City of Chicago Keeping the Promise Ordinance

An ordinance concerning preserving affordable housing supported by City of Chicago funds.

WHEREAS, it is a public purpose of the City of Chicago that all individuals and families in Chicago have access to safe, decent affordable housing for as long as they need it; and

WHEREAS, there is a scarcity of affordable housing in Chicago for low-income individuals and families in need; and

WHEREAS, the City of Chicago has allocated public dollars towards the development and the rehabilitation of federally supported public housing within the City of Chicago; and

WHEREAS, the State Housing Authorities Act (310 ILCS 10/8.10) requires all Illinois public housing authorities to report comprehensive financial, demographic and development information to the local City Council for their jurisdiction; and

WHEREAS, in spite of that commitment of public dollars by the City of Chicago more than 16,000 units of public housing have been lost due to rehabilitation, demolition, disposition, redevelopment, and/or conversion since 1999. This loss of public housing has exacerbated Chicago's affordable housing crisis; and

WHEREAS, the Chicago Housing Authority has been de-regulated under a federal demonstration program removing traditional HUD oversight and performance standards regarding public housing occupancy, voucher circulation, and reserve levels; and

WHEREAS, as a result of this de-regulation, Chicago Housing Authority has left an average of 4,600 public housing units unoccupied between 2009 and 2013; and

WHEREAS, Chicago Housing Authority has not circulated an average of 13,272 funded housing choice vouchers between 2009 and 2013; and

WHEREAS, Chicago Housing Authority has left unspent an average of $106 million in federal revenue annually between 2009 and 2013; and

WHEREAS, discrimination against tenant-based Housing Choice Voucher holders continues to be a serious hindrance to housing choice and racial and economic integration within the City of Chicago; and

WHEREAS, it is in the City's long term interest to preserve the existing public housing especially when the City's public dollars are being utilized, and

1

WHEREAS, it is in the City's interest that the Chicago Housing Authority make its public housing and Housing Choice Vouchers available to individuals and families in need to the maximum extent possible; and

WHEREAS, Chicago Housing Authority seeks to convert 10,395 public housing units (nearly half of Chicago's remaining public housing) under an experimental HUD Demonstration program called Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD); and

WHEREAS, conversions under Rental Assistance Demonstration threaten Chicago's remaining public housing assets with the possibility of privatization, now, therefore,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO, AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION ONE: RECITALS. The foregoing recitals are incorporated herein as the findings of the City Council.

SECTION TWO: A new Chapter of the Municipal Code of Chicago is hereby created as follows:

Chapter . The City of Chicago Keeping the Promise Ordinance.

1 Title.

This Chapter , Sections through shall be entitled and referred to as the "The City of Chicago Keeping the Promise Ordinance".

The CHA shall maintain previous practices related to elections, use of CHA's premises, funding levels, and stipends required by HUD for resident councils of traditional public housing or as specified in any Memorandum of Accord or funding agreement executed by the CHA with the Central Advisory Council.
- F. Grievance procedures. The CHA and any owner must establish and maintain administrative grievance procedures that provide residents of covered property with the right to seek redress regarding any dispute with respect to the CHA's and/or owner's action or failure to act in accordance with the resident's lease or lease addendum, the CHA's Relocation Rights Contract, RAD requirements, and/or CHA policy implementation or procedures that adversely affect the individual resident's rights, duties, welfare, or status; including but not limited to any dispute regarding termination or alleged noncompliance with the resident's lease.
