash or a cashier's check in the same amount for immediate deposit in the City's accounts. The Letter of Credit, cash or cashier's check, as applicable, is referred to in this Agreement as the "Security." The original Letter of Credit, and all replacements of it, must be issued with an expiry date of at least one year after their respective dates of issuance. The Security secures the faithful performance by Licensee of all of Licensee's obligations under this Agreement. The Commissioner is entitled to draw on any such Letter of Credit unless proof of renewal of the Letter of Credit or a replacement Letter of Credit in form and substance satisfactory to the Comptroller has been furnished to the Commissioner at least 30 days before its expiration date. The City will hold the proceeds as a cash Security to secure the full and faithful performance of Licensee's obligations under this Agreement. The Commissioner is not obligated to pay or credit Licensee with interest on any Security.

- iii) The Commissioner also is entitled to draw on the Letter of Credit in whole or in part upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, in which event the Commissioner is entitled to apply or retain all or any part of the proceeds of it or any cash or other Security deposited by Licensee and held by the City for the payment of any obligation of Licensee arising before or after the Event of Default.

- iv) The Letter of Credit must provide that the Commissioner may draw upon the Letter of Credit in whole or in part upon the delivery by the Commissioner to the issuer of the Letter of Credit of a demand for payment, purportedly signed by the Commissioner, together with a written statement that the Commissioner is entitled to draw upon the Letter of Credit under the terms of this Agreement. If amounts are drawn upon the Letter of Credit or amounts of a cash Security are applied by the Commissioner in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, Licensee must reinstate the Letter of Credit or cash Security to its full amount required in this Agreement within 5 days following notification by the Commissioner of the City's draw upon the Letter of Credit or use of the cash Security. The rights reserved to the Commissioner or the City under the Letter of Credit or any cash Security are in addition to any rights they may have under this Agreement or under law.

B. Qualified Issuers. The Letter of Credit called for in this Agreement must be issued by companies or financial institutions having a rating of "A" or better as determined by S&P Global Ratings or by Moody's Investors Service, Inc., or a net worth of at least $500,000,000, and must have an office in Chicago where the Commissioner may draw on the Letter of Credit. The Commissioner also reserves the right to order Licensee to immediately cease performance of some or all of the Services until the Letter of Credit is in place and effective.

C. Right to Require Replacement of Letter of Credit. If the financial condition of any Letter of Credit issuer issuing the Letter of Credit materially and adversely changes, the Commissioner may, at any time, require that the Letter of Credit be replaced with a Letter of Credit from another institution and in accordance with the requirements set forth in this section.

D. No Excuse from Performance. None of the provisions contained in this Agreement nor in the Letter of Credit required under this Agreement excuse Licensee from faithfully performing in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement or limit the liability of Licensee under this Agreement for any and all damages in excess of the amounts of the Letter of Credit.

E. Non-Waiver. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the failure of the Commissioner to draw upon the Letter of Credit required under this Agreement or to require Licensee to replace the Letter of Credit at any time or times when the Commissioner has the right to do so under this Agreement does not waive or modify the Commissioner's rights to draw upon the Letter of Credit and to require Licensee to maintain or, as the case may be, replace the Letter of Credit, all as provided in this Section.

ARTICLE 8 DEFAULT, REMEDIES AND TERMINATION

8.1 Events of Default. The following (A) through (N) constitute Events of Default by Licensee under this Agreement. The Commissioner will notify Licensee in writing of any event that the Commissioner believes to be an Event of Default. Licensee will be given an opportunity to cure the Event of Default within a reasonable period of time, as determined by the Commissioner, but not to exceed 30 days after written notice of the Event of Default; provided, that (i) if a provision of this Agreement provides for a different cure period for a particular Event of Default, that different cure period will apply; (ii) if a provision of this Agreement does not allow a right to cure a particular Event of Default, there will be no right to cure; and (iii) if neither (i) or (ii) apply and if the promise, covenant, term, condition or other non-monetary obligation or duty cannot be cured within the time period granted by the Commissioner, but Licensee promptly begins and diligently and continuously proceeds to cure the failure within the time period granted and after that continues to diligently and continuously proceed to cure the failure, and the failure is reasonably susceptible of cure within 45 days from delivery of the notice. Licensee will have the additional time, not in any event to exceed 45 days, to cure the failure.

A. Any material misrepresentation made by Licensee to the City in the inducement to City to enter this Agreement or in the performance of this Agreement. There is no right to cure this Event of Default.

B. Licensee's failure to make any payment in full when due under this Agreement and failure to cure the default within five days after the City gives written notice of the non-payment to Licensee. In addition. Licensee's failure to make any such payment within five days after the written notice more than three times in any License Year constitutes an Event of Default without the necessity of the City giving notice of the fourth failure to Licensee or allowing Licensee any opportunity to cure it.

C. Licensee's failure to promptly and fully keep, fulfill, comply with, observe, or perform any promise, covenant, term, condition or other non-monetary obligation or duty of Licensee contained in this Agreement.

D. Licensee's failure to promptly and fully perform any obligation or duty, or to comply with any restriction of Licensee contained in this Agreement concerning Transfer or Change in Ownership, whether directly or indirectly, of Licensee's rights or interests in this Agreement or of the ownership of Licensee.

E. Licensee's failure to provide or maintain the insurance coverage required under this Agreement (including any material non-compliance with the requirements) and the failure to cure the Event of Default within two days following oral or written notice from the Commissioner; or, if the noncompliance is non-material, the failure to cure the Event of Default within 20 days after the Commissioner gives written notice. The Commissioner, in the Commissioner's sole discretion, will determine if noncompliance is material.

F. Licensee's failure to provide Services at all times Licensee is required to do so under this Agreement.

G. An Event of Default by Licensee or any Affiliate under any other agreement it may presently have or may enter into with the City during the Term of this Agreement and failure to cure the default within any applicable cure period.

H. Licensee or Guarantor, if any, does any of the following and the action affects Licensee's ability to carry out the terms of this Agreement:

- i) becomes insolvent, as the term is defined under Section 101 of the Bankruptcy Code as amended from time to time; or
- ii) fails to pay its debts generally as they mature; or
- iii) seeks the benefit of any present or future federal, state or foreign insolvency statute; or
- iv) makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or
- v) files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy or a petition or answer seeking an arrangement of its indebtedness under the Bankruptcy Code or under any other law or statute of the United States or of any State or any foreign jurisdiction; or
- vi) consents to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, liquidator or other similar official, of all or substantially all of its property.

I. An order for relief is entered by or against Licensee or Guarantor (if any) under any chapter of the Bankruptcy Code or similar law in any foreign jurisdiction and is not stayed or Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code or similar law in any foreign jurisdiction and is not stayed or vacated within 60 days following its issuance.

J. Licensee is dissolved.

K. A violation of law that results in a guilty plea, a plea of nolo contendere, guilty finding, or conviction of a criminal offense, by Licensee, or any of its directors, officers, partners or key management employees directly or indirectly relating to this Agreement, and that may threaten, in the sole judgment of Commissioner, Licensee's performance of this Agreement in accordance with its terms.

L. Any failure to perform, act, event or omission that is specifically identified as an Event of Default elsewhere in this Agreement.

s, 8.2 Remedies.

A. If an Event of Default occurs and is not cured by Licensee in the time allowed, in addition to any other remedies provided for in this Agreement, including the remedy of Self-help as provided in Section 9.3, the City through the Commissioner or other appropriate City official may exercise any or all of the following remedies; Terminate this Agreement with respect to all or a portion of the Services and exclude Licensee from any part of the Terminal affected by the termination. If the Commissioner elects to terminate this Agreement, the Commissioner may, at the Commissioner's sole option, serve notice upon Licensee that this Agreement ceases and expires and becomes absolutely void with respect to the License or that part identified in the notice on the date specified in the notice, to be no less than five days after the date of the notice, without any right on the part of Licensee after that to save the forfeiture by payment of any sum due or by the performance of any term, provision, covenant, agreement or condition broken. At the expiration of the time limit in the notice, this Agreement and the Term of this Agreement, as well as the right, title and interest of Licensee under this Agreement, wholly ceases and expires and becomes void with respect to the Services identified in such notice in the same manner and with the same force and effect (except as to Licensee's liability) as if the date fixed in the notice were the date in this Agreement stated for expiration of the Term with respect to the Services identified in such notice.

B. Recover all Fees, including Additional Fees and any other amounts due that have accrued and are then due and payable and also all damages available at law or under this Agreement. If the Agreement is terminated, whether in its entirety or with respect to a part of the Services, the damages will include damages for the balance of the scheduled Term, based upon any and all amounts that Licensee would have been obligated to pay for the balance of the Term with respect to the Services, or if this Agreement is terminated with respect to a portion of the Services, that portion of the Services affected by the termination, calculated as provided in this Agreement or, if not fixed, as reasonably estimated and prorated among the various portions of the Services. In determining the amount of damages for the period after termination, the Commissioner may make the determination based upon the sum of any future payments that would have been due to the City, for the full License Year immediately before the Event of Default. All amounts that would have been due and payable after termination for the balance of the Term with respect to all or a portion of the Services must be discounted to present value at the Default Rate existing as of the date of termination. The Commissioner may declare all amounts to be immediately due and payable.

C. Seek and obtain specific performance, a temporary restraining order or an injunction, or any other appropriate equitable remedy.

D. Seek and obtain money damages; including special, exemplary, incidental and consequential damages.

E. Deem Licensee and Affiliates non-responsible in future contracts or concessions to be awarded by the City.

F. Declare Licensee and Affiliates in default under any other existing contracts or agreements they might have with the City and to exercise any remedies available under those other contracts or agreements.

G. Accept the assignment of any and all Subcontracts between Licensee and any design and construction Subcontractors.

Ff. require Licensee to terminate a Subcontractor that is causing breaches of this Agreement.

8.3 Effect of Default and Remedies

A. The City's waiver of any one right or remedy provided in this Agreement does not constitute a waiver of any other right or remedy then or later available to the City under this Agreement or otherwise. A failure by the City or the Commissioner to take any action with respect to any Event of Default or violation of any of the terms, covenants or conditions of this Agreement by Licensee will not in any respect limit, prejudice, diminish or constitute a waiver of any rights of the City to act with respect to any prior, contemporaneous or later violation or Event of Default or with respect to any continuation or repetition of the original violation or Event of Default. The acceptance by the City of payment for any period or periods after an Event of Default or violation of any of the terms, conditions and covenants of this Agreement does not constitute a waiver or diminution of, nor create any limitation upon any right of the City under this Agreement to terminate this Agreement for subsequent violation or Event of Default, or for continuation or repetition of the original violation or Event of Default. Licensee has no claim of any kind against the City by reason of the City's exercise of any of its rights as set forth in this Agreement or by reason of any act incidental or related to the exercise of rights.

B. All rights and remedies of the City under this Agreement are separate and cumulative, and none excludes any other right or remedy of the City set forth in this Agreement or allowed by law or in equity. No termination of this Agreement or the taking or recovery of the Licensed Space deprives the City of any of its remedies against Licensee for Fees, including Additional Fees or other amounts due or for damages for the Licensee's breach of this Agreement. Every right and remedy of the City under this Agreement survives the expiration of the Term or the termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 9 SPECIAL CONDITIONS

9.1 Warranties and Representations. In connection with the execution of this Agreement, Licensee warrants and represents statements (A) through (K) below are true as of the Effective Date. H. There was no broker instrumental in consummating this Agreement and no conversations or prior negotiations were had with any broker concerning the rights granted in this Agreement with respect to the License. Licensee shall hold the City harmless against any claims for brokerage commission arising out of any conversations or negotiations had by Licensee with any broker.

I. 34

9.2 Business Documents, Disclosure of Ownership Interests and Maintenance of Existence.

A. Licensee must provide evidence of its authority to do business in the State of Illinois including, certifications of good standing from the Office of the Secretary of State of Illinois, and appropriate resolutions or other evidence of the authority of the persons executing this Agreement on behalf of Licensee.

B. Licensee has provided the Commissioner with an Economic Disclosure Statement and Affidavit ("EDS") for itself and EDSs for all entities with an ownership interest of 7.5 percent or more in Licensee, copies of which have been scanned for viewing on the City's website. Upon request by the Commissioner, Licensee must further cause its Subcontractors, sublicensees and proposed Transferees (and their respective 7.5 percent owners) to submit an EDS to the Commissioner. Licensee must provide the Commissioner, upon request, a "no change" affidavit if the information in the EDS(s) previously supplied remains accurate, or revised and accurate EDS(s) if the information contained in the EDS(s) has changed. In addition, Licensee must provide the City revised and accurate EDS(s) within 30 days of any event or change in circumstance that renders the EDS(s) inaccurate. Failure to maintain accurate EDS(s) on file with the City is an Event of Default.

3 Licenses and Permits. Licensee must in a timely manner consistent with its obligations under this Agreement, secure and maintain, or cause to be secured and maintained at its expense, the permits, licenses, authorizations and approvals as are necessary under federal, state or local law for Licensee and any Subcontractors: to perform the Services; operate and use the License; and otherwise to comply with the terms of this Agreement and the privileges granted under this Agreement. Licensee must promptly provide copies of any required licenses and permits to the Commissioner and to the Concession Management Representative.

4 Subcontracts and Assignments.

A. The City expressly reserves the right to assign or otherwise transfer all or any part of its interest under this Agreement, at any time and to any third party. Upon assignment to any successor or assignee of the City's right, title and interest in and to the Airport, the City is forever relieved, from and after the date of the assignment, of any and all obligations arising under or out of this Agreement, to the extent the obligations are assumed by the successor or assignee.

B. Limits on Licensee's transfers and changes in ownership:

- i) Licensee may not sell, assign, sublease, sublicense, convey, pledge, encumber or otherwise transfer (individually and collectively, "Transfer") all or any part of its rights or interests in or to this Agreement, the License, the Term, or otherwise permit any third party to use the Licensed, without prior consent of the City, which consent may be given or denied in the City's sole and absolute discretion. Transfers involving all of Licensee's interest in this Agreement require approval of the City Council. Transfers of less than all of Licensee's interest in this Agreement require approval of the Commissioner. Consent by the City to any Transfer does not relieve Licensee from the requirement of obtaining consent from the City for any subsequent Transfer. Transfers that have the effect of granting a third party a security interest in this Agreement are strictly prohibited and, if entered into by Licensee, are an Event of Default.

ii) Except as otherwise provided below, any transaction involving a change of any ownership interest in Licensee, whether to an Affiliate, subsidiary or otherwise, or the transfer of an interest in any holder of a direct or indirect ownership interest in Licensee, or any merger or consolidation of Licensee (individually and collectively, "Change in Ownership"), is subject to the consent of:

- a. City Council, in its sole discretion, if the Change in Ownership involves a 100% Change in Ownership of Licensee, or
- b. the Commissioner, in the Commissioner's reasonable discretion, if the Change in Ownership involves less than a 100% Change in Ownership of Licensee.

For the avoidance of doubt, any change in the allocation of ownership percentages of a joint venture constitutes a Change in Ownership.

iii) If Licensee (or, if Licensee is a joint venture or other entity comprised of other entities, any of the entities comprising Licensee) is a corporation whose shares are traded at arms-length on a public exchange, any Change in Ownership involving 5% or more of the shares of Licensee's (or if Licensee is a joint venture or other entity comprised of other entities, of any of the entities comprising Licensee) stock is subject to the City's consent as set forth above. In that event, Licensee must provide the City with such prior notice of a Change in Ownership as is not prohibited by law or by a confidentiality agreement executed in connection with the proposed Change in Ownership. If such prior notice is not permitted, then Licensee must notify the City as soon as possible after the Change in Ownership to obtain the City's consent to the Change in Ownership, which consent the City may grant or deny in its sole discretion. If Licensee (or if Licensee is a joint venture or other entity comprised of other entities, of any of the entities comprising Licensee) is a publicly traded corporation, a Change in Ownership of less than 5% does not require consent as set forth in (ii) above unless a series of such transactions results in a cumulative Change in Ownership of 5% or more.

iv) Consent by the City to any Change in Ownership does not relieve Licensee (or if Licensee is a joint venture, any of the entities comprising Licensee) from the requirement of obtaining consent from the City for any subsequent Change in Ownership.

v) Any Transfer or Change in Ownership made without the City's prior consent is an Event of Default subject to all remedies, including termination of this Agreement at the City's option, and does not relieve Licensee of any of its obligations under this Agreement for the balance of the Term. This section applies to prohibit a Transfer, such as an assignment by a receiver or trustee in any federal or state bankruptcy, insolvency or other proceedings or by operation of law. Under no circumstances will any failure by the Commissioner to act on or submit any request by Licensee or to take any other action as provided in this Agreement be deemed or construed to constitute consent to the Licensee's request by the Commissioner or by the City Council. If the City is found to have breached its obligations under this Section, then Licensee's sole remedy is to terminate this Agreement without liability to either the City or Licensee.

vi) Notwithstanding any permitted Transfer by Licensee of any rights under this Agreement, Licensee remains fully liable for all payments due to the City under this Agreement and for the performance of all other obligations under this Agreement. In the event of a permitted Transfer of the License or Transfer of all or any portion of the Term, where the fees payable to Licensee exceed the Fees or pro rata portion of the Fees under this Agreement, as the case may be, for the License or Term, Licensee must pay the City monthly, as Additional Fees, at the same time as the monthly installments of other Fees under this Agreement that are payable in monthly installments, the excess of the fees payable to Licensee pursuant to the Transfer over the Fees payable to the City under this Agreement.

