SUBSTITUTE ORDINANCE

WHEREAS, The City Council of the City of Chicago recognizes that a necessary component of well-organized, properly functioning government is effective oversight; and

WHEREAS, Effective oversight ensures that those in government comply with laws, rules and ethical standards, and helps to preserve public trust; and

WHEREAS, The City Council acknowledges that as a part of government, it is appropriate that it be subject to effective oversight, and this Body took action six years ago to put in place the necessary legislation, Chapter 2-55 of the Municipal Code, to accomplish this goal; and

WHEREAS; The passage of time has shown that Chapter 2-55 has not functioned as efficiently or effectively as such legislation should; and

WHEREAS; The responsible and responsive thing to do is take a fresh look at that legislation, in order to correct deficiencies, add more robust oversight measures, and make City Council oversight a more functional tool, both for the overseer and the overseen; and

WHEREAS; The City Council has undertaken the task to ensure that allegations of misconduct against aldermen and their employees are thoroughly investigated and addressed decisively, fairly, and consistently while respecting the independence of the City Council's legislative processes and operations; now, therefore,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO:

SECTION 1. Chapter 2-56 of the Municipal Code of the City of Chicago is hereby amended by inserting the language underscored and deleting the language struck through, as follows:

2-56-020 Inspector general - Qualifications, appointment, and authority.

~~(a) (1) The powers and duties of the inspector general shall extend to the conduct of the following: (a) except as limited in this section all elected officers and appointed officers of the city government in the performance of their official duties; (b) except as limited in this section, all city employees of the city government in the performance of their official duties; (c) lobbyists engaged in the lobbying of elected or appointed city officers or employees; (4) all contractors and subcontractors; in the providing of goods or services to the city, the city council, any city council committee or bureau or other service agency, of the city council pursuant to a contract; (d) 5) business entities persons in seeking contracts or certification of eligibility for city contracts with the city, the city council, any city council committee or bureau or other service agency of the city council; and (e) 6) persons seeking certification of eligibility for participation in any city program? Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the office of inspector general shall have no power or authority over any member of the city council, or any city council employee, as defined in Section 2-55-010. If the office of inspector general receives "any complaint" alleging an or any city council employee, as defined in Section 2-55-010, the inspector general shall, promptly transmit said complaint to the legislative inspector general. - Nothing in this section shall preclude the inspector general local, state or federal legislative inspector general; the appropriate sister agency, or the appropriate federal, state or local law enforcement authorities.~~

(a)(2) The powers and duties of the inspector general relative to the city council, any member of the city council, and any city employee defined as such under subsection 2-56-025(a)(2) or (a)(3), shall be limited to investigating: a legislator that such violated Chapter 2-156 or any other law, order or rule/regulation applicable to such person in the performance of his duties or the discharge of his responsibilities.

b) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision in this chapter to the contrary, if the office of the inspector general receives a complaint alleging a violation of Chapter 2-156 against any elected or appointed city official officer, city employee or any other person subject to Chapter 2-156 ~~except an alderman, city council employee or lobbyist engaged in the lobbying of aldermen or city council employees, as the term "city council employee" is defined in Section 2-55-010,~~ the inspector general, after reviewing the complaint, may only: (i) decline to open an investigation if he determines that the complaint lacks foundation or does not relate to a violation of Chapter 2-156, or (ii) refer the matter to the ~~supervisor of the employee or official~~ appropriate authority if he determines that the potential violation is minor and can be resolved internally as a personnel matter; or (iii) open an investigation. ;The, board of ethics shall promulgate, in consultation with the investigating authorities, rules setting forth the criteria to determine whether a potential violation of Chapter 2-156 is minbf.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision in this chapter to the contrary, at any point during an investigation that the inspector general conducts on matters pertaining to violations of chapter 2-156, the inspector general may only: (i) dismiss the matter and close the investigation based on a finding that the alleged violation is not sustained; or (ii) refer the matter to the appropriate law enforcement .authority, if he reasonably believes that the alleged misconduct would violate a criminal statute; or (iii) request a probable cause finding in accordance with section 2-156-385.

(3) The inspector general shall conclude his investigation of any violation of Chapter 2-156 under his jurisdiction no later than two years from the date of initiating the investigation; provided, however, that any time period during which the person under investigation has taken affirmative action to conceal evidence or delay the investigation, shall not count towards the two-year period. Notwithstanding any tolling or suspension of time applied, governmental ethics investigations by the inspector general under this Chapter are subject to an absolute four-year time limit from the date of initiation.

(c) Before the inspector general interviews a person subject to investigation or a subpoena in relation to a complaint under his jurisdiction, he shall inform the person of that person's right to be represented by counsel at the interview.

2-56-060 Investigation reports.

Upon conclusion of an investigation the inspector general shall issue a summary report thereon. The report and supporting materials shall be filed solely with the ~~mayor~~ designated ultimate jurisdictional authority as defined in Section 2-56-Q25(b)k. The report shall include the following:

- a) A description of any complaints'of other information received by the inspector general pertinent to the investigation;
- b) A description of any misconduct, inefficiencies or waste observed or discovered in the course of the investigation;
- c) Recommendations for correction of any misconduct, inefficiencies or waste described in the report;
- d) Such other information as the inspector general may deem relevant to the investigation or resulting recommendations.

Disclosure of reports and materials respecting disciplinary investigations concerning personnel of the City Council as defined in Section 2-56-025(a)(2) and (3) is hereby expressly limited to the ultimate jurisdictional authorities for such matters as set forth in Section 2-56-025(b); unless the matter concerns misconduct involving both personnel of the City Council as defined in Section 2-56-025(a)(2) and (3) and non-City Council personnel as otherwise defined in this Chapter, in which case the report and all relevant information materials, including that concerning the subject City Council personnel shall be provided to all appropriate ultimate jurisdictional authorities as defined in Section 2-56-025(b).

