The CPAC shall also strive to post on its website any video of an incident that is the subject of its investigation, after redacting any parts capturing events within private areas, such as inside a person's home, or that would violate clearly established rights to personal privacy, within 48 hours of the incident, unless the release would seriously compromise the integrity of CPAC's investigation. If CPAC withholds video, it must articulate and publish the reason that the release would seriously compromise the integrity of the investigation, and shall post the video as soon as possible after the 48-hour-period, but under all circumstances, CPAC's posting of the video must occur within 14 days of the incident.

The CPAC shall post on its website any "911" records or records of police radio communications or data transmissions related to the incident within 10 days of their availability. The CPAC shall also release lab test results, police reports, and other information, after redacting any private material, so long as the release would not seriously compromise the integrity of the CPAC's investigation.

Within 10 days of completing each investigation, the CPAC must post on its website the summary report of investigation, and provide a copy of the summary report of investigation to any complaining witness.

Summary Reports for complaints that are not supported by an affidavit-if an affidavit is required by state law-must include a detailed record of any attempts to contact the complainant to obtain an affidavit as well as a detailed record of the preliminary investigation, including any attempts to obtain sufficient evidence to continue the investigation.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this ordinance, CPAC is prohibited from releasing to the public the civilian names and identifying information without their consent. CPAC shall provide any alleged victim in a sexual misconduct, sexual assault, rape or domestic violence
