CONGRATULATIONS TO SCOTT FEAMAN

WHEREAS, Scott Feaman, an outstanding educator and public servant, is retiring as principal of Lakeview High School after almost four decades of dedicated service with the Chicago Public Schools; and

WHEREAS, Upon graduating from Northern Illinois University with a Bachelor of Science degree in August of 1972, Scott Feaman began his prolific teaching career at Lindbloom High School. Shortly thereafter, he began teaching at the Chicago-Read Mental Health Center; and

WHEREAS, In 1975, Scott Feaman began his twelve year tenure at the Durso Special Education Center. While teaching at Durso, Mr. Feaman returned to the classroom, this time as a student. In 1976, he earned his Masters of Science in Education from Chicago State University; and

WHEREAS, Scott Feaman left Durso Special Education Center in 1987 to become Principal of Earle Elementary School and also pursue a law degree at John Marshall Law School's night program. In June of 1989, he earned his Juris Doctor Degree; and

WHEREAS, After seven years, Scott Feaman left his principal's position at Earle to become the principal of Lakeview High School where he implemented improvements to an institution that has been a pillar of the Lakeview community since 1873; and

WHEREAS, Scott Feaman's contributions to Lake View High School include creating a math, science, and technology academy, increasing the number of advanced placement classes, effectuating a Student-In-Good Standing program, establishing a School Spirit Day, instituting a School Spirit dress code, developing the annual Veteran's Day program, and adding a state-of-the art science lab as well as a student-based health center and a new campus park; and

WHEREAS, Scott Feaman continues to be an upstanding member of Lakeview and continues to keep strong relationships with Alderman Tom Tunney and Scott Waguespack, the Chicago Cubs, the Friends of Lakeview, the Lakeview Alumni Association, and the Graceland West Association. It's hard to believe Scott Feaman had time to sleep while being involved with so many endeavors and preparing the future leaders of the great city of Chicago; now therefore

BE IT RESOLVED That we, the Mayor and members of the City of Chicago City Council, gathered together this 18th day of May, 2011 AD, Do hereby congratulate Scott Feaman on his long list of achievements and extend our very best wishes for health, happiness and success in all future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED That a suitable copy of this resolution be prepared and presented to Scott Feaman