- vii) Any or all of the requests by Licensee for consents under this Section must be made in writing and provided to the Commissioner (a) at least 60 days prior to the proposed Transfer or Change in Ownership if the Commissioner's consent is required; and (b) at least 120 days prior to a proposed Transfer or Change in Ownership if the City Council's consent is required, unless the City determines that more time is required. All requests for consent must include copies of the proposed documents of Transfer or Change in Ownership, evidence of the financial condition, reputation and business experience of the proposed transferee, completed Economic Disclosure Statements and Affidavits for all involved parties in the form then required by the City, and such other documents as the City may reasonably require to evaluate the proposed Transfer or Change in Ownership. All documents of Transfer or Change in Ownership must completely disclose any and all monetary considerations payable to Licensee in connection with the Transfer or

Change in Ownership. Consent to a Transfer or Change in Ownership proposed under this Agreement is in the sole discretion of the City and, as a condition of the consent, the City may require a written acknowledgment from Licensee that, notwithstanding the proposed Transfer or Change in Ownership, Licensee remains fully and completely liable for all obligations of Licensee under this Agreement; however, Licensee shall remain so liable regardless of whether or not the City requests a written acknowledgement.

- viii) If any Transfer or Change in Ownership under this Agreement occurs, whether or not prohibited by this section, the Commissioner may collect the Fees payable under this Agreement from any transferee of Licensee and in that event will apply the net amount collected to the amounts payable by Licensee under this Agreement without, by doing so, releasing Licensee from this Agreement or any of its obligations under this Agreement. If any Transfer or Change in Ownership occurs without the consent of the City and the City collects compensation from any transferee of Licensee and applies the net amount collected in the manner described in the preceding sentence, the actions by the City are not deemed to be waiver of the covenant contained in this section and do not constitute acceptance of the transferee by the City.
- ix) All reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the City in connection with any prohibited or permitted Transfer or Change in Ownership must be borne by Licensee and are payable to the City as Additional Fees.
- C. The provisions of this Agreement, to the extent applicable, are deemed a part of any sublease or contract between Licensee and a Subcontractor.
- D. Assignment of Sublicenses and Subcontracts.
- i) Licensee shall assign to the City all of Licensee's right, title and interest in and to each and every permitted sublicense and each and every Subcontract with a design and construction Subcontractor, now or later executed by Licensee in connection with the License. In connection with the assignment, Licensee must deliver all originally executed Subcontracts to the Commissioner. Any such assignment will become operative and effective*only when and if the City accepts the assignment by giving written notice to Licensee and:
- a. either this Agreement and the Term of this Agreement or Licensee's right to possession under this Agreement are terminated pursuant to Article 9; or possession under this Agreement are terminated pursuant to Article 9; or

b. in the event of the issuance and execution of a dispossess warrant or of any - other re-entry or repossession by the City under the provisions of this Agreement; or

c. if an Event of Default exists.

ii) At the time, if any, that the assignment becomes effective as provided above, the subtenants or Subcontractors will be deemed to have waived all claims, suits, and causes of action against the City arising out of or relating to the period before the effective date of the assignment. Further, in no instance will the City be responsible for any claims by a subtenant or Subcontractor arising from or related to any fraud, misrepresentation, negligence or willful or intentionally tortious conduct by Licensee, its officials, employees, or agents.

9.5 Compliance with Laws. Licensee must at all times observe and comply with all applicable laws, statutes, ordinances, rules, regulations, court orders and executive or administrative orders and directives of the federal, state and local government, now existing or later in effect (whether or not the law also requires compliance by other parties), including the Americans with Disabilities Act and Environmental Laws, that may in any manner affect the performance of this Agreement (collectively, "Laws"), and must not use the Licensed Space, or allow the Licensed Space to be used, in violation of any Laws or in any manner that would impose liability on the City or Licensee under any Laws. Licensee must notify the City within seven days of receiving notice from a competent governmental authority that Licensee or any of its Subcontractors may have violated any Laws. Provisions required by any Law to be inserted in this Agreement are deemed inserted in this Agreement whether or not they appear in this Agreement or, upon application by either party, this Agreement will be amended to make the insertion; however, in no event will the failure to insert the provisions before or after this Agreement is signed prevent its enforcement. Without limiting the foregoing, Licensee covenants that it will comply with all Laws, including but not limited to the following:

A. In connection with Section 2-92-320 of the Municipal Code, Licensee has executed an Economic Disclosure Statement and Affidavit which is attached to this Agreement as Exhibit 15 and which contains a certification as required under the Illinois Criminal Code, 720 ILCS 5/33E, and under the Illinois Municipal Code, 65 ILCS 5/8-10-1 et seq. Ineligibility under Section 2-92-320 of the Municipal Code continues for 3 years following any conviction or admission of a violation of Section 2-92-320. For purposes of Section 2-92-320, when an official, agent or employee of a business entity has committed any offense under the section on behalf of such an entity and under the direction or authorization of a responsible official of the entity, the business entity is chargeable with the conduct. If, after Licensee enters into a contractual relationship with a Subcontractor, it is determined that the contractual relationship is in violation of this subsection, Licensee must immediately cease to use the Subcontractor. All Subcontracts must provide that Licensee is entitled to recover all payments made by it to the Subcontractor if, before or subsequent to the beginning of the contractual relationship, the use of the Subcontractor would be violative of this subsection.

B. It is the duty of Licensee and all officers, directors, agents, partners, and employees of Licensee to cooperate with the Inspector General and the Legislative Inspector General of the City in any investigation or hearing undertaken under Chapter 2-56 or Chapter 2-55 of the Municipal Code, respectively. Licensee understands and will abide by all provisions of Chapters 2-55 and 2-56 of the Municipal Code. Licensee must inform all Subcontractors of this provision and require under each Subcontract compliance herewith by each Subcontractor as to each such Subcontractor and all of its officers, directors, agents, partners and employees.

C. Licensee must not use or allow the License to be used for the release, storage, use, treatment, disposal or other handling of any hazardous substance, as defined in any Environmental Laws, except in full compliance with all Environmental Laws. Licensee must not use or allow the Licensed Space to be used for the storage of any such hazardous substances except small amounts of cleaning fluids, business equipment materials (such as copy machine toner) and other small amounts of such hazardous substances customarily handled or used in connection with the Concession operations, all of which must be stored and used in compliance with all applicable Environmental Laws. Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, Licensee must surrender the License to the City free from the presence and contamination of any hazardous substances.

D. In accordance with Section 11-4-1600(e) of the Municipal Code of Chicago, Licensee warrants and represents that it, and to the best of its knowledge, its Subcontractors have not violated and are not in violation of the following sections of the Municipal Code (collectively, the "Waste Sections"):

- 7-28-390 Dumping on public way-Violation-Penalty;
- 7-28-440 Dumping on real estate without permit;
- 11-4-1410 Disposal in waters prohibited;
- 11-4-1420 Ballast tank, bilge tank or other discharge;
- 11 -4-1450 Gas manufacturing residue;
- 11-4-1500 Treatment and disposal of solid or liquid waste;
- 11-4-1530 Compliance with rules and regulations required;
- 11-4-1550 Operational requirements;
- 11-4-1560 Screening requirements; and any other sections listed in Section 11-4-1600(e), as it may be amended from time to time.

During the period while this Agreement is executory, Licensee's or any Subcontractor's violation of the Waste Sections, whether or not relating to the performance of this Agreement, constitutes a breach of and an Event of Default under this Agreement, for which the opportunity to cure, if curable, will be granted only at the sole designation of the Commissioner. Such breach and Event of Default entitles the City to all remedies under the Agreement, at law or in equity. This section does not limit the Licensee's and its Subcontractors' duty to comply with all Environmental Laws, in effect now or later, and whether or not they appear in this Agreement. Non-compliance with these terms and conditions may be used by the City as grounds for the termination of this Agreement and may further affect the Licensee's eligibility for future City agreements.

E. Section 2-92-586 of the Municipal Code: The City encourages Licensee to use contractors and subcontractors that are firms owned or operated by individuals with disabilities, as defined by section 2-92-586 of the Municipal Code of the City of Chicago, where not otherwise prohibited by federal or state law.

F. Prohibition on Certain Contributions (Mayoral Executive Order No. 2011 -4):

3. Licensee agrees that it shall not: (a) coerce, compel or intimidate its employees to make a contribution of any amount to the Mayor or to the Mayor's political fund-raising committee; (b) reimburse its employees for a contribution of any amount made to the Mayor or to the Mayor's political fund-raising committee; or (c) bundle or solicit others to bundle contributions to the Mayor or to his political fund-raising committee.
4. Licensee agrees that the Identified Parties must not engage in any conduct whatsoever designed to intentionally violate this provision or Mayoral Executive Order No. 05-1 or to entice, direct or solicit others to intentionally violate this provision or Mayoral Executive Order No. 2011-4.
5. Licensee agrees that a violation of, non-compliance with, misrepresentation with respect to, or breach of any covenant or warranty under this provision or violation of Mayoral Executive Order No. 2011-4 constitutes a breach and default under this Agreement, and under any Other Contract for which no opportunity to cure will be granted. Such breach and default entitles the City to all remedies (including without limitation termination for default) under this Agreement, under Other Contract, at law and in equity. This provision amends any Other Contract and supersedes any inconsistent provision contained therein.
6. If Licensee violates this provision or Mayoral Executive Order No. 201 1-4 prior to award of the Agreement resulting from this specification, the Chief Procurement Officer may reject Licensee's bid.

G. Licensee covenants that no payment, gratuity or offer of employment must be made in connection with this Agreement by or on behalf of any Subcontractors or higher tier Subcontractors or anyone associated with them as an inducement for the award of a Subcontract or order; and Licensee further acknowledges that any agreement entered into, negotiated or performed in violation of any of the provisions of Chapter 2-156 of the Municipal Code is voidable as to the City.

(the "Copyright Act"). The waiver must include, but is not limited to, the right to prevent the removal, storage, relocation, reinstallation, or transfer of the Artwork. The Licensee acknowledges and will cause the artist to acknowledge that such removal, storage, relocation, reinstallation or transfer of the Artwork may result in the destruction, distortion, mutilation or other modification of the Artwork. Further, the Licensee acknowledges and consents and will cause the artist to acknowledge and consent that the Artwork may be incorporated or made part of a building or other structure in such a way that removing, storing, relocating, reinstalling or transferring the Artwork will cause the destruction, distortion, mutilation or other modification of the Artwork.

ii) The Licensee represents and warrants that it will obtain a waiver of Section 106A and Section 113 of the Copyright Act as necessary from any employees and subcontractors, or any other artists. Licensee must provide City with copies of any such waivers required by Section 106A and Section 113 of the Copyright Act prior to installation of any Artwork in the Licensed Space.

9.6 Airport Security.

A. This Agreement is expressly subject to the airport security requirements of Title 49 of the United States Code, Chapter 449, as amended ("Airport Security Laws"), the provisions of which govern airport security and are incorporated by reference, including the rules and regulations promulgated under it. Licensee is subject to, and further must conduct with respect to its Subcontractors and the respective employees of each, such employment investigations, including criminal history record checks, as the Commissioner, the TSA or the FAA may deem necessary. Further, in the event of any threat to civil aviation, as defined in the Airport Security Laws, Licensee must promptly report any information in accordance with those regulations promulgated by the United States Department of Transportation, the TSA and by the City. Licensee must, notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, at no additional cost to the City, perform under this Agreement in compliance with those guidelines developed by the City, the TSA and the FAA with the objective of maximum-security enhancement. The drawings, plans, and specifications provided by Licensee under this Agreement must comply with those guidelines for airport security developed by the City, the TSA and the FAA and in effect at the time of their submission.

B. Further, Licensee must comply with, and require compliance by its Subcontractors, suppliers of materials and furnishers of services, employees, and business invitees, with all present and future laws, rules, regulations, or ordinances promulgated by the City, the TSA or the FAA, or other governmental agencies to protect the security and integrity of the Airport, and to protect against access by unauthorized persons. Subject to the approval of the TSA, the FAA and the Commissioner, Licensee must adopt procedures to control and limit access to the Airport and by Licensee and its Subcontractors, suppliers of materials and furnishers of services, employees, and business invitees in accordance with all present and future City, TSA and FAA laws, rules, regulations, and ordinances. At all times during the Term, Licensee must have in place and in operation a security program for the Terminals that complies with all applicable laws and regulations.

C. In connection with the implementation of its security program, Licensee may receive, gain access to or otherwise obtain certain knowledge and information related to the City's overall Airport security program. Licensee acknowledges that all such knowledge and information is of a highly confidential nature. Licensee covenants that no person will be permitted to gain access to such knowledge and information, unless the person has been approved by the Commissioner in advance in writing. Licensee further must indemnify, hold harmless and defend the City and other users of the Airport from and against any and all claims, reasonable costs, reasonable expenses, damages and liabilities, including all reasonable attorney's fees and costs, resulting directly or indirectly from the breach of Licensee's covenants and agreements as set forth in this section.

D. Licensee understands that fines and/or penalties may be assessed by the TSA or FAA for Licensee's noncompliance with the provisions of 49 CFR Parts 1540 and 1542 entitled "Airport Security" or by other agencies for noncompliance with regulations applicable to Licensee's operations. In the event the City shall be subject to any fine or penalty by reason of any violation at the Airport of any such rule, regulation or standard, the Commissioner may conduct an investigation and make a determination as to the identity of the party responsible for the violation. If it is determined by the Commissioner that Licensee, or any party for which Licensee is liable under this Agreement, is responsible for, all or part of the fine or penalty, the Licensee shall pay said amount of the fine or penalty as Additional Fees.

E. Except for authorized members of the Chicago Police Department and State and Federal Law Enforcement officers, no one is permitted to carry a firearm or any other weapon on or into any building, real property, or parking area under the control of O'Hare or Midway International Airports. Under 430 ILCS 66 (the "Illinois Concealed Carry Act"), a license to carry a concealed firearm does NOT entitle the licensee to carry a firearm on or into any building, real property, or parking area under the control of an airport and doing so is a violation of the Concealed Carry Act and other laws, rules, and regulations. Violation of the Illinois Concealed Carry Act and carrying a firearm or other weapons on or into any building, real property, or parking area under the control of O'Hare or Midway Airports may result in severe penalties, including but not limited to imprisonment and permanent revocation of the violator's access to restricted areas of O'Hare and Midway International Airports.

Licensee for itself, its personal representatives, successors in interest, and assigns, as a part of the consideration of this Agreement, covenants that: (i) no person on the grounds of race, color, or national origin will be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination in the use of the Licensed Space; (ii) in the furnishing of services or under the License and the furnishing of services in them, no person on the grounds of race, color, or national origin will be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination; (iii) Licensee will use the Licensed in compliance with all other requirements imposed by or under 49 C.F.R. In addition, Licensee assures that it will comply with all other pertinent statutes, Executive Orders and the rules as are promulgated to assure that no person will, on the grounds of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, or handicap be excluded from participating in any activity conducted with or benefitting from federal assistance.

B. It is an unlawful practice for Licensee to, and Licensee must at no time: (i) fail or refuse to hire, or discharge, any individual or discriminate against the individual with respect to his or her compensation, or the terms, conditions, or privileges of his or her employment, because of the individual's race, creed, color, religion, sex, age, handicap or national origin; or (ii) limit, segregate, or classify its employees or applicants for employment in any way handicap or national origin; or (ii) limit, segregate, or classify its employees or applicants for employment in any way that would deprive any individual of employment opportunities or otherwise adversely affect his or her status as an employee, because of the individual's race, creed, color, religion, sex, age, handicap or national origin; or (iii) in the exercise of the privileges granted in this Agreement, discriminate or permit discrimination in any manner, including the use of the Licensed Space, against any person or group of persons because of race, creed, color, religion, national origin, age, handicap, sex or ancestry. Further, Licensee must furnish or must cause each of its Subcontractor(s) to furnish such reports and information as requested by the Chicago Commission on Human Relations.

F. The Licensee agrees to comply with pertinent statutes, Executive Orders and such rules as are promulgated to ensure that no person shall, on the grounds of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability be excluded from participating in any activity conducted with or benefiting from Federal assistance. If the Licensee transfers its obligation to another, the transferee is obligated in the same manner as the Licensee.

This provision obligates the Licensee for the period during which the property is owned, used or possessed by the Licensee and the airport remains obligated to the Federal Aviation Administration. This provision is in addition to that required by Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

G. During the performance of this contract, the Licensee, for itself, its assignees, and successors in interest (hereinafter referred to as the "Contractor"), agrees as follows:

1. Compliance with Regulations: The Contractor (hereinafter includes consultants) will comply with the Title VI List of Pertinent Nondiscrimination Acts and Authorities, as they may be amended from time to time, which are herein incorporated by reference and made a part of this contract.

INTRODUCING.

powered by grab"

The right e-commerce solution for Chicago must do more than provide menus, payment, and fulfillment capabilities. It must deliver value to guests of every kind. A solution capable of delivering on these promises must leverage the strength of ORD's brand power with a proven, flexible, and industry-leading platform.

We are committed to collaborating with the CDA and stakeholders to develop the right brand for the program, but we are excited to put forth this preliminary concept to the CDA.

ORDER builds on the strength and values of the O'Hare brand while leveraging the platform and network power of the airport industry's leading e-commerce provider. Just as O'Hare is one of the world's most connected airports, ORDER is all about making connections between guests and concessionaires to deliver a seamless experience. Serving as the hub for all e-commerce and self-service at O'Hare, ORDER is an airport-branded experience that will extend across various digital channels to engage guests. Should the CDA desire to develop a brand that works for both ORD and MDW, we would look forward to partnering on a single brand to represent the program across Chicago's airports.

