SECTION V.B.-FURTHER CERTIFICATIONS

11. If the Disclosing Party is unable to certify to any of the above statements in this Part B (Further Certifications), the Disclosing Party must explain below:

Section V(B)(1)

While the Disclosing Party does not believe Section V(B)(1) is applicable out of an abundance of caution it makes the following disclosure: In 2014 the SEC filed a civil action against the United Neighborhood Organization of Chicago ("UNO") and the Acero Charter Schools, Inc. ("Acero"), formerly known as UNO Charter School Network, Inc. ("UCSN"). On June 3, 2014, Acero consented to a final judgment entered in the U.S. District Court, Northern District of Illinois enjoining and restraining Acero from violating Section 17(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933. While no monetary penalty was imposed upon Acero, Acero was required, among other things, to retain an independent monitor for a period of 12 months to monitor transactions involving the transfer of funds for a certain period of time and to implement various policies and procedures to strengthen internal controls and oversight including the adoption of various policies relating to same. In addition, Acero was precluded from participating in the offer and sale of municipal securities for a period of five (5) years without first forming disclosure policies, providing training, forming a disclosure committee, and certifying in writing compliance with the aforementioned undertakings to the SEC. As of the date of this certification, Acero has not participated in the offer and sale of municipal securities since entry of the final judgment. The Independent Monitor filed its final report with the U.S. District Court, Northern District of Illinois on December 30, 2015 indicating that Acero had complied with the terms of final judgment and further terminating the term of the Independent Monitor.
