ORDINANCE

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO:

SECTION 1. Section 9-68-020 of the Municipal Code of Chicago is hereby amended by deleting the language stricken through and by inserting the language underscored, as follows:

9-68-020 Residential parking permits.

(Omitted text is unaffected by this ordinance)

(b) Upon the payment by the applicant of the permit fee hereinafter provided, the city clerk shall issue, or cause to be issued, a residential parking permit. ~~The annual period for every such permit shall begin on July 1st and end on June 30th of the year following the year of issuance.~~ Any such residential parking permit shall be issued only in conjunction with, and for the same term as, a valid city wheel tax license emblem. A residential parking permit shall be valid upon its issuance and affixed as described above in paragraph (a). ~~However, any permit purchased before July 1 for the annual period to begin July 1 will be considered valid as soon as it is purchased and affixed as described above in paragraph (a).~~ The city clerk is authorized to provide a grace period, not exceeding 30 days, during times of heavy volume of applications, for all persons seeking to buy a residential parking permit. During any such grace period, the previously issued annual or one-day residential parking permits will continue to be valid.

(Omitted text is unaffected by this ordinance)

SECTION 2. This ordinance shall take full force and effect upon its passage and publication.

02015-4198

Chicago, June 17, 2015

To the President and Members of the City Council:

Your Committee on License and Consumer Protection, having under consideration an ordinance introduced by City Clerk Susana Mendoza and Alderman Thomas Tunney (which was referred on May 20, 2015), to amend Chapter 9-68-020 of the Municipal Code of Chicago concerning terms of residential parking permit issuance, begs leave to recommend that Your Honorable Body re-refer the ordinance which is transmitted herewith to the Committee on Pedestrian and Traffic Safety.

This recommendation was concurred in by a viva voce vote of the members of the committee on June 16, 2015.

Respectfully submitted,

CHAIRMAN, COMMITTEE ON LICENSE AND CONSUMER PROTECTION