At the core of the ORDER experience is an intuitive responsive website-dedicated and tailored to the CDA and its guests- enabling guests to place orders without downloading a mobile app. Browse merchants, explore menus, and discover products in a visual, engaging format all from the user's preferred mobile web browser. Users can place an order, pay using their preferred contactless payment, and collect items via pickup at the concession or in-terminal delivery. For first-time users and infrequent travelers, a web app proves most effective given its ease of use and low friction.

MLV RESPONSIVE WEBS

WHAT RESPONSIVE WEBSITES

1. Low Friction: Rather than downloading an app, a website is easily accessible to all
2. Optimizes user experience by scaling page layouts based on the device being used (e.g. mobile, tablet, desktop)
3. Improved search engine rankings: Search engines like Google give preference to mobile-friendly sites, for enhanced search engine optimization(SEO)

Extending the experience into popular day-of-travel channels is key to success. By furthering the ORDER footprint as a feature into other channels used by guests on day-of travel, we can engage more guests and drive significantly higher revenues. Through our exclusive partnerships with distribution partners such as American Airlines, to touchpoints such as in-terminal physical kiosks and our Order at Gate product, we will drive seamless awareness and engagement beyond which the CDA could achieve independently.

UNLOCK ACCESS TO A GLOBAL MARKETPLACE

ORDer rests on top of the Grab Marketplace-the backbone of the e-commerce solution deployed by 60+ major airports worldwide. By joining the Grab Marketplace, ORD can align with airports like Midway, Dallas/Fort Worth, Heathrow, Atlanta, LAX, and dozens of others on a strategic platform with exponential scale.

While individual airports that deploy proprietary products will struggle to benefit from the advantages of airline marketing and distribution, by partnering with our team, the CDA will benefit from a single platform connecting the entire industry-a solution best poised to engage and partner with airlines and day-of-travel partners.

Distribution partners provide the valuable opportunity to reach departing guests prior to departure- as well as arriving and connecting travelers. Leveraging itinerary and frequent flyer information, insights, and trends, distribution partners allow for a targeted, relevant guest experience that drives engagement and spend.

The Grab Marketplace network also enables the CDA to gain deeper insights about guests' commercial spend, flying habits, origin and destination, and so much more. Importantly, these insights are accessible all while the CDA retains ownership, control, and transparency into the program.

BRINGING ORDER TO GUESTS WHEREVER THEY ARE GATE HUGGERS AND TERMINAL EXPLORERS REJOICE

Omnichannel is a key tenant of the Grab platform, which leverages guest-facing touchpoints across mobile, web, physical self-service touchscreens, web-based Order at Gate solutions and our distribution network powered by Grab's APIs (Application Programming Interfaces) and SDK (Software Development Kit). Augmenting our mobile offer, should the CDA desire, we stand ready to deploy the following additional products.

ORDER AT GATE

Grab's Order at Gate (OAG) technology enables us to deploy seat-specific calls to action through unique QR/NFC (Near-field communication) codes on armrests. Guests can scan the QR code or tap their NFC-enabled phone on the decal for a curated offering based on their exact location, with the option for delivery at seat or collection at the concession.

For the gate hugger, it's as easy as Scan/Tap, Order, and Relax. We'll bring it straight to the guest at their seat.

PHYSICAL KIOSKS

Debuting at DFW in 2019, Grab's multi-concept self-order kiosks present a compelling use case in strategic locations within the terminal such as the Terminal 3 food court. Enabling guests to browse menus across multiple participating concessions and order and pay from a single touchscreen, we can seamlessly serve those who are looking to explore menus while avoiding lines. Payments are point-to-point-encrypted (P2PE) for security to enable this fully unattended solution.

For the terminal explorer, guests can avoid lines and get what they want even from multiple locations with the ease of a single interface. Order, collect, and go!

More information about Grab's partnership with AA can be found in Tab 2 -Experience and Qualifications Statement.

Leveraging our existing integration into the AA app enables us to:

- Capture more from time-strapped globetrotters: 73.8% of AAdvantage members with Gold status or above who use the Grab platform do so because of a lack of time to order in person. Nearly 50% said they would not have had time to purchase food in the airport.
- Engage with hard-to-reach connecting passengers: 57% of Grab users via the AA app place orders for collection during stopovers/connections.

This partnership represents a unique opportunity to engage with AA customers to deliver incremental revenue to merchants and ORD. Grab is also working with many other U.S. and foreign airlines to deploy a similar integration experience into their own apps and channels.

ENGAGING GUESTS AND DRIVING SALES PRELIMINARY MARKETING PLAN

Paramount to successfully launching and scaling this exciting new offering is an integrated, airport-wide marketing and brand strategy-tailored to the CDA and its guests-that uses all available channels to reach and engage with our target audiences across their journeys.

Based on our combined learnings across 60+ airports worldwide, we will work hand- in-hand with the CDA and Unison to develop and steward a brand that is compelling, guest-centric, and complementary to the powerful O'Hare brand.

Leveraging our team's existing understanding of that brand, together, we are excited to collaborate on an award- winning brand

RECOMMENDED FUNDING

Our extensive experience launching airport marketing programs has demonstrated that for every $1 invested in marketing, we can expect a 4x return on investment. engagement, conversion, and best-in-class guest satisfaction.

PRELIMINARY EXAMPLE SIGNAGE

Given that impressive yield, we recommend program funding by the O'Hare Marketing Fund, providing a minimum 25% of tenant marketing revenues to support development and execution. For details on recommended funding, Preliminary design for illustrative purposes. Branding and signage will be developed in partnership with the CDA.

ANNUAL MARKETING PLAN

To maximize product awareness/adoption, we will develop an annual marketing plan and budget informed by market condition and trends, guest profiles, behaviors, sales/product performance, and more. Clearly defined objectives with supporting tactics provide a roadmap to successfully launch and build a loyal user base. We will partner to align to the broader O'Hare marketing strategy, with the plan and budget presented annually for review, feedback, and approval and quarterly reviews to include campaign performance, and recommended fine tuning.

rab" / na wss @

MARKET RESEARCH

To optimize performance with data-driven insights, we may recommend custom quantitative or qualitative market research. See page 21 for details.

BRAND DEVELOPMENT/GUIDELINES

To ensure alignment with the O'Hare brand and seasonal marketing campaigns, our proposed brand, conceptually named ORDER, will be developed in partnership with the CDA and its stakeholders. A brand toolkit will clearly define the use of the brand, including logo, artwork, font, color palette, voice, and more, and provide example applications for in-terminal/retailer signage, digital advertising, web/social media graphics, out of home, and more.

ON-AIRPORT AND DIGITAL MARKETING

Key to program success is an airport-wide awareness campaign across the guest journey from the parking garage to curb to terminal to gate. Utilizing in-terminal signage, digital assets, and retailer touchpoints, in-terminal marketing will be a primary source of exposure to ORDER and critical to driving awareness and conversion. To reach guests on-the-go, we will showcase crave-worthy food and compelling retail items, emphasizing a fast, safe, and easy contactless experience. Messaging will direct guests to scan a QR code directing to ORDShopDine.com <<http://ORDShopDine.com>> with dynamic QR codes customized to easily direct the guest to specific retailer or terminal offerings based on the guest's in-airport location.

SIGNAGE

We will work with the CDA and Unison to recommend a guest- and employee-facing, signage deployment. A key dependency of this proposal is the CDA's ability to provide signage/advertising locations at no fee and/or complimentary remnant space. We recommend the following deployment:

- Front of House: Physical signage at parking bridge; TSA queues; barricade graphics; construction walls; information desks; shuttles; and the CDA tunnel. Digital signage via digital directories; FID monitors; Boingo Wi-Fi homepage; and advertising remnant space;
- Back of House: Employee shuttles; parking lot; Badging Office; break rooms; employee corridors; Apron Level; administrative offices; and
- At Retailer: POS signage; hanging signs for order collection; stanchion toppers, branded packing seals; employee buttons; tenant handbooks; and more.

DIGITAL MARKETING

Digital marketing enables us to identify target audiences, serve compelling content, drive orders, track performance, and continuously refine for better results. Our recommended tactics include:

95

- Owned 6t Social Media: Leveraging FlyChicago.com <<http://FlyChicago.com>>, ORDshopdine.com <<http://ORDshopdine.com>>, and the CDA's social channels, our editorial calendar will provide ongoing content to promote the program. Engaging web/social graphics and video will drive awareness to ORDer, participating retailers, special offers, and more;
- Re-Marketing: ORDer users will receive occasional email campaigns per our editorial calendar; and
- Digital Advertising: Search and intent targeting, social media ads, and hyper- local targeting offer additional reach. Paid digital media and search engine marketing and optimization (SEM/SEO) will be recommended as budget allows.

Wt

SEASONAL CAMPAIGNS AND EMPLOYEE INCENTIVES

Our annual marketing calendar will target guests and employees with special offers, sales promotions, and seasonal campaigns aligned to existing CDA marketing programs such as Airport Restaurant Week, summer promotions, and holiday. Guest sales promotions may include discounts, gift with purchase, new store welcome offers, or special offers such as "$5 off with code DAD" for Father's Day or "$2 Taco Tuesday."

Airport employees also represent a great repeat customer and will enjoy targeted discounts and special offers. Leveraging URW's Employee Resource Center (at ORDShopdine.com <<http://ORDShopdine.com>>) and Employee Mobile Text Club as airport-wide communications channels, employees will receive digital offers and the 10% airport employee discount using code TEAMORD at checkout.

PUBLIC RELATIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS STRATEGY

To build buzz and maximize reach of our solution from launch and beyond, we recommend a broad multi-channel PR and external communications strategy to both the local market and the airport industry, with the following tactics:

MEDIA KIT

Partnering with the CDA Media Relations team, we will collaborate to develop a communications package to raise awareness among the local market and airport industry. Among the turn-key materials in the kit are a press release, fact sheet, video, photography, and v/eb/social graphics.

Points and miles are major currencies like any other. A key feature on our solution's near-term roadmap is to enable guests to redeem points across many programs as payment for products available on the ORDER platform. Through Grab's partnerships with airlines and with Collinson, its strategic partner and investor, soon we can unlock the ability for guests to pay for transactions using points from their favorite program. Whether an item's cost is $20 or 2,000 AAdvantage miles, our solution will facilitate seamless payments.

GUEST ENGAGEMENT (CRM) AND LOYALTY

Airports today have a great responsibility to know their guests, understand their needs, and engage with them across their journey.

ORDER and the Grab platform are built to enable the CDA to do exactly that, when the CDA is ready.

Our platform will grow with evolving guest engagement needs and vision, enabling a seamless connection between future customer relationship management (CRM) tools and loyalty programs with ORDER, delivering even greater value to ORD's most frequent guests.

REACH CHICAGOLAND TRAVELERS WITH PARKMOBILE

Through an existing partnership between Grab and ParkMobile, the leading provider of smart parking and mobility solutions in the U.S, if the CDA desires, we can further extend reach of our solution to drive awareness and engagement of Chicagoland travelers ahead of their arrival to ORD by leveraging the strength of both the Grab and ParkMobile platforms. With 20+ million users on its app, ParkMobile provides a contactless way for drivers to easily find, reserve, and pay for parking on their mobile device. Partnering to drive joint awareness, marketing, and brand affinity among tens of thousands of users in the Chicagoland area, ParkMobile adds another distribution channel for a truly end-to-end experience for ORD guests.

DELIVERING THE VISION PRELIMINARY PROJECT SCHEDULE

Based on our current understanding of the project scope and requirements, our proposed high-level project schedule is informed by our team's similar successful implementations at major airports worldwide. We will partner with the CDA to produce a detailed project plan and schedule following the agreement once formal scope is agreed and dependencies and resource availability confirmed.

During development of the detailed project plan in the Planning Phase, we will clearly document all anticipated dependencies that the CDA and any relevant third parties will be required to deliver according to schedule to achieve key milestones.

DELIVERY PHASES

Our project delivery methodology is divided into four phases as illustrated below. Each phase is supported by recurring project status meetings and stakeholder communications, including formal CDA review and approvals criteria at key project milestones.

100

Pursuant to the agreement of a formal scope that clearly defines key deliverables, and provided that the CDA and any other relevant parties can provide approvals and other needs in a timely manner, generally, we target a go-live date approximately 16 weeks from project commencement.

* Additional scope to be added at the CDA's desire.

Following mutual agreement of the project plan and associated project governance processes, in the event of any potential or actual delays, we will immediately notify the CDA, specifying the cause and impact of that delay, including any impacts on subsequent delivery dates. In the event of any delay, the parties shall, acting reasonably and in good faith, discuss amending the delivery of any services, deliverables, or milestones by revising any relevant delivery dates as required.

GENERATING COMMERCIAL VALUE & LONG-TERM GROWTH PROPOSED COMPENSATION TO THE CITY TOTAL UPLIFT

Potential 5-Year Sales Uplift

Our commercial proposal is structured to deliver maximum value to the CDA, concessions partners and employees, and ORD guests. Our model captures direct fee revenue from all orders placed through the platform and the total commercial impact and uplift on concessions sales across the three terminals. To simplify fees charged to the guest and maximize revenues, we will charge end users a Convenience Fee for all pickup and delivery orders as well as a tiered Delivery Fee for travelers and employees.

] Our solution's value far ! exceeds the sum of the proposed Convenience and Delivery Fee revenue paid to the City, representing a potential five-year incremental revenue increase of $6 million and a potential stimulated sales uplift of $13 million. With digital ordering shown to increase ticket sizes by 20% or more, viewing e-commerce as a significant aspect of the overall commercial program and devoting appropriate resources to promote the program will drive significant commercial benefits to the CDA while restoring confidence in air travel.

Demand lost to time is recaptured by the convenience, speed of service, and promotional capabilities associated with mobile ordering. Model assumes a boost in revenue equal to an additional 10% above forecast mobile revenue.

Convenience fee amounts will be trialed to determine optimal value to drive greatest spend without inhibiting adoption.

PROJECTED SALES, NET INCOME, AND CASHFLOW

Provided below is a summary of the potential impact of our solution. Assumptions are based on the full implementation of each of our recommendations, including full requisite support for the marketing and sales-driving efforts detailed in the Marketing Plan.

Based on our experience, we assume the program will drive a 20% sales premium through higher average tickets and a 10% uplift in transaction volumes based on time and convenience benefits. A forecasted model is provided in Tab 12. Based on mobile penetration for Food & Beverage starting at 2.50% and ramping up to 20.00% and 0.50% and ramping up to 4.00% for pickup and delivery orders, respectively, alongside penetration for retail starting at 0.50% and ramping up to 2.50% and 0.25% and ramping up to 1.25% for pickup and delivery orders, respectively, we forecast the following value proposition.

27. POLICY AND PROGRAM

It is the policy of the City of Chicago ("City") not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex or national origin in the award or performance of airport concession agreements. Because the City is a recipient of Airport Improvement Program funds from the Federal Aviation Administration ("FAA"), the concessions at the City's airports are subject to 49 CFR Part 23, Participation of Disadvantaged Business Enterprise in Airport Concessions ("Part 23"). The City will not, directly or indirectly, through contractual or other arrangements, use criteria or methods of administration that have the effect of defeating or impeding the accomplishment of the objectives of Part 23. Compliance with Part 23 requirements will not diminish or supplant the Concessionaire's obligations to comply with nondiscrimination laws as required elsewhere in the Agreement. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of these Special Conditions and the requirements of Part 23, the requirements of Part 23 shall prevail. Part 23 is available on-line at www.access.gpo.gov/nara/cfr/waisidx <<http://www.access.gpo.gov/nara/cfr/waisidx>> 06/49cfr23 06.html.

It is further the policy of the City, in accordance with the requirements of Part 23, that Airport Concession Disadvantaged Business Enterprises ("ACDBEs") have the maximum opportunity to participate fully in the City's airport concession program. As used throughout these Special Conditions, the term "ACDBE" means an entity that has been certified as such under the Illinois Unified Certification Program ("UCP"). If a firm is not certified by the Illinois UCP as an ACDBE in accordance with the standards in Part 23, the firm's participation is not counted for Part 23 purposes. ACDBEs certified by other jurisdictions are not considered certified ACDBEs for purposes of this Agreement and will not be counted as such unless they have also been certified by the Illinois UCP.

In accordance with Part 23, Subparts B and D, the City submitted an ACDBE Program and ACDBE Goal for approval by the FAA. The FAA-approved ACDBE Program and ACDBE Goal are available upon request. In the event of any amendments or revisions to Part 23 (or any related or superseding regulations), these Special Conditions shall be subject to such revised regulations and any City-promulgated program, regulations, or goals established thereunder. Upon request by the City, this Agreement shall be amended to replace these Special Conditions with revised Special Conditions that reflect the then-current federal regulations, if necessary.

The following assurances are required to be included in the Agreement by 49 CFR §23.9(c). Concessionaire is deemed to be the "concessionaire or contractor" referenced.

- This agreement is subject to the requirements of the U.S. Department of Transportation's regulations, 49 CFR Part 23. The concessionaire or contractor agrees that it will not discriminate against any business owner because of the owner's race, color, national origin or sex in connection with the award or performance of any concession agreement, management contract, or subcontract, purchase order or other agreement covered by 49 CFR Part 23.

2. The concessionaire or contractor agrees to include the above statements in any subsequent concession agreement or contract covered by 49 CFR Part 23, that it enters and cause those businesses to similarly include the statements in further agreements.

II. PROGRAM GOALS

The City has established, and the Federal Aviation Administration has approved, aspirational goals for ACDBE participation in its airport concessions program as required by Part 23, Subpart p. Generally, ACDBE participation in airport concessions is measured as a percentage of annual gross receipts earned by the concessions. Details on counting ACDBE participation are found in 49 CFR §§ 23.53 (rental car concessions) and 23.55 (non-rental car concessions) and described further below.

