CELEBRATING AN EXTRAORDINARY WOMAN MRS. NANCY WILLIAMS

WHEREAS, we proudly celebrate the retirement of Mrs. Nancy Williams, who has worked faithfully as an Administrative Assistant in various professions but the one we have duly noted on Friday, September 29, 2017 is the time she spent serving the staff and families of Brookins Funeral Home without complaint; and

WHEREAS, we can all attest that Mrs. Williams takes her duties seriously. We are most grateful that she pays close attention to detail and will give her all without question. Mrs. Williams never ceases to amaze us even when she can detect difficulty ahead and immediately identify the best route to resolve the matter. She is just that kind of incredible woman. A jewel gifted from God himself to bless thousands of people and we happen to be part of the extremely fortunate group; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Nancy Williams will be missed for the days she took time out of her busy schedule to address matters that so often are overlooked. Not to mention, her smile lights up the darkest room and brings an inner joy to every heart nearby. Her faith in God speaks loud and clear through the way she handles some of the most tedious tasks; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Nancy Williams is the exact resemblance of a luminous diamond the kind that everyone would want to show off in a room full of people. She's flawless to the examiner and simply priceless to the eyes of every beholder. No matter where she sits or stands you would feel honored to be in her presence; and

WHEREAS, her work ethic has brought the greatest joy to us all, we know her presence in the front office at Brookins Funeral Home will leave a slight feeling of emptiness in all of our hearts. Yet, we pray that God will bless Mrs. Nancy Williams exceedingly, abundantly and above anything she could ever imagine or ask for as she embraces a new endeavor; now, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and members of the City Council of the City of Chicago, will gather together on the 11th Day of October, 2017, A.D., to express our appreciation for Mrs. Nancy Williams service in the 21st Ward.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a suitable copy of this resolution be prepared and presented at a later date Mrs. Nancy Williams.

HOWARD B. BRdOKirg Alderman-21st Ward
