Project Description:

- A. A 22-unit affordable housing development, to be purchased and developed by Habitat for Humanity Chicago. The community consists of 2-story, attached townhomes. The units are arranged to create a shared central open space fronting 115th Street.

The front doors to fourteen units will be accessed from this space, with the remaining eight units fronting Morgan Street and Major Taylor Trail.

Internal to the site, small individual open spaces are located behind each townhouse and are connected along a shared internal path, creating a semi-private space for residents. These pathways lead to a series of shared garages. The compact plan and series of open spaces, each with a different character, is meant to provide clear ownership boundaries, while enhancing and promoting neighborly interaction and connections among the homeowners.