The below aspirational goals are for the City's concessions program as a whole. With respect to this Agreement, the City may or may not have established a contract-specific ACDBE aspirational goal at the time that the City issued the Request for Proposals for the concession ("RFP"). If the RFP included a contract-specific goal, Tenant's proposal either included participation by ACDBE(s) that met or exceeded the contract-specific goal or Concessionaire demonstrated "good faith efforts" to meet that contract-specific goal but was unable to do so. Guidance on "good faith efforts" can be found in Appendix A to 49 C.F.R. Part 26. Appendix A as it appears on the date of the Agreement is incorporated in Section VI. A. of these Special Conditions, but Concessionaire is responsible for compliance with federal regulations as they may be amended from time to time.

- All Concessions Except Rental Cars.

O'Hare International Airport: The City has determined that the appropriate aspirational goal for ACDBE participation in non-rental car concessions is 30%. Historical data regarding ACDBE participation at the City's airports indicates that this aspirational goal should consist of a race-neutral goal of 7% and a race-conscious goal of 23%.

Midway International Airport: The City has determined that the appropriate aspirational goal for ACDBE participation in non-rental car concessions is 37%. Historical data regarding ACDBE participation at the City's airports indicates that this aspirational goal should consist of a race-neutral goal of 5.5% and a race-conscious goal of 31.5%.

- B. Rental Car Concessions. Due to the lack of ACDBE rental car companies, the national or regional nature of rental car industry procurement practices and a general lack of reliable historical data, the City has determined that the aspirational goal for ACDBE participation in rental car concessions at both airports is 2.4%. Nevertheless, rental car concessionaires are encouraged to use all reasonable efforts to maximize procurement of goods and services from ACDBEs that may be certified in the Illinois UCP or the UCPs of other states.

In 2012, the Rent-A-Car Concessions Voluntary M/W/DBE Program ("RAC Program") was approved by City Council of Chicago, Illinois, as part of an amendment to the rental car concession license agreements at Chicago O'Hare and Midway International Airports. {Conn. J. 12-12-2012, p. 43891.} As part of the program, the on-airport rental car companies ("RACs") will use good faith efforts to expand contracting opportunities for businesses owned by minorities, women and/or disadvantaged persons in connection with "non-fleet expenditures" attributable to the On-Airport RACs operations at the Airports. The RACs agree that for fiscal year 2017 and thereafter, the goal of their outreach efforts will be to achieve, at a minimum, 30% of non-fleet expenditures with businesses owned by M/W/DBEs that are either certified or not certified but are owned by minority, women and/or disadvantaged persons.

III. CONCESSIONAIRE'S ACDBE COMMITMENT

INITIAL ACDBE COMMITMENT

The extent and nature of the ACDBE participation commitment by Concessionaire is documented in Schedules B, C and/or D attached to these Special Conditions ("ACDBE Commitment"). As used these Special Conditions and in Schedules B, C and D, "Concessionaire" means the entity with whom the City has entered into a concession agreement, whether that entity is referred to in that agreement as "Tenant," "Licensee" or other term.

The total ACDBE Commitment, stated as a percentage of the concessions gross revenues, must equal or exceed the percentage ACDBE participation required in the Agreement. If the Agreement indicates that there is no ACDBE participation requirement, it will be conclusive evidence that either (a) the RFP contained no contract-specific goal and Concessionaire did not propose any ACDBE participation or (b) the Concessionaire demonstrated, to the satisfaction of the City, that it exerted good faith efforts to obtain ACDBE participation to meet a contract-specific goal but was unable to obtain such participation. In either such event, there will be no Schedule B, C or D attached to these Special Conditions.

If there is ACDBE participation in the form of a joint venture member, the attached Schedule B sets forth the essential terms of that joint venture participation, including a representation as to the value of the ACDBE's activities in operating the concession as a percentage of gross revenues, and a copy of the joint venture agreement is attached to Schedule B. If there is ACDBE participation in the form of ACDBE(s) acting as sublicensee(s), subtenant(s) or subcontractor(s), it is documented in Schedules C and D. Schedule(s) C is the commitment by the ACDBE(s) to participate by providing the goods or services indicated, and Schedule D is the commitment by the non-ACDBE to such participation by the ACDBE(s).

CHANGES IN ACDBE PARTICIPATION

Pursuant to 49 CFR 23.25 and 49 CFR 26.53, Concessionaire must not make arbitrary changes to its ACDBE Commitment. Further, after entering into a joint venture agreement, sublicense or subcontract (collectively, "ACDBE agreement") with each approved ACDBE, Concessionaire must not terminate the ACDBE agreement, reduce the scope of the ACDBE's participation in the concession, nor decrease the compensation to the ACDBE, as applicable, without in each instance receiving the prior written consent of the City. The City will not consent unless Concessionaire shows good cause. Concessionaire must promptly notify the Commissioner of any proposed change in an ACDBE agreement and submit a copy of the proposed amendment to the ACDBE agreement. Prior to requesting consent from the City to terminate or substitute an ACDBE, Concessionaire must give notice to the ACDBE, with a copy to the City, providing the ACDBE an opportunity to respond.

In any event, the collective participation of the previously approved ACDBE(s) must either continue to contribute to the concession at least the value of the ACDBE Commitment, as stated in terms of a percentage of gross revenues, or substitute or additional ACDBE(s) must be retained by Concessionaire pursuant to (D) below to maintain the ACDBE Commitment, except as provided in (C) below. Failure to comply with the ACDBE Commitment is an event of default under the Agreement. If the proposed change in ACDBE participation is approved by the City, Concessionaire and ACDBE(s) must complete revised Schedules B, C or D, as applicable.

These notice and consent requirements apply both pre- and post- award of the Agreement. Note that changes to a joint venture Concessionaire prior to award may result in rejection of the proposal if the City determines, in the sole discretion of the Commissioner, that those changes affect Concessionaire's qualifications.

C. INVOLUNTARY CHANGES IN ACDBE PARTICIPATION

In the event that it appears that Concessionaire will not comply with its ACDBE Commitment because: (i) an ACDBE has defaulted in its performance under the ACDBE agreement through no fault of Concessionaire, (ii) an ACDBE is decertified by the Illinois UCP through no fault of Concessionaire and the ACDBE's participation can no longer be counted, (iii) the ACDBE's certified area of specialty has been changed through no fault of Concessionaire and the ACDBE's participation can no longer be counted, or (iv) an ACDBE is otherwise unable or unwilling to perform its obligations through no fault of Concessionaire, then Concessionaire must promptly notify the ACDBE with a copy to the City, of its intent to terminate or substitute the ACDBE's participation and provide the ACDBE with a minimum of five days to respond, unless the City grants permission for a shorter response period as a matter of public necessity (i.e. safety). Concessionaire requests to the City for permission to terminate or substitute an ACDBE must specify one or more of the foregoing reasons as the cause for potential noncompliance with the ACDBE Commitment. If the City concurs with the specified reason, Concessionaire shall use good faith efforts as described in Section VI below to replace the ACDBE's participation with participation by another ACDBE. As provided in Section VI, Concessionaire must demonstrate those good faith efforts to the satisfaction of the Commissioner. Failure to comply with the foregoing shall be an event of default under the Agreement.

Concessionaire's position in these cases must be fully explained and supported with adequate documentation. Stated reasons which will NOT be acceptable include: A replacement firm has been recruited to perform the same function under terms more advantageous to the Concessionaire; issues about performance by the committed ACDBE were disputed (unless every reasonable effort has already been taken to have the issues resolved or mediated satisfactorily); and an ACDBE has requested reasonable price escalation which may be justified due to unforeseen circumstances.

I. ACDBE SUBSTITUTION AND ADDITIONAL ACDBEs

If Concessionaire identifies a substitute, replacement or additional ACDBE for the City's approval, Concessionaire's request for approval shall include the name, address, and principal official of the proposed ACDBE; the nature and essential terms of the ACDBE agreement under which the ACDBE will participate; and a letter of intent signed by Concessionaire and the ACDBE to enter into such an ACDBE agreement upon approval by the City. Concessionaire must provide such other affidavits and documents as the City may request to evaluate the request. The City will evaluate and respond to the submitted documentation within fifteen working days after the submittal of a complete request. The response may be in the form of approving the request, requiring more information, or requiring an interview.

Actual use of a substitute, replacement or additional ACDBE should not be made by Concessionaire before City approval is given. An ACDBE agreement between Concessionaire and the ACDBE must be executed within the time specified by the City, and a fully executed copy of the ACDBE agreement must be submitted immediately to the City.

m. AGREEMENT EXTENSIONS, ASSIGNMENTS AND SUBLEASES

If the Agreement contains a term extension or if the Concessionaire proposes an assignment or sublease of the Agreement, as a condition precedent to the City's consent to such extension, assignment or sublease, the City and Concessionaire will revisit and possibly adjust the Concessionaire's ACDBE Commitment to reflect any possible change in ACDBE availability and to ensure compliance with Part 23 as it may have been amended in the interim. Concessionaire will be required to provide amended Schedules D, B, or C, along with amended ACDBE agreements, to reflect any required changes to the ACDBE Commitment or provide documentation of good faith efforts to achieve increased ACDBE participation.

IV. COUNTING ACDBE PARTICIPATION

18. CONCESSIONS OTHER THAN RENTAL CAR

In order for participation in the concession to be counted and reported to the FAA, ACDBEs must perform a commercially useful function, as defined in 49 CFR § 23.55(a). The work performed or gross receipts earned by a firm after its ACDBE eligibility has been removed are not counted, except as provided in 49 CFR § 23.55(j). Costs incurred in connection with the renovation, repair, or construction of a concession facility (sometimes referred to as the "buildout") are not counted (but may be subject to goals for M/WBE or other types of participation under a local program as specified by the City). Otherwise, ACDBE participation in non-rental car concessions is counted in accordance with 49 CFR § 23.55 as follows:

- a. Concessionaire is an ACDBE. When Concessionaire is an ACDBE or a joint venture consisting only of ACDBEs, the gross receipts earned by Concessionaire are counted. Gross receipts attributable to a non-ACDBE sublicensee of Concessionaire are not

- f. Separate locations. When an ACDBE performs as a sublicensee to Concessionaire with its own concession location or when Concessionaire is a joint venture which includes a non-ACDBE and in which an ACDBE operates its own separate location, the gross receipts earned by the ACDBE at its separate location are counted. The ACDBE location must be independently operated by the ACDBE as evidenced by the ACDBE's responsibility for all aspects of the management and operation of the location. Gross receipts attributable to a non-ACDBE sublicensee of the ACDBE are not counted.
- g. Joint venture, no separate locations. When Concessionaire is a joint venture with an ACDBE participant and the ACDBE jointly participates with a non-ACDBE in the operation of all locations, only the portion of the Concessionaire's gross receipts attributable to the distinct, clearly defined portion of the work of the concession that the ACDBE performs with its own forces is counted. When the City has reason to doubt the extent of an ACDBE joint venturer's commercially useful contribution towards the concessionaire's gross receipts, the City may require Concessionaire to submit evidence to substantiate the value of the ACDBE's contribution. If the Concessionaire fails to submit satisfactory evidence, it is an event of default under the Agreement.
- h. Subcontractor participation. When an ACDBE provides, as a subcontractor to Concessionaire, goods or services for operation of the concession, the amounts paid to the ACDBE are counted as provided below. However, if the ACDBE enters into a subcontract with a non-ACDBE to provide the goods or services, the amounts paid to the non-ACDBE are not counted.

- The entire amount of fees or commissions charged by an ACDBE firm for a bona fide service, provided that the City determines this amount to be reasonable and not excessive as compared with fees customarily paid for similar services. Such services may include, but are not limited to, professional, technical, consultant, legal, security systems, advertising, building cleaning and maintenance, computer programming, or managerial.
- The entire amount of the cost of goods obtained from an ACDBE manufacturer, as provided in 49 CFR § 23.55(f).
- The entire amount of the cost of goods purchased or leased from a ACDBE regular dealer, as provided in 49 CFR § 23.55(g).

For goods purchased from an ACDBE which is neither a manufacturer nor a regular dealer, the amount of reasonable fees, commissions, or delivery charges earned by the ACDBE, as provided in 49 CFR § 23.55 (h).

21. RENTAL CAR CONCESSIONS

i If Concessionaire is a rental car company, ACDBE participation counts in accordance with the provisions of 49 CFR §23.53. Goods and services will be counted in accordance with the following:

- a. The entire amount of the cost charged by an ACDBE for repairing vehicles, provided that it is reasonable and not excessive as compared with fees customarily allowed for similar services; and further provided that any portion of a fee paid by a manufacturer to an ACDBE car dealership for reimbursement of work performed under the manufacturer's warranty is excluded;

- N. The entire amount of the fee or commission charged by an ACDBE to manage a car rental concession under an agreement with the Concessionaire, provided that it is reasonable and not excessive as compared with fees customarily allowed for similar services.
- O. For other goods and services, ACDBE participation counts as provided in 49 CFR §26.55 and §23.55. In the event of any conflict between these two sections, §23.55 controls.
- P. If a rental car company has a national or regional contract with an ACDBE, it may count a pro-rated share of the amount of that contract toward the goals of each airport covered by the contract as provided in §23.55(f).

Rental car companies may also count ACDBE direct participation through direct ownership arrangements, but such arrangements are not required.

V. CERTIFICATION, RECORDS, REPORTS AND MONITORING

CERTIFICATION

Copies of letters of certification from a member of the Illinois UCP for each ACDBE that is part of Concessionaire's ACDBE Commitment are attached to their respective Schedule C or Schedule B. All letters of certification issued by the City of Chicago include a statement of the ACDBE firm's area of specialization.

Each ACDBE must promptly notify Concessionaire if there is any change in the ACDBE's certification status. Concessionaire, in turn, must notify Commissioner of any change in an ACDBE's certification status and provide a copy of any correspondence from the certifying agency regarding the status of an ACDBE's certification.

The ACDBE's scope of work, as detailed by Schedule B, C or D, must conform to its stated area of specialization. If, during the course of this Agreement, Concessionaire proposes to amend Schedules B, C or D so that an ACDBE performs additional work or supplies additional goods, materials or services not covered by its area of certification, the ACDBE must request an extension of its certification for such work, goods, materials or services in order to count toward the ACDBE's participation in the concession. The request to expand the scope of the ACDBE's certification, together with all documentation required by the City to process that request, must be received by the City at least 60 days in advance of the proposed date to perform such additional work or supply such additional goods, materials or services.

The Concessionaire must maintain records of all relevant data with respect to the utilization of ACDBEs, retaining these records for a period of at least three years after termination or expiration of the Agreement. Concessionaire grants full access to these records to the City of Chicago, Federal or State authorities, the U.S. Department of Justice, or their duly authorized .

Page 7

REPORTING

Concessionaire must file ACDBE utilization reports (monthly if non-rental car and quarterly if rental car), together with its concession license fee payment, delineating for the month or quarter, as applicable, and cumulatively for the year-to-date: (i) contribution by ACDBE joint venture member(s) or sublicensee(s) to Concessionaire's gross receipts and (ii) payments to ACDBE subcontractor(s). Each ACDBE utilization report must be signed by an authorized officer or representative of the Concessionaire and be notarized.

MONITORING

The City will, from time to time during the term of the Agreement, conduct investigations and interviews to monitor and verify that ACDBE participation in the concession meets or exceeds the ACDBE Commitment. Concessionaire must give, upon request, earnest and prompt cooperation to the City in submitting to inspections and interviews, in allowing entry to places of business, in providing further documentation, and in requiring the cooperation of its ACDBEs.

If the City determines that an ACDBE's actual role or responsibilities do not comply with the representations made by Concessionaire and the ACDBE in Schedules B, C or D, or that Concessionaire and/or ACDBE have misrepresented to the City either the payments to the ACDBE or the value of the ACDBE's participation in a joint venture, it shall be an event of default under the Agreement.

VI. GOOD FAITH EFFORTS

Examples of "good faith efforts" are described below and in 49 CFR § 23.25, 49 CFR §26.53, and Appendix A to 49 CFR Part 26. As provided in § 23.25, §26.53 and Appendix A to 49 • Part 26, the following are examples of documented actions that the City may take into consideration in determining whether Concessionaire made good faith efforts:

Soliciting through all reasonable and available means (e.g., advertising and/or written notices) the interest of all certified ACDBEs who have the capability to perform work or services or to supply goods relevant to the concession. Concessionaire must solicit this interest within sufficient time to allow the ACDBEs to respond to the solicitation. Concessionaire must determine with certainty if the ACDBEs are interested by taking appropriate steps to follow up initial solicitations.

- Soliciting the work, services or goods in portions that increase the likelihood that an ACDBE can perform the work or services or provide the goods. This includes, when appropriate, breaking out contract items into economically feasible units to facilitate

ACDBE participation, even when the concessionaire might otherwise prefer to perform these work items with its own forces.

- Providing interested ACDBEs with adequate information about the operations, management and requirements of the concession in a timely manner to assist them in responding to a solicitation.

- Negotiating in good faith with interested ACDBEs. Evidence of such negotiation includes the names, addresses and telephone numbers of ACDBEs that were considered; a description of the information provided regarding the opportunities selected for possible ACDBE participation; and evidence as to why agreement could not be reached for ACDBEs to perform the work.

NOTE: A concessionaire using good business judgment would consider a number of factors in negotiating with potential business partners or subcontractors, including ACDBEs, and would take a firm's price and capabilities as well as contract goals into consideration. However, the fact that there may be some additional costs involved in finding and using ACDBEs is not in itself sufficient reason for a failure to meet the ACDBE Commitment, as long as such costs are reasonable. Concessionaires are not, however, required to accept higher quotes from ACDBEs if the price difference in comparison to non-ACDBEs is excessive or unreasonable.

