For purposes of this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(Omitted text is unaffected by this ordinance)

"Qualified tenant" means a person who: (1) is a tenant in a foreclosed rental property on the day that a person becomes the owner of that property; and (2) has a bona fide rental agreement to occupy the rental unit as the tenant's principal residence. For purposes of this definition:

(1) a lease rental agreement shall be considered bona fide only if:

- i) the mortgagor or the any child, spouse, or parent of the mortgagor residing in the same dwelling unit with the mortgagor, is not the tenant;
- ii) the lease rental agreement was a result of an arms- length transaction; and
- iii) the lease rental agreement requires the receipt of rent that is not substantially less than fair market rent for the property, or the rental unit's rent is reduced or subsidized due to a government subsidy.

(Omitted text is unaffected by this ordinance)

"Rental unit" means any dwelling unit which is held out for rent to tenants.

"Unlawful conversion " means any dwelling unit that is an illegal or unlawful conversion, as that term is defined in section 17-17-0240.5.

"Unlawful hazardous unit" means a dwelling unit that is hazardous based on life safety or sanitation conditions, as prescribe in rules promulgated by the commissioner.

5-14-040 Notice to tenants.

(a) (1) No later than 21 days after a person becomes the owner of a foreclosed rental property, the owner shall make a good faith effort to ascertain the identities and addresses of all tenants of the rental units in the foreclosed rental property and notify, in writing, all known tenants of such rental units that, under certain circumstances, the tenant may be eligible for relocation assistance. The notice shall be given in English, Spanish, Polish and Chinese and be as follows:

"This Is Not A Notice To Vacate The Premises. You may wish to contact a lawyer or your local legal aid or housing counseling agency to discuss any right that you may have.

-Pursuant to the City of Chicago's Protecting Tenants in Foreclosed Rental Property Ordinance, if you are a qualified tenant you may be eligible for relocation assistance in the amount of $10,600 unless the owner offers you the option to renew or extend your current written or oral rental agreement with an annual rent that: (1) for the first 12 months, does not exceed 102 percent of your current annual rent; and (2) for any 12-month period thereafter, does not exceed 102 percent of the immediate prior 12-month period's annual rent. The option to renew or extend your lease shall continue until the property is sold to a bona fide third-party purchaser.

-If you are eligible as a qualified tenant and the owner fails to pay you the relocation assistance that is due, you may bring a private cause of action in a court of competent jurisdiction seeking compliance with the Protecting Tenants in Foreclosure Rental Property Ordinance, Chapter 5-14 of the Municipal Code of Chicago, and the prevailing plaintiff shall be entitled to recover, in addition to any other remedy available, his damages and reasonable attorney's fees."

You may go to the City of Chicago Department of Business Affairs and Consumer Protection's website for additional information regarding your rights and obligations under the Ordinance or phone the City of Chicago's 311 Service Center to file a complaint."

The notice shall also include the name, address and telephone number of the owner, property manager or owner's agent who is responsible for the foreclosed rental property and the date the notice was sent.

(2) If the owner ascertains the identity of a tenant more than 21 days after becoming the owner, the owner shall provide the notice within seven days of ascertaining the identity of the tenant.

(3) The written notice required by this section shall be served by:

A) delivering a copy of the notice to the known tenant;

B) leaving a copy of the notice with some person of the age of 13 years or older who is residing in the tenant's rental unit; or

C) sending a copy of the notice by first class or certified mail, return receipt requested, to each known tenant, addressed to the tenant.

(b) The owner shall attach to each notice required by subsection (a) a Tenant Information Disclosure Form, in a form prescribed by the commissioner of business affairs and consumer protection by rule. No later than 21 days after receipt of the notice, the tenant shall complete and return the Tenant Information Disclosure Form to the person and address indicated on the Form. The failure of a tenant to return the Tenant Information Disclosure Form does not relieve the owner of any obligation to either: (i) extend or renew the tenant's rental agreement, or provide a rental agreement for a replacement rental unit, whichever is applicable; or (ii) pay the relocation assistance fee.

(b c) In addition to the notice required in subsection (a), no later than 21 days after a person becomes the owner of a foreclosed rental property, the owner shall post a written notice on the primary entrance of each foreclosed rental property which sets forth the disclosures in subsection (a).

(g d) Any owner who fails to comply with this section shall not collect rent due and owing from any known tenant, until the owner has served the notices required by this section.

5-14-050 Tenant relocation assistance.

(a) (1) Except as provided in subsection (a)(2), the The owner of a foreclosed rental property shall pay a one-time relocation assistance fee of $10,600 to a qualified tenant unless the owner offers such tenant the option to renew or extend the tenant's current rental agreement with an annual rental rate that: (4-i) for the first 12 months of the renewed or extended rental agreement lease, does not exceed 102 percent of the qualified tenant's current annual rental rate; and (2-ii) for any 12-month period thereafter, does not exceed 102 percent of the immediate prior year's annual rental rate.

(2) For any unlawful hazardous unit or unlawful conversion occupied by a Qualified tenant, the owner shall pay a one-time relocation assistance fee of $10,600 to the qualified tenant unless the owner offers, and the tenant accepts the owner's offer of, a rental agreement at a replacement rental unit with an annual rental rate that does not exceed 102 percent of the qualified tenant's current annual rental rate; and (2) for any 12-month period thereafter, does not exceed 102 percent of the immediate prior year's annual rental rate. The replacement rental unit may be located either in the same foreclosed rental property or at another location-

Provided that the commissioner may prescribe by rule conditions under which an owner may offer a qualified tenant residing in an unlawful hazardous unit to extend or renew, at the tenant's option, the tenant's current rental agreement with an annual rental rate that complies with subsection (a)(1) if the owner makes all necessary repairs to correct any life safety or unsafe sanitary conditions.

tenant's right to the payment of a relocation fee..

(4) ~~Jf Provided that~~ if a rental unit is occupied by two or more qualified tenants, the owner's total liability to all the qualified tenants of the rental unit shall be no more than if the rental unit was occupied by one qualified tenant.
