CPD Budget Explainer 2022

City of Chicago Office of Inspector General

The Chicago Police Department (CPD) is the City of Chicago's largest department, and a large percentage of the City's overall budget goes to fund CPD and other pohcmg-related costs. With this second annual Budget Explainer, the Office of Inspector General (OIG) aims to provide stakeholders and taxpayers with basic, foundational information about the City's budget and budget process, and how CPD's budget is built.

II | City of Chicago Budget FAQs

The budget for the Chicago Police Department (CPD) is a part of the City of Chicago's budget. To understand what resources are provided to CPD and how they are used, it is first helpful to have a basic knowledge of the City's budget and budget process.

Which agencies and departments are included in the City of Chicago budget?

- The City's budget includes the individual budgets of over 30 City departments. In addition to CPD, these departments include such entities as: the Chicago Fire Department, the Chicago Public Library, and the Mayor's Office. The City of Chicago budget does not include the budgets of sister agencies such as Chicago Public Schools, the Chicago Park District, and the Chicago Transit Authority (CTA). These are separate governmental entities that budget separately from the City of Chicago.

When does the fiscal year begin and end?

- For the City of Chicago, the fiscal year (FY) begins on January 1st and ends on December 31st

How is the budget built?

- City departments submit to the Office of Budget and Management (OBM) a proposed budget for the upcoming year operations by a date determined by OBM in July or August. Each Department's submission adheres to guidelines specified by OBM at the outset of the budgeting cycle. OBM then prepares a Budget Forecast based on the proposals submitted by the City departments and the estimated revenues projected to be available. OBM, in close consultation with the Office of the Mayor, holds public budget engagement events in August to receive community input, and are further informed by meetings with the heads of each department, developing a balanced budget for the entire City government. The Mayor's Budget Recommendation document is then submitted to the City Council, which holds budget hearings for each department and receives public comment, and may propose amendments to the Mayor's Budget Recommendations. After the hearings, final amendments are made and then submitted as the final budget to be approved by the City Council as the Annual Appropriation Ordinance.<sup>5</sup>

What are the main documents that are associated with the City budget?

- Annual Appropriation Ordinance: This is the final City budget as approved by the City Council, and it lists the appropriations each agency will receive from the City for the fiscal year. Each agency has its appropriations listed for personnel and non-personnel spending, with the personnel appropriations organized by the agency's internal structure.<sup>6</sup>
- Grant Detail Ordinance: This lists the grant funds available to each city agency and provides information on how those funds can be spent.<sup>7</sup>
- Budget Overview: This contains a broad overview of the Mayor's recommended budget, the recommended budgets of individual agencies, financial summaries for each fund, and explanations of funding sources. It also includes the Mayor's strategic priorities and goals for the upcoming fiscal year<sup>8</sup>

CPD Budget Explainer 2022

City of Chicago Office of Inspector General

- Annual Comprehensive Financial Report (ACFR): This is a financial statement which, as required by state law, is published within six months of the close of each fiscal year. The ACFR conforms with generally accepted accounting principles and is audited by a licensed public accountant.<sup>9</sup>

Where does the money come from?

- Money for the City's budget comes primarily from taxes, fees, fines, and grants. The money is directed to a specific fund corresponding to its source. The funds are broadly categorized as local funds and grant funds. Local funds contain money that is generated by activities under the control of the City, while grant funds are provided by a third party.
  - o The local funds include:
    - Corporate Fund: This is the City's largest local fund and is used for general operations. The Corporate Fund draws from local tax revenue, fees and fines imposed by the City, and intergovernmental revenue such as the City's portion of the State income tax.<sup>10</sup>

- Enterprise Funds: These funds are used to operate the City's water system, sewer system, and airports. The funds draw only from the charges and user fees imposed by the City for the use of the water system, sewer system, and airports, and are spent to support those services.<sup>11</sup>
- Special Revenue Funds: These funds are used to allocate revenue from specific taxes and other sources that by law were designed to finance a specific function or program. One such fund is the Controlled Substances Fund. The Illinois Controlled Substances Act requires the City to allocate resources to enforce laws regulating controlled substances. The money for this fund comes from fines collected by the City. Another special revenue fund is the Chicago Police Detail Fund. CPD members may work security for CTA during their off-duty hours and CTA reimburses the City for this work.<sup>12</sup>
- o Grant funds are provided by federal, state, and local agencies, as well as private organizations.<sup>13</sup>

How big was the City's budget in FY 2022?

