

Office of the City Clerk

City Hall
121 N. LaSalle St.
Room 107
Chicago, IL 60602
www.chicityclerk.com

Legislation Text

File #: R2017-876, Version: 1

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF AN INCREDIBLE MAN MR. ISSAC L. HARPER

WHEREAS, on Tuesday, September 19, 2017, Mr. Issac L. Harper answered the call of his Heavenly Father, "Come for I have prepared a place specifically for thee, a mansion the size of a small city where your soul can find much rest. On the east side of the mansion displays your favorite sports logos hanging from the ceiling and slightly to the left of that area are photographs of the lives you have touched." As tears fell from Issac's eyes he lifted his right hand and immediately connected with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ; and

WHEREAS, the scripture states the steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord, Mr. Issac L. Harper's approach to serving others fits the biblical description like a dream. At a very young age Issac committed his life to the Lord. His servitude in the church was always done without murmur or complaint; and

WHEREAS, he was also known for being a young man full of faith regardless of the trials and tribulations that attempted to distract and consume his mind. Issac was a praying young man and without disinclination he would inspire anyone that stood or sat in his presence; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Issac L. Harper stood on the principles of integrity even when others would challenge him to take a different route; he remained on the path God created for him even when there were times he felt absolutely alone; and

WHEREAS, we will miss Issac's living room debates about politics, education and police matters but more importantly we will miss his robust laugh that would shake up a quiet room and the hugs he shared that oftentimes would comfort a hurting soul; and

WHEREAS, at this moment, we can speak with great confidence, when we say, "Mr. Issac L. Harper's name meant more than an average name." Every letter in his first name stood for something: Issac was an Impressionable young man; Smarter than most of his peers; Stylish in his own way; always Appreciative of his family and friends and he walked with great Courage every step of the way; now, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and members of the City Council of the City of Chicago will gather together on the 11th Day of October, 2017, A.D. to express our most deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Issac L. Harper.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a suitable copy of this resolution be prepared and presented at a later date to the family of Mr. Issac L. Harper.

HOWARD B. BROOKKro; JR Alderman-21st Ward