MAYOR RAHM EMANUEL

Members of this Chamber were deeply saddened to learn of the death, on November 11, 2014, at age 54, of Terrence Patrick Allen, a local labor leader and respected public servant; and

WHEREAS, One of eight siblings, Mr. Allen was born in Chicago on April 14, 1960 to Thomas and Irene Allen. He grew up on Chicago's Northwest Side, where he attended St. Eugene Elementary School. He and his twin brother Patrick attended St. Patrick High School together, where the inseparable brothers excelled in basketball and tomfoolery. Much to their parents' consternation, the harmless antics of these two high-spirited and fun-loving boys; frequently landed them in after-school detention or in the principal's office. It was there they forged a lifelong bond of friendship with two of their Christian Brothers' teachers. Brother Conrad Diebold and Brother David Galinski; and

WHEREAS, After graduating from high school, Mr. Allen attended Lewis University in Romeoville, Illinois and Northeastern University in Chicago. After completing an apprenticeship with the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers ("IBEW"), Local 134, where he worked on the automated "people mover" system at Chicago O'Hare International Airport and on many other commercial and industrial projects, Mr. Allen earned his Class A Journeyman Wireman credentials. He then worked for several years in the private sector before taking a position as an electrical inspector for Cook County; and

WHEREAS, A proud union member, who fully understood the power of collective action to improve workers' lives, Mr. Allen's career path came full circle when he accepted a position working for his beloved IBEW, Local 134, as its business agent. He later served as the local union's vice-president and, most recently, as its business manager; and

WHEREAS, Known to most as "Terry" or "Ter Dog," and also for his trademark greeting, "Howarya," Mr.

Allen genuinely loved his union brothers and sisters at IBEW, Local 134. As business manager, Mr. Allen worked tirelessly to improve the wages, benefits and working conditions of union members in the electrical industry, and to implement ongoing training programs for union employees. Under Mr. Allen's guiding hand, IBEW, Local 134, partnered with the City of Chicago and the Chicago Park District to reduce on-the-job injuries and to increase workplace safety; and

WHEREAS, On November 8, 2013, His Eminence Francis Eugene Cardinal George presented Mr. Allen With the coveted Rerum Novarum Award for Labor, conferred by St. Joseph College Seminary at Loyola University of Chicago, to honor persons in the field of labor who have proven outstanding in their support of three ideals: respect for the dignity of the human being, the right to organize and the right to a living wage; and

WHEREAS, A devout Catholic throughout his life, Mr. Allen was a faithful member of St. Thomas Villanova Parish in Palatine, Illinois. He held a special and sacred devotion to the Blessed Mother, Mary, Our Lady of Medjugorje. His pilgrimage in 2013 to Medjugorje, Croatia deeply moved and inspired him; and

WHEREAS, A superb husband and father, whose devotion to his family knew no bounds, Mr. Allen loved nothing more than to spend time with his lovely wife and children; including his two dogs, Duke and Rocky, whom he affectionately referred to as his canine "children"; and

WHEREAS, After he was diagnosed with cancer, Mr., Allen's quiet courage, resilience and unfailing good cheer provided hope and inspiration to his family and friends. A pillar of strength, Who waged his long battle against this unforgiving disease with dignity and honor, Mr. Allen fought the good fight, drawing fortitude from his motto, "Onward and Upward"; and

WHEREAS, A kind, humble, and compassionate man with a gift for making people feel special, "Ter Dog" Allen will always be remembered for his outstanding service to the working men; and; women of this: great State; and as a man whose strength of character and legacy of love survive in the beautiful family he left behind; and

WHEREAS, Terry Allen is survived by his wife, Jeanne; his two sons, Billy and Michael; his. daughter, Amanda;; two sisters, Barbara and .Nancy; five brothers. Judge Thomas Allen, James, Tim, Dan and Patrick; two brothers-in-law, John Weimhoff and Alderman Tim Cullerton; five sisters-in-law, Jan, Lynn, Mary, Sue and Laura Allen; many nieces and nephews; and countless friends; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the Mayor and Members of the City Council of the City of Chicago, assembled this eighteenth day of March, 2015, do hereby honor the life and memory of Terrence Patrick Allen and extend our heartfelt condolences to his family; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this resolution be presented to the family of Terrence Patrick Allen as a sign of our sympathy and respect.