- Not rejecting ACDBEs as being unqualified without sound reasons based on a thorough investigation of their capabilities. The ACDBE's standing within its industry, membership in specific groups, organization or associations and political or social affiliation (for example union vs. non-union employee status) are not legitimate causes for rejection.

Making efforts to assist interested ACDBEs in obtaining bonding, lines of credit or insurance as required by the City or Concessionaire.

Making efforts to assist interested ACDBEs in obtaining necessary equipment, supplies, materials, or related assistance or services.

Effectively using the services of available minority/women community organizations and contractors' groups; local, state and federal minority/women business assistance offices; and other organizations as allowed on a case-by-case basis to provide assistance in the recruitment and placement of ACDBEs.

DOCUMENTATION

Whenever Concessionaire is required to demonstrate good faith efforts by Part 23 or these Special Conditions, Concessionaire must provide supporting documentation to the satisfaction of the Commissioner. This means documentation to show that Concessionaire took all necessary and reasonable steps which by their scope, intensity and appropriateness to the objective, could reasonably be expected to obtain compliance, even if not fully successful. The following types of documentation, as applicable to the situation, will be considered by the City in determining whether Concessionaire has made good faith efforts:

- A listing of all ACDBE firms that were contacted that includes:
 - names, address and telephone numbers of ACDBE firms contacted;

125

- date and time of contact;
- method of contact (written, telephone, transmittal of facsimile documents, etc.);
- name of the person contacted.

3. Copies of letters or any other evidence of mailing that substantiates outreach to ACDBE vendors that include:
 - concession identification and location;
 - descriptions/classification/commodity of work, services or goods for which quotations were sought; and
 - date, time and location for submittal of bids or proposals.
4. Detailed statement which summarizes direct negotiations with appropriate ACDBE firms and indicates why negotiations were unsuccessful.
5. Affirmation that good faith efforts have been demonstrated by choosing opportunities likely to be performed by ACDBEs by not imposing any limiting conditions which were not mandatory for all potential bidders\proposers; or denying the benefits ordinarily conferred for the type of opportunity that was solicited.
6. Copies of proposed portions of the work, services or goods to be performed or provided by ACDBEs in order to increase the likelihood of ACDBE participation.
7. Evidence that Concessionaire negotiated in good faith with interested ACDBEs.
8. Evidence that Concessionaire did not reject ACDBEs as being unqualified without sound reasons based on a thorough investigation of their capabilities.
9. Evidence that Concessionaire made efforts to assist interested ACDBEs in obtaining bonding, lines of credit or insurance, as required by the City or the concessionaire.
10. Evidence that Concessionaire made efforts to assist interested ACDBEs in obtaining necessary equipment, supplies, materials or related assistance or services.
11. Evidence that Concessionaire has provided timely notice of the opportunity to at least 50 percent of the applicable ACDBEs listed in the Illinois UCP Directory. The City may contact the ACDBEs identified by Concessionaire for verification of such notification.
12. Evidence that ACDBE participation is excessively costly. In order to establish that a ACDBE's quote is excessively costly, Concessionaire must provide the following information:
 1. A detailed statement of the opportunity identified for ACDBE participation for which Concessionaire asserts the ACDBE quote(s) were excessively costly.
 2. A listing of all potential business partners or subcontractors contacted for a quotation on that opportunity.
 3. Prices quoted by all such potential business partners or subcontractors for that opportunity.
 4. Other documentation that demonstrates to the satisfaction of the City that the ACDBE quotes are excessively costly.

ADMINISTRATIVE RECONSIDERATION

For the purposes of this Agreement, the City has delegated the responsibility for making the determination regarding a Concessionaire's good faith efforts to the Department of Aviation. The determination shall be based upon the Department's review of the documentation that the Concessionaire has timely submitted. Within five days of being informed by the Department that Concessionaire has not documented sufficient good faith efforts, Concessionaire may request administrative reconsideration. The request must be made in writing to the following official:

City of Chicago ; Department of Aviation 10510 West Zemke Road Chicago, Illinois 60666 Attention: Commissioner

NOTE: The Commissioner may not have played any role in the original determination that the Concessionaire did not make or timely document sufficient good faith efforts. The Commissioner may appoint a reconsideration officer, who did not play any role in the original determination, to act in his or her stead.

with copies to:

Attention: Deputy Commissioner for Concessions

City of Chicago -Department of Law 30 North LaSalle

2. As part of this reconsideration, the Concessionaire will have the opportunity to provide written documentation or argument concerning the issue of whether it made adequate good faith efforts. The Concessionaire will have the opportunity to meet in person with the reconsideration officer to discuss whether it did so. The Department will send the Concessionaire a written decision on reconsideration, explaining the basis for finding that the Concessionaire did or did not make adequate good faith efforts.

VII. NON-COMPLIANCE AND DAMAGES

128

F. NON-COMPLIANCE GENERALLY

Concessionaire's failure to comply with these Special Conditions constitutes a material breach of the Agreement and entitles the City to declare an event of default. If Concessionaire fails to cure the default within the time allowed under the default provisions of the Agreement, the City may exercise those remedies provided for in the Agreement, at law or in equity, including termination of the Agreement. In addition to any remedies specified in the Agreement, at the City's option the term of this Agreement will become month-to-month until the City locates a new Concessionaire. At the City's option, any improvements added by Concessionaire must remain for the new tenant at no cost to the City or the new tenant.

G. NON-COMPLIANCE WITH ACDBE AGREEMENT

If Concessionaire has not complied with the requirements of an ACDBE agreement, the affected ACDBE may seek to recover from Concessionaire damages suffered by the ACDBEs as a result of such noncompliance. Such disputes may impact the quality of concessions at the City's airports and/or the ability of other airport tenants to solicit ACDBE participation. Therefore, Concessionaire consents to have any disputes between Concessionaire and affected ACDBEs resolved by binding arbitration before an independent arbitrator other than the City, with reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, being recoverable by the prevailing party in accordance with any applicable regulations. This provision is intended for the benefit of all ACDBEs affected by Concessionaire's failure to comply with ACDBE agreements and grants ACDBEs specific third-party beneficiary rights. In cases deemed appropriate by the City, a dispute may lead to the withholding of sums that the City may owe Concessionaire until the City receives a copy of the final arbitration decision, but in no event will Concessionaire be excused from making any payments due to the City during the pendency of a dispute. Noncompliance or non-cooperation with the City may affect continued eligibility to enter into future contracting arrangements with the City.

MBEWBE SPECIAL CONDITIONS AND RELATED FORMS

SPECIAL CONDITIONS REGARDING MINORITY OWNED BUSINESS ENTERPRISE COMMITMENT AND WOMEN OWNED BUSINESS ENTERPRISE COMMITMENT IN CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTS

' Polirv anri Terms

As set forth in 2-92-650 et seq. of the Municipal Code of Chicago (MCC) it is the policy of the City of Chicago that businesses certified as Minority Owned Business Enterprises (MBEs) and Women Owned Business Enterprises (WBEs) in accordance with Section 2-92-420 et seq. of the MCC and Regulations Governing Certification of Minority and Women-owned Businesses, and all other Regulations promulgated under the aforementioned sections of the Municipal Code, shall have full and fair opportunities to participate fully in the performance of this contract. Therefore, bidders shall not discriminate against any person or business on the basis of race, color, national origin, or sex, and shall take affirmative actions to ensure that MBEs and WBEs shall have full and fair opportunities to compete for and perform subcontracts for supplies or services.

Failure to carry out the commitments and policies set forth herein shall constitute a material breach of the contract and may result in the termination of the contract or such remedy as the City of Chicago deems appropriate.

Under the City's MBE/WBE Construction Program as set forth in MCC 2-92-650 et seq, the program-wide aspirational goals are 26% Minority Owned Business Enterprise participation and 6% Women Owned Business Enterprise participation. The City has set goals of 26% and 6% on all contracts in line with its overall aspirational goals, unless otherwise specified herein, and is requiring that bidders make a good faith effort in meeting or exceeding these goals.

Contract Specific Goals and Bids

A bid may be rejected as non-responsive if it fails to submit one or more of the following with its bid demonstrating its good faith efforts to meet the Contract Specific Goals by reaching out to MBEs and WBEs to perform work on the contract:

28. An MBE/WBE compliance plan demonstrating how the bidder plans to meet the Contract Specific Goals (Schedule D); and/or
29. Documentation of Good Faith Efforts (Schedule H).

If a bidder's compliance plan falls short of the Contract Specific Goals, the bidder must include either a Schedule H demonstrating that it has made Good Faith Efforts to find MBE and WBE firms to participate or a request for a reduction or waiver of the goals.

Accordingly, the bidder or contractor commits to make good faith efforts to expend at least the following percentages of the total contract price (inclusive of any and all modifications and amendments), if awarded the contract:

MBE Contract Specific Goal: 26% WBE Contract Specific Goal: 6%

130

This Contract Specific Goal provision shall supersede any conflicting language or provisions that may be contained in this document.

For purposes of evaluating the bidder's responsiveness, the MBE and WBE Contract Specific Goals shall be percentages of the bidder's total base bid. However, the MBE and WBE Contract Specific Goals shall apply to the total value of this contract, including all amendments and modifications.

Contract Specific Goals and Contract Modifications

- q. The MBE and WBE Contract Specific Goals established at the time of contract bid shall also apply to any modifications to the Contract after award. That is, any additional work and/or money added to the Contract must also adhere to these Special Conditions requiring Contractor to (sub)contract with MBEs and WBEs to meet the Contract Specific Goals.
 - Contractor must assist the Construction Manager or user Department in preparing its "proposed contract modification" by evaluating the subject matter of the modification and determining whether there are opportunities for MBE or WBE participation and at what rates. N
 - Contractor must produce a statement listing the MBEs/WBEs that will be utilized on any contract modification. The statement must include the percentage of utilization of the firms. If no MBE/WBE participation is available, an explanation of good faith efforts to obtain participation must be included.
- r. The Chief Procurement Officer shall review each proposed contract modification and amendment that by itself or aggregated with previous modification/amendment requests, increases the contract value by ten percent (10%) of the initial award, or $50,000, whichever is less, for opportunities to increase the participation of MBEs or WBEs already involved in the Contract.

II. Definitions

"Area of Specialty" means the description of a MBE's or WBE's activity that has been determined by the Chief Procurement Officer to be most reflective of the firm's claimed specialty or expertise. Each MBE and WBE letter of certification contains a description of the firm's Area of Specialty. Credit toward the Contract Specific Goals shall be limited to the participation of firms performing within their Area of Specialty. The Department of Procurement Services does not make any representation concerning the ability of any MBE or WBE to perform work within its Area of Specialty. It is the responsibility of the bidder or contractor to determine the capability and capacity of MBEs and WBEs to perform the work proposed.

"B.E.P.D." means an entity certified as a Business enterprise owned or operated by people with disabilities as defined in MCC 2-92-586.

"Broker" means a person or entity that fills orders by purchasing or receiving supplies from a third party supplier rather than out of its own existing inventory and provides no commercially useful function other than acting as a conduit between his or her supplier and his or her customer.

"Chief Procurement Officer" or "CPO" means the chief procurement officer of the City of Chicago or his or her designee.

"Commercially Useful Function" means responsibility for the execution of a distinct element of the work of the contract, which is carried out by actually performing, managing, and supervising the work involved, evidencing the responsibilities and risks of a business owner such as negotiating the terms of (sub)contracts, taking on a financial risk commensurate with the contract or its subcontract, responsibility for acquiring the appropriate lines of credit and/or loans, or fulfilling responsibilities as a joint venture partner as described in the joint venture agreement.

"Construction Contract" means a contract, purchase order or agreement (other than lease of real property) for the construction, repair, or improvement of any building, bridge, roadway, sidewalk, alley, railroad or other structure or infrastructure, awarded by any officer or agency of the City, other than the City Council, and whose cost is to be paid from City funds.

"Contract Specific Goals" means the subcontracting goals for MBE and WBE participation established for a particular contract.

"Contractor" means any person or business entity that has entered into a construction contract with the City, and includes all partners, affiliates and joint ventures of such person or entity.

"Direct Participation" the value of payments made to MBE or WBE firms for work that is done in their Area of Specialty directly related to the performance of the subject matter of the Construction Contract will count as Direct Participation toward the Contract Specific Goals.

"Directory" means the Directory of Minority Business MBEs and WBEs maintained and published by the Chief Procurement Officer. The Directory identifies firms that have been certified as MBEs and WBEs, and includes the date of their last certifications and the areas of specialty in which they have been certified. Bidders and contractors are responsible for verifying the current certification status of all proposed MBEs and WBEs.

"Executive Director" means the executive director of the Office of Compliance or his or her designee.

"Good Faith Efforts" means actions undertaken by a bidder or contractor to achieve a Contract Specific Goal that, by their scope, intensity, and appropriateness to the objective, can reasonably be expected to fulfill the program's requirements.

"Joint venture" means an association of a MBE or WBE firm and one or more other firms to carry out a single, for-profit business enterprise, for which each joint venture partner contributes property, capital, efforts, skills and knowledge, and in which the MBE or WBE is responsible for a distinct, clearly defined portion of the work of the contract and whose share in the capital contribution, control, management, risks, and profits of the joint venture are commensurate with its ownership interest.

"Minority Business Enterprise" or "MBE" means a firm certified as a minority-owned business enterprise in accordance with City Ordinances and Regulations.

"Supplier" or "Distributor" refers to a company that owns, operates, or maintains a store, warehouse or other establishment in which materials, supplies, articles or equipment are bought, kept in stock and regularly sold or leased to the public in the usual course of business. A regular distributor or supplier is a firm that owns, operates, or maintains a store, warehouse, or other establishment in which the materials or supplies required for performance of the Contract are bought, kept in stock, and regularly sold to the public in the usual course of business. To be a regular distributor the firm must engage in, as its principal business and in its own name, the purchase and sale of the products in question. A regular distributor in such bulk items as steel, cement, gravel, stone, and petroleum products need not keep such products in stock if it owns or operates distribution equipment.

"Women Business Enterprise" or "WBE" means a firm certified as a women-owned business enterprise in accordance with City Ordinances and Regulations.

III. Joint Ventures

The formation of joint ventures to provide MBEs and WBEs with capacity and experience at the prime contracting level, and thereby meet Contract Specific Goals (in whole or in part) is encouraged. A joint venture may consist of any combination of MBEs, WBEs, and non-certified firms as long as one member is an MBE or WBE.

- The joint venture may be eligible for credit towards the Contract Specific Goals only if:
 - The MBE or WBE joint venture partner's share in the capital contribution, control, management, risks and profits of the joint venture is equal to its ownership interest;
 - The MBE or WBE joint venture partner is responsible for a distinct, clearly defined portion of the requirements of the contract for which it is at risk;
 - Each joint venture partner executes the bid to the City; and
 - The joint venture partners have entered into a written agreement specifying the terms and conditions of the relationship between the partners and their relationship and responsibilities to the contract, and all such terms and conditions are in accordance with the conditions set forth in Items 1, 2, and 3 above in this Paragraph A.
- The Chief Procurement Officer shall evaluate the proposed joint venture agreement, the Schedule B submitted on behalf of the proposed joint venture, and all related documents to determine whether these requirements have been satisfied. The Chief Procurement Officer shall also consider the record of the joint venture partners on other City of Chicago contracts. The decision of the Chief Procurement Officer regarding the eligibility of the joint venture for credit towards meeting the Contract Specific Goals, and the portion of those goals met by the joint venture, shall be final.

The joint venture may receive MBE or WBE credit for work performed by the MBE or WBE joint venture partner(s) equal to the value of work performed by the MBE or WBE with its own forces for a distinct, clearly defined portion of the work.

Additionally, if employees of the joint venture entity itself (as opposed to employees of the MBE or WBE partner) perform the work then the value of the work may be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals at a rate equal to the MBE or WBE firm's percentage of participation in the joint venture as described in Schedule B.

The Chief Procurement Officer may also count the dollar value of work subcontracted to other MBEs and WBEs. Work performed by the forces of a non-certified joint venture partner shall not be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals.

Schedule B: MBE/WBE Affidavit of Joint Venture

Where the bidder's Compliance Plan includes the participation of any MBE or WBE¹ as a joint venture partner, the bidder must submit with its bid a Schedule B and the proposed joint venture agreement. These documents must both clearly evidence that the MBE or WBE joint venture partner (s) will be responsible for a clearly defined portion of the work to be performed, and that the MBE's or WBE's responsibilities and risks are proportionate to its ownership percentage. The proposed joint venture agreement must include specific details related to:

- n. The parties' contributions of capital, personnel, and equipment and share of the costs of insurance and bonding;
 - o. _____ and/or work to be performed by employees of the newly formed joint venture entity;
 - p. Work items to be performed under the supervision of the MBE or WBE joint venture partner;
- and
- q. The MBE's or WBE's commitment of management, supervisory, and operative personnel to the performance of the contract.

NOTE: Vague, general descriptions of the responsibilities of the MBE or WBE joint venture partner do not provide any basis for awarding credit. For example, descriptions such as "participate in the budgeting process," "assist with hiring," or "work with managers to improve customer service" do not identify distinct, clearly defined portions of the work. Roles assigned should require activities that are performed on a regular, recurring basis rather than as needed. The roles must also be pertinent to the nature of the business for which credit is being sought. For instance, if the scope of work required by the City entails the delivery of goods or services to various sites in the City, stating that the MBE or WBE joint venture partner will be responsible for the performance of all routine maintenance and all repairs required to the vehicles used to deliver such goods or services is pertinent to the nature of the business for which credit is being sought.

