ORDINANCE

SECTION 1. Chapter 2-156 of the Municipal Code of Chicago is hereby amended by deleting the language struck through and inserting the language underscored, as follows:

2-156-10 Definitions.

The following definitions shall apply for purposes of this chapter:

(a) "Act related to expediting" has the meaning ascribed in Section 4-6-250 of this Code.

(aa-1) "Administrative action" means any decision on, or any proposal, consideration, enactment or making of any rule, regulation, or any other official nonministerial action or non-action by any executive department, or by any official or employee of an executive department, or any matter which is within the official jurisdiction of the executive branch.

[Omitted text unaffected by this ordinance]

(j-2) "Expediter" has the meaning ascribed in Section 4-6-260 of this Code.

(i-3) "Expediter company" has the meaning ascribed in Section 4-6-250 of this Code.

(i-4) "Expediter license" means any license issues to an expediter or expediter company under Sections 4-6-250 or 4-6-260 of this Code.

[Omitted text unaffected by this ordinance]

2-156-147 Expediter and expediter company ethics education seminar.

Each expediter and each employee of an expediter company who engages in an act related to expediting shall be required to complete in each consecutive twelve month period an ethics education training course developed by the Board of Ethics. Such a course may be offered in-person, through an internet-based program, or other manner prescribed by the Board of Ethics. Any expediter or employee of an expediter company who violates this section shall be fined not less than $200.00 nor more than $750.00 for each such violation. Each day that a violation continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense to which a separate fine shall apply. The board shall also make public, in a manner that the board may deem appropriate, the names of expediters, expediter companies, and employees of expediter companies who failed to complete a mandatory ethics training on time.

[Omitted text unaffected by this ordinance]

2-156-550 Reports of expediting.

(a) No later than March 1st, June 1st, September 1st, and December 1st of each year, each expediter and expediter company shall file with the board of ethics a written report of all acts related to expediting during the previous three calendar months. The report shall be on a form prescribed by the board, which may include electronic submission, and shall contain:

(1) The expediter's or expediter company's name, expediter license number, permanent address, and temporary address (if any):

2) With respect to each client:

(A) The name, business address, and nature of business of the client and of any other business entities on whose behalf acts related to expediting were performed:

B) The physical address, if different than the business address, and ward of any property for which acts related to expediting were performed:

C) A statement of the amount of compensation received from each client:

(D) The name of each city agency before which the expediter or expediter company conducted acts related to expediting and a brief description of the act related to expediting involved:

3) An itemized list of every gift given to any official or employee of the city; and

4) An itemized list of every political contribution made to any of the following persons: M) any candidate for city office; (2) any elected official of the government of the city; and (3) any official or employee of the city seeking election to an office other than a city office.

5) Upon receipt of the Quarterly report required under subsection (a) of this section, the board of ethics shall, without delay, publicly post such report on an on-line system.

(b) If an expediter or expediter company fails to file a report as required herein, the board of ethics shall, within 15 days of the due date, notify the expediter or expediter company, in a manner prescribed by the board, of the failure to file by the required date. The expediter or expediter company shall thereafter file a report within ten days of the issuance of the notice. Any expediter or expediter company who fails to file within the ten days shall be subject to suspension of their expediter license and the penalty or penalties, as applicable, provided in this Section. Failure to file within the ten days shall constitute a violation of this chapter.

Anv expediter or expediter company who is required to file a report hereunder may effect one 30-day extension of time for filing the report by filing with the board of ethics, not less than ten days before the date on which the statement is due, a declaration of intent to defer the filing of the report. The filing of such declaration shall suspend application of the penalty provisions contained herein for the duration of the extension. Failure to file by the extended date shall constitute a violation of this Section and shall subject the expediter or expediter company to suspension of their expediter license and the penalty or penalties, as applicable, provided in this Section. The expediter license of anv expediter or expediter company who fails to file a timely report for three or more reporting periods may be suspended by the board for a one year period.

(c) Anv expediter or expediter company who violates this Section shall be fined $1,000.00 for each such violation and subject to the revocation of their expediter license. Each day that a violation continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense to which a separate fine shall apply. The board shall also make public, in a manner the board deems appropriate, the names of expeditors and expediter companies who violate this Section and the fine assessed.

(d) The department of buildings shall cooperate with the board of ethics and shall promptly respond to anv and all requests for records as may be necessary or desirable to enable the board to perform their duties as set forth in this Section.