2-56-065 Response to recommendations by the inspector general.

(a) U- Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, if the inspector general issues a recommendation of discipline or other administrative action to a department head or affected entity in a summary report, that department head or affected entity the ultimate jurisdictional authority must respond to that recommendation within 30 days with a written response to the inspector general. This response must include either (1) a description of any disciplinary or administrative action the department head or affected entity ultimate jurisdictional authority has taken with respect to the employee in question or (2) a request for a 30-day extension of the 30-day decision period if additional time is needed by the ultimate jurisdictional authority department head to review the recommendation of discipline. If the ultimate jurisdictional authority department head or affected entity did not take any disciplinary or administrative action, or took a different disciplinary or administrative action than that recommended by the inspector general, the ultimate jurisdictional authority department head or affected entity must describe the different action and explain the reasons for the different action in the written response. This response must be submitted to the inspector general within the 30-day decision period. The inspector general may approve a request for an extension of this 30-day decision period for a period of time not to exceed 30 days if additional time is needed by the ultimate jurisdictional authority department head or affected entity to review the recommendation.

(b) If the inspector general issues a report to the chairman of the city council committee on committees, rules and ethics, the chairman shall, within 14 days, forward the report and any attached records to the appropriate person with authority to take action recommended in the report, and provide notice to the inspector general, when such action is taken. Upon receipt of the report by the person with authority to take action, that person shall review the report and recommendations and within 30 days provide a written response to the inspector general. Provided, however, that if action by the chairman of the committee on committees, rules and ethics is required, the written response to the inspector general shall be provided within 60 days of receipt of the report. If no action is taken on the report, the person with authority to take action must describe the different action and explain the reasons for taking that action in a written response. This response must be submitted to the inspector general within the applicable 30 or 60-day decision period. The inspector general may approve only one 60-day extension.

2-56-070 Confidentiality of informants-Exceptions.

The summary report shall not mention the name of any informant, complainant, witness or person investigated, except in the following instances:

- a) Where the copy of the report given to the ultimate jurisdictional authority head of any department or agency entity recommends disciplinary action against an one of their employees of that agency under the, control of that authority;
- b) Where the copy of the report given to the ultimate jurisdictional authority or the chief, procurement officer makes recommendations concerning a contractor, subcontractor, applicant for a contract, or person seeking certification of eligibility for a contract;
- c) Where the copy of the report given to the ultimate jurisdictional authority head of any department or agency entity makes recommendations concerning a person seeking certification of eligibility for a program administered by the department or agency entity;
- d) Where the copy given to the mayor recommends disciplinary action against the head or any employee of any, executive department or agency, entity;

[8]

(e) Where the copy of the report is given to the board of ethics or a hearing officer in compliance with a probable cause finding or a hearing on the merits or as otherwise provided in chapter 2-156.

2-156-385 Probable cause finding.

The ~~investigating authority~~ inspector general may request the board to issue a finding as to whether evidence shows that there is probable cause to believe that the subject of an investigation (for purposes of this section, "subject") has violated this¹ chapter, as follows:

(1) The ~~investigating authority~~ inspector general may request the board to make a probable cause finding only after notifying the subject in writing. Such notice shall specify all the charges to be brought against the subject, including a summary of the facts alleged to support such finding, and shall state that the ~~investigating authority~~ inspector general intends to request a probable cause finding by the board. Such notice must be served upon the subject at least 30 days before the request is made to the board.

2) When requesting a probable cause finding, the ~~investigating authority~~ inspector general shall provide to the board a summary of his investigation, supporting evidence and recommendation.

3) The board or its designee shall review the report, recommendation and evidence provided by the ~~investigating authority~~ inspector general. If the board or its designee finds that the evidence does not show that there is probable cause to believe that the subject has violated this chapter, the board shall close the matter and so notify the ~~investigating authority~~ inspector general and the subject. If the board or its designee finds that the evidence shows that there is probable cause to believe that the subject has violated this chapter, the board or its designee shall serve notice of the allegations upon the subject. Such notice shall inform the subject of his right to provide a written response, written submissions and a summary of the evidence supporting his position. The notice also shall set a meeting date with the board or its designee to discuss the allegations and the evidence. The subject must submit all written material and documents supporting his position at least 10 days before the date of the meeting. At the meeting, evidence presented in the matter shall be discussed and the subject shall be given an opportunity to respond to the evidence presented against him. The subject may be represented by counsel at the meeting. The meeting shall be reliably recorded, or, alternatively, transcribed by a certified court reporter. All records of the meeting shall be kept confidential to the extent allowable under applicable law.

(Omitted text is not affected by this ordinance.)

2-156-530 Annual public hearing on ethics.

The board and the ~~investigating authorities~~ inspector general shall coordinate and conduct a joint annual public hearing before the city council to review major activities including trainings, investigations, settlements, and opinions; to describe resource usage; to address trends in ethics issues; to suggest ethics compliance strategies; and to assess challenges and recommend areas of improvement regarding the city's ethics institutions, and investigation and adjudication processes.

SECTION 4. Chapter 2-56 of the Municipal Code is amended by adding a new section 2-56-180, as follows:

2-56-180 Transition.

In addition to the rights and powers conferred by this amendatory ordinance of 2016, the inspector general and the office of inspector general shall assume, respectively, all rights and powers of the former legislative inspector general and the office of the legislative inspector general. All books, records, property and funds relating to the former office of the legislative inspector general and such rights and powers are transferred to the office of inspector general.

The inspector general shall succeed the former legislative inspector general in administering and investigating pending matters under the jurisdiction of the former legislative inspector general.