- The City's net total budget in FY 2022 was $16,655,836,000.<sup>14</sup>

How is the City's budget organized?

- Each City agency has a department number. When looking at Budget documents, the department number is a useful tool to find a particular department's Budget.<sup>15</sup>
  - o Below are department numbers for key departments relevant to policing and public safety:
    - 003 - Office of Inspector General
    - 051 - Office of Public Safety Administration
    - 055 - Chicago Police Board
    - 057 - Chicago Police Department
    - 058 - Office of Emergency Management and Communications

CPD Budget Explainer 2022

City of Chicago Office of Inspector General

- 060 - Civilian Office of Police Accountability (COPA)
- 062 - Community Commission for Public Safety and Accountability
- o Below are department numbers for key departments relevant to community services:
  - 041 - Chicago Department of Public Health
  - 045 - Chicago Commission on Human Relations
  - 048 - Mayor's Office for People with Disabilities
  - 050 - Department of Family and Support Services
  - 091 - Chicago Public Library
- While not a department, 099 - Finance General is an important component to understanding the City's budget. Finance General represents cross-departmental expenses such as information technology (IT) costs, employee benefits and workers' compensation claims, debt service payments, as well as unanticipated departmental expenses during the year.<sup>16</sup> The money allocated to Finance General comes from local funds.<sup>17</sup> Although it is not a department, Finance General is treated within the City's Annual Appropriation Ordinance as a department in order to account for these expenditures.<sup>18</sup> The Appropriation Ordinance does not indicate how much CPD or any other City department received from funds appropriated to 099 - Finance General.

Each fund from which the City spends money has a fund number. When looking at budget documents, the fund number is a useful tool to view all the expenditures from a specific fund. Grant funds are directed to their designated department for their specified use and are not incorporated into a local fund. Below are the fund numbers for each local fund that contributes to CPD's budget.

« 0100-Corporate Fund

- 0610 - Chicago Midway Airport Fund - 0740 - Chicago O'Hare Airport Fund
- 0994 - Controlled Substances Fund
- 0B25 - Chicago Police CTA Detail Fund

Every part of the budget has an associated budget line which describes how that money may be spent and has its own budget line number. Budget lines fall into broad categories; within the broad categories there are individual line items that are distinguished by different numbers and may be used for different purposes.<sup>20</sup> During a fiscal year, money may be moved within a category, but not moved across categories. That is, for example, when a department may reallocate money from one line item in Personnel Services to another in Personnel Services, but may not move that money to a different category. Below is a list of the broad categories that cover CPD expenditures:

- 0000 - Personnel Services

III I 2022 CPD Budget

CPD's budget appropriation has increased each year since 2016, with the exception of 2021 when it decreased slightly from $1.76B in 2020 to $1.71B in 2021 (Figure 2).

2016<sup>22</sup> 2017<sup>23</sup> 2018<sup>24</sup> 2019<sup>25</sup> 2020<sup>26</sup> 2021<sup>27</sup> 2022<sup>18</sup>

CPD's funding dipped slightly from 2020 to 2021, a time period during which nationwide protests and calls to "defund the police" followed the murder of George Floyd in Minneapolis;<sup>29</sup> some other municipalities saw significant decreases in police funding during this time.<sup>30</sup> In Chicago, Mayor Lori E. Lightfoot's office conducted a budget survey between August 31, 2020 and September 21, 2020. The online survey asked participants about City services they most value.<sup>31</sup> The survey garnered 38,336 total responses, and in the aggregated results published by the Mayor's Office, 37,679 respondents stated a desire to see resources reallocated from existing programs or services to fund other priorities. Of those 37,679 respondents, 87% stated that they wanted to see police funding reallocated to other City services.<sup>32</sup>

CPD Budget Explainer 2022

Notably, however, the 2021 budget cycle also saw the appropriation for the City of Chicago Office of Public Safety Administration (OPSA), a department created in 2019 to take over some administrative functions of the City's public safety agencies including CPD, more than quadruple its appropriation from $33.5M in 2020, to $135.6M in 2021.<sup>33</sup>

It should be noted that OPSA's operations involve functions of some non-CPD agencies, and so not all of OPSA's costs can be attributed to police operations. Some costs, however, properly should be—and therefore, in considering the cost of police operations, the $51.9M decrease in CPD's budget from 2020 to 2021 should be assessed in the context of the substantial increase in OPSA's budget.

