1331 West Albion Avenue Type 1

Rezoning

The building on the subject property is a former convent built in 1938 for the Sisters of the Holy Child. The convent building provided sleeping rooms for the sisters on the upper floors and included areas of accessory community service rooms. The building is four-stories in height and contains approximately 14,697.5 square feet of floor area, plus a basement. There is no parking at the building, as there was no minimum parking requirement at the time of construction for convents.

The rezoning is necessary to allow for the continued use of the building as the Marjorie Kovler Center, a counseling center for people, families and communities who are affected by torture. The building remains the same. There will be no additions or new construction to the building. The building will not be used for residential, but rather for office use. The Marjorie Kovler Center is a counseling center that provides case management, forensic evaluation and other multidisciplinary services.

Pictures of the existing building and floor plans are attached hereto as exhibits.