IV. Counting MBE and WBE Participation Towards the Contract Specific Goals

Work items to be performed by the MBE's or WBE's own forces

Refer to this section when preparing the MBE/WBE compliance plan and completing Schedule D-1 for guidance on what value of the participation by MBEs and WBEs will be counted toward the stated Contract Specific Goals. The "Percent Amount of Participation" depends on whether and with whom Contract Specific Goals. The Percent Amount of Participation depends on whether and with whom a MBE or WBE subcontracts out any portion of its work and other factors.

Firms that are certified as both MBE and WBE may only be listed on a bidder's compliance plan as either a MBE or a WBE to demonstrate compliance with the Contract Specific Goals. For example, a firm certified as both a MBE and a WBE may only listed on the bidder's compliance plan under one of the categories, but not both. Additionally, a firm that is certified as both a MBE and a WBE could not self-perform 100% of a contract, it would have to show good faith efforts to meet the Contract Specific Goals by including in its compliance plan work to be performed by another MBE or WBE firm, depending on which certification that dual-certified firm chooses to count itself as.

19. The CPO will determine whether a firm is performing a commercially useful function by evaluating the amount of work subcontracted, whether the amount the firm is to be paid under the contract is commensurate with the work it is actually performing and the credit claimed for its performance of the work, industry practices, and other relevant factors.

20. A MBE or WBE does not perform a commercially useful function if its participation is only required to receive payments in order to obtain the appearance of MBE or WBE participation. The CPO may examine similar commercial transactions, particularly those in which MBEs or WBEs do not participate, to determine whether non MBE and non WBE firms perform the same function in the marketplace to make a determination.

i. Only the value of the dollars paid to the MBE or WBE firm for work that it performs in its Area of Specialty in which it is certified counts toward the Contract Specific Goals.

Only payments made to MBE and WBE firms that meet BOTH the Commercially Useful Function and Area of Specialty requirements above will be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals.

j. If the MBE or WBE performs the work itself:

- 100% of the value of work actually performed by the MBE's or WBE's own forces shall be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals, including the cost of supplies purchased or equipment leased by the MBE or WBE from third parties or second tier subcontractors in order to perform its (sub)contract with its own forces. 0% of the value of work at the project site that a MBE or WBE subcontracts to a non-certified firm counts toward the Contract Specific Goals

k. If the MBE or WBE is a manufacturer:

100% of expenditures to a MBE or WBE manufacturer for items needed for the Contract shall be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals. A manufacturer is a firm that operates or maintains a factory or establishment that produces on the premises the materials or supplies obtained by the bidder or contractor.

l. If the MBE or WBE is a distributor or supplier:

- 60% of expenditures for materials and supplies purchased from a MBE or WBE that is certified as a regular dealer or supplier shall be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals.

m. If the MBE or WBE is a broker:

- 0% of expenditures paid to brokers will be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals.
- As defined above, Brokers provide no commercially useful function.

n. If the MBE or WBE is a member of the joint venture contractor/bidder:

- A joint venture may count the portion of the total dollar value of the contract equal to the distinct, clearly defined portion of the work of the contract that the MBE or WBE performs with its own forces toward the Contract Specific Goals.
 - OR if employees of this distinct joint venture entity perform the work then the value of the work may be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals at a rate equal to the MBE or WBE firm's percentage of counted toward the Contract Specific Goals at a rate equal to the MBE or WBE firm's percentage of participation in the joint venture as described in Schedule B.

Note: a joint venture may also count the dollar value of work subcontracted to other MBEs and WBEs, however, work subcontracted out to non-certified firms may not be counted.

135

22. If the MBE or WBE subcontracts out any of its work:
- a. 100% of the value of the work subcontracted to other MBEs or WBEs performing work in its Area of Specialty may be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals.
 - b. 0% of the value of work that a MBE or WBE subcontracts to a non-certified firm counts toward the Contract Specific Goals (except for the cost of supplies purchased or equipment leased by the MBE or WBE from third parties or second tier subcontractors in order to perform its (sub) contract with its own forces as allowed by C.1. above).
 - c. The fees or commissions charged for providing a bona fide service, such as professional, technical, consulting or managerial services or for providing bonds or insurance or the procurement of essential personnel, facilities, equipment, materials or supplies required for performance of the Contract, may be counted toward the Contract Specific Goals, provided that the fee or commission is determined by the Chief Procurement Officer to be reasonable and not excessive as compared with fees customarily allowed for similar services.
 - d. The fees charged for delivery of materials and supplies required on a job site (but not the cost of the materials and supplies themselves) when the hauler, trucker, or delivery service is not also the manufacturer of or a regular dealer in the materials and supplies, provided that the fee is determined by the Chief Procurement Officer to be reasonable and not excessive as compared with fees customarily allowed for similar services.
 - e. The fees or commissions charged for providing any bonds or insurance, but not the cost of the premium itself, specifically required for the performance of the Contract, provided that the fee or commission is determined by the Chief Procurement Officer to be reasonable and not excessive as compared with fees customarily allowed for similar services.

V. Procedure to Determine Bid Compliance

The following Schedules and requirements govern the bidder's or contractor's MBE/WBE proposal:

Q. Schedule B: MBE/WBE Affidavit of Joint Venture

1. Where the bidder's Compliance Plan includes the participation of any MBE or WBE as a joint venture partner, the bidder must submit with its bid a Schedule B and the proposed joint venture agreement. See Section III above for detailed requirements.

R. Schedule C: MBE/WBE Letter of Intent to Perform as a Subcontractor or Supplier

The bidder must submit the appropriate Schedule C with the bid for each MBE and WBE included on the Schedule D. The City encourages subcontractors to utilize the electronic fillable format Schedule C, which is available at the Department of Procurement Services website, <<http://citvofchicago.org/forms>>. Suppliers must submit the Schedule C for Suppliers, first tier subcontractors must submit a Schedule C for Subcontractors to the Prime Contractor and second or lower tier subcontractors must submit a Schedule C for second tier Subcontractors. Each Schedule C must accurately detail the work to be performed by the MBE or WBE and the agreed upon rates/prices. Each Schedule C must also include a separate sheet as an attachment on which the MBE or WBE fully describes its proposed scope of work, including a description of the commercially useful function being performed by the MBE or WBE in its Area of Specialty. If a facsimile copy of the Schedule C has been submitted with the bid, an executed original Schedule C must be submitted by the bidder for each MBE and WBE included on the Schedule D within five (5) business days after the date of the bid opening.

Schedule D: Compliance Plan Regarding MBE and WBE Utilization

The bidder must submit a Schedule D with the bid. The City encourages bidders to utilize the electronic fillable format Schedule D, which is available at the Department of Procurement Services website, <<http://citvofchicago.org/forms>>. An approved Compliance Plan is required before a contract may commence.

The Compliance Plan must commit to the utilization of each listed MBE and WBE. The bidder is responsible for calculating the dollar equivalent of the MBE and WBE Contract Specific Goals as percentages of the total base bid. All Compliance Plan commitments must conform to the Schedule Cs.

A bidder or contractor may not modify its Compliance Plan after bid opening except as directed by the Department of Procurement Services to correct minor errors or omissions: Bidders shall not be permitted to add MBEs or WBEs after bid opening to meet the Contract Specific Goals, however, contractors are encouraged to add additional MBE/WBE vendors to their approved compliance plan during the performance of the contract when additional opportunities for participation are identified. Except in cases where substantial, documented justification is provided, the bidder or contractor shall not reduce the dollar commitment made to any MBE or WBE in order to achieve conformity between the Schedule Cs and Schedule D. All terms and conditions for MBE and WBE participation on the contract must be negotiated and agreed to between the bidder or contractor and the MBE or WBE prior to the submission of the Compliance Plan. If a proposed MBE or WBE ceases to be available after submission of the Compliance Plan, the bidder or contractor must comply with the provisions in Section VII.

Letters of Certification

A copy of each proposed MBE's and WBE's Letter of Certification from the City of Chicago must be submitted with the bid.

A Letters of Certification includes a statement of the MBE's or WBE's area(s) of specialty. The MBE's or WBE's scope of work as detailed in the Schedule C must conform to its area(s) of specialty. Where a MBE or WBE is proposed to perform work not covered by its Letter of Certification, the MBE or WBE must request the addition of a new area at least 30 calendar days prior to the bid opening.

Schedule F: Report of Subcontractor Solicitations

A Schedule F must be submitted with the bid, documenting all subcontractors and suppliers solicited for participation on the contract by the bidder. Failure to submit the Schedule F may render the bid non-responsive.

Schedule H: Documentation of Good Faith Efforts

If a bidder determines that it is unable to meet the Contract Specific Goals, it must document its good faith efforts to do so, including the submission of Attachment C, Log of Contacts.

If the bidder's Compliance Plan demonstrates that it has not met the Contract Specific Goals in full or in part, the bidder must submit its Schedule H no later than three business days after notification by in part, the bidder must submit its Schedule H no later than three business days after notification by the Chief Procurement Officer of its status as the apparent lowest bidder. Failure to submit a complete Schedule H will cause the bid to be rejected as non-responsive.

Documentation must include but is not necessarily limited to:

A detailed statement of efforts to identify and select portions of work identified in the bid solicitation for subcontracting to MBEs and WBEs;

A listing of all MBEs and WBEs contacted for the bid solicitation that includes:

Names, addresses, emails and telephone numbers of firms solicited; Date and time of contact; > Person contacted;
Method of contact (letter, telephone call, facsimile, electronic mail, etc.).

Evidence of contact, including:

Project identification and location;
Classification/commodity of work items for which quotations were sought; Date, item, and location for acceptance of subcontractor bids; Detailed statements summarizing direct negotiations with appropriate MBEs and WBEs for specific portions of the work and indicating why agreements were not reached.
Bids received from all subcontractors.

Documentation of bidder or contractor contacts with at least one of the minority and women assistance associations on Attachment A.

Agreements between a bidder or contractor and a MBE or WBE in which the MBE or WBE promises not to provide subcontracting quotations to other bidders or contractors are prohibited.

Prior to award, the bidder agrees to promptly cooperate with the Department of Procurement Services in submitting to interviews, allowing entry to places of business, providing further documentation, or soliciting the cooperation of a proposed MBE or WBE. Failure to cooperate may render the bid non-responsive.

If the City determines that the Compliance Plan contains minor errors or omissions, the bidder or contractor must submit a revised Compliance Plan within five (5) business days after notification by the City that remedies the minor errors or omissions. Failure to correct all minor errors or omissions may result in the determination that a bid is non-responsive.

No later than three (3) business days after receipt of the executed contract, the contractor must execute a complete subcontract agreement or purchase order with each MBE and WBE listed in the Compliance Plan. No later than eight (8) business days after receipt of the executed contract, the contractor must provide copies of each signed subcontract, purchase order, or other agreement to the Department of Procurement Services.

In evaluating the Schedule H to determine whether the bidder or contractor has made good faith efforts, the performance of other bidders or contractors in meeting the goals may be considered.

The Chief Procurement Officer shall consider, at a minimum, the bidder's efforts to:

Solicit through reasonable and available means at least 50% (or at least five when there are more than

Solicit through reasonable and available means at least 30% (or at least five when there are more than eleven certified firms in the commodity area) of MBEs and WBEs certified in the anticipated scopes of subcontracting of the contract, as documented by the Schedule H. The bidder or contractor must solicit MBEs and WBEs within seven (7) days prior to the date bids are due. The bidder or contractor must take appropriate steps to follow up initial solicitations with interested MBEs or WBEs.

Advertise the contract opportunities in media and other venues oriented toward MBEs and WBEs.

Provide interested MBEs or WBEs with adequate information about the plans, specifications, and requirements of the contract, including addenda, in a timely manner to assist them in responding to the solicitation.

Negotiate in good faith with interested MBEs or WBEs that have submitted bids. That there may be some additional costs involved in soliciting and using MBEs and WBEs is not a sufficient reason for a bidder's failure to meet the Contract Specific Goals, as long as such costs are reasonable.

Not reject MBEs or WBEs as being unqualified without sound reasons based on a thorough investigation of their capabilities. The MBE's or WBE's standing within its industry, membership in specific groups, organizations, or associations and political or social affiliations are not legitimate causes for rejecting or not soliciting bids to meet the Contract Specific Goals.

Make a portion of the work available to MBE or WBE subcontractors and suppliers and selecting those portions of the work or material consistent with the available MBE or WBE subcontractors and suppliers, so as to facilitate meeting the Contract Specific Goals.

Make good faith efforts, despite the ability or desire of a bidder or contractor to perform the work of a contract with its own organization. A bidder or contractor who desires to self-perform the work of a contract must demonstrate good faith efforts unless the Contract Specific Goals have been met.

Select portions of the work to be performed by MBEs or WBEs in order to increase the likelihood that the goals will be met. This includes, where appropriate, breaking out contract work items into economically feasible units to facilitate MBE or WBE participation, even when the bidder or contractor might otherwise prefer to perform these work items with its own forces.

Make efforts to assist interested MBEs or WBEs in obtaining bonding, lines of credit, or insurance as required by the City or bidder or contractor.

Make efforts to assist interested MBEs or WBEs in obtaining necessary equipment, supplies, materials, or related assistance or services; and Effectively use the services of the City; minority or women community organizations; minority or women assistance groups; local, state, and federal minority or women business assistance offices; and other organizations to provide assistance in the recruitment and placement of MBEs or WBEs.

C. If the bidder disagrees with the City's determination that it did not make good faith efforts, the bidder may file a protest pursuant to the Department of Procurement Services Solicitation and Contracting Process Protest Procedures within 10 business days of a final adverse decision by the Chief Procurement Officer.

VII. Changes to Compliance Plan

13 No changes to the Compliance Plan or contractual MBE and WBE commitments or substitution of MBE or WBE subcontractors may be made without the prior written approval of the Chief Procurement Officer. Unauthorized changes or substitutions, including performing the work designated for a subcontractor with the contractor's own forces, shall be a violation of these Special Conditions and a breach of the contract with the City, and may cause termination of the executed Contract for breach, and/or subject the bidder or contractor to contract remedies or other sanctions. The facts supporting the request for changes must not have been known nor reasonably could have been known by the parties prior to entering into the subcontract. Bid shopping is prohibited. The bidder or contractor must negotiate with the subcontractor to resolve the problem. If requested by either party, the Department of Procurement Services shall facilitate such a meeting. Where there has been a mistake or disagreement about the scope of work, the MBE or WBE can be substituted only where an agreement cannot be reached for a reasonable price for the correct scope of work.

14. Substitutions of a MBE or WBE subcontractor shall be permitted only on the following basis:

- Unavailability after receipt of reasonable notice to proceed;
- Failure of performance;
- Financial incapacity;
- Refusal by the subcontractor to honor the bid or proposal price or scope;
- Mistake of fact or law about the elements of the scope of work of a solicitation where a reasonable price cannot be agreed;
- Failure of the subcontractor to meet insurance, licensing or bonding requirements;
- The subcontractor's withdrawal of its bid or proposal; or
- De-certification of the subcontractor as a MBE or WBE. (Graduation from the MBE/WBE program does not constitute de-certification.

15. If it becomes necessary to substitute a MBE or WBE or otherwise change the Compliance Plan, the procedure will be as follows:

5. The bidder or contractor must notify the Chief Procurement Officer in writing of the request to substitute a MBE or WBE or otherwise change the Compliance Plan. The request must state specific reasons for the substitution or change. A letter from the MBE or WBE to be substituted or affected by the change stating that it cannot perform on the contract or that it agrees with the change in its scope of work must be submitted with the request.

6. The City will approve or deny a request for substitution or other change within 15 business days of receipt of the request.

7. Where the bidder or contractor has established the basis for the substitution to the satisfaction of the Chief Procurement Officer, it must make good faith efforts to meet the Contract Specific Goal by substituting a MBE or WBE subcontractor. Documentation of a replacement MBE or WBE, or of good faith efforts, must meet the requirements in sections V and VI. If the MBE or WBE Contract Specific Goal cannot be reached and good faith efforts have been made, as determined by the Chief Procurement Officer, the bidder or contractor may substitute with a non-MBE or non-WBE.

8. If a bidder or contractor plans to hire a subcontractor for any scope of work that was not previously disclosed in the Compliance Plan, the bidder or contractor must obtain the approval of the Chief Procurement Officer to modify the Compliance Plan and must make good faith efforts to ensure that MBEs or WBEs have a fair opportunity to bid on the new scope of work.

9. A new subcontract must be executed and submitted to the Chief Procurement Officer within five business days of the bidder's or contractor's receipt of City approval for the substitution or other change.
- D. The City shall not be required to approve extra payment for escalated costs incurred by the contractor when a substitution of subcontractors becomes necessary to comply with MBE/WBE contract requirements.

VIII. Reporting and Record Keeping

- During the term of the contract, the contractor and its non-certified subcontractors must submit partial and final waivers of lien from MBE and WBE subcontractors that show the accurate cumulative dollar amount of subcontractor payments made to date. Upon acceptance of the Final Quantities from the City of Chicago, FINAL certified waivers of lien from the MBE and WBE subcontractors must be attached to the contractor's acceptance letter and forwarded to the Department of Procurement Services, Attention: Chief Procurement Officer.
- The contractor will be responsible for reporting payments to all subcontractors on a monthly basis in the form of an electronic audit. Upon the first payment issued by the City of Chicago to the contractor for services performed, on the first day of each month and every month thereafter, email and/or fax audit notifications will be sent out to the contractor with instructions to report payments that have been made in the prior month to each MBE and WBE. The reporting of payments to all subcontractors must be entered into the Certification and Compliance Monitoring System (C2), or whatever reporting system is currently in place, on or before the fifteenth (15th) day of each month.

