

Fires have not been honored, and the destruction and dispossession of land and life of Indigenous peoples continues until this day;

WHEREAS, The City of Chicago acknowledges that colonialism is an ongoing structure, we need to build our mindfulness of our present participation, to deconstruct the romanticisms of forced removal and prevent further genocide of remaining Indigenous peoples;

WHEREAS, The City of Chicago acknowledges it is currently home to over 75,000 American Indians known as "Urban Indians", who keep their tribal kinship and cultures spanning from over 150 tribal nations;

WHEREAS The City of Chicago acknowledges and supports the modern Indigenous people of Chicago along with those who view Chicago as their ancestral territory and continue to practice their kinship, culture, harvest their medicines and foods that continue to grow in Chicago; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, The City of Chicago acknowledges the land we occupy as Indigenous homelands and have great appreciation and gratitude to those whose territory we occupy; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, The City of Chicago acknowledges the remarkable resilience of the Indigenous peoples and American Indian community that continue to practice their tribal and inter-tribal cultures while flourishing in modern day Chicago and continue to enhance our great city's beauty.

Carlos Ramirez-Rosa Alderman,
35th Ward