CPD's budget does not incorporate all City of Chicago spending related to the cost of policing. While analyzing each cost associated with policing is outside the scope of this report, OIG notes that police-related spending also includes the cost of annual service to the Policemen's Annuity and Benefit Fund (PABF) pension fund, the cost of operating Chicago's multiple police oversight agencies, and the cost of maintaining and operating CPD's buildings and vehicles.

A | Where Did the Money Appropriated to CPD in FY 2022 Come From?

CPD is funded through the Corporate Fund, grants (with respect to relevant services), the airport funds, the Chicago Police CTA Detail Fund, and the Controlled Substances Fund. Below is a summary of appropriations from those funds to CPD in FY 2022.<sup>34</sup>

As indicated above, the Corporate Fund is the source of most of the money appropriated to CPD. Since 2016, an average of 38.3% of the Corporate Fund was directed to CPD each year. The average size of the Corporate Fund over this time was $4,034,423,286, and $1,538,647,282 was the average amount provided to CPD from the Corporate Fund over this time.<sup>35</sup>

Grant funds are used for a variety of purposes and are provided by federal and state agencies, and private organizations. The use of money from a specific grant is, or may be, restricted to a particular purpose.<sup>36</sup> In FY 2022, CPD received 83 grants totaling $151,747,298.<sup>37</sup> The largest grant was the Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS) Hiring Program Grant, for an amount of $13,451,000.<sup>38</sup> That grant is from the U.S. Department of Justice and is designed to fund the hiring of law enforcement officers.<sup>39</sup> A full list of grants that CPD received in FY 2022 is in Appendix A.

Asset forfeiture is a source of funding for CPD that originates outside the City's internal budget process. Civil asset forfeiture is the seizure of money and property that is suspected by law enforcement to be the proceeds or instruments of criminal activity. Via civil forfeiture, the government may take possession of money or property without a criminal conviction, or even a criminal charge.<sup>10</sup> Once forfeited, the assets will remain in the possession of the government if the government demonstrates by a preponderance of the evidence that the property was used to violate the law.<sup>11</sup> Federal and state statutes require assets seized by police agencies to be reported.<sup>12</sup> In 2021, CPD reported to the state that it had seized assets worth a total of $8,192,379.<sup>13</sup> In the same year, the Department of Justice reported paying CPD a total of $420,205 in "equitable sharing payments of cash and sale proceeds" from seized assets.<sup>41</sup> For FY 2022, CPD reported receiving three grants titled "Asset Forfeiture,"<sup>5</sup> two were from the federal government for a total of $2,221,000, and one was from the State of Illinois for $2,113,000.<sup>6</sup> OIG did not conduct any systematic inquiry into CPD's asset forfeiture reporting obligations or the completeness of CPD's asset forfeiture reporting.

B | How Did CPD Use the Money from Local Funds in FY 2022?

- Cost is for livestock.

C I How Did CPD Use the Money from Grants in FY 2022?

The budget categories that the grant funds are allocated to are the same categories as the local funds. Fifty-four of the 83 grants contain funding for Contractual Services. Twenty-seven of the grants contain funding for Personnel Services. Nine of the grants contain funding for both Contractual Services and Personnel Services.

E | How Are Personnel Costs Distributed by Bureau and Office?

The majority of CPD's appropriated positions are designated in the Bureau of Patrol (10,769 out of 13,939, or 77.26%), and a nearly identical percentage of CPD's total Personnel Services cost is designated to the Bureau of Patrol (76.95%) (Figure 8).

CPD's spending on Personnel Services per position averages to just over $100,000 (Figure 9). When analyzed separately by Bureau or Office, average spending on Personnel Services per position ranges from $83,004 in the Office of Community Policing to $169,665 in the Office of the Superintendent. The Office of Community Policing includes 65 appropriated positions, including many non-sworn personnel. The Office of the Superintendent includes just four appropriated positions, one of which is the highest-paid CPD member, the Superintendent of Police (annual salary $260,004).<sup>53</sup>