Once the prime contractor has reported payments made to each MBE and WBE, including zero dollar amount payments, the MBE and WBE will receive an email and/or fax notification requesting them to log into the system and confirm payments received. All monthly confirmations must be reported on or before the 20th day of each month. Contractor and subcontractor reporting to the C2 system must be completed by the 25th of each month or payments may be withheld.

All subcontract agreements between the contractor and MBE/WBE firms or any first tier non-certified firm and lower tier MBE/WBE firms must contain language requiring the MBE/WBE to respond to email and/or fax notifications from the City of Chicago requiring them to report payments received for the prime or the non-certified firm.

Access to the Certification and Compliance Monitoring System (C2), which is a web based reporting system, can be found at: <<http://chicago.mwdbe.com>>

- H. The Chief Procurement Officer or any party designated by the, Chief Procurement Officer shall have access to the contractor's books and records, including without limitation payroll records, tax returns and records and books of account, to determine the contractor's compliance with its commitment to MBE and WBE participation and the status of any MBE or WBE performing any portion of the contract. This provision shall be in addition to, and not a substitute for, any other provision allowing inspection of the contractor's records by not a substitute for, any other provision allowing inspection of the contractor's records by any officer or official of the City for any purpose.

I. The contractor shall maintain records of all relevant data with respect to the utilization of MBEs and WBEs, retaining these records for a period of at least five years after final acceptance of the work. Full access to these records shall be granted to City, federal or state authorities or other authorized persons.

IX. Non-Compliance

35. Without limitation, the following shall constitute a material breach of this contract and entitle the City to declare a default, terminate the contract, and exercise those remedies provided for in the contract at law or in equity: (1) failure to demonstrate good faith efforts; and (2) disqualification as a MBE or WBE of the contractor or any joint venture partner, subcontractor or supplier if its status as an MBE or WBE was a factor in the award of the contract and such status was misrepresented by the contractor.
36. Payments due to the contractor may be withheld until corrective action is taken.
37. Pursuant to 2-92-740, remedies or sanctions may include disqualification from contracting or subcontracting on additional City contracts for up to three years, and the amount of the discrepancy between the amount of the commitment in the Compliance Plan, as such amount may be amended through change orders or otherwise over the term of the contract, and the amount paid to MBEs or WBEs. The consequences provided herein shall be in addition to any other criminal or civil liability to which such entities may be subject.
38. The contractor shall have the right to protest the final determination of non-compliance and the imposition of any penalty by the Chief Procurement Officer pursuant to 2-92-740 of the Municipal Code of the City of Chicago, within 15 business days of the final determination.

X. Arbitration

If the City determines that a contractor has not made good faith efforts to fulfill its Compliance Plan, the affected MBE or WBE may recover damages from the contractor.

Disputes between the contractor and the MBE or WBE shall be resolved by binding arbitration before the American Arbitration Association (AAA), with reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and arbitrator's fees, being recoverable by a prevailing MBE or WBE. Participation in such arbitration is a material provision of the Construction Contract to which these Special Conditions are an Exhibit. This provision is intended for the benefit of any MBE or WBE affected by the contractor's failure to fulfill its Compliance Plan and grants such entity specific third party beneficiary rights. These rights are non-waivable and take precedence over any agreement to the contrary, including but not limited to those contained in a subcontract, suborder, or communicated orally between a contractor and a MBE or WBE. Failure by the Contractor to participate in any such arbitration is a material breach of the Construction Contract.

A MBE or WBE seeking arbitration shall serve written notice upon the contractor and file a demand for arbitration with the AAA in Chicago, IL. The dispute shall be arbitrated in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the AAA. All arbitration fees are to be paid pro rata by the parties.

Introduction

O'Hare and Midway International Airports are owned by the City of Chicago and operated by the Chicago Department of Aviation (CDA). As a department within the City of Chicago, CDA is responsible for the management of the Airports, including the concessions program, and accordingly CDA reserves the right to review and approve the construction or modification of any Concession on Airport property.

For O'Hare International Airport official addresses and site map refer to:

For Midway International Airport official addresses and site map refer to:

The procedures, submission requirements, and deadlines set forth in this C-SOP document are mandatory and may only be waived in unique circumstances upon written approval by CDA Concessions. CDA reserves the right to modify the requirements at any time.

The Concessionaire shall provide evidence of professional services throughout all stages of work. All project documentation shall be prepared, signed, and stamped by a licensed design professional. Throughout the design process the Concessionaire is to utilize the most sustainable design practices in the industry with reference to the Sustainable Airport Manual (SAM™) to the extent dictated in the Concessionaire's signed Lease and License Agreement. The CDA, through its Design and Construction Division & CDA Concessions, reviews, oversees, and approves design and work for all new construction, renovation, and remodeling projects at the Airports.

Project oversight varies based on milestones

CDA D&C/ Facilities / CDA Concessions

Development and Design Process Overview

The concept development and design process has been established to provide a systematic and organized process by which a concessions concept and design are reviewed and approved by CDA Concessions. It should be noted that field verification is mandatory for all projects.

STEP 1.0: Project Initiation

1.1: Concept Proposal and Design Presentation

In order to begin a remodel project, store renovation or concept change, CDA Concessions must approve the proposed project and/or concept. The Concessionaire's concept design should include spatial relationships or models as necessary to describe the image and function of the project for CDA's review. CDA Concessions will be available to assist with the presentation scheduling.

Page 5 of 23 6/15/2020 - Revised

CHICAGO DEPARTMENT OF AVIATION +

The Concessionaire must provide the following items at the Conceptual Design presentation:

- s. Site Plan
- t. Concept plan
- u. Proposed terminal, concourse and requested square footage,
- v. The existing to remain or newly proposed lease line
- w. Design perspectives / renderings (illustrative images)
- x. Design plans / elevations
- y. Proposed materials / finish board (to be mailed to the address below)
- z. Preliminary overall project schedule
- aa. Preliminary construction budget
- bb. Sample menu

The concepts documents should be submitted via email to:

O'Hare International Airport Contacts Chicago Department of Aviation Administration Building Attn:
Deputy Commissioner Concessions 10510 West Zemke Rd. Chicago, IL 60666
Email: ordretailconstruction@cityofchicago.org <<mailto:ordretailconstruction@cityofchicago.org>>

Attn: Deputy Commissioner Concessions 10510 West Zemke Rd.
Chicago, IL 60666
Email: mdwretailconstruction\(5\)cityofchicago.orgcityofchicago.org)

These items will be reviewed by CDA Concessions for completeness. The Concessionaire will be contacted via email or hard copy letter with review results within ten (10) business days of the Concept presentation with comments and direction regarding items that need revisions or enhancements, and that should be addressed before the Concessionaire moves forward to submit a Project Initiation Letter.

• : Project Initiation Letter

When CDA Concessions issues written approval for the conceptual design, the Concessionaire shall submit to CDA's Coordinating Architect of Design and Construction, a Project Initiation Letter (PIL) on Concessionaire's or Concessionaire's Architect's letterhead. Within ten (10) business days of receiving the PIL, CDA will send a "Response to Project Initiation Letter" to the Concessionaire with comments and direction regarding the required number of and completion level of design submittals along with the assigned CDA Project Number which must be included on all future completion level of design submittals, along with the assigned CDA Project Number which must be included on all future project correspondence and submittals including permits.

CDA's Coordinating Architect of Design and Construction will determine if the scope of work requires a CDA Project Number as well as a full design and construction review. At that time, it is also determined if compliance with the SAM™ is required. Not all projects will be assigned a CDA Project Number or must be SAM™ compliant. Based on the construction scope and duration, some projects may be eligible to proceed through CDA's eForm system (for more information on eForms see Step 5). All Concessionaire questions, concerns, or requests for information or project coordination should be directed to the CDA POC.

For a list of required documentation to include in the PIL refer to: Exhibit A:
Project Initiation Letter Submittal Check List

Please refer to Step 1.1 for where O'Hare and Midway Pre-Construction Submittals should be sent.

CHICAGO DEPARTMENT OF AVIATION *

Once the PIL has been received and acknowledged, the project owner and/or representative is responsible and required to provide the following project documentation and electronic documentation to the CDA Concessions POC:

- r. Project written reports pertaining to all Design Reviews, Pre-Construction, Construction and Post-Construction updates e-mailed to the CDA POC as requested. The project owner and/or representative is to ensure all project meetings be attended by a project representative. Please refer to Step 6.6 for further information.

1.3: Sustainable Airport Manual (SAM™)

The Concessionaire is required to submit a Sustainable Airport Manual (SAM™) Checklist. The Designer will complete and submit a checklist for the SAM™ Terminal Occupants - Design & Construction Chapter (SAM™ TO-DC Credits 1.0 to 6.0) and include all relevant supporting documentation. Be advised that the Terminal Occupants - Operations & Maintenance (CT-OM) checklist is not required for construction projects (all projects would need to submit a checklist). Please refer to link below:

SAM™ Manual

155

STEP 2.0: Design Review

All projects require review by CDA Concessions. The Concessionaire's design professional shall perform code review to determine what permits are required. If it is determined that the scope of work does not require permit(s), the design professional shall provide this determination in writing to CDA Concessions. Otherwise, building permits are issued by the Department of Buildings. CDA encourages the Concessionaire to allow ample schedule time to acquire the required building permits. Please note that if a sign construction permit is required, it can only be obtained by a licensed sign contractor. All projects are to conform and comply with all applicable CDA standards.

a. : Concessionaire and Concessionaire's Consultants' Responsibilities

The Concessionaire is ultimately responsible for all work designed, approved and constructed in the Airport by its vendors and consultants.

b. : Design Overview

The design review process includes design drawing, review, and approval. The project design timeline will vary based on multiple factors, such as scope of work, existing conditions, drawing completeness at time of submittal, and/or as dictated by CDA.

Please note:

- CDA's design review requires a minimum of fifteen (15) business days. Concessionaire's design professional is allotted thirty (30) business days after receipt of CDA comments to submit the next drawing package.

The Concessionaire will receive a "Review and Conditions Letter" that either approves the submittal with qualifications, "Reviewed as Noted" or a "Revise and Resubmit".

• : Design Submittals

The Concessionaire will submit to the CDA's Coordinating Architect of Design and Construction, at the 30%, 60%, 90%, and 100% design completion levels, or other completion level combinations based upon review and completeness of the initial and follow-up submittals. Less complex projects may be approved to deviate from this requirement, which will be addressed in CDA's "Response to Project Initiation Letter".

The Concessionaire is required to prepare and submit architectural and engineering drawings, material samples, specifications, lighting schedule and catalog cuts, display fixture and equipment plans, and other technical data as necessary to create a complete design package. The submittal must be in accordance with General Procedures and as described in the Concession Lease and License Agreement.

The design drawing documents shall be prepared by design professionals licensed to practice in the State of Illinois.

Particular attention should be given to the non-combustible classification of the building, related flame spread ratings and smoke development classification of materials. Documentation should demonstrate compliance with these requirements.

- Concessionaire documentation for all submissions shall be provided in imperial measurement at the following suggested minimum scales:
 - Key plans; 1/32" = 1'-0", with the location of the space clearly identified by the column line designation.
 - Floor plans, reflected ceiling plans, merchandising plans, interior elevations, sections and related details; = 1'-0".

Passenger traffic flow diagrams (queuing) and adjacency plans at 1/8" = 1'-0".

Storefronts, signage, logos and lettering, in elevation, section or detail; V/ = 1'-0".

Sample boards identifying all proposed materials, 11" x 17" panel minimum, include legend.

- Sample boards identifying photos for all proposed furniture and lighting fixtures, 11" x 17" panel minimum, include legend.

Renderings 11" x 17" or larger for presentation, provide 11" x 17" hand-out copies to be distributed to the attendees.

- All drawings shall be submitted in accordance to CDA CAD / BIM Standards. Electronic submittals will also be accepted in AutoCAD format or the current CDA standard format. A complete set of PDFs is also required as part of each Concessionaire design submission. During design development, at the Concessionaire's request, CDA will make available known as-built files.

Concessionaire and design team to relay existing condition findings to CDA Facilities for review and approval before submitting the 30% design submittal. An in-person meeting maybe required. The CDA POC will help facilitate a meeting date and time.

• : Concessionaire and CDA Signage

Sign design documents must be submitted for review and approval by CDA separate from the phase submittals. Each project must include an illuminated storefront sign. Where it is applicable a blade sign may also be included. Design documents for the signage must express the image, location, specifications, materials, and dimensions. All signage, with or without electrical components, require a sign permit from the Department of Buildings; which can only be obtained by a licensed sign contractor.

Design and Construction Standard Operating Procedures Concessions Projects (C-SOP) Page 8 of 23

6/15/2020 - Revised

The Concessionaire must inform the CDA Concessions POC if the project requires airport owned signage removal or modification. A walk through with CDA Concessions will be scheduled to ensure adequate time will be allotted for the required airport owned sign work to occur during the construction phase. Any CDA signage needing to be removed or relocated within the project area must be performed by CDA. If CDA signage is located within the project area, the Concessionaire must include specifications in the construction documents, detailing steps to be taken by the contractor to adequately protect all CDA signage to ensure it is not damaged during construction.

f. : Review Comments

CDA's Coordinating Architect of Design and Construction will distribute a blank "Review Comments Form" form to the appropriate review team. This document will be distributed as an Excel Workbook file and will only be used by the reviewer for their comments. After all comments have been made, each reviewer will send back their comments to the CDA's Coordinating Architect of Design and Construction.

The designer is to provide written line item responses to all comments in the workbook file. This process will repeat for each review phase, as designated in the CDA's "Response to Project Initiation Letter".

Please refer to:

- Exhibit B. Submittal Review Comments Form Concessions

g. : Response to Comments

The Concessionaire is required to respond to all review comments listed on the Review Comments Form, as well as any issues identified in the "Review and Conditions Letter". The spreadsheet column titled "Concessionaire Response" must be completed and accompany the preceding design submittal. Failure to do so will affect the design review process timeline. Concessionaire must respond to all review comments, in writing and submit within or no less than three (3) business days prior to the request for a Pre-Construction Meeting.

h. : Requests for Information

Concessionaire questions, concerns or requests for information or project coordination should be directed to the CDA Concessions POC.

i. : Requests for As-Built Drawings

The Concessionaire, their architect and/or engineer may submit an as-built drawing request from CDA for use in their design. Use the link below "Document Request Form" and submit it to the CDA for approval. As-built drawings will not be available until the form is signed by CDA. The Concessionaire, their architect and/or engineer will be notified by the CDA if and when the drawings are available. Please refer to:

- Exhibit B.1: CDA Standard Electronic Document Request Form j.

: Requests for CDA Design Standards Variance

The Concessionaire, their architect and/or engineer may submit a request for a variance to the CDA Design Standards. Use the link below to access the "Designer's Request for CDA Design Standards Variance" form. The variance must be reviewed and approved by CDA Design and Construction. Please refer to:

- Exhibit B.2: Designer's Request For CDA Design Standards Variance Form

1. : 30% Schematic Design (SD) Submittal

The 30% SD submittal illustrates further development of the Concessionaire's design concept. The 30% SD should respond to the feedback given during the Concept Design Presentation and include, at a minimum, more definitive spatial relationships, updated perspectives, plans, elevations, sections, and overall dimensions and other illustrative materials critical to describing the development of the project.

Work required outside the Concessionaire's lease/license line should be clearly identified on all drawings and communicated directly to the CDA POC. Designs must also specify affected Airport base building structure or utilities, including but not limited to: advertising space, public telephones, vending devices, internet kiosks, charging stations, AED's, fire extinguishers, signage, public address speakers, mechanical, electrical, plumbing, fire protection equipment, etc.

For a detailed list of 30% SD Submittal refer to:

- a. Exhibit C: 30% Schematic Design (SD) Submittal Check List

2. : CDA Review and Response to 30% SD Submittal

The CDA will provide a "Review and Conditions Letter" as well as a Review Comments Form (see Steps 2.5 and 2.6), which is used for all submittals throughout the design review process between CDA review parties and the Concessionaire's architect or design professional.

The letter will include the following information:

- Identify the project status as "Reviewed as Noted" or "Revise and Resubmit".
- Provide comments and direction regarding the proposed scope of work and design submittals.
- If applicable, display the assigned CDA Project Number.
- Determine if the project will require (SAM™) compliance.

• : 60% Design Development (DD) Submittal

The 60% DD drawings further enhance the previous submittals and should include: architectural, structural, mechanical, electrical, plumbing, fire protection, and equipment demolition plans as well as MEP existing conditions, floor and reflected ceiling plans, elevations, sections, details, specifications, system diagrams, and structural load calculations. Additionally, this submittal should include meter locations: water, gas and electrical. The 60% DD drawings should convey the full scope of work and all impacts to the Airport base building and adjacent spaces. The Concessionaire, their architect and/or engineer may also be required to attend coordination meetings with CDA to present and clarify the submittal documents.

For a detailed list of 60% DD Submittal refer to:

- Exhibit C.1:60% Design Development (DD) Submittal Check List
- Exhibit C.2: Electrical Submittal Check List
- Exhibit C.3: Mechanical, Fire Protection & Plumbing Submittal Check List

' • : Additional Submittals

CDA Concessions or CDA Design and Construction may determine that the proposed design is more complex and will require an intermediate design review, page turn with the CDA, or site walkthrough to confirm all concerns and questions are sufficiently resolved. The CDA will identify in the 60% "Review and Conditions Letter" that an additional submittal is required and will list the reasons for the request before continuing to the next major phase.

The additional submittal(s) must address the issues identified by CDA. The Concessionaire is encouraged to schedule a coordination meeting with CDA to discuss the issues identified. See Step 2.15 for where to send Design submittals via email and hardcopies. All submittals to include the project number and design submittal phase on the email subject line i.e. THXXX.19-00 Concession's Project Name 60% Submission

Compliance Overview

All Concessionaires are required to comply with the City of Chicago construction compliance rules, city residency requirement and certified payroll requirements. See Step 9 for more information.

- : 90% Construction Document (CD) Submittal

The 90% CD drawings further enhance the previous submittals and should include: specifications, signage details and locations, and additional mechanical, electrical, fire protection, and plumbing details. With the 90% submittal, comments should include minimal outstanding issues that need to be incorporated into the 100% CDs.

For a detailed list of 90% CD Submittal refer to: .

STEP 3.0: Final CDA Document Review and Conditional Approval to Construct

- : Final CDA Document Submittal

When the documents are 100% complete, the Concessionaire will need to submit the final documents to CDA for review. If approved, CDA will issue a "Review and Conditions Letter" with a "Reviewed as Noted" status to the Concessionaire, and if applicable, a separate letter to the City of Chicago, Department of Buildings, indicating the construction documents have been reviewed and approved, allowing for the start of the permit application process.

For a detailed list of 100% CD Submittal refer to:

- Exhibit C.4: 90 and 100% Construction Document (CD) Submittal Check List
- : Pre-Permitting Drawing Set Review and Response

The Concessionaire is required to respond to all review comments listed on the Review Comments Form throughout all design phases. The Concessionaire is to submit a Pre-Permitting Drawing Set for CDA review and approval prior to applying for the project required permits. If any or all review comments have not been incorporated into the Pre-Permitting Drawing Set, the set will not receive approval and/or no construction activities are able to take place until all review comments are incorporated.

3.3: Applying for Permit with the Chicago Department of Buildings

Following approval of 100% CDs, the project is bid and construction contracts are awarded. It is necessary for the awarded contractor to apply for the required permits from the City of Chicago's Department of Buildings, and any other applicable state and federal authority. The Concessionaire must coordinate the method, process and schedule for the permit application submittals as well as coordinate conduction of final inspections. It is the Concessionaire's sole responsibility to follow-up on the permit issuance process. Note, the Description of Work on the permit must include ■ the associated terminal (i.e. Terminal 2), the closest gate (i.e. E4), the project name and, if applicable, CDA project number.

A list of required work permits is located on the Department of Buildings website. Please note that when a sign construction permit is required, it can only be obtained by a licensed sign contractor.

All Chicago Department of Buildings permit applications and submittals are fully electronic and available via the City's online system "E-Plan" at the following website: <<https://www.chicago.gov/city/en/depts/bldgs>>

3.4: Self-Certification

The Self-Certification Permit Program simplifies the building permit process for eligible residential, business and mercantile and small assembly projects where the Architect of Record takes full responsibility for code compliance. The Department of Buildings plan reviews are eliminated by allowing the Professional of Record to certify that the permit drawings comply with the Chicago Building Code. The Professional of Record must have prepared and sealed the permit drawings, completed DOB's Self-Certification Training Class, and hold an active Self-Certification registration. Structural work cannot be self-certified.

For more information please visit: Chicago Dept. of Buildings Self Certification Program

The Concessionaire POC shall request a Pre-Construction Meeting through CDA as directed in the final CDA review comments. All Pre-Construction documents must be compiled, and electronic copies sent to the CDA prior to scheduling the Pre-Construction Meeting. The Pre-Construction Meeting can be scheduled no sooner than three (3) business days after the final pre-construction document is received.

CDA or the CDA POC will schedule a Pre-Construction Meeting and notify the Concessionaire of the meeting time and location. At the Pre-Construction Meeting, the Concessionaire and their representatives should be prepared to answer any questions regarding the required documentation and the proposed construction. If applicable, the General Contractor must provide proof that the barricade graphic has been produced and is ready for installation; the barricade and graphic must be installed within (7) seven business days from the start of construction. The Pre-Construction Meeting will NOT take place until MBE/WBE Compliance Plans have been reviewed and accepted by the CDA. Please refer to Step 9 for more information on compliance.

Design and Construction Standard Operating Procedures Concessions Projects (C SOP)

At the conclusion of the pre-construction meeting, CDA will determine if the documentation and Concessionaire's response to any questions are complete and, if so, CDA will issue a letter authorizing construction to start. Note that an eForm must also be submitted and approved before construction can start. Please refer to Step 5 for more information on the eForm.

4.2: Pre-Construction Documentation

It is the Concessionaire's POC's responsibility to compile and submit the required documentation in a timely manner in order to maintain the overall project schedule. • : Chicago Department of Public Health Inspections and Liquor License

Food establishments and retail establishments serving food require a health inspection to be conducted by the Chicago Department of Public Health (CDPH). Concessionaires applying for a liquor license require a separate inspection coordinated by the Business Affairs and Consumer Protection Department, in addition to the Department of Buildings inspections. For both inspections, allow one (1) to three (3) weeks to schedule and obtain a final inspection and certificate.

Please note, the construction barricade cannot be removed until applicable licenses and inspections are complete.

6.5: Demolition •

Prior to demolition, pre-construction photos must be taken, documenting all of the existing conditions. Failure to provide photo documentation of the existing conditions before construction will result in the contractor and Concessionaire assuming responsibility for all damages and perceived damage to existing base building materials. Damaged materials must be repaired or replaced at the contractor's and/or Concessionaire's expense. Once demolition is complete, the CDA terminal manager, the CDA building engineer, and CDA POC shall perform a site inspection prior to the start of construction.

Core drilling, cutting of floors, walls or roofs may be required for tenants needing plumbing and/or additional mechanical HVAC provisions. Under no circumstances shall the Concessionaire or its contractor(s), at any time be permitted to drill or cut conduit, pipe sleeves, chases or duct equipment openings in the floor, columns, walls or roofs of the structure without prior review and acceptance of the proposed locations and sizes by the CDA's structural consultant. The Concessionaire is required to x-ray or scan the area prior to beginning work utilizing a 3D ground penetrating radar and will provide a copy of x-ray / scan results to CDA. STEP 7.0: Substantial Completion

• : Substantial Completion Notification

The General Contractor shall notify the CDA POC a minimum of seven (7) business days prior to the anticipated substantial completion date to request a site inspection project completion walk through. The construction space must be clean and all tools and surplus materials must be removed from the site or the walk through will be canceled. Mandatory attendance at the walk through includes: Concessionaire and/or Owner's Representative(s), and the General Contractor's Project Manager and Superintendent. The CDA POC will notify the CDA terminal manager, the CDA building engineer, the CDA Project Manager, and any other attendees identified during the Pre-Construction meeting or as deemed necessary. The items listed below are required to support the substantial completion walk through process:

The Concessionaire's architect should compile their punch list items. The Concessionaire or concessionaire's architect will provide a copy of their punch list to CDA for review prior to the walk through. The concessionaire will receive final CDPH and Department of Buildings inspector's approval before the substantial completion walk through.

The substantial completion walk through must occur 5-1.0 business days prior to concessions opening.

• : Final Walk Through and Punch List

At the substantial completion walk through, the General Contractor will conduct a brief meeting to distribute and discuss the punch list items that they have identified and the proposed date of substantial completion. The General Contractor and Concessionaire must show proof of all final Department of Buildings and CDPH inspections, Certificate of Occupancy, Business and Liquor licenses and Certificate of Insurance. If a Certificate of Occupancy is required as determined by the Department of Buildings, it will need to be submitted to the CDA prior to any occupancy of the renovated or newly constructed space. It is the Tenant's responsibility to arrange for inspection by the Department of Buildings for the Certificate of Occupancy. The Concessionaire should identify meter locations to be properly labeled and provide the meter number and the room name of meter location(s).

After all attendees have completed the walk through, the parties will reassemble to discuss their punch list items with the Concessionaire and General Contractor. CDA Concessions will review the Concessionaire's architect's punch list and relay any additional items identified during the substantial completion walk through on a separate punch list. Any punch list items that are noted as critical and thus require immediate correction will be identified during the substantial completion walk through. The concessions location cannot open until these critical punch list items have been corrected.

Within five (5) business days after the substantial completion walk through, the Concessionaire, Concessionaire's architect, and/or the contractors will consolidate all agreed upon punch list items and issue via e-mail, a composite formal punch list. This list will be distributed to all parties invited from the substantial completion walk through. The Concessionaire's architect will also submit their substantial completion letter to the CDA.

Depending on issues presented, CDA will determine which option below is acceptable.

For Retail Concessions:

Concessionaire may proceed to stock, train, and open their concession, while non-critical punch list repairs continue.

Concessionaire may stock and train for their concession but cannot open until the identified critical punch list items are corrected.

Design and Construction Standard Operating Procedures Concessions Projects (C-SOP) Page

17 of 23 6/15/2020 - Revised

- (3) Concessionaire may NOT stock, or train for, or open their concession until the identified critical punch list items are corrected.

For Food and Beverage Concessions:

- 2) Concessionaire may proceed to train, furnish, and prep their food and beverage but cannot open until the identified critical punch list items are corrected.
- 3) The Concessionaire may NOT furnish, prep, or train for their facility until the identified critical punch list items are corrected.

CDA Concessions will review and then issue a response/acceptance letter back to the Concessionaire or Concessionaire's architect after receipt of the substantial completion letter. The concession location cannot open until they have received CDA Concession's notice to open.

The Concessionaire will track the completion of the punch list and periodically send CDA the list of completed and outstanding punch list items (with reason for incomplete items and lead times for materials not immediately available).

Please note, the construction barricade may not be removed without written approval from CDA Concessions.

The General Contractor is to complete the punch list items within thirty (30) business days of the initial walk through or as dictated in the Concessionaire's signed Lease and License Agreement walk through or as dictated in the Concessionaire's signed Lease and License Agreement.

If after thirty (30) business days, the punch list items remain incomplete CDA may elect to:

- Impose a fine of $200 per item, per day, until the work is finished.

167

If after sixty (60) business days, the punch list items remain incomplete CDA may elect to:

- Hire contractors to complete the work at the Concessionaire's expense.

The punch list completion tracking document will be sent to CDA Concessions for review within the thirty (30) business day period after the substantial completion walk through takes place. All punch list items should be resolved to the satisfaction of CDA or include an agreed upon completion schedule.

9.2: Required MBE and WBE Documentation

Required compliance documentation will be submitted through the web-based Retail Management System ("RMS") which is the City of Chicago, Department of Aviation's, secure concession's portal. All compliance reporting must be submitted electronically using RMS.

The Concessionaire and General Contractors are required to enter the Compliance Plans, Certified Payroll and Sworn Statements into RMS. Once the Concessionaire selects a Professional Service Contractor and General Contractor, the designated Concessionaire POCs will be provided with RMS log in information. INTRODUCTION:

The City of Chicago ("City") and the Chicago Department of Aviation ("CDA") welcome you to the family of concessionaires operating at the City's airports. Your concession represents an excellent business and professional opportunity to serve the traveling public as well as operate a profitable enterprise. In order to ensure quality and uniformity among all concessions, we have designed a Concessions Program that is outlined in this handbook. It is important that you review and adhere to these standards as they will serve as tools for the successful operation of your concession.

THE CONCESSIONS PROGRAM:

The CDA's Airport Concessions Program serves as the primary resource to meet the needs of the traveling public with regard to the provision of quality, reasonably-priced goods and services at Chicago's airports. To this end, CDA is further responsible for the outreach, selection, coordination and monitoring of concessionaires. In order to fulfill these responsibilities, CDA has several functional units that, as part of their overall duties, operate as liaisons to prospective and existing concessionaires. The primary units and their concession-related functions are as follows:

CDA UNIT FUNCTIONS

Commissioner's Office Policy generation and resolution.

Managing Deputy Overall coordination of revenue, finance, bonding, insurance, Commissioner property management and concessions functions/issues including merchandising plans, outreach, proposal generation and evaluation, contract negotiation, and overall coordination and processing.

Assistant Commissioner Assist in overseeing Concessions, the monitoring program and general airport guidelines.

Concession Management Entity retained by the CDA to assist in overseeing Representative ("CMR") Concessions, including construction of Improvements at the airport.

Planning/Coordinating Architects Plan and design review; construction coordination and monitoring.

Finance/Revenue Financial reporting, review and auditing.

Security Coordination of security identification and other related issues.

THE MONITORING PROGRAM:

The Monitoring Program is designed to provide a process to ensure that concessions operating in the Airports comply with the ordinances and policies of the City, provisions of their respective Lease Agreements and specific airport guidelines as established by the CDA. The primary areas that will be reviewed include financial commitments, maintenance of concession space(s), licensing (where required), and overall adherence to the provisions of the Lease Agreement.

The intent of the Monitoring Program is to benefit the traveling public and other airport visitors, concessionaires and the City.

THE PRE-MONITORING PROCESS:

After a prospective concession is selected by CDA there are five stages that precede the commencement of the Monitoring Program.

STAGE 1 - CITY COUNCIL APPROVAL

Upon completing lease negotiations with the concessionaire, CDA forwards the lease agreement ("Agreement"), signed by the Tenant, to the City's Law Department. After the Law Department's review of the form and legality of the proposed concession agreement, the proposed tenant is introduced to the full City Council. City Council sends the Agreement to the Aviation Committee for review. The Aviation Committee approves, rejects or requests further information. Once approved by the Aviation Committee, the recommendation is forwarded to the full City Council for final approval. In most cases, recommendations submitted to the full Council by Committee are notified verbally at the next meeting.

recommendations submitted to the full Council by Committee are ratified, usually at the next meeting. This approval is documented in the "Journal of Proceedings." The documented approval and contract are then forwarded to the Mayor and other pertinent City departments for execution.

STAGE 2 - LEASE AGREEMENT

The Lease Agreement outlines a concessionaire's contractual relationship with the City. It delineates the responsibilities, expectations and the requirements of both parties, financial and non-financial. During negotiation of the terms of the agreement, you will have cause to interact with individuals from the CDA and the CMR Office. The Managing Deputy Commissioner of Concessions will oversee the processing of the Lease Agreement as well the Monitoring Program.

STAGE 3 - DESIGN APPROVAL

All concessionaires must submit a conceptual, schematic drawing which shows the general design of the unit. The Planning and Architecture departments will review the concept, and if the approval is given, a letter will be sent giving conceptual approval and requesting 100% architectural drawings including a complete materials board, plans and specifications so the plans meet the CDA requirements and aesthetic appeal. Upon providing approval of the 100% plans, Architecture will send a letter to the concessionaire giving authority to apply to the City Buildings Department for building permits. In no case may construction begin prior to the receipt of this approval. The Planning Unit will also monitor construction in progress.

STAGE 4 - PRE-CONSTRUCTION APPROVAL

Prior to construction, each concession will meet with the CMR for the purpose of providing the concessionaire with general airport construction guidelines. Examples of these guidelines are locations and times for pick-ups, deliveries, refuse disposal, elevator usage, and badging.

Following the operations meeting, the CMR will schedule a pre-construction meeting with CDA. Prior to the meeting, the General Contractor for the project will submit all documents, permits and approvals to CDA for review. Construction may begin following approval at the pre-construction meeting.

STAGE 5 - CONSTRUCTION

After the contract is finalized, each concessionaire has a specified period to commence and complete construction based on approved design and construction specifications. During this period each concessionaire has the responsibility to expeditiously begin and obtain all necessary approvals, licenses, insurances, etc. Each concessionaire should maintain communication with the CMR during the process to ensure that all construction and licensing requirements are addressed in a timely fashion. It is important that the concession be open to the public within the time parameters specified in the Agreement.

KEY ELEMENTS OF THE MONITORING PROGRAM:

The Concessions Monitoring Program consists of three primary elements: operations reviews, audits and pricing reports. Operations reviews will be conducted on an ongoing basis by the CMR. The operations review form in Appendix 2 will provide a framework for this component of the Monitoring operations review form in Appendix 2 will provide a frame work for this component of the Monitoring Program.

Financial and compliance audits will be conducted on an annual and periodic basis, respectively. Financial audits will review all financial, bonding and insurance related requirements.

As specified in the Agreement, each concession shall submit an annual pricing report.

The Monitoring Process will include ongoing site inspection of each concession site by the CMR. Typical inspections will consist of reviews of facilities, general maintenance, employee practices, product/price conformity and space utilization. Inspection staff will use the CMR Operation Review Form (Appendix 2) to record their findings and observations. Reviews will be sent to the concession manager for review and follow-up on all review items. Non-compliance could result in liquidated damages being levied and/or commencement of default proceedings, dependent upon the nature of the violation.

FINANCIAL AUDITS

In accordance with the provisions of the standard Concession Lease Agreement, CDA reserves the right to require a certified public and/or City audit of all books, ledgers, journals, accounts and records of its concessions.

COMPLIANCE AUDITS

On a regular basis, the CDA will review compliance with insurance coverage, financial commitments and financial reporting requirements. Non-compliance could result in liquidated damages being levied and/or commencement of default proceedings, dependent upon the nature of the violation. Additionally, compliance with ACDBE Special Conditions will be audited.

SECRET SHOPPING

The CDA, from time to time, may hire an outside contractor to perform "secret shopping" and evaluate employee performance of each concession location. Such reviews shall be used to monitor customer service and cash handling procedures among other things.

SUMMARY:

The Monitoring Program will provide a basis of uniformity to all concessions. Adherence to the Concession Lease Agreement as well as the elements of this Handbook will contribute to the successful operation of your business.

The following Appendices will further delineate additional information/requirements stated above.